CCC Monument Dedication at RRSP Saturday, May 4

by Samantha Barberio

Roaring River State Park is celebrating the 80th Anniversary of the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) on May 4th, 2013, at 3:30-4:30 p.m. The event will be held next to the CCC Pavilion on Highway F and a spaghetti dinner will follow.

During the event, the park will be dedicating a new bronze statue honoring the CCC workers. The CCC was instrumental in making Roaring River State Park what it is today due to the camp that was present in the 1930's.

This event is about more than just the statue dedication, it's a way to celebrate the "boys" involved in the first Civilian Conservation Corps.

Naomi Shaw, Project Coordinator, has been working with her father Richard Chrisinger, a former CCC boy, for the past two years in hopes to raise enough funds for the statue. And finally the dream is coming alive.

Bill Bryan, the Director of Missouri State Parks, will be the MC and Joan Sharpe, President of CCC Legacy, will also be in attendance and speaking. A few CCC boys are also hoping to attend the event: Richard Chrisinger, a former CCC boy; Walter Atwood, past-president of NACCA; Herschel Hubbard, former CCC boy of Springfield; and Norman Nichols, a surviving CCC Boy that served at Roaring River State Park.

Company 1713 of the Civilian Conservation Corps. started off at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas in June of 1933. It then moved eight miles south of

RR Park number 1 in state of Missouri for trout fishing

Gov. Jay Nixon today announced that Roaring River State Park near Cassville has been selected by Missourians, through an online poll on Missouri's state website, MO.gov, as their favorite state park for trout fishing. Out of more than 150,000 votes cast, Roaring River received 73,344, or 46 percent, edging out Bennett Spring State Park for first place. The online poll asked visitors to choose between Roaring River State Park, Bennett Spring State Park near Lebanon or Montauk State Park near Salem as their favorite state park to catch rainbow trout. Roaring River State Park received 46 percent of the vote, Bennett Spring State Park received 44 percent and Montauk State Park received 10 percent of the vote.

A lifelong trout fisherman, the Governor also signed a proclamation naming 2013 as Missouri's Year of the Trout, encouraging Missourians to take advantage of the opportunities to enjoy premier trout fishing in Missouri State Parks. Missouri State Parks will commemorate the year with Troutapalooza, a series of events designed to engage experienced anglers and introduce new participants to the activity.

Troutapalooza will take place until the end of trout season on Oct. 31 and feature activities to promote fishing for all ages and skill levels. Activities include a passport program, fishing clinics, weekly drawings, tournaments, coloring contests and special programs.

For more information about Missouri's three state trout parks and Troutapalooza, go to www.mostateparks.com, or on Facebook at facebook.com/troutapalooza.

City of Cassville to begin meter replacement project

On March 25, 2013, the Cassville City Council approved two purchase orders for its upcoming meter replacement project. A total of $285,000 was included in the 2013 budget for the project.

The aldermen approved a $210,000 purchase order to HD Supply Water Works, of St. Louis, for the Sensus meters and parts. A second purchase order of $75,000 was approved for RTS Water Solutions, of Parkville, for labor costs associated with the project.

The Public Works Department has been replacing broken and failed meters with the Sensus iPerl technology over the last two years. Now with this current funding available, the larger project to replace and upgrade the remaining water meters installed at homes and businesses throughout the city can commence. The meter replacement work will begin on May 1st in the city and progress in a systematic manner over the summer. The completed project will greatly improve the efficiency and accuracy of water meter reading operations. The new water meters feature digital registers which will provide enhanced information regarding water use and potential leaks. This technology change will move Cassville from a "manual read" to "touch read" environment and will position Cassville to migrate to AMI (Advanced Metering Infrastructure) which is the longer range strategic goal.

RTS Water Solutions, who specializes in mass installation of meter replacements, will be switching the meters with support from the Cassville Public Works Department staff. In some cases, the City will need to gain access to the water meter inside the customer's home or business to replace the old meter with the new meter. The installation process typically requires 20 minutes and there is no cost to the customer for this meter change-out.

The City is pleased to inform customers that the Sensus' new metrology products comply with and exceed requirements set by The Safe Drinking Water Act and NSF/ANSI 61 Annex F and G that became standard in 2012. Changes to the Reduction of Lead in Drinking Water Act are taking effect on January 4, 2014, reducing the amount of lead permissible in water meters from 8.0% to 0.25%. The Sensus iPerl meters are zero-lead composite meters contain absolutely 0.00% lead. Water utilities will be acting now to implement zero-lead alternatives that are strong, durable and reliable. The completed meter replacement project will provide significant benefit and enhanced service to Cassville's water customers. Additional information on this project will be provided in future news releases. The City of Cassville appreciates the cooperation and patience of its customers during the course of this monumental project.

Customers can contact the Public Works Department with any questions at 417-847-4441 extension 16.

Jamieson takes position at Ozark High School

Rachael Freeman

Terry Jamieson, Cassville Middle School Principal, will be leaving the school district at the end of the school year to take a job at Ozark High School.

Jamieson was first hired to start the soccer program at Cassville High School. Jamieson built the soccer program to be respected competitors and took the team to the Final Four in 2005.

Jamieson has been a utility player for Cassville Schools during the last 13 years. He taught at the alternative school, the CHS Athletic Director and Assistant principal for nine years and the Cassville Middle School principal for the past two years.

In all of his roles, Jamieson has enjoyed watching the students play sports and took a lot of pride in student conduct.

"You should not be allowed to be in education unless you can love people completely.

"I've cared about every student I've had. I think of every kid and the parents I've dealt with and I would hope they know that I really did care about them," said Jamieson.

Jamieson's new role at Ozark High School will be as their Athletic Director. Jamieson, who's daughter Madison is a freshman at CHS, stated he wanted to be at the high school level with his daughter and this opportunity at Ozark came along.

"This was a very hard decision for me. Barry County is lucky to have a school district like Cassville that is trying to be progressive and do what it takes to keep up with the pace of the world," said Jamieson.

"There really are some decent people in this school district that give life up everyday for kids and just don't get the credit they deserve."

Jamieson is looking forward to the challenges that are ahead but is grateful for the relationships he has made during his time at Cassville.

"I am intimidated by the change. Thirteen years is a long time in one place. We'll have to build new relationships and find new friends. We are leaving behind a fantastic group of people," stated Jamieson.

Jamieson and his wife, Jill, have had three kids in Cassville schools, Jessica, Aaron and Madison.

"The greatest memory of this place is summed up by the picture that hangs in my office of me hugging my son Aaron after he and the football team won state. It's been a great ride."

Jamieson will take over duties as Ozark High School's Athletic Director as early as July 1st.

CCC from FRONT

Cassville at Roaring River that same month.

This was when Roaring River started attracting attention and over the next seven years the CCC made many improvements to the area including: 83 buildings, 17 acres of beach improvements, six acres of landscaping, roads, trails, bridges, and much more.

The Civilian Conservation Corps had a humble beginning. In 1933, the depression crippled the economy so President Roosevelt asked the Congress to pass a bill in which young men could find employment helping conserve the national resources of the nation. The legislation was passed on March 31st. The first man was enrolled on April 7th and the first camp was established only 10 days later.

The CCC enrolled young men to help the unemployment problem, and after seven years the camp had members from almost every state.

The workers had to be at least 17 years old and each man received $8 per month in cash while $22 was sent home to his family. Clothing and food were furnished and the men only got six days off per year. This small amount of money was actually great help to men and their families in the 1930's.

Within a matter of weeks from the program's beginning, 150 men arrived at Roaring River. About 1,500 men moved through the Roaring River camp during its years of operation. The men in the CCC were expected to keep clean and tidy. Also, many of them, during their time at the camp, took classes to get their high school diploma or courses towards their college education.

On October 12, 1933, the new quarters were ready to occupy. The men worked hard to build these "homes" and the buildings at Roaring River are still sound structures.

In 1934, CCC camp 1713 at Roaring River won the Seventh Corps Area award for having the best camp in the entire area.

Then on November 1, 1939, all members of the CCC, along with their equipment, were transferred to Pershing Memorial Park in Laclade County to assist in the development of the camp in that area.

The transfer left the CCC camp buildings at Roaring River abandoned. Eventually, the national youth administration, with the help of Cassville businessmen, civic organizations and Hugh Brixey, Superintendent of Roaring River State Park, joined the effort to save the CCC buildings.

Their help was successful and the buildings are now used for Camp Smoky. These buildings, along with all the other improvements made to Roaring River, leave a lot to remember from the Civilian Conservation Corps days.

Cassville FCCLA shines at State Leadership Conference

Eleven students from Cassville Middle School and High School attended the annual Missouri Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) State Leadership Conference, April 7-9, at the Holiday Inn Executive Center, Columbia. Cassville FCCLA joined more than 1,700 Missouri FCCLA members from across the state. This year's student-developed conference theme was "Mission Possible." The conference featured speakers and workshops on topics such as preparing for college and careers, leadership skills, bullying prevention, and technology's impact in education, careers, and on the family. In addition to leadership training, honors and recognition, more than 800 students participated in 33 competitive events, including entrepreneurship, culinary arts, job interviews, career investigations, and chapter service learning projects.

Cassville Middle School student Brenna Pendergraft received a Bronze medal in the category National Programs in Action. Cassville High School students Brianna Wiertsema and Taylor Wolf received a Bronze medal in the category Food Innovations, and Skylar Lowe received a Silver medal in the category Applied Technology. Advancing to FCCLA National STAR Events competition will be Cassville High School students Morgan Shumaker and Alyssa Pearman in the category Digital Stories for Change. Their video can be viewed online at <http://fac-scassville.wikispaces.com/FCCLA->

FCCLA National competition will take place in Nashville, TN this summer.

Senior Cassville FCCLA student Skylar Lowe, presided over the conference as a member of the Missouri FCCLA State Executive Council. Skylar was awarded the

$2,000 Missouri FCCLA Career Cluster Scholarship.

E-911 Center celebrates Telecommunicators week

Every year during the second full week of April, the telecommunications personnel in the public safety community are honored. This is known as National Telecommunicator week, it's a time to celebrate and thank those who dedicate their lives to serving the public. The E911 Center participates in the national event to recognize their employees hard work and dedication. The E911 Center hosted an open house day on April, 19th to give the community a chance to view the 911 Center and thank all the local dispatchers. This also gives citizens a chance to look at the equipment and see how everything works. Around 30 citizens showed up for the open house. The center then has a company picnic to honor the staff for all they do in the community. Many don't realize this staff gives up weekends, holidays, family events and normal hours to serve the public. An awards ceremony also takes place during Telecommunicator week. This year Eddie Laning was voted "Employee of the Year", he was voted by his peers for this award for the following reasons: takes on additional duties, works with everyone to sharpen their skills, always lends a hand, covers shifts, went over and above on developing the website and he is approachable while making a fun learning environment.

Gardening To Make A Better You

by Mark Underwood

Gardening has proven to be a good way to change your mood for the better.

A Norwegian study followed participants with mood disorders who spent six hours a week growing flowers and vegetables.

After three months, half of the participants had experienced a measurable improvement in their depression symptoms. Even after they stopped gardening, their good moods continued three months after the gardening experiment was over.

Gardeners love to keep records. It would be difficult to remember from year to year what plants did well and those that didn't thrive in specific locations, under what conditions, and especially if you have a large vegetable, fruit and flower garden. That's why gardeners love to keep photos of what they planted, before and after shots, and notes about their garden's progress. Since it would be difficult to remember every detail of last year's garden when you get ready to plant again this year, a photo journal along with written records can make you a more effective and efficient gardener. Those journals are handy reviews of what to plant again and what to forego. Notes written by hand or typed on your computer will also give you another benefit. When you keep track of your gardening accomplishments, you're apt to better remember the details. And what's more, you'll be boosting your brain health by sharpening your memory and recall skills.

Gardening, like many activities, can be good for you once you get going, but sometimes we all need extra motivation to accomplish our goals.

Don't blame your willpower for not getting outside and gardening. Instead, research has found that if you have poor executive decision, you may not stick to goals compared to people with excellent executive functions.

Executive function includes such things as planning and being able to thoroughly consider options in front of you, it also includes having a prospective memory. That is defined as having a sharp recall ability to remember to do things or say 'no' to other things like becoming sedentary instead of getting exercise.

The message is clear. When you take care of your brain health you will have better willpower. Cognitive performance, memory and willpower go hand-in-hand.

The great outdoors is yours to enjoy and with the added support of great nutrition and executive function, you're on your way to better brain health.

With this year's boating kicking off soon, the Coast Guard Auxiliary will be holding boating safety classes.

All persons who want to command a boat and born after 1984 must take a boating safety class. This year, the Coast Guard Auxiliary is giving their classes for FREE. There will be a class in Berryville, Arkansas, on April 27 at the community center.

To find more boating classes in your area, do a Google search for Coast Guard Auxiliary in Shell Knob. For more information about the Auxiliary, contact Phil Bailey, Division Commander, at 417-271-9116

Shell Knob Chamber of Commerce Annual Business and Home Show

By Paula Andersen

Friday evening was special for Shell Knob as it was celebrating the 26th Annual Chamber of Commerce Home and Business Show at the school gymnasium. Vendors, participants, and volunteers started arriving Friday afternoon to put together the event that would open at 5 pm and continue through Saturday afternoon.

The Central Crossing Fire Protection District proudly raised the American Flag at the entrance of the parking area to welcome workers and visitors to the day and a half event. This sight set the tone for the rest of the event. Conversations turned away from the tragedies of Boston and West, Texas, to pride and enthusiasm for living in Missouri.

There were several new businesses this year and no one lacked for visitors to their booths. Opening all the gym's doors enhanced visitors traffic patterns around the event but made it hard to judge just how many visited the show. Karen Elsey, Director of the Shell Knob Chamber, said, "All spaces were rented and there were compliments on how we handled the traffic flow. Several people actually found answers to their home problems that needed solutions, so several sales and services were sold from the show."

Lynn Worley, of KESA, Radio 100.9, was broadcasting, adding music, making announcements and adding an upbeat element to the show. On the hour, spring flowers were given away as names were drawn from registering at the door. Most of the vendors agreed that this year's show was better than last years and said they would be returning next year.

The food service was a part of the Senior Center Volunteers from the Central Crossing Senior Center. The ten plus members provided service for dinner, breakfast and lunch both days. Coffee and desserts were available at all times, all for nominal prices. Jerry Arnold, CFO of the Center, said, "We enjoy giving back to our community and this is just another way that we do that."

In addition to the large number of businesses represented, the local clubs were set up to offer the social amenities of the community. Lion's Club, the Eagles, and the local art group CASK were among the many on hand to provide visitors information on their activities.

There were a large number of visitors and part-timers in town as the dogwoods are beginning to show their colors. The bridge repairs over Table Rock Lake are almost complete. Visitor traffic is starting to build for the usual summer activities of boating, fishing and water activities. When all is said and done, this year's Business and Home Show was a success and sets the stage for Shell Knob's 2013 business year.

Hollister hosted the Purdy Eagles at Branson Creek Country Club on April 17th. Devan Keller lead all scores with a 46. Phillip Roller took second place with a 47. Giving the Eagles the top two spots for the second straight match.

Cassville Men's Golf League

The morning play began in a dense wet fog and most of the 32 players were bundled up as it was cool. As the day continued, the heat began to warm us and we finished in short sleeve comfort.

We used our new point system and the results were as follows: First place winners were Wayne Gillenwater and Dan Gipple. Second place winners were Jim Murphy, Allen Staats and Dick Worman. Third place went to Jack Shoup, Tom O'Neil and Gary Conde and fourth place was Dennis Cooper, Jack King and Art Nolan. Closest to the pin honors were as follows; Hole #6 Ron Wolf 10' 3", Hole #8 Bob York 51'3", a fairway wood was used to putt this one, Hole #11, Dave Cantrell 2'4", and Hole #17 9'8" Wayne Gillenwater. This first week of play has developed a high degree of appreciation for last year's leader Dan Gipple.

For any one out there interested in playing with a great bunch, we are currently starting at 9:00 a.m. Tuesdays. Come join us.

Kings River Ladies Golf League

Finally, we had a good week weather-wise and were able to get together for our first week of real golf.

We had a good turnout. We decided to play Fields and Greens for this first week so that we could have some team scores and so everyone had a good chance at contributing. We also kept our individual scores and all were quite good considering it was the first time many had played in months.

The winning team was made up of Barb Dudley, Annie Field, Kathy Wheat and Cindy Thomovsky. They were able to turn in a one below par score of 35. Linda Cantrell and Carol Hefley both got the first Birdies of the season on Hole #18 and Carol also took the Closest to the Pin award on 18. Low Gross went to Cindy Thomovsky with a 44 and Low Net was Annie Field's with a 29.

Come join us, if you can, at 9:30 a.m. on Wednesdays.

Tim's Trout Tips

Roaring River flooded on Thursday the 18th, but, as usual, it was up about 6 1/2 feet real quick, and then right back down to only a few feet over where it was before the flood.

In water like we are experiencing right now, the power bait fisherman does very well, you just need a lot of extra weight. With the high, dingy water we can use 4, or even 6, pound line for a few days, maybe even a few weeks, until it the water clears.

When I speak of extra weight, I mean two or three 3/0 split shot. Normally one is plenty, but right now a 1/8th ounce weight by itself is good; in the faster holes, we may use even more weight.

Power bait floats, so place the sinker about 24" from the hook. Cast out into the river with enough weight to hold the bait in place, and just wait till something grabs your egg, or worm, and swims off. Then set the hook, hoping the trout has the bait well into its mouth so the hook can be set effectively.

Best colors on the soft plastics have been, pink, orange peel, orange, white and chartreuse.

When the water is high, black, brown and skunk colored roostertails will always catch a few trout. I always like a gold spoon or a 1/16th or heavier marabou jig when it's high; black/yellow, white, dk. brown, and moss green jigs worked all day Saturday.

Fly rod fisherman did best on Y2K bugs, copper Johns, flashback nymphs, bright colored san Juan worms, red, orange, and black zebra midges did well fished as a dropper under the san Juan worms.

Black, brown, and dk olive woolybuggers did very well in the dingy water as did the larger holographic crackle backs fished on a sinking line or a very long leader. They worked very well in pools where there was a nice area of slower water along the bank. This is where a lot of the fish have been holding.

Tri color glo-balls and orange glo-balls with a red dot did very well the past few days.

You still need 9' leaders, but you can fish 5X tippet right now and it works very well. It will be a few days before we start seeing any dry fly action, but it will still be caddis and blue wing olives when it starts up again.

Water will be off-colored for a few weeks, but the water will drop a bit everyday, and we will be back to normal conditions in no time. Good luck on the river.

Chamber to host 27th annual Dogwood Festival

The Cassville Area Chamber of Commerce is currently finalizing plans for the 27th Annual Dogwood Car, Truck and Motorcycle Festival. The Festival will be held around the Cassville square on Saturday, May 4. Registration will take place inside of the court house from 7:30-9:30 a.m. with judging set to begin at 10:30 a.m.

The chamber office, located at 504 Main Street, is currently accepting early entries. The first 100 show entries will receive a goody bag, including a commemorative dash plaque, along with other items donated from local businesses. Entry fee is $20 per vehicle. Admission is free to the general public.

The Dogwood has a strong history in Cassville and is fun for both car enthusiasts and the general public. The event offers disk-jockey music and entertainment, food vendors, shopping and over 100 cars parked around the square. Our disk-jockey is sponsored by Four Seasons Real Estate. Event t-shirts, sponsored by Shumaker Tire and Wheel, will be available the week of April 29 at the chamber office and at the event. Along with event t-shirts, the chamber booth will sell ice-cold beverages donated by Walmart and 50/50 raffle tickets for 2 separate drawings starting at $200 each. 50/50 drawings will be held at noon and during the awards ceremony. Door prizes will be given away throughout the day to participants.

At 12 noon, participants will be asked to start their cars and rev their engines for the Dogwood tradition, "Thunder on the Square."

New this year! The Cassville Cruisers will host a special cruise in on Friday, May 3, prior to the festival. The cruise-in will take place from 5-8 p.m. around the court house and will offer door prizes, concessions, music and comradery between car enthusiasts.

"We wanted to host the cruise in around the square on Friday night to encourage people to stay the night in Cassville and in turn help our local businesses. This is also a good opportunity for our car club to get together and showcase our members' cars," stated Troy Lowe, Cassville Cruisers President.

Participants will have the opportunity to compete for 25 class awards and 31 specialty picks. Winners of class awards will receive either a first place trophy or a second place plaque. For a full list of classes, contact the chamber office or visit www.cassville.com. The following specialty picks, including the popular Dogwood Dozen, will be given:

1 Corinthians 1:18 – For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.

1 Corinthians 2:14 – But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness unto him; neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

Southwest R-V High School, is the daughter of Jerry and Kathy Henry. She is a member of the Southwest at Washburn FFA Chapter. Her advisor is Joe Moore.

quail has taught her responsibility, dedication and observation skills. For example, she must pay close attention to their growing patterns, nutritional needs, beaks and feet to maintain a healthy flock.

Henry, a senior at Southwest R-V High School, is the daughter of Jerry and Kathy Henry. She is a member of the Southwest at Washburn FFA Chapter. Her advisor is Joe Moore.

"I learned, through my SAE, that I love conservation and everything that comes with it," Henry said.

As an FFA member, Henry attended both state and national FFA conventions, as well as Washington Leadership Conference. She was awarded the State FFA Public Speaking Academy Medal and has competed at the state level in other FFA events. Henry has also been an active participant in state and national FFA chorus. In addition to FFA, she is a member of National Honor Society, Fellowship of Christian Athletes and student council.

After graduation, she plans to attend Missouri State University and major in environmental sciences with an emphasis in crop management. She hopes one day to obtain a job in wildlife conservation or in the field of soil and water conservation.

Vegetable Planting Calendar

Both first time gardeners and seasoned professionals can benefit from the "Vegetable Planting Calendar" guide available from University of Missouri Extension. The guide provides a complete list of planting dates and varieties that do well in southwest Missouri.

"Everything from asparagus to zucchini that is listed in the planting calendar represents the varieties that provide the best yield, quality and disease resistance under Missouri conditions," said Patrick Byers, horticulture specialist, University of Missouri Extension.

The guide also deals with when to plant certain vegetables by giving planting dates for south, central and north Missouri.

"If you live within the Ozarks plateau, you may want to follow the north Missouri planting dates due to the possibility of late spring frosts," said Byers. "If you follow the south Missouri planting dates for spring plantings, be prepared to cover plants for frost protection."

If you need additional gardening and horticultural advice, or want to obtain a copy of the Vegetable Planting Calendar (Guide sheet 6201), contact the Master Gardener Hotline at (417) 881-8909, download the file online at extension.missouri.edu or contact the nearest MU.

Kaiser places second in dairy production entrepreneurship proficiency award area

Stephanie Kaiser, of Monett, received the second place Missouri FFA Dairy Production Entrepreneurship Proficiency Award at the 85th Missouri FFA Convention. Kaiser, a graduate of Purdy R-II High School, is the daughter of Duane and Colleen Kaiser. She is a member of the Purdy FFA Chapter. Her FFA advisor is Dave Mareth.

Kaiser's supervised agricultural experience program began with her involvement in 4-H. She started exhibiting dairy cattle at age four in a peewee class. Her father purchased a cow for her at the age of eight to allow her to begin building her own herd. Kaiser's responsibilities currently include feeding and caring for her animals and maintaining milking operations.

An active FFA member, Kaiser has attended the national and state conventions and Washington Leadership Conference. Kaiser, a Missouri State Fair exhibitor, exhibited the grand champion in the FFA Guernsey Cow division at the 2012 Missouri State Fair. She is a junior member of the Guernsey Cattle Association and has attended the national Guernsey convention.

Through her experiences raising dairy cattle, Kaiser has developed her knowledge of milk production and animal care. She has learned the proper feeding techniques and breeding practices necessary to ensure the quality of her herd. She plans to continue to increase her herd size and diversify with other breeds of dairy cattle.

Proficiency awards recognize FFA members who excel as agricultural entrepreneurs, employees or volunteers while gaining hands-on career experience. Dairy Production Entrepreneurship is one of 49 proficiency award areas recognized at the state level. Midwest Dairy Association sponsored this award.

The Missouri FFA has 25,062 members representing 331 chapters. The national organization has more than 550,000 members representing 7,489 local chapters in all 50 states, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

The FFA makes a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education.

Wheaton FFA soils team places second at state

The Wheaton FFA Chapter placed second in the soils career development event (CDE) at the 85th Missouri FFA Convention. There were 47 teams in the competition.

The members of the Wheaton FFA soils team are Logan Moore, Cody Bobski, Brittany Harmon, and Brandon Mestas. Moore placed first, Bobski placed sixth, Harmon and Mestas tied for 42nd out of 180 participants. The advisors for the Wheaton FFA Chapter are David Bolton and Eric Roller.

The soils teams evaluate and analyze soil for characteristics critical to production capabilities.

Sponsored by University of Missouri College of Agriculture, Food and Natural Resources, this contest is one way FFA prepares student members for career success. CDEs engage students in the learning process and make a real connection to lifetime goals.

THE CLEAR ALTERNATIVE TO BRACES

The low-down
 You no longer have to straighten your teeth the old-fashioned way with metal braces. The Invisalign Teen™ system lets you do it the modern, hygienic way. Your new smile is created with the most innovative technology – a series of clear aligners that are custom-fit to your teeth.

The Aligners. . .

- snap on your teeth easily.
- are comfortable and practically invisible.
- allow for your growing permanent teeth.
- gently and continuously move your teeth in small increments.
- are worn for about two weeks. Then you swap them for a new pair.
- have a Blue Dot Wear Indicator, designed to show an estimation of wear-time. The dot is designed to fade to clear over a two-week period if you wear (20 to 22 hours everyday) your aligners properly.
- can be removed for eating, brushing, and flossing, or going to a special event.
