Objective and Purpose:

To promote cooperation and friendship among the breeders and owners of Brittanys and to encourage higher standards in breeding, training and showing of Brittanys in the field and in the show ring; to discourage the breed from becoming split into groups of "field dogs" and "show dogs" and to strive to keep it forever a "dual dog".

AVOIDING RETRIEVES IN SCENT DETECTION

By Carla Simon

Many Brittanys love to retrieve, but in canine nosework this can be problematic. One inspiration of Nosework is bomb detection training, where biting and retrieving are unsafe ways for a dog to indicate the presence of explosives. Accordingly, in nosework, “aggressive” behaviors such as biting and chewing are undesirable and may be faulted. Retrieving is not the best way for a dog to show the location of the target odor, especially when it’s in an inaccessible location such as 6 feet up on a light post, or inside a cabinet. I’m frequently asked how to prevent dogs from retrieving in nosework, and this article will offer some tips that have worked for many of my students.

For those who are unfamiliar, nosework is a new and growing dogsport that uses scent detection training techniques similar to those employed to teach dogs to detect narcotics and explosives. It’s an exciting race to find the target odor. In nosework, dogs search for the odor of an essential oil, usually on a cotton swab, either taped or hidden inside a metal tin, then hidden in a location that’s not easily visible. The dog then searches for this entire package, also known as a “hide”.

Your dog is more likely to retrieve nosework hides if (s)he has a history of rewarding retrieves such as:

- Retrieving birds
- Fetching balls and catching Frisbees
- Playing tug for agility
- Competing in formal obedience with dumbbell retrieves, and/or
- Retrieving gloves and articles during tracking.

It’s critically important to note that mouthing and licking odor are natural components of a dog’s experience of olfaction. Even dogs unfamiliar with retrieving, of all breeds and sizes, will tend to put their mouth at the target odor, licking, tasting and mouthing the odor to take it all in. Dr. Randy Kidd, DVM, PhD noted how “Search and rescue dog handlers notice that many of their dogs lick the air, as if to give additional input into their “scents-ability”<sup>1</sup>.

Taste and smell are integral components of mammals’ chemosensation system, which gives us information about chemicals in our environment. Have you ever noticed how food doesn’t taste as good when you have a cold? According to the American Academy of Otolaryngology, “much of what you taste is really caused by smell.... If you hold your nose while eating chocolate, for example, you will have trouble identifying the chocolate flavor, even though you can distinguish the foods sweetness or bitterness. This is because the familiar flavor of chocolate is sensed largely by odor. So is the well known flavor of coffee”<sup>2</sup>.

Since taste and smell are interdependent, don’t be frustrated when your dog mouths odor during scent detection. Nonetheless retrieving is undesirable in nosework, making it a tricky issue to deal with, especially if you want the dog to continue to retrieve outside nosework.

Rather than correcting the dog in any way for putting his mouth on the target odor, a strategy that generally helps deal with this issue while maintaining enthusiasm is to package and position the target odor in a way that discourages retrieving. For example, avoid hiding odor in soft objects such as socks, cloth bags, pipes and cylinders, balls, and soft toys, and look for ways to hide odor such that it makes retrieving unappealing and less likely.

The left photo shows my go-to green metal suet container purchased from a home improvement store in the garden section for approximately $5.00. When you place the odor inside the suet container, very few dogs want to retrieve the hide. Instead, they will be more likely to offer focused attention or a nose touch.

Similarly, when you position the target odor closest to the ground, dogs are less likely to try to retrieve it than if it was placed around nose level. (Having said that, lower hides may encourage touching with paws.) As always, consider the behavior your dog is offering during practices and decide if you want to continue to practice that, or change things up to encourage a different behavior.

One of my favorite ways to encourage a nose touch rather than a retrieve, is to place the target odor inside a double walled cardboard box with a round hole (approx. 2.5 inches’ diameter), as shown in the centre photo. Dogs will tend to sniff near the hole where odor is strongest, without trying to retrieve the box. Another option is to place the target odor inside a Rubbermaid plastic container. If necessary, you can put a weight (such as discs used for weightlifting or a brick) inside the box and/or tape the container closed, so the dog can’t move it around as much.

We’ve noticed that when you place target odor in a small tin (see right photo), many dogs tend to retrieve the tin. You can decrease retrieving if you adhere the tin very strongly to a surface. For example, I commonly use 3 rare earth magnets in a tin, attached to a metal surface with the addition of high tack glue dots. Glue dots are used to attach pieces of paper to a new credit card, showing the phone numbers to call when you activate your new credit card. They are available in rolls from Uline (http://www.uline.com/BL\_7550/Glue-Dots-Dispenser-Box) in both the USA and Canada, and result in very strong adhesion. The firm attachment of a hide with glue dots is especially beneficial in outdoor and vehicle searches at nosework trials, when you don't want the target odor to fall off the surface onto the ground, despite repeated enthusiastic bumping by dogs. The only caveat is that the glue dots stick so well, they are time consuming to remove and can leave a gummy residue or even damage a delicate surface.

While you're teaching a dog to indicate odor without retrieving, you are more likely to succeed quickly if you abstain from asking the dog to retrieve any other object for a while. The other key tip is to reward quickly. Use hides where you know the location (not blind searches), and click or say yes the instant the dog touches his nose to the target odor. The later you are, the more frustration behaviors the dog will offer, including mouthing, biting, chewing, pawing, digging, barking, etc. If you deliver timely rewards for the first few formative sessions, your dog will have a much clearer idea about what is wrong and what you want instead. Having an experienced teacher, or a training partner will be far easier, since one person can focus on leash handling, while the trainer focusses only on timely reward delivery.

The more repetitions your dog performs of finding the target odor and indicating by a nose touch, or any other behaviour different than retrieving, the stronger the desired habit is becoming. When you introduce other scenarios later as he gains experience, the dog will tend to default back to the first behavior: nose touch rather than retrieving, even when odor is hidden in clothing or on a plush toy.

Hopefully these tips help avoid undesirable retrieves of hides in canine nosework, and shape a more ideal indication behavior. For more information, or to share your tips and feedback, visit <https://noseworkblog.wordpress.com/>

Alice Taylor

To Alice Taylor, life is an adventure! She has been painting accurate wildlife and expressive gun dogs for almost forty years. Her work is in collections around the world, wherever hunters and dog owners appreciate fine art.

"October--Brittany and Grouse", limited edition print from my watercolor painting of 1982. It was the cover (in black and white) of both "American Brittany" and the "Ruffed Grouse Drummer" that year. Prints available.

Her paintings are based on her personal experiences with dogs, hunting and the outdoors. After some years in Alaska and overseas as a missionary, Alice and her husband now reside in Oklahoma, USA, where she is again painting full time.

Awards and exhibits include Ducks Unlimited "Artist of the Year" for NY State and Virginia; a one-woman show at the NRA National Firearms Museum; two exhibits at the National Wildlife Federation; Grand Championship in Creative Arts, Tanana Valley State Fair, Fairbanks, Alaska; designer of the Golden Retriever National logo for the 2009 Specialty; and others.

She feels her ability to capture both body and soul of a dog, is a gift from God--to bring enjoyment to her collectors and delight to herself as an artist. Alice accepts portrait commissions as well as offering limited edition prints of her artwork.

" Art should be beautiful, alive, nostalgic, appealing to everyone without pretext or doubt as to its meaning. I try to evoke the same emotions in the viewer and collector, as the deep emotion which prompted me to create the painting. You should want to smile and rumple the ears of the dogs I paint!"

2016 ABC Chukar Classic/Championship

Empire Ranch, Sonoita, AZ

January 19 - 21

Karen Nelson & Gil Hopper

Judge Dean R. Crabbs, Margaret Horstmeyer, Tom White, "Cali"; Paul Doiron and "Patch", Judge Chuck Cooper; Karen Nelson & "Ginny"; Peggy Doiron & "Vinny"

Hosted by the Grand Canyon Brittany Club, the running of the Chukar Classic was held under near perfect conditions - beautiful blue Arizona skies, no gale force winds, no snow, and no snakes!

The Empire Ranch at Las Cienegas ("Many Rivers") was established in the 1860's as a working cattle ranch. From its original 160 acres, the holdings grew to more than a million acres. It is currently under the maintenance of the Bureau of Land Management. The rolling hillsides are dotted with a variety of trees that break up the expansive pastures. Giant cottonwoods, as well as willows and velvet ash, hug the banks of the Cienega Creek. Oak and juniper thrive on the hills, with mesquite trees scattered throughout the drainages and hillsides. Native grasses, including Sacaton and many varieties of Grama cover the landscape. Over 60 species of mammals, including the pronghorn and coati, thrive in the area. There are over 200 species of birds, and over 40 species of amphibians and reptiles. Southern Arizona is best known for its five species of wild quail, yet the Chukar awakened the senses of the dogs to a different species of bird planted among the copious coveys of quail. It is a beautiful sight to watch the dogs cover the wide expanses and then lock on point!

We're thankful to Garmin for their support by supplying their brand-name banner, and a great tracking collar, which field trialers certainly appreciate. Thanks, too, to Purina for quickly replacing coupons for the dog food that went astray in shipping. We appreciate the both of you!

As with any event, the Classic could not have happened without help from our GCBC members and friends. Julie and Martin Maresh are a god-send when it comes to taking care of the birds, bagging them, as well as planting them. They are unstoppable when it comes to getting water tubs filled and refilled. Anything asked of them gets done! Thanks to our special GSP friends, Tim Baranski and Ron Yospur for all your support and help. We were grateful for the services of a local caterer for seeing to the hunger needs of everyone - this certainly took the burden of having to prepare meals off Gil's and my shoulders!

Our esteemed judges were Dean Crabbs from Oregon and Chuck Cooper from all over the USA (but he is based in Pennsylvania and New Mexico)! Chuck stepped in to help when one of our previously assigned judges couldn't make it. These two certainly know what it takes to be a champion in every sense of the word. They are both experienced in judging all-age dogs and have run dogs in all parts of the country. We were happy to have had them.

And now for Gil's part - the running of the braces:

BRACE 1: LUCY (DOIRON) & MICK (ROGERS). Lucy had a good hunt running at moderate range, with nice finds at 13 and 50, a NP at 17 and a back at 41. Mick had a good race (although a challenging handle) for the first 45 minutes, then faded significantly. He had a single find at 41.

BRACE 2: PETEY (DOIRON) & GABE (ROGERS). Petey had a good all age race and handled well, but went birdless. Gabe had a big run, but did not handle kindly. Gabe had a hawk kill find at 27, and finds at 31 and 42 with a few steps after flush.

BRACE 3: GINNY (DOIRON) & CALI (WHITE). This was the brace of the trial. Both dogs had nice consistent forward runs at all age range, with Cali having the better pattern. Both had excellent speed. Ginny had finds at 13 and 35 exhibiting nice style, plus a NP at 23. Cali showed excellent style and intensity on a find at 20, then had a NP at 55.

BRACE 4: RITA (WHITE) & SONNY (DOIRON) This was a unique brace as both dogs went birdless. Rita had a big AA race with a less handle than desired. Sonny had an excellent, consistent AA race with a great handle. A bird would have been nice for either dog.

BRACE 5: ANNIE (DOIRON) & POKER (J MARESH) Annie was not her usual self as she was inconsistent, not pleasing Paul, and he elected to pick her up at 20. Poker may have had too many birds, with stylish finds at 12 and 17 and a STF at 24. Julie elected to pick Poker up as his handling of the STF didn't please her. On a side note, this was the first time Poker was ever handled from horseback.

BRACE 6: PATCH (DOIRON). Patch was exuberant from the breakaway taking off to the front. He was found standing before the midway point of the course at 19 minute mark. Another find at 28, and a hawk kill at 39, plus a NP at 50. Patch exhibited excellent style on point, and excellent ground speed. He finished strong, but was a little flat in the middle.

BRACE 7: VINNY (DOIRON) Vinny showed excellent hunting instincts, with nice finds at 20, 24, 37 & 47. Vinny broke right at the start but was scouted back on course. In general, he was a little too lateral.

BRACE 8: TIGER (DOIRON) & RYNE (HOPPER) Tiger had a great forward run going, with finds at 7 and 18, exhibiting intense style on both. Unfortunately, the second bird was too much of a temptation. Ryne suffered a bit of bad luck, picking up a thorn early and was picked up.

2016 ABC INTERNATIONAL BRITTANY CLASSICS

The 2016 International Brittany Classics were held March 21-25 on the beautiful grounds of the Mingo Sportsman Club in Bloomingdale, OH. The folks at Mingo are continually working to make improvements to these wide open grounds. Newcomers to the venue were impressed with what they saw and vowed to return. To run an event such as this you need a lot of help. We would like to thank our major supporter, Purina, for their generous donation.

We had six very diligent judges who managed to judge the three Classics in one week's time. We would like to thank Grand Amateur Limited All Age judges Paul Richards and Ed Bartosiewicz; Grand Open Limited Gun Dog judges Meredith Mays and Rich Pristov; and Grand Open Limited All Age judges Stan Williamson and Scott Weslow for their hours in the saddle.

What would a write-up be without talk of the weather? This year was no different. WE held our breath through the mild winter and the groundhog's promise of an early spring. Looking back, I'd have to say we were pretty lucky in the weather department. While the wind did make things difficult on a few days, we didn't experience any weather delays.

We started Monday with the Amateur All Age Classic. This year's winner was JJ's Tasmanian Devil for owner and handler Joe Williams. Tommy Thomas handled Dave Webb's Glad Run Irish to the Runner-up honors. Other strong performances were turned in by Joe's JJ's Levi the Lion Hearted in third place and Jack Alexander's Chancey's Frozen Asset in fourth.

As the temperatures warmed up on Tuesday afternoon we started the Gun Dog Classic Woodland's Money Pit, owned by Karen Schram and handled by Jim Johnson was this year's winner. A close race for the Runner-up placement was consistent placer TNT's Raise'N A Ruckus, owned and handled by Tommy Thomas. Magnum High Velocity, owned by Vince Anderson, handled by Jim Johnson and TNT's Blazing Shoshoni Shake'N Bake, Tommy Thomas, rounded out the field with third and fourth place honors.

The winds really started to pick up Thursday morning, just in time for the start of the Open All Age Classic. Tom Tracy piloted Glade Run Irish to the win while JJ's Levi The Lion Hearted put in a strong performance to take the Runner-Up slot for Joe Williams. These two dogs have certainly been on a roll this spring! Two newcomers chased the winners with their performances. Remmi, owned by Jason McGuirk and Deanna Quinn captured third place and Romance's Texas Two Step owned by Julie Romance finished in fourth, both handled by Jim Johnson. Congratulations to all this year's winners!

The Southern Open Brittany Club's 2016

Southern Showdown™ Classic Grand Limited Open Gun Dog

Reporter Jay L Hallaron

The 2016 renewal of the Southern Open Brittany Club's "Southern Showdown" Grand Open Limited Gun Dog began at 9:30 am February 2, 2016 at the fabulous field trial grounds of Showtime Plantation, Bronwood, Georgia. This was the second running of the event on these grounds provided by owner Larron Copeland.

The Southern Open Brittany Club extends its gratitude to Purina and Garmin for their help in sponsoring this event. Special thanks go to Larron Copeland for allowing use of the Showtime Plantation property! Mr. Copeland must also be thanked for providing expert marshalling and the timely presence of the dogwagon when needed!

A special thank you is in order to Tom Ettinger and Patti Hunt! Tuesday evening they provided attendees with a wonderful shrimp jambalaya and island-recipe cornbread. Everyone that attended left very, very satisfied!

Lastly, no field trial can be successful without two very important groups of people, the judges and the entrants. This year's version of the "Southern Showdown" saw continued growth in the number of entries. The inaugural year of running saw 25 dogs entered, then it grew to 30 entries and expanded to include 33 dogs this year. The support for this event has been, and continues to be, outstanding!

The judges this year were Mr. Paul Daniel, Zephyrhills, FL and Mr. Ron Lambert, Vidalia, GA. Both gentlemen are and continue to be longtime pointer people. Their time in the saddle to watch and carefully evaluate the performances seen during the running is greatly appreciated. Quality judging is so very key to any field trial! Thank you!

As mentioned before, 33 dogs were entered and the event was run over the course of 4 days. Day 1 began with what can only be described as typical South Georgia weather in February. Following a clear night, morning fog rolled in prior to sunup and delayed the start until 9:30 am February 2, 2016. Six braces were brought to the line for the day. Day 2 proved to be only good for ½ day of running with 3 braces run as an incredible band of rain moved in at about 12 noon and doused the area with nearly 4 inches of rain before moving out the next morning. Day 3 broke with mild temperatures, overcast skies and very, very wet running conditions! South Georgia was already fairly wet with El Nino rains having been abundant. However, the additional 4 inches left the culverts full, standing water where there had been none before the running began, fetlock deep fields and running water in many low areas. A full day of running was completed with 6 braces being completed. Day 4 opened with much cooler weather, bluebird skies, drier course conditions and the final three braces being completed.

As seen in 2015, Showtime Plantation offers, or demands, dogs' abilities to run good gun dog races both in the piney woods and along field edges, display much more than adequate handling and stellar birdwork. In 2016 no less than 23 coveys of birds were pointed, at least an additional 12 coveys were inadvertently flushed by handlers, the field marshal and/or the gallery over the 3 days of running, and several lost dogs were found standing on coveys. Truly, the volume and quality of birdwork afforded entrants was remarkable and must rival the many storied field trial grounds of yesteryear!

Course changes had been made from the 2015 event. Minor course adjustments were seen on Courses 1 and 3. The most significant change was seen on Course 2 where it was less tight and provided more open space for dogs to show their races, while still requiring them to be able to cope with South Georgia piney woods. The improvement was seen in dogs' performances and birdwork. Generally, all courses offered more consistent terrains than seen previously.

The Running

BRACE 1: GREEN MOUNTAIN LUCY "LUCY" (LORENSON) / DR BLOCK'S REACHER "REACHER" (DOHSE). The dogs were released at 9:30 am. Both dogs shot through the small field from the breakaway and immediately took the left edge of the next big field. Lucy picked up some scent and stopped while Reacher failed to stop and was summarily picked up. No birds were produced and Lucy continued on, rimming two fields nicely as she went on point at 7 minutes. All was in order as the shot was made as the covey rose. She was seen again standing at 20 minutes. Another covey was produced in good fashion. She concluded her run at time.

BRACE 2: FC PURSUIT'S FLASHY CHICK "BONNIE" (DOHSE) / I'M YOUR MAN "GUS" (LORENSON). Bonnie and Gus were let go at 10:38 am and both began their runs going big! Bonnie disappeared in the piney woods shortly after being released and reappeared at 10 minutes only to disappear minutes later. The tracker was pulled at 31 minutes and she appeared seconds later. Gus was steady and ran a nice race. He had a stop to flush on a small covey at 1:30 and concluded his run with no other birdwork.

BRACE 3: CAMO COOPER "CAMO" (MERRILL) / PRIME TIME FULL THROTTLE "REMI" (CANTRELL). At 11:50 am the brace was on course. Camo, known for his aggressive style and solid run, lived up to his reputation. At 8:50 Camo slammed on point and as the shot was fired the covey rose and all was in order. Camo was later picked up at the handler's discretion. Remi ran a solid gun dog race that tended to be more moderate in range. Remi's only find was a covey at 12 minutes. The covey was produced and all was good. Remi continued showing good hunting pattern until time.

BRACE 4: THOMAS'S DIXIE "DIXIE" (CHERRY) / HIGH HOPES BIG GAMBLE "RILEY" (JOHNSON). The dogs were gone from the breakaway at 2:43 pm. Dixie ran a big beginning race and pointed at 16:45. No birds were produced and she completed her run at time. Riley ran a solid race and handled well. He produced a covey find at 51 minutes and all was in order. He concluded his performance with no other birdwork.

BRACE 5: WAYPOINT CHANCEY BIG WHITE "BIG WHITE" (MERRILL) / RUNNIN' ON FAITH "FAITH" (CANTRELL). Breakaway was at 3:50 pm on course 2. Big White and Faith began their work in earnest. Big White ran a big race, was lost with no birdwork and the tracker was out at 53 minutes. Faith ran a good, moderate race and concluded her hour with no birdwork.

BRACE 6: FC FINN MACCUHAL "MAC" (LORENSON) / PURSUIT'S SWHIZZLECHIK "PENNY" (HALLARON). Mac and Penny hit the course 3 at 4:55 pm. Mac and Penny both ran several edges nicely and ran good ground races. Mac slammed on point at 30 minutes in the piney woods and Penny backed with a single quail taking flight. All was good and both dogs returned to work. At 50 minutes Mac pointed and bumped the covey. Penny continued her performance to time with no birdwork.

BRACE 7: FC RAINBOW'S CHIK'N MCNUGGET "NUGGET" (MERRILL) / WOODLAND'S MONEY PIT "CHLOE" (JOHNSON). The competition began again the next day at 8:05 am. Both dogs departed in the first big field with Chloe taking the center portion as her own. At 8:30 minutes she had a stop to flush. As the handler shot and moved to her a nice sized covey chose to rise. She was collared and whistled on. Unfortunately she took that opportunity to circle back on the departed covey and was picked up. Nugget showed a very nice performance. She had a non-productive at 16 minutes. At 50 minutes she had a soft point and the handler moved in to flush. As the very large covey rose Nugget showed a breach of manners and exited the competition.

BRACE 8: PINEY RUN JAKE "JAKE" (LORENSON) / NOTHIN' BUT TROUBLE "TROUBLE" (CARTER). This brace was on course at 9:15 am. Jake was powerful and showed a very big gun dog race with several extended absences. He had a good covey find at 6 minutes and another impressive find on very large covey "off the trail" and deep next to the woods at 28 minutes. Both Jake and Trouble took some very nice, long edges when they were seen together. In particular was an edge no other dogs were seen taking and the show was memorable. Annie gave a nice overall performance throughout her hour but concluded it with no birdwork.

BRACE 9: FC WHISKEY'S LITTLE TIP "TIP" (JOHNSON) / RUSTY NAIL OF COOS "RUSTY" (LORENSON). What turned out to be the last brace of the day was released at 10:26 am. Both dogs went missing within the first 30 minutes and trackers were in use shortly thereafter.

BRACE 10: KINWASHKLY MIDNIGHT RAMBLER "JACK" (MERRILL) / GUNN'S-A-BLAZ'N "ANNIE" (CARTER). Jack and Annie were released on from the breakaway at 8:10 am Thursday morning following nearly 18 hours of rainfall. Conditions were surprisingly good although the fields were very soft and heavy on horses. Annie and Jack ran together and broke into the big field taking the rightmost edge. Annie tapered off as Jack continued on nearly to the pivot irrigation system. Both dogs moved through the next small field and Annie went on point near the pond behind the campground with Jack backing at 29 minutes. A covey flushed and both dogs were sent on. Both were sent on and Jack slammed on point at 30:30 minutes and Annie was standing at 31 minutes. Both handlers worked the cover and each produced coveys and shots were fired. With everything in order Jack took the lead and Annie went on point at 45 minutes, 53 minutes and 59 minutes. Each time producing multiple birds at the flush and all was good. Jack had his final find at 55 minutes. Both concluded their trips at time.

BRACE 11: REMMI "REMMI" (JOHNSON) / PALMETTO POINTE'S AUTUMN'S BLAZING STAR "AUTIE" (LORENSON). Remmi and Autie hit the trail at 9:24 am. Remmi was lost declared lost at 20 minutes and the tracker was removed from its case. Autie showed the gallery a very nice gun dog performance with proper handling. However, she went on to complete her allotted time without birdwork.

BRACE 12: PINEY RUN REX "REX" (LORENSON) / FC AFC PRIME TIME TEBOW "TEBOW" (CANTRELL). This brace was turned loose at 10:42 am. Rex was not pleasing his handler and was picked up at the halfway point. Tebow ran a solid gun dog race and remained energized throughout. His only find on a small covey was at 55 minutes in the piney woods. At the flush a shot was taken and all was in order. Tebow completed his time hunting hard.

BRACE 13: PINEY RUN HANK "HANK" (LORENSON) / FC EMMA TAYSHON "EMMA" (CARTER). The first performance of the afternoon was on course at 2:05 pm. Hank started out with a back and had a nice covey find at 18 minutes. As time progressed his race shortened and the handler elected to remove him from consideration. Emma showed a consistent, but moderate race the entire hour. She completed her assignment with no birdwork.

BRACE 14: BRIGADOON'S HI PROOF MOONSHINE "HOOCH" (JOHNSON) / BYE. Hooch was released on course 2 at 3:11 pm. Little was seen of him midway through the course and the tracker was pulled in due order.

BRACE 15: ZACK'S BULLET IN THE BORO BETSY "BETSY" (MERRILL) / JAKE'S ROYAL LEGACY "GABE" (LORENSON). This brace was on course at 4:17 pm. Betsy was not pleasing her handler from the beginning and she was picked up less than midway through her 1 hour. Gabe showed he had something to show and put on a very nice race with good handling exhibited. He had a find at 14 minutes. After an extensive relocation effort a large covey was produced at 17:30 and all was good. Gabe continued on consistently showing good form and function and ended his hour well.

BRACE 16: TRIUMPHANT'S COUNTRY GIRL SHAKE IT 4 ME "JINGER" (MERRILL) / SHAILORVILLE'S GUNNER "GUNNER" (LORENSON). The last day of the event began with the release of Brace 16 at 8:00 sharp. Both dogs showed great enthusiasm on a bright and cool day. In fact the enthusiasm was a bit much and both had a breach of manners on their birds.

BRACE 17: BREE'S MISS FANCY PANTS "FANCY PANTS" (MERRILL) / PINEY RUN LILY "LILY" (LORENSON). Fancy Pants and Lily were sent on their way at 8:30 am. Fancy Pants gave a good performance but ended her hour with no bird contact. Lily was lost late in the game. The tracker was pulled and she was found pointing the final covey of the event.

That concluded the 2016 running of the Southern Open Brittany "Southern Showdown" Grand Open Limited Gun Dog Stake.

ENJOY YOUR DOG

More Action Per Acre

From the excitement of local field trial competition to the satisfaction of competing in and winning national upland game hunting events, NSTRA members really enjoy their dogs. So can you. No matter what pointing breed you own, if your dog can locate and point birds, you can be successful in NSTRA's fairly conducted field trials which reward both quality and quantity in the upland gamebird field trial competition.

With NSTRA you can:

- Earn championship points and obtain championship status
- Compete in regional field trials, NSTRA National Championship Trials, Dog of the Year and the Top Performance award competitions

2016 Purina All Age Brittany of the Year Award (mid-season standings)

Your Pet, Our Passion.™

by Steve Ralph

The Purina Award is presented to the top All Age Brittany in the country. Points are awarded to dogs placing in one-hour All Age stakes, run under the AKC and/or the American Field. The award points are calculated starting with the National Amateur Championship to the beginning of the same event the following year. Purina dog food sponsors the award and an oil painting by Artist Ross Young (www.rossyoung.com) is presented to the winner during the ABC National All Age Championship each year. Here is a list of the mid-season leaders for the Purina All Age Brittany of the Year Award.

EASTERN NEW ENGLAND & SOUTHERN NEW ENGLAND

Exeter, RI
April 29-May 1, 2016

Recently on a typically beautiful spring weekend in Exeter, Rhode Island, the Arcadia Management Area served as the locale for a trial that was produced with the combined efforts of the Eastern and the Southern New England Brittany Clubs. While both clubs benefited from the alliance, by far the largest beneficiary of the union was the Eastern New England Brittany Club. Typical of many clubs, Eastern has fallen victim to declining membership, declining interest in the sport of trialing, rising costs and the availability of suitable grounds where the sport of field trialing is welcome. Arcadia Management Area was perfectly suited to the running of this weekend event. As area open to and managed for the sport of trialing is dwindling, the trial community is blessed to have this venue available.

With membership too low and too old to handle the running of an adequate field trial, and on the brink of failing forever, ENEBC was approached by SNEBC with the idea of joining forces and offering an event that would not only appeal to trialers in our region, but also welcome any newcomers to the sport. With it's last gasp, ENEBC accepted the proposition.

With that said, ENEBC formally thanks SNEBC and its members for the push to hold a trial this Spring and for their help in the planning and the execution of the actual event . . . notably Bob and Leslie Fleury.

There were many other hands helping as well that deserve just as many thanks.

The format for the trial involved Eastern running a single day trial on Friday offering open stakes with horseback handling allowed. Southern ran its walking trial over the two-day weekend offering both amateur and open stakes. Both clubs offered the increasingly popular non-regular Walking Hunting Dog stake, which allows participants with dogs outside the age requirements of juvenile stakes and outside the requirements of a finished trial performance to compete with their dogs. Our entry allowed sufficient time to break for lunch in the middle of a long day running dogs, to chill out and enjoy the camaraderie of our fellow trialers before eventually convening again at the end of the day for the announcement of the results and Happy Hour.

Long-time devotee of the Brittany and professional trainer Dave Marshall, as always, selflessly aided the trial where needed. And his contributions to the trial community were never more evident than at Happy Hour when Dave spontaneously thanked all for their oh so welcome support and encouragement at this very difficult time in his life . . . a very memorable moment for all in attendance that will not soon be forgotten.

Entries came from both inside and outside the New England region with some new faces in attendance and both ENEBC and SNEBC are grateful for your participation. Thanks go out to Michelle Sala for her hours of efforts in acquiring the judges for both clubs. And many thanks go out to all our judges for their hours in the saddle or on foot judging our entry. The helping hands I mentioned earlier include Henry and Sheila Wierzbicki, Mike Tiberii, Paul Arcand and Darren Kiley. Brady Seufferling and Maia McGonagle great job bird planting! Thanks to all who contributed in any way, however small or large.

Submitted by: Pat Carney, ENEBC

ANTHRACITE Weatherly, PA May 21-22, 2016

The Anthracite Brittany Club held its spring field trial on May 21-22, 2016 at the Freeland Kennel Club Grounds, in Freeland, PA. We had a nice entry with 65 dogs competing in 5 stakes. We were pleased that all three of our adult stakes offered majors to our competitors. The weather in the Northeast has been cool and rainy all spring long and that trend held for this weekend. Grey, overcast and in the mid-60s both days with some rain toward the end of the day on Saturday, thankfully after running was done for the day. Actually, the weather turned out much better than the forecast.

We were pleased that we had two junior handlers, Taylor Hoverter and Charlie Dreyfus, who ran their puppies in the puppy stake. Juniors are the future of our sport and it was great to see them out in the field enjoying their dogs and the competition.

Also, with her win in the Open Gun Dog Stake, Copley's Dangerous Three Olive Martini, owned by Lisa Pollock and Matt and Laurie O'Donnell, finished her Field Championship and her Dual Championship pending AKC approval.

Terry Hilliard once again made a great dinner for Saturday night, thus easing this secretary's burden quite a lot. Thank you all who helped. We can't do this without you.

Region III Amateur All Age Championship

The region 3 AAA championship hosted by the GBC drew entries from across the eastern seaboard in addition to a few entries from Midwestern folks. This championship used the single one-hour course breaking away from the club house lot for each brace. Weather conditions were reasonable for this time of year in Georgia. Wind and rain held off for the running affording good conditions for handlers, dogs and birds... Stake manager Jim Carter enlisted the assistance of Colin to run the dog wagon and to also supplement bird releases during the running while trial secretary Ms. Betty Morgan kept things moving between braces. Several folks contributed to the smooth running of this series of stakes which additionally included an open all age championship and three (?) other shooting dog/derby and puppy stakes. Notably Ms. Drew Carter served up several sumptuous meals to the owners, handlers and friends who attend this trial, and everyone appreciated the chance to showcase their dogs on grounds that continue to show improvements and sound habitat management practices thanks to the Georgia DNR and the Di Lane WMA staff.

Brace one of this year's Region III AAA broke away at 8:30 on Saturday morning under overcast and cool conditions with judges Mark Johnson from Illinois and Brian Riggie of Aleppo, Pennsylvania officiating.

The winner and others.

Several dogs demonstrated winning caliber performances during the running of this year's Region 3 AAA championship with the winner Piney Run Jake emerging from the sixth brace on day one. Jake is owned by Kent Petterson and was handled by Patterson as well. Jake put down a quality all age ground race during his solid one-hour performance that was forward, animated and included four finds at 12, 32, 37, and 57, each handled with class and style. The consistent and reaching application of this dog along with the quality of his finds separated him from other contenders. Jake finished the hour going strong as Patterson road briskly to collect his charge who had disappeared to the front as time was called...

The 2016 AAA Region 3 runner-up champion came from the first brace on day one. Piney Run Hank is owned by Rob Donahue and was handled by Patterson. Following a nice breakaway Hank was found pointed at 16 and after considerable flushing attempts and a nice relocation birds were put in the air. Hank went on to have 3 additional finds while testing the limits of the course and his handler's grasp. On two occasions including at pick up handler Patterson had to ride hard to find and collect his charge the last of which included the dog getting hung up with the dog wagon. Nevertheless, this dog's performance demonstrated those key attributes that make all age races so exciting and important to breed aficionados.

Two additional dogs showed sound performances during the running of this championship and are recognized accordingly. Kinwashkly Fat Bastard (Fatz) who was handled by owner Dr. Bo Ackermann, delivered a quality job for one hour while carding two finds at 25 and 38. Periodically lateral Fatz did seek out and find birds in his reaching application. And in the fifth brace, Kinwashkly Midnight Rambler

The winner was Glade Run Irish (Irish), handled by Tommy Tracy, and owned by David Webb. According to Judge David Medford, "Irish made the cast of the stake. After the turn back toward the clubhouse, he made a wide swing out to the left and stayed out there until he was found on point at the top of the hill. It was exactly what I wanted to see him do." Irish finished his hour with four stylish pieces of bird work.

Runner up was Kinwashkly Fat Bastard, handled by Tom Tracy and owned by Bo Ackerman and Leslie Andreas. Third place was awarded to Roustabout's Flat Out handled by Tom Tracy and owned by Ruth and Jerry McGee. Fourth place went to Piney Run Hank, a handled by Ben Lorenson and owned by Rob Donahue.

Southern Open Brittany Open All Age Championship

The annual running of the Southern Open Brittany All Age Championship was held January 25th and 26th at the DiLane Plantation, Waynesboro, Georgia, "Bird Dog Capital of the World." Twenty-five dogs were released to face the challenges that one of the premier field trial venues offers.

Thank you to Jim and Drew Carter for managing a very successful trial. Thank you also to judges Buck Daniels and David Medford Professional trainers Tommy Tracy, Ben Lorenson, Kyle Merrill, Ed Tillson and Kim Trafton handled most of the competitors. Congratulations to Tom Tracy for walking away with three fourth of the hardware.

The weather cooperated both days providing for a cool but clear event. DiLane offers enough open space for the biggest running dog to sow well but also

ST. CROIX Crow Hassan Park Rogers, MN May 14-15, 2016

The St. Croix Valley Brittany Club held its spring horseback trial on May 14-15 at the Crow Hassan Park Reserve near Rogers, MN. Weather for the weekend turned out to be pretty good for running the dogs with temperatures in the 50s and 60s with some wind to work with. Sunday afternoon was a sunny treat for us Minnesotans as we haven't got to see it much this spring. 54 dogs hit the ground making the pace of the trial very acceptable to all the participants.

I would like to thank all of the judges on behalf of the Club; Jim Brigham, Bruce Heiter, Susan Januschka, Bret Lindback and John Zeman. We appreciate your willingness to serve our Club and the handlers. A big thanks to the Chairman Steve Ralph for keeping things running smoothly throughout the weekend and a special thanks to John Lindback for running the dog wagon all weekend. Bret, Susan and Steve planted all of the birds going that extra mile for our Club. Thanks to our pros Tommy Hagan and Josh Holden for bring your dogs to participate in our trial. And a big thank you to all of the amateur handlers who came to our trial and a special shout out to those who came from Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin to support our Club with your entries.

Crow Hassan Park Reserve is a jewel right outside the big city. A natural, restored and reserved prairie grounds with a spacious campground for staking out dogs and horses. I would invite you all to come and trial with us next year.

Dave Carlson
Field Trial Secretary

Nebraska Brittany Championship

The 2016 running of the NEBRASKA BRITTANY CHAMPIONSHIP was held April 18-20, 2016 at the Branched Oak Field Trial Area near Raymond, Nebraska. The Nebraska Championship is hosted by the Nebraska Brittany Club and followed the regional club event held April 15-17, 2014.

There are some fine folks we need to mention for their contribution to the success of this Championship event. Claudia and Stan Truksa, along with Tom Maneely who are club members of the Nebraska Brittany Club. Claudia is the event secretary along with dog wagon driver extraordinaire. Both Stan and Tom planted birds every morning and Stan rode the event as the trial Marshall. We thank these dedicated folks for the many hours planning and working this event so that it maintains premier status among the Brittany world.

The Branched Oak field trial ground has a large lodge used to gather for socializing and meals. The meals are prepared by the Wagner family. Thank you goes out to Karen and the family for their continued support of this event.

The sponsors for the Nebraska Brittany Championship are Nestle Purina and Sporting Dog. Nestle Purina gives both money toward the running of this event and Pro Plan products for the winners. Purina is fed to several dogs running in this event as testimony to the quality of feed used in the Pro Plan dog products. Jim Moorehouse from Sport Dog provided a Sport Hunter 1825 training collar to the Runner-up Champion and the Champion received the Pro Hunter 2525 training collar. We thank these sponsors for their continued support.

The judges for this year's event were Mark Keegan from Colorado and Wesley Felt from Texas. These two judges were up to the task of three days of riding through cold and rainy weather to select the true all age competitors for this Championship.

Branched Oak trial grounds area provides ample space to show a true all age bird dog. The judges had several dogs to choose from with the all-age range, intensity on birds pointed, and the handling necessary to be named as the Champion and Runner-up Champion.

Thirty-seven dogs went to the line for this Championship. The Champion named for the 2016 Nebraska Brittany Championship was FC GEORGIA'S TEXAS TWO STEP owned by Travis and Clayton Tangen. The Runner-up Champion was KINWASHKLY FAT BASTARD owned by Bo and Reanae Akerman. Both dogs were handled by Thomas Tracy, Jr.

The third place was awarded to SNIKSOH LITTLE DIAMOND owned by Tom Wonderling and handled by Jim Johnson. Fourth place was awarded to RU-JEM LAST PENNY owned by Jerry McGee and handled by Tom Tracy.

We began the Championship on Monday with temperatures in the 50's and a hard rain. On Tuesday we ran the day dry but Wednesday began again with rainy conditions. Fortunately, the rainy periods did not produce thunder and lightning so we did not have stoppage in the running. Even though it was cold and wet we had birds in most braces each day.

The Championship:

BRACE 1: EZECHIEL OF HUNTER'S PRIDE-SCOTT JOHNSON AND RUSTY RIDGE PEPPER REY ANN-ED TILLSON. EZECHIEL OF HUNTER'S PRIDE had a bird early with all in order. The second bird was not as successful and the dog was taken to the dog wagon. RUSTY RIDGE PEPPER REY ANN had a couple birds before the handler picked her up early.

BRACE 2: KINWASHKLY TEMPO-TILLSON AND GLADE RUN-TRACY. KINWASHKLY TEMPO was lost and the handler asked for the tracker. GLADE RUN had a bird early but was lost before the hour.

BRACE 3: STONEY HILL'S PRINCESS FIONA-JIM JOHNSON AND MK'S MAGNIFICENT BANDITO-SCOTT JOHNSON. STONEY HILL'S PRINCESS FIONA was scratched so MK'S MAGNIFICENT BANDITO was dropped to Brace 20.

BRACE 4: HAL-JS SMARTEYES'S JOKERS EZ ACE-JIM JOHN AND CRESCENT CITY GIRL-STEINMETZ. HAL-JS SMARTEYES'S JOKERS EZ ACE was seen under a bird midway through the brace. CRESCENT CITY GIRL had three finds and finished the hour.

BRACE 5: MAXWELL'S QUICK SILVER-JIM JOHN AND TNT SIRIUS RENEGADE BUDDY BOY-TOM THOMAS. MAXWELL'S QUICK SILVER pointed a bird with all in order and finished the hour. TNT SIRIUS RENEGADE BUDDY BOY was lost midway through the brace.

BRACE 6: KINWASHKLY FAT BASTARD-TRACY AND FIRESTARTER'S CROSSED THE LINE-TILLSON. KINWASHKLY FAT BASTARD had two quail and a turkey find. He also backed his bracedmate. He had the range the judges were looking for as they awarded him the Runner-up Champion of the Nebraska Brittany Championship. FIRESTARTER'S CROSSED THE LINE had a bird find midway through the brace and finished the hour.

BRACE 7: TNT BLAZIN SHOSHONI SHAKEN BAKE-THOMAS AND ROUX-BEE-TILLSON. TNT BLAZIN SHOSHONI SHAKEN BAKE had two bird finds all in order. On the third bird find he took too many steps to mark the flight and was ordered to the dog wagon. ROUX-BEE was seen under a bird near the brace mate's second find.

BRACE 8: KOKOMO JOSEY JOE-JOHN AND DAISY-TRACY. KOKOMO JOSEY JOE was lost early. DAISY had two finds and was last seen at 40 minutes.

BRACE 9: CAPTAIN FINN-JIM JOHNSON AND GEORGIA'S TEXAS TWO STEP-TRACY. CAPTAIN FINN went the hour bird less. GEORGIA'S TEXAS TWO STEP pointed with intensity throughout the flush and shot. Her performance was consistent all age to the front and judges awarded her the Champion of the Nebraska Brittany Championship.

BRACE 10: REMMI-JIM JOHNSON AND UNCLE KRACKER-TRACY. REMMI had a good bird find and finished the hour. UNCLE KRACKER had a good find early but he was not pleasing the handler and elected to pick him up before the hour.

BRACE 11: CEDAR CREEK-TRACY AND TEQUILA SCORCHER-TILSON. CEDAR CREEK had a bird early but he was not pleasing the handler and elected to pick him up before the hour. TEQUILA SCORCHER had some good early effort but he was not pleasing the handler and elected to pick him up before the hour.

BRACE 12: LAPAT'S ROCKY-JIM JOHNSON AND TLM TALL TALE-TRACY. LAPAT'S ROCKY was seen going to the rear and the handler elected to pick-up before the hour. TLM TALL TALE went on point and self-released during the flushing and was returned to the dog wagon.

BRACE 13: SNIKSOH WINDTUCK WILLY-TILLSON AND ROMENCE'S TEXAS TWO STEP-JIM JOHNSON. SNIKSOH WINDTUCK WILLY had multiple good finds and had been going great, but was lost at time. ROMENCE'S TEXAS TWO STEP finished the hour birdless.

BRACE 14: PRAIRIE WIND SPARKY'S GYPSY-JOHN AND FLAT OUT-TRACY. PRAIRIE WIND SPARKY'S GYPSY had two good bird finds before the handler elected to pick-up before the hour. FLAT OUT was lost early with the handler asking for the tracker.

BRACE 15: LOST CREEK A SHOT OF BOURBON-TRACY AND TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG-JIM JOHNSON. LOST CREEK A SHOT OF BOURBON had a point and failed to maintain through flush and was taken to the dog wagon. TOUCH OF BOURBON LITTLE CHUG was having trouble keeping forward and he was not pleasing the handler and elected to pick him up before the hour.

BRACE 16: SHADY'S DESERT KNIGHT-SCOTT JOHNSON AND KASMIR-TRACY. SHADY'S DESERT KNIGHT had a good performance with bird work and finished the hour. KASMIR was scratched.

BRACE 17: WHISKEY'S LITTLE TIP-JIM JOHNSON AND MAXWELL'S LEGAL TENDER-JOHN. WHISKEY'S LITTLE TIP retrieved a live bird. MAXWELL'S LEGAL TENDER was picked-up before the hour.

BRACE 18: HAP'S SPICE RUM BECKHAM-JIM JOHNSON AND JAROUB'S BUZZIN BAYOU-TRACY. HAP'S SPICE RUM BECKHAM had one bird find and finished the hour. JAROUB'S BUZZIN BAYOU returned to the handler with a live bird and was taken to the dog wagon.

BRACE 19: SNIKSOH LITTLE DIAMOND-

JIM JOHNSON AND RU-JEM LAST PENNY-TRACY. SNIKSOH LITTLE DIAMOND had three finds and ranged forward for the hour and the judges awarded her third place. RU-JEM LAST PENNY had a bird find and a back along with nice forward race and the judges awarded her fourth place.

BRACE 20: GUNRUNNER DAKOTA BUCKSHOT-TRACY AND MK'S MAGNIFICENT BANDITO (MOVED DOWN FROM BRACE 3)-SCOTT JOHNSON. GUNRUNNER DAKOTA BUCKSHOT was not pleasing the handler and was picked up early. MK'S MAGNIFICENT BANDITO returned with a bird and was picked up to end the event.

Mid America Brittany Championship

April showers bring May flowers. . .but we aren't in Nebraska in May, we're here in April so we just get the mud! In spite of that, and some changeable weather during the week, the annual renewal of the Mid-America Championship hosted by the Missouri Valley Brittany Club enjoyed a robust entry and plenty of bird work throughout. Forty-three Brittans came to the line, and not a single brace went without bird contact (though the proper handling of all that bird contact is up to the dogs!).

Our judges for this event were Kevin Stonehouse of Clay Center, Kansas, and Tim Thaden of Alvo, Nebraska. The biggest thanks for the running of this event goes to Bill Cockrum, who is ably assisted by his wife Julie as well as Jack Higgins and dog wagon driver, John Savicky. Purina again sponsored our event, and continues to fuel many of our top champions.

Topping the strong field for this event was coming-four-year-old FC Sniksoh Little Diamond, a snappy white and orange female handled by Jim Johnson for owners Tom and Jane Wonderling. "Kate" is new to Johnson's string, having been with trainer Bob Burchett for most of her career thus far, and Johnson was a first time attendee to the Nebraska trials, but the team worked smoothly together to earn the Championship title. Kate charged off the clubhouse breakaway and out of sight into the hills, to next be spotted as we approached the rock crossing and she cruised the next hillside ahead of us. She was seen tearing across the country with impressive range before checking back in with her handler at the back side of the All-Age course, and then continuing with a strong forward pattern. Kate's first find was on a small hedgerow as we approached the pond, and she stood with excellent style throughout the flush and shot. She was out of pocket as we passed by camp and headed towards the wooden bridge, when we heard the distant cry of "point!" from her scout. We rode to the top of the hills on our right to find Kate standing at the meeting of two hedgerows, having a second find perfectly located. She was sent forward to finish her hour across the bridge on the Gun Dog course, where she maintained her forward progress and was again standing with high style just before time at a large thicket near the fish camp. Johnson could not produce a bird on his first attempt and as time was called he opted to collar his dog. There was little doubt that Kate's performance was the one to beat.

Taking the Runner-Up title was another of Jim Johnson's charges, six-year-old FC Lapat's Rocky, owned by Larry MacDonald. Rocky had the challenge of running in the rain during nearly his entire hour, but he rose to the occasion to impress the judges with a powerful, forward All Age ground race and three excellent finds. He scored early at the top corner hedgerow, a second time on the long treeline dividing the back of the All Age course, and again near time before the fish camp. He finished going away strong at the end of his hour to earn the Runner-Up spot.

Placed third by the judges was six-year old FC Crescent City Girl, who has also been with trainer Burchett until this spring when her owner, Barry Steinmetz, has taken over the whistle. This was their first hour placement together, no doubt a thrill for owners Barry and Petra! "Nola" handled well for her owner, maintaining a forward race and while seeking likely objectives. Nola continued building her range and independence in the second half and was rewarded with two mannerly finds.

Rounding out the placements in this large stake was FC Kinwashkly Tempo, handled by Ed Tillson for owners Leslie Andreas and Joyce Miley. Tempo's hour demonstrated great speed and ground coverage, with a forward searching manner. His efforts were finally rewarded at the back end of the Gun Dog side, where Tempo disappeared into a large tree-lined ditch, and a bird flushed just as point was being called by his scout, with Tempo remaining staunch. He finished his hour going forward over the next hill by the double gates.

We will spare reference to many dogs who frustrated their handlers during the week, but some others do merit a mention of their performance. FC Campbell's Razz-Ma-Tazz, owned and handled by Frank Campbell, and FC/AFC FireStarter's Crossed The Line, handled by Ed Tillson for owners Andi Christensen and Vicki Rankin, had an action-packed hour of multiple finds for each dog, including two stylish divided finds. FC KJ's Irish Whizky with owner/handler Ken Windom was impressive on the ground, but was unfortunately without bird contact. His sister, FC Stoney Hills Princess Fiona was handled by Jim Johnson for owners Phil & Louise Corlew; she had a strong ground race and two finds to her credit. FC Georgia's Texas Two Step, handled by Tom Tracy for owners Travis and Clayton Tangen, was braced with the winner and gave a solid performance with three clean finds in the rain. Jim Johnson had yet another contender in Hap Harrison's GFC/FC/AFC Hap's Spice Rum Beckham, who carded three finds during his hour. Ed Tillson handed Bernie Crain's FC Tequila Scorcher who impressed the judges, but was without bird contact. In the last brace, FC Roustabout's Flat Out handled by Tom Tracy for owner Jerry McGee had us sitting up in our saddles with an excellent forward race, three solid and stylish finds, but the string broke at about 35 minutes when he missed a turn and didn't make it back in time. We returned to the clubhouse for our last taste of George & Karen's home cooking, and awaited placements.

SWEET TEA-BRINED CHICKEN

2 family-size tea bags
1/2 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1/4 cup kosher salt
1 small sweet onion, thinly sliced
1 lemon, thinly sliced
3 garlic cloves, halved
2 (6-inch) fresh rosemary sprigs
1 tablespoon freshly cracked pepper
2 cups ice cubes
1 (3 1/2-to 4-lb.) cut-up whole chicken

Bring 4 cups water to a boil in a 3-qt. heavy saucepan; add tea bags. Remove from heat; cover and steep 10 minutes. Discard tea bags. Stir in sugar and next 6 ingredients, stirring until sugar dissolves. Cool completely (about 45 minutes); stir in ice. (Mixture should be cold before adding chicken.) Place tea mixture and chicken in a large zip-top plastic freezer bag; seal. Place bag in a shallow baking dish and chill 24 hours. Remove chicken from marinade, discarding marinade; pat chicken dry with paper towels. Light one side of grill, heating to 300° to 350° (medium) heat; leave other side unlit. Place chicken, skin side down, over unlit side, and grill, covered with grill lid, 20 minutes. Turn chicken, and grill, covered with grill lid, 20 minutes. Turn chicken, and grill, covered with grill lid, 40 to 50 minutes or until done. Transfer chicken, skin side down, to lit side of grill, and grill 2 to 3 minutes or until skin is crispy. Let stand 5 minutes before serving. 6-8 Servings

BLUEBARB PIE

Submitted by Bob Fleury
SNEBC

4 cups rhubarb, chopped
2 cups fresh or frozen blueberries
3 T tapioca
1 1/2 cup sugar

1 T butter
2 layered pie crust

Preheat oven to 425.
In medium bowl mix the rhubarb and blueberries. Add the sugar and tapioca and mix well. Let the mixture sit for 10 minutes. Roll out the pie crust and place the bottom layer in a pie plate with edges folding over the edge. Fill the crust with the fruit mixture. Cut the butter into small pieces and dot the top of the fruit with it. Top with the second crust and pinch edges together to seal. Make slits in the top crust. If you have a little milk or half and half, dab a little on top of the crust with your finger. Cook at 425 for 10 minutes, then turn oven down to 350 and cook for about 50 minutes or until top is browned

RECIPE REQUEST

I know that there are a lot of you that love to dine on the delicacies from the sea. I must admit that I personally, am not a seafood "Afishianado" by any means. As a result of my distaste for fish of any kind, I've never drummed up the courage to serve it – other than shrimp cocktail of course. My request this month, is for any of your favorite seafood recipes.

TRAININ' DOGS

Is Your Dog Ready for Hunting Season?

The anticipation has been building up for months, and it's killing you: Opening day is tomorrow, and you're headed out to your favorite covert first thing in the morning. The truck is packed, the weather looks like it will be perfectly crisp and cool, and all that remains is for the alarm clock to ring at O-Dark-Thirty so you can grab your dog, some coffee for the drive, and hit the road.

Let's fast forward to noon the next day: After a brisk start, your dog worked for about an hour, found two birds, and gradually began to stay closer to you and slow down. It wasn't much longer before you had a dog that was within gun range all the time – and before long, it was walking at your side, following you. Frustrated, you try to encourage the dog to hunt, but you've run out of dog power.

Why isn't the dog out there working to find more birds? There are lots of reasons a dog will come in stay close. It may simply be thirsty; or maybe it's feeling pressure, especially if the owner is overusing the e-collar. But both thirst and pressure are easily fixed: Give the dog a drink and keep your transmitter away from your finger.

However, the main reason we see dogs come in and quit hunting is because they're tired. What can you do when they run out of steam? When it happens, there's nothing you can do that day outside of resting your dog. What you can do before opening day arrives is have your dog as prepared for hunting season as you – or better. This means conditioning your dog for the work it will be doing; it's unrealistic as well as unfair to the dog to expect it to hunt hard for several hours when it isn't fit.

Several things go into getting a dog fit to work hard during hunting season. First and foremost is physical fitness. Does the dog have the muscle tone and wind power to hunt the way you want? To build a dog's fitness level, two things come into play: strength training to build muscle, and cardio training to develop the heart and lungs. This is actually quite similar to our human exercise programs, except we don't have weight machines or personal trainers for our dogs (except maybe in Hollywood!).

A good conditioning regimen begins with a visit to your veterinarian's office. Be sure your dog is in good health beforehand by having your vet do a physical. The next step is to make sure the dog has adequate fuel for the job, which means feeding a high-quality, premium dog food. Both the fat and protein content should be high. We personally use a food that had a 30:20 protein-to-fat ratio and would strongly suggest a food with at least a 26:16 ratio. Conditioning a dog to be fit will tax and change the body, and good nutrition is paramount to the body's ability to strengthen and repair itself.

Your dog now had a clean bill of health and good, quality nutrition. What's the next step? There's one more important area to consider, and that is the tires under the racecar: your dog's feet. Be sure the toenails are kept short so they will be less likely to snag and tear. If your dog is primarily a housedog, its pads are probably a bit on the soft side. Having a dog tear a pad or run it off altogether is not fun, so it's a good idea to help toughen up the pads as you begin your conditioning. One product that does a great job of this is a balm called Musher's Secret, available at many hunting dog supply stores.

The type of surface your dog will be working on will also play a role in this. Obviously, a dog constantly running on pavement will abrade its feet, so try to find grassy or dirt surfaces to train on. If your hunting area has a lot of sandburs and the like, you may want to use boots on your dog during hunting season; but if you do the prep work before then, your dog's feet will toughen up enough that you'll be a lot less likely to need them.

Now that the foundation is laid, let's get to the work-program part of all this. First we have to start building muscle. In humans, building muscle is achieved by resistance-training using weights. No, we don't have little canine exercise machines and barbells, but there is something the dogs love to do: pull. Wait just a minute, you're thinking, Rick and Sharon have spent countless columns on having us teach our dogs not to pull – now they're supposed to?

We'll clarify by saying that a dog should never pull on a collar or a lead. What we haven't mentioned yet is having a dog pull in what's called a "roading harness." This is a set of straps that go around the dogs body to allow it safely pull without pressuring its throat and neck, much like a sled-dog harness. They're also available at most sporting dog supply stores and are inexpensive. Also note that a roading harness is not the same as the harnesses sold in pet stores for leading a dog. The dog's understand almost immediately that when this is on, pulling is expected.

The roading harness must be sized and fitted correctly so it is comfortable for the dog and doesn't interfere with the windpipe or rub the body. The best way to exercise is to attach the harness to an ATV with a bar set in the front, but you can also have the dog pull a small cart or child's wagon with a little weight in it if you don't have one. If all else fails, you can use yourself as the resistance and weight by hanging onto the tow rope.

The goal is to have just enough resistance so your dog has to lean into the harness and pull to keep moving forward. For example, on an ATV roading rig the vehicle is moving along via engine power, starting out at a slow walk and gradually increasing the speed to the fastest walk your dog can do before trotting – you're creating enough resistance so the dog pulls. The dog isn't pulling the ATV; it is being restrained slightly by it. This is not about how many pounds a dog can pull.

The second component, building the heart and lungs up, is accomplished by both sprints and long, slow distance work. In both of these, a dog is running without a roading harness. The roading harness is for pulling only, which helps the dog

Rick Smith has spent a lifetime breeding, training, and handling National Championship bird dogs. His highly popular training seminars teach the "Silent Command System" to dog owners world-wide. During hunting season, Rick can be found on the Mariposa Ranch in south Texas.

Sharon Potter has a strong background in animal behavior, and has been training both horses and dogs for many years, with several National titles to her credit. She is an avid hunter and archer, and in her spare time is working on the first of a series of books on bird dog training with Rick Smith.

differentiate between pulling and leading. Sprints get the heart-rate up, and long, slow distance work increases stamina. Again, if you've got an ATV, just turn your dog loose to run with you as you ride it. A bicycle will also work well, and if your dog has to be on lead while you do this, with a little practice it can be accomplished. Whatever you do, though, never tie your dog hard and fast to you or to anything else while working at speed. The chances for injury should the dog stumble and get in the path of the ATV, pull you over sideways on your bike, as well as other potential injuries are there if the dog is firmly attached.

Use a leash that you can let go of, if you have to use a leash, and with an ATV, let the dog run freely. The long, slow distance work is done at an easy pace, while the sprints will need to push the dog to a burst of speed that is maintained for a few hundred yards. Always start a workout by letting the dog warm up slowly. Slow down and walk to cool down, and keep the muscles loose and relaxed.

And we cannot stress this enough: Always have water with you and take breaks frequently. Since summer comes right before fall, we've got to work our dogs in hotter weather than is ideal, so always be cautious of heat stroke. Try to work your dog during the coolest part of the day, usually early morning if possible.

With both roading and running, start with a short time and gradually increase the duration as your dog gets stronger – pulling may only be a few minutes at first. The most efficient way to use both roading and running is to alternate days. Pulling taxes the muscles, and they need a day or so between sessions to recover and build. On the days your dog doesn't pull, work on sprints and distance training. How much of this you'll need to do depends on the physical demands of the types of hunting you've got planned for the season.

The reality is that most of us don't have time to do as much of this as we should, so you may only be able to exercise a few times a week. But every little bit helps, so do what you can. Getting a dog fit for hunting takes a month or two of good, solid work; two conditioning sessions the week before hunting season is not going to help.

Now we can replay our scenario of opening day, and we have a dog that has the energy to hunt hard with much less fatigue. Our only hope is that we're fit enough to hunt as long as the dog is!

Three happy dogs in harness pulling. The ATV is going along just slowly enough that the dogs have some resistance to pull against.

Book of the American Brittany

1990-2010 EDITION

compiled and edited by
Jessica Carlson

NOW AVAILABLE

The Book of the American Brittany, 1990-2010 Edition is an invaluable source of reference and enjoyment for all Brittany breeders and enthusiasts. Expanding upon the previous works by Dr. Fred Z. White, Nicky Bissell, and Rheta Cartmell, this 320-page edition focuses on dogs and Brittany events between the years 1990-2010.

SUBMISSION OF AGENDA ITEMS

DEADLINE FOR AGENDA ITEMS: SEPTEMBER 15, 2016

All Agenda Items, officer and committee reports for the ABC Board Meeting to be conducted at the AA National Championships in Booneville, AR, must be submitted by September 15, 2016, to be included in the Agenda Book and put up for consideration at the meeting as per policy book stipulations. Early submission allows us to put the topics for consideration on the website and to get books to the Directors in time for meaningful input from the general membership. Action items submitted late and not in writing should not be considered as they are often not well thought out causing many problems after the fact. Reports that cannot be completed such as the Treasurer's Financial Statement and Futurity Stats, may be submitted by bringing 20 copies to the meeting, but any Action Items from any officer or director, committee chair, etc. should be submitted by the deadline.

ALL COMMITTEE CHAIRS ARE EXPECTED TO SUBMIT A REPORT.

PLEASE NOTE POLICY FOR SUBMITTING AGENDA ITEMS:

Items must be from an ABC officer or Committee Chair, or from a Board Member or Regional Club which has first voted on the item by that club's members. Items from individual members should first be discussed with one or more of that person's Regional Directors before being submitted and will be supported by fifteen (15) different actual signatures of ABC members. Since agenda items need to be presented by someone to the Board, one of the regional directors shall present the Agenda Item to the Board of Directors. (1992) (2008)

Please include a copy of the current policy in the Policy Book along with suggested wording changes.

We have always published Officer and Committee Reports in the ABC Magazine. This can be a very difficult task to accomplish since most of the reports have to be retyped if sent as a .pdf file. Please help us to reduce errors by sending your Agenda Reports in a .doc or .rtf format by email to the following:

1. ABC Agenda Chairman Hank Hartnek who will compile the Agenda Book and disk for the Magazine. HankHartnek@gmail.com
2. Mary Jo Trimble: Trimblemaryjoray@gmail.com (for compiling Action Item list for ABC Website before meeting) .
3. ambritmag@centurytel.net (for publication in the magazine)
4. President Dr. Robert Rankin: president@theamericanbrittanyclub.org

If you cannot send as a .doc or .rtf file, mail to Hank Hartnek at 6909 E. Camino Garcia, Sierra Vista, AZ 85650.

YOUR COOPERATION IN WRITING YOUR REPORTS, MEETING DEADLINES, SENDING THEM IN .DOC OR .RTF FORMATS WILL GREATLY HELP THOSE OF US WHO MUST DEAL WITH THEM AFTER THE MEETING IS OVER AND WILL HELP US HAVE A MORE INFORMED MEMBERSHIP BOTH BEFORE AND AFTER THE ABC BOARD MEETING.

A Little Competition

A Novella and Twenty-Two Short Stories

By Tom Word

Honor Perhaps

A dozen men and their work-weary mounts stood in the dust on the edge of town, waiting. Two held nearly identical pointers with reins unsnapped from their horses' bits. The rumble of an engine grew louder, then suddenly the black body of a Buick appeared, engulfed in its own cloud of dust. A huge man in a dark suit and gray fedora popped out of the right rear door and opened the front one for a small man in riding breeches, Norfolk jacket, and tie, his knee-length boots gleaming. Without speaking, the small man walked to his waiting horse and swung into the saddle. His fellow judge and the heavyset reporter had mounted their horses on sighting the Buick. Two African-American scouts took the pointers by their collars and led them forward. When all but the scouts were mounted, the man in the shiny boots said, "Let 'em go."

The pointers shot away to the west as the scouts scrambled for their saddles and the handlers loped forward, watching their dogs intently. The rest of the field-trial party, led by the judges and reporter, followed in silence. The scouts rode for the flanks.

The handler's concentration on their jobs drove from their minds the dislike for one another that had absorbed them while they waited at the breakaway. Like prizefighters at the opening bell, they thought now only of the task at hand. The wind came relentlessly from the west, as it had for two months, cool now at dawn, but sure to be hot as the sun rose white in a cloudless sky.

The dogs reached for small dots on the horizon, the clumps of poplar saplings the men called bluffs, where the prairie chickens sought shade. The dogs sensed they would more likely be a little away from the bluffs, feeding on grasshoppers.

The dogs covered the half-mile of parched prairie and entered the bluffs, first skirting the saplings down wind. When the riders reached the bluff line, the dogs were unseen, gone on for the next cover another half-mile away. The dogs were hidden in folds in the gently rolling terrain; a lateral cast here could mean a dog lost, the $900 purse forfeited. The handlers signaled their scouts to look wider. The handlers rode the course, judges and gallery following, all eyes peeled for the missing dogs.

The handler on the right lifted his hat, cantered forward. His pointer, the older of the two, stood in a buffalo wallow ahead. Dropping the reins, he swung down and pulled shotgun from scabbard, stepping past his motionless dog to flush. Three prairie chickens lifted, cackled away; the shotgun barked. The dog was watered from the handler's canteen and released. The other handler was now far ahead in search of his dog, the shiny-booted judge riding behind him, his scout out of sight on the left.

Then the scout's distant scream of "Point!" drifted to the forward handler and judge. They rode at a canter to the younger dog's point. The flushing scene was repeated with a different cast.

The judge checked his stopwatch. Thirty minutes gone. When he and the other judge had agreed to disagree at the end of yesterdays running, they'd announced: "We'll run Honest Abe and Little Abe for an hour at dawn. One of them will be Chicken Champion."

Groans of disappointment had come from all the handlers save the two in action now. But after their disappointment, the handlers realized they'd at least have a drama to watch, and in the hotel's beer parlor last night, the talk had grown lively at the prospect of old Abe and his son going head-to-head.

A year before, Honest Abe had been the lead dog in the string of the handler who now ran Little Abe, the son. But the stock market crash had wiped out Honest Abe's owner, and the dog had been sold by his bankruptcy trustee to a new owner with a private trainer. The handler who had broken and campaigned Honest Abe with success for five years was left with just three dogs in his string, one of them the derby Little Abe that ran now to challenge his sire. Little Abe, registered in the name of the handler's wife, brought in no monthly training check. If he didn't get a new owner-one who could afford the training and entry fees-he'd be out of business, another victim of the Great Depression, as these hard times would soon be known.

A find apiece and equal groundwork was how the handlers saw it at the halfway mark. The judges saw it that way too. Tension grew in every man's muscles on the sere Saskatchewan prairie this tenth day of September 1930.

The dogs were dots on the horizon again, the handlers straining to keep them in view. Then the dogs were swallowed by the terrain. The handlers and scouts rode on, looking, looking.

Little Abe's handler rode on the left, Honest Abe's on the right. Ten minutes passed and still neither dog appeared. What if both dogs were lost? A grace period was normally twenty minutes for an hour heat. But the judges had wisely declared, when the callback was announced, that the usual rule would not apply. The grace period for this winner-take-all callback would be what the judges declared when the need arose.

After twenty minutes, the dogs were still unseen. Little Abe's handler rode in desperation, for his livelihood depended on victory today. He left the course and rode to a bluff far off to the left. In the poplars, he caught sight of something that didn't look just right. Yes! A dog on point. But it was not Little Abe; it was his brace-mate, his sire. Nervous chickens scurried on the bare earth beneath the saplings. Old Abe was a trembling statue, his eyes bugged out as he watched the chickens.

He weighed his options. He could ride on and the dog would be undetected. Or he could flush the chickens, assure Honest Abe would get no credit for a find. (The judges were too far away to see the chickens fly.)

He spurred his mount away from the bluff, headed on to the front. . . and then he lifted his hat and cantered back toward the tall-booted judge. He heard himself yelling, "Point! Point!"

The judge, his once shiny boots now covered in dust, rode to meet him at the bluff, followed only by the reporter. (The rest of the gallery had followed the other handler.)

"You'll have to flush for him, Bill," the judge said to the handler.

Bill nodded sadly and got off his horse. The birds had run off, but when he tapped Honest Abe on the head, the old dog relocated in an instant, and the chickens were up and the blank fired.

The handler the judge called Bill had assured his own dog's defeat. As he gathered the reins to remount, he heard the reporter mutter to the judge, "Finest act of sportsmanship I've ever witnessed."

The hour ended, and the judge said Bill would have another twenty minutes to find Little Abe. He found him in twenty-five, on point dead to the front, but it was too late—Honest Abe was declared Chicken Champion.

Bill and his scout rode back to the breakaway in silence, Little Abe pulling happily in his harness. Why had he done it, called point for the other man's dog, cinched his own dog's defeat, his demise as a field-trial handler? He didn't know. It was not sportsmanship; he'd done unsporting things many times to win.

No, it was just that he couldn't cheat the old dog that had made his reputation, given him what success he'd enjoyed before the stock markets' crash had changed it all for him, and for lots of other handlers out here on the prairie today, their strings short, their bank accounts empty. He just couldn't leave the old dog. He'd done the sporting thing on impulse.

Back at the breakaway, where the Buick waited for the little judge, the purse check was handed by the club secretary to Bill's opponent, who thanked Bill for what he had done and offered a handshake, which Bill to his own surprise accepted. Then the judge called Bill aside, and they walked to the shade of a cottonwood. Making sure no one was watching them, the judge reached in a coat pocket and removed a thick roll of greenbacks. All hundreds, Bill saw in amazement. The judge counted out twenty and held them out to Bill.

"I'll give you two thousand for Little Abe. You keep him in your string. When I'm judging, you can't run him or any other dog, understood?"

"Yes, sir. Thank you."

Then the Buick was gone in a cloud of dust.

The judge unbuckled his spurs and pulled off his riding boots. His jacket lay neatly folded on the back seat beside the bodyguard. The driver took the Buick to sixty, its heavy suspension absorbing the potholes with little shocks that were barely felt by its three passengers on the deep cushioned seats. The judge reflected on the action he'd just watched. He admired honesty in field trials, had a reputation as the most honest and objective judge in the game.

Then his mind turned to his business, and he wondered if his shipment of Canadian whiskey coming in by boat tonight to his Milwaukee warehouse, would get through, or be hijacked by his rival from Chicago.

MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

Give the gift of a new membership... to give the opportunity to someone to learn about and participate in the American Brittany Club.

This membership campaign is really quite simple, we are asking every member to donate/sponsor a membership in the American Brittany Club. This "gifted" membership might be to a puppy purchaser, or a friend/acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.

This can work, but it is totally dependent upon your support. Please use the ABC application form in the back of the magazine to enroll a new member today. You may donate/sponsor multiple new memberships. The names of new members & ABC sponsors will be published in the magazine on a quarterly basis.

THIS IS OUR CHANCE TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE AMERICAN BRITTANY CLUB

The American Brittany Club, Inc. is a member club of the American Kennel Club and is the recognized breed sponsor by the American Field.

The Club is composed of many Regional Clubs located from coast to coast. Most hold a licensed AKC field trial for championship points in the spring and fall seasons. Many hold a specialty (conformation) show and hunting tests. The Regional Clubs hold meetings to discuss mutual problems, fun trials, training sessions and other events of interest to their members.

BECOMING A MEMBER: Full membership in one of the Regional Clubs carries an automatic membership in the American Brittany Club and will entitle you to the monthly magazine, The American Brittany. Associate Membership is available if person is a Full member of a Regional Club or immediate family member of a Full member. Full Membership cost is $50.00 per year and $5.00 per year for each Associate Member. Regional Clubs may charge higher dues. You may apply to join the Regional Club located nearest to you, or if there is none in your area, you may become a Member-at-Large of the American Brittany Club. Joining a Regional Club will afford you with the most opportunities for interaction with other Brittany owners.

GIVE A GIFT MEMBERSHIP: We are asking members to give a gift membership to a puppy purchaser, a friend or acquaintance who has a Brittany. All of us encounter people who may just need a little encouragement to become members.
