Features dovetail mounted bead front sight with adjustable rear and under-cocking rifle barrel hammer. Lock-up is tight however the safety is extremely stiff and does not readily move; additionally the hammer springs are removed, they are included with the arm however. A pleasing example overall certainly worthy of any restoration efforts or repairs necessary. (36573-8){C&R} (500/700)

1183. UNMARKED NEW YORK STATE MULE EAR PERCUSSION RIFLE About .44 cal., 34" barrel with an oxidized smooth bore. The barrel and lock are a plum brown oxidized patina with a near overall light brown oxidation. The gun features a pewter nosecap with brass single-spur trigger guard and simple brass butt and toe plates. The black Walnut stock rates about very good with a 5" crack on its left leading edge from the nosecap rearward and a 4" chip missing ahead of the lock; it is otherwise sound and pleasing. The lock functions but there is no half-cock rest. An attractive, Spartan rifle, worthy of a couple minor wood repairs. (36620-2){ANTIQUE} (400/600)

1184. UNMARKED PERCUSSION-CONVERTED FOWLER About 12 bore, 37" barrel with an oxidized bore. The barrel is a dark pewter patina with brown oxidation staining and plum toning. The lock plate is more plum-brown and is doubtless harvested from an older English musket, as-was the barrel. There remains evidence of some light engraving and remnants of a maker's name but it is no longer legible. The hammer is a very plain, unadorned American replacement; the original trigger is lightly sculpted and slightly fancy. There are two ramrod thimbles and tailpipe of brass with a brass triggerguard with pineapple front extension and engraved bow. The American gunsmith fitted stock is Maple and shows some nice grain figure rating very good overall. An antique ramrod is included, it is slightly short; the lock seems to function well. An attractive piece for over the mantel or den wall. (36620-1){ANTIQUE} (400/600)

1185. COLT MODEL 1877 REVOLVER FRAME Serial #100193, frame only. The metal surfaces retain about 80-85% original nickel the flaked areas a brown patina. There are a number of light impact marks and some light pitting in areas. The frame is completely stripped except for the loading gate and its spring. The left-side markings are still very good and the bolt screw hole on the left side has two small center punch marks on each side of it. (35698-66) {ANTIQUE} (20/80)

1186. CUSTOM TOMWAY KNIFE DISPLAY CASE This exceptionally-made wooden display or presentation case is constructed of cocobolo with a glass-topped lid. The case measures 13" long by 7" wide by 2 1/2" deep. Each section of the case is wood-pinned in addition to being glued and the edges are neatly beveled. The lid hinges on a wooden, full-length piano-style hinge and has two limiting arms, also of cocobolo, on the interior which support the lid and arrest its rear-ward travel. There are two wooden closure hasps on the front face of the case, also constructed of cocobolo. The interior shows an 8-compartment, lift-out tray with cocobolo dividers, the bottom of each section lined in a chocolate baize lining. While an exceptional display case for knives, the case could be adapted to nearly anything that that would fit in it dimensionally as the interior is removable and a new one can easily be fashioned to fit a firearm, single larger knife or whatever the new owner might dream-up. A small makers label is affixed at the rear of the case "Tomway". Really a super custom-made casing befitting the finest knife or accessory collection. (36829-3) (200/300)

1187. U.S. MODEL 1861 SOCKET BAYONET This is a rather nice U.S. socket bayonet removed from a Providence Tool Co. contract musket. The blade is 18" in length with an overall length of 21". The metal shows a light overall cleaning with steel wool or other very light abrasive and is now a bright silvery pewter patina. The base of the blade is "U.S." stamped and the right side muzzle of the socket is stamped with a capital letter "T". The locking ring is in place and operates properly. Included is a tompon of wood, likely Maple, stained a Walnut color. It rates excellent and appears more contemporary. A nice Civil War lot for the collector or owner of a contract or U.S. rifle-musket. (36560-5)

1188. U.S. MODEL 1816 MUSKET BAYONET The bayonet is unmarked and is an overall dark oxidized brown patina with some light oxidation staining and a few very light pinprick pits. The blade is 14 3/8" in length with an overall length of 17 5/8". Blade has a flat face and deep full-length back flutes and the socket features an L-shaped mortise and is made without locking ring. (36623-51A)

1189. RARE CONFEDERATE TIMED ARTILLERY FUSE LOT This is a sealed paper and cardboard packet of 5 three second fuses from the Richmond Arsenal. The packet is a tan waxed or varnished paper with fabric tear strip for quick opening. It remains sealed and is stenciled on its front in black "5 / 3 Sec Fuizes / Richmond". There is a tiny bit of ingrained soiling from the years but overall this is a nice packet, very seldom-encountered. (36723-1) (500/700)

1190. RARE CONFEDERATE FRICTION PRIMER LOT This is a sealed packet of 10 artillery friction primers for firing artillery, from the Richmond Arsenal. The packet is a dark tan varnished or waxed paper surrounding a wooden block which holds the fuses. There is a fabric tear strip for quick opening and, as mentioned, the packet remains fully sealed, the very ends of the primers making an impression in the paper at the top of the "box". The face of the label is stenciled in black ink "10 / Friction Primers / Richmond / Arsenal 186 " with the numeral "5" written in the appropriate blank in pencil...only barely legible now. The Arsenal was burned at its evacuation in April of 1865 so this is a very rare packet of primers. There is some minor soiling and handling wear present but a lovely box overall. (36723-2) (500/700)

1191. FRENCH CANE GUN BY DUMONTHIER 12 mm, 25 1/2" barrel with a very good, lightly oxidized bore. The cane's body is a flaking and lightly crazing deep chocolate brown enamel covering the wood surface through-which the steel barrel tube passes. There are the numerous dings and flakes and a couple very light drying cracks one would expect from the years. The wooden section which covers the breech and mechanism housing is a later contemporary replacement which fits well. The handle is of horn and is lightly jigged and grooved where it meets the body of the cane proper, now showing some light drying cracks from the years. There is a nickelled brass ferrule ahead of the handle through-which the trigger drops down when it is rotated. The action opens by twisting the rear to the left and pulling back to expose the chamber. Pushing forward and twisting to the right readies it for firing. The underside of the chamber area is maker-marked and shows Dumonthier's trademark "F" flanked by little brackets. These desirable breech-loading French hidden trigger cane guns were made by Celestin Dumonthier around 1885 (he was active about 1875 - 1900). What appears to be the original steel-tipped, nickel ferrule brass spring-clipped cane tip/muzzle plug is present. These are exceedingly rare as they were often lost. The mechanism seems to function well. A very nice example overall. (36832) (ANTIQUE) (600/800)

1193. COLT 1860 ARMY PERCUSSION REVOLVER SHOULDER STOCK

This is a nicely made reproduction shoulder stock for the Colt 1860 Army revolver. Serial #F531 on the lower tang, the brass showing nicely patinated dark ocher patina, appropriately aged chemically. The iron hardware rates very good plus and is a tarnished pewter patina. The hardwood stock rates very good with some minor dings and handling marks and a dark chocolate-brown varnish, with caramel colored streaks of the base wood beneath, possibly Maple. Really a rather nice stock overall that would be a nice accompaniment to your original 1860 Army revolver or would be fun to shoot with your repro. (35615-15)

1194. CARTRIDGE COLLECTOR LOT This lot consists of some interesting cartridge-related collectibles. The 1st item is a Frankford Arsenal 1816/1977-headstamped 308/7.62x51mm NATO dummy round which is heavy nickel plated. It rates excellent and sits on a turned aluminum base which is black anodized. The next item is a Rocky Mountain Cartridge 10 Ga 2 7/8" shotshell commemorating the St. Louis International Cartridge Show of 2003, it is new in its plastic sleeve. 3rd item is a St. Louis International Cartridge Show 2002 commemorative 8mm Mauser dummy round. This is identical to the dummy rounds once produced by Winchester Western, having a solid head with no primer pocket, this one shows a special commemorative headstamp and is as-new. The next item is an A-Zoom Ammo 50 Cal BMG "snap cap" dummy round. This particular one is 1 of 160 made for the April 2001 St. Louis Cartridge Collectors show. It features a special headstamp to that effect and is new in its packaging. Next are two Avon "Good Shot" Wild Country and Deep Woods aftershave containers, each made to look like a Winchester Super X shotshell, one yellow, one red. They are plastic, one still contains some product, they are otherwise excellent to as-new in their original Winchester Super X boxes. The last item is a commemorative 1968/1984 Chicagoland International Cartridge Show patch. The patch is vivid and shows cartridges with the skyline of Chicago in the background and measures roughly 7 1/2" square and is virtually as-new. A nice lot for the cartridge collector overall (35262-6)

1195. GERMAN P.08 HARD SIDE LUGER HOLSTER This is a nice 1939-dated hard side holster for a Luger pistol, spare magazine and loading tool (not included). The holster is manufactured by A Fischer of Guttstadt and is Waffenamt 323 marked on its rear, the manufacturer name is no longer legible but is identified by the Waffenamt. The holster rates very good overall with some light drying and very minor crackling of the finish. All of the seam stitching is tight and intact. There is some moderate crazing on the closure strap billet but otherwise a very good 1939-dated example overall. (36787-3A)

1196. U.S. MODEL 1887 CARBINE BOOT This Rock Island Arsenal-marked example rates very good plus overall. The leather is still mostly supple and shows only some very light drying, cracking and scuffs. The seam stitching is tight and intact for the most part, showing one tiny area near the rear throat where some stitching is missing. The front shows the "Rock Island/Arsenal" stamping, no date is discernible and the front lower of the boot is inspector marked "F.W.". The lower attaching billet is present showing some mild flaking with still very good black japanning on the buckle, the upper attaching strap billet is no longer present however the top lashing billet is still attached showing some moderate flaking and with a "W.T.G." inspectors marking. A very good example overall. (36628-8)

1197. U.S. PATTERN 1881 HOLSTER BY ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL This appears to be a 3rd type, 1881 pattern U.S.-issued holster made by Rock Island Arsenal for the Colt Model 1873 and Smith & Wesson Model 1875 revolvers. The leather is overall still mostly supple with minor and moderate cracking with some light flaking to a 1 1/2" area along its leading edge. There is slightly more flaking present on the cover flap. The "U.S." embossing is light but still very evident with only the remnants of the Rock Island Arsenal marking on the cover flap. The seam stitching is near overall fully intact and tight, there being a small 1" un-stitched section at the very top of the seam above the brass closure stud. The rear suspension billet is retained by 3 brass rivets in addition to the normal stitching, the opening is roughly 3 1/4" inches from the folded top section of the flap to the edges of the rivets. Overall an about good example of these dual-purpose, U.S.-issued 1881 pattern holsters. (36628-9) (500/700)

1198. US NAVY ARTILLERY FUSE BOX FROM PORTSMOUTH NAVAL SHIPYARD This leather Naval gunners fuse/primer box is in about excellent overall condition. The leather is supple and flexible with only the lightest amount of cracking on the closure tab billet. The seam stitching is mostly tight, the rear-most section has come unstitched from the left and right side billets, the bottom is still intact as is the front piece. The belt loop on the rear is intact as is the acorn closure stud on the bottom of the pouch. The flap is neatly stamped (albeit "upside down"): "P.N.H./N.Y.", Portsmouth New Hampshire Naval Yard, and additionally there are armorer or ship-board markings applied just above this: "2D PG 2", second deck, port gun No. 2. Really a very nice example overall, from the time of the American Civil War and the period just preceding it. (36541-7) (200/300)

1199. U.S. NAVY PERCUSSION REVOLVER CARTRIDGE BOX FROM PORTSMOUTH NAVAL SHIPYARD

This leather Naval cartridge box rates very good to very good plus overall. The leather is supple and flexible with only some light drying and crackling with just a bit of flaking along the flex point of the closure flap and along the very edges of the suspension billet at the rear. The exterior flap is embossed "USN" only a portion of which remains legible while the interior is neatly stamped "N.Y./P.N.H.", Naval Yard Portsmouth New Hampshire. The interior compartment is clean however there is no tin liner, and the cap pouch on the front retains remnants of its fleece lining and is intact. All of the stitching as well is intact and the seams are tight, the acorn closure stud on the bottom is in place; the outer flap closure billet is a later replacement that was stitched slightly higher than the original flap billet. Really a nice pouch, very seldom encountered from such a small Naval Yard as Portsmouth, still in a very fine state of condition. (36541-7A) (300/400)

1200. LOT OF GERMAN SHOOTING PINS

This lot consists of 6 pins, medals or placards, 5 of which appear to be shooting or hunting related. The 1st shows a target, feathered hat and butt of a rifle against an oak-leaf background with a riband which reads "Schuetzen Club DABV Munchen", this appears to be some type of hat device. The 2nd item shows a bronze or brass disk affixed to a stamped sheet metal pewter-tone backing with oakleaf border and rudimentary pin back. This shows an antique hat-wearing gentlemen taking aim, behind him is an image of a target. The border reads circularly around the gents head "Kapselschuetzen Verb. F. Wien u. N.O.", evidently Austrian. The 3rd item appears to be a badge from a German shooting club. There is a tower or other structure behind 3 pine trees, this backing a target with a swastika at its center, the target flanked by "19" and "43" the riband reads "Kreisschiessen Reutte", this surrounded by a border of oak leaves. There is a pin-clasp on the back and the decoration appears somewhat rudimentary in construction. The 4th item shows an image of a target, crossed rifles ahead of it with what appears to be the Hitler Youth emblem superimposed overall. Purportedly some type of Hitler Youth shooting badge. It is slightly convex in construction and appears to be soldered rather than riveted. The rear is marked "(RZM) M1/14", the pin back also soldered to the center of the target. The 5th item is a Reichsbund Deutsche Jägerschaft, German hunting society stick pin with St. Hubertus' stag head with a swastika between the branches of tines, appears to be of more contemporary construction. The last item is a stamped sheet brass appliqué which is nickel washed. This is the type of item that would go on a hat or perhaps hiking staff. It is marked beneath an Alpine village scene "Streitberg/Frank. Schweiz" and is from a village in Switzerland. An interesting lot overall, likely more contemporary than antique. (31666-3)

1201. LOT OF MILITARY RELATED PINS AND RIBBONS 10 total. 1st is a small bull's-eye-like red white and blue cloissonned hat device or collar tab. It is about 5/8" in diameter and constructed of brass with a blue outer ring, white inner ring and red innermost ring. "AEF" is inlaid in the center of this, above what appears to be a single inverted V, Lance Cpl. rank stripe. The next item is a single nickel silver Lieutenants bar with pin back, it is lightly tarnished. 3rd item is a very small Scovill Manufacturing Federal Eagle button about 9/16" in diameter rating very good. Next is a small Disabled American Veterans World War tie tack or collar device. It is about 7/16" in diameter and made of brass with a blue cloissonned ring around the outer edge which reads "Disabled American Veterans World War" showing a doughboy kneeling before either Victory or Columbia or a Victorious Columbia; the backing is missing. The next item is a small contemporary "VFW Ladies Auxiliary" pin or tie tack. The next item is a brass hat device or other of crossed flintlock rifles. The next item is a blue shield-shaped plate to which is affixed a silver hunting horn, the pin backs are not present. Also included with this lot are 3 British cigarette package commemorative ribbons denoting British warships. These items were popular in the 19-teens and 20s and were included in packages of cigarettes, sometimes they would show images of soldiers sometimes other items. These particular ribbons are about 1" by about 2" and appear to be from SDV cigarettes. The 1st shows the Royal Cipher with capital "V" and Commemorates the HMS King George V, a battleship super dreadnought of 23, 000 tons. The next shows a double headed eagle with castles on each wing, the ribands beneath reading HMS Falmouth, a light cruiser of 5250 tons. The 3rd shows a depiction of an Amazon Huntress, the ribands beneath reading HMS Amazon, a torpedo boat destroyer of 970 tons. An interesting lot overall. (31666-3A)
1202. LOT OF GERMAN OR NAZI RELATED PIN DEVICES 6 total. The 1st item is an Adolph Hitler 1933 rondelle, very much like the party pins, it is about 1" in diameter and made of brass with cloissonned red white and black enamel and features a pin back; these are known to be modern and not from the period. The next item is a similar party stick pin. It is gold-tone and is about 3/4" in diameter. There is a cloissonned red outer ring and a white inner background with exposed raised gold borders separating them, the swastika is in gold as well; this example is modern. The next item is a Luftwaffe parachute badge stick pin. The reef is ovoid and is about 3/4" tall. The background shows an older nickel plate or wash with the Eagle and swastika with a gold-tone wash, it has spilled over onto the pebbled background in the reef, not something that would ever have been allowed or accepted on a genuine article; it rates very good plus. The next 2 items are likely souvenir pins made by Stefan Merkl in 1978. They are each about 1" in diameter and seem to be souvenirs of a visit to the International Military Trials at Nürnberg. They are black enamel with a burgundy center, the outer ring reading "International Military Trials.Nürnberg." with the inner ring showing a hand holding scales of justice. They are pin back and still sealed in their plastic cover. The last item appears to be a Luftwaffe marksmanship lanyard. The oakleaf and Eagle appear to be made of aluminum. There is a gray cloth backing and a gray and silver web bullion thread over a cotton rope core, this can be seen through a number of worn-through spots. This article appears to be genuine and rates near very good. (31666-3B)
1203. LOT OF MUZZLELOADING CANNON ACCESSORIES This lot consists of a selection of cast lead round balls in .662" diameter; there are 2 bags of about 20 each. The next item is a plastic and brass powder measure, showing some minor oxidation which will clean. Next item is a sealed package of 10 feet of Traditions 3/32" diameter cannon fuse. There are some duplicates. (33444-73F)
1205. JAPANESE TYPE 14 NAMBU MAGAZINE This is a bright-bodied 8 round magazine without lower spring clip relief at the front edge. There is some minor oxidation staining and light freckling but it is mostly unobtrusive, the magazine retaining about 98% original plating. The aluminum base shows minor impact marks and oxidation but is otherwise very good. The magazine is marked just above the base at its bottom rear edge "2190/040/8656", there being some light grind marks in this area. The interior shows some light oxidation and likely would clean very readily with a little professional attention. A very good example overall. (36402-6)
1206. NICE LOT OF SWISS HORN POWDER FLASKS This lot consists of 2 Swiss powder flasks of flattened horn. The flask bodies measure about 11 1/2". They have been flattened and each show some ingrained soiling, light drying checks and some light insect damage on the rears of each. Both are equipped with heavy brass metering spouts with adjustable boche chargers with glass windows for inspection. The spring-loaded plunger mechanism seems to work on both, the forward-most edge of the nozzles showing some minor impact marks or light dings; both chargers are fully adjustable. One horn has an intact stamped brass buttcap, the others is no longer present. The horn which has its cap intact also shows a 5" drying crack along its lower edge. Overall a nice lot of very seldom-encountered Swiss powder flasks. (35461-35,36)
1207. WOODEN PISTOL PRESENTATION CASE This is a large-size wooden presentation case for 2 pistols with key lock (key is included). The external dimensions are 19 1/4" long by 10 3/4" wide by 3 1/4" deep. The exterior appears to be a walnut laminate with a genuine leather covering on the slightly recessed lid. The interior shows a light chocolate-cream colored felt lining. The interior compartment will accommodate two Savage Revolving Arms Company Navy percussion pistols or similar large-size firearms. The case rates very good overall with some minor light handling marks or scratches. (35528-87A)
1208. WOODEN PISTOL PRESENTATION CASE This wood presentation case will accommodate a single Mauser model 1896 pistol of standard configuration. Externally the case measures 13" long by 8 7/8" wide by 4" deep. Construction appears to be of mahogany with a nice 1907 Indian-Head penny embedded into the lid. The interior compartment shows a Spanish moss-colored baize lining and is blocked to accommodate a broomhandle pistol. There are 2 stripper clips of 30 Mauser included each with 10 rounds, the ammunition mostly bright and DWM headstamped. The interior of the lid shows a number of hot glue gun spots were something was affixed, likely a banner or some type of label. The key to the case is included. (35528-64A)

1209. UNMARKED GERMAN SINGLE SHOT TARGET PISTOL 22 LR, 10" part octagon part round barrel with a very good bore which shows strong rifling but with scattered minor pitting. The pistol retains about 90% fading deep original gray-blue. The hammer and trigger show some remnants of straw temper, also with some light oxidation and hardened oil. The pistol features a rightward- pivoting breech with rearward-pivoting extractor. It was designed with no half cock notch as it is a target-only pistol. There is a simple blade front sight and shallow v-notch rear sight and the trigger is quite nice. The fully checkered grips and slightly checkered forearm rate very good plus with only minor dings and handling marks. The right side shows crown B/U proofs, the left side showing the load the arm was proved for, it would appear in June 1911. (36393-370) {C&R} (200/300)
1210. UNMARKED GERMAN SINGLE SHOT TARGET PISTOL 22 RF, 11 3/4" part octagon part round barrel with a very good bore which shows evident rifling but with some scattered light pitting. The metal surfaces retain about 85% fading original dark gray-blue. This example features a leftward-pivoting breech with a neat rearward-pivoting extractor with a checkered thumb piece. As a target pistol, the arm features no half cock notch, the trigger quite nice. There is a simple bead front sight and stepped square-notch rear sight. The fully checkered pistolgrips rate very good plus while the forend shows a bit more wear rating about very good. Right side of frame shows crown and B/U proofs, left side of barrel is marked for 5.2 mm but no proof date is discernible. A few of the screw heads show some slot damage. (36393-372) {C&R} (200/300)
1211. UNMARKED GERMAN SINGLE SHOT TARGET PISTOL 32 CF bottleneck, 10 1/2" octagon barrel with a bright excellent bore. The metal surfaces retain about 98-99% later hot immersion blue, the frame now toning to a purplish-tone. The hammer is a dull gray patina showing evidence of a welded repair, as a target gun the arm is made without half cock provision and the trigger is a single-set. There is a drift-adjustable blade front sight and windage adjustable v-notch rear sight. The smooth walnut grips rate about very good with overall minor dings and handling marks and some added finish. Lockup is tight and there is the thinnest sliver of light between the breech face and the standing breech. The only marking on the gun is a crown v on the underside of the barrel ahead of frame, it does not appear to be a British proof. A rather nice example overall that likely would shoot rather well once the caliber is determined. (36393-371) {C&R} (200/300)
1212. BELGIAN SINGLE SHOT PARLOR PISTOL serial #10924, 22 CB cap, 9 1/2" octagon barrel with a very good, finely rifled bore which shows light frosting. The barrel retains about 95% original bright blue which is quite nice quality, with scattered minor dings and handling marks and fading to pewter on the sharp edges. The action frame retains some generous traces of gray and blue color case-hardening with some very nice, loose scroll to the rear of the hammer on the tang. In addition to Belgian proofs and a maker's mark of "ML" (beneath crown), the gun is British proofed on its barrel, hammer and pivoting breech. The European walnut stock rates very good plus with only minor dings and handling marks from the years. Features a nicely fluted grip area and foliate carved forend with background stippling. The chiseled buttcap shows strong amounts, perhaps 40%, original blue while the triggerguard shows only traces. The guard has a nice single spur and shows loose scroll on its front and rear extensions as well as on the bow. The arm features both half and full cock notches and is equipped with a single-set trigger. Simple bead front sight and shallow v-notch rears are in place on the barrel. The mechanism is overall crisp and mechanically functional. A very attractive Belgian single shot target pistol that went across the channel at some point. (36393-367) {ANTIQUÉ} (250/350)
1213. UNMARKED BELGIAN WARRANT'S BREECH-STYLE SINGLE SHOT TARGET PISTOL .25 Cal CF (straight case), 9 1/4" octagon barrel with a very good plus to near excellent bore. The barrel retains about 75% dark gray-blue fading original blue, the loss due to flaking to brown. The forward-pivoting breech, hammer and remaining metal surfaces are primarily a pewter gunmetal gray with light oxidation staining. There are light sprays of loose engraving on the sides and top of the breech block, tang and on the front extension and bow of the guard. The European walnut stock rates about very good as lightly refinished, with remnants of minor dings and handling marks from the years. The grip is lightly ribbed, the forearm is smooth and there is a small 3/4" crack along its right edge which seems to have been repaired. The pistol features a simple thin blade front sight and a shallow v-notch rear sight and is equipped with double set triggers. As a target pistol it appears to have a full cock notch only and no half-cock notch. A somewhat attractive, unmarked Belgian target pistol that exhibits German proofs as well on the underside of the barrel. (36393-366) {ANTIQUÉ} (175/275)
1214. UNMARKED GERMAN WARRANT'S PATENT BREECH-STYLE SINGLE SHOT TARGET PISTOL .35 Cal CF, (bottleneck style cartridge), 10 1/4" octagon barrel with a bright excellent bore. The barrel is now primarily a dull gunmetal gray with overall specklings of brown oxidation. The forward-pivoting breech block and frame show remnants of some smoky color case-hardening, the breech block with some colors remaining. There are sprays of very light scroll engraving along with borderline embellishment. The front extension of the triggerguard is nicely cross-hatch engraved and there is some light engraving on the bow. There is a simple barleycorn style front sight and v-notch rear sight which is adjustable for windage. The European walnut stock rates very good as nicely refinished, some of the metal now being slightly proud of the wood. The checkering is still crisp and there are minor dings and handling marks present. The gun is equipped with double set triggers and as a target arm has no half cock notch but seems to function well at full cock. There are German crown B/U proofs on the right side of the breech and British crown V proofs on both the barrel and the pivoting breech; a few of the screw slots show some light damage but the gun seems to function well. (36393-365) {C&R} (200/300)

1215. BELGIAN PREVOST PATENT SINGLE SHOT TARGET PISTOL serial #6044, 32 RF short, 8 7/8" octagon barrel with a poor bore. The metal surfaces are an overall dull gray-pewter patina with an overall speckling of light oxidation and some scattered pinprick pitting. There are remnants of light flowing foliate scroll on the tang and spine of hammer as well as on the front extension and bow of the guard. There is a simple brass bead front sight and shallow u-notch rear and the gun is single-trigger equipped. The stock rates good to near very good with overall minor dings, dents and handling marks but appears unmolested. The grip is ribbed and the buttcap lightly chiseled and engraved while the forestock shows some nice rococo carving. The gun seems to function properly mechanically. Left side of barrel is patentee marked "Prevost & Vot /Bte". (36393-368) {C&R} (100/200)

1216. BELGIAN SINGLE SHOT TARGET PISTOL serial #2166, 22 short, 9 1/4" octagon barrel with an about very good bore. The metal surfaces retain about 90% later hot immersion blue; the hammer and trigger are polished bright. The gun is equipped with a heavy replacement brass front sight with no blade and a square-notch rear. There is some minor engraving on the tang of the stock and the front extension and bow of the guard. The underside of the barrel shows a maker's name which cannot be discerned as the die was broken when stamped. The triggerguard is equipped with a single spur and shows a very fancy flourish behind the trigger. The stock rates very good plus as lightly cleaned, retaining some minor dings and handling marks with a near fully checkered grip showing only some light bruises and a checkered forearm. The gun will not hold on full cock but the hammer is caught soundly by the half-cock notch. An interesting antique single shot pistol overall needing some minor mechanical attention. (36393-369) {ANTIQUÉ} (150/250)

1217. BRITISH PERCUSSION COAT PISTOL BY DEANE About .54 cal., 8" octagon barrel with an about very good smooth bore. The barrel is an overall silver gray patina with remnants of light oxidation staining and light pitting at its left side muzzle. The top is maker marked "G & J Deane London Bridge" with the hooked breech bolster showing a light spray of engraving and gold inlaid band with the tang showing a bit more of the same nice quality engraving. There is a simple iron blade front sight and tombstone rear sight with tiny slot and the bolster features a platinum blowout plug. The lockplate is also maker-marked and shows loose scroll engraving which continues onto the hammer, the lockplate also with borderline geometric engraving. The ramrod is retained through a simple unadorned thimble with a lightly engraved tailpipe, also with the triggerguard showing a finial front extension which is engraved, the bow is engraved to similarly the lock. There is an iron trapdoor grip-cap in place which is lightly engraved in a floral and scroll motif. The English walnut stock rates about very good as refinished many years ago, the metal now mostly proud overall. There is a German silver nose-cap and oval German silver wedge escutcheons and a rectangular monogram plate atop the wrist which is un-engraved. The spur has broken off the hammer but the lock seems to function well mechanically and what is likely the original brass-tip ramrod is included, its lower section has broken off and is missing. (36338-3) {ANTIQUÉ} (300/500)

1218. U.S. REGULATION 38 CALIBER HOLSTER BY ROCK ISLAND ARSENAL This is a 5th type, 38 caliber revolver holster in brown leather. The leather is overall mostly supple showing only some light crackling on the flex point of the flap, the body with a few minor scuffs and handling marks; all the stitching is intact. The embossed "U.S." is still very legible and the rear suspension billet is stamped "Rock Island/Arsenal/1909/H.E.K.". The lanyard loop is intact and there is a lashing thong pigtailed to it and the cover flap is neatly stamped "P (or perhaps R)" "1" beneath which is a capital letter "A" and the number "72". This holster will accommodate the Colt Model 1892-1905 family of revolvers as well as Smith & Wesson Military and Police-size revolvers, it will not accommodate any of the large frame 38 or 45 caliber revolvers. Included with the holster is an original woven-cord 1st World War-era lanyard loop with stamped metal clip endpiece showing the February 20, 1917 patent date. Really a nice holster-lanyard combination overall with the added bonus of some neat flap markings. (35865-259A)

1219. U.S. REGULATION 45 CALIBER PATTERN 1909 HOLSTER BY GRATON & KNIGHT This is a brown leather flap holster with the leather still overall supple and smooth showing no mentionable crackling nor flaking, the body showing only some light scuffs and handling marks; all the stitching is intact. The embossed "U.S." is still very legible and the rear suspension billet is stamped "G.&K./1917/A.G.". By design this holster is supposed to accommodate both Colt and Smith & Wesson 45 caliber revolvers, although the Smith & Wesson Model 1917 will fit very well, the Colt New Service seems too large to fit. The lanyard loop is intact as is a pigtailed thong with the additional cartridge belt attaching thong at the leading edge of the holster also intact. Included with the holster is an original woven-cord 1st World War-era lanyard loop with stamped metal clip endpiece showing the February 20, 1917 patent date. A very nice holster-lanyard combination overall from the era of the Great War. (35865-262A)

1220. U.S. REGULATION MODEL 1912 HOLSTER FOR MODEL 1911 .45 caliber pistol This is a brown leather flap holster with swiveling suspension piece. The leather is overall supple and smooth with only very minor handling marks and some extremely light crackling on the closure tab; all of the stitching is intact and tight. This example is the first 1914 and earlier model with the straight-back hanger with the 4 rivets being symmetrical, the metal attachment hanger atop the swivel billet is brass rather than iron. The maker mark is not discernible however the interior flap shows "J.A.H." U.S. inspectors initials. There is some minor crackling and flaking around the closure stud hole but it is unobtrusive. Overall a very fine example of these first U.S. holsters for the 1911 pistol. (35865-258A)

1221. FLEMING FIREARMS M10-22 CONVERSION UNIT This is a Fleming Firearms top end presumably for the MAC M10 sub-machine gun 9 mm base units. 4 3/4" barrel with an about very good lightly oxidized bore. The unit retains about 98% original phosphate finish with some minor handling marks and light dings. It appears to be complete however that cannot be ascertained. There is threaded muzzle adapter affixed to the front which is rather tight and will not budge. The unit appears to be in excellent overall condition and is for use only on arms which fire from an open bolt. There is no magazine included. (36626-23)

1222. FLEMING FIREARMS M11-22 CONVERSION UNIT This is a Fleming Firearms top end, which appears to be to convert the Military Armament Corp. M11 submachine gun in 380 caliber to 22 long rifle. 3 3/4" barrel with a very good lightly oxidized bore. The metal surfaces retain about 95-97% original phosphate finish with numerous minor dings and handling marks. The charging handle is missing but otherwise the unit seems to be complete, this cannot be ascertained for certain. The unit comes with fixed front and rear sights and the muzzle is threaded. There is no magazine included. (36626-24)

1223. MAC-10 ACCESSORY LOT This lot consists of a black ballistic nylon bag with interior loops and tiedowns for carrying a small sub-machine gun-style firearm and accessories. Included in the bag are two M3 grease gun, phosphate-finished magazines; they rate about very good. Also included are two fabric suppressor covers with spring keepers on one end; one measures 10 3/4", the other 9". Also included are a nylon front hanger strap and a thread-on muzzlebrake which is knurled at its rear and slotted at its front to act as a compensator; it appears to be for a 9 mm but not likely 45 ACP. A very good accessory lot overall (36626-11A)

1224. GRIFFIN & HOWE SCOPE MOUNT LOT This is a blued steel and anodized quick-detach Griffin & Howe base and ring set for a rifle with a slightly rounded left-side receiver. The rings are 1" with the base being blued steel while the ring set is anodized aluminum with double steel levers. Overall the base ring set rates very good plus with some silvering on the high edges and contact points and the odd minor ding or scratch here and there, the screws are Allen-head. The 3 attaching screws for the base are present, the 2 lineup pins are not; the screw slots show some minor damage. (36402-7)

1225. LOT OF COLT SINGLE ACTION ARMY GRIPS This is a pair of hard rubber grips for a Colt Single Action Army revolver. They are checkered with the Rampant Colt in ovals at their top. They rate about very good with some lightly flattened points but they are intact around their periphery without any chips or dings. They are scratch-numbered (twice) on the inside, neither marking is original Colt numbering. The left grip has had its escutcheon pull through at some point, it is now glued back in and a modern grip screw is included. This is a very respectable set of grips overall. (35538-5D)

1226. BACK ACTION BRITISH PERCUSSION SHOTGUN LOT This lot consists of a butt-stock and two back action locks as well as a long tang triggerguard for a British muzzleloading double barrel shotgun. The locks are each a lightly oxidized patina with some light sprays of very loose scroll, they are both each marked "Pyne", no hammers are present. The long tang triggerguard and triggers are a similar oxidized patina with the bow of the guard showing light engraving, the ramrod tailpipe shows only borderline engraving. There are oval wedge escutcheons of German silver and an oval German silver monogram plate at the toeline. The stock rates fair and is solid but shows overall dings, dents and handling marks, is devoid of finish, shows some powder post beetle damage and there is no butt plate nor tang. (34749-4B)

1227. U.S. M6 PERISCOPE
This is a U.S. M6 tank or armored vehicle periscope stock number 7578357. The metal surfaces retain 92% plus of their original wrinkle olive drab and black painted finishes with some minor flaking. The optics are slightly dirty but overall rate about excellent and the prism is crisp. (35853-18)

1228. U.S. M16C PERISCOPE
This is a U.S. M16C tank ranging reticle periscope serial #1392. The OD green paint atop the external portion is excellent with the black and interior white enamel rating very good plus. The 1X optics rate about very good and the adjustments seem to work properly, the lower rangefinding 6X reticle slightly hazy around its edges, its adjustments too seem to work properly. Rangefinding reticle and stadia lines are all intact and readable. A neat piece of U.S. surplus equipment. (35853-7)

1229. U.S. T-42 PERISCOPE SIGHT This is a U.S. T-42 periscope sight serial #3574. The external OD green paint rates very good plus while the interior white enamel remains in a similar state of condition. The rubber eyepiece has degraded and dried slightly but is still present. Purportedly for the M48 tank equipped with a 90 mm gun, it likely could be adapted to any tank of your choosing. The optics are crisp and clear with what seems to be a small rangefinding reticle, the prism is adjustable through 90° of travel, the lever operating properly. Really a very seldom-encountered piece of military equipment which doubtless cost the government thousands of dollars. (35853-9)

1230. US M1 GUNNERS QUADRANT This is an M1, number 112887, 1944-marked gunners quadrant. Features level and rangefinding micrometer with tables of fire left and right denoting the elevation and depression angles of fire for machine guns and artillery. The quadrant comes in a U.S. M82 carrying case made of aluminum which rates very good as well with attached nylon web carry strap. Really a neat addition to your machine gun or artillery collection. (35853-11)

1231. "DUCK BLIND HEAVEN" GICLEE PRINT BY CHILDRESS

Originally painted by the late commercial artist Robert Childress this limited edition print measures 24" x 22" and is printed on Archival paper and is suitable for framing. Mr. Childress also known for his illustrations in the Dick, Jane and Sally children's books of the 1960's often utilized family and friends as models in his work. This view depicts the artists original duck blind in Old Saybrook Connecticut with his neighbor sitting in the rain with his hands outstretched and smiling with his thermos, box of Western shells and trusty Model 1912 at his left side. At his right is the artist's wife Nancy, clutching the hood of her raincoat with a not-as-enthusiastic expression as her neighbor. A friend of Norman Rockwell, Mr. Childress's work has been featured on the covers of Yankee Magazine, Country Gentleman, Readers Digest and will be featured in a story in the September issue of New Hampshire Magazine. The cover is highlighted by the trademark company name towards the top in raised red letters with black borders, the back with the big bold red trademark "W" in raised lettering towards the bottom. The spine also contains the same style Winchester name, and like the front also identifies this as "Catalogue No. 81", in this case in red as opposed to the black print used on the front bottom right. The front and back each exhibit matching decorative red borders near the perimeters. The top and bottom of the front each have splits at the spine measuring about 1" on the top and 2" at the bottom where there is also a small section that has become unglued but is still faintly attached at the back. The top of the spine reveals less separation and some light creasing, the middle area with minor darker discoloration. The front reveals barely visible isolated areas of discoloration and also exhibits faint scuffing and a couple of creases at the bottom. The back reveals a couple of areas of light grime and creases with more light dirt evident where it meets the spine. The top edge of the body reveals light foxing and dirt with even lesser amounts at the side and bottom edges. The cover opens to reveal a title page that includes "Repeating and Single Shot/Rifles, Repeating Shotguns/Metallic Cartridges, Empty/and Loaded Shells, Brass/Shot Shells, Gun Wads./Primers, Percussion Caps./Shot, etc.". This page also contains a small penciled in note at the upper right consisting of an old price and the year of this catalog: "1918". This page also reveals some light foxing originating from and more pronounced at the spine. The foxing continues but decreases onto the ensuing pages until it is barely detectable at about page 15. The back pages exhibit similar characteristics in this regard. The balance rates near excellent with very faint discoloration along the interior edges, and a slight crease on the upper right of some pages. As mentioned on the title page, this catalog covers a wide range of products and includes hundreds of illustrations including cutaways and component parts of iconic models such as 86, 95, 12 and 97. A true collector's item in near excellent condition. (76679-18A)

The spine also features embossed print in the form of the trademark bold W as end caps for the company trademark name and "No. 80", the back cover is plain. The cover exhibits mild to moderate wear most prominently where the binding webbing is exposed where the front meets the spine at the midsection, the extreme top and bottom of the spine where it is exposed, and the front lower right corner which is missing a small section. The book opens to reveal a title page with red, green and gold embossed graphics that also constitute the back page. The catalog consists of 224 pages of information including hundreds of detailed illustrations of the multitude of items available through Winchester at the time. The most prominent characteristic of this collector's item may very well be the uncommon indexing tabs at the far right of their respective pages: tabs marked with iconic models such as 1873, 1886, 1894, and categories such as Rifle Ctg., Shot Shells, and Pistol Ctg. The tabs do exhibit wear with several folding back somewhat, a scant amount with corners having worn off slightly. With all pages present and showing near excellent condition and the back cover rating excellent through most of its surface, the overall condition of this scarce item comes in at about near very good. (76678-78)

This lot consists of two full one piece, 50 round boxes of Peters .22 Lr. The first one is yellow with blue, white and red graphics including a top section featuring the image of a law officer aiming a revolver at a target and above it is "Police Match/.22 Long rifle Lubricated/50 Rim Fire Smokeless Cartridges/Made in U. S. A./Peters Rustless". The front and back each read "Peters/Dupont (within oval)/Police Match (placed diagonally)/Ammunition". Each side consists of the "P" logo at each upper corner and between them is "Peters" and below that is "Rustless/Police

Match/22 Long Rifle Lub./No.2223". When opened the end flaps reveal tops that read "Range-One Mile/Be Careful". The bottom is comprised of a message of reliability and a guarantee statement in addition to the company name and address. The fully intact box is in excellent condition with strong graphics (the white has faded to a pleasing off white), sharp edges and virtually no wear, outside of maybe a corner or two. The ammunition rates bright excellent. The second box is green with red, blue and somewhat faded white graphics. The top reads "50" Peters/Outdoor/Tack Hole/.22 Long Rifle R. F. Cartridges/Special Lesmok Powder". Below this are two Dupont logos bordering one of Peters. The front and back have identical graphics consisting of three logos over: "Out Door Tack Hole (presented diagonally)/Special Lesmok Powder". The sides read "Peters/.22 Long/ Rifle" over the same diagonal presentation, and below that "No. 2226/For Ranges Up To 250 Yards". The flaps' tops contain "Dangerous/Within 1 mile". The bottom provides general information and a guarantee with the company name and address at the bottom. A portion of this text is difficult to discern due to light wear which is less prevalent throughout the balance of the fully intact box. The box has sharp edges and strong graphics overall with the top having faded down a notch or two. The ammunition rates near excellent with clean tips and the onset of dark spots on most cases. A great pair of Peters boxes. (76679-36U)

1434. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE BOXES This lot consists of two empty two piece cardboard boxes for Winchester .22 cal. cartridges. The first one has a one piece wraparound label with an olive green top that features an image of the enclosed round with no wording on it, but with the "H" head stamp. It is displayed at the center with the "H" logo and "Rim/Fire" at its sides. Above these is "50" at each upper corner and between them "Winchester/.22 Long Shot". The lower section has "Lesmok Rifle Cartridges/Made In U. S. A.". Below that in very small font is the company name and address. The balance of the label is yellow with the sides including a big bold red "W" under ".22 Long Shot/Rim Fire/Lesmok/Rifle Cartridges/K2232R/Winchester Make". The label extends to the underside with a left portion consisting of the guarantee, the right is missing. The label overall has a pleasing aged look with a light mixture of foxing, ingrained dirt, fading and handling marks. The fully intact buff-colored box features thumb cutouts and mottled discoloration from dirt and grime, the interior is clean. The bottom compartment is mostly devoid of blemishes, with some at the cutouts and more where the bottom label separated. The second box has a top label that is also olive green and features a drawing of a cartridge, this one bearing the head stamp and ".22/Short" along the body. Beside it are the "H" logo and the Stetson's Patent Oct. 31, 1871 statement. Above these are "50" at each upper corner and the Winchester trademark name between them. The lower portion of the label consists of "Lesmok (in quotations) Rifle Cartridges./Manufactured by the/Winchester Repeating Arms Co./New Haven, Conn., U. S. A. 3-12". The yellow side label consists of the guarantee on the front, and "50 .22 Short/Target Cartridges/Lesmok (in quotes)/Winchester Make.", on the back. All that remains of the buff-colored seal is most of the bottom portion and it reveals a spot of blue ink. About 40% of the left side label is missing, with the back of it showing a split at the word "Short". The label was originally applied at a slope running downwards from right to left. The top label is peeling a bit at the lower right corner and it exhibits light fading and foxing. The buff colored box shows a lid with an overall dark patina and mild edge wear, the bottom with lighter panels with a couple of spots and an underside nearly matching the shade of the lid. A nice pair of Winchester .22 boxes. (76679-36V)

1435. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOXES This lot consists of two empty two piece cardboard boxes for Winchester .22 cal. cartridges. The first one has a green top label with black print with "Smokeless" presented over it in bold red and in a diagonal layout. The upper portion consists of an image of a cartridge including shadow effect between "50" and ".22 cal. (Stetson's Oct. 31. 1871 logo)/Rifle Cartridges". The lower half includes the "H" logo, the code "15 10-8" and the company name and address. The yellow side label consists of a front with the guarantee, a back that reads "50 .22 Short/Smokeless/Target Cartridges/Greaseless Bullets", a left side with "50/.22 Short/Smokeless/(trademark info.)" all over the big bold red "W", and a right with the round Winchester Smokeless logo. Most of the buff-colored seal remains and is peeling back. The labels share a common amount of light foxing and wear, the lid showing mild edge wear, the bottom tray a relatively large area on the left interior that has made contact with what appears to be a greasy substance that has dried and subsequently clung to dark particles. The under panel seems to have absorbed some of it and also shows other light discoloration. The second box is in significantly better condition and has a light green top label with "50" at each upper corner and between them is the Winchester name in quotations with "Trade Mark" under it. Below that is ".22 Long Shot Cartridges/Loaded With/Soft Shot/Trade Mark Registered in U. S. Pat. Office./Manufactured by the/Winchester Repeating Arms Co./New Haven, Conn., U. S. A.". The far left lower corner contains "19", the far right "7-6". The label is fully intact with nice color and bold black print, essentially free of foxing or wear marks. The buff-colored covering under it extends to the edges of the underside and is excellent with the exception of a spot on the bottom that appears to be paint, the oil from which has spread slightly to form a ring around it. There are also a couple of other minor spots and possibly faint ingrained dirt or just age fading. In addition it is handwritten in ink: "PR03-18." The bottom interior shows marks from the once enclosed cartridges. The lid has a split at the upper left corner but otherwise the box is fully intact with sharp edges and it appears to have been carefully cleaned up along the seal. (76679-36W)

The guarantee is in both Spanish and English. The sides are identical and read ".22 Long Rifle/(red dot logo) NRA Target/Lesmok". The box shows only light wear marks in scattered areas, a couple of spots of grime and fading isolated to the top and ensuing edges. The box is fully intact as is the bottom compartment housing cartridges with mild tarnish and oxidation. The second box is a two piece containing 47 rds. of .22 Win. It has a top label with blue print that includes an image of an enclosed cartridge at its center and "U" and ".22 Winchester/Smokeless" draped across it. The sealing label has a front that reads "Specially Adapted for Winchester Model 1890./Remington-UMC.", the back with the message that the cartridges are for the Model 1890. The left side consists of the red dot under ".22 W. R. F./Ungreased/Inside Lubricated/Smokeless". The bottom consists of the dual language guarantee. The surfaces exhibit an overall uneven tan/light brown patina with mild edge wear and much of the sealing label missing including portions with text and graphics. The ammunition rates very good to excellent with light tarnish. (76679-36X)

1437. COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION BOX This is an opened two piece cardboard box containing 45 rds. of Winchester .22 Lr. The box has a one piece maroon label with a top section exhibiting black print including at the center an image of an enclosed round and to its left the trademark "H" logo and to the right is "Rim/Fire". The top of the label contains "50" on either side of the trademark "Winchester" name. Below that is ".22 Winchester Rim Fire" and below the image resides "Smokeless Rifle Cartridges/Adapted to Winchester Model 90 and Single shot Rifles/Made in U. S. A.". The bottom line consists of the company name and address. The sides are identical and read ".22 Winchester/Rim Fire/Smokeless/Rifle Cartridges/Winchester Make", all over the big bold "W" which in this case is formed as a result of a white outline. The bottom panel retains one side of the label only with it showing wear at the edge. The balance of the label also shows some scattered areas of loss with the graphics somewhat challenging to discern due to spattering of minute spots of label wear. The exposed parts of the box reveal a dark patina from what appears to be ingrained dirt and there are also scattered wear marks throughout the surfaces. The lid features thumb cutouts and the ammunition rates near excellent with nice dark gray tips and fairly bright cases. (76679-36B)

1438. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is an opened two piece cardboard box containing the full 50 rds. of Winchester .22 W.R.F. The box has a teal colored top label with black print featuring an image of an enclosed round at the upper center and within it is ".22 Winchester/Rim Fire" with the trademark "H" as a head stamp. To its left is "50" and ".22" at the right. Below this is "Winchester/Rim Fire/Cartridges/7 1/2 Grs. Powder. 45 Grs. Bullet./Manufactured by the/Winchester Repeating Arms Co./New Haven, Conn., U. S. A.". The label exhibits light foxing and perhaps contact with grime or liquid but the text is easily read. The yellowish orange colored side sealing label has front and rear panels that read ".22 Caliber/Winchester/Rim Fire./Model 1890." and sides that read ".22 Winchester Rim Fire/Model 1890.". Portions of the word "Winchester" are missing from the unsealing process at the front and the label shows areas of minor loss, and ingrained dirt. The underside reveals a label as well, this one being in the form of a guarantee with the company name in cursive below, although much of the message has worn off. There are also spots of dirt particularly at the corners. The corners of the top show more wear but the box in general has fairly sharp edges. The ammunition has held up extremely well as it exhibits clean tips and cases and rates excellent, the box itself approaching that condition rating. (76679-36C)

1439. LOT OF COLLECTIBLE AMMUNITION This is an opened two piece cardboard box containing the full 50 rds. of Peters .22 Lr. The side panels contain identical graphics consisting of a large red "P" logo with "Peters" in white and No. 2221/.22Long Rifle R.F./N. R. A.)" in black. The underside consists of the extensive instructional and guarantee statement in black text over a green background with red border. It reveals mild scuffing particularly at the bottom and right side, with nearly all of the text remaining legible. The side sections of the label have small edge sections missing but virtually no wear or blemishes are evident. The top label has minor loss at the bottom but like the sides is clean. Where it differs from the balance is the red border has faded to contrast considerably to the other red areas, but all other graphics remain strong. The buff colored box has a lid with a split through the lower right half of the top, a couple of minor spots, and features thumb cutouts. The bottom compartment is intact with maybe the early stage of a split occurring at a lower edge but is clean with a darker tone at the cutouts. The original ammunition rates about very good with flaking forming at some tips and mild tarnish to the cases. (76679-36N)

The policy, for $47.35 each year insures the life of the Gustave A. Lehnert, gunsmith, of Louisville Kentucky for $1000, for a 20 year period. An interesting read, it shows Gustave was born in Prussia in January of 1849, he has never had the smallpox but he has been vaccinated. He had two brothers and three sisters, it would appear both brothers died as infants. He has never used alcoholic beverages or other stimulants nor is he engaged in the sale of such. Additionally there are two receipts for payment of premium on this policy, one dated November 20, 1881 the other dated November 11, 1880. The receipts are from the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company's agents in Louisville Kentucky, Cowen & Robinson. These papers were tucked in a ledger book which shows dates from 1883-1887 and while Lehnert's name does not appear anywhere in the book it is likely his, showing numerous entries for normal everyday household goods but also entries for barreled actions and machine tools, the only real firearms names mentioned are "AG Spalding Brothers" and "Pittsburgh firearms" as well as "E. E. Eaton". The stock of guns pistols and supplies and materials on hand was worth $8800. Tools, lathes, drills and reamers were worth $800. The very last page also shows payment to the Hanover Fire Insurance Company of New York for insurance on his tools, this for the year ending 1888. The life insurance policy is very readable and mostly bright with light foxing on one of the pages and a small tear along one of the folds with some mildew and darkening on the areas of the policy that would've been exposed to the air when it was folded. The ledger book shows a separating spine, some mildew, light foxing and an antique stain on the cover which has affected a number of the pages beneath. A neat grouping overall relating to this famous and well-thought-of gunsmith. (34217)

The revolver has Belgian proofs and inspector marks and the side of the barrel is caliber marked 38 C. Research indicates that the Manhattan Arms Co. logo (not to be confused with Manhattan Firearms Co.) was a trade name for various firearms imported into the country from Europe. about excellent with the back still sealed and the box itself has a bottom panel with a penciled in note and a side with a slight crease and the usual dark areas where the ammunition once resided. There is a small amount of corner wear and light dirt but overall this is a strong box with nice condition. The second box contains 26 rds. of correct ammunition and a label with a turquoise body with red border and blue text that consists of "50" at each upper corner and below that is "Marksman Cartridges/.22 Cal. Long Rifle (the Western logo) High Velocity/Lesmok Powder/Manufactured by/(company name and address)". The sides are present but the right in particular is peeling and about half of the bottom portion of the label is missing. The box features thumb cutouts with the lid being fully intact, the bottom compartment with front and back showing nearly full length splits where they meet the bottom panel. There are scattered spots of dirt and grime and light edge wear. The ammunition shows only light tarnish and oxidation. (76679-36AA)

The slogan is surrounded with the images of sample international users of the firearms clad in traditional attire and with some representative habitats. A very creative concept for the 1907 cover with a back featuring color images of the factory. With 157 pages, this example reveals separation through the entire length of the spine at the back, a crease to the front and a corner starting to fold back. Also evident is light dirt, foxing and a liquid stain. The catalog covers the myriad of products made available by the legendary New England manufacturer. Examples are the "Ideal" No. 44 and the "Repeating Gallery" No. 80 rifles and the Double Hammer Nos. 250, 260, 270 and 280 shotguns. The other item is catalogue No. 58 and appears to be a reproduction that includes a separate sheet with the header: "Stevens Retail Prices/Effective January 2nd, 1931". The title page reads "Catalogue No. 16/Savage Arms Company/Manufacturers of High Grade/Hammerless Fire-Arms/Ammunition, Reloading Tools, Sights, Etc.". The 9"x 6" 56 page offering is bound by two fully intact staples and is adorned with many illustrations and much information. The front cover shows some creases but there are few blemishes to the piece, some areas of dirt on the back, which features an image of one of the iconic '99's, and the pages show light scattered dirt and liquid stains. Certainly an item that has retained its luster through the years. (73615-7F)

Trap grade listing at $60, a model 10 K leather case for $3.75 and a No. 1 Standard Autoloading Repeating Rifle for $30. The piece is bound by two fully intact staples, shows a 1" tear at the spine bottom, and a crease running the length vertically at the center of front and back cover. There is scattered wear spotting and creasing but overall the condition is very good. The second item has a red cover with a title section that reads "Handbook On Shotgun Shooting" and a section at the bottom that reads in smaller print "Prepared under the Direction of and Published by Sporting Arms and Ammunition Manufacturers' Institute. New York 1939". Between the two is a stamp that reads "Compliments of Remington Arms Co., Inc. Bridgeport, Conn." ## ABSENTEE BIDDING

---

- Bidders without prior credit approval are required to submit a 20% deposit prior to bids being accepted (credit cards may be used for absentee deposits). Absentee bids will be bid in a competitive manner and an absentee bidder needs only to outbid another buyer i.e. bidding will not be opened at the maximum bid unless that is the next competitive bid. Buyer is responsible for any and all shipping charges.
- Amoskeag Auction Co., Inc. will not be held responsible for errors or omissions of any type that may occur during this service.
- All Silent Auction bids are due by 2:00pm on the day of the sale. If you are planning on bidding on an excessive amount of items we request that your bid sheets be turned in on the Friday before the sale. Please do not call the gallery once the auction has started (after 10:00am) as we will not be able to make changes to bids. Faxed bid sheets will be accepted for the silent auction until 2:00pm.
- All absentee/telephone bidder invoices are mailed within a few days of the sale, are due upon receipt, and are to be paid either by cash, check or credit card. All items not paid for within 20 business days from sale date shall be considered abandoned as well as any deposit that was made on those items and Amoskeag Auction Company, Inc. shall have sole discretion as to their disposal. NOTE: If paying by cash or check, the buyer's premium will be a discounted 15% versus 17.5% for those paying by credit card.

IF YOU FAX YOUR BID SHEET INTO OUR OFFICE,
PLEASE CALL TO CONFIRM THAT WE DID RECEIVE IT. THANK YOU. 603/627-7383
