Mrs. W. Clifton Randall to Open Home for Large 'Michigan-League Tea' Oct. 22

U of M Alumnae Sponsor Party for Scholarship Fund

Mrs. W. Clifton Randall is opening her home on Shirley drive for a large tea, known as the "Michigan League Tea" on Wednesday, Oct. 22, which will open the fall program for the Birmingham Branch of the University of Michigan Alumnae Association.

The Birmingham club exists solely for the purpose of recommending Birmingham boys and girls for scholarships to the University of Michigan, and of aiding them financially, once they have proven themselves worthy of the scholarship opportunity.

All alumnae are urged to attend the tea and also to plan to pay their dues in order that deserving students may be helped substantially. For the first twenty members paying dues, the association is permitted to recommend two students for undergraduate scholarships. For each additional twelve paying dues, the name of one more candidate may be submitted.

Mrs. Robert Atkinson, as general social chairman of the association, is in charge of arrangements for the tea.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK E. PARKER and daughter, MRS. PERCY LOUD, left Saturday for New York city for a few week's stay.

Miss Gay Returns From New York

Genevieve Gay returned from New York on Tuesday, where she has been studying dancing with Vincenzo Chelli, master of Checetti method of ballet, with Donald Saxon, one of the foremost exponents of the Ballroom dance, and also with Ernest Carlos, Lou Wills, and Sonia Serova.

Yvonne and Genevieve will open their dance studio on Wednesday, Oct. 1. Classes are now open for registration.

Young Fry Entertain For Mary and Carol Smith

Anne Snyder gave a luncheon at her home Saturday afternoon in honor of Mary Kay Smith, who is leaving soon with her family for a western trip. Following the luncheon the girls spent the afternoon in horseback riding. Guests included Lois Steele, Gret Seaholm, Joy Stark, Alice Schweizer and Joanne Gove.

On the same day Anne Ballentine feted Mary Kay's sister, Carol at a dance in her home. Young fry attending this affair included Jeri Lou Smith, Jeanne Blinn, Nancy Neumann, Carol Byers, Janet Emonds, Tuckie Pearson, Joyce Watkins, Mary Jean Forsyth, Stanley Ford, John Gilbert, Don Fisher, Bob Neumann, Bob Little, Karl Zint, Don McLeese, Dick Stuart, Bob Gove, Don Gilbert and Carter George.

MRS. G. W. J. LINTON is entertaining her bridge club at her home on Redford road, next Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Lois Lockrow Plights Troth to Theodore Huxford

Lois Lockrow, of Ridgedale avenue, gave a tea Sunday afternoon in honor of Marjory and Lucielle Peck, Dorothy Barrett, Yvonne Thompson and Marvel Jean McGirr, who are all leaving soon for college.

Miss Lockrow

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil L. Lockrow took this opportunity to announce the engagement of their daughter, Lois, to Theodore Huxford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huxford, of Bloomfield court. No date has been set for the wedding.

Both of the young people were graduated from Baldwin High School and Ted attended Michigan State College where he was a member of the Hesperian fraternity.

Ruth H. Anderson Sets Wedding Date

Ruth Helen Anderson, daughter of the Walter Andersons of Lake Park drive, has named Nov. 29 as the date for her marriage to Weldon Wales Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Price, of Oakland avenue.

The ceremony will take place at the Trinity Evangelical Church in Detroit at 7:30 p. m. The Andersons are planning a reception in their home following the wedding ceremony.

Faye Anderson will be her sister's maid of honor and the five bridesmaids chosen are: Winnie Watkins, Genevieve Gay, Mrs. Robert Etter, Patty Price, and Edna Tucker, of Richmond, Va. Bill has asked James Brown, of Streeter, Ill., to be his best man, and the usher's list includes John Hayes, of Huntington, W. Va., Clayton Anderson of Danville, Ky., Byron Colgrove and Thomas Walton, Jr., of Birmingham, and David Matthews, of Royal Oak.

Winnie Watkins entertained in Ruth's honor in her home Sunday afternoon at a tea and lingerie shower. Centering the tea table was a large cake on which the bridal couple's nicknames, "Boopie and Bill", were written. Ice cream molds served were in the form of small bride and grooms, roses, bells and every imaginable type of symbol which surrounds a wedding.

Sigma Beta Sorority Plans Charity Project

Psi Chapter of Sigma Beta sorority held its first business meeting of the fall season recently, and various plans were discussed regarding participation in Sigma Beta's national charity project, the exact nature of which will be decided at the annual convention in Cincinnati, Ohio, this October.

Elsa Seegmiller, of Pontiac, was elected as a delegate to the convention, and will accompany Mrs. M. L. Thomson, of Birmingham, president of the chapter. Mary Louise Walter and Mrs. Clare Paulson, both of Pontiac, were chosen as alternates.

At the August President's Meeting, held at Indianapolis, Mrs. E. F. Andresen, of Birmingham, secretary of the local chapter, was nominated as a candidate for editor of the Sigma Beta publication, "Charlotta." The ballots for this, and other national offices will be cast at the business meeting in Cincinnati.

Sigma Beta's next meeting will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 24.

Try an Eccentric Classified Ad for quick results

Colorful Exhibit of Garden Wares Held

One of the more colorful exhibits of the year took place at the Community House last Saturday and Sunday, when the Bloomfield Hills and District Horticultural Society, assisted by the Bloomfield Hills Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden association, staged its 13th annual flower, fruit and vegetable show.

Featured in the show was a large patriotic exhibit, placed on the stage at one end of the showroom. This display, judged the most meritorious exhibit, consisted of red, white, and blue flowers, and was prepared by A. Barber and A. Mont. Simon DeWaal also displayed an exhibit of 12 vases, each containing different varieties of red, white, and blue flowers.

150 Exhibitors

Approximately 150 exhibitors contributed 500 exhibits for the show, according to Walden Thornbyke, general chairman. Special mention is also made of the apple exhibit, displaying 37 named varieties of apples grown on Apple Lane farm under the care of Carl Rhodes. Will-O-Way also sent a special exhibit of apples and by-products not dramatic of the William O. Merrill estate.

Vegetable arrangement were extremely colorful—one table entered by the E. G. Hammond estate include at least one, and usually several varieties of the following vegetables—onions, leak, okra, vegetable marrow, cucumbers, squash, cauliflower, cabbage, corn, carrots, parsley parsnip, egg plants, potatoes and the like. Mrs. S. Isreal has an attractive display of several types of squash, pumpkin, watermelon, lima beans and gourds.

Following the exhibit, most of the vegetables, fruit, and flowers were distributed among the needy in this area.

Blue ribbon winners from the Horticultural society were: E. Marsh, A. Barber, A. Claxton, B. Carpenter, M. A. Y. Dennis, Walter Thorndyke, H. Quaife, C. Rhodes, G. Mouw, Frances Van Zelfden, Mrs. F. Allhouse, Mrs. W. Thorndyke, and Mrs. Dyer.

Entries also awarded blue ribbons, among the Bloomfield Hills Garden Club members were Mrs. Edith Forbush, Mrs. H. A. O'Dell, Mrs. William J. Belknap, Mrs. William G. Lerchen, Mrs. Lee Joslyn, Mrs. Harold F. Klein, Mrs. Walter G. Negley, Mrs. G. J. Linton, Mrs. W. D. Thompson, Mrs. William M. Purves, Mrs. Donald D. James, Mrs. Zelner Dowling, Mrs. Frank W. Shuell, Mrs. Max M. Gilman, and Mrs. Louis Kahn.

Complimentary exhibits made up an interesting portion of the show. These were given by Reid's Flowers, H. Bell, Mrs. Walter Thornbyke, Mrs. S. Isreal, Mrs. W. Overton, Will-O-Way, Harry VanZelfden, Simon DeWaal, J. Bauman, Ross Adams, Locker's Flowers, Mrs. W. D. Thompson, H. Weigers, A. Barber and A. Mont, Carl Rhodes, Mrs. Isabella Stites, and D. Miller.

Young People Leaving Daily For Colleges, Universities

A daily exodus of Birmingham and Bloomfield young people is taking place these days with the various destinations being colleges throughout the United States. Jean L'Hommedieu left Tuesday for Wellesley College. Conco Johns is starting out for Pine Manor next week Wednesday. Anne Auchterlonie left for Stevens Monday morning. Jean Day is to be a senior this year at Bradford, and Florence Smith has gone to Mount Holyoke for another year's work. Both Jean and Florence left Sunday.

Dick Brandt is scheduled to return to the University of Virginia where he is a sophomore, on Friday. Ed Lorchen and George Hunt plan to drive East together. Ed is a student at Amhurst and George goes to Harvard University.

Today Phyllis Ankers is leaving for New York City where she attends the Juillard School of Music. Yesterday morning early David R. Ketchhut left for Colgate University, and on Tuesday John D. Maynard, Jr., is slated out for Academy at Delafield, Wis., and on Monday, John B. Gay, Jr., left for Danville, Ky., where he is a junior at Centre College. John Rounds will be going over to Oliver on Sunday where she will be a freshman at Olivet College.

Among the local students leaving next week for Ann Arbor are Barbara Houghton, Marietta Krejci, and Digging Farrar. The contingent leaving next week for Michigan State College includes Jane Pointer, Art Underwood, Herb Moore, Bill Holmes and Shirley Smith.

MR. AND MRS. CLYDE L. HAGERMAN, of Long Lake road, were hosts at a buffet supper Sunday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Evans. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Weeden, Mr. and Mrs. Thorndyke Dwelley, Steve Wygant, Dave Wygant, Dave Gafill and Mr. and Mrs. Evans.

Voters' League To Open Season With Luncheon

The Birmingham League of Women Voters will open its year's activities with a membership luncheon at the Community House on Monday, Sept. 22 at one o'clock, to which the members are invited to bring guests.

Business will be held at a minimum at the two hour guests, Mrs. Dallas Starr of Grand Rapids, the Michigan League State President, and Miss Dorothy Greer of Washington, the national chairman of the department of Government and Economic Welfare, will both give pertinent talks.

Mrs. John K. Ormond the president of the Birmingham League is more and more women are becoming concerned with government. She says they are worried at the increased cost of living, question its efficiency, and wonder if the social and economic defense of the United States is being considered along with the military.

Mrs. Ormond is expressing the attitude of the entire League when she invites the women of Oakland County to join the League of Women Voters who for twenty one years have been striving to give active and intelligent attention to government, to make the democratic processes effective.

Mrs. Draper Allen, the social chairman is in charge of the arrangements for the luncheon and reservations should be made to her or to the Community House by Saturday, Sept. 20.

CHARLOTTE H. ARMOND

LOUISE COBB, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner M. Cobb, of Suffield road, was hostess Tuesday evening at a "dessert supper" to the members of her bridge club. Her guests were: Mrs. J. R. Alexander, Mrs. E. J. Vinton, Mrs. Henry Houston, Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. John McAlpine, Margaret Scriven, Joanne Hart, Mary Jane McCurry, Bobby Ustick, Jane Ryder and Doris Vehmeyer.

MODERN BEAUTY SHOP
Hairstyling
Newest Methods in Permanent Waving
TEL. 1268

When You Think of WRITING think of WHITING and their line of really beautiful Stationery at BODINE'S
Come in and see it. We will lay away anything you want for Holiday Gifts . . .
•
Our Greeting Card line is complete—
RUSTCRAFT . . BUZZA
HALLMARK . . STANLEY and
PARAMOUNT CARDS
They Are Tops in the
GREETING CARD WORLD
•
MAGAZINE SUBSCRIPTIONS
We have all Magazines on sale. You can see them as they are here and we can take care of your subscription business promptly. We can give you any special rates and furnish gift cards.
Life Magazine Special!
On Now—Good Until Nov. 10
1 yr. $3.50 . . 2 yrs. $7.00 . . 3 yrs. $10.00
•
Out of Town NEWSPAPERS
New York Times . . New York Herald-Tribune . . Chicago Tribune on sale daily and Sunday
Cleveland . . Cincinnati . . Pittsburgh . . St. Louis . . Buffalo Sunday papers every Sunday.
Other Papers Obtained on Request
•
Sheet Music—Latest Hits
35c per copy—3 for $1.00
Bodine News
"The Greeting Card Shop"
172 N. Woodward — Phone 9013

ONE CENT
1¢
buys good light all evening for sewing
To guard against eyestrain, be sure you have GOOD light for sewing. Using a 150-watt lamp for 3 hours costs only one cent. Why not MEASURE your light with a Light Meter? No charge—call any Detroit Edison office.

NOW IS THE TIME!
To Top Dress Your Lawn
BLACK TOP SOIL WITH PEAT HUMUS
1.75 per yard Delivered C. O. D.
PHONE 3429 J2
J. J. NORSE — Franklin

You're Invited!
TO SEE THE
"Million Dollar Beauty"
in The Lowest-Price Field!

Your choice of Brilliant New Colors: Bolero Red, Ghost Grey, Whaler Green, Shoal Green, Winchester Gunmetal and Marlin Blue.

It's Here! The Most Spectacular New Car in Years!

COME AND HELP US CELEBRATE the most exciting piece of car news in years—

The 1942 Nash has arrived! And it's a "Million Dollar Beauty" that sells in the lowest-price field!

Big as it is, this new Nash goes 25 to 30 miles on a gallon of gasoline at highway speed! Actually, it saves enough to help most people meet their increased cost of living and new tax payments.

And what a time you'll have driving this car! It steers even easier—it rides even better—it's even a greater performer, than last year's sensational Nash.

It's the first low-price car with coil springing on all four wheels . . . with Two-way Roller Steering . . . with one-piece body-and-frame.

There's even more news in Nash's Conditioned Air System and "Sedan Sleeper" Beds.

With traditional Nash quality and dependability, they are the grandest cars Nash ever built! And that goes for the beautiful new Ambassador Six and Ambassador Eight, too!

We're ready now. Come in any day this week.

★ COME ONE—COME ALL ★

NASH
Three New Series of Fine Motor Cars
SIXES AND EIGHTS

COWLING
NASH BIRMINGHAM CO.
467 S. WOODWARD — PHONE 543