Office of the President
Kenneth K. Quigley, Jr.

Greetings to the Curry College Class of 2006.

On behalf of your alma mater, please let me extend my sincere congratulations on what you have achieved, and the best wishes of all of us at Curry College for much continued personal and professional success.

You have graduated from a great Institution that has grown and developed during your tenure at the College. Your presence on our Campus has yielded many benefits to you in terms of education, personal growth and development and friendships and relationships. All of these will last a lifetime. Our College has benefited from your presence, and we are a better place as a result of it.

Please know that as you carry on to the next stages of your life, Curry College should continue to be a part of your life. Please know that the College is always here to support you.

You will be Curry College Alums for the rest of your lives. We look forward to that relationship, and we hope that you do also.

Congratulations and good luck. Please come back to visit us on Campus many times.

Sincerely,

Kenneth K. Quigley, Jr.

Dedication:

Lois Wallace

Student Information Representative

Lois Wallace is regarded by the students at Curry College as Mother Curry. Lois always brings a smile to all students who enter the Drapkin Student Center. Whether it is movie tickets, quarters for laundry, or just the wealth of knowledge that Lois shares, all students have fond stories of their interactions with Lois. Lois works with the Office of Student Activities and is always on the front line with students providing information about what is happening at Curry College. It is with great pleasure that the Curry College Class of 2006 honors Lois Wallace with this dedication.

Tom Caron - NESN

Tom Caron serves as studio host for NESN's Boston Red Sox coverage. His duties include hosting the network's one-hour pre-game show The Boston Globe Pre Game Report and the network's Red Sox post-game shows WB Mason Extra Innings and Granite City Extra Innings Extra. Tom stopped by to talk about his role with the Red Sox, answer student questions about his career path, and show off his championship ring.

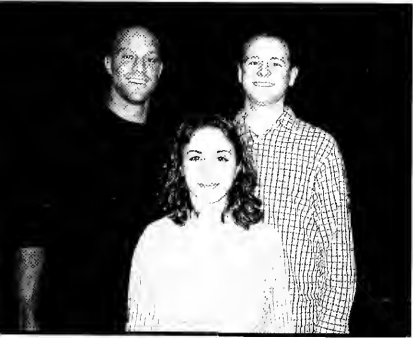

Gabe Kapler - Boston Red Sox

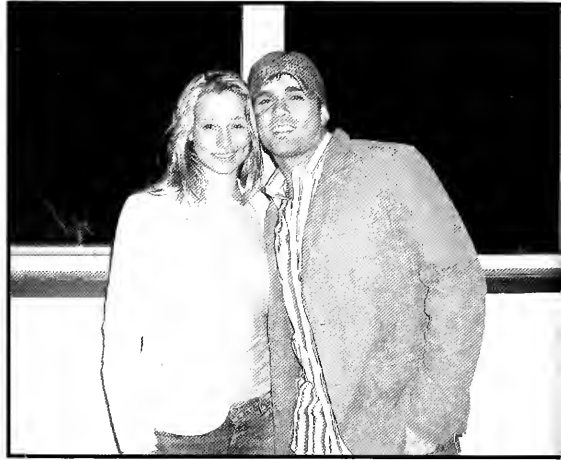

Gabe Kapler visited Curry College to talk about his baseball career, including playing on the 2004 World Champion Red Sox team. Gabe plays outfield and wears #44.

After talking about playing abroad, his recent injuries, and answering student questions, Gabe signed autographs for everyone in attendance.

men's hockey

This season...

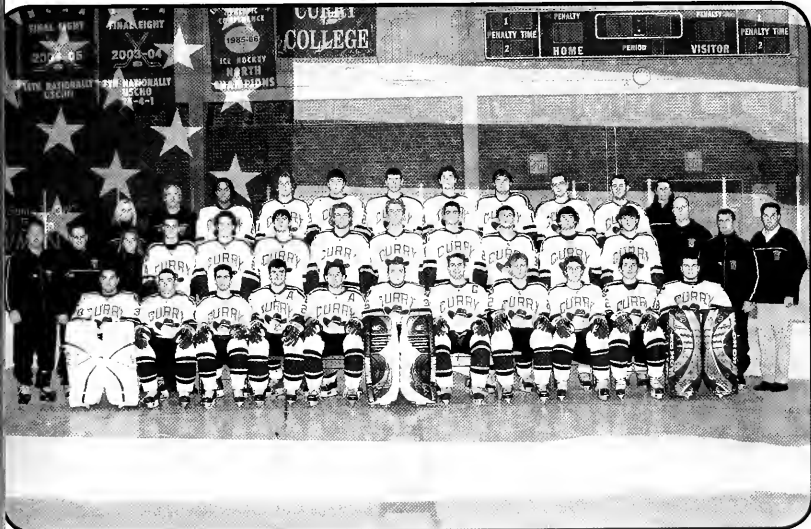

The Colonels have a legacy of fine hockey to maintain, and once again proved that they were up to the challenge, playing all of the way into the ECAC Northeast Semi-Finals. Competing in one of the toughest Division III conferences, the ECAC Northeast, the Colonels finished with a 15-10-1 season for the year.

They also have one of the finest practice and game facilities in the New England region – the Max D. Ulin Rink in Milton.

Steve Batchelor began his first season as Colonels' head lacrosse coach in the spring of 2006. For the past two seasons, Batchelor served as the first assistant and then interim head lacrosse coach at Wheaton College (Mass.). Last spring, Batchelor stepped in as interim head coach two weeks prior to the start of the season. The team finished a difficult year with an overall record of 3-12.

You have blossomed from a little girl to a beautiful young woman. Overcoming many challenges to be who you are today. We could not be any prouder. Always stay true to yourself and you will go far. Congratulations

Elizabeth Honey

Congratulations on your graduation!

All in the family are so very proud of you - especially Mom and Pops. May you find joy and happiness in whatever you choose as your life's work and in discovering who you are truly meant to be.

"Liz" - Age 18: Driving across the country with her Pops.

"Bibet" - Age 3: Singing and dancing.

As the poet says,

"Isn't it strange that princes and kings,
And clowns that caper in sawdust rings,
And common people like you and me
Are builders for eternity?"

"Each is given a bag of tools,
A shapeless mass, a book of rules,
And each must make - ere life is flown -
A stumbling block or a stepping stone."

*Jen,
 Congratulations!

Doris,

I am so proud of you as you complete your four years of college. I have always believed in you and your strength and determination. As your mother, I recall when you would say "Don't worry, I will finish school." I cannot describe to you how happy I am to see you kept your words not only to me, but for yourself. Doris, my only daughter, I look over these past four years how much you have grown and developed emotionally into a beautiful young woman. You are not a little girl anymore, but to me you will always be my special girl. I wish that you are happy, healthy and successful all of your life. Remember, whatever you choose to do in life, I will always support you!

Congratulations and Best Wishes!

*Love,

*"Little Rabbit Foo Foo
I don't want to see you
Scooping up the field mice
And bopping them on the head"*

Christina,

It must feel like forever ago since you sang that rhyme, but for us it seems like yesterday. We are so proud of you and everything that you have accomplished.

You have turned into an exceptional young woman who we have no doubt will succeed at whatever you do.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Melissa

*Dance,
as though no one is watching you.
Love,
as though you have never been hurt before.
Sing,
as though no one can hear you.
Live,
as though heaven is on earth.*

Megan,
We are so proud of all that you have accomplished...We hope you continue to dance through life.

With love,
Mom, Dad & Mike

Congratulations Lisa!

Best Wishes
to the Class of 2006

Kris,

You became my shining star the day you were born, May 28, 1984. Your eyes were wide open and you were ready to go. You never slept and followed that pattern 'till this day. Everything you have done was done with enthusiasm, whether it be academically, musically, or athletically, you always excelled. Football was your favorite and best attribute.

Writing became another. I could not wait for my Mother's Day, Birthday and Christmas letters. Music and dance were another, even when you took dancing lessons at five years old, and are still dancing in college.

Even though you are a man and graduating from college, I will always be there for you. I am very proud of you, and you will always be my shining star.
I love you!

Love Mom

Jen,
A wonderful daughter and a great student.
I wish you the best in life.
Congratulations on your graduation.
Love,
Dad

WOW! We're amazed how quickly these past four years have gone by. We feel as if we just dropped you off that first day. We are really proud of how well you've done. We know it took effort and a lot of work to get to this point. I'm sure you'll have many pleasant memories about your time at Curry, savor them.

You've grown so much since you started college and we like the young man that you've become. You're a pleasure to be around. Your sense of humor and ability to clearly understand people and situations are important traits that will help you as you go through life.

It's time to being another chapter of your life. You have many opportunities and directions that you can take. It's exciting and may seem a little overwhelming at this time. Don't be concerned, you'll find the way that's best suited for you. We're confident that you will be happy in future endeavours and remember you'll always have our support. We can't wait to read your published writings and make copies for all of our friends.

Lots of love from your happy and proud parents.

Congratulations Class of 2006

The 2006 Amethyst yearbook was printed by Jostens, Inc. in their State College, PA plant. This 54th volume consists of 220 pages and has a press run of 275 copies. The cover was designed by Rick Brooks, Jostens Creative Accounts Designer. Photos for the cover came from Institutional Advancement at Curry College. Covers were printed on 100% gloss stock, using four-color process inks, then laminated and grained with "linen." The entire book was printed on 100# gloss paper and sewn using sixteen-page signatures. All pages were created using InDesign CS and Jostens Yeartech. All senior portraits were taken by McGrath Studios, Inc., 8 Elm Street, Suite 2, Braintree, MA 02184. McGrath Studios was contracted by Curry College to be the official photographer for the 2006 Amethyst. Any other photos were taken by fellow staff members or were submitted by Curry students. Sports photos were provided by Institutional Advancement and yearbook staff members.

The 2006 Amethyst is produced by a staff of undergraduate students, under the direction of Claire Simonetti, Asst. Director of Student Activities. No portion of this yearbook may be reproduced or transmitted in any form without the written consent of Curry College. Please direct all inquiries to: Office of Student Activities, Curry College, 1071 Blue Hill Ave., Milton, MA 02186.
