

DISPOSAL PROBLEM AGAIN ACUTE

HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, July 19

THE TRIAL which has been making the headlines for the past six weeks came to an end when a jury brought in its verdict. Maurice Hamilton, 20, was convicted of first degree murder in the slaying of Aziz Hermiz, Detroit grocer, last February 10, and will be sentenced to prison for life, no parole.

Friday, July 20

LEWIS L. STRAUSS, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, announced that atomic tests in the Pacific have proved that atomic fallout can be minimized. He made this report to President Eisenhower. He also told the President that "real progress" is being made in the development of atomic weapons, including those for use against attacking aircraft.

Saturday, July 21

UN SECRETARY GENERAL Dag Hammarskjöld and Israel Premier David Ben-Gurion talked for almost an hour in the windup of their conference in Jerusalem. The emphasis apparently was on Israel's concern about relations with Jordan. Hammarskjöld revised his itinerary to include talks in Amman, Saturday, with Jordan officials.

DR. PAUL DUDLEY WHITE, President Eisenhower's heart specialist, disclosed yesterday he and four other American physicians will go to Moscow early in September for a discussion of heart disease and allied ailments. The doctors are going at the invitation of the Russian Ministry of Health and with the approval of our State Department.

THE DUKE OF NORFOLK, premier peer of Britain, was asked to say a few words at a dinner of the National Milk Publicity Council. His words: "I don't drink milk."

Sunday, July 22

DAVID J. McDONALD, president of the United Steelworkers, today agreed to an industry proposal to resume contract talks at New York City Tuesday, in an effort to end a 22-day-old strike.

A few hours before, McDonald had bitterly attacked the industry for its pricing policy. He said steel prices have risen out of all proportion to rises in costs.

McDonald was preparing to leave Pittsburgh for a picket-line tour when the industry asked that talks resume. He immediately cancelled plans for the tour.

Monday, July 23

THE HOUSE today passed the hard-fought civil rights bill, sending it to almost certain death in the Senate. The roll call vote on passage was 279-128.

Both Republican and northern Democratic supporters of the bill, which would strengthen the government's arm in dealing with violation of voting and other rights, have said they expect political advantage from today's vote.

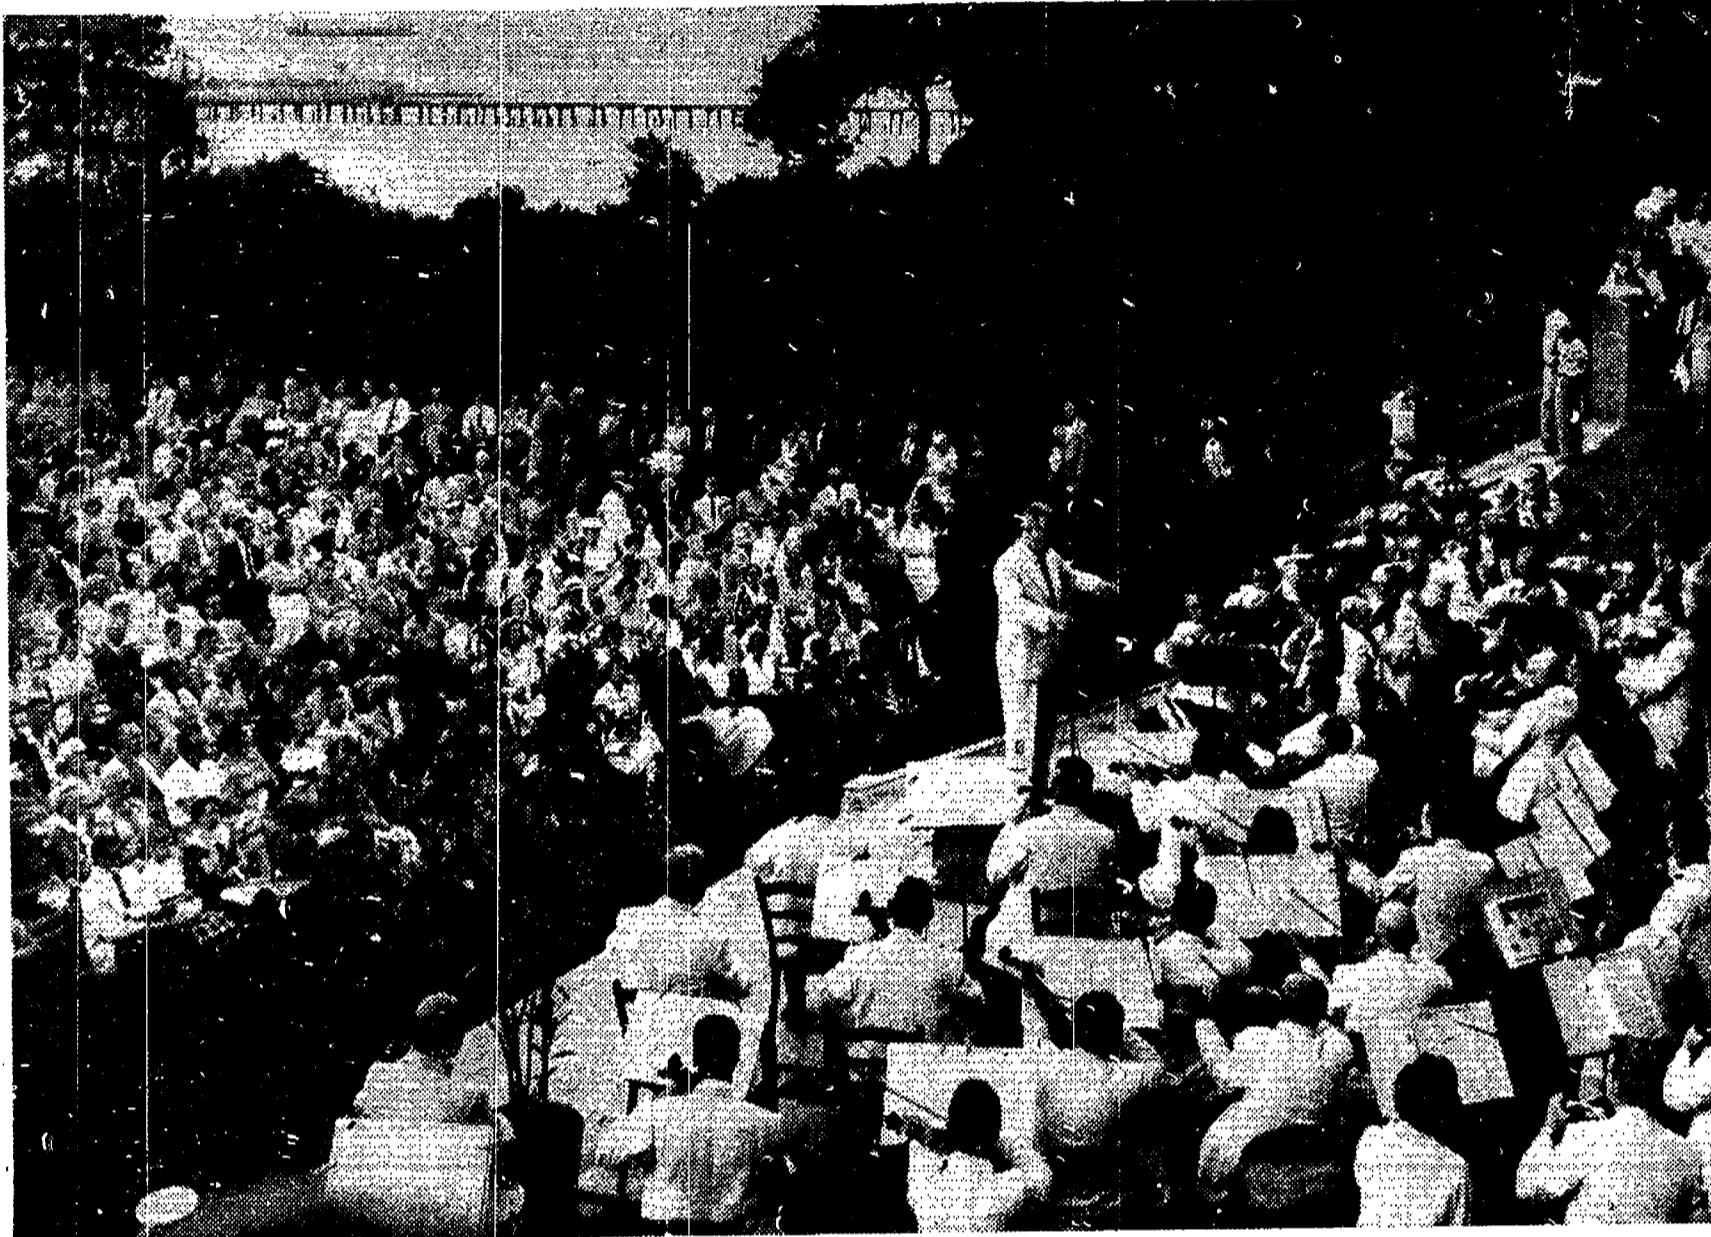

Tuesday, July 24

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER flew to Washington from Panama today with a warm greeting for Vice President Nixon and the briefest of handshakes for Harold Stassen, his disarmament aide who announced a move last night to push Nixon off the Republican ticket.

Wednesday, July 25

UNION AND COMPANY negotiators sat down in hope of ending the 24-day-old nationwide steel strike.

Gathering of 3000 Hears Detroit Symphony Orchestra

The broad expanse of lawn in front of the War Memorial Center was crowded by more than 2,000 residents who listened to the Lake side concert presented by the full Detroit Symphony Orchestra last Sunday afternoon.

The crowd overflowed onto nearby properties, and a dozen pleasure boats dropped their anchors a few yards off the shore. Valter Poole conducted the Symphony, which played eight selections.

School Bids Far Exceed Estimates

All Rejected as Lowest For New Junior High Is $700,000 Above Architects' Figure

Hopes of the near-future ground breaking for the new Chalfonte-Moran road area junior high school were blasted Monday night at a special meeting held by the Board of Education when all bids on the building construction were refused.

Grounds for the refusals were that the lowest bid was $700,000 above the architect's estimated cost for the school.

All Eight Rejected
Eight bids were submitted, the lowest being $3,337,516 as against the estimated $2,500,000 for the building alone and $2,800,000 for the building and furnishings combined.

All bids were refused in a blanket vote by the Board. The bids for contracts will be re-advertised and asked to be submitted by August 29, the Board decided.

Any or all of the contractors who submitted bids by the first date advertised may reestimate the job and submit new bids, the Board explained. New contractors are welcomed.

No other action was taken at the special meeting.

The Farms station house received an accident call from City police early Thursday morning, July 19. A Farms squad car was immediately dispatched to Beauregard and Chalfonte, where City police officers John Onstwedder and Duncan MacEachern were holding Dean Cook of Dearborn, Michigan.

MacEachern reported that he saw a car going north on Fisher road with its lights off. The City police car pulled the suspicious car to the curb, and found its driver, Cook, in an intoxicated condition.

They investigated and discovered that he had run over several lawns on Fisher road and sideswiped a 1955 Dodge owned by William Healy, Jr., which was parked in front of 256 Fisher.

Cook was arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol and leaving the scene of an accident.

He told police he drove his car

Dates for Annual Fishing Rodeo Contest at Farms Pier Set by Committee

Preliminary Events to Be Held at Municipal Parks From July 25 to August 16; Main Competition Set for August 18.

The Sixth Annual Grosse Pointe Fishing Rodeo will be held on Saturday morning, August 18, beginning at 8:30 and ending at 10 a.m. This year's rodeo will be held at the Farms Pier.

Boy Confesses Prowler Role

Farms detectives were quick to solve what appeared at first to be a case of breaking and entering. Early Saturday morning, July 21, Mrs. Betty F. Dull, of 335 Grosse Pointe boulevard, called the station house to report a prowler had been in her home.

Police investigated and found that the "prowler" had climbed a tree in front of the house. He then let himself in an upstairs window. Detectives found footprints on top of a cedar chest, and several hand prints on the woodwork.

Sunday, a boy neighbor confessed that he had entered the Dull house as a prank. He just wanted to scare them a little, he told detective Harold Beaupre.

The lad has been reprimanded by his parents and the police.

Contestants must be under 17 years of age and a resident of either Grosse Pointe City or Farms. Youngsters under 10 years of age must be accompanied by an adult.

All Must Register
All contestants must be registered and wear a Fish emblem to participate. Each contestant must hook and land his own fish without assistance from an adult.

Prizes will be awarded on the basis of size and quantity. Free refreshments will be served all contestants after the rodeo.

The Pre-Rodeo contest to be held at each Park will begin on July 25 and close on August 16. Separate prizes will be awarded for the largest and most fish caught during this time. The same rules apply to both contests.

Two Separate Contests
Remember, these are two separate contests. More information can be obtained from this year's chairman, Cliff Ashton for Grosse Pointe City and William Cavanaugh for Grosse Pointe Farms.

A meeting of all committeemen is to be held on July 30 at the Neighborhood Club at 8 p.m. to prepare for the big day on August 18.

Vandals Smash Convent Window

Father Albert Melvin of St. Paul's Church reported to Farms police on Saturday evening, July 21, that someone had thrown an empty beer bottle through a leaded glass window of the Convent.

The pastor asked squad car crews to check the church grounds and the school bus, where he said the youngsters had been doing their partying.

LEAVES EMPTY HANDED

William Cope of 1706 Broadstone, reported a breaking and entering to the Woods police Sunday, July 22. The police could not determine the method of entry and nothing was reported missing.

Little Loop World Series Set to Start

Expect at Least 1,500 Fans to be on Hand as Youngsters Fight for Gray Trophy

More than 1,500 fans are expected to witness Grosse Pointe's Little League "World Series" which opens next Tuesday, (July 31), with the Woods-Shores meeting the City at Ghesquire Park and the Farms clashing with the Park at Defer School.

Last year's first inter-city tournament drew more than 1,000 fans, and Tournament Director, E. C. Van Tiem expects a sizeable increase this year as interest spreads among Pointers.

Final Is August 1

Championship game of the series will be played Thursday, August 1, at one of the following fields: Neighborhood Club, G. P. High School or Defer. If the City nine defeats the Woods-Shores, the final contest will be held at Neighborhood, while if the Woods-Shores team is victorious, the championship will be decided on the home field of the winner of the Farms-Park contest.

Van Tiem, credited with being the originator of the inter-city tournament idea, points out that if any scheduled game is rained out, it will be played the following night at the same field. All games start at 6:15 p.m.

No Admission Charge

There will be no admission charge to any of the games, and all baseball fans are urged by Van Tiem to attend the contests.

"You'll see spirited play by 9-to-12-year-old boys, playing under ideal conditions with competent supervision," Van Tiem said.

The winning team will get to retain the Roland Gray trophy for one year and have its name inscribed thereon. Members of the championship club will receive gold baseball statuettes, donated by Bernard Whitley of Maxon Bros., while team members of the runner-up club will receive silver statuettes through the courtesy of Mack Phillips, East Side Sporting Goods Shop.

Flag-raising ceremonies will feature each game of the tournament, and top city officials of the Pointes will take part in pre-game festivities.

Accused of Intent To Kill, Prisoner Mute in Park Court

Marvin Jackson Remanded to Sheriff to Await Trial After Being Unable to Raise Bond Set at $100,000

Marvin S. Jackson, 41 of 26741 Belanger, Roseville, appeared before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Wednesday, July 18, for examination on a charge of intent to commit murder. He stood mute.

Judge Belanger apparently found sufficient cause for a trial and continued Jackson's bond of $100,000, which the defendant could not meet and remanded him to the custody of the Wayne County Sheriff's Office to await trial in Circuit Court.

Say He Invaded Home
Jackson is accused of invading the home of Lynn Wertz, 756 Pemberton, on Wednesday, July 11, following a phone call in which he threatened to slash the latter's wife, Betty Jo.

The threat was made at 12:25 a.m. on the Wednesday date, and at 5:33 a.m. the same morning, Jackson broke into the Wertz residence by forcing the rear kitchen door.

He forced a second-floor bedroom door of one of the Wertz children with a tire iron, but finding he had the wrong room, he tried a second, finding Mrs. Wertz in that one.

Mrs. Wertz awakened to discover Jackson standing over her bed with razor blades in his hands, and jumping over the foot of the bed, ran screaming to the first floor of the house, where she called police.

Caught by Police
Jackson was arrested by Park Patrolmen Henry Coonce and Charles Clear, as he sought to escape from the house through the front door.

The Wertz befriended Jackson and his wife five years ago, but had a falling out two years back. Mrs. Wertz and a daughter once took piano lessons from Jackson.

A year after the friendship terminated, Jackson began to issue threats against Mrs. Wertz.

Angler's Luck Bad as Usual

Fishermen are notorious for wooing others with their tales of poor or good luck. One local angler didn't even have a chance to dip his line before he had the makings of one of the best "one that got away" stories heard this season.

Richard L. Hart of 333 McMillan road had this sad tale to report to Farms police last week.

On Thursday, July 19, he bought a new 16 horsepower outboard motor, and a boat and trailer. That night he packed and positioned the boat, motor, and trailer in the driveway in front of his home. Mr. Hart wanted everything in readiness for an early departure on the next morning.

At 5 a.m. Friday, he went out to his car and discovered someone had taken the outboard motor during the night. He called the police, then oiled his car locks.

Drinking Driver Given 20 Days in Jail After Crash

Patrolman William Fowler of the Farms police force, was on his way home for lunch, on Tuesday, July 17, when he noticed a Woods scout car attending an accident in front of the Woods Theater on Mack avenue.

Jacob Thier of 4869 Cooper, in Detroit, was driving his 1936 Dodge east on Mack avenue and stopped when traffic in his lane came to a halt. Another car plowed into the rear of Jacob's Dodge, then took off, leaving the scene of the accident.

Several witnesses told police the hit-run car was a 1953 Buick, with some ladders strapped to the top of the car. The officers soon located the Buick in a parking lot behind the Woods Theater. The four occupants were all intoxicated. They were taken to headquarters for questioning. All four men denied anyone

Health Board Asks Action Immediately

Working With Clinton Township in Seeking Solution

The Five Pointes, already faced with a serious rubbish disposal problem, were prodded to further action last week when the Macomb County Board of Health issued a "ten day or else" edict.

A court injunction prohibiting the dumping of rubbish in Clinton Township was threatened if measures were not taken to improve sanitary and safety factors at the 14 Mile Road-Gratiot-Harper dump areas.

Officials Held Meetings
City Managers from the five Pointe communities have been meeting with Clinton Township Supervisor Jerome DeVisscher for the past few months, but as yet no concrete action has been forthcoming. At a meeting held last Wednesday, July 18, a committee to study the "land fill" plan was formed.

"I doubt that the Board of Health will issue the injunction if we can come up with a definite solution within the near future," said DeVisscher.

Three Use Gravel Pit
At present, the Park, Farms and Shores are dumping in an abandoned gravel pit on McQuinn road which runs off of 14 Mile east of Gratiot and west of Harper, while the City dumps in a similar area on nearby 14 Mile. The Woods contracts privately for its rubbish disposal.

"It's up to the contractor where he dumps," said the city manager. The six acre disposal area are surrounded on all sides by residential developments. "At some spots, homes come within 50 feet of the pits," DeVisscher said.

Fires, the definite source of which are unknown, frequently cloud the area in a thick shroud of smoke. "I've been in homes bordering on the dump that the smoke has been so thick that you could hardly see across the room," DeVisscher said.

Winds Cause Trouble
Besides the smoke nuisance, winds often whip up ashes and burning particles of rubbish, carrying them dangerously near the surrounding homes. "We've had to call the fire department out to the dump on a number of occasions to dampen down the area and extinguish dangerous blazes," DeVisscher went on.

It is believed that most of the sporadic flame-ups can be traced to underground fires that continually "burn in uncovered dumps.

Though the dumps are primarily for rubbish, a certain amount of garbage inevitably creeps in, thus affecting health

Fishing Poles Fail as Props

James D. Smith of 2958 Cadillac, Detroit, arrested by Park police on Tuesday, July 17, for investigation of burglary, was turned over to the Macomb County Sheriff's Office, as a possible probation violator.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that on the Tuesday date, Patrolmen Don Dean and Adhener Mouton, answered a call to the foot of Whittier where a suspicious person had parked a car on private property. A search of the vicinity turned up no one, so the officers decided to do some patient waiting.

Within a short while, Smith returned to the car, with two fishing poles in his possession. When he was taken into custody, he told the patrolmen the poles did not belong to him.

He admitted that he saw the officers approaching in their scout car and so ran down the lake and jumped over a fence at Grand Marais and Whittier. It was there, he claimed, he found the fishing poles and then returned to his car.

The chief said there was no proof of from where the poles were taken, so Smith was returned to Macomb authorities for additional investigation and the possible parole violation.

Disposal Problem Acute

(Continued from Page 1) conditions in the area. "Though it is unintentional, a good many people are, at times, lax in sorting garbage from rubbish. For instance, a family might cook outdoors on occasion and throw the steak bones in the rubbish," DeVisser explained.

Two Possible Solutions

To date, the five Pointes Committee has come up with two possible solutions. One is the so-called "land fill" plan. In this plan, a low land area, such as the existing gravel pits, is used and each dump is covered over with a suitable cover. This not only negates fire, but at the completion of the fill, the land is reclaimable.

The other solution is the building of an incinerator plant. At an estimated cost of over a million and a half, the cost could and undoubtedly would be handled through a bond issue over a 20 or 30-year plan.

Would Create Authority

"If this is the solution arrived at, the five Pointes and Clinton Township would establish an inter-township authority. This body would then float the bond issue," DeVisser said.

Clinton township home owners have already voiced an opinion through petition that they do not want an incinerator plant.

The Detroit Edison now dumps waste slag in a nearby area. At last Wednesday's meeting, the Committee appointed to investigate the land fill plan, headed by Park City Manager Everitt Lane, said they would investigate the possibility of using the slag as the rubbish top cover.

Optimistic About Solution

DeVisser is optimistic about the near solution of the problem. "We should arrive at a concrete answer within the next few weeks," he said. "We are all interested in eradicating this community sore and the Pointes have been most cooperative and have worked conscientiously during the past few months."

Mr. Lane, who has headed most of the action, plus the other four City Managers, have put a great deal of time and hard work into the project," he concluded.

Toolin Retiring From A & P Post

Retirement of John M. Toolin, president of A&P Food Stores' Central Western Division since its formation in 1925 and dean of food chain executives in the Middle West, is announced effective August 1.

During nearly a half century with the nation's oldest food chain, Toolin also was associated with the company's early development in New England, California and the Chicago area.

He started with the company in 1908 in his native New London, Conn., and within two years became a store manager in New Haven, Conn. Two years later, he was an assistant superintendent and by 1917 he was superintendent of all company stores in the Chicago area.

In 1919, Toolin was named general superintendent of stores in Indiana, Ohio and Michigan. He was appointed in 1924 as vice-president of the Middle Western Division in Chicago. He was elected president of the Central Western Division when it was founded Nov. 17, 1925. The same year the company formally opened its five-story bakery, warehouse and division offices at 5470 Hecla in Detroit.

As president, he directed the division's expansion in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky and Tennessee, and built a territory stretching from Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. to Memphis, Tenn.

The division now includes hundreds of super markets and stores, with unit warehouses, bakeries and office facilities in Detroit, Grand Rapids, Toledo, Indianapolis, Louisville, Flint, Cincinnati, Nashville and Evansville.

Lt. Warren R. Sisman Graduates in Germany

VILSECK, Germany—Second Lt. Warren R. Sisman, son of Warren Sisman, 1048 Yorkshire, Grosse Pointe, Mich., recently was graduated from the Seventh Army officer track vehicle maintenance course in Germany.

Lieutenant Sisman, a 1954 graduate of Michigan State University, entered the Army in January 1955 and was last stationed at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md.

The average man knows how, the scientists why, and the successful man knows both.

'Rocky' Has Drive-In Service

Add a drive-in political campaign headquarters to the list of drive-in services available to the motoring public. Supporters of Rockwell T. "Rocky" Gust, candidate for the Republican nomination to Congress in the 14th District, can now pick up campaign literature, have stickers put on their bumpers, and get voting information, without leaving their cars.

A "Gust for Congress" drive-in headquarters has been set up in an idle service station at the corner of Mack and Buckingham, and is staffed by volunteer workers from 3 p.m. to 10 p.m. weekdays, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Saturdays, and from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Sundays.

In addition to providing fast distribution of campaign material to voters, the drive-in headquarters serves as a supply center for the many volunteer workers who are canvassing the 14th District in behalf of Mr. Gust.

First big event scheduled for this unique development in political campaign strategy is "Meet Rocky Gust Day" scheduled for Saturday, July 28. Mr. Gust will be at the drive-in headquarters all day, and 14th District voters can meet and talk with him without leaving their cars.

Gust supporters plan to call attention to the candidate's presence at the convenient meeting place with a sound truck which will tour the District inviting all voters to drive to Mack and Buckingham, and searchlights in front of the drive-in headquarters during the evening hours.

In addition to the opportunity to have an informal discussion with Mr. Gust regarding his platform and principles, visitors to the drive-in headquarters on Saturday will receive "Gust Yardsticks," useful measuring sticks which also spell out the three tests which Mr. Gust will subject every proposed law if he is nominated and elected.

The idea for the drive-in headquarters was the brainchild of Mr. Gust and his campaign manager, State Legislator Robert E. Waldron. It was established through the cooperation of Al D'Eath, candidate for Republican nomination for State Senator from the 1st Senatorial District, who owns the property. In charge of volunteer workers at the drive-in headquarters is David Zegenbein.

The distinctive headquarters is well-marked with "Gust for Congress" signs, and with pictures of Mr. Gust and President Eisenhower and Vice-President Nixon.

Reveal Plans To Develop Park Harbor

Hope to Get an Additional 1000 feet of Dock Footage and to Dredge Large Area

Though still in the very tentative stages, the Park is planning further expansion of its harbor and docking facilities at the Alter Road lakefront beach.

A long term, three stage plan, the first stage has been completed and the second will be started this fall pending the approval by the City Council of the engineering plans and estimates.

Increased Parking

The recreation area, which recently underwent a parking lot expansion and harbor facelift, will get approximately 1000 feet of additional dock footage and a great many more boat-well moorings before the program is completed.

Scheduled for this fall is a 300 foot addition to the existing 750 foot fishing dock that extends out from the shoreline at the east end of the park. The new dock will complete the east end of the 'L' leg that will eventually make a fully enclosed harbor of the area.

The sister, west-end leg that will eventually replace the mooring facilities that now lie behind the bath house, may be completed this fall but the completion date is unknown.

Hope to Dredge Area

According to City Manager Everitt Lane, the plans now are to dredge out the west-end area and build the dock along the natural peninsula that borders the Fox Creek canal. The bottom of the 'L' would then extend at right angles east from the end of that pier.

Lane emphasized that despite the existing plans, everything hinges on the final estimates of the engineers and the eventual approval of the council.

Obituaries

Hockey Movies Set for Friday

Everyone interested in sports is invited free of charge to, congregate in the War Memorial's backyard this Friday evening, July 27, at 8 o'clock, to meet and hear John Mitchell, head scout for Detroit's hockey club, the Red Wings, and see excellent moving pictures of the recent Stanley Play-Offs.

John Mitchell knows his hockey. He has served as player, referee, coach and business manager of many different teams. He is also a good and entertaining speaker. Not only will he comment on the film but he will be glad to review the past season and predict for next year. He will also furnish interesting background material and intimate knowledge of the Red Wing players.

The Memorial program committee hopes both young people and families will attend.

Switch the Pitch - And you Zing like a Bird

You can do it only in a Buick.

Only with Variable Pitch Dynaflo* can you switch the pitch like an airplane pilot does. Only with Dynaflo can you get a safety-surge of extra power that's smooth as a soaring bird.

Only the newest version of Dynaflo gives completely smooth, swift acceleration—even at the first gas-saving inch of pedal pressure.

Trying is believing—this new 1956 Dynaflo is years ahead of any other transmission. And it's just one of the great new features that you're missing if you're still driving an older car.

So why wait for your present car to become another year older—and considerably less valuable as trade-in—when you can take advantage of today's prices? And enjoy a car so excitingly new?

Just look at Buick's new styling. "Massive" and "grace" are words that seem almost contradictory. But they're beautifully combined in these newest Buicks. And in a classic way that will still look fresh for years to come.

Just try the newest Buick ride. It's the steadiest yet. Based on deep-coil springs, deep-oil-cushioned shock absorbers, torque-tube drive, and a long list of new developments not even Buick has ever had before.

To get a softer, more buoyant ride than this, you'd have to repeal the laws of gravity.

And to say that this is a great time to buy a Buick is really an understatement. Come see the sensible, down-to-earth prices of Buick's tremendous range of models. Come hear the deal we can give you.

It's our deal—for your pleasure. Come draw up a chair—we're ready whenever you are.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

AIR CONDITIONING

Progress Pushes Mailman Off Old, Familiar Route

"Remember back in 1935 when the Shores and Woods were mostly field with a few scattered houses here and there? Back then, a mail route REALLY covered a lot of territory."

So said veteran Grosse Pointe mailman, Al Krause of 17155 Minneapolis, Detroit, when he found out last week that he would lose the greater part of the route that he has loved and served so faithfully for the past 16 years. Just about everyone in Grosse Pointe Shores knows Al as the big, deep-throated carrier who always has time for a cheerful "Good Morning!"

But, as with everything else, Al must retreat to make way for progress. No longer will the red, white and blue truck of Al's travel from box to box along Lochmoor, Sunningdale and Colonial, for now the three streets are built up and will soon be delivered on foot.

It was in 1934 that Al first began on the route as a relief man for a carrier whom many old Grosse Pointers remember as Big Herman. At that time, the route was delivered by car and later, as it is today, by truck. It had to be. The route covered all the territory from Provençal to the Edsel Ford estate and from Jefferson to Mack avenue.

Then, in July, 1940, Al became the regular mailman. The Pointe was growing fast and soon the route had to be divided, as it has several times since.

Now Al is losing, not cold streets, but friendly people who live on those streets—children whom he watched grow up for the past 16 years—16 years this month.

"I've driven a lot of miles and delivered a lot of mail," says Al, "but it has a reward all its own. Now, with those three streets gone, I feel almost as if I'm retiring."

Banish Mongrel For Third Bite

Third offenders go to the kennels, and such was the case when a black and white mongrel owned by Harry Mellen, Jr., of 887 University place, was reported for the third time this year, as the dog which put the bite on a local resident.

On July 21, Marilyn Ellis of 932 University, was bitten on the cheek by the dog. The previous day, 11-year-old Douglas Crane was bitten on the left side of his neck by the same dog.

Earlier in the year, the Mellon dog was named in another bite case.

Mr. Mellen was asked to take his dog to a kennel.

Henry G. Swindlehurst Nears Army Graduation

FORT LEONARD WOOD, Mo.—Army Pvt. Henry G. Swindlehurst, son of Mrs. Wilmet G. Swindlehurst, 564 Notre Dame, Grosse Pointe, Mich., is scheduled to graduate at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., this month after completing six months of active duty military training under the Reserve Forces Act.

Swindlehurst will now be permitted to finish his military service with a local Army Reserve or National Guard unit.

The 19-year-old soldier, son of Henry G. Swindlehurst, 25218 S. E. D Avenue, Roseville, is a 1956 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School.

"Come Down, Come Down from that..."

Businesses Enter Garden Contest

The Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society officers held a meeting on July 20.

On the summer program for the society is the business landscape gardening competition.

Seven gardens have been selected for judging. They include those of the Verheyden Funeral Home, Detroit Lubrication, Grosse Pointe branch of the National Bank of Detroit, E. Jefferson avenue; Ray Whyte Chevrolet, O'Leary Cadillac Sales, Walton-Pierce and Jacobson's.

At the end of the summer season a certificate of merit will be awarded to the best kept garden of the group.

The society is composed of some 65 men members, all garden experts. Charles Jacobs and H. L. Wheeler, educational chairman of the society are judges.

Boat Owners Club Makes Plans for Big Regatta

The election of officers and the announcement of the date of the 2nd Annual Regatta came out of the second summer meeting of the Grosse Pointe Farms Boat Owners Club held Monday evening, July 23, at the boat house at the foot of Moross road.

August 19 at the Farms pier has been set as the time and place for the regatta which was, last year, the largest held on the lakes with an entry of over 200 craft and 6,000 participating personnel.

Officers elected for a one year term were: president, Charles Davis; vice president, Harry Carson and Mrs. Mary Foguth, sec.-treasurer. Also elected were board of director members.

Stanley Jursik, retiring president of the club, was an automatic appointee to the Board. Elected for two year terms were Al Huntington and William Cavanaugh. To fill one year terms will be Joseph Rem, Joseph Meier and William Laitner.

The club also altered the standing rules or order slightly when they voted to make the board of directors the standing Regatta Committee. Previously, this committee was elected for each regatta.

Regatta chairmen were also

Arrest Two Boys In Car Theft

Charges of stealing and damaging a car were filed in Juvenile Court against two juveniles on Friday, July 20, by Woods Det. LeRoy Tobian.

Det. Tobian disclosed that the juveniles, both boys, had stolen a car belonging to Fred F. Gougeau, 45, of 20861 "W" street, from in front of the latter's home on Friday, July 13. The car was recovered the following day, with the radiator and fan damaged.

The detectives said that two witnesses, Earl Robfeld of 20651 "W", and Lee W. Riealer of 20671 "W", witnessed the theft and notified police.

Tobian discovered the names of the boys, who when apprehended admitted stealing the car and driving it to Jefferson Beach. On the way back from the park, they said, they hit a hole in the pavement which caused the car battery to jar loose from its casing and land on the radiator and fan causing approximately $52 in damages.

The boys told the detectives that they jumped the ignition switch with a piece of tin foil.

The car was found abandoned in front of 505 Hollywood.

Truck and Auto Crash in Park

A cat nap on the part of driver Melven M. Mayle, 714 Lansing, Detroit, resulted in a truck-auto collision Saturday, July 21.

Mayle, driving his '54 Chevrolet east on Kercheval lost control, swerved over the middle line and plowed into a creamery company truck traveling west on Kercheval.

The truck was driven by Thomas Stacherski. The accident happened just west of the Kercheval-Balfour intersection. Though Mayle's car was not drivable, no one was injured.

BALL INJURES SPECTATOR

Mrs. Wilma Gilliland of 405 McKinley avenue got more action than she had bargained on when she went to watch a baseball game at the Kerby Field, Thursday evening, July 19.

She was taken to Cottage Hospital when a ball hit her above the right eye.

Theft Reported At Yacht Club

An unknown thief lifted an envelope containing a watch valued at over $400 and other personal effects of Bartholomew Seymour, 876 Edgemont Park drive, Saturday, July 12. The theft took place at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Seymour, a recent graduate of Cranwell Prep, had checked his valuables with the attendant at the poolside locker room. When he returned to redeem them, the envelope in which they were placed, was gone. It was later found torn open on the club grounds.

The theft was reported to the Shores police. According to the police report, a ring and a wallet containing from $4 to $10 in addition to identification papers were also missing.

On Monday, July 23, the watch, ring and wallet were found on the Club Grounds. Only the money from the wallet is still missing. According to Chief Duemling of the Shores Police, "It looks as if the thief got scared and returned the property. We found it on top of the lockers in the locker room."

A thorough search of the locker room had been previously made.

Drivers Fined In City Court

Judge Douglas Paterson of the City, heard two cases in traffic court Tuesday, July 17.

George E. Emmendorfer of 3635 Courville, Detroit, was charged with reckless driving. The charge was reduced to speeding 40 mph and Emmendorfer paid a $15 fine.

James F. Farrell, Jr., of 1151 Paget court, was also fined $15 when his reckless driving charge was reduced to speeding.

Offers Booklet On State Parks

Automobile Club of Michigan this week will begin distribution of its 1956 Michigan State Parks booklet, George Measel, Grosse Pointe division manager, announced today.

The 36-page booklet lists the 61 state parks and recreation areas, gives their location and describes facilities for tourists, campers and fishermen. Also included is a listing of state forest camp and picnic grounds, metropolitan and Wayne County parks.

Michigan parks and recreation areas should set new attendance records this year, Measel predicted. In 1955, they entertained nearly 18 million visitors while over 99,000 campers enjoyed the state-owned facilities.

As a public service, the booklet will be made available to all Grosse Pointe-area motorists.

Driver Injured In Dual Crash

Kenneth Karn, 32, of 20008 Shady lane, St. Clair Shores, was ticketed for reckless driving on Wednesday, July 18, following an accident in which he rammed two cars and suffered head and leg injuries.

A Woods police accident report disclosed that Karn was driving east on Mack at an excessive rate of speed, and struck the rear of a car, driven by Francis McGee of 22712 Alger, St. Clair Shores, at Hunt Club drive.

The impact caused McGee's car to go over the center island. Karn lost control of his car, striking another, belonging to Russell LeFevre of 19759 Ida lane, parked at the curb.

Karn was knocked unconscious. He was taken to St. John Hospital by police, where he was treated for bad cuts about the head and left leg injuries.

Karn admitted to authorities that he had been drinking and was traveling at an excessive rate of speed, but could not recall how fast.

His court date is August 25.

Young Democrats Meeting Tonight

Fourteenth congressional district delegates to the Democratic national convention have been invited to an open forum scheduled for 8 p. m. Thursday, July 26, under the sponsorship of the 14th Congressional District Young Democratic club. The meeting will be held at district Democratic headquarters, 10542 East Warren near Harding.

Heading the list of invited delegates is Governor G. Mennen Williams who boasts of the 14th as his home district. Williams is a delegate-at-large and leader of the Michigan delegation. Also invited as delegates-at-large have been Leonard Woodcock, UAW vice-president; Ed Carey, Democratic leader in the state house of representatives, and Tom McNamara, AFL Building Trades official.

District delegates who have been asked to appear at the meeting include Congressman Louis C. Rabaut, State Senator Harold M. Ryan, Al Barbour and Larry Gettlinger. Their alternates are Art Farrar, Helen With, Steve Vezmar and Mike Cusmano.

Club chairman Alda Vagnozzi, 11431 Nashville, said that the meeting has been arranged to give voters in the district an opportunity to tell their delegates their views on issues which will be decided at the national convention.

Vagnozzi said that most of the meeting will probably be devoted to a discussion of the Michigan Declaration and its impact on the national convention. State Democrats have proposed the forward-looking program embodied in the Declaration for consideration of the convention's platform writing committee.

The 14th Young Dems also announced plans for a Bob-Lo Moonlight excursion the night of Friday, August 10. Tickets for this affair can be purchased at the July 26 meeting or from any member of the club. Tickets will also be available at the pier the night of the event.

Local Sailors Qualify For Lightning Nationals

But for a brief rain storm before the second race, the 1956 Michigan District Lightning championship series on Lake St. Clair over the weekend, July 20 to 22, was a huge success.

Mack Goodwin of Pontiac Y. C. captured the top prize with 186 points in the five race series. Hank Cawthra of Crescent Sail Y.C. and former National Lightning champion, placed second with 183 points and was followed by Herm Nickles of Fenton Y.C., 178; and Wes Weidrick of Bayview Y.C., 176.

These four skippers and their crews qualified for the Lightning Internationals to be held at the Buffalo Canoe Club on September 5 to 9.

Consistent sailing was Goodwin's prescription for his victory. He didn't win a single race but managed to stay in the top ten of the 39 boat fleet throughout the series. Goodwin had 3 seconds to his credit.

Cawthra and Weidrick both captured two of the races but when they missed the top three they dropped far down in the fleet to lose valuable points that couldn't be regained. Cawthra has won the Michigan State Lightning title three times before and Weidrick took it once.

Working with his crew of wife Marilyn and Ron Callahan like a precision machine Goodwin managed to stay out of trouble and protect his hard earned lead. He was sailing Doc Murphy's old boat in which the good doctor had done so well over the past few years. At the end of the series Murphy was ready to trade his new boat "Even Steven" but Mack would have no part of it.

Two races were sailed on each Friday and Saturday, July 20 and 21, and under almost identical conditions—southwest wind 8 to 10 miles per hour. The final race was a whistler out of the southwest which provided the only casualty, Jimmy Schudel, capsized his "Itch"—believe it or not—to weather.

The first race was won by Weidrick, who was followed over the line by Goodwin and Bob Flack. The second race went to Joe Stueland with Herm Nickles taking second and Weidrick third.

At this point Weidrick appeared to be on his way to the crown. But in the third race he finished far back in the fleet as Hank Cawthra won, followed by Goodwin and Nickles. Weidrick made a good comeback in the fourth race to win it over Goodwin and Cawthra, who placed in that order.

Cawthra bounced into second place in the final standings when he won the final race with Stueland taking second and Nickles third.

The race was held under the sponsorship of Bayview Y.C. whose vice-commodore Lynn Stedmann, Jr., ran the races in near perfect fashion from his yawl "Lurer", and with the able assistance of Bayview's Commodore Bob Benkert, who handled the patrol boats.

With 39 of the little 18-foot sloops charging around the three-mile triangle one would believe someone would get in someone else's way—but there were only five protests lodged, which is about par for the course. Bayview and Commodores Benkert and Stedman were given a standing ovation for the way they handled the series.

From Another Pointe of View

By Kitty Marriott

Mr. and Mrs. John Bockstanz of Radnor circle piled into the station wagon last Friday with their three oldest children, Sherry, Jack and Bill, for a long weekend reunion in Louisville, Ky., with the Donald L. McKays.

The couples became close friends during the three years the menfolk were stationed with the Army at Langley Field, and they alternate visits each summer. One year the McKays and their trio of offspring, Donny, Mary Donna and Barbara—the last is Mrs. Bockstanz' namesake—came up here for a visit, and the next year, the Bockstanz clan makes the reunion trek.

Sherry Bockstanz had just returned from her first solo trip out West, where she visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bowman, in Beverly Hills, and friends in Laguna Beach, Calif.

Mrs. C. Allison Monroe of Ridge road has an August 21 jaunt on her calendar. Her nephew, Clemmy Penrose, will come in from Camp Algonquin at Burt Lake to join Mrs. Monroe and her son, Peter, in traveling to Nantucket. There, the young camper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Penrose, of Birmingham, will be awaiting the trio at their house.

Theatre and Ball Game

University Club members have a variety of club-planned entertainment to choose from during the summer season. On Thursday last, one group boarded an air conditioned chartered bus to attend the Melody Circus presentation of "Annie Get Your Gun." In order to make the 8:30 curtain, the passengers chatted over tasty box lunches enroute. Theatre-goers included Dr. and Mrs. George Chittenden, the Frank Sladens, Mr. and Mrs. William Gall, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Sutton, the Charles Trapps, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart, the John Greenes, Peter Van Osdol and Harold Boyer, Jr.

Three or four times a year, a baseball party is planned. Next Tuesday evening, members will meet at the club for lobster and chicken buffet before going on to the Tiger-Red Sox night game together at Briggs Stadium.

Entertainment committee members who are making necessary arrangements are chairman James Standart, Lawrence Gotfredson, Jerome C. DuCharme, Kenneth S. Drake, Rockwell T. Gust, Jr., Robert R. Ferguson and James P. Chapman. Reservations have been made by Dr. and Mrs. Charles Jamieson, the Charles Creedons, Dr. and Mrs. Donald Sweeney, Jr., and Dr. and Mrs. Richard Wunsch. Mr. Burt Ballard and Mr. H. M. Barkley have also invited parties for the buffet supper and ball game.

Holiday in Europe

Mrs. Hoyt P. Spicer is home again in Fisher road, reliving with friends the excitement of her recent whirlwind trip through Europe. She traveled to and from the continent on the Queen Elizabeth. Her son, Hoyt, who is stationed at Pirmasens near Kaiserslautern, Germany, with the Army, had a backlog of leave time and used some of it to escort his mother on her month's tour.

Hoyt met his mother in London, where she says he was so glad to hear English spoken again that they remained a week. Carrying an introduction to the Hon. (Continued on Page 7)

Ann Mayo Hartzell Weds Howie Muir

Ceremony in Christ Church on Saturday Afternoon Followed by Reception in Garden of Parents of Bride

Ann Mayo Hartzell and W. Howie Muir II repeated their wedding vows on Saturday, July 21, at 4:30 o'clock in a flower-decked Christ Church Grosse Pointe.

A reception followed in the gardens at the Ridge home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. John B. Hartzell.

Ivory toned rose point and illusion over ivory satin fashioned the bridal gown, which was distinguished by a high, simple bodice, long pointed sleeves and flowing skirt with circular cathedral train.

The gown had been worn by the bride's godmother, Mrs. J. Stewart Hudson of Lothrop (Continued on Page 7)

Junior Goodwillers Busy with Project

Vacations Being Shunned as Members Work Avidly on Antique Show Preparations; Event Scheduled for October

No vacations for Junior Goodwillers—members of the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries work all summer on their fall project. Even though traveling and visiting various resorts, posters advertising the 1956 Antique Show scheduled for October 21, 22, 23, and 24 at the Goodwill Industries Building, are being distributed throughout Michigan.

Posters will be placed in Grand Haven by Mrs. Durand Maher, in Saugatuck by Mrs. Earl Glynn.

Mrs. Don Leonard, motoring throughout Michigan will place posters in many of the places where she will stop.

Mrs. Otis Walker, when she leaves for Mackinac, is taking several posters which she and Mrs. Charles Porritt will place there.

The Old Club, St. Clair Flats and Algonac territory will be supplied with Goodwill Antique Show posters by Mrs. George Vawter.

While visiting in Grand Haven, Mrs. Robert Campbell will place some posters there.

Mrs. Harold Perkins who spends much of the summer at Pere Marquette Rod and Gun Club will take posters to Baldwin and Petoskey.

Mrs. Richard Wagner will carry her posters to Northport Pointe.

Hidden Valley and Mullet Lake areas will be covered by Mrs. George Crimmins and Mrs. Manson Carpenter.

Antique show chairman is Mrs. Robert W. Campbell and co-chairman, Mrs. George Thom Jr.

The following members of Junior Group Goodwill Industries complete the list on various committees:

Mrs. Durand W. Maher, advisory board; Mrs. Ernest O. Borglin, secretary; Mrs. Manson C. Carpenter, arrangements; Mrs. Edward A. Warnica, admissions; Mrs. Frank A. Reid, president of Junior Group, and Mrs. John A. Moeke, Mrs. Harry J. Altick and Mrs. J. C. Hurley, charge of Americana room.

Others are Mrs. Calvin J.

Attend Symphony Concert

Two of the most interested members of the audience at Sunday's Detroit Symphony concert at the War Memorial Center were MRS. JEROME REMICK, JR., of Ridge road, and JOHN B. FORD, JR., of East Jefferson avenue.

Mr. Ford, president of the Symphony, made a special trip from his summer home at Harbor Springs to be present. Mr. and Mrs. Remick were tireless workers during the big campaign to revive the orchestra several years ago, and have been among its most energetic supporters.

From Another Pointe of View

Edward Evans, a member of the House of Commons from Mr. Evans' brother-in-law, Gordon Muir, also of Fisher road, the Spicers were treated to a first-hand tour of the Parliament Building. They visited the queen's robing room, not often shown to the public, where Queen Elizabeth II changes costume before sitting in on meetings there.

Mr. Evans invited them to tea in the House of Lords dining room; they also watched a debate in progress on the floor of the house. Mrs. Spicer comments that it was unbelievable to hear the listening members shout "Hear! Hear!" in unison when they approved a debater's point. Out on the terrace the Hon. Mr. Evans showed them the Thames River which he referred to poetically as "liquid history."

Ravens and England's Luck

The Spicer mother and son were enchanted to find large black ravens on the lawns at the Tower of London, and to learn that the birds are believed to have significance in regard to the luck of England. 'Tis said if the ravens ever fly away, England's good fortune will leave with them.

Holland was their next stop, and they arrived just as the tulips were in full bloom—"Acres and acres of tulips spread out like a crimson carpet," remarks Mrs. Spicer. A night club tour, trips to the Louvre, Folies Bergere and dinner in the Eifel Tower highlighted their Paris visit.

Munch, Venice, Florence, Rome (where they received the Pope's blessing), and Naples followed in that order. In Venice, they saw a bridal couple leaving the church in a handsome flower-filled black gondola trimmed in gold, but motorboats are taking over the waterways, the Spicers report.

They visited many of the famed museums and chapels in Italy, spent a night on the Isle of Capri "where it was heavenly with perfect weather and the honeysuckle in bloom," and then back to Nice, where Hoyt returned to his Army base and Mrs. Spicer went on to board her ship at Cherbourg.

Hoyt, who had a year at the U. of M., and part of a year at U. of D., before his two year Army stint, expects to receive his discharge and be home again in September.

The bridegroom's mother chose a full-skirted Wedgwood blue silk organza dress with tiny cap sleeves. A filmy layer of the organza covered the wide brim of her straw chapeau and she attached white spray orchids to her handbag.

Members of the wedding party greeted reception guests on a stone terrace overlooking the green lawns of the Hartzell gardens. Strolling musicians walked among the small, round tables set up on the lawns and covered with green linen cloths. A turquoise and lemon striped marquee was at one end of the garden.

The newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Muir are on a wedding trip to Bermuda, where they will occupy the Honeymoon Cottage on the grounds of the Bermuda home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell W. Anderson of Vendome road.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hartzell donned a pale pink dress of Val lace and French voile, the bodice studded

Wedding Vows Said By Carolyn Marcy

She Becomes Bride of Robert Samuel Spears in Ceremony in St. Michael's Church on Saturday Afternoon

A home in Birmingham awaits Mr. and Mrs. Robert Samuel Spears, who were married at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, July 21, in St. Michael's Episcopal Church.

The bride is the former Carolyn Brewer Marcy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Marcy of Neff road.

Her floor length gown of dotted Swiss was trimmed with lace. Seed pearl embroidery trimmed the Juliet cap of matching lace which clasped her fingertip veil.

Gretchen Marcy, maid of honor, and Mrs. Donald G. Conrad, bridesmaid, wore white organza frocks embroidered in yellow and sashed in yellow satin. Their flowers were white blossoms with ivy streamers.

The bridegroom, whose parents are Dr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Spears, of Ypsilanti, asked Thomas Beusinger to be his best man.

Frederick Pape Jr., John Kuhn and Jack C. Kent escorted guests to their places in the church.

Pink Tea Benefits St. John Hospital

Mrs. C. Lawrence Schneider's home is scene of beautiful event under sponsorship of Fontbonne Auxiliary

It was truly a "Pink Tea"—for the color pink predominated in all decorations at the annual garden party and donation tea sponsored by the Fontbonne Auxiliary. It was held on Wednesday, July 25, from 2 to 6 o'clock in the Jefferson avenue residence of Mrs. C. Lawrence Schneider.

The donation tea was given to equip the Out Patient department in St. John Hospital.

Guests entering the Schneider home saw arrangements of pink flowers in the foyer; the tea table in the dining room was set with pink linen cloth, flowers and candles.

The hostess, (she wore a white linen sheath dress over pink, with an oval neckline and cap sleeves and added a pink handkerchief to her waist and delicate pink shoe to her outfit), selected pink garden furniture and large pink umbrellas for the party. On the terrace a large table held the huge bowl of pink punch. Potted pink geraniums circled the terrace.

Mrs. Eugene F. McCafferty was chairman of the donation tea. Mrs. Karl W. Weber and Vernon Johnson were co-chairmen for the tea table. Mrs. Arthur Fleming and Mrs. Charles Cullen were in charge of the punch table.

Mrs. Johnson asked the following members of the Fontbonne Auxiliary to assist at the tea table.

They were Mrs. Arthur Kerwin, Mrs. Harry R. Fruehoff, Mrs. Windsor Davies, Mrs. George Christensen, Mrs. James Mutschall, Mrs. Bert Wicking, Mrs. H. Beresford, Mrs. Mae Slusser, Mrs. C. J. Dunn, Mrs.

Hugh Sheehan, Mrs. Harold Jarvis, Mrs. Harold Kelly, Mrs. S. E. Schneider and Mrs. Alice Guyette.

Mrs. Karl Lysinger of Whittier road entertained a group of friends for luncheon at Al Green's preceding the Fontbonne tea. They were Mrs. Ernest Putnam, Mrs. Miles Culehan, Mrs. Karl Keelsch, Mrs. Bliss Wolfe, Mrs. Harold Rounds, Mrs. Carl Reichelt, Mrs. Walter Fuller, Mrs. Walter Stewart and Miss Jane Schermerhorn.

Houseguest of Mrs. Schneider's who came from St. Louis, Mo., to assist her with party plans is Mrs. James Peary.

For those receiving invitations to the tea who were unable to attend, donations may be mailed to Mr. C. L. Schneider, 16940 E. Jefferson avenue, Grosse Pointe, 30, or to the Fontbonne Auxiliary, St. John Hospital, 22101 Moross road, Detroit 36, Mich.

--- at the Grosse Pointe Book Shop we use the word BARGAIN, a noun meaning, "I can't afford to pass up this SALE. What SALE? Many, many beautiful CHRISTMAS CARDS, made even more beautiful by price reductions of 50%-60%. Why not join us for "CHRISTMAS IN JULY."

While on vacation you'll want at least one good book to help you relax and enjoy a few leisure moments. What better way to prepare for those idle times when it's raining, and it ALWAYS rains at least once during a vacation.

For new notes on the "VIC", there's Bop to Beethoven, Elvis Presley to Toscanini. Some would say from the ridiculous to the sublime, that's what makes the world go 'round. SO, when it comes to relaxation on your vacation, the GROSSE POINTE BOOK SHOP has the answer.

Don't forget the BARGAIN in Christmas cards will give you a head start on the annual December problem. When? JULY 19 - JULY 31.

Yacht Club Scene Of Brilliant Party

Commodore's Review and Show Boat Gala Linked For One of Gayest Events of Season at Clubhouse on Lake

Gay was Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's Commodore's Review and Show Boat Party last Saturday night. There was every ingredient to make it glamorous, from boats arrayed with full-dress flags and manned by yachtsmen in formal blue and white, to the brilliantly-lighted show boat barge and charm-filled Dixieland music.

Countless colored lights over lawns; shipboard visiting at the harbor docks; the distaff side's beautiful costumes; bales of cotton and simulated ornamental iron grills of old New Orleans—all created the happy scene for "a show boat cruise down the Mississippi."

In today's mood, however, was the 6 o'clock Commodore's Review which led off the evening's glamorous partying. Commodore Mervyn G. Gaskin was honored by formal salutes as the cruiser fleet passed in review before his flagship, the "Margaret G." With him were Vice Commodore Stark Hickey and the respective wives, Mrs. Gaskin and Mrs. Hickey.

The Gaskins entertained a group of friends at the Show Boat fete, including the H. Glenn Bixbys, Howard C. Baldwin (Mrs. Baldwin was on a short out-of-town trip), the Hugh Arnolds, the William J. Rileys, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Weeks, the George Mittens, the James A. MacAlarneys, Mr. and Mrs. William Walters and the Charles L. Wilsons.

Rear Commodore Charles L. Jacobson and Mrs. Jacobson were guests of their close friends, the Eugene A. Casarolls, aboard the "Casbah," which led the fleet. The Casarolls' other guests were the Alexander D. Blackwoods, the Frank G. Murphys, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brooks, the Sascha Lautmans, Mrs. William J. Athanson (Mr. A. was away on business), and the Elmer Juds of Chicago.

Off for Vacation Aboard Italian Ship

Grosse Pointe women, Mrs. Maxwell R. Bates, left to right, their daughter MELINDA, MRS. CHARLES MORGANA and MRS. CASSIUS SELDEN, sailed aboard Italian Line's SS CRISTOFORO COLOMBO for Naples July 18. The group plans to travel together on a two months tour of Europe.

Mrs. Raymond Koebel, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Busch, and the Harry A. Rifes.

With Mr. and Mrs. Leo G. Jacques were the L. Irving Woolsons, Mr. and Mrs. John Koon, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Bowes, Dr. William Lange, the D. J. Brackens, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Quinn, and the Charles B. DeVliegs—they had cocktails on the DeVlieg yacht "Jigmil II" before dinner and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. DeHayes were cocktail hosts at their Sunningdale drive home before going to the club. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. DeHayes, the Henry de S. Lauves, the Thomas Hammonds, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Giles, the Charles W. Ohlyns and the Gerald Dewhursts.

In another group were Mr. and Mrs. William A. Ternes and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Ternes and the J. Charles

Pointers Drawn To Manchester

Settled until late September at "Seaway," her Manchester-by-the-Sea, Mass., summer home is Mrs. Allan Sheldon of Lake Shore road. Mrs. Phelps Newberry of Cloverly road is her guest.

Currently visiting her parents, the Harold Palmers, at "All Oaks," their Manchester retreat, is Mrs. William J. Croul of McKinley place and her four children, Winifred, Elwood, Meria and Amy.

Mrs. Wesson Seyburn of East Jefferson avenue has also left for her summer home at the same resort.

Guests Treated To Wild Turkey

Hosts at a Sunday brunch at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club were Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hagenmeyer of N. Deeplands road.

A wild turkey, which Mr. Hagenmeyer had bagged in Alabama, dominated the menu, and guests included a group who hope to make a September hunting expedition to Wyoming.

Present were the Richard Kimbrovics, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Rowes, of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kriehoff, Jr.; the Mark Oetting; Mr. and Mrs. Donald James, of Bloomfield Hills; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Koeplinger and the Richard Kadlec.

The hosts' son, Lt. William H. Hagenmeyer, who was a June Annapolis graduate, attended with Stary Holland.

Trio Cruising Maine Coast on Windjammer

Mary Ann Hayosh and Gertrude M. Torzewski of Hidden Lane and Terry Pietkiewicz of Audubon road are among the 12 young men and women who left Detroit Sunday (July 22) to embark on a YWCA-sponsored windjammer cruise.

They are spending their days on the deck of the 68-foot schooner, the Stephen Tabor. The group sailed from Camden, Maine.

They will make many stops in small fishing villages along the coast of Maine. Evenings will find the ship anchored in one of the small harbors, where they can stroll around the little villages and attend local square dances and movies.

The ship will return to Camden on July 29 and the sailors will return to Detroit.

Ann Watson's Plans Revealed

Ann Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil C. Watson of Meadow Lane, and Thomas Howard Singer will repeat their nuptial vows on August 29 in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The pair will reside in Ann Arbor after their marriage while the bridegroom, son of Mrs. George O. Singer, of South Bend, Ind., and the late Mr. Singer, completes his law studies at the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Andrew Wintercorn, of Chicago, will be Ann's honor matron. The bride-elect's Alpha Phi roommate from U. of M., Linda Herman, of Evanston, Ill., will attend as maid of honor.

George Singer will serve as best man for his brother.

As a rule most New Year's resolutions are forgotten by the time the frost is out.

Charles Sorensens Speak Nuptial Vows

Doris Jeanette Marchand Becomes Bride in St. Joan of Arc Church on July 21

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell Sorensen are honeymooning in the Bahamas following their July 21 marriage in St. Joan of Arc Church. The pair will make their home in Coral Gables, Fla.

The Rev. Fr. James A. Machak officiated at the 10 o'clock nuptial high mass Saturday. Before her marriage, the bride was Doris Jeanette Marchand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Marchand of Anita avenue.

A floor length gown of imported Chantilly lace was the bride's choice for her wedding. A scalloped round neckline and short gathered sleeves enhanced the bodice, and scalloped tiers of lace cascaded down the sides of the full skirt.

Tiny seed pearls glistened in the matching lace headpiece that held her finger's veil of French illusion. She carried a prayerbook topped with white orchids and lily of the valley.

Three attendants in pastel nylon sheer ballerna frocks over taffeta preceded the bride to the altar. Mary Phyllis Marchand, her sister's honor maid, was in green. Bridesmaid Beverly Manzelmann and junior bridesmaid Sharon Sorensen, sister of the bridegroom, wore pink and blue ensembles, respectively. All three wore large picture hats and carried bouquets of pink carnations.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sorensen of Oxford road, was assisted by Joseph Haney as best man, and ushers Rupert Benson and William Cassel.

Mildred Helen Greves Weds Boynton H. Hartz. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Greves of Littlefield road announce the June 24 marriage of their daughter, Mildred Helen, to Boynton H. Hartz.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boynton Hartz of Lake Shore road. The couple are residing in Royal Oak.

Parties Given For Pat Marx

Preceding her August 11 wedding to Gordon M. Keyser, bride-elect Pat Marx, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar B. Marx Jr. of Lakepointe avenue, is being feted at a series of parties.

First on the agenda was a bride-luncheon and linen shower given by Mrs. M. A. Bradley in her home in Fisher Road on July 18.

On July 20, Mrs. Paul Keyser, mother of the bridegroom-elect, gave a tea for 80 guests at her Tecumseh, Michigan, home, to introduce Pat to her friends.

A personal shower and luncheon at Rotunda Inn will be given by Mrs. Harold Brodie of Green Lake. Mrs. Henry Cope and Miss Emma Marx will entertain Pat at a luncheon and kitchen shower on August 8.

Judy Wilson of Grosse Ile, one of the bridesmaids, will honor the couple at a barbecue to be held on August 7. Members of the wedding party will attend the party.

The spinster dinner will be held in Rotunda Inn on August 9, following an afternoon of swimming in Middle Straits Lake. Hostess will be Mrs. Frank Bowles, grandmother of the bride.

After a 7 o'clock wedding rehearsal on August 10, guests and wedding party will return to Pat's parents home on Lakepointe avenue for a buffet supper.

Parties Honor Betsy Stevens

Bride-elect Betsy Ann Stevens, who will wed John R. Sutton III at September 8 candlelight rites in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, has already had many pre-nuptial parties with a dozen or more still on her schedule.

Giving a July 28 bar and pantry shower are Mrs. Sherwood Reekie, Mrs. Albert Dickson and Mrs. John Albert. Mr. and Mrs. John Mulford have slated a July 29 trip to the Old Club aboard their boat for a barbecue supper there.

Dr. and Mrs. John Lesesne of Meadow Lane will be hosts on August 2 at a magazine and record shower and tea honoring the couple. A linen shower will be given on August 3 by Mrs. Owen R. Skelton, Mrs. J. Dwyer Kinnucan and Mrs. Elmer Clark in the Skelton home in Ridge road.

Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Guenther of Lakeland avenue are planning an August 4 cocktail "do," and Mrs. Henry Steinbach will entertain at an around-the-clock shower on August 7.

An August 23 cocktail party and barbecue supper will be given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawrence Buell Jr., and Raymond Smith of Lake Shore road has scheduled a cocktail party for the following day.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Scherer will fete the betrothed pair on August 25 at cocktails followed by a buffet supper.

Martha Kolb's Betrothal Told

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. Clemens Kolb, of Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, formerly of Grosse Pointe, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Martha Rittenhouse Kolb, to Dr. James Robert Denman.

Miss Kolb was graduated from Grosse Pointe Country Day School.

Her fiance, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Denman, of Narberth, Pa., is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College and the Evans School of Dentistry, University of Pennsylvania.

The pair will be married in October.

Norman Birds On Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Bird will reside in St. Clair avenue when they return from a fortnight's wedding trip to the West Coast.

The bride is the former Ann Powell Newberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Powell, of McKinley road. Mr. Bird is the son of Mrs. Eugene H. Stefins, of St. Joseph, Mo., and the late E. D. Bird.

Judge O. Z. Ide heard the exchange of vows Monday afternoon in the North Deeplands home of the bride's brother-in-law, and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Danaher.

Attending the pair were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wallace Orr, of St. Joseph, Mo., brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund G. West, Sr., of St. Clair avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, PATRICIA FRANCES, to Burt Paul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Paul of Quincy, Michigan.

Patricia was graduated from St. Paul High School and Mercy School of Nursing of Detroit, St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Unit, Ann Arbor. Paul attended Quincy High School and is employed by Coldwater State Home and Training School.

No wedding date has been set.

Lochmoor Club To Fete Prexy

Wednesday, August 1, will be President's Day at Lochmoor Club. Chairman of the stag assembly will be Tom Moran, assisted by Jack Emery as golf chairman.

The day will begin with luncheon followed by an afternoon of golf and a steak dinner in the evening.

Mr. Emery will chauffeur Club President Bill Siebert around the golf course in a foreign sports car.

The Djerkiss Trio will entertain during the dinner hour. About 200 are expected to attend.

Nazim Al-Kodri Feted at Party

The Consul of Lebanon of Midwestern States in Detroit, George Bashara, and Mrs. Bashara of Balfour road, were hosts to Nazim Al Kodri of Beirut, Lebanon, member of the Lebanese Parliament from the district of Bukaa.

Nazim Al-Kodri is on a goodwill tour of the United States and is traveling with an aide, Sheik Ahmed Ahmood, who is also visiting here in the interest of Moslem-Christian brotherhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Bashara invited some 60 guests to their home for a lawn cocktail party on Tuesday, July 24, to meet the visitors from the East. Following cocktails, a typical Oriental 12-course Lebanese dinner was served.

Among members of Detroit's Consular service who attended the party were German Consul W. H. van Almsick and Mrs. van Almsick of Harcourt road; Italian Consul Dr. Antonio Carloni and Mrs. Carloni of Grand Marais boulevard; Netherlands Consul Willem K. Von Weiler and Mrs. Von Weiler of Birmingham and Vice Consul of United States in Windsor, Canada, Vernon D. McAninch and Mrs. McAninch.

Rash of Minor Fires in Park

A rash of minor fires broke out in the Park last week. On Wednesday, August 18, an early morning call was answered at the John Quinlan residence, 894 Lakepointe. A stray cigaret burned out a livingroom sofa cushion. Dozing was deemed the cause of the fire. Little damage resulted. A kitchen mishap resulted in a good deal of smoke but little fire in the home of Ty Tyson, noted sportscastrer. A wooden salad bowl was left in the oven Saturday, July 21. According to the Park report, the bowl was only smoldering when the fire department arrived. On Sunday, July 22, a fire, believed to be started by lightning, burned out an attic gable in the home of the Stanley Thompsons of 1367 Balfour. Quick action by the Park department held the blaze in check before it spread to other parts of the attic. As a result, damage was held to a minimum.

Battle Against Dutch Elm Disease Paying Dividends

The continuous battle against the Dutch Elm disease seems to be paying high dividends in most quarters as the totals of positive cases in the five Pointes are down considerably over the same period last year. The Woods, worst hit in recent years with over 230 cases reported for the year, 1955 has had only 59 positive cases so far this year. To date, the State Conservation Department has taken one survey in that community and another is scheduled within the next few weeks. According to Woods records, of the 59 infected trees, 31 have been removed, 18 are still within the ten day grace period allowed by the state and 10 are delinquent in removal. The next worst hit area in the Pointes is the Farms with 36 positive cases to date. Not all figures were available because the Farms does not have a Public Service Department as such and consequently farms all tree work out to private concerns. According to Acting City Manager Sidney DeBoer, "There may be more cases than we now have record of. The full figures have yet to come in from our tree service people." Heartening reports have come as the result of relentless programs carried out for the past few years in both the City and the Park. To date the two communities have sent a total of 39 samples to Lansing and only 16 have come back positive cases. Some, though are still outstanding. The City has had only six cases. The Park this year inaugurated a program whereby property owners could avail themselves of tree spraying service at a greatly reduced price from the city itself. In past years, the city has only sprayed trees on public property. According to reports from the city offices, the program worked out very favorably. No reports on D.E.D. were available in the Shores. PERSONAL SAFETY Personal safety is evidently becoming a matter of increasing importance to bathers and sun-worshippers, if the contents of milady's beach bag are any indication. Along with the books, magazines and cigarettes, more and more women are smart enough to take along sun-tan lotions, eye drops, insect repellent and sun glasses to help insure a day of carefree relaxation.

Scooter Struck By Delivery Van

Farms police answered an accident report at the corner of Chalfonte and McKinley avenue at 6:30 p.m., July 17. They spoke with Jerome H. Karsten, the driver of a Detroit department store delivery van. Karsten told police he had been going west on Chalfonte and made a right turn onto McKinley. He heard a grinding noise, so promptly stopped his truck.

The sound he heard was the impact of the van hitting a motor scooter ridden by James M. Graham of St. Clair Shores. Police took Graham to Cottage Hospital in the Farm's ambulance. He was kept overnight for observation, and released Wednesday after it was determined that his injuries were only cuts and bruises. Karsten was ticketed for not having his truck under control; Graham, for not having the motor scooter under control and causing an accident.

Two-fifths of the A.E.F. in World War I was made up of National Guard divisions—trained citizen-soldiers who saw action in all the greatest operations of that war.

Cadillac

No Reason to Wait Any Longer!

There's not much question about what this man and his son have on their minds. They're thinking about Cadillac—and about how wonderful it would be to have one in their own driveway!

And because dreams of a Cadillac are hard to put aside, we suspect that it won't be too long now before we'll have an opportunity to give them the facts about Cadillac ownership.

And when that happy time arrives, they'll find that we have some wonderful news waiting for them about how practical

Cadillac ownership has recently become. We will explain, for instance, that it is now possible to become the proud owner of a 1956 Cadillac for little more than the cost of far lesser cars.

We will tell them how economical a Cadillac is to operate—and how extraordinarily free it is from the needs of service. And we will show them how, at resale time, Cadillac returns a greater share of its owner's original investment than any other motor car in the land.

But the best news will be yet to come. For then we will talk about the generous allowance we can give them on their present car—and how short the waiting period is on the Cadillac of their choice. They will find, we feel certain, that they have lost their last logical reason for waiting any longer to enjoy a new Cadillac. Incidentally, have you considered how wonderful a Cadillac would look in your driveway? If you have, then we sincerely urge you to come in soon and get the facts. We'll be waiting for you with a story too wonderful to resist!

Thanks Are in Order

The Pointe owes a great big vote of thanks to the Detroit Federation of Musicians, John B. Ford, Jr., and the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association. They teamed up to give the community a delightful concert by the full Detroit Symphony Orchestra on the Center lawn last Sunday afternoon.

It is estimated that more than 3,000 residents turned out for the event. At least 2,000 gathered on the Center lawn. Seats had been set up for 1,500, but hundreds of others made themselves comfortable on the grass and wide steps and crowded the pergola. Many heard the concert from boats which pulled into the sea wall, and others took up vantage points on the properties on both sides of the Center.

There was no charge to the public. This was made possible by the fact that the Detroit Federation of Musicians donated $1,500; Mr. Ford personally gave $1,000, and the War Memorial Association appropriated $500. The combination made possible this gift to the community which will long be remembered by those who were present.

The contribution of Mr. Ford is just one more of the many reasons he has earned the title of "Mr. Symphony." His efforts and personal sacrifices to rejuvenate the Detroit Symphony Orchestra after it appeared to be a lost cause, have been well publicized. Largely through him has the orchestra now been elevated to an envied position among the great musical organizations of the world.

It is typical of the man that he wanted to bring this fine group of artists into the community where he makes his home, and provide the residents with an opportunity to hear them under ideal conditions and in the beautiful setting of the Memorial Center property. We should all be grateful.

Letters to the Editor

July 19, 1956

TO the Editor:
May I express my appreciation for the wonderful recreational experience Mr. Lowry and his staff are giving us at the Grosse Pointe Farms Pier this summer.
Surely these people do a fine job and many of us wish that the season could last in a modified way into the month of September.
The improvements truly make our Farms summer beach the best anywhere and show excellent planning.
Very truly yours,
Martha E. Ream,
169 Muir Road

TO the Editor:
I am concerned with children playing in the streets of Grosse Pointe.
Ball playing in the streets means broken bushes, ruined flower-beds, tree branches broken and sometime a broken window. All of this above mentioned destruction of property, means not just the expense and trouble it causes the property owner, but there are several bigger implications.
Let us take a single but often repeated incident. A ball game starts on a heavily traveled street. The property owner appreciates the rights of neighbors, but sees his growing plants getting more and more battered. The children assure him that they can always catch the ball, but of course this is not true. Then he calls the police. They come immediately to his assistance in the following manner. They tell the children, "Neighbors complain, you'll have to stop this ball-playing." Thus children blame this one particular person and reprisals follow. The writer has had a fine copper screen ruined, plus damage to plants and litter throw in the yard.

Even this is not the worst of it. Young children have been inches from being hit by cars and saved only by very alert drivers. Each year schools make a drive, guided by the Auto Club to keep children out of the street. They also work at this idea of respect for other people's property. This kind of teaching is done constantly, and the children are doing very well during the school day.
Is it a law that our children don't play in the streets? Why don't our police department enforce this law? It seems very poor thinking to set neighbor against neighbor.
There is a school yard handy to these children, lots of room for ball games and anything else one might want to do. Should they be guided to play here? Whose responsibility is it? One of the residents said, "Children have played on this street for thirty years." How much has auto travel changed since that time? What about the respect we should have for one another?
I bring this to your attention, for I realize your constructive work through your newspaper. Sincerely yours,
A subscriber

Burt Boyar IN NEW YORK

STAREWAY TO THE STARS: Rita Hayworth autographing the dollar bill she handed the Sherry Netherlands doorman as she departed for Girville. . . Rocky Marciano telling us he wants to be a fight manager. . . Shelley Waters wearing stocking embroidered around the ankle, "Wish With Adlai." . . Diana Dora, the British siren, making a pretty good dent in this town before checking into H'wood. . . Johnny Ray and Latin Quarter show gal Sandy Preston taking a horse and huggy ride around Central Park. . . Model Nancy Berg explaining how only $50 an hour models can afford $25 an hour psychiatrists. . . Elvis Presley leaping out of a Cadillac convertible, throwing the keys to the NBC doorman and telling him, "Here, man, hold my horse!"

BEAU BROADWAY: Judy Garland swiped Faye Emerson's hairdresser Ernie Adler. Brought him out to Las Vegas to dress her tresses before each show at the Tropicans there. . . Roddy McDowall, featured in "No Time for Sergeants," just started his vacation. The first night he's had free in almost a year he bought tickets to see "No Time for Sergeants." . . Jo Sullivan, clicking in "The Most Happy Fella," was a Godfrey loser. . . F. Hugh Herbert's new play (for the fall) "The Best House in Naples," has already sold from 60 to 70 theater parties. (Entire houses sold to charities who then re-sell the tickets at a higher price.) Meaning: Before even going into rehearsal the show has made a profit. . . Saw Rocky Graziano at the premiere of "Somebody Up There Likes Me" (a good picture) and he explained how he's helped out there juvenile delinquency: "I grew up."

PARAGRAPHIC: Got a letter asking just how good a producer Mike Todd is? That's a hard one to answer. He's very clever, but like every other top man-he's made mistakes. For example: When the Theater Guild produced "Oklahoma!" it went on the road for a tryout and was panned by the critics. They ran out of money and needed $1,200 to bring it to New York. The Guild offered to sell Todd ten percent interest in the show for the needed $1,200. It was a fabulous deal if the show turned out to be good. Todd went up to New Haven to see the play, returned to New York and wired the producer, "No sags, no girls, no chance!" The show limped into New York and you know what happened. It was a sensation. The head of the Guild sent Todd a wire, "No tickets."

SHOW FOLK: Mae West is worth about $5,000,000. . . Bullets Durgom (Gleason's manager) couldn't stand the telephones anymore so he shipped out for three weeks on a banana boat. . . Berle's gained a little weight. . . Pearl Bailey signed with Arthur Murray for six guest spots for $39,000. . . Look magazine is doing a story on Sid Caesar's visits to the psychiatrist. . . We're hearing nothing but raves about Marilyn in "Bus Stop." . . Looks like Rex Harrison will really marry Kay Kendall just as soon as his wife Lilli Palmer lets go. . . Grace Kelly may be a Princess now, but she still aspires to be a Queen of the B'way stage. An intimate of hers tells us she'd rather do that than make another movie. . . Eva Marie Saint's favorite joke is an oldie. It's about the starlet who asked the late John Barrymore for a date. He handles them beautifully, but he's doing her no good at all.

SMALL TALK: When Mrs. Clark Gable's little four-year-old daughter heard that the King was in on the deal to buy the Detroit Tigers she got all excited and ran out to tell her chums, "My daddy's going to buy a zoo in Detroit."

THE MYSTERY GUESTS: The well-known B'way actor who received a "Fast Due" bill from a midtown florist. With it came a forget-me-not. . . The TV femme singer who is referred to as "Lisa-Koch" by the cast of the show who wish she'd stop rattling on to the boss. . . The male singer whose racing around town trying to borrow $15,000 against earnings from an option on his show which hasn't been picked up, yet.

PERSONAL OPINIONS: Just from my own observations it looks like Jerry Lewis is harder to live with than Dean Martin. . . Watching TV I'm beginning to tire of Alred Hitchcock's bits. He thinks he's too, too clever. . . Talking to Kim Novak we don't get the impression she's much of a brain, but Jayne Mansfield is surprising. When she knocks off the dumb-blonde act she makes a lot of sense. . . Saw "The King and I" and I just want to tell you that I think Yul Brynner is a genius. . . Arthur Miller's answers to the press are snappy, pompous and insipid, to say the least. The fellow ought to accept the fact that he married a girl whose dowry is the American Public and for a while they're going to want to know what's going on. He handles them beautifully, but he's doing her no good at all.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Guest Columnist: Virginia Leonard
Children, since the days of Cain and Abel, have always been with us, and might be considered a well established institution of long standing. Their myriad-sided personalities constantly bewitch, bother and bewilder us, whether we are parents or not. Since they have, for centuries, come in diverse colors, types, sizes and temperaments, authors have had an inexhaustible supply from which to draw in creating fictional characters.

We can immediately think back to such classic examples as Peter Pan, David Copperfield, Tom Sawyer, and others whose names have become prototypes for succeeding children, fictional or real. Among works of fiction in recent years, there have been a number in which a child has been the protagonist. In some instances, there have been several children who play the dominant roles.

The novels to be considered here deal with downtrodden children. In Rumer Godden's "Episode of Sparrows," a charming and touching story of poverty in London, Loveloy Mason, a sensitive child who needs affection and a sense of belonging, finds a package of flower seeds, plants a garden against many obstacles, and thereby sets up a chain reaction which will ultimately affect many people living in Catford Street. There are other children or "sparrows" in the story, each contributing to the plot and the local color.

In a more somber, frightening novel, "The Night of the Hunter" by Davis Grubb, we find a small boy, John, who bears his father's dreadful secret and who must at all costs protect his little sister, Paula. The hunter is the maniacal preacher who relentlessly pursues the children until the very end, and is thwarted from his deadly resolve just in time.

The third novel in this group is Jan de Hartog's "The Little Ark" which deals with a great hurricane in Holland which sweeps the dikes away. In the village of Niewerland two children escape destruction by hiding in the church tower with their pets, a wonderful group consisting of Bussy, the dog, Ko, the white rabbit, Noisette, a kitten, and Prince, a hateful rooster. One of the main attractions of the story is the sense of detachment Jan and Acinda have toward the adult conception of disaster and tragedy. At times they seem incredibly callous and aloof, but completely plausible.

In a lighter vein, let us look at the rollicking "Glorification of Al Toolum" by Robert Alan Arthur. Here we have a man who, thanks to a contest-happy son, gets himself elected Mr. Average American. The delineation of character of Al

Toolum's three sons, Sherman, Herman and Little Louie make for the greater part of the interest of the story, not to mention the humor. Of the three Little Louie is the most interesting, whether he is demanding a motorcycle (he wants it now, while he is still five, as he does not think he will live to reach the age of six), or whether he is being psychoanalyzed at the Child Guidance Clinic.

In "Cress Delahanty" by Jessamyn West, we enter the 12 to 16 age bracket, and watch all the mysteries and vagaries of adolescence, related here understandingly and with humor. Cress runs the gamut of teenage moods, sometimes dreaming, at moments noisy, capable of cruelty, and with flashes of maturity.

And then there are the children, who through heredity or evil influence have a despicable side to their nature. Who could forget "The Bad Seed" by William March? Who could forget the charming well-mannered Rhoda Penmark, ready to kill others for whatever she might covet?

An authentic chiller, certainly, and ready to stand in line with a new novel by Marguerite Steen called "The Unquiet Spirit," which deals with a witch, an ancestor of his, is inhabiting his body. And this man's son, Dominick John, is a masterpiece—a little sadistic monster—with blank blue eyes, and absolutely devoid of feeling. He eats butterflies and throws a dying cat into the furnace. He, too, seems to have inherited some of the witch's blood.

This latter novel can certainly be compared to Henry James' "The Turn of the Screw," in which two children are under the spell of two evil departed spirits. William Saroyan has just written a new book called "Mama, I Love You," being the story of Twink and her mother in New York, and how they both became actresses in a play on Broadway. Twink is old beyond her years, being so close to her mother, but still child enough, in the end, to prefer giving up her part in the play and returning to Paris with her father and brother. In an earlier work, "My Name is Aram," Saroyan gave us the story of a young boy and at the same time depicted Armenian life and philosophy in California.

Having mentioned the theater in the above paragraph, it might be well and appropriate to close with the infant terrible, "Eloise" by Kay Thompson. This story, which is a "must" for anyone, whether he loves or hates children, tells us about the precocious Eloise who lives at the Plaza Hotel in New York. She is so busy getting into trouble all day long, she has time for little else. The book closes appropriately thus: "There's so much to do. Tomorrow I think I'll pour a pitcher of water down the mail chute."

It some times happens that the man who is afraid to take a chance loses money on a sure thing.

Goodness, it's easy to invest!

For Parents Of Adolescents

By Fred Kopp, R. Ph.

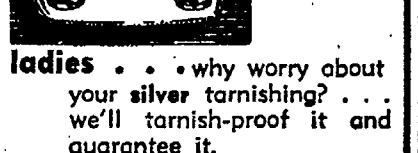

Development during the period of adolescence is rapid and the boy or girl needs ten or more hours sleep each night and often a nap during the day. Posture must be carefully watched. Youngsters who spring up in height quickly have a tendency to slouch and unless corrected may never develop good posture.

Parents of the adolescent are constantly faced with problems they are not certain how to solve. Here again your doctor can be of valuable assistance. He understands the physical and mental changes at this age. His counsel will prove most reassuring.

Doppel-Harger Vows Spoken

Mary Kay Harger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle K. Harger of Beaconsfield avenue became the bride of Donald Doppel in a double-ring ceremony in Guardian Angel Church Saturday. Mr. Doppel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Doppel of Berkley.

The bride's parents were hosts at a wedding breakfast in the Whittier Hotel following church services.

For the rites the bride wore an Italian silk gown with a fitted bodice and scalloped neckline. A cap of lace held the fingertip veil. She carried her first communion prayer book on which were lilies of the valley, stephanotis and a white orchid.

Jo Haslam of Norwich, Conn., was maid of honor. Pat Doppel of Iowa City, sister of the bridegroom, and Sheila Gallagher were bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in pink pique styled with square necklines, cap sleeves and bouffant skirts. Their flowers were cascade of deep red carnations with ivy. Headpieces were deep red bands of grosgrain with nose veils.

Robert Saracino was best man for Mr. Doppel. Guests were seated by John McGary, William Yates, Martin Mullally of Muskegon and Tom Gibney.

Mrs. Harger chose a champagne peau de soie gown for her daughter's wedding. She pinned a cymbidium orchid to her purse. Mrs. Doppel wore a beige embroidered organza sheath and a cymbidium orchid.

Following a honeymoon in northern Wisconsin the couple will make their home in Ferndale.

Living Rosary Set for Aug. 3

The Galicia Caravan No. 77, Order of the Alhambra, will sponsor the Presentation of the Living Rosary, in honor of Our Lady of Fatima, for a just and lasting peace for a war-torn world, including Russia, at the Remick Band Shell in Belle Isle, on Friday, August 3, at 8 p.m.

A choir of more than 20 voices from Dun Scotus College will join in the Ave, Glorias, the Salve Regina and the Litany. The hymns, "Our Lady of Fatima" and "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother," will be sung by Kathleen Sirko, accompanied by Dr. John Eck.

The Belle Isle Concert Band, sponsored by the Detroit Department of Parks and Recreation, and conducted by Leonard B. Smith, will open and close the presentation with appropriate selections.

The program will be under the spiritual direction of the Rev. Fr. Francis P. Van Antwerp, pastor of St. Ambrose Church.

Saturday, August 4, at 8 p.m., has been selected as an alternate date in case of bad weather.

Richard Bigley to Wed Girl from Chevy Chase

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Baudino, of Chevy Chase, Md., announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Jean, to Richard Ryan Bigley.

The prospective bridegroom who makes his home in Cleveland, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Arthur Bigley of Merriweather road. He recently received his discharge from the Marine Corps.

A September wedding is planned.

HOW TO PROFIT THROUGH TAX EXEMPTION

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

BABE RUTH LEAGUE

WOODS - SHORES

Dave Lowry, of the Senators, pitched a no-hit game against the Red Sox last week in the Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Babe Ruth League.

The Senators won, 15 to 0, getting 11 hits.

It was the first no-hitter of the season in the American Division and the second this year in the Woods-Shores League.

Larry Slowick, of San Antonio set down Houston without any hits earlier this month. In the American Division, the Indians won three games last week. The league-leading Tigers lost a pair.

The Indians beat the Tigers, 4 to 3. They downed the Red Sox, 6 to 2. And they whipped the Yanks, 7 to 5.

The Red Sox blanked the Tigers, 4 to 0. Dan Cosentino and Jim Gutowsky shared the pitching, letting the Bengals down with one hit, a single by Butch Jacoby in the last inning. Jim Barnes allowed only two hits as the White Sox blanked the Senators, 10 to 0.

Bill Veit homered for the Yankees and Larry Bruzese got two homers for the White Sox as the Yanks beat the Sox, 11 to 7.

In the National, the Braves pushed the Dodgers into last place. They beat the leading Giants, 4 to 3, and the Cardinals, 6 to 4.

Jim Forrest got a homer and a triple as the Dodgers whipped the Giants, 10 to 7.

In one of the oddest games of the season, in the Texas League, Marley and Newark pitched no-hit ball for Dallas, but allowed 11 walks to give Houston a 5 to 1 victory.

American League Games of the Week

July 15: Detroit nine runs, seven hits, three errors. Cleveland two runs, six hits, five errors.

Errors plus a triple by Bill Hilgendord and a double play by Jim Eder and Herrick of the Tigers downed the Indians. 13-year-old Bill Walker was the winning pitcher. Walt Collins started for the Indians and was relieved in the second by Ted Stanley.

July 16: Boston, six runs, five hits, two errors.

Yankees: two runs, four hits, no errors. Dan Miller was the winning pitcher. Dick Dowdell clouted a triple. Chuck Weiss and Tom Kolojeski were featured in a double play. George Hammond started and was relieved in the second by John Catalano after allowing five bases on balls and two runs in the first inning. Chip Bush accounted for a two-bagger for the Yanks.

July 17: Cleveland, 16 runs, 15 hits, two errors.

Chicago: seven runs, two hits, five errors. The White Sox were clobbered by the Indians when George Olyier slammed two homers and a triple. Walt Collins (Indians) was credited with a triple. Pat Meathe pitched for the Indians and was relieved in the fifth inning by Al Hillenbrand. Jeff Gentile was the starter for the White Sox and was relieved by Dick Kay in the second. Jack Ramsdell's spectacular unassisted double play contributed little to victory for Chicago.

July 18: Boston, 11 runs, seven hits, three errors.

Detroit: six runs, eight hits, five errors.

Bill Butler's home run and triple for the Bengals were of no avail when Dick Dowdell, Red Sox ace was on the mound. He also made a triple for the Sox. The Tigers hopelessly ran risk, Ken Stanley and Bill their gamut of pitchers, Her-Walker.

July 19: New York, seven runs, seven hits, three errors.

Cleveland: five runs, four hits, one error. The Yanks were hot in this contest, with homers by Chip Bush and Ted Harris. Dave Ayrault was the winner. Bruce Bishop and Ted Stanley pitched and Pat Wright pounded a homer.

July 21: Rained out and tied games were played off on this free day.

Tie of (6-26) three innings to finish job.

Red Sox: 12 runs, eight hits, two errors.

Indians: 11 runs, 12 hits, three errors. Dick Dowdell (Red Sox) again showed good control as pitcher. Tom Kolojeske was credited with a triple and a double. Chuck Weiss a double for the Red Sox. Ted Stanley pitched for the Indians in this close game. Bob Hall hammered a home run and Paul Gilliland a three-bagger for the Indians. Tie of (June 27) A sudden death one-inning game.

Detroit: seven runs, five hits, four errors.

Yanks: six runs, six hits, one error.

Ken Stanley pitched for the Bengals. Herrick belted a double and John Butler not only accounted for an unassisted double play, but also slammed a two-bagger to assure the Tiger victory. Dave Ayrault pitched and cracked out a triple for the Yanks. John Huntington accounted for a triple and Ted Harris a double for the New Yorkers.

Tie of (June 28) Two innings. White Sox: 10 runs, eight hits, one error.

Red Sox: nine runs, five hits, two errors.

Jack Ramsdell was the winner and White Sox Mike Freeman and Walt Connelly executed a neat double play. Dan Miller was the loser in this tight game. The Red Sox accounted for two double plays—Guy Miller to Chuck Weiss to Tom Kolojeske and Martin La-

Cards, four runs, five hits, two errors, six bases on balls.

Hits combined with walks helped the Phillies overcome the Cards. The spectacular play of the game was a long throw by catcher Hunt to Steve Trowbridge at second to try to catch Teetaert stealing second. Pat McCormick in center field fielded it on the first bounce, but Tom Teetaert was able to slide home on the play. Dick

Chouinard was the winner, Lou Ewold the loser.

Games scheduled for July 20 were postponed, due to a wet field.

July 21: Dodgers 10 runs, six hits, two errors, 11 bases on balls.

Phillies: five runs, seven hits, five errors, five bases on balls. Despite earning only one run, the Dodgers made use of 11 walks, plus five errors to roll one, but they also out-errored them four to one. Linclau was the winner, Dick Werback the loser. This is the last scheduled game of the National League.

July 21 (Rained out game of July 9)

Yankees: 16 runs, 12 hits, two errors.

White Sox: four runs, five hits, three errors.

Last place Yanks slaughtered the White Sox by using every available player. John Catalano pitched for the winners. Yankee first baseman Chip Bush accounted for an unassisted double play. John Huntington whammed a double for the Yankees. Jeff Gentile started and was relieved by Dick Kay in the third inning.

National League

Philadelphia won the first half of the season, and Brooklyn the second half.

July 16: Phillies 12 runs, 15 hits, five errors.

Dodgers: seven runs, three hits, 12 bases on balls.

Playoff game to determine first half winner gave victory to face the Phillies. Dick Chouinard was the winner. Dave Gillis had control, walking only three, but was hit. Extra base hits—homers by Jack Dow and a triple by Val Polito (Dodgers). Doubles by Bill Nolte and Dave Schumaker of the Phillies.

July 17: St. Louis 12 runs, 13 hits, two errors.

Milwaukee: nine hits, four runs, seven errors.

The Redbirds flapped their bats as fast as they would their wings, while the men from Milwaukee were making seven mistakes. It took Punch Andrews to give the Braves a sock in the eye when he hammered out two for four, including a two-bagger. Dick Johnson was the winner. Tom Hughes was the loser. Ted Hinz (Phillies) slammed a triple and a double.

July 18: Dodgers 12 runs, eight hits, two errors, nine bases on balls.

Fury, King, Tom DeSchryver; Queen, Betsy Pfeffer.

Corvette, King, Tom Tretzer; Queen, Kathy Patterson.

The parade will start at the Neighborhood Club—proceed to Kercheval avenue through the Village to Cadieux then to Waterloo and end up on St. Clair avenue between Waterloo and Charlevoix, where the Jalousy Derby will be held.

In the midjet division there are 12 entries and in the giant division — 2 entries — which promises some pretty exciting moments for the pushers and drivers of the Jalousies. Trophies will be awarded to both pushers and drivers in each division.

After lunch awards will be presented to the Outstanding Campers best athletes and best sportsman and awards to the championship Midget and Giant Softball Team and Newcomb Team.

And then of course the traditional pony rides with each of the groups having their own pony, will end another Day Camp season.

Two Cars in Tangle As One Shifts Lanes

City police took a minor auto accident over the phone Friday evening, July 13.

The accident occurred on Mack avenue near Stalens Market, when Harry Kefalos of 1032 Vernier, drove his 1949 Lincoln from the right lane of traffic to the left lane. His car cut in front of a 1955 Pontiac driven by Sam Palazzolo of St. Clair Shores, causing a slight collision.

Both men agreed to let their insurance companies settle the damages.

Grosse Pointe Park's seventh annual tennis tournament reached its climax last Sunday, July 22, with the finals of the Men's singles and doubles matches. The Junior boys' and girls' brackets were completed earlier in the week.

Joe Kristufek captured the singles crown when he defeated Jim Leszczynski in straight sets, 6-1, 6-0. He then teamed with his beaten foe to take the doubles title, beating Ed Carroll and Bill Pattyn, 6-9, 9-7.

Bill Lewis won the Junior Boys' championship but was pressed all the way by Bob Hodges before winning in three sets, 1-6, 6-4, 7-5.

The Girls' singles was taken by Cynthia Zeyrdogis who beat Bonnie Campbell in three sets, 4-6, 6-2, 6-3.

The Park will hold its annual Pre-Summer dance on the evening of Saturday, August 4, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. The dance will take place the following day, Sunday, August 5. All wishing to enter should register with the gate man at the Park not later than Friday, August 3.

Long Race to Mackinac Delightful Cooks' Tour

The guys who signed on as cooks on the 62 yachts that hit the starting line in Bayview Yacht Club's 32nd annual Port Huron-Mackinac classic, Saturday, July 16, really had a workout. Where their culinary art was stifled last year by the heavy blow that battered the all time record fleet of 67 they had a ball this time—hot meals all the way.

Only briefly after the start of the race were they bothered by the roll on Lake Huron, left over from the northwesterly whistler from the night prior to the race.

"Gypsy" Big Winner The luckiest cook of all was aboard Joe Schoendorfs' 53-foot "Gypsy," who nudged across the finish line 51 hours, 17 minutes and 5 seconds after leaving port...

"Vitesse" Leads Way As the Class B fleet got away Pat Collins' "Vitesse" was across first, leading Skip Grow's and Carter Sales' blue beauty "Querida," Nubby Sarns' "Revelry," and Kers Jacobs' "Falcon"...

"Revelry" Wins Again Following close behind "Tamara" was Nubby Sarns' sloop "Revelry," last year's Chicago-Mackinac Class B and overall winner, which captured Class B honors. Pat Collins' New York 32 "Vitesse II" placed second ahead of Dick Jeffrey's chrome factory "Last Straw," which was third.

Hank Burkard's new cutter "Meteor III" chased Bob Luxford's "Luxen" across the finish line in an exciting boat-for-boat scrap and was close enough to save her time for the bunting in Class C.

"Meteor" was a scant minute and 32 seconds behind and was followed by less than a minute by E. Emmons' "Tiburon," which was third to finish. Fifteen seconds later George Sackett's "Sesame" slipped across the line for a gun in fourth place.

However, while "Meteor" crew was celebrating, the judges were at work on a protest lodged by John Detwiler's "Vashti" and the "barging foul" was sustained and "Meteor" was dropped from final placement glory to fifth in the first tabulations. In the meantime Scrubby Wollman's new yawl "Indigo," just back from the Bermuda race, where she placed sixth in her class, was moved up to first place in Class C. She had finished fifth on elapsed time in this race but her fabulous rating gave her top honors. "Luxen" moved to second and "Sesame" took third.

Carlta Almost Repeats Jimmy Carlins' slipper little Pilot sloop "Glory Bea II," last year's Class D and overall winner, just missed duplicating her 1955 performance. "Glory Bea" charged across the finish line sailing on her mainsail battens and full jenny, 58 hours, 53 minutes and 6 seconds after the start.

Although she missed the big prize by one hour, 42 minutes and 35 seconds, she did manage to squeeze out Class D honors over Karl Ness' Pilot sloop "Happi-ness," sailed by Maury DeClereq, by 55 seconds on corrected time. Hank Dunlaps' Pilot "Albacore" was third. Bill McCurdy's Swedish sloop "Challenge" climaxed one of the longest (in time) Port Huron-Mackinac races when she ghosted across the line 86 hours, 4 minutes and 20 seconds after starting. Skipper McCurdy was extremely apologetic for keeping the judges on the job so long but he still had faith in his pretty little yacht and vowed he would try it again next year.

Threat Doesn't Materialize Prior to the start of the race the Coast Guard gave the "On-shal" weather report which was winds out of the northwest 20 to 30 miles per hour with scattered thunderstorms. This report came just minutes before the huge fleet left the Black River at Port Huron and crews scurried around like so many rats leaving a ship, batten down hatches and securing gear in preparation for the blow—that never came.

As the fleet fought its way up the St. Clair River and through the swift current under the magnificent Blue Water Bridge, the wind began to peter out. By the time the Class D fleet got underway, the wind had bed after we tied alongside our arch rival Mac McPetrie's "Star Dust." Our cook, Jerry Neal, resigned the moment he hit the harbor but as a parting gesture bought the crew breakfast at Little Bob's instead of sticking his head in the galley again. Later we discovered that was his only salvation—he had run out of alcohol for the stove.

All-Stars of Woods-Shores In Babe Ruth Tourney Final

A Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores all-star team will go into the finals of the Babe Ruth League tournament at Southfield this weekend with a good chance for a second shot at the state title in two years.

A Woods-Shores team was runnerup in 1955, losing to Northwest Detroit in the title game.

The GP American League entry will play Lincoln Park at Southfield High School, Ten Mile and Lahser, at 3 p. m. Saturday. Lincoln Park eliminated the GP National League All-Stars, 8 to 2, last Sunday. But the GP Americans are regarded as stronger and are favored to beat Lincoln Park.

A victory over the Parkers would put the Grosse Pointers in the championship game at 2 p. m. Sunday with the winner of the Birmingham-Escanaba contest. The Birmingham-Escanaba game will be televised over WWJ-TV from 1 to 3 p. m. Saturday.

The GP Americans boosted their stock last Saturday by whipping Northwest Detroit, state champs for two years, by a score of 6 to 3.

Mike Macdonald scattered eight Northwest Detroit hits and doubled to pave the way for the Americans' first run. Chuck Hanneman made two sensational catches to squelch possible Detroit rallies.

The Americans followed through Sunday, battering two pitchers and getting 12 walks to down Detroit's East Side Kiwanis Club team, 19 to 5. The GP cause was helped by Larry Bruzzese's homer and Al Foraker's triple with the bases loaded.

The Lincoln Parkers held the GP Nationals to three hits, one a homer by Jim Forrest. The Nationals had beaten Brighton Saturday behind two-hit pitching by Bob Libby.

Lars Anderson pitched the Americans to victory over Kiwanis Sunday. Kiwanis started the scoring in the second inning, getting two runs on two singles and an error. But the Americans also scored a pair on two walks and a single by Phil Davis.

The Woods-Shores added four in the third on four walks and hits by Hanneman, Davis and Riemer. The Grosse Pointers tallied four more in the fourth on a walk and hits by Jacoby, Boardman, Hanneman and Foraker.

In the fifth, Kiwanis got three more runs. A single, a walk and an error filled the bases and Gornik's triple brought the runners home.

The GP Americans got six more in the fifth, Jacoby singled, Lars Anderson walked. So did Boardman and Hanneman, forcing in a run. Then Foraker's triple cleared the bases. Cosentino was safe on an error, Foraker scoring. Riemer was hit by a pitched ball. Cosentino scored on Gramer's sacrifice fly.

In the sixth, the Grosse Pointers scored three more. Anderson singled and Larry Bruzzese homered over the center-fielder's head. Foraker and Istock walked and Foraker scored when Istock was forced at second.

In the Grosse Pointe Nationals-Lincoln Park game, the Parkers jumped to a four-run lead in the first. A walk and two singles loaded the bases and Riggs cleared them with a triple. Riggs scored on an infield out.

Jim Forrest cleared the left-field fence for a 325-foot home run for the Nationals in the third.

Three singles gave Lincoln Park another tally in the fourth. The Nationals came back with one run in the fifth on two walks and an error.

Lincoln Park got three in the sixth on five consecutive hits, three of them doubles.

The GP Americans knocked off Northwest Detroit Saturday by keeping the Detroiters' hits scattered. The Grosse Pointers got seven and Detroit eight hits.

Northwest Detroit got two runs in the second inning on two singles and an error. The Americans scored one in the third. Macdonald doubled. Jacoby and Anderson singled.

GP got another in the fourth when Boardman doubled. He got to third while Hanneman was being tossed out at first and scored on Davis' sacrifice fly.

The Grosse Pointers went ahead with three in the fifth when Foraker singled and Gramer, Anderson and Hanneman walked. The scoring was aided by a fielding error and Boardman's long sacrifice fly.

Each team added a run in the seventh. Anderson singled and scored on an error. Foraker followed with a single and scored on an error at first base.

Northwest Detroit also got their final run in the seventh. A single and three walks forced in a run.

Brighton was shut out Saturday to the final inning in its Saturday game with the Grosse Pointe Nationals.

The Nationals scored first in the fifth. Al Lang singled. Paul Boesen walked. Loyal Haight got to first on an error which allowed two runs to score. They got another pair in the sixth on singles by Beckenhauer, Phillips and Lang and an error at shortstop.

G. P. Sail Club Attracts Record Fleet of Catboats

Grosse Pointe Sail Club, whose home port is Grosse Pointe Park beach, proved the catboat is still the hottest sailing class in this area when its fourth annual regatta attracted 39 of the centerboard sloops, Saturday, July 21.

Sailing under perfect conditions, clear skies, smooth water and a brisk southwest breeze, the 39 boat fleet got away in three classes; the CK team, K Class and the CK Free-For-All class, to the booming starting cannon, mounted on past Commodore Bud Miller's cruiser "Gallivant."

The 10 mile an hour breeze gave the fleet a run to the first mark of the DRYA "B" course, a reach across the second leg to the American shore and a good buck to weather to the finish line off the Grosse Pointe Park dock.

Pat "Mr. River" Clancy paced the Edison Boat Club team to victory when he hit the finish line first. His teammates Devere Cowles and Bob White placed sixth and fifth, respectively, to annex 27 points. Detroit Yacht Club followed with 23, Detroit Boat Club 21 and St. Clair Y. C. 7.

In the K class a couple of old single stickers from way back walked off with the top prizes. Fred Meno III of DYC placed first and was followed by Riney Zeidler, also of DYC, and P. Vanryn of Grosse Pointe Sail Club who was the only member of the host club to win a prize.

The K class is made up of catboats that are privately owned. The CK Free-For-All was won by O. Hyde of the Detroit Boat Club. He was followed by the only girl skipper to place, Delores Droste of St. Clair Y.C. and R. Hollo of Edison.

Following the regatta the fleet moored in the G. P. Park harbor to await the prize awarding and during that time an Edison skipper proved the catboat will capsize—and he did it the hard way—while at anchor.

Beautiful silver bowls and stop watches featured the prizes handed out by Grosse Pointe Sail Club's fun loving commodore Charles "Duke" Huber who didn't miss his opportunity to kiss Delores Droste when she accepted her prize.

All buffets were treated to a buffet luncheon to complete the festivities. The judges were: Commodores Dr. Richard Connolly, T. A. "Dave" Davenport, John MacFarlane, Brad Fyle, Phil Phillip, Henie Schuck, Ted Seawick and Sid Warner. Al Wilson and Bill Connolly were the timers.

World Series Playoffs
Grosse Pointe City Champs will play against the Woods on Tuesday, July 31, at 6:15 p.m. at the Woods field for the start of the World Series Playoffs.
Everyone is invited to attend and no admission will be charged.
Manager Jack Stephenson says that his Braves are all set to play the best baseball that anyone has ever seen.

See Tigers Play
Special plans have been made to see the Tigers play ball. The Tiger management has made arrangements for a free game for all major and minor leaguers on Wednesday, August 1. Everyone who wants to attend must be at the Little League field by noon on Wednesday, August 1.

Arrangements for transportation will be made by the managers of the respective teams.
So every Little Leaguer who wants to see the Tigers play ball, must see his manager right away.

The pennant-winning Orioles continued to add to their record last week with a 5-4 victory over the Athletics and a 13-1 decision over the Senators. The Orioles pulled the game with the Sox out of the fire in the sixth inning as Don Vroom doubled with two on.

Three hurlers—Marc Lonesk, John Stanley and Vroom—had a hand in turning back the Senators, with the Orioles collecting eight hits, including three two-baggers.
The White Sox won and lost
one last week, whipping the Senators, 12-2, and losing to the Athletics, 6-5.

There will be a play-off game Thursday, July 26, at Ghesquiere Park between Minneapolis of the American Association and Havana of the International League for the Minor League Title.

CITY
The Braves captured the Major league championship last week but had they missed they still had two games to spare, which will be played the final week of the season, July 28-29.
In the Minor league the Senators came through in grand style to emerge the champions of their league also.

Picnic Committee
Kathie Stephenson, chairman of a special committee for both the major and minor leaguers, has big plans for Saturday,
July 28, at the Grosse Pointe
City Park located on E. Jefferson and University starting at 11:30 a.m. and ending at 2 p.m.
A huge picnic is all set to go for all major and minor leaguers and their parents.
Everything is free. Hot dogs, potato chips, ice cream and cake and gallons of ginger ale.
The big highlight of this event will be the presentation of awards for this year's champions in both the major and minor leagues. Oscar's will be presented to the Braves, while the Senators will receive emblems.

All mothers who wish to serve on this committee can do so by calling Kathie Stephenson at TU. 5-0398. Because there are about 150 Little leaguers it might be a wise idea for the parents just to bring your baseball "hero" alone and leave the other little ones behind. Parents of 8 year olds should definitely come with their boys because the committee can not be responsible for them. To make this affair a lot of fun, every parent should attend and get acquainted with the grandest bunch of people in the world — and that is you and all the other little leaguers.
See you at the picnic.

FARMS
The Little League baseball season is drawing to a close in Grosse Pointe Farms. The final standings of the two minor
Leagues have been revealed:
Pacific Coast Division
Sacramento ..... W L
Los Angeles ..... 13 2
San Francisco ..... 8 7
Hollywood ..... 5 9
International Division
Rochester ..... W L
Buffalo ..... 13 1
Richmond ..... 8 7
Syracuse ..... 7 8

On Saturday, July 26, the All Star teams from these two leagues will meet in a game at the High School Field at 10 a.m.
Four boys from each team have been picked by their managers and these players will represent their leagues in the season's climactic game.
The Major League teams had one game yet to play as this was written. Their standings for the second half of the season are:

American League
W L
Indians ..... 7 1
Tigers ..... 4 4
Yankees ..... 3 5
Red Sox ..... 2 6
National League
W L
Giants ..... 7 1
Bears ..... 6 2
Pirates ..... 3 5
Phillies ..... 0 8
Inasmuch as the Indians won the first half season championship, they will represent the American League in the playoff game.

The Giants won the first half leadership in the National League, but are involved in a scramble with the Reds in the second half. The winner of their final series will play the Indians for the Farms championship and for the right to be the Farms entry in the Grosse Pointe tournament next week.

The Dodgers also came alive during the week to whip the Pirates for the first time this season, 16-9, on a 13-hit barrage. Stan Landau was the winner; Mike McDonald the loser.
One of the season's most unusual plays occurred in this game as Tom Kennedy, pitching for the Pirates, was felled by a terrific line drive off the bat of Chuck Douville, but recovered in time to make a perfect throw to nail Louville at first.
The Braves whopped the Dodgers, 12-5, in the other game of the week to clinch second place. John Dilloway received credit for the victory.

It's still a tossup in this conference among three teams.
Baylor trimmed its arch-rival,
Alabama, 5-1, to take over the lead last week. Allen Crow scattered six hits to best Alabama.

Carolina kept apace by downing Duke, 22-3, behind Larry

Attention Republicans
Why we need a FIGHTING candidate for Congress . . .
The only way to put the 14th District into the Republican column in November is with a candidate who understands the basic principles of Republicanism—and can intelligently fight for them—both before the voters and in Congress.
Only with such a candidate—unafraid to take a firm stand on the basic issue of "self government" vs "centralized control"—can we possibly win.

who, where and whatnot

by uboozist

MRS. JOHN T. WOODHOUSE chose an unusual addition to the decor in the sunroom of her Lake Shore road home—it's a cockatiel named "Murmur" that truly matches the yellow and gray of her sunroom. She first made the acquaintance of cockatiels, (which are slightly bigger than parakeets), in Florida.

Since they make good pets, Mrs. W. decided to bring Murmur to Grosse Pointe. The birds have gray bodies, wings touched with white, bright yellow faces with a small round spot of orange on each cheek and a big yellow crest.

Those beer cans that sit on the dressing tables at Marie Bird's beauty parlor are not for lady's refreshment; rawther, m'dear, the brew goes on the head to give one's "hair the same lift and shine that a pre-dinner cocktail gives you yourself."

Not trusting this summer's peculiar weather—and who would?—MRS. MELVIN HUFFAKER attended a mid-summer meeting wearing a powder blue linen frock, and over her shoulders the lovely white cashmere sweater which she had trimmed very beautifully with pearls and rhinestones.

PILFERINGS

A man who had been commissioned received a wire from the medical board several days later. "Regret to inform you," it read, "that tests show you have tuberculosis and heart trouble."

An hour later another wire came, saying, "Please disregard last wire. Your record confused with that of another candidate."

The relieved officer wired back, "Sorry, but your correction came too late. I committed suicide 40 minutes ago!"

The late Dexter Fellow, who was press agent for Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Combined, had magnificent faith in the overwhelming supremacy of his show. Walking some years ago into a Kansas City newspaper office, he announced, waving his cane, "I am Dexter Fellow of the Circus, and I am here to..."

"What circus?" asked a reporter.

He was profoundly shocked. "Young man," he protested. "If you were in London and heard a man singing 'God Save the King,' would you interrupt him and ask 'What king?'"

Rudolph had heard a great deal about his little cousin Peter, but had never met him. So when he learned Peter was coming for a visit, the youngster was overjoyed.

But when his cousin arrived, he took one look at him and burst into tears. "I thought," he wailed, "that Peter was a rabbit!"

A mother had been lecturing her small son, stressing that we are in this world to help others. He considered this, then asked somberly: "What are the others here for?"

Once playwright George S. Kaufman, whose bridge is nearly as good as his dialogue, drew a particularly poor partner. After the first hand he asked her, "Do you mind if I inquire when you learned to play?" And before she could answer he added: "Oh, I know it was today. But I mean, what time today?"

President Coolidge once invited some Vermont friends to dine at the White House. They were worried about their table manners, so decided to do everything Coolidge did. The meal passed smoothly until coffee was served and Coolidge poured his into a saucer. The guests followed suit. Then he added sugar and cream. The visitors did likewise. Then Coolidge leaned over and gave his to the cat.

Two nursemaids were wheeling their infant charges in the park, when one asked the other: "Are you going to the dance tonight?"

"I'd love to," the other replied, "but to tell the truth, I'm afraid to leave the baby with its mother."

MRS. H. RAY WILL OF HILLCREST ROAD

By Kitty Marriott

The H. Ray Will family has lived in their Hillcrest road home for 28 years, and they feel just like pioneers because they have had a hand in the initiation and have watched the growing pains of so many Pointe organizations.

Now serving her sixth year on the board of Central Branch Young Women's Christian Association, Mrs. Will has also worked for Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, the Washington Cathedral and Grosse Pointe cleanup drive—to mention only a few of her activities.

"Call Eloise Will. She'll squeeze it in somehow," has become a familiar saying through the years. For Mrs. Will always manages to handle capably every assignment that comes her way.

Publicity Chores
Mrs. Will has done publicity work for the various organizations, beginning when her children were small. She hand-printed everything at first, until her husband brought home a typewriter. Then, she "picked and pecked" until she could turn out her material at a fairly good rate.

Mrs. Will had no idea she was tackling such a big job when Mrs. Donald C. Stevenson first introduced her to YWCA. One of about 10 Pointers on the central board, she is serving her third year as chairman.

Cobo to Speak To Republicans

Mrs. Eleanor Hoffman has announced the holding of the third and last Candidate Interview Night at the Buckingham Hall, 15917 Harper, on Wednesday, August 1, at 8 p. m.

This is the third such meeting, all of which have been sponsored by the 14th Congressional District Republican Club (of which Mrs. Hoffman is chairman), the Grosse Pointe Women's Republican Club, the 14th District Young Republicans, and Republican Voters, Associated.

Heading the list of candidates to be interviewed that night at the Buckingham Hall is Mayor Cobo of Detroit (candidate for Governor). Also appearing will be the two candidates for the State Senate from the 1st Senatorial District—Albert R. DeLoach and Leroy Smith.

Legislators will include Evelynne Girard and Arthur V. Smith (3rd District), and Edward Resh (5th District).

County office candidates will be William Ferguson (Prosecutor), Edward Behrendt (Sheriff), Brian O'Keefe (Clerk), William Lau (Treasurer), George Isabell (Register of Deeds), Edward Brock (Auditor).

Mrs. Hoffman pointed out that each candidate must spend half his allotted time in answering questions from the audience. "How can anyone decide whom to vote for?" she went on. "This way every Republican whose name will be on the ballot in the August 7 election can be seen, heard, questioned and judged by the voter himself."

Center to Show Antique Autos

The Detroit Chapter of the Veteran Motor Car Club of America, headed by George Pitters of Kensington road, will bring to the Center Sunday, August 12 from 1 to 5 p.m., a caravan of antique and classic motor cars which the public is invited to view free of charge.

William Petzold, Jr., of Three Mile drive, will have his cars on display and is encouraging entries from other interested Pointers.

Anyone who is not a member of the Veteran Motor Car Club is cordially invited to enter his prized possession, providing it falls into either the "antique" or "classic" classification. Entries are encouraged by calling TUx-ede 1-6930.

Besides viewing the cars, the public will be treated to the spectacle of coasting contests, blind driving contests and other auto games which, while guaranteed to be safe are also guaranteed to be entertaining.

Among the antique cars which it is hoped will be displayed are Bill Mason's 1926 Wills St. Claire, Bill Lane's 1910 Buick, Hank Steubner's 1910 Overland, Bill Petzold's 1925 Rolls-Royce, 1909 Maxwell and 1915 Melburn Electric, George Pitter's 1913 Moline Dreadnaught, Gari Kersten's 1911 Ford Torpedo and Nick Rubel's 1909 Hummobile.

Real success comes to the man who is lucky enough to do the right thing at the right place at the right time.

BROWN RIM COOKIES

Contributed by Mrs. Arthur G. Sherman Jr.

- 1 c. vegetable shortening
- 1 t. salt
- 1 t. vanilla
- 2/3 c. sugar
- 2 eggs, well beaten
- 2 1/2 c. sifted flour

Mix, in order, shortening, salt, vanilla, sugar, eggs and flour.

Drop by teaspoonful onto greased cookie tin, then press out with a damp napkin on the bottom of a glass.

Bake at 375° for 8-10 minutes. Makes about 4 1/2 dozen cookies.

Library Boosts Film Collection

The film collection of the Grosse Pointe Public Library has added four new films for circulation this month to supplement its permanent collection.

All the films are 16 millimeter with sound and are available free of charge for use in the community. An adult library card is the only requirement for the borrower.

Details and descriptions of the new films are:

HOLIDAY AT WASKESIU. 10 min. Color. Two girls on vacation discover the attractions of Waskesiu, in Prince Albert National Park, Saskatchewan, where delightful scenery, numerous sporting facilities, and evening theatricals combine to make their holiday a pleasant memory.

NAVY GOES NORTH. 45 min. Color. A navy ship sails the waters of the Arctic crossing the Northern part of Iceland and Greenland.

NEIGHBORS. 10 min. Color. A parable about two people, who, after living side by side with mutual friendliness and respect, come to blows over the possession of a flower that one day grows on the line where their properties meet. They end up destroying the flower and themselves.

YOU'LL TAKE THE HIGH ROAD. 14 min. Color. Follows the modern roads of Jasper National Park (Canada), showing its mountain grandeur, lakes, streams and wild life.

Reproduction is a vigilant watchman on the highway of life—but people still try to outsmart the guard.

Cathedral concert held at St. Paul's Cathedral in Detroit. She has edited a handbook for the League of Women Voters too.

As past president of Christ Church Women's Auxiliary, she has done Christ Church fair publicity and was active for a while in Episcopal diocesan affairs. The Wills first attended services at old Christ Church downtown, and so were in on the building of the Grosse Pointe church.

Mrs. Will was one of the early members of the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture Council. "We have watched so many things grow up out here," she reminisces.

Writes Poetry

More recently, she has been active in the cleanup campaign sponsored by the Garden Center.

The Wills' daughter, Anne, is in the merchandising field; their son, Clark, works in experimental engineering.

An inveterate reader, Mrs. Will enjoys renovating and re-decorating furniture. She writes verse "just for the family," but would like to concentrate on writing poetry someday when a few of her other jobs are finished.

Pointe Counter Points

By Roberta Isley

New innovations are evident where the pretty colors sooth and skilled hands are ever busy. A Paris skilled operator, Mrs. Helga Trendel, formerly with Academie Scientific de Beaute Paris, is now using her special talents at the Lochmoor Salon of Beauty, Her fortes are facial treatments, shaping and eyebrow expression, corrective eyebrow and lash tinting... and pedicuring. We like the way they solve specific client problems here at Lochmoor... you can expect to get service when YOU want it. 20335 Mack, in the Woods. TU. 1-7252.

As we viewed the new fall fashions at Irving's this week we noted that the Empire fashions aren't following the Empire line ALL the way. There are indications of the natural waist, which means that the gentle curve stays in sight. Anne Fogarty's full-blown beauty... a brown and black plaid flung out from a lifted waist... the cashmere cottons with high waists and little rounded collars had the look of worsted... and we like the practical aspect of the jumper dress because it could be worn after five as a decolletage. These new back-to-college clothes are featured at Irving's for the first time this year... perfect for rush seas and little dress-up affairs. Their unusual cashmere collection with skirts to match will rate A on any campus.

And now we have a windfall of shining watches at your wrist or as a pin or a pendant. For example, there is the D. J. Healy exclusive... a tiny watch set in an inch wide-gold band... there are ice cube watches dangling from shining bracelets... Sheffield's little watch is surrounded by colors to match dresses. Ditto for the leather colored straps. One watch was set in a clever turtle pin... another was a pendant. Sapphires, emeralds or rubies... as intricate as a tiara, were set in the bands of other models. (And one thought here might be a new navy cashmere from their fall collection... just ten ninety-five; twelve ninety-five and fifteen ninety-five. D. J. Healy's, in the village.

Swirl through fall in a day dress in deep tone shadowy plaid plus a velveteen collar and cuffs with a neat string bow at the neckline in toast and royal blue or green and royal blue with black... Margaret Rice, 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

Good August concoction... doses of sunshine and optically superior Ray-Ban G 15 sun glasses. The neutral gray lenses in Ray-Ban G 15 Sunglasses enables the wearer to see all colors as you would see them with the naked eye. These are invaluable to everyone engaged in outdoor work or hobbies where color discrimination is important. The new double gradient density sunglasses are especially useful where the overhead protection and protection from reflected glare from water or highway are needed. In any event, you will find the glasses to fit your particular needs at the Camera Center, in the village.

Add this to your list... a sheer wool costume suit... a wardrobe in itself... of luxurious lightweight wool... both matched perfectly in color and texture... choose black, teal, red or beige... part with forty-nine dollars and ninety-five cents. Margaret Rice, 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

Lest you forget... Kilgore and Hurd's annual summer sale is in progress... suits... slacks... sport coats... straw hats... sport shirts... swim wear and gift items. This means a twenty-five to forty per cent discount. Great! 92 Kercheval, on the hill.

There are still a few weeks left of summer. And, it's our bet that you will be carrying large packages of sunrays and quantities of lotion. And that you are the gal who'll be interested in a bonus for your wardrobe. Summery clothes are on sale right now at Margaret Rice's, on the hill. Store-wide mark downs!!!

Mr. Leif Bergau, at Irving's, on the hill, starts a new modeling class today at five o'clock. New classes begin EVERY Thursday. They are designed to develop poise and grace in walking as well as training for those who wish to become professional models.

In the v-e-r-y new linen department at D. J. Healy's, in the village, and among the hand towels, place mats, etc., we came upon downy Dacron comforters... noted they were non-allergic, resilient, and lightweight... blue, yellow, pink or white backgrounds. Tagged at thirteen dollars and fifty cents.

City Postpones Swimming Meet

The City of Grosse Pointe announces that the children's swimming races scheduled for Saturday, July 28, at 2:30 p.m., will be postponed one week.

The races are now scheduled for Saturday, August 4, at 2:30 p.m. Children 16 years and under are urged to sign up immediately for the races. Application forms are available at the City Park checkroom. Any guard or attendant will gladly assist each child in selecting his event and the relay team on which he should swim.

In addition to the award ribbons denoting first, second and third place for each event, a special new trophy will be unveiled. The boy or girl receiving the highest total number of points will have his or her name inscribed on the trophy.
