The Senate Public Works Committee refused to extend the 1974 auto emission standards for two more years, but did agree to let the 1975 interim standards apply also to 1976 models. If Congress upholds the Committee's decision it will mean that most 1975 and '76 vehicles will be equipped with catalytic converters, a pollution control device which requires use of more expensive, unleaded gasoline. The vote came on an amendment to the Clean Air Act and represents a victory for General Motors, the only auto maker committed to the production of the catalytic converters.

THE PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL OF ECONOMIC ADVISORS has predicted that the energy crisis will drive the nation's economy down to near-recession levels next year and force the unemployment rate up to nearly six percent. The council based the predictions on the assumption that the Arab oil cutoff continues through the year. As the Council reported the implications of the energy crisis on the national economy, the White House announced the President's plans to meet with his cabinet-level energy group, reportedly to discuss whether or not gasoline rationing will be necessary.

Saturday, December 1

THE WHITE HOUSE announced there will be no immediate move to ration gasoline, but it said it was considering price-control changes to encourage greater production of home heating oil and other distillate oils presumably by allowing price increases. The president's energy advisor, John Love, told the press that before any rationing program would go into effect, proposed regulations would be presented for public discussion and evaluation. That announcement ruled out any possibility of a surprise imposition of rationing on the nation.

Sunday, December 2

DAVID BEN-GURION, the first Premier of Israel and founder of Israeli statehood, died Saturday night in a hospital just outside of Tel Aviv. He was 87. He had suffered a cerebral hemorrhage on November 18 that left his right side paralyzed. He rallied briefly then lapsed into a coma five days later and never regained consciousness. A war-leader for the state during two conflicts with the Arabs, Ben-Gurion retired from public life in 1970.

Monday, December 3

JOHN LOVE has been relieved of his duties as the President's chief energy advisor because other high administrative officials disagreed with his strong recommendation that gasoline rationing be implemented. He has been replaced by Deputy Treasury Secretary William E. Simon, who will head a new super-agency to be known as the Federal Energy Administration. The agency is to oversee all of the government's energy programs. Sources say Love will continue to serve as a Presidential assistant.

Tuesday, December 4

THE MILK FUND RECORDS, a bundle of documents including a recording of a key meeting between President Nixon and top administration officials, will be surrendered to a federal judge. The materials were demanded by Ralph Nader in a civil suit charging that the Nixon administration raised milk price supports in 1971 in exchange for more than $200,000 in secret contributions to the Nixon re-election campaign.

Memorial Tennis Court Given Elworthy Field

Participating in the dedication and official naming of an Elworthy Field tennis court after their mother, the late Audrienne F. Murray, were her sons, (pictured left to right) STEVE, JOE, (holding replica of plaque), J. HENRY, BRIAN, JIM, and their father, HENRY MURRAY. The court was made possible through contributions of $7,586 to the project by the friends of Audrienne Murray. A permanent plaque reading "Donated by Friends of Audrienne F. Murray, Court-5, 1973" will be placed in the promenade currently under construction between the new tennis courts.

Woods Runs Out Of Gas as Result Of Energy Crisis

Supplier Admits Error in Figuring Cut in Allotment; Emergency Vehicles Get Help at Retail Stations

By Roger A. Waha

If anyone has any doubt about the severity of the energy crisis overall, and specifically on a local level, this piece of information should drive the crisis point home—The Woods ran out of gas for its emergency vehicles over the weekend of December 1-2.

"Gas for all Public Safety Department vehicles had to be purchased from local stations," said City Administrator Chester E. Petersen. But as of Monday, December 3, the situation has eased as the city received its December allotment of 6,700 gallons of gas from the Sun Oil Company.

Nonetheless there have been some problems regarding the city's allotment. The total gasoline consumption for city operations averages around 9,000 gallons per month. The Woods has received 6,700 gallons per month since May from Sun Oil, "but we had enough reserves to carry us through," said Mr. Petersen. Previous to May, the municipality received the average of 9,000 gallons per month.

To Up Allotment With the 6,700 gallon gas allotment, the city averaged 223 gallons a day, 150 of which were consumed by public safety vehicles and 70 by rubbish equipment vehicles. Mr. Petersen questioned this estimated 20-25 percent cut in allotment considering the city's average monthly gas consumption rate. He felt it was unfair and unrealistic.

After talking with Sun Oil officials, Mrs. Petersen said they agreed about the error and starting in January, The Woods will receive a monthly allotment of 8,100 gallons. Sun Oil will continue supplying us through the winter months as far as we know," he stated. But, at the same time, he noted, "The city will search for additional private sources at retail prices if extreme emergencies arise."

Jaycees Seek New Members

The Grosse Pointe Jaycees, who acquired nine new members at their September "M" night, have scheduled another membership drive evening for Thursday, December 13.

"M" night gives men between the ages of 18 and 35 an opportunity to come and look the Jaycees over. Newly elected Park Municipal Judge John Urso will be the speaker at this upcoming event at the VFW Hall, 20196 Mack avenue, starting at 8 p.m. The new Jaycees include Don Berschback, Gary Doud, Dick Hicks, Jim Owens, Jim Pattee, Roger Rigby, Bob Schroeder, Ed Serwach and Tom Stealy.

Shops of Walton-Pierce Open New Home Dec. 10

The Shops of Walton-Pierce is on the move to larger quarters at 16828 Kercheval avenue in The Village. The first day of business in the new location will be Monday, December 10.

Founded in 1925 by Mrs. William Rust Pierce and the late Mrs. Walton, the Shops of Walton-Pierce originated when made-to-order fashions were being brought to the women of Detroit's most beautifully dressed women regard fashion and Walton-Pierce as synonymous. Ladies who visited the shop in its initial downtown setting in the Women's City Club, are today helping their daughters, granddaughters and great-granddaughters shop at Walton-Pierce.

The Shops of Walton-Pierce opened a Grosse Pointe Branch in September, 1947, when Mrs. Pierce's daughter, Mrs. John T. Huntington joined the company. In 1952 the Grosse Pointe store became the sole outlet for made-to-order fashions and ready-to-wear until September 20, 1965, when the Birmingham shop was opened. On October 7, 1969, the Birmingham shop moved to Somerset Mall. Mrs. Pierce's daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Leonard heads this shop.

The new Walton-Pierce Store located in the two-story building at 16828 Kercheval, encompasses 17,000 square feet and has a private parking area.

Prolific Thief To Be Freed

Shores Police Detective Sergeant Frank Mustazza Sizzling; Cites Long Criminal Record

By Roger A. Waha

A 47-year-old Detroit man, who was sentenced to 7½-15 years in Jackson Prison June 16, 1969, for a Shores burglary, is scheduled for parole February 9, 1974, after serving over five years in jail.

And Shores Detective Sergeant Frank Mustazza, the investigating officer in the breaking and entering case, is sizzling about it as the man, Irving Goldfarb, 47, has an extensive criminal record dating back to his juvenile days in 1936.

"Why is he getting out and not serving his maximum sentence?" said Sergeant Mustazza. "His record shows he can't be rehabilitated. Why is the parole board letting him out? Where's our protection?"

People Will Suffer

The sergeant felt, considering Goldfarb's previous record, that it could be a matter of months after he gets out that he may be caught again. "I feel the parole board is not doing its job with a record," (Goldfarb's), like that. He's a very poor risk. The only ones who are going to suffer are the people."

"In investigating the possibility of the decision being reversed, I found that nobody was able to do anything about it," stated Sergeant Mustazza. "Should a parole board have this power? I feel this is why we have crime in the streets; this is one of the big reasons. The parole board has the sole say-so on this."

Goldfarb was sentenced by Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Horace Gilmore in June 1969. When informed of his pending parole, Judge Gilmore said he was "surprised" that Goldfarb was being released considering his record.

Goldfarb, who was reported to be one of the most prolific daytime burglars in the Detroit area, was arrested November 20, 1968, by Farms and Harper Woods police officers after he escaped from a Greenbriar road home. There, he had been surprised in the act of burglarizing the place by a housewife who returned from shopping.

Police said, after nabbing Goldfarb, that he admitted to being involved in 39 breaking and entering cases in the Detroit area.

Appeal Upheld

Woods Studies Proposed Laws

The Woods Council at the regular meeting Monday, December 3, unanimously referred two proposed ordinances to the Committee of the Whole for further study with a report back to the council.

One measure would prohibit the possession, distribution, exhibition or sale of any obscene, lewd, lascivious or indecent book, magazine, pamphlet, newspaper, photograph record, picture, photograph, motion picture film, figure, image, wire or tape recording.

The springboard for this ordinance is the recent United States Supreme Court decision where it's up to each local community to set its own standards on pornography.

The second measure would provide for the annual inspection and licensing of all buses operated within the city and would require the annual approval of school bus routes by the council within the city. It also would require information pertaining to school bus drivers.

2 Contracts Approved by Park Council

Firemen and Police Sergeants Ratify Pacts Concerning Salaries; Police Had Signed

At a special meeting on Monday, December 3, the Park council approved a two-year contract negotiated with the Grosse Pointe Park Fire Fighters Association (GPPFFA). Under the terms of the contract, the firefighters receive the same benefits as ratified by the Grosse Pointe Park Police Officers Association (GPPOA) except for minor differences.

As did the Police Officers Association, the GPPFFA settled its wage talks without resorting to arbitration which had been requested by the firemen. One point they did not receive, and the firefighters appeared resigned to the matter, is parity, that is, receiving the same annual salary as the policemen. The firemen will still get $300 less a year than the police officers.

Sergeants Sign Pact City Manager Robert Stone said that a settlement has been reached with the Grosse Pointe Park Police Sergeants Association, which includes one corporal as a member. They receive all the fringe benefits granted the patrolmen, but their pay is a little higher.

Representing the city in the contract talks besides Stone were City Clerk Nunzio Orisi, Councilman George Verdonck and City Attorney (Continued on Page 10)

Arrests Clear Up Eight Woods House Burglaries

The arrest of six juveniles, five of whom were nabbed on Thursday, November 22, has cleared up eight burglaries and two attempted break-ins in The Woods, reported Detective Everett Plumb, who investigated the incidents along with Youth Service Division Agent Michael Ferrance.

Petitions will be filed with the Wayne County Juvenile Court by the Youth Service Division charging the youths, who range in age from 13-16, with the breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling. These incidents remain under investigation as police feel there's a possibility that others may be involved. The eight break-ins, which happened in early November through Thanksgiving Day, occurred at two Yorktown road residences, two Hollywood avenue homes and at one residence each in River Road, Wedgewood road, Vernier Circle and Woods Lane court. The attempts were reported at Hidden Lane and River road homes. Detective Plumb said, "So far we have a partial recovery of property from six of the burglaries, and we still have more property which will be recovered." He estimated the value of articles taken from the eight homes as between $2,500 to $3,500, and this isn't considering damage to the residences via the break-ins. The recovered items included (Continued on Page 4)

State Arbitrator Settles Pay Contract Negotiations Between Farms, Police

Patrolmen Approve New One-Year Agreement Giving Them $1,000 Annual Pay Raise; Okay Other Issues

By James J. Njalm

The Grosse Pointe Farms Police Officers Association (GPFOA) gave its approval to a one-year contract with the Farms under which they won a $1,000 a year salary increase, retroactive to July 1 of this year. All demands made by the Association were granted following a binding arbitration hearing held in the Farms Municipal Building, 90 Kerby road, on Wednesday, November 28.

Sitting in as arbitrator was David Keefe, of the Michigan Arbitration Panel, mutually selected by the Farms administration and the attorney for the Association, J. Douglas Korney.

Four Sticky Issues Four issues which had deadlocked contract negotiations between city administration and police teams, were settled by Keefe in favor of the 18 patrolmen represented by the Association.

The arbitration, which was compulsory and binding, raises the pay of a patrolman from $12,660 to $13,660 annually; patrolmen working the afternoon shifts, were granted 10 cents more an hour and those working the mid-night shift, will receive 20 cents an hour more.

Other points granted, were: an increase of sick days from 120 to a maximum of 150 days, a hike of 30 extra days they are allowed to earn. The Association members also won the issue on cash surcharge value of 50 percent for each sick day earned over the 120, on retirement.

What This Means This means, it was disclosed by Patrolman John Farley, GPFOA president,

Witness Stops Purse Snatcher

As a Ridgemont road woman was exiting her car at the rear of Arnold's Drugs Monday evening, November 26, a man grabbed her purse and fled west on Hollywood avenue.

But if you think the culprit got away with the purse, guess again. A 25-year-old Fleetwood road man, who witnessed the incident, chased the man but ultimately lost him in the area of Hollywood and Helen.

However, during the chase, the thief dropped the purse which was returned to the complainant intact by the witness. The suspect was described as a white male, between 22 and 24 years of age, around 6' tall and weighing between 165 and 170 pounds. He was of a slim build with long, dirty-looking blond bushy hair, and was possibly wearing a blue denim jacket and blue jeans. The culprit also was wearing horn-rimmed glasses, Woods police said.

Goodfellow Paper Sale December 10

Policemen, Fire Fighters Assist Lions Clubs; Funds Used to Aid Needy

A special day is approaching for the Grosse Pointe Lions and The Woods Lions Clubs. It is a day in which all Pointers can participate by purchasing a special edition Goodfellow Newspaper so both clubs can continue their humanitarian work among the needy.

Local Lions will be "hawking" their wares Monday, December 10, from 6:30 a.m. until noon. Assisting the members of the GP Lions Club will be policemen and firemen from The City, Park, Farms and Shores while Woods Lions will receive aid from their wives, friends and members of the city's Public Safety Department.

Set Goals This is the 44th consecutive year that GP Lions have conducted their Goodfellow paper sale. They have set a goal of $7,500, approximately $1,000 higher than last year. Meanwhile, Wood Lions will work hard to obtain their goal of $3,500.

The monies received from the sales will be used to bring cheer at Christmas time for Pointe needy. GP Lions report about 50 Christmas baskets will be distributed through names submitted by police officers and fire fighters of the community. The rest of the money will be used for other community needs, plus various Lion projects to aid the blind.

GP Lions contribute to The Grosse Pointe War Memorial, the Michigan Lions Eye Bank, Boy Scouts of America, CARE and the White Cane Project.

Many Projects They also give to State projects like the Leader Dogs for the Blind, Rochester, Mich.; Welcome Home for the Blind, a Grand Rapids home for elderly blind persons from all over the State, and the Penrick Center, Taylor Township, where preschool children who have other physical handicaps are taught ways to lead as normal lives as possible.

Proceeds from the sale also go towards glasses, examinations and operations for the less fortunate in The Pointe area. Woods Lions report, "This is the club's most important project of the year, for without the funds obtained from this drive we would be unable to carry on our humanitarian work among the blind (Continued on Page 4)

RAINY OUTING
The Parcels Post, a newspaper put out by the students of Parcels Middle School, reports that students went camping and canoeing on the Manistee River in mid-October.

Reporter Dean Dauphinais said, "They were greeted by 14 hours of continuous rain, and two windstorms, which made it difficult to conduct the activities planned."

Detective Burns Over Man's Parole

for 135 days time spent in jail while awaiting trial), Sergeant Mustazza charged Goldfarb with being a habitual criminal under the "Habitual Criminal Act."

According to State Statute 28.1063 this act is based upon repeated convictions for felonies; it seeks to effect increased punishment for repeated violations of criminal statutes and the gist of its purpose is punishment for a repeater.

Police said Goldfarb pled guilty to this before Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Charles Farnier on October 22, 1969, and was given 12-18 1/2 years under the "Habitual Criminal Act." However, Goldfarb appealed this a year later on the technicality that the wrong judge took the plea, (it should have been the last judge who convicted him), and his appeal was upheld.

Review Record

In reviewing Goldfarb's record, police reported he was convicted in July 1944 for breaking and entering and was sentenced to 7 1/2-15 years; he was then paroled in November 1949.

Goldfarb was convicted in January 1951 on a larceny from a building charge, and was sentenced to 1-4 years in prison. He escaped in July 1954, was returned in August 1954 and was discharged in

In 1958, he was convicted of breaking and entering and was sentenced to 2-5 years in prison, and was discharged in June 1962.

He was sentenced to 7-10 years in October 1963 for possession of burglary tools, police said, and got out in April 1968. Then, Goldfarb was arrested for the Shores burglary seven months later.

NEWS Reports

The July 3, 1969, edition of the NEWS, (the story which reports his sentence for The Shores breakin), says, "Over a five-year period, Goldfarb netted a total of $64,000 from burglaries in The Pointe, St. Clair Shores, Lathrup Village, Oak Park, Beverly Hills, Bloomfield Hills, Bloomfield Township and Southfield," plus "Five burglaries in The Pointe netted the man a total of $40,000."

When Goldfarb was sentenced in June 1969, Sergeant Mustazza said, "At no time did anybody figure he wouldn't serve the max," (maximum sentence).

If he served the "max," (15 years), he could have got out after 10 years, 10 months on regular good time, or after eight years, nine months on special good time, police reported, based upon Michigan's Good Time Law. But apparently Goldfarb is getting out on special good time based upon the minimum sentence, (five years, 10 months, six days for regular good time and five years, nine days for special good time).

Turn of Events

In considering Goldfarb's record, Sergeant Mustazza is dismayed and angered by this turn of events. "Why would the parole board think of the minimum with a man with Goldfarb's record when they should be looking at the maximum."

The sergeant also was irked by the fact that time accumulated while a person is awaiting trial is put towards his "good time."

In relation to this, the July 3, 1969, edition of the NEWS notes, "On February 18 of this year, Goldfarb pled guilty to the Shores charge at a hearing before Circuit Judge Richard Maher, and sentencing was set for March 14, and Goldfarb was released on $10,000."

"However, before the sentencing date, Goldfarb had a change of heart and decided to plead not guilty and a new trial was set for April 21, and bond of $25,000 was set. Unable to meet the bond,

SELF-ANALYSIS

The real measure of a man's intelligence is his inherent ability to discover when he's in the wrong.

The road to ruin is traveled when one lives beyond his means.

Goldfarb was remanded to the Wayne County Jail until his trial on April 21, and his sentencing on June 16."

Glancy Case

On the subject of paroles, Sergeant Mustazza reflected upon the beating death of Alfred R. Glancy, Jr. and noted that the two persons, (Detroiters Henry Reed, Jr., and Edward Williams), convicted of the slaying of Mr. Glancy were both out on special paroles previous to this incident.

(Reed was convicted of first degree murder, Williams was convicted of second degree murder and both were convicted of the breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling in this case).

Police revealed that Reed was sentenced to 5-15 years in prison for unarmed robbery in Detroit on July 28, 1969, and was paroled on February 10, 1972. Meanwhile, Williams served two years of a 1-25 year sentence in Ohio for unarmed robbery and was paroled July 12, 1971.

Mr. Glancy was attacked in his Lake Shore road home in November 1972.

"If they were in jail like they were supposed to be, Alfred Glancy would be walking around here today," said Sergeant Mustazza.

In stressing that both were out way before their time, the sergeant stated, "Parole officials should be more careful on who they let out. If they must parole them, they should be let out closer to their maximum rather than their minimum sentence."

"I think the parole laws are undermining the will of the people and the judges," he concluded.

Woods' Purchase of Lot For Parking Unsettled

By Roger A. Waha
Two separate but apparently related items were on the agenda at the regular meeting of The Woods Council Monday, December 3. One was a letter from F. C. Cook, regional manager, Chrysler Realty Corporation, on the purchase of the vacant lot at the corner of Newcastle road and Mack avenue, while the other was a request for a public hearing from R. J. Murphy, real estate department, Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company.

The council unanimously received and placed on file the letter from Mr. Cook, and set the date of Monday, December 17, for the public hearing.

At the Monday, November 19, council meeting, the solons unanimously approved the purchase of the lot at Chrysler Realty Corporation's stipulated price of $35,000 so the property could be used as a municipal parking lot. As of Monday evening, December 3, City Administrator Chester E. Petersen said there has been no reply to the city's offer to purchase.

In his letter to Mr. Petersen, Mr. Cook said, "We are agreeable to conclude the sale of this property to the City of Grosse Pointe Woods. However, it must be understood that the occupancy of the former Pointe Dodge Sales & Service facility, (18391 Mack), is dependent upon adequate parking in this area.

Thief Invades Home in Park

The burglar, or burglars, who broke into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Bauer, 1032 Somerset, took their pick of jewelry and discarded the jewelry box, with some of its contents intact, in the rear yard of the Bauers' neighbors across the street. Two valuable furs were reported missing from the burglarized residence.

Park Lt. Gordon Duncan said that the intruders entered the Bauer property on Friday, November 18, between 6:15 p.m., when the family left home, and 11:30 p.m., at which time the break-in was discovered.

The lieutenant said that the Bauers were having some cement work done on their property and several pieces of broken concrete were left alongside their garage. The thief, or thieves, used a piece of concrete to smash the glass of the rear door of the house to gain entrance, the officer said.

Mrs. Bauer reported that her jewelry box was missing, with an undetermined number of items in it, and also a $700 natural pearl mink coat and a $300 autumn haze mink stole.

Officers dispatched to the scene, searched the neighborhood, and found the discarded jewelry box in the rear yard of 1027 Somerset. The box contained miscellaneous items of jewelry. The values of the missing pieces, or those left behind, were not disclosed.

"Therefore, we enlist your assistance in providing the Goodyear Tire people with the necessary City approvals to commence their operations in this facility and eliminate the possible problems that are inherent with vacant buildings."

At the meeting, Mr. Cook told the council the only economic way to sell the property is if the building is occupied. He mentioned the fact of paying rent on a vacant building and stressed an overall "economic hardship." Mr. Cook said, "It's difficult for the corporation to sell without use of the building." While stating he wanted to sell the lot to the city, he also stressed the dangers of vandalism to the empty structure.

This information caught Mayor Benjamin W. Pinkos and some of his colleagues by surprise. "I was under the impression that the lot was for sale for the city's purchase, for improvements, so it wouldn't be an eyesore," the mayor said. In this respect, he felt this now had become a "contingency sale" which was other than the council had proposed.

Mayor Pinkos told Mr. Cook the council would need a written statement from Chrysler, i.e., a firm, binding agreement regarding the purchase of the lot with any contingencies.

Councilman Roger A. Graef said the letter from Mr. Cook and the setting of a public hearing date were two separate items on the agenda. He stated he would not want to vote on a contingency deal with another item on the agenda.

As for Goodyear, this is the third time they have requested a public hearing for a variance in the off-street parking requirements at the building formerly occupied by Pointe Dodge. On both previous occasions earlier this year, the council nixed their request. However, Mr. Murphy said new plans have now been drawn for the council's consideration.

Mr. Murphy asked if and when the city purchases the lot, based on the fact that improvements wouldn't be started until spring, could he take occupancy of the building around February 1, (assuming the variance is approved), before the lot undergoes improvements. To this Councilman George S. Freeman said if the variance was okayed, the lot has nothing to do with it.

And it was noted if Goodyear purchased the lot, there was no question that they could use it whether the variance was approved or not.

What appears to have happened regarding the purchase of this lot is the apparent connection between the property's sale and approval of Goodyear's request so that the building would be occupied. The council feels they are two separate items, while Chrysler feels there is some relationship between the lot's purchase and the immediate occupancy of the building — if not by Goodyear, then possibly someone else, so the building will not be vacant.

At this point, this matter seems to hinge on the upcoming public hearing when Goodyear tries again for approval.

Burglars Visit Homes in City

Two cases of breaking and entering, (B&E), both occurring on the same date, were reported to City police last week.

A Neff road resident, Edgar Meathe, complained to police on Monday, November 28, that on Sunday, November 25, between 9 p.m. and 1 a.m., someone entered his home through the bathroom window and took a Magnavox clock-radio valued at $100. Mr. Meathe had been at work during that time and he found the bathroom window open and the clock-radio missing when he returned. Police feel that since the burglar entered is small, perhaps a younger person is responsible for the theft. Another incident occurred at the home of a University road resident at 11:17 p.m. At that time, Mrs. Nancy Murray stated she was in the basement and heard footsteps upstairs. When she went to investigate, she found the rear storm door propped open and her husband asleep upstairs.

Mrs. Murray called the police and when they checked the area, they discovered the rear door of a neighbor's residence at 801 University road was also propped open. The resident there assured police that no one had entered his house.

Reported missing from the Murray home was a brown leather handbag containing $18, numerous credit cards, a driver's license and a pair of prescription glasses.

Board Changes Meeting Place

The regular meeting of the School Board will be held at the school administration building, 389 St. Clair avenue, Monday, December 10, at 8 p.m.

The usual place for the regular meeting of the Board is North High School. Due to a conflict in schedule, the meeting was switched to the St. Clair building where special Board meetings take place.

Woods' Gas Shortage

(Continued from Page 1) due to its leaf pickup vehicles. All four Vac-Alls, which consume 50 gallons apiece a day, were on the road six to seven days a week. This apparently played a role in the "dry spell."

As a result of this crisis, Mrs. Petersen said the city will try to finish leaf collections this week. After this time, he advises residents to put their leaves in plastic bags for pickup on their rubbish days.

He also is going to recommend for council action these measures: no plowing of snow on sidewalks this winter, and the use of salt in streets only in extreme icy conditions or where there are two or more inches of snow.

Mr. Petersen said all department heads are reviewing individual departmental operations and were to submit recommendations for the conservation of oil, gasoline, natural gas and electric power to his office no later than Tuesday, December 4.

Besides lowering the thermostats, Mr. Petersen said these actions have already been taken:

The Department of Public Works has completely cut off the heat in two storage garages, while maintaining heat only in its offices and repair shops.

The Public Safety Department has dropped the thermostat in its storage garage to 50 degrees.

Hallways in the Public Safety Department area of the city's Municipal Building will only use emergency lighting both day and night.

Flood lights in front of the Municipal Building have been discontinued.

Burglaries

During the "recovery process," the detective said a little girl, around three-years-old, has been constantly asking him if her piggy bank has been found. "She wants her piggy bank back," he chuckled, "and we think we can get it for her."

Detective Plumb had sound words of praise for Public Safety Officer Robert Kwiatkowski who observed four of the youths at the rear of the First English Evangelical Lutheran Church, 800 Vernier road, around 9:15 p.m. on the 22nd. Another youth was spotted walking away from the foursome.

The officer took their names and inquired what they were doing. The juveniles said they were trying to think of something to do and the officer told them to leave the area. A few minutes later the Vernier Circle break-in was reported and ultimately Officer Kwiatkowski brought in one youth, while assisting Officer Thomas Hunke "delivered" two others for investigation.

Detective Plumb said the juveniles were traced because Officer Kwiatkowski took their names. He also stated that one youth was the "principal" in the break-ins, while three others were involved in two or three of the burglaries.

THROWS FLOWER POT
A 48 by 30 inch storm window was broken Wednesday night, November 14, by someone who threw a flower pot at the Philip Van Zile house, 177 Cloverly road. The damage was discovered at 7 a.m. the following morning and reported to Farms police. Also broken was a 16 by 24 inch inside window.

Don't delay! Our new low-cost home insulation program can cut gas heating costs up to 17%.

In just a few short weeks, many of our customers around Michigan have taken advantage of a new program to hold down heating bills and help save Natural Gas, too. The program was developed at the direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission, which is seeking ways to conserve Natural Gas and hold down utility bills by the wise use of energy.

To assist you in the project, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company has even prepared a helpful booklet that shows just how to do the job.

Secondly, you can call a contractor of your choice and arrange to have the work done. Or call Michigan Consolidated Gas Company. We'll have one of our participating insulation subcontractors install it for you, which can also be easy on your budget. Many houses with up to 1,000 square feet in the ceiling area can be insulated for less than $200. And, there's a payment plan to suit most every customer. You can pay cash. Or, you can pay just 20% down at the time the contract is signed—then simply have the remaining cost included in your gas bill. Pay it off on your next three gas bills with no interest or carrying charges.

The heart of the program is installing ceiling insulation in your home. It's quick. Economical. Easy. In fact, a recent government study found "the most significant opportunity" for homeowners to conserve energy was through "improved insulation of houses," [which] "would benefit the individual homeowner by reducing winter fuel bills, summer air conditioning bills, size and capital cost of heating and cooling equipment, and air pollution." The Michigan Public Service Commission has found that many homeowners could achieve fuel savings of as much as 17% by having six inches of insulation in their attics. Naturally, results for your home may vary due to architectural differences and your heating habits.

To help you realize fuel savings in your home, we've designed an easy home insulation program. Here's how it works.

First, you can install the ceiling insulation yourself. It's a simple do-it-yourself project—and the most economical way to put in ceiling insulation. Many customers can accomplish the task for less than $100.

Finally, you can pay for the job over an extended period at an interest rate of 1% monthly on the unpaid balance. (ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%.)

Whichever you choose, you'll be taking an important step toward holding down your heating bills. And cutting down on the use of Natural Gas. Why not plan on doing it now. Contact us today for additional details. And if you're a do-it-yourselfer, ask for our free booklet.

Pair Charged With Two Larceny Counts in Woods

A 19-year-old Detroit man and a 28-year-old Detroit woman, who allegedly took various wrist watches from Bob's Drug Company, 21034 Mack avenue, on Monday evening, November 26, are charged with two counts of larceny, reported Woods police.

Walter Durand Trombly and Sadie Mae Harris are each charged with larceny over $100 on the first count, and larceny in a building on the second count.

Both suspects were arraigned before Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis Tuesday, November 27, and were released after paying $100 in cash out of a $1,000 personal bond. Their examination is scheduled for Wednesday, December 5.

Youth Service Division Detective Thomas Podaszewick, who arrived at the scene prior to uniformed units, was told by a pharmacist that a white male and black female had taken a number of watches from the store. He also said both were at the rear of the Lochmoor Lounge, 20934 Mack. After checking that location with negative results, the detective returned to the store.

A short time later, however, information was received over the radio that a white male and black female were on the porch at a Hollywood avenue residence. They asked the resident to call a taxi for them, police said.

But instead of a taxi, police responded. Public Safety Officer Frederick Lovelace and Auxiliary Officer John Nash saw the suspects at the home. Upon requesting identification from the woman, Officer Lovelace spotted several watches in her purse. In all, her purse contained 20 Timex watches and two plastic watch holders, police said. Other responding officers included Corporal Gerald Kensora and Public Safety Officers Douglas D o s m a s and Robert Kwaitkowski.

Meanwhile, the pharmacist told Detective Podaszewick the male suspect came to the counter and presented three prescriptions for drugs which the pharmacist said they didn't carry. The man then walked to the front of the store as did the pharmacist, as he felt something might be wrong.

A male customer stopped the pharmacist and stated the suspect took a wrist watch display case off the counter, and exited the store and called to a black female still inside, "Let's go," according to the report.

At this time, a woman, sitting in a parked car on Roslyn near the store, spotted the male suspect, who was followed by the female, walk by, carrying a case containing wrist watches. The man walked through the alley east of the store and then in view of the witness, took the watches from the case. Then they went into the alley south from that location.

Police confiscated 10 Timex watch cases found in the rear of Bob's Drugs and returned to the store by the pharmacist, plus five Timex watch cases and broken pieces of plastic found by an employe at the rear of the Lochmoor Lounge.

Minors Nabbed Buying Liquor

Five juveniles, all girls, were arrested Saturday night, November 24, for possession of alcoholic beverages, and the Alger Party Store was given a strong warning for selling it to them by City Police.

Officers David Teolis and Dennis Van Dale were patrolling Mack avenue at 9:42 p.m., when they noticed a young girl in front of the Alger Party Store, 1732c Mack avenue. Officers watched as the girl went into the store and came out a short time later with a package in her hand.

The girl got into a 1973 white two-door Plymouth parked on St. Clair avenue. When the car began moving south on St. Clair, officers followed and radioed to the station to request they put in a call to the party store and find out what purchase the girl had made.

The party store denied they had any customer that fit the girl's description and officers stopped the car at McKinley avenue and Waterloo road.

The officers searched the front seat of the car with a flashlight and found a six-pack of malt liquor. The girls all denied any knowledge there was alcohol in the vehicle, and officers reported the liquor was still ice cold and in a brown paper bag. The police had the girls follow them back to the Alger Party Store. The girl, who Officers Van Dale and Teolis saw go into the store, admitted that she had done so, but claimed she only bought soda-pop. When officers presented the girl to the store's owner, he admitted selling the malt liquor to her, but protested that the girl told him she was 19-years-old. Police explained to both store owners, Robert and Richard Grobes, that liability lies with the licensee in the sale of alcoholic beverages, and that a report of the store's sale to a minor would be turned over to the Detective Bureau and a disposition would follow. The five girls were then taken to the station where their parents were notified and requested to come to, and talk with, the arresting officers. Officers noted that all the parents were very agreeable and concerned and thanked police when they left.

Honor Pointer with Library

An Administrative Management Library will be established in memory of Pointer John V. Rini, by the Detroit Chapter, Administrative Management Society with the cooperation of the Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce, where he was employed for many years until his sudden death on June 11.

Mr. Rini, of Robert John road, was vice-president, Administration and Operations Division of the Chamber, and the Chamber's senior staff member with 28 years of service.

He served the Society in many capacities including that of president of the Detroit Chapter, and set an outstanding example in the field of administrative management.

The library will include books, publications, tape cassettes and other reference and training aids designed to help candidates prepare for examinations included in the Certified Administrative Manager program of the Society, secondary and college and university students, and to the local business community.

Disagreeable days are not subject to recall, so make the most of it when the going is good. Anyone who studies human nature can read a lifetime and never reach the end of the book.

Building Fund Campaign

 out that rapid advances in the field of medical science during the last generation have led to techniques and procedures unheard of when the present hospital was built.
 These techniques, he said, require not only advanced skills but space and sophisticated equipment, and hospitals designed as long ago as the 1941 building at Bon Secours cannot be adapted to modern medicine.
Describe Plans
 The building plans were described by Louis A. Rossetti, president of Rossetti Associates of Detroit, architects for the program.
 He cited examples of the widespread modernization of the scientific service and then went on to emphasize the "humanistic quality of people architecture" in every aspect of the planning.
 He said the nurse aide/team nursing combination would drastically reduce non-professional chores for the nurse—allowing her to spend almost all her time with her patients and thus become more familiar with their problems and needs.
 The project includes new construction along Notre Dame road which has resulted in the elimination of the incinerator and smokestack, replacement of the 1941 building facing Cadieux road, extensive reconstruction within the 1951 and 1954 buildings on Cadieux and Maumee avenue.
 The result, the architect said, will be what will amount to a new 270-bed hospital. The buildings will form a U-shape, the center of which will be landscaped as a roof garden for the use of ambulatory patients and visitors and enhance the aesthetics of the area.
 Mrs. Hans Gehrke, who has accepted the post of Chairman of the Fund, presided at the meeting and expressed confidence that "the community will join with us in making an investment in the future of Grosse Pointe" by exceeding the $2.5 million minimum objective.
 Mrs. Gehrke said she had accepted the chairmanship because she decided "it was my civic duty and that it was time I did something for Grosse Pointe. We have lived here a good many years and our family was raised here, and I thought it was time to help insure the future of this community."
 "If those in past generations had not been concerned, we would not today be enjoying our parks, schools, churches, the War Memorial and, of course, Bon Secours. We must carry on this tradition of community service."
 Her fund leaders include Charles T. Fisher, III, honorary chairman; R. Frederick Kolowich, vice-chairman of the Fund; Robert L. Goffredson, chairman, Major Gifts Committee; Donald N. Sweeney, MD, chairman, Doctors Committee; Charles Verheyden, honorary chairman, Special Gifts Committee; Louis A. Fisher, treasurer of the Fund, and Sister Anne Lutz, assistant treasurer.
Record of Evening
 Earlier in the evening, Sister Justine Cyr, president of the hospital, outlined briefly its record of service to the community and paid tribute to the medical staff, the board of trustees, the administrative team, the professional and non-professional employees and the volunteers in the women's groups which serve the hospital.
 "It is through the dedicated efforts of all those people that the hospital has been able to earn its reputation for offering medical care of high quality in a home-like atmosphere of compassion and personal attention—a reputation we intend to carefully guard in the years ahead," she said.
 Other head table guests included Sister Rita Thomas, provincial superior, Sisters of Bon Secours, and Barry M. Spero, executive director of the hospital.
 The invocation was offered by Rev. Perry A. Thomas, pastor of the Grosse Pointe United Methodist Church, while Msgr. Canfield pronounced the benediction.

Defer Students Excavate Field
 Defer School's Sixth Grade Class from Mrs. Linda K. Schoonbeck's room had a very exciting Social Studies assignment in November. They studied archaeology and then split into four groups to do "field work." The places near the fences were found to be the best, according to student reporters Eddie Fish and Jamie Owens.
 Each group had about eight students. The holes were to be three decimeters maximum, but many were six. The students came up with some interesting objects, for example, a 1929 penny, a 1964 nickel, old broken pop bottles circa 1950, possible primitive arrowheads, ceramic house tile, house bricks, a large bullet, coal, slag, and sandstone. The class deduced that a river or lake covered the field at one time and some kind of house was once built on the site.
 After all the searching for two weeks, reports, displays and tapes were made on the findings and placed in a room for viewing.

GP Park Appeals Board Okays Zoning Variances

The Park council, sitting as a Zoning Board of Appeals, on Monday, November 26, granted four young ladies, in two separate instances, a variance from Ordinance 22, which will permit them to reside in homes, although they are not related by blood or are members of immediate families. The four petitioners are employed and share expenses to help ease the cost of living.

The first two young women who petitioned for a variance, were unanimously granted approval, but the second pair met with opposition, not only from some neighbors, but by the council. They received the consent of the Board of Appeals by a majority vote. With one councilman, Charles Tompkins, absent.

The first two girls, as did the other two, filed a petition with the Park, requesting the city to grant a variance from Zoning Ordinance, Section 16, Ordinance 22, which provides that only one family occupy a single residential unit. The building they are presently living in is in the 1000 block of Wayburn avenue and is a two-family dwelling.

The names of the four petitioners are being withheld to prevent unwanted and perhaps unsavory phone calls and possible harassment.

Such appeals requires review and public hearings to determine whether petitions should be granted, pursuant to the council's powers under Chapter 20, Building Zoning Ordinance.

In the first instance, the women petitioners were granted permission to live in their rented flat when no opposition was raised by either neighbors or the council. Mayor Matthew Patterson, and Councilmen Douglas Graham, Robert Hutton, Dr. Roger McNeill, George Verdonck and Councilwoman Camille Peterson voted in favor.

In the second matter, involving the two residing in the 1000 block of Beaconsfield, on the second floor of six-family residence, two neighbors expressed opposition by letter, and one was voiced from a woman in the audience.

In this case, the girls informed the Board that they have added to the betterment of the apartment by paying for their own repair works and other improvements. As did the other two girls, the Beaconsfield petitioners informed the council they have only one car between them, and therefore are not adding to the on-street parking problem in the neighborhood.

Because of the expressed opposition by letter and from the woman in the audience, Councilman Verdonck voted no, Councilwoman Peterson abstained, and Mayor Patterson and Councilman Graham Hutton and McNeill constituted the majority favoring the variance.

City Manager Robert Stone pointed out to those in the audience, that each case is judged separately, and the granting of any variance does not mean that landlords have the right to allow unrelated persons to rent their properties. If those granted variances move out, those seeking to live in that particular house or apartment, must appear before the Zoning Board of Appeals for permission.

Deputy City Attorney Herold Deason, in explaining the Zoning Ordinance, had this to say:

"A variance does not involve any change in land use or density patterns within the city, or any change in the Park's Zoning Code. Indeed, the city's Zoning Code expressly provides the council, sitting as a Board of Appeals, to permit the occupancy of a single family unit to no more than three unrelated persons."

"If it is found that such occupancy will result in no impairment in the zoning character of the neighborhood, then the council's action in no way alters existing zoning classifications or density patterns."

Brownell PTA to Hear Music

The second meeting of the Brownell Middle School P.T.A. will be held on Thursday evening, December 6, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

The program for the evening will include an "Open House" with all teachers in their classrooms from 7:30 to 8 o'clock. At 8:10, President Charles Kalvelage will call the meeting to order in the gymnasium.

Following a brief business meeting, the music department will present its annual Christmas concert. Under the direction of Daniel Evola, the 80-member Girls' Choir will sing five familiar Christmas favorites including "Carol of the Bells" and "Star of Bethlehem."

Forty songsters, all members of the eighth grade chorus, will sing four selections including "Gift of Love" and "Snowflakes and Holly Wreaths." Concluding the choral part of the program will be some selections by the select ensembles, the Brownellers and the Brownelles.

Mrs. Christina Judson will conduct the Brownell Orchestra which will play "Christmas Fugue" by Robert Brown, and "Excerpts from Handel's Water Music."

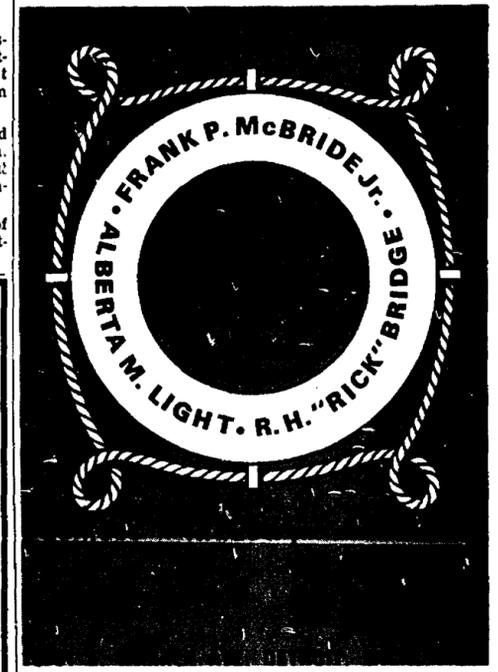

Refreshments will be served after the music program. Chairman of the refreshment committee is Mrs. John Olmsted.

All parents and friends of Brownell are invited to attend. There is no admission.

Walton-Pierce Shops

ing area behind the building for customers. The installation is the result of a top to bottom, stem to stem renovation of the existing building formerly occupied by Best & Company. The design was done by Ford & Earl Design Associates, 28820 Mound road, Warren, Mich. Walter B. Ford II headed the project with Dean Ladas, chief designer, and Kenneth Fahnestock, project coordinator. Total Concept Systems was the general contractor.

The main floor of 7,100 square feet consists of selling space, stock area and fitting rooms. The various departments are Sportswear, Shoes, Dresses, Coats, Hats, Lingerie, Jewelry, Bridal and Linen to order department.

The second floor houses alteration, tailoring, custom work shops and Robert's Place, a hairdressing salon owned by Robert Dumouchelle. Decorated by Jack Tarpley of William Denier and Company, it has a romantic summer-house feeling with a glamorous background of silver paper, mirror-finished and a balance of different patterns in green, bright yellow and white. Parrot green carpeting and a white parquet combine as floor covering. The facial salon is decorated in silver and white.

The basement contains offices, storage and lunch facilities for employees. On the exterior of the building the brick has been painted a bone gray. The windows facing Kercheval are hung with charcoal canvas awnings trimmed in white and lined in Walton-Pierce blue with an arched canopy of the same colors over the entrance. The rear of the building has painted wood shutters and a canvas canopy at the rear entrance, both in the charcoal color. The building is identified by white Old English script letters edged in blue.

The interior is designed to create an atmosphere of warmth and to project a feeling of good taste and elegance which parallel the hallmark of Walton-Pierce. This touch was achieved by creating individual boutiques positioned enfilade in a meandering curve produced by variations of the circle.

Each boutique has its own unique distinction keyed to the type of merchandise for sale. The color format of the entire shop, carpeting and walls is a warm beige with either bold or delicate color accents on furniture, draperies and walls behind the merchandise. This leads a softness and a certain whimsy to the curvilinear motif of the space.

Where it was deemed appropriate, an effort was made to suggest the residential environments in which the customer is likely to wear each shop's specialties. Thus, the Sportswear Department with bright green contemporary chairs and yellow wall accents establishes an informal youthful mood, while Mrs. Pierce's Custom Salon with French antiques, silks and a crystal chandelier more than suggests a formal drawing room.

Finally to visually unify the diverse shops and at the same time set up an efficient traffic pattern, a loggia paved in black brick extending from the front entrance around the Jewelry Boutique to the elevator produces an interior walkway.

Club Supports Local Artists

When someone mentions the Lochmoor Club to you, if you immediately think "golf" you're in for a surprise. For the past two years the club has been actively engaged in supporting and promoting the Michigan artist.

The concept of backing local talent began with a wine tasting-art show party that featured 800 works from various Michigan painters, sculptors, potters and craftsmen. The show was such a huge success that the Club decided to continue to hang and display Michigan works of art throughout the year.

According to Club art advisor Shirley Domin, there are several benefits. "The artists were thrilled with the recognition and appreciation of their talents," she said, "and hundreds of Pointers were able to view the talent right in their own neighborhood."

The decision to display Michigan artists' products in the club has led to its becoming a little gallery in itself, and members have become art patrons, since 10 Michigan works have been purchased in the past year for Lochmoor's permanent collection.

Mrs. Domin is grateful for the club's support since she feels the Michigan artist has been ignored and neglected for far too long. "Many of our artists leave town at the pinnacle of their careers because they are not recognized and supported by their own people," she explained. "It's a shame that we have a tendency to pay more attention to an artist from New York or Europe, when some of the world's best talent is in our own backyard."

Lochmoor Club's involvement will continue throughout the year with a series of mini-art shows to be held at the monthly sea food dinners. A recently formed art council is in charge of selecting four or five artists, whose work will be featured at the dinners.

The 450 SE Sedan.
This is the car that may finally prompt you to invest in a Mercedes-Benz.

IT'S ONLY HUMAN. You see a Mercedes-Benz go by and think to yourself, "one of these days..."

Now comes the 450SE... a sedan so fresh in its concepts, so enlightened in its craftsmanship that it exceeds your wildest dreams. Read what the 450SE offers. Then test drive it. You may wait no longer to buy your first Mercedes-Benz.

The Mercedes-Benz 450SE: already called "the best sedan in the world."

The 450SE couldn't have arrived at a better time. Concerns with exhaust emissions, safety and energy utilization have forced changes in automotive engineering. With the 450SE, Mercedes-Benz offers a car that has a social conscience—and is fun to drive.

The 450SE's technological advances were not lost on the experts. "The best sedan in the world," says Road & Track magazine. Autoweek considers it "certainly the most exciting sedan in the world... so far ahead of its time it leaves us stunned..."

Smooth, efficient power

The 450SE is powered by a 4.5-liter, overhead cam V-8 with electronic fuel injection. There's nothing like it in any other sedan.

This unique engine gives you better than 25% more power per cubic inch and better fuel economy than any domestic luxury car. With today's energy concerns, efficiency in both power and gas mileage is no mean benefit.

Sculptured by the wind

There is a good reason why Mercedes-Benz engineers shape their automobiles differently. Try a 450SE in the rain. You'll be amazed at how clear the glass area remains. The window molding catches water and grime as they come off the windshield—before they have a chance to foul the side glass. The molding also puts the airstream to work, guiding it across the windows to further sweep them clean. The rear glass is cleared by the same principles.

Suspension better than ever

Considering the Mercedes-Benz reputation for handling, that is quite a statement. Nevertheless, it is true. The front suspension on the 450SE is a direct lesson from our 180-mph experimental C-111 Coupe. Zero steering offset gives this latest Mercedes-Benz remarkable straight-line stability. And this full 5-passenger sedan can negotiate a circle only 38.0 feet in diameter.

The fully independent rear suspension is exactly like that of the famous 450SL sports car. The system has lost nothing in its transference to the 450SE. Say good-bye to wallowing suspensions and mushy controls when you take command of this car.

Strength above and beyond

The 450SE is the strongest sedan Mercedes-Benz has ever built. It has the most rigid passenger compartment of any Mercedes-Benz production car. The front and rear extremities of the car were designed around this "passenger cell." They deform on impact, absorbing as much force as possible before it reaches the cockpit area.

This body is treated to a series of baths, coatings and paintings that take the better part of a day to complete. In all, every 450SE is layered with more than 30 pounds of protective coating and more than 40 pounds of paint.

The safest sedan?

Mercedes-Benz would never say that. But the experts at Autoweek had no qualms. They saw the close relationship that the production 450SE has with our latest experimental safety vehicle, ESV 22. They called the 450SE "the safest car in the world available to the public."

Mercedes-Benz has long been an innovator of safety developments. The "safety cone" locks which secure our doors received their first patent in Germany in 1949. The crushable extremity/rigid passenger cell idea was granted its patent in 1952.

These are just a few of the elements which promote passive safety. They were developed to help minimize injury if an accident is unavoidable.

Active safety endeavors to help keep you out of accidents in the first place. Responsive handling, excellent braking and agile maneuverability are all essential elements.

Take braking. The 450SE has a fade-resistant disc brake for every wheel—4-wheel disc brakes. A feature Mercedes-Benz introduced on all its models 6 years ago.

There's more. Driver environment. A subtle and vital driving consideration. Location of controls, seating design, ventilation, even the width of the steering wheel are carefully considered in a multi-faceted attack on driver fatigue. Because the fresher you are, the better use you can make of the controls at your disposal.

No automobile manufacturer anywhere in the world is more concerned with safety. No one else has been more active in making it a part of his product for as long a time.

Invitation:

Mercedes-Benz has always aimed to build not just successful cars, but significant cars. That has been achieved in the 450SE. What awaits you now is the most remarkable driving experience of your life. Phone us today. We'll be happy to arrange a test drive.

Maire to Stage Snowflake Play

The Maire School Drama Club will present a play entitled "The First Snowflake" on Monday, December 10, at 7:30 p.m.
The Club is a PTA-sponsored activity. Students from all grade levels participate in the Club.

Auction of Art to Help Center

The largest gallery art auction ever to be held in the Pointe will be sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Inter-Faith Center on Sunday, December 9, at the War Memorial at 1 p.m. Works of collectors' interest by Chagall, Appel, Dalí, Durer, Rouault, Renoir, and Picasso will bring opening bids ranging from $25 to $2,000.

The collection, assembled by Dr. Albert Scaglione of the Park West Gallery, features original lithograph posters done by turn-of-the-century artists for Harpers which are becoming increasingly rare. Another special offering is Dr. Scaglione's group of hand-signed Calder graphics and watercolors.

Dr. Scaglione notes that most of the collectors' items come from the best period of the artists' works, as in the case of early Calder, Chagall, Rouault, Sawyer and Escher. Both the Escher and Calder collections were presented at the Detroit Institute of Art earlier this year.

The War Memorial auction is the last in a present series for Dr. Scaglione. In December he will be leading a group of art dealers and collectors through museums and galleries of Paris and Amsterdam.

After conducting over 200 auctions across the country,

Many a man loses his chance because he never knows it's too late until it is too late.

Treat criticism the same as charity—let it begin at home.

Dr. Scaglione enthusiastically comments, "The electricity and excitement of the auction is always there, and it brings to mind the fact that sometimes I would rather be a buyer than a seller."
Art auction tickets are $3. The price includes refreshments, a three page catalogue of the 150 items offered, and a 10 page brochure on the artist's world and vocabulary. Ticket reservations may be obtained by calling the Grosse Pointe Interfaith Center at VA 40350.

Set Conference at Christ Church

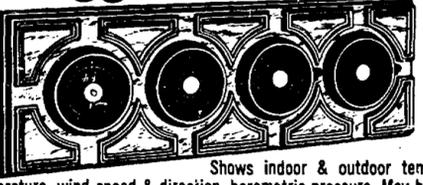

The Reverend Elsom Eldridge, director of the Education Center in St. Louis, Mo., will conduct a one-day conference at Christ Church, 61 Grosse Pointe boulevard, on Saturday, December 15.

The conference will utilize the movie, "The Story of Carl Gustav Jung," produced by Colonel Laurens Van der Post for the British Broadcasting Company. Mr. Eldridge has just completed a two month assignment as the visiting Jungian scholar at Union Theological Seminary.

Whether you are familiar with the work of Jung or not, if you are engaged in your own search for meaning, the movie and the discussion may provide an impetus to all individuals who have a desire to move into the potentials of their own lives.
The course runs from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday, December 15, and the cost of $2.50 includes lunch. For reservations call TU 5-4841.

Why settle for a drive-in window when you can have the whole bank?

When most banks talk about extended banking hours, they aren't talking about extended banking hours.
They're talking about a few extra hours when you can drive in to cash a check. Or deposit a check. Or make a savings deposit.
And that's about all.
When we talk about extended hours, we're talking about our new People Hours.SM They're extra hours when we're open for whatever kind of banking you want to do. From loans to savings to mortgages to checking to everything.

People Hours are extra long hours from 10:00 A.M. till 7:00 P.M. on Mondays, Thursdays and Fridays. That's in addition to being open till 4:30 P.M. Tuesday and Wednesday. People Hours are available at 51 of our 72 branches. Check the branch nearest you.

So come to the bank that can handle whatever kind of banking you want to do. Whenever it's convenient for you to do it.
Why should you settle for less?

"That's my bank"

Pay Contract Negotiations

(Continued from Page 1) year holiday pay. Patrolmen working on a holiday will receive one and one-half time pay for the day's work; and time and one-half if they should work more than eight hours over regular work days.

Carl Parsell helps. The GPFPOA was materially assisted by retired Detroit Patrolman Carl Parsell, executive director of the Police Officers Association of Michigan (POAM), a statewide organization comprised of more than 7,000 policemen throughout the State.

Also assisting the GPFPOA, through many hours of "leg work" and gathering of information to aid in the negotiations before and after arbitration, was Farms Patrolman Kenneth Pine, an executive board member of POAM.

Officers of the Farms Association are the following: John Farley, president; Clarence Reichling, vice-president; Philip Miglio, secretary; and Gordon Evans, treasurer. All sat in on the talks, before and during arbitration.

Representing the Farms, were: City Manager Andrew Bremer, Jr., and his administrative assistant, Richard Solak; City Comptroller Carroll Lock, and Farms City Labor Attorney John C. O'Meara.

Following the conclusion of its regular meeting on Monday, December 3, the Farms council met in executive session to discuss Keefe's decision, after being given an oral "run-down" by Bremer.

The city manager said that no comment is forthcoming until the unions decide whether or not to accept the State arbitrator's ruling. It may be that the council will ask for a transcript of the negotiations for further study and bring up the matter at its regular meeting scheduled for Monday, January 17.

Farley, Association president said that as far as his organization is concerned, the arbitrator's decision has been approved by the Association's Executive Board.

"We feel that the decision rendered by Mr. Keefe is fair and equitable and we sincerely hope that it will meet with the city council's approval," he said.

Park Okays Contracts

Sitting in for the Fire Fighters Association were president James Koerber; vice president Michael Clancy; Lee Fallieres, secretary-treasurer; and William Hiner, trustee, and Martin Buss, member.

Acting for the Police Sergeants Association, were Sgts. Thomas Martin, Walter Paton, Bobby McAlister and Cpl. Charles Patrie. Their contract is also for two years.

The members of the Police, Firefighters and Police Sergeants Associations have all ratified their pacts with the city, and all pay retroactive and all pay increases to July 1 of this year.

Slone said that the contract difference between the Police Officers and the Fire Fighters Associations is in the manner of the pay raise, in the fact that the firemen will be getting $300 less a year than the policemen.

Under the terms of the settlement with the GPFPOA, the city manager said, those with four or more years service, will receive a full $13,450 a year salary, upped from $12,360. The second phase of the increase, $14,200, will not be forthcoming until July 1, 1974.

This differs with the settlement made with the Police Officers Association with a veteran patrolman with four or more years on the force has been increased from $12,660 to $13,500 from July 1, 1973 to January 1, 1974, on which date the pay will be hiked to $14,000. On July 1, 1974, the maximum pay will be $14,500.

The agreements with the three unions also call for full retirement benefits to those who reach age 55 and have 25 years of service, under the Municipal Employees Retirement System.

Slone corrected a figure regarding increases in life insurance benefits for personnel of both departments. Insurance has been increased from $10,000 to $13,000.

Lion Gridders Hold Banquet

The War Memorial's Fries Auditorium was the scene of the Grosse Pointe Lions Little League Football Team's Annual Banquet Monday evening, November 19.

The program began with Master of Ceremonies Tom Nihem welcoming the large crowd including special guests Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hanpeter (Mrs. Hanpeter is secretary of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education), Mr. and Mrs. Russ Hepner (Mr. Hepner is head coach of the South High School football team), and Steve Morrison and Harry Brooks, football players at South.

President Mike Raymond introduced the officers, Athletic Director Bob Chandler and thanked the many people who devoted their time and talents to the program this year.

Mrs. Hugh Bevier, (Jill), organizer of the Cheerleader Awards, voted by the girls. The trophies went to Susan Platt, Freshman squad, Cathy Fish, Junior Varsity, and Angell Suckling, Varsity.

Head Coaches Mac Jones, Jack Currie and John Chiodini introduced their coaches and players. Graduating Varsity players received Letters and Blue and Silver trophies. These players are Dan Miksell, Phil Meubling, Bill Schulte, Tom Duemling, Frank McBreaty, Mike Bevier, Robert Motte, Kyle Kabearny, Chuck Fish, Jim Weitzmann, Brian Pearce and Paul Schreiber.

More include Ed Raymond, Keith Ribant, Tom Borland, Mark Demchak, Paul Demchak, Ross Brackett, John Day, Steve Makos, Mike Tyler, Ed Vermet, Joe Quinn, Len Winder, John Bedsworth, Matt Van Note, Joe Tocco, Joe McEachern, Rob Loomis and Richard Drummond.

Mr. Hepner spoke on six steps toward becoming a successful football player and person. They are discipline, hard work, teamwork, (you have to do the work yourself), sportsmanship, self-respect and humility. He also told the crowd about the football program at South High.

Football Player Awards, (voted by the players), went to Eric Frakes, Freshman; Tom McShane, Junior Varsity, and Mike Bevier, Varsity.

Santa, Children Pose Together

The "Instant Photos with Santa" project, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Jaycees in cooperation with Jacobson's in the Village, promises to capture that "special moment" of your child on the lap of "Mr. Jolly."

Santa is available for picture-taking from 1-5 p.m. on Monday-Wednesday, 1-8 p.m. on Thursday-Friday and 1-5 p.m. on Saturday, through Monday, December 24. Each color photo costs $2.

The proceeds will be turned back into the community by the Jaycees via their variety of projects.

It is reported that group has received the "green light" from over 90 stores in the area to permit the use of a poster advertising the project.

SPORTS FANS! I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

Brought to you by TED EWALD

Here's an amazing football fact... When Otto Graham played pro football with Cleveland as their quarterback, they finished in first place EVERY season he was there... That's really amazing when you consider that Graham quarterbacked Cleveland for a total of 10 years, from 1946 through 1955, and in each of those seasons they wound up in first place!

A government agency has come up with "Seven Commandments of Safety for Hunters" — and they are so well stated that we wanted to pass them along... They should be read by anyone who has a gun... 1. Treat every gun as if it were loaded... 2. NEVER point a gun at anything you don't want to shoot... 3. Be sure the barrel is clear of obstructions... 4. Unload guns when not in use... 5. Never climb a tree or fence, or jump a ditch with a loaded gun... 6. Never pull a gun toward you by the muzzle... 7. Store guns and ammunition in two different places, and out of the reach of children.

I'll bet you don't know what college football team has the record for winning the most football games — Alabama? Michigan State? Texas? Harvard? Notre Dame? Michigan? All wrong! Record holder is the Big Blue from New Haven — Yale with 659 victories.

First Federal's Plans Okayed

By Nancy Kramer At a regular meeting of the Grosse Pointe City Council, held Monday, November 19, its members voted unanimously to amend one of the City's zoning laws to allow First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Detroit to move from its present location, next to Hickey's in the Village, to an expanded facility, behind the McCourt Building, with the entrance facing onto Kercheval place.

company's intentions and went over the site plans for the members of the City Council. The architect explained that the branch the Association presently operates out of is leased, and that the company has decided it would be better to move than attempt to expand the present facilities.

Dearborn Cagers Spoil South's Opener, 50-42

By Mark Emery After an opening game loss to Dearborn, 50-42, Friday, November 30, South's basketball team will host Roseville in its first home game of the season tomorrow, December 7.

South's mistakes and found themselves leading at the end of the third period by six points. The fourth quarter went scoreless for over six minutes as both teams again failed to find the basket.

Roseville is South's first Eastern Michigan League opponent of the season. They are new to the Devils because they have not had a varsity basketball program for three years due to a lack of funds.

South's lack of knowledge could create a problem, as they have not scouted Roseville. However, South's experience could be a deciding factor against them.

On the Dearborn game, South Coach Chuck Hollosy said, "We played terrible; Dearborn played bad, but we played worse. We threw the ball away 32 times."

In the first quarter South held Dearborn to only a one point lead. Action remained tight throughout the quarter as both offenses exploded.

South dominated play in the second quarter, but Dearborn held on to take a four point lead at the half. The second half remained close as both teams failed to mount any offensive attack.

Reunion Slated By GPHS Class

Graduates of Grosse Pointe High School, Class of 1964, are planning a class reunion on June 22, 1974, at the Roostertail.

The reunion committee, headed by Charlie Nicholl and Janice Cantrell Quinn, are searching for the current addresses of all 1964 graduates of whom half are still "missing persons."

If anyone has contact with a 1964 alumni who has since moved from town, they are asked to call Tom Sinclair (882-6678) or Mrs. Quinn (882-2031) so that information may be sent.

Once the public hearing was closed, the Council approved the site plans and amended the zoning ordinance to change one half of the desired area from a vehicular parking area to a local business district. The other half will remain a parking area. The City code was also changed to allow drive-in facilities for banks and other similar financial institutions, provided they adhere to certain criteria.

They're Christmas Walk-ing in Birmingham-Bloomfield today. Next Thursday it's Grosse Pointe's turn.

The Walks, sponsored by the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, annually draw hundreds of visitors to holiday-decorated homes on both sides of town.

It's a lovely way to spend a December afternoon.

Here in The Pointe next Thursday, Walk-ers may visit the William Bauers' English Tudor residence in Sunningdale drive, furnished in an eclectic blend of Country French, English and Modern.

They may wander through the Charles Hazen Pingrees' Colonial in Oldbrook lane, noting a hand-

Memorial Church Presents Yule Tea

Annual Party Will Feature Program of Playlets by The Covenant Players of Encino, Calif., This Year

Each year the Women of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church present a festive Christmas tea and program. This year's party date is Tuesday, December 11. Mrs. James C. Stewart, of Kenwood court, is general chairman.

The program will begin in the Church Sanctuary at 1:30 o'clock with devotions led by Dr. Ray Kiely.

The Covenant Players of Encino, Calif., a group of young people who go out in teams to Churches and groups to communicate the Christian faith via drama, will present a series of playlets.

The Covenant Players were formed in 1963. They have since given over 65,000 performances in the United States, Europe and Canada.

Tea will be served following the program.

Program chairman is Mrs. James L. Lafler. Mrs. Edward Suits is in charge of the dining room, Mrs. Michael Madarasz of the kitchen and Mrs. Robert LeFevre of decorations.

Ticket chairmen are Mrs. Joseph L. Henry and Mrs. J. Alfred Grow, Jr. Tickets may be obtained from them or at the Church Office.

Party proceeds will go to the Intercontinental Opportunity Fund for mission work.

Burcar-Hargis Vows Spoken

JoAnne Margaret Hargis and William Joseph Burcar exchanged marriage vows Friday evening, November 30 at a 7:30 o'clock ceremony in Saint Margaret's Church.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loye Hargis, of Hampton road. Mr. Burcar is the son of Mrs. George Burcar, of St. Helen, Mich., and the late Mr. Burcar.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Robert Hargis, wore a long gown of dusty rose chiffon and lace and carried a small bouquet of Eucharis lilies and ivy.

She was attended by her sister-in-law Mrs. Robert Hargis, in a floor length dress of burgundy crepe, carrying Eucharis lilies and ivy.

Mitchell Cheek acted as his brother-in-law's best man. Joseph William and Gregory Michael Burcar, the bridegroom's sons, ushered.

The rites at which Father Larry Burr presided were followed by a reception at the Royal Casino, after which the newlyweds left to vacation in northern Canada.

They will make their home in Saint Clair Shores.

Mrs. Hargis chose a floor length gown of French blue crepe for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother's long dress and jacket ensemble featured a tiny floral pattern on a white background.

White Christmas Ball Is Coming

Formal Dinner-Dance at Roostertail Will Raise Funds for Acute Pediatric Care Unit at Saint John Hospital

The 120 members of Saint John Hospital Fontbonne Auxiliary's White Christmas Ball committee are busy preparing for their party, one of Detroit's best-known formal charity dinner-dances.

The 20th annual ball is slated for Saturday, December 8, at the Roostertail. Cocktails will be served at 7:30, dinner at 8:30 o'clock.

The $100-per-couple admission includes two complimentary cocktails per person, a gourmet dinner and dancing to the music of Austin Moro's 14-piece band.

Three art treasures by prominent Michigan artists, an original floral oil by Virginia Thibodeau, an original oil landscape by Howard Nordlund and a bronze Madonna and Child sculpture by Bernice Carmichael, will be featured prizes.

Ball proceeds go toward establishment of an Acute Pediatric Care Unit, a facility for seriously ill youngsters between the ages of one month and 14 years.

Saint John's Chief of Pediatrics Ali Rabbani M.D. will be in charge of the Unit.

Establishment of this much-needed facility is another step toward Saint John Hospital's goal of total health care for the community.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gamble, of Ridge road, are honorary Ball chairmen. Mrs. Vollrad J. von Berg, of North Rosedale court, is general chairman. Mrs. Lee Schoenith, of Lakeshore road, is general co-chairman.

Committee chairmen include Mrs. Raymond J. Kokowicz, program, assisted by Mrs. Robert Jay and Mrs. William J. Yott; Mrs. Michael C. Burke and Mrs. William B. McIntyre, photographs; Mrs. James C. Darforth, Jr., reservations, assisted by Mrs. William E. Rush; and Mrs. Thomas Gebeck, invitations, assisted by Mrs. George S. Fisher and Mrs. Ray W. Macdonald.

More are Mrs. Herbert I. Krickstein, decorations chairman; Mrs. Frank Pugliesi, decorations co-chairman; Mrs. Frank Couzens, Jr., hostess chairman; Mrs. Claude A. Greiner, hostess co-chairman; Mrs. Cletus Welling, menu chairman; Mrs. John R. Witt and Mrs. Maria Lalli, menu co-chairmen; and Mrs. Thomas Schoenith and Mrs. Florence Sisman, favors chairmen.

Still more are Mrs. Robert E. Birk, prize chairman; Mrs. John Luzadre, prize co-chairman; Mrs. John L. Drummy, Jr., publicity chairman; Mrs. William P. Clark, publicity co-chairman; Mrs. Patrick Villani, entertainment chairman; and Mrs. James J. Aiuto, entertainment co-chairman. Telethon chairman Mrs.

Weekend of Art At Lochmoor Club

Mini-Exhibit of Paintings, Sculptures and Crafts to Remain on Display Through Sunday; Artists Will Be Present to Discuss Works

Beginning with the Women's Social committee's Christmas party and cookie exchange today, Lochmoor Club will present a Weekend of Art featuring works by Michigan artists, another in a series of events designed to spotlight local artists and craftsmen.

The Club's artistic endeavors are coordinated by its Art Council, formed last fall.

Each guest at today's party has been asked to bring six dozen cookies, one dozen for sampling right now, the other five to exchange for cookies brought by other party-goers.

They'll sample, exchange and sip coffee from 1 to 3 o'clock in a mini art show boutique atmosphere, examining drawings by Ronald Scarborough, metalcraft by Rita Tinsley, jewelry by Robert Pacinni, sculpture by Evelyn Wallace, Japanese dolls by Yukari Sugano and tapestries and icons by Georgette Borrego and Maria Rosa Alvarez.

The artists will be there to discuss their work. The exhibit-sale will remain in place through Sunday, when many members gather at the Club for brunch. Many of the artists will be on hand to answer questions Sunday morning, and many plan to be on hand tomorrow evening, Friday, December 7, when Lochmoor's Seafoodorama, starting at 6 o'clock, draws a goodly contingent to the Club.

Chairman of the Christmas party and cookie exchange is Mrs. John Spring, assisted by Mrs. Benjamin Capp and Mrs. Carl Quarnstrom.

Chairman of the Art Show is Mrs. Alex Domin, Lochmoor art curator, assisted by Art Council members Emily Wolfe and Jan O'Beraki.

Majoring in Finance at Idaho State University is Painter MARTHA NELLIE HUTTON.

To Hold Christmas At Moross House

The Detroit Garden Center, Inc., will present its first flower show, Christmas at Moross House in East Jefferson avenue, Saturday, December 8, from 10 to 4 o'clock and Sunday, December 9, from noon to 4.

Mrs. Frederick Condit, of Prestwick road, is general chairman of the show.

Other Pointers helping with arrangements are Mrs. Robert C. Palmer and Mrs. Pierre V. Hettler, schedule; Mrs. John Alexander, hostesses; Mrs. William H. Loddington, publicity; Mrs. Frederick Schumann, judges, hospitality; and Mrs. Laddy Rice, registration.

Flower and holiday arrangements will be in place throughout Detroit's oldest brick residence, including the parlor and halls which have been furnished in 1840's period by the Detroit Historical Museum.

The display is open to the public with a $1 donation suggested as a gift to the Moross House Maintenance.

Entertaining at a small party in honor of former Pointers MR. and MRS. GEORGE RICHARD KRAMER, who have recently moved back to the Pointe from Bel Air, Fla., are MR. and MRS. ROBERT J. JAY, of Lincoln road.

From Another Pointe of View

made-in-Hong Kong wallpaper matching a love seat pattern, and meander through the Bedford road French-Belgian Colonial of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sieber, stopping to examine wood sculptures from Africa and Scandinavia.

They may pause to examine antiques in the David Van Pelts' Cameron place home, and spend a few minutes listening to Grosse Pointe South High School woodwind and brass ensembles before they continue their perusal of Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Wilkinson's charming house at the foot of Woodland place.

They may work their way through Dr. and Mrs. C. William Young's very contemporary residence in Barrington road, stopping for a moment to glance out the sliding glass balcony doors onto the trees and stone patterns of a winter garden.

Tickets for the Grosse Pointe Walk, at $3 each, are available in advance from Mrs. Michael Skaff, of Saddle lane. They'll be $3.50 at the houses next Thursday.

Mrs. John W. Fleck and Mrs. Michael B. Disser are 1973 Grosse Pointe Christmas Walk chairmen. Walk hours are 11 to 4 o'clock.

Fine Arts Christmas Dance

The Fine Arts Society of Detroit will hold its annual Christmas party, a dinner-dance, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club this Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross Bush are chairmen of a committee, including the Paul M. Kochs, the Kenneth P. Lockes and the Bernard Whitleys, planning the festivities.

Traditional Christmas carols sung by the Fine Arts Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Richard S. Shannon, should put everyone in a merry Yuletide mood. Art Quatro's Orchestra will provide the music for dancing.

Jenny Lind Lucia Fest

Although this year's Lucia, Queen of Lights, who will herald the approach of the Christmas season in the traditional Swedish manner at the Jenny Lind Club of Detroit's Lucia Fest dinner-dance at the Detroit Boat Club tomorrow night, is an "outlander," (she's Lisa Ingrid Lagerkvist, daughter of the Arne Lagerkvists, of Bloomfield Hills), there'll be three Pointers among her attendants.

They are Kathryn Brown, daughter of the Charles Browns, of Sunningdale drive, Linda Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neill Peters, also of Sunningdale drive, and Carol Hopkes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hopkes, of Oxford road.

And Lucia's Star Boy candle-bearers will be a pair of Pointers, Henry Hopkes, Carol's brother, and George Baer, son of the George Baers, of Moran road.

Chairman of the 1973 Lucia Fest is Mrs. Fred Flom, of Rivard boulevard. Mrs. Lagerkvist is co-chairman. Committee members include the Mesdames William Berge, H. A. Berker, Hugh Carney, Fred Cowan and Joseph Hadley, George Baer, II, and Charles Koebel.

Two Decades For Children's Theatre

With its Saturday, December 15, production of "The Hobbit," a musical dramatization of J.R.R. Tolkien's famous fairy tale, the Grosse Pointe Children's Theatre launches its 20th season.

That's something to shout about. Literally hundreds of Pointe boys and girls have participated in Pointe Children's Theatre activities and plays, and hundreds more have been entertained as members of its audience.

"Hobbit" guest director is Dennis Wickline, himself a Children's Theatre alumnus. Dennis was graduated from Michigan State University this year. "Hobbit" producer is Sally (Mrs. Syd) Reynolds, who founded the Children's Theatre two decades ago and has led it onward and upward ever since.

But it's the Children who ARE and always have been the Grosse Pointe Children's Theatre. To find out why it's so successful, why it's lasted 20 years, what it's all about, go to them.

"What does Children's Theatre mean to you?" (Continued on Page 26)

Honor Detroit Community Music School Staff

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Frohlich, of Preston place, will host the annual faculty tea given by trustees of the Detroit Community Music School Sunday, December 9. Forty-three teachers will be honored.

The School had its beginning in 1926 when Pointers on the Tau Beta Association board saw a need to add music to the program of the Tau Beta Community House theory, ensemble and dance. A non-profit institution, the School relies heavily on donations for financial aid for those who would not otherwise be able to afford lessons. Pointers assisting Mrs. Frohlich at the tea will be Mrs. Carl Grawn, Mrs. Nathan Goodnow, Mrs. William Lafer, Mrs. James K. Watkins and Mrs. William Y. Gard.

AAUW Holiday Tea Is Today

Preceding a Christmas tea this afternoon, Thursday, December 6, William Peck, curator of Ancient Art at the Detroit Institute of Arts, will address members of the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Earlier this week members of AAUW's Folk Music Plus Group met in the Wedgewood drive home of Mrs. Joseph Cook and members of Women: Searching for Self met in the Kenwood court home of Mrs. James Nicholson to discuss current and upcoming legislation pertaining to women and education.

Ikebana, the Japanese Flower Arrangement Group, will gather at Mrs. J. Robert Jessup's Lakepointe avenue residence Monday, December 10.

AAUW Kaleidoscope members will have a Christmas recipe and decoration idea exchange Tuesday, December 11. Mrs. Ronald Meulbrouck, of North Renaud road, will be hostess.

Christmas customs in France will be topic of discussion at a meeting of La Causerie, AAUW's French Conversation Group, Wednesday, December 12, at the Moran road home of Mrs. Charles Oakman.

AAUW members complete their year's activities Friday, December 14, with a holiday menu at the Friday Night Forum.

Festive Buffet Evening Slated

The Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church will start the holiday season with a candlelight buffet dinner for all women and their husbands Tuesday evening, December 11, in the Church Social Hall at 6:30 o'clock.

The "Singing Group" Ford Continentals of the Ford Motor Company will entertain. All items left from the Mistletoe Mart Fair will be on display and for sale in the Friendly Service Room.

Reservations must be made by calling the Church Office before noon Monday, December 10.

Genealogical Research Society Slates Meeting

The Detroit Society for Genealogical Research, Inc., will hold its regular open-to-the-public monthly meeting Saturday, December 8, at 2 o'clock in the Explorer's Room at the Main Branch of Detroit Public Library.

There will be opportunity for discussion of individual genealogical problems between 9:45 and 11:45 o'clock.

Working With Custodians of County Records and Libraries, proper and improper procedures, do's and don'ts for better usage of records, will be discussed by Bernice Sprenger, former director of the Burton Historical Collection, and Joseph Ellis, past-president of the Association of County Clerks of Michigan and Clerk for Livingston County.

Tea to Garner Child's Gifts

Grosse Pointe Lawyers Wives hope to make Christmas a little brighter for children of the Wayne County Juvenile Home via their ninth annual Christmas tea, to be held at the Sunset lane home of Mrs. Robert E. Dice Wednesday, December 12, from 1 to 3:30 o'clock.

Admission is by a gaily-wrapped Christmas package for a child at the Home. The Honorable James H. Lincoln, Judge of the Wayne County Probate Court, Juvenile Division, will be guest of honor, meeting members and accepting gifts cordially invited.

Doves Depict Goodwill Aid

Mrs. Joseph Dansbury, of Prestwick road, Mrs. Charles Kinniard, of Moran road, and Mrs. Arnold Fuchs, of Roslyn road, are among volunteers assisting the Jolly Cheers Players to present a dramatization of the traditional Christmas story "The Night the Animals Talked" at the Wednesday, December 12, meeting of the Women's Association of the Goodwill Industries.

The meeting will be held in the Goodwill Building, Brush Street near East Grand boulevard, Detroit.

Luncheon will be served at 11:45 o'clock in a dining room decorated with Dove of Peace symbols. White velvet paper doves representing individual contributions to the Association's Pantry Shelf-Medical Chest Fund will be placed on an improvised tree.

Anne Campbell Stark, a member of the Association, has written a poem explaining the symbol used in the organization's Christmas appeal this year:

*The Dove of Peace at Christmas
On strong and holy wings
Flies very close to Heaven
To teach us many things.
To work for those who cope
With pain. The Dove of Peace fills
The Handicapped with Hope!*

With proceeds from this Christmas project the Women's Association will provide and serve dinners and wrapped gifts for more than 300 handicapped employees and trainees and contribute to a dinner and gifts for more than 100 persons served via the League-Goodwill's Roseville facility.

The Jolly Cheers are a group of seriously-handicapped young adults who

LWV Poised For Yule Tea

The Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters has scheduled its annual Christmas tea for Wednesday, December 12, at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Peter Higbie in Moross road.

This year's event is designed for new and potential members. Carroll Evola, membership chairman, urges all present members to bring at least one guest and invites any interested women to attend.

The program, an informal discussion and question-and-answer panel, has been organized by Mrs. John Moran. Mrs. Robert Everett will preside. Mrs. Tom Mason will pose questions a prospective member might ask. Using the theme "What's Cooking on the LWV Back Burner?" the Mesdames Ray Kiely, George C. Crane, Howard Hush and Edward Hanpeter will give accounts of their own special League projects and interests, including International Trade, Education, County Home Rule and the Northeast Guidance Center.

Mrs. Paul Egan is in charge of arrangements. The number to call for reservations is 885-4908.

A. J. MEYER PHARMACY

If A. J. Meyer is not a 'Discount' Drug Store... Then What's in it for YOU?

At discount stores, you will find savings on prescriptions ranging from nothing at all to 5% or 10%, or even more perhaps, on selected items that people are price conscious of and, therefore, very competitive.

However, consider this:

Have you ever:

1. Desired prompt, courteous personal service?
2. Needed a prescription delivered?
3. Asked for an itemized receipt for prescriptions for an entire year because you lost some of the individual receipts?
4. Tried to have a prescription compounded?
5. Lost your prescription bottle and tried to have your prescription filled?

At A. J. Meyer, besides offering a fair and reasonable fee, we offer:

1. Prompt courteous personal service.
2. Free prescription delivery service.
3. Itemized receipts.
4. Filling of all prescriptions including those that require compounding.
5. A family prescription record system.
6. And Much More.

Yes, on some prescriptions you may pay a little less in a discount drug store, but if you avail yourself of even one of our services, it will more than compensate for any discount you may receive. Think about it.

Farm, Garden Club to Meet

Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club members gather Monday, December 10, at 3:30 o'clock in the Touraine road home of Mrs. Stanford N. Phelps for a "Santa's Helper" Christmas tea. Each lady will bring a gift for Children's hospital.

Mrs. Henry M. Kuhlman and Mrs. Philip J. Worcester will assist the hostess.

Grand Marais Club to Meet

Mrs. John R. Squire will open her Westwind lane home for a meeting of the Grand Marais Garden Club at 11 o'clock next Monday, December 10. Mrs. Richard Kay and Mrs. Edward Harrigan will assist the hostess.

Luncheon will follow the business session. There will be a members' gift exchange. Party theme is Holiday Bargains.

Nancy Monaghan Wed to Mr. Bush

Lace Accents Her Gown and Edges Her Mantilla Veil; Evening Rites Are Followed by Detroit Athletic Club Reception

Charles T. Bush, II, son of Mrs. A. Stansell Bush, of Moran road, and the late Mr. Bush, claimed Nancy Ann Monaghan, daughter of the William F. Monaghans, of Three Mile drive, as his bride Thursday evening, November 29.

Father John Nader presided at the 6 o'clock ceremony in Saint Mary's Roman Catholic Church.

They will make their home in Saint Clair Shores.

The bride's silk organza gown was styled with a high neckline and fitted bodice. Two bands of embroidered lace accented her skirt.

Alencon lace bordered her bouffant mantilla and she carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis, baby's-breath and ivy.

She was attended by Jane Elizabeth Kempf whose pale green beige-bordered frock was fashioned on Princess lines and featured a high collar.

She carried a cascade of rose-colored miniature carnations.

Best man was James E. Dohany.

The mother of the bride wore a rose-colored gown with a corsage of pink Sweetheart roses. The bridegroom's mother complimented her pale blue satin gown with a corsage of phalaenopsis orchids.

Mrs. Charles T. Bush, II

Married in Saint Mary's Roman Catholic Church Thursday evening, November 29, were NANCY ANN MONAGHAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Monaghan, of Three Mile Drive, and Mr. Bush, son of Mrs. Stansell A. Bush, of Moran road, and the late Mr. Bush.

Martha Cook Breakfast Set

The Martha Cook Alumnae Association of Detroit will hold its annual Christmas Breakfast Saturday, December 8, at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Festivities begin with a social hour at 11. Luncheon follows at noon.

Christmas music will be provided in song and on guitar by Laura Upton, former Martha Cook resident and University of Michigan student.

Co-chairmen of the event are Mrs. Richard Osborn and Mrs. William Upton. Proceeds will be used for a scholarship loan fund.

Special guests will be newly-appointed Martha Cook social director Olive Chernow and her assistant Martha Cook Nash, great-great-granddaughter of the women's residence founder William Cook.

Also invited are the board of governors and Martha Cook's current president.

Introducing guests will be Martha Cook Alumnae president Mrs. A. D. Postma.

The Association of former University of Michigan students who had lived in Martha Cook, a residence hall for upper-classwomen, was established in 1935.

The English Gothic building, erected in 1915, was a gift from William Cook, a U. of M. graduate, in honor of his mother.

Lutheran Choralaires to Give Yule Concert

The Lutheran Choralaires will present a Christmas concert at 8 o'clock Saturday, December 8, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium.

Founded shortly after World War II the all-male 20-voice chorus is made up of men from the metropolitan area. They appear on television and radio and have performed for civic and social functions, Lutheran Hour rallies and symphonies.

In 1972 they were recipients of the Lutheran Luncheon Club of Detroit Layman of the Year award.

DBC to Glitter This December

The Women's Committee of the Detroit Boat Club has planned a very busy month of holiday festivities, starting with DBC's annual Children's Christmas party this Sunday, December 9.

In charge of the event are Mrs. George R. Renaud, Mrs. William Barton, Jr., Mrs.

Milton Osgood, Jr., and Mrs. John Renick.

Highlights of the day, beginning at 1:30 o'clock, will be the usual visit by Santa with his bag of toys and entertainment by the Grosse Pointe Children's Theater, Pepe the Dog and a selection of movies.

Brunch and dinner will be served at the Club.

The ladies have scheduled their annual Christmas luncheon for Wednesday, December 12.

Beginning with cocktails at 11:30 o'clock the program will feature the popular Wesley Bell Ringers' Choir from Grosse Pointe United Methodist Church, directed by Jack E. Ellis.

Mrs. Richard Shannon is this year's chairman of the affair.

The Women's Committee will entertain husbands at a dinner-dance at the Club Saturday, December 7. Mrs. Stanley Smith is in charge of arrangements.

The party begins with cocktails at 6:30 o'clock.

Speakers Groups Hold Joint Dinner Meeting

Mid-Century Toastmistress Club and Northeastern Toastmasters Club held a joint dinner meeting at the Bonanza Dining Room in Mack avenue Monday, December 3.

Mrs. Ralph Stark, Mid-Century president, shared welcoming remarks with John Adelman, president of Northeastern Toastmasters.

Topic - Toastmistress was Mrs. Carl Nolte, of Clairview road. Theme for the evening was My Most Unforgettable Character. Members of both clubs participated.

Each club is interested in increasing membership.

Further information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Nolte at 881-0582 or Mrs. James Zick at 886-4158.

Museum Plans Xmas Event

Christmas Happening Day at the Detroit Historical Museum is Saturday, December 8.

This annual especially-for-children program, filled with festivities to delight all ages, begins at 10 o'clock and continues until 4 in the afternoon.

This is a free day. No advance reservations are required. Everyone is invited.

Santa's Elves and Helpers will be on hand to lend assistance.

Youngsters can make old-fashioned Christmas ornaments including walnut Santa Clauses, three-dimensional Christmas trees, felt stars and stockings or design Christmas cards using potato prints or stencils.

They can sign the gigantic six-foot Christmas Greeting to the City of Detroit or have mom or dad take their picture in a sleigh loaded with gifts in front of the Toy Shop window, (if parents forget their cameras Santa's Elf will snap the shot for 50¢ — cost of the film — the only charge made during this special children's day).

Christmas films will be shown in the Casino. At the Print Shop Christmas Happening Certificates printed on the 1840 Columbian Hand Press will be available.

Santa's Tea Party is scheduled from noon to 3 o'clock.

Special happening feature this year will be the first viewing of the fabulous miniature train collection of the late Alfred R. Glancy, Jr. The entire Round Hall will be filled with this exhibit.

The trains will be operated on a regular schedule throughout the day.

Program Trio For Phase I

Phase I, an all-singles group, will hold a Holiday Hop from 8:30 to 1 o'clock tomorrow, Friday, December 7, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Singles from 20 to 40 are invited. Admission is $2 per person at the door.

Greg Yates from Schummer's Ski Shop will talk on the Art of Skiing and feature the film "Come Ski With Me" at a meeting of Phase I at 7:30 o'clock this Sunday, December 9, at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Singles between the ages of 20 and 40 are welcome. A social hour will follow the program.

Phase I is planning to attend Christmas at Greenfield Village on the afternoon of Sunday, December 16. Interested singles are asked to meet in the Memorial Church parking lot at 12:30 o'clock.

Phase I meets every Sunday night at Memorial Church. Further information on the group's activities may be obtained by contacting Gust Jahnke at 882-5330.

University-Liggett graduate WILLIAM BARBER MARCUS, a senior Economics major at Harvard College, has been invited to membership in Alpha Chapter of Massachusetts' Phi Beta Kappa.

Pointe ADK's Enjoy Autumn Activities

Members of the Grosse Pointe Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa sorority for Women Educators gathered at the home of Mrs. James Cooper for their November meeting.

The organization, needs and problems of the Caro State Home and Training School for the Retarded were discussed by Stella Nicholson who has done volunteer work for the Retarded Children's Organization for the past 20 years and was responsible for the programming of special classes for children at Caro.

Her efforts with Michigan lawmakers have promoted needed legislation for the cause of retarded children in Michigan.

District IV of Alpha Delta Kappa held its annual workshop at Lincoln High School, Warren, this fall, with members of the Grosse Pointe chapter participating in the Founder's Day ceremony.

Four members of the Grosse Pointe teaching staff, Janet Judd, Pamela Kocsis and Carolyn Zysk, all of Ferry School, and Claire Perry, of Richard School, were initiated into the organization.

Symphony Sets Yule Festival

A sugar plum treat for all the family, Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker ballet, will open the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's 1973 Christmas Festival this Saturday, December 8, with performances scheduled for 11 and 2 o'clock in Ford Auditorium.

Appearing with the Orchestra to be conducted by Samuel Jones is the Detroit Severo Ballet Company under the direction of Sandra Severo.

This brilliantly-staged production delighted over 11,000 concert-goers last year. It is being repeated by popular demand.

Two additional Nutcracker performances are scheduled for Saturday, December 15, at 11 and 2 o'clock.

Only limited seating remains for the December 8 performances but tickets priced at $1.50, $2 and $3 are available for December 15.

Next on the Christmas Festival schedule this year is a Christmas Pops concert Friday evening, December 14, at 8:30 o'clock in Ford Auditorium.

The Symphony will be conducted by Richard Hayman, Cabaret Pops conductor who has pleased many audiences. The Rackham Symphony Choir will appear in this festive program of holiday favorites.

Tickets are priced at $2.50, $4 and $5.50, half-price for children 12 and under.

Handel's Messiah, Matthias Bamert conducting, will conclude the Festival with performances at 8:30 Saturday, December 15, and 3:30 Sunday, December 16.

The Sunday afternoon performance is sold out but tickets priced from $3.50 to $7.50 are still available for December 15.

Tickets for Festival events are available at the Ford Auditorium Box Office, 961-0700, all Hudson and Grinnell's ticket offices.

Pointer VICKIE GRACEY, 16, is among 47 teenage girls from Wayne and Macomb counties chosen as contestants for 1974's Miss Teen March of Dimes.

Double Debut for Symphony This Week

An Ives-Schoenberg Commemorative Concert featuring first appearances of two young conductors with the Orchestra highlights the Detroit Symphony's schedule at Ford Auditorium this week, with an 8:30 o'clock performance tonight, Thursday, December 6, and a 10:45 o'clock Friday morning, December 7, performance.

The latter is an offering in the popular Coffee Concert series presented in cooperation with the National Bank of Detroit.

Niklaus Wyss, currently assistant conductor of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, will be on the podium to lead the first Detroit Symphony performances of Charles Ives' Symphony No. 4.

Arnold Schoenberg's "Pelleas und Melisande" will be performed under the baton of Thomas Bricetti, former associate conductor of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. The Schoenberg work also appears on a Detroit Symphony subscription series program for the first time.

Generally regarded as giants in the mainstream of 20th century music Schoenberg and Ives often have been identified as musical revolutionaries who clung firmly to their artistic beliefs despite attacks by the uninitiated, even by other qualified progressives.

Both are now recognized as having contributed greatly to the world of classical music.

Zurich-born Niklaus Wyss, an accomplished pianist as well as conductor, first came to the United States in 1964. He captured first prize in the prestigious Dimitri Mitropoulos International Music Competition for Conductors in New York.

Prior to accepting his current post in San Francisco he was assistant conductor of the Toronto Symphony. He has continued to appear as guest conductor in Europe. A product of Eastman School of Music and winner of the Prix de Rome during his active career as a concert pianist, Thomas Bricetti was appointed composer-in-residence for the Denver Symphony in the early 1960's.

His conducting career encompasses work with the St. Petersburg Symphony, Fort Wayne Philharmonic and Chamber Orchestras and the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra.

Friday morning's concert will be preceded by a complimentary coffee hour from 9:30 to 10:45 o'clock and a fashion show by Bonwit Teller, "New Year, New You," featuring holiday and cruise-wear.

Tickets, priced from $3.50 to $7.50, are available for Thursday night at the Ford Auditorium Box Office, 961-0700, all Hudson's and Grinnell's ticket offices.

The Friday morning performance is sold out.

Economy to some is saving money for others to spend.

Kappa Kappa Gammas Make Christmas Merry

The Detroit Alumnae Association of Kappa Kappa Gamma is giving a birthday-Christmas party today, Thursday, December 6, for patients at the Rehabilitation Institute of Detroit.

Patients having birthdays during October, November and December will be honored. The Honeytones of Grosse Pointe North High School are providing special entertainment.

Assisting party chairman Mrs. Leonard Winzer are Mrs. Willard Smith, Ruth Jennings, Mrs. Peter Higbie, Mrs. Walter Tschaeche and Mrs. Glenn Forcier.

The Kappas own Christmas Party will be held Tuesday, December 11, at 7:30 o'clock in the Moross road home of Mrs. Higbie, Association president. Each member is asked to bring a wrapped Christmas decoration or ornament for a grab bag.

Reservations are being accepted by Mrs. Michael Marston, 823-0432, and Mrs. Thomas Chuba, 884-1587.

Kappa Kappa Gamma's philanthropic activities center around the Rehabilitation Institute. Several members have just completed service as hostesses at the weekly Arthritis Clinic, including the Mesdames Higbie, Smith, Alexander Leete, Louis Asmus and Gordon Tanner and

To Foster Full Life in Detroit

The Junior Leagues of Detroit and Birmingham held a joint meeting from 10 to 2:15 o'clock yesterday, Wednesday, November 28, at the Sentinel Center in East Jefferson avenue.

Featured morning speaker was William Johnson, partner in the nationally-known environmental design firm of Johnson, Johnson and Roy, affiliated with Smith, Hinchman, Grylls and Associates, Inc.

Mr. Johnson, landscape architect and faculty member at the University of Michigan, gave an illustrated speech with an overview of regional and metropolitan planning.

Johnson, Johnson and Roy,

Miss Jennings.

Kappa's Evening Group has been making felt-covered spiral notebooks as special tray favors for patients on their birthdays.

Each Monday afternoon members of the Kappa Karload take a shoppers' cart around to patients' rooms. Participating in this activity are the Mesdames Higbie, Winzer, Richard Roland, J. Lane Donovan, Robert Russell, William Huettelman, Laurance Harwood, Edward Hathaway, John Smith, Thomas Christensen and John Mertz.

as a firm, dedicate themselves toward aiding those who aspire to improve their physical surroundings, believing environmental improvement contributes significantly to the enjoyment of life.

Though increasingly oriented to regional and metropolitan planning the firm has always felt a particular responsibility to implement specific projects within its broad stroke planning concepts, whether the scale be as broad as our nation or as small as a street corner.

The Junior Leagues of Detroit and Birmingham have combined forces to form a Joint Project Finding committee.

This committee's thrust is based on the conviction that one of the most urgent priorities is urban planning and revitalization in the City of Detroit.

The Leagues feel that individual groups of citizens, through their ideas, efforts and planning, can serve as catalysts in the community to implement change.

The city cannot be changed government and industry. In order for it to be a place to be enjoyed by people, individuals and groups must display enthusiasm and foresight in areas where they may facilitate improvement.

Whether this change takes place on a street corner, in a neighborhood or on the Kern Block is of little consequence, but the individual or group's concern and implementation of change will serve as an inspiration to others.

The November membership meeting was geared toward clarifying the concept of urban planning and looking at specific areas of Detroit needing revitalization. Following lunch four workshops were offered, each led by a panel of city experts.

Slate Winter Concert At Queen of Peace

The De La Salle-Bishop Gallagher Symphonic Band Winter Concert will be presented at Our Lady Queen of Peace Church Sunday, December 9, at 8 o'clock.

Admission $1.50 per person. A variety of Christmas carols will be featured.

A jack of all trades sometimes finds it difficult to score.

Libri to Meet December 10

Libri Club will meet Monday, December 10, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial for Time On My Hands, a program on Antique Clocks by Thomas H. Eurlig. Mrs. Wilfred Owen and associate members will be hostesses.

Fortune never smiles on a man just because he expects it.

Lakeside Palette Club Plans Arts-Crafts Fair

Pointers will be represented in the Arts and Crafts Fair to be sponsored by the Lakeside Palette Club next Tuesday, December 11, from 1 to 9 o'clock in the Teen Room of the St. Clair Shores Recreation Center in East Jefferson Avenue.

Exhibits committee co-chairman is Carol Hackman, of Maison Road. She and Marian Bryant have announced that more than 33 members will participate in the exhibit.

Original paintings in oil, watercolor, acrylic and casein and ink will be shown, plus prints, charcoal drawings and pen and ink studies.

Crafts will include patchwork purses, scarves and pillows, tapestry, creative stitchery, candles, papier mache, polished stones, copper enameling, jewelry, paper tole, notepaper and decoupage.

Bette Prudden, of Brys Drive, will be a guest of the Club, doing on-the-spot pastel portraits.

Coffee will be served to all visitors throughout the day and evening.

Star Of Sea Rites For Linda Arpino

Georgian Inn Reception Follows Friday Evening Ceremony at Which She is Wed to Thomas P. Plunkett

A white silk organza gown, Bishop-steeved and accented with embroidered lace at bodice, hem and wrists was Linda Arpino's choice for her wedding to Thomas P. Plunkett Friday evening, November 30, in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church.

Matching lace edged her Chapel train and an embroidered lace Camelot cap caught her fingertip illusion veil.

She carried a Colonial arrangement of white Sweetheart roses, white chrysanthemums and baby's-breath.

The Reverend Ralph Barton presided at the 6:30 o'clock rites which were followed by a reception at the Georgian Inn.

The newlyweds, vacationing in Canada, will make their home in Fenton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Arpino, of East Emory Court, the bridegroom the son of the Norman H. Plunketts, of Clio.

Honor matron Mrs. Phillip J. Davis and bridesmaids Julie Burns, Marilyn Trent, Joyce Davidson, Mrs. Jeffrey M. Arpino and Bridgid Plunkett wore long frocks of white-dotted emerald green satin accented with white satin collars and cuffs and emerald satin picture hats banded and bowed in white satin.

Their Colonial bouquets were fashioned of white and yellow chrysanthemums.

Dressed identically was junior bridesmaid Kimberly Davis, the bride's niece.

Norman H. Plunkett, Jr., came from Aurora, Colo., to act as best man for his brother. Ushering were Thomas Harwood and Larry Owens, of Clio, Jeffrey Arpino, David Robinson, of Flint, and Dana Caverly, of Flushing.

Mrs. Arpino selected a full length long-sleeved scoop-

HARKNESS PHARMACY

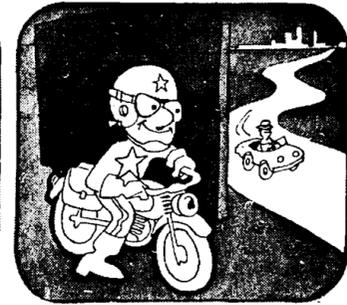

Modern preventive medicine becomes broader in scope every day. It now includes not only the preventive health measures taken by individuals, such as getting needed immunizations, but also includes such health services as water purification, sewage disposal, food and milk sanitation, water fluoridation, etc. Such services involve a variety of workers. It could even involve you!

For professional service visit HARKNESS PHARMACY, 20315 Mack Ave. at Lochmoor Blvd., Grosse Pointe Woods, 881-3100. Our qualified pharmacists will handle all of your prescription needs with free delivery. We handle: full line of liquor, Whittman candies, greeting cards, and cosmetics by Revlon, Love, and Aloe. Serving the Pointes since 1942. Open: Mon.-Fri. 9-9; Sat. 9-8.

HELPFUL HINT:
Make sure you know how to report a fire by telephone, and how to turn in a fire alarm.

Sure you know the way to Miami—just take southbound I-75 all the way down.

But do you know about the speed trap south of Cincinnati?

... Or the detour between Knoxville and Chattanooga? You need a Triple-A Triptik.

And what would happen if you got stranded by a disabling collision somewhere in Kentucky or Georgia?

If you had Triple-A TripGuard, we'd chip in up to $200 to reimburse you for meals, lodging or alternate transportation necessary to complete your trip. Return home or return to pick up your disabled car.

Triptiks and TripGuard come with Triple-A membership. So do tour books, car rental, hotel, bond, emergency road service, and a whole lot more.

CONSIDERED BY MANY to be one of the best condominium complexes in the Pointe this particular apartment has four bedrooms and two baths on the second floor and two more rooms on the third. There is a den and lavatory on the main floor and large breakfast room to complement the kitchen.

BY APPOINTMENT PLEASE

1604 EDMUNTON. A newer ranch in the Woods. Three bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths and a fantastic family room with sliding glass door to a patio. Finished recreation room, two car attached garage and the package is priced to be wrapped up in the mid-fifties.

THIS TWO-YEAR-OLD Georgian Colonial is one of Grosse Pointe's show places! With five bedrooms, three baths, complemented with two powder rooms, library, and spectacular kitchen, and two family rooms with natural fireplaces and a wet bar, first floor laundry room; what more could you ask for?

FRENCH INFLUENCED IS THE ARCHITECTURE of this petite maison in the Windmill Pointe area. This one has that much sought after carriage house, swimming pool and central air conditioning. There are four master suites, each with private bath and three more bedrooms on the third floor. Recently redecored and mechanically in A-1 order.

CHARM INSIDE AND OUT is standard equipment in this beautifully maintained three bedroom colonial on LaBelle. New carpeting and draperies throughout make this one ready to move into. Just a short hop to Mack-7 shopping, add a low interest mortgage to step into.

CENTER ENTRANCE COLONIAL with bay windows on either side of the front door, mature spruce trees flanking the front walk and a full 100 feet of front yard set this apart from other houses in its neighborhood. There are four bedrooms with two connecting. Baths, a large paneled family room with random width flooring, kitchen with built-ins, and two car attached garage.

THIS LITTLE BIG HOUSE has two master bedrooms and a superb family room with fireplace. The charm of a dead-end street is always appealing, and looking ahead to next summer you can plan on swimming in your own backyard pool and enjoying the comfort of central air conditioning.

Ease Traffic Sign Problem

After a meeting Wednesday, November 28, between Woods Public Safety Director Henry Marchand and an estimated 70 residents from the areas of Cook road, Blossom lane and West Kings Court, the problems regarding various traffic signs, and whether to keep them or change them, appears solved.

Judge Denis Clears Docket Woods Municipal Judge J. Patrick Denis convened court on Wednesday, November 7. Three cases were dismissed, two cases were adjourned and 28 warrants were signed for failure to answer summons.

Charlotte Mitchell, 2480 Canton, Detroit, pled guilty to a charge of driving on a suspended license, and was fined $150. She also pled guilty to a one tail light charge and paid a $5 fine.

Paul Albert Digusto, 1953 Country Club drive, pled guilty to a charge of no rear license plate light, and was fined $5.

Ronald Joseph Weideman, 1231 Paget court, pled not guilty but was found guilty of littering, and paid a $20 fine.

Stellajo Marie Landazzi, 220 Virginia, Royal Oak, pled guilty to a charge of disobeying a traffic control device, and paid a $10 fine.

Ralph Dennis Pitlock, 10935 Somerset, Detroit, pled not guilty but was found guilty of disobeying a traffic signal. He paid a $15 fine.

Michelle Lucille Vroom, 20065 Hunt Club, Harper Woods, pled not guilty but was found guilty of disobeying a traffic signal. She paid a $15 fine.

Thomas Frazier Jenkins, 32809 Warkop, Warren, pled guilty to a speeding charge, and was fined $20.

Joseph Ronald Delisi, 14044 Gratiot, Detroit, pled guilty to a hitch-hiking charge, and paid a $10 fine.

Kenneth Eugene Spencer, 21048 Reimanville, Ferndale, pled guilty to a charge of driving under the influence of liquor, and was fined $150.

After a meeting Wednesday, November 28, between Woods Public Safety Director Henry Marchand and an estimated 70 residents from the areas of Cook road, Blossom lane and West Kings Court, the problems regarding various traffic signs, and whether to keep them or change them, appears solved.

The Woods Council at the regular meeting Monday, December 3, had no objections to three recommendations from Director Marchand. These will now be implemented in an effort to alleviate citizens' concerns. A main point of concern of many citizens was to remove the "No Right Turn, 3 p.m. to 6 p.m." sign from Cook road and Mack avenue. And this the director said will be done this week.

"My theory behind the 'No Right Turn' signs at Cook was to force the residents of Grosse Pointe Shores and the East border of our city to continue Northbound on Mack and make their right turn at Torrey," he said. "A three-day survey at Thorton and Holiday, between 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. indicates that 20 percent of the cars, Eastbound on Dorthen, turn left at Holiday while the other 80 percent turn right towards Cook road. If we could discourage this 20 percent of the traffic from using Cook road I think the street would be livable."

"Therefore, in light of the fact that it seems impossible to direct this 20 percent, who do not live in Cook road or the adjacent streets, to continue North on Mack and turn at Torrey road, I would recommend the removal of the 'No Right Turn' signs from Cook and Mack and attempt to discourage the use of Cook road in some other fashion," (some Cook road residents had earlier expressed concern over the "fast" and "heavy" amount of traffic on that street).

Some West Kings court citizens said at the November 19 meeting the "No Right Turn" signs at Mack and Cook, and at Blossom lane and Cook, gave them no access to the immediate neighborhood. Continuing, Director Marchand said, "First, the main problem seems to be that the residents of Cook road are denied ingress and egress to and from their driveways due to the lack of gaps in the traffic flow. This is caused, to some extent, by vehicles turning onto Cook road from Blossom lane taking up the traffic gaps caused by the traffic light at Mack."

"Therefore, if all East-bound traffic from Mack had to proceed through the traffic light at Mack and Cook this would cause gaps in the traffic flow on Cook road. I recommend that 'No Thru Traffic' signs be erected at Blossom lane and Mack avenue and force everyone to go through the traffic signal at Cook road."

The director said the "No Thru Traffic" signs would be installed in two to three weeks.

"Second, to discourage further use of Cook road, I recommend that stop signs, controlling East and Westbound traffic on Cook road, be erected at the intersection of West Kings court."

Pointer of Interest

KIM NUYEN, OF MORAN ROAD, WITH HIS WIFE CAROLYN AND THEIR CHILDREN PAUL AND LISA

By Janet Mueller

You can't say it's been a dull life. From Hanoi, North Vietnam, to Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., U.S.A., by way of Paris, France.

Starting off with a career in the Vietnamese Foreign Service as his aim.

Ending up — and it's not the end yet: Kim Quy Nuyen is still a relatively young man — as partner in Snow, Nuyen, Kurtz and Company, investment securities.

After having earned a Bachelors degree in Business Administration in three years instead of four, (he took the necessary courses at the University of Michigan, the University of Detroit, Wayne State University . . . wherever they were offered when he needed them and could fit them into his schedule; the degree came eventually from Wayne State.)

After having become a Certified Public Accountant in 1964, and partner that same year in the CPA firm for which he had been working. He'd been in CPA work since 1959. He left it to open the investment securities firm in 1969.

Poinniers 15 Years

The Nuyens have been Pointe family since '58, Kerby road residents for 11 years before moving into their present home in Moran road.

Carolyn and Kim met in Perugia, at the University for Foreigners who come there to study language, art and culture. Carolyn, a Detroit whose parents were born in Greece, went to Perugia to learn Italian.

She met Kim the first day of classes. She never did become fluent in Italian.

Kim was in Perugia to work on languages too. He'd left Vietnam to complete his education in France, traveling by boat via Singapore, Ceylon, Port Said and Egypt.

He'd grown up bi-lingual, equally fluent in French and Vietnamese. His entire education was French, but he'd never been out of the northern part of Vietnam, never been to Saigon until his father flew him down to take the boat to Marseilles.

Goodbye to Vietnam The Nuyens, father and son, spent two days in Saigon. That was the last Kim saw of Vietnam.

His family owned all the mechanized textile manufacturing equipment in northern Vietnam. After Dien Bien

Mack Avenue, has Master Charge and BankAmericard for your convenience.

Behold! The fragrant treasure . . . Bal a Versailles direct from Paris for that special gift. Scoop the season in a deliberately feminine creation by Nancy Greer for only $48.

Mr. Sheridan Books . . . 369 Fisher Road invites you to an autographing party for Dr. Alexander Blain, III Wednesday, December 12, 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

All the Better to See and Choose From . . . the display of beautiful, in vogue, oriental rugs, Ed Maliszewski's, 21435 Mack Avenue has been expanded to twice the size and remodeled. They still have the same charming boutique atmosphere and personal service.

Just Arrived . . . at the new WRIGHT'S GIFT AND LAMP SHOP a good selection of plain or decorated parchment shades in many sizes. There's still time to have your Christmas cards imprinted. Gift suggestions are books and puzzles for children and for home presents there are decorative mirrors, Sixth winning member of Crowley's Detroit Lions Mascot Club was eight-year-old DAN COOKE, of Briarcliff drive, "mascot" for the Lions' Thanksgiving home game, who received an official Detroit Lions wrist-watch plus special seats for himself and his father, right on the field, for the November 22 game between the Lions and the Washington Redskins.

CHARLES VERHEYDEN, founder and president of Charles Verheyden Inc., of Grosse Pointe, received an honor Doctor of Mortuary Science Degree from Wayne State University in ceremonies Monday, November 19, in the Community Arts Auditorium. WSU President George E. Gulien Jr. conferred the degree on Verheyden, who was honored for a lifetime of exemplary citizenship and steadfast allegiance to his chosen profession.

Pointer DR. MARILYN J. HEINS moderated a Detroit Medical Center panel, "Gals, Goals and Gains in Medicine," in the Gordon H. Scott Hall of Basic Sciences recently. Dr. Heins is associate dean of Student Affairs and associate professor of Pediatrics in the Wayne State University School of Medicine which with six hospitals comprises the Detroit Medical Center. She represented women in Academic Medicine and Administration in the panel discussion at the fall general membership meeting of Friends of the WSU School of Medicine.

He leads a high pressure everyday life, with very little free time. He needs to get away. He insists upon it. The only game the Nuyens play as a family is tennis. Carolyn, Paul and Lisa can all sit down at the piano and play, at varying levels of proficiency. Kim is strictly a pick-out-the-tune-once-finger man.

He's given two courses on the Stock Market through the Neighborhood Club. He's planning a third course in the spring. He enjoys teaching; he taught Accounting for two semesters at Wayne State.

Now Dreams English

Lately Kim, dreaming, has begun to mumble in English. But he has no intention of losing either his French culture or language orientation. So when, at a New Year's Eve party, he ran into French-born Tyty (Mrs. Charles) Bachrach, and they immediately began speaking in French, and Tyty told him about the newly-formed Alliance Francaise de Grosse Pointe, Kim Nuyen was not just interested; he was anxious to become involved.

"The first year he was asked to run for the Pointe Alliance's board of directors. The next year he became its treasurer. Now he's Alliance Francaise de Grosse Pointe president, its third after Warren Wilkinson, who served two years, and Tyty Bachrach, who served one.

Needed Practice Kim Nuyen's original attraction to the Alliance was the fact that it allowed him to speak French. Fluency in a language erodes if there's no opportunity for practice. "Actually, I'm much more comfortable in French than in Vietnamese," Kim notes. "Two years ago, when my mother came here, for the first three days I couldn't hold a conversation with her. I could understand everything she said. But I couldn't talk."

The words and sentences and nuances come back eventually of course. They have been mislaid, not lost. The Alliance Francaise is one of Grosse Pointe's youngest organizations, and one of its healthiest. "Our membership has grown immensely," President Nuyen observes. "We have over 200 family members and 10 life members. We hope to encourage high school students to join, especially those who are learning French."

Programs Vary "We have tried to make our Alliance not for French-speaking people alone, but for all people who enjoy French culture and French-oriented social activities. Some of our programs are in French, some in English. "We have tried to cut across all age groups. "We have tried to schedule at least one activity each month, to appeal to all groups and all tastes."

Activities may range from a talk on Versailles, in French, by the director of lectures for the Louvre and the National Museums in France to a class in French cooking, from a film showing to tomorrow's Soiree Musicale and Sunday's student

Our Business . . . is to make you look good!! So why not come in and give us a chance. See the professionals" at MODERN MAN MEN'S STYLING SALON, 19609 Mack Ave. By appt. TU 1-0010.

"Children's Theatre is a group that lets kids sing and act in plays and enjoy themselves. It's not fun all the time, but after all the rehearsals and after getting everything the way it's supposed to be, the plays are really great."—Lisa Pellerito.

"Children's Theatre means a great deal to me even if I have to give up all my Saturdays. I have learned so much during my seven years with the Theatre, and I have had many different parts. I have made so many new friends, and I love it."—Susan Brammer.

"I come not only for the high quality of acting, but also for the fun I have with everyone else. It has become part of my life. Saturday is Children's Theatre. Secondly, I come to seriously act. I like acting and being on stage. In fact, I am rarely off it."—Kevin Conley.

"Children's Theatre means being happy around people I enjoy."—Moira Brophy.

There'll be "Hobbit" performances in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's Fries Auditorium Saturday, December 15, at 11 and 2 o'clock, with two sets of actors alternating in the major roles. Tickets, ($1 for children, $1.50 for adults, 85c for groups of 20 or more), may be obtained in advance at the War Memorial or Punch and Judy Toyland, or by calling TUxedo 5-6219 or TUxedo 4-4678.

all-French Christmas dinner party, from a series of wine tasting evenings to a lecture, in English, on European Economics.

Make Annual Award A scholarship for a month's summer study in France is awarded a local student each year by the Pointe Alliance. Last month's Bal Musette at the Hunt Club was a delightful way to raise funds for this project.

And always, of course, there is the opportunity to meet with and speak with French-speaking people.

"It's a chance to practice, to learn how to speak, to improve, without being embarrassed," Kim Nuyen stresses. "I'm delighted to talk with people who want to practice their French. You learn by making mistakes." And if you don't try, don't take a chance, you don't learn, or do, anything. That would really be dull life.
