Manassas chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at the Battlefield Park on Wednesday, February 7, at 2:30 p. m. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. R. L. Wheeler, Harry Dogan, and Mrs. Mary Ayres.

A joint all-day poultry school in Prince William and Fairfax counties has been scheduled for Tuesday, February 6, at the Centreville School. Speakers on the program, to start at 9:45 a. m., include three V. P. I. poultry specialists. Subjects to be discussed are poultry breeding, incubation and feeding, selection, management, sanitation and disease control. Arrangements have been made in the Centreville school cafeteria to serve luncheon at noon. Tickets for the two-county meeting are being sold by the Prince William and Fairfax County Agents as being most accessible to the poultry producers of both counties. All people of the county interested in poultry are invited to attend.

Thirty-five men from here have been ordered to report for physical examinations at Arlington Farms, Mr. Myer, Va., on February 15. R. Worth Peters, clerk of the Prince William County Board of Police Service announced this week that the December quota for 1954 also was 35.

The annual concert of the Osborn High School Band will be held in the high school auditorium on Thursday evening, February 15, at 8:30 p. m. A varied program will be presented, featuring concert pieces, overtures, and movements in two symphonies. A small ad lib will be charged, and the proceeds will go to the band. Heron Lee is band instructor.

Trinity Church Junior Choir will sing at the 11 o'clock service on Sunday, January 22, at Trinity Episcopal Church. The Rev. E. Christie Brown, rector, announced.

Concert Here by Symphony Unique

Announcement by the Manassas Music Club that the National Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Howard Mitchell, again will give a concert here, on March 23, at the Osborn High School auditorium.

The Spring Music Festivals, sponsored by the Lions Club, began in 1942 when the Charlottesville Municipal Band was heard here in a program of "semi-classical" and "light" music. Well-pleased with the success of the first year, the club has decided to book the National Symphony for the following year. Reception accorded the Orchestra at its first appearance here led to an appearance last year when an even larger audience listened.

Members of the Lions Club expressed their appreciation because of the great music has become a real asset to the community that adequate support is being given to the festivals in the future.

Stanley T. McManaway, chairman of the Lions Music Committee, stated this week that the club never considered the music program as a source of profit. It is any profit this year, it will be used to enable local students to compete for the Bland Scholarship. McManaway said.

Despite limited seating capacity, the cost of obtaining the orchestra tickets and half-price student admissions, the price of admission was not raised this year, McManaway declared.

It is added that this would not be the case except for the cooperation of local merchants and sponsors who have contributed generously to the Student Fund, which is used to defray expenses of students who try for the Bland Scholarship.

John Donovan, of Falls Church, Will Oppose Andrew W. Clarke In August Democratic Primary

John A. K. Donovan, well-known Falls Church attorney and civic leader, today announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for State Senator from the City of Alexandria and Falls Church and Fairfax and Prince William Counties. Donovan will oppose incumbent, Andrew W. Clarke, of Belle Haven, in the August Democratic primary.

Prominent in welfare and civic affairs in Falls Church, Donovan is presently serving his third four-year term as a Virginia member of the Interstate Potomac River Basin Commission, and is chairman of the Democratic Committee of the City of Falls Church, president of the Falls Church City Bar Association, president of the Society of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick of Virginia and State Parliamentarian of Lions International.

A past president of the Fairfax County Community Chest and past campaign chairman, the candidate has been active in charitable affairs and is a member of the Virginia Conference of Social Work, the American Legal Aid Society, Boys Clubs of America and many other charitable organizations.

A past District Governor of the Lions Clubs of the eastern half of Virginia and past president of the Falls Church Club, Donovan is active in fraternal circles and is a member of the Falls Church Chamber of Commerce, Edward Douglas White Council of the Knights of Columbus, and other organizations.

Well-known in professional circles, he is a member of the American Virginia, District of Columbia, Fairfax County and Falls Church Bar Associations and the American Judiciary Society.

When the Young Democratic Club of Virginia were in their hey-day, Donovan was elected chairman of the Eighty Congressional District, comprising over 25 clubs. For several years, he served as secretary of the Fairfax County Democratic Committee. A manager of many successful campaigns for other candidates, he has only once before run for public office. In 1942, he entered the race for House of Delegates to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Col. E. R. Parr, and almost caught Robert McCandlish of Fairfax, who had a head start and was elected by a narrow margin.

Donovan is married and the father of two children. He lives at 107 South Oak Street in Falls Church.

1,000 People Needed For Defense Here

About 1,000 people will be needed to man the Prince William County civilian defense organization when it is completed, Hunton Tiffany, director-coordinator, announced this week. This will approximate the size of the civilian defense organization here during the last war.

A mass meeting to inform the public of their duties in the event of an emergency is planned by Tiffany, probably for the end of February. It is hoped to have the County civilian defense program completed by that time, he said.

Following completion of the organization, test alarms will be sounded to give workers experience in performing their jobs during an emergency.

In the meantime volunteer workers are being sought throughout the County. Mrs. T. E. Didiak, of Manassas, is chairman of the organization's volunteer service branch.

Auxiliary firemen also are being recruited. State Civilian Defense Director J. C. Wynn, of Richmond, has asked local groups to enlist three auxiliary firemen for each regular fireman in the community. In Manassas this would mean that more than 100 auxiliary firemen would be recruited, since the fire department here has about 35 members.

Each of the five other fire departments in Prince William County will be asked also to obtain three auxiliary members for each regular.

Tiffany will speak to the Prince William Chamber of Commerce next Tuesday and outline the scope of his organization and progress made thus far.

Selfless March of Dimes Donor

KATHY GERTRUDE WATSON

The outstanding contribution to the Prince William County March of Dimes this year probably will be that made by a 17 year old victim of infantile paralysis.

Kathryn Gertrude Watson, of Quantico, announced last week that she will donate one-half of her savings to the polio fund. Unlike other contributors, she is in a position to know firsthand what a great work is done by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. "You just can't say too much about the wonderful work done by the Foundation," Kathryn says.

One of nine Prince William youths who were afflicted with the disease during a three-month peak period here last year, Kathy was stricken in August and placed in an iron lung at Washington's Gallinger Hospital. She amazed physicians with her rapid improvement and now is a patient at Anderson Clinic in Arlington, where, with the aid of a tutor, she keeps abreast of former classmates at Quantico.

She is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Martin of Quantico, with whom she has lived since infancy. Mrs. Martin told the Journal this week that plans are now being made to admit the young girl to Warm Springs, the polio foundation's internationally famous center for treatment of infantile paralysis patients.

Ineligibility Fracas May End In Ban Of Nokesville

Nokesville fire department's league-leading basketball team may be suspended from the Southern Division for the remainder of the year, it was announced here yesterday by Curtis Polen, NVBL vice-president.

Use of an ineligible player was given as the reason for coming action against the team. According to league by-laws, use of an ineligible player results in an automatic forfeit of the game, and five such forfeits result in suspension from further league play.

Oather J. Fitzwater, coach of the Nokesville team, is reported to have stated yesterday that if his boys team is forced to forfeit the games in which Flory has played, Nokesville will drop completely out of the Northern Virginia League.

Flory's name was submitted as a replacement for Eddie Campbell to Southern Division secretary Lawrence Weekley, shortly after Christmas. Eddie Nelson, manager of the Nokesville team, told Weekley that Campbell had been inducted into the armed forces on December 20.

Nelson was not in armed forces, but was employed at the Trailways bus terminal in Washington. A fellow-employee identified a picture of Campbell as that of the stock clerk at the terminal.

The Nokesville team currently has the best record in the Southern Division with nine wins and one loss.

Approval Seen For Occoquan Water Plans

Prince William Supervisors were expected today to approve the Occoquan Sanitary District water system plans, which were completed late last night at a meeting in Occoquan.

A water system committee from Occoquan was due to appear before the Supervisors this morning in an effort to obtain a final okay on the plans, which were drawn with the aid of a Washington engineering firm.

Last November 7, in the general election voters in Occoquan district approved a $147,000 bond issue for construction of a water system to serve the area. If Supervisors approve the plans, the project may be completed by September 1, 1951.

Following approval by the Supervisors, bids on the construction and pipe laying project will be asked for February 1.

About 200 homes are expected to hook up immediately with the water mains when they are extended from the Alexandria Water Company dam on Occoquan Bay.

Another 100 homes soon afterward will become subscribers, committee members believe.

Residents of the area now derive their water supply from private wells, but upon completion of the water system dwellers in Occoquan Town, Woodbridge, and Leesylvania, and Bots subdivisions will have piped water available.

Cost of a hook-up will be $100, according to the plans of the committee, and a $10 meter deposit fee will be imposed. A meter charge of 30 cents per 1,000 gallons will be made to each subscriber and also a service charge of $7.50 per calendar quarter.

Other Council Members Back Ritter's Plan

Town Council probably will authorize a fourth policeman for Manassas at its meeting tonight, but a stormy session is expected to precede the voting.

The meeting likely will resolve into a battle between Councilman Tony Doggett, who is adamant in his objections to hiring another officer, and Town Manager Ritter and other Councilmen, who have made it clear that they will support the proposal for a fourth officer.

New Councilman Ferris Gue will take an unknown stand on the issue. He told the Journal last night that he had no comment to make before the meeting.

Councilmen Mrs. Sedrick Saunders and G. Wallace Hook informed the Journal yesterday that they will support the Town Manager's proposal to hire the additional officer.

"I have always been in favor of having four men on the police force," Hook stated.

A delegation of townspeople was reported preparing to attend the meeting and urge Council to hire a fourth officer, to replace Sgt. Charles Simms, who resigned December 1, in order to accept a job as assistant manager of the commissary at Fort Belvoir.

Fireworks at the meeting are almost certain because of Doggett's announced intention to fight the move and Ritter's firm insistence that a fourth officer be hired immediately.

Doggett maintains that "three cops are plenty."

Local Southern States Officials Will Attend Meeting in Frederick

A two-day farm service conference for managers and personnel of Southern States Cooperative Service Agencies in the Frederick area will get underway Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 31 and Feb. 1, in Frederick.

Investigation by Polen earlier this week had established that Nelson was not in armed forces, but was employed at the Trailways bus terminal in Washington.

A fellow-employee identified a picture of Campbell as that of the stock clerk at the terminal.

The Nokesville team currently has the best record in the Southern Division with nine wins and one loss.

Phony termite exterminators were at it again around Manassas last week.

Farm Club Will Discuss 1951 Fair

Plans for the second annual Prince William County Fair will be discussed at a meeting of the Veterans Farm Club next Tuesday at 7:45 p. m. in the Legion Hall, Manassas, according to Joe Johnson, chairman of the club's fair committee.

Tentative plans give August 30, 31, and September 1 as the dates for the fair this year. Anyone interested in the project is invited by the club to attend the meeting, Johnson said.

The County fair which the farmer-veterans held last year was the first for Prince William in almost 30 years and was described as a "very successful beginning."

Although the Club lost about $1,000 on the three-day event, members are reported to make the fair "more and more successful during coming years."

A late beginning and doubts among farmers that the fair would even be held are the chief reasons why the Club suffered a loss last year, Johnson believes. "This year we are starting our planning early and are expecting many more entries in stock and poultry shows, as well as bigger gate receipts," Johnson told the Journal.

Baby Contest Planned For March 7

A baby contest—something new for Manassas—has been scheduled for March 7 by the ladies' auxiliary of Francis Cannon Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Health, beauty, and personality are the things judges will be looking for when the entrants parade (no performers) before the stand in Osborn High School auditorium.

Both boys and girls will be received as applicants. Three classes, or age groups, have been established by the VFW auxiliary baby contest committee: the divisions are one and two-year-olds, three and four-year-olds, and five and six-year-olds. Prizes will be awarded winners in each group.

Proceeds from the event will be used to retire the debt on the VFW post home, which also is used as a community center. Local merchants will be asked to sponsor entrance tickets.

Fake Exterminators Return; After Wood Worms This Trip

Phony termite exterminators were at it again around Manassas last week.

Return of the fraudulent men comes as no surprise since the "follow-up" is characteristic of confidence men everywhere and is indicative of their boldness, necessary for even short-term success in their shady business.

At least ten people, most of whom were aged women, are known to have been victimized by these men last year. Probably there were even more, but many people are reluctant to report that they have been cheated.

Mrs. C. S. Kemper, who lives on Route 234 near Manassas, reported this week that she was visited on January 18 by two men who purport to be legitimate termite exterminators. One of the men was a member of a two-man team who had given her house an unsatisfactory extermination "treatment" last April.

Tyrell Krum Dies at Work In Quantic

Tyrell Krum, two-time Republican candidate for Congress from this district, died at Quantic Marine Base Tuesday, following a heart attack.

Krum, who was 50 years old, was stricken at about 2:30 p. m. while he was working in Quantic on an exhibit for the Marine Corps League. He was taken immediately to the hospital.

Mailbox Improvement Contest Planned By Brentsville H-D Club

A rural mailbox improvement contest has been planned by the Brentsville Home Demonstration Club. It was learned this week that "Pity the poor mailman," members of the club have exclaimed, when he must look at row after row of drab, unappealing mailboxes. The mailbox contest represents another effort of the Brentsville club to improve the landscape in their community, according to the club.

Life How SECRETS of the GREAT CHEFS
Caesar Salad, a Man's Dish, Featured At New York's Hide-a-Way
"If there is a little 'Caesar' in your family, and most certainly there is, Caesar Salad will hit it spot with him. This new dish drawing raves from the men in New York—and is one of the easiest and most fun to make and is really a "man's dish". He'll enthuse about it, winter as well as summer.
With the ingredients placed on a tray or cart and brought to the table to be mixed, your salad will cause much conversation as it does at Danny's Hide-a-Way in New York. Wounded at Salerno in World War II, Danny Stradella started the Hide-a-Way with only six tables. He has six rooms and seats two hundred and twenty a luncheon and at dinners. His charm, gentleness of manner, and the fact that he is a hard-working host who doesn't think it beneath his dignity to clear off a table or pinch hit in the kitchen during rush hours, has made him a great success in his new business."
CAESAR SALAD (For 2)
The longer French Dressing stands, the better it is. So make it ahead of time—that way it can be chilled, and the garlic will have a chance to flavor it thoroughly.
French Dressing for 2
Dress well with a fork.
1 Tablespoon Wine Vinegar
2 Tablespoons Olive Oil
1 Teaspoon Dry English Mustard
Salt and Pepper to Season
1 Peeled Garlic clove (Remove after dressing has been flavored.) Chill (Don't or shake well before using.)
Fry in a little oil and vinegar until brown:
1 Slice Finely Diced Bread
Put in salad bowl:
Crisp and Cold Sliced Greens—Romaine lettuce, escarole, endive, etc., even 2 Cabbage for color.
1 Small Can Anchovies—chopped
2 Tablespoons Grated Parmesan Cheese (Chop coarsely if fresh is used)
1 Tomato—quartered
Fried Bread (Croutons)
1 Cooked Egg (Hard 3 minutes)
1 Pour French Dressing on Salad and toss. "And," says Danny, "one of the secrets of Caesar Salad is the use of garlic in tossing. If you rub two small pieces of bread with garlic and stick them on the tines of your salad fork, the flavor will go through the salad evenly when you toss it."
Serve at once.

Church News

GREENWICH CHURCH NEWS
 Besides their regular monthly class meeting last Wednesday evening, the Earnest Workers of the Presbyterian Sunday School celebrated their fifth annual birthday party. The evening began with a delicious turkey supper at eight o'clock; this was followed by fun and entertainment. A short business meeting concluded the evening.

The Potomac Rural Parish held its quarterly supper meeting on Saturday evening at Bealton. Greenwich church was well represented at this meeting; twenty-one of its members were present. Dr. James Appleby, Director of Field Work at Union Theological Seminary, gave a very inspirational talk. Dr. Carl, Director of the Department of Town and Country Church, Presbyterian Church, U. S. of Atlanta, Ga., also gave an interesting talk.

With Mr. Charles Groushorn, President of the Parish Council, conducting the business meeting which followed; chairmen of the different committees gave reports. The Christian Training committee chairman gave a resume of religious activities to be carried on within the Parish during the next quarter, and it was said that this committee had selected a mission within the Parish and made him support.

The fellowship committee planned a Parish Party to be held at Greenwich on the evening of March 2. They also arranged bowling tournaments, in which all churches in the Parish will participate.

The Publicity Committee chairman asked that news for the "Potomac Pilot" be sent in by March 15. The chairman also asked that each church in the Parish have a sign stating the name of the church and that it is a member of the Potomac Rural Parish.

She also reported that a Parish Photographer had been appointed and that a scrapbook for the Parish would be started.

The Visual Aids Committee chairman reported that the work of that committee had been completed, and asked that that committee be dissolved. The chairman asked that a school be held to teach certain members in each church how to operate the projector.

The reports of the fore-going committees gave each one present a knowledge of the work going on within the Parish, and made them realize more fully the importance of a rural parish of this kind.

Mcass. Mazzyk Wood, Raymond Spittle and Newman Hopkins attended the Officers Training School at Winchester on Sunday evening.

CAKE-BAKING TIPS
 Now when the kitchen is cozy and inviting and the cold January air makes the outdoors legs appealing, take time out to bake a cake for the family. Make it a perfect cake while you're at it. That's not so difficult as it may sound. Follow these tips and you'll see.

(1) Select a good and reliable recipe—one that has been tested. Then follow the recipe accurately. Substitutions may alter the character of the cake. All ingredients must be fresh and of high quality.

(2) Measure carefully! Use standard measuring utensils. To measure flour, sift first, then place

This school was for the purpose of teaching a few officers in the different Presbyterian churches the duties of their office.

3 c. sifted cake flour
 2 tsp. baking powder
 1 tsp. salt
 ¼ c. milk
 1 tsp. vanilla

Cream shortening, add sugar a little at a time and cream together until fluffy and light. Add eggs one at a time and beat well after each addition. Sift baking powder, salt, and flour together; add vanilla to milk. Cream add dry ingredients alternately with liquid to cream mixture, blending after each addition. "OSBOURN OLLIE"

On Friday evening, January 19, the Senior Class sponsored a "sock hop." This was a money making activity for the Seniors. At the dance there were approximately seventy-five students present to enjoy the refreshments and music. The students danced in their socks. I know that everyone enjoyed himself at the dance.

January 24 and 25 are the days on which the students go into deep concentration; the mid-term examinations are here. On Wednesday, January 24, exams will be given on subjects held in second, third and fourth period. On Thursday, January 25, exams of the three-sixth and seventh period class will be given. There are several students who will complete their course in high school in February.

Osborn Yellow Jackets will travel to James Monroe High School on Tuesday, January 23 for their seventh game of the season. We wish the boys the best of luck, and hope they will bring their second victory home to Osborn.

Saturday, January 27, there will be a benefit game for the March of Dimes Campaign. Students were chosen by the Technical School and Osborn High School. The girls chosen from Osborn were Catherine Dennis Baker and Fleur Peters. The boys from Osborn are Dennis Todd and Jimmy Marshall. Girls representing the Technical School

Teenager Gets Appetite Back; Thanks Hadacol

HADACOL Supplies Vitamins B₁, B₂, Nicotin and Iron Which Her System Lacked.

According to Sara Loraine Beck, Box 253, Coker, Alabama, when a person is only 15 years old and feels terrible, can't eat or sleep the way they should, it's mighty bad. That is the way Loraine says she used to feel, but that was, of course, before she started taking HADACOL. Loraine found that taking HADACOL helped her system overcome deficiencies in Vitamins B₁, B₂, Nicotin and Iron, which HADACOL contains.

Here is Loraine Beck's own statement: "I was run-down, sick and skinny, and weighed only 80 pounds; before I used HADACOL, I would not eat because I had no appetite. Now I weigh 123 pounds and have an appetite. I feel a lot better. I have been taking HADACOL 10 months and am still taking it. I am 15 years old. HADACOL has done me lots of good."

POLIO—A GROWING SHADOW

CASES REPORTED SINCE 1936 SHOWN IN 3-YEAR PERIODS

*Including 1950 estimate of 30,000 cases.

During the three-year period 1948-1950 patient care alone cost more than $58,000,000 in March of Dimes funds.

The chart above reveals polio's ever-increasing threat to the American people and the enormous cost of patient care borne by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. This year, the forward march of polio presents an especially urgent problem to the March of Dimes: the purchasing value of the dollar has shrunk to 58 cents in comparison with pre-war days, while polio cases have nearly quadrupled.

Is Community Interest Being Served???

TO THE CITIZENS OF MANASSAS AND SURROUNDING AREA:

As a telephone subscriber, quite naturally you are vitally interested in good, modern, reliable telephone service. That is what you pay for and what you have a right to expect.

When you lift your receiver you rightly expect to hear the friendly voice of the operator within a few seconds. BUT, when this does not happen, and you wait an unreasonable length of time for the "voice with a smile" is your first impulse to blame the operator for the delay and "blast away" at her?

In Manassas, although there more than 2,000 phones, there are only 4 switchboard positions, with a total capacity of 68 calls at any one time. Just think—when these 68 channels are being used, more than 1,900 other telephone users must wait.

Just what happens if you try to make a call and all facilities are in use? The operator sits there helpless, just hoping that yours is not an emergency call; unable to answer you yet hoping that someone will soon hang up in order that she may serve you.

The conditions of poor service, with which you are faced in Manassas, do not exist in most communities of like size. Fairfax, with just over 2,000 phones, has 9 switchboard positions, with all positions in use and busy.

SO YOU SEE—INADEQUATE SWITCHBOARD AND PLANT FACILITIES ARE REASONS FOR POOR SERVICE AND NOT OPERATOR INEFFICIENCY.

The Triangle telephone exchange is an old frame home located in a natural ravine. When this area is subjected to about 2 days' of hard rain, water flows through the operating room and boots for the operators become a necessity on the job—NOT JUST TO GET TO THE JOB.

Reports have run rampant that the Central Mutual Telephone Company is in poor financial shape. Let's take another look at the facts.

Judge Marshall King, of the State Corporation Commission was quoted November 30 as saying that the Central Mutual Telephone Company was earning 7 percent, which amount is within the range regarded by the Commission as fair rate and is the maximum allowed by the Commission.

The Communications Workers of America (CWA-CIO), the international union representing more than 300,000 telephone workers employed by independent and Bell System companies in the United States and Canada, was called into this area by the employees of the Central Mutual Telephone Company for purposes of organizing and representing them in their efforts to establish fair conditions of employment.

The dismissal of the Central Mutual Company's petition for a toll charge from Manassas to Triangle has been attributed by some to the CWA activities in this area. The dismissal of the Company's petition prompted the statements made by Judge King.

An officer of the CWA recently studied the 1949 financial report of the Central Mutual Telephone Company, which is filed with the State Corporation Commission. An employee of the SCC stated that the report was inadequate and incomplete and that a request had been made of the Company to file additional information.

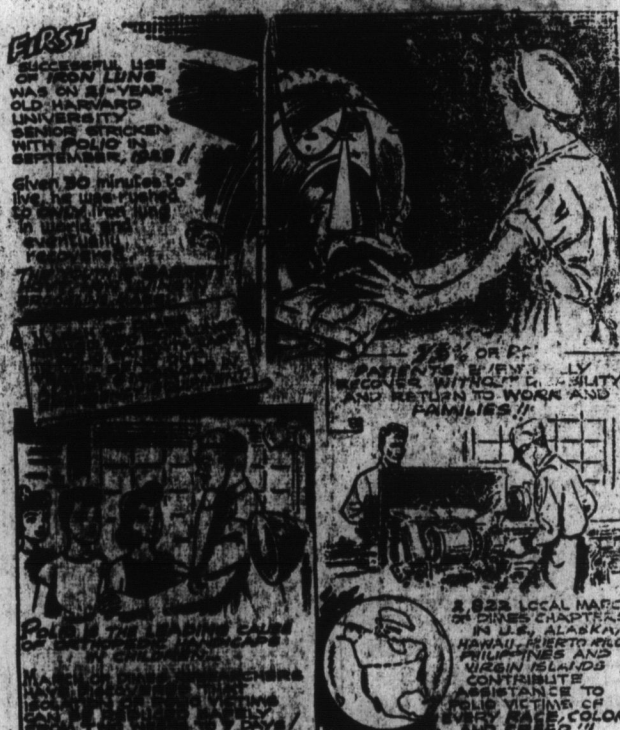

Should you feel the urge to demand action from your elected town officials on this important matter, we would suggest that you consult your telephone directory and note the officers and Board of Directors listed for this company before taking action.

The State Corporation Commission regulates the operation of public utilities in the State of Virginia. It is their responsibility to see that the companies operating under franchise render prompt and efficient public service in the community.

Be ready to take the plunge

Like your job? Want to make it your life's work? That's good, if you do! But maybe ten years from now you won't be happy with any job! Maybe you'll want to strike out on your own—start your own business.

If and when that time comes, be ready for it. Be ready to make the most of every opportunity—to take the plunge if you want to. How can you get ready?

Start saving now, today. Put away a little (or a lot, if you can) every month. Put it away in U.S. Savings Bonds. Then at the end of ten years you'll get back $4 for every $3 you invest today. Suppose you save $18.75 in Bonds every week? By 1960 you'll have $10,828.74.

Enough for a plunge? You bet, but just be careful to look before you leap. Automatic saving is sure saving—U. S. SAVINGS BONDS

Social Security

By RUTH G. DUFFY, Manager
Alexandria Social Security Office
YOUR NEW SOCIAL SECURITY
... didn't happen in our social security office. I heard about it. You see, in order to have the widest possible distribution of information about the new social security law, we have asked, and are getting the co-operation of civic, fraternal, church and social groups. It was in the club rooms of one of the latter that this did happen.
Two women had just picked up copies of our leaflet directed to household employers under social security. The first casually stuffed her copy into her bag and remarked: "As if income tax wasn't enough bother! I pay my maid good wages. Why social security?" The second woman looked up from her copy of the leaflet and replied: "Our husbands are paid well. They have social security." She happened to be a close friend, and could adopt that tone.

She went right on talking. She recalled a cook in her mother's household when she was a little girl. Sarah was in the kitchen the first time she ever eluded her nurse and got farther than the butler's pantry. She was making lemon meringue pies.
Well, the day came when Sarah's "misery" began to interfere with her pie-making. Then for days-on-end Sarah couldn't get to the kitchen at all. Finally the time came when she had to be retired. There was no Federal social security in Sarah's day. She became largely dependent on her employer's generosity.

The friend who had questioned the "why" of social security had re-opened her bag. She had smoothed out the crumpled leaflet, "Do you Have a Maid?" As my informant left the room, she was reading it—not casually either.
Regular household workers on the first of January began building toward monthly insurance benefit payments for the time when their pie-making days are over. Like most of the husbands of most of their employers, they will have social security protection, too.
The Alexandria office is located at 815 King Street in the Ruple Building, Room 500. Office hours are from 9:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. on Monday through Friday.

work for yourself in certain kinds of self-employment, you are one of the Ten Million. Certain other groups of workers may come under social security.
Recently I talked with a farmer, who employs full-time hands and during harvest time, takes on temporary workers. He wanted to know the "law." I told him somewhat as follows:
Only the regular farm worker is covered—not the migratory worker, the part-time seasonal hand, or the farm owner or operator. Whether or not a farm worker is covered is determined every calendar quarter of the year with respect to his work for each of his employers independently. The first quarter begins January first, the second April first, the third July first, and the fourth October first. A farm worker must be employed by an employer during one entire calendar quarter which is not covered but is a qualifying quarter. After he has served the qualifying quarter, the farm worker will be covered in each succeeding quarter with the same employer as long as he works at least 90 days on a full-time basis in each quarter and earns cash wages of $50 or more during the quarter.

It's the farm owner's responsibility to know when to make a social security tax report on his regular farm employees, and to send in at the end of each quarter the proper amount of social security tax based on deductions of 1 1/2 percent from the regular farm worker's cash wages, with the farm owner matching this amount himself.
I gave my caller a leaflet called "Notice to Farmers with Regular Hired Help," which was prepared by the Bureau of Internal Revenue for the benefit of farm owners and operators. You'll find it a valuable aid, and it's free. Write to our office at 815 King Street and one will be sent to you. Office hours are from 9:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. on Monday through Friday.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Right Under Our Nose!

Sometime back, we got word from the Governor, asking if we wanted to use the State Fire Inspection Team—a group of experts they send around to communities to inspect public buildings.
We sent a letter saying: "Okay! Give us the once-over!" They came down, all right—last week.
After the inspection, we got their report. Came out pretty well, all told. Town Hall and the School were O.K. Post Office just needed more sandbuckets. In fact, everything got a clean bill of health, except—the Fire Station!

From where I sit, we volunteer firemen had just been too blamed busy keeping everyone else on the ball—and not realizing our own firehouse was not up to snuff. Like the man who worries so much about his neighbors—about whether they work hard enough, about whether they can really afford their new car, about their enjoying a temperate glass of beer—that he forgets to take a good critical look at himself now and then.
