2018 President's Report

Grant Watson

2019 will be a pivotal year for both breeders and the racing industry in BC. This is the final year of the contract between Great Canadian Gaming and the City of Vancouver for operations at Hastings. Negotiations are currently underway between the two parties with an emphasis from all industry associations that a long-term deal needs to be put in place that includes infrastructure upgrades. It is vital that any deal with the city addresses the disrepair at Hastings. Breeders are adamant that they can not continue with yearly or three-year deals. We need a ten-year deal in order to encourage investment in more mares and stallions. The CTHS BC continues to work with BCTOBA and the HBPA in order to do what is best for all stakeholders.

The industry associations have once again provided breeders and owners with a wide variety of incentive programs that are aimed at ensuring we will have a quality race meet in 2019 and beyond. Breeders tapped into the mare purchase program at the various sales last fall and early this year. Back again is the Maiden Mare program that offers support to breed qualifying mares. The numbers won't be known until July but hopefully we will see double digit figures taking advantage of this program.

The largest number of purchases were in the weanling and short yearling market. Many of these horses will be offered in our fall mixed sale giving people a chance to buy some new bloodlines. Several yearlings were also purchased last fall that will be offered in our new Horses of Racing Age Sale on March 16th. There should be a nice mix of two-year-old's and older runners. Many of these sale horses will be restricted to running at Hastings in 2019 unless they ship for a stake race. The two-year-old's can be made eligible for the two-year-old CTHS sale stakes in August.

Speaking of last fall's mixed sale, almost everyone who bought a BC-bred yearling took advantage of the $2500 sale rebate if they agreed to have their papers remain at Hastings for the 2019 race meet. The effort being put forward to retain horses to run at Hastings is similar to what is being done at many other tracks.

As well as the many incentive purchase options there is also wintering money and fresh horse money available to owners. Maiden Special Weight bonuses will continue in 2019 as well as the 25% owner supplement for BC bred horses. The industry associations continue to look for ways to help existing owners and encourage new ownership.

2019 is the final year of our agreement to allow foreign bred to nominate for our sales stakes. We tried this on a three-year trial basis, and we will be examining it to decide if it is something we want to support moving forward. It should make for a lively discussion. Also, up for discussion this year is the guaranteed breeder and stallion award percentages and BC Cup Races.

Here's Hannah dominated the 2018 race season at Hastings and took home honors for both BC-bred and Open Horse of the Year. She is also nominated for a Sovereign Award. Tod Mountain Thoroughbreds won Breeder of the Year for the third consecutive year. North American Thoroughbred Horse Company won top owner.

Leif Nordahl and the Dittloff Family (Ed, Gladys and Karen) were inducted into the BC Thoroughbred Hall of Fame. I'm very happy we were able to honor Ed Dittloff before his passing on January 16th, 2019. He was a longtime respected breeder who was always a pleasure to see at sale time and will be missed.

CTHS BC member John Gunther won the 2018 Eclipse Award for Breeder of the Year. As most people already know, John was the breeder of 2018 Triple Crown winner Justify. It is great to see the success of one of our own on the world stage. CTHS BC member Charles Fipke's Seeking the Soul ran 2nd in the recent Pegasus World Cup as well as a 2nd in the 2018 Breeders' Cup Mile.

Fipke's stallion Jersey Town has moved from his one-year stint at Road's End Farm in Abbotsford BC to California. It was unfortunate to only have him here one year but hopefully we will see more stallions in the future. Two new stallions will stand their first year in BC in 2019. Road's End has replaced Jersey Town with Counterforce who won Black Type Bachelor Stakes at Oaklawn Park. Canmor Farms has added Ralis to their roster. Ralis won the Grade 1 Hopeful at Saratoga and is a full brother to multiple Graded Stakes placed B Squared and Japanese Stakes winner Make Happy. Both stallions represent the Smart Strike bloodline and should be well received.

The National CTHS AGM will be held in BC this year. We do not have a date yet but look forward to hosting once again. This will give BC breeders the opportunity to attend and talk to breeders from across Canada about many subjects of common interest.

The Jockey Club introduced digital certificates in 2018. The CTHS BC office has an account set up for the transfer of these certificates and can assist breeders who are unsure what to do to set up their own account. Please contact B-J for more information.

Good luck to all breeders, owners and industry participants in 2019.

Hall of Fame Inductees

Leif Nordahl

by Randy Goulding

With his success as an owner and breeder, it was easy to vote for Leif Nordahl when he was on the ballot for the 2018 British Columbia Horse Racing Hall of Fame. The hard part was deciding which category he belonged. However, considering his sizeable contributions to the betterment of the thoroughbred industry in British Columbia, he will go in as a builder.

Over a 30-year period, Nordahl served as a board member of the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society (CTHS), was the founding vice-president and treasurer of the B C Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association (BCTOBA), and was on the board of the local Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (HBPA). From 2009 – 2014 he was also the president of the CTHS.

"It was very interesting being involved in all the different groups," says Nordahl. "I think it helped being a chartered accountant. I could look at the totality of the industry rather than from viewing it as just an owner or breeder. I just wanted to give back something to an industry I loved being part of."

The industry was in a downward swoon in 2008 and according to Glen Todd, Nordahl played a big role in helping stabilize it in 2009.

Todd, inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2012, was the Thoroughbred representative to the British Columbia Horse Racing Industry Management Committee. The committee, formed in 2008, was tasked with stabilizing the horse racing industry in British Columbia. The committee included a representative from the Thoroughbreds, Standardbreds, Great Canadian Gaming Corporation, and a government appointee.

Nordahl helped the Thoroughbred side make submissions to the committee.

"Leif was a tremendous asset," says Todd. "There were all of kinds of agreements in place and everyone was fighting over who should get what. Things could get pretty heated, but Leif always kept his cool, and when something wasn't right, he was quick to point it out. He really had a stabilizing influence on everyone and had a big hand in saving the industry. He was also great to work with."

"I was the president of the CTHS and was working on behalf of the breeder's," says Nordahl. "But I looked at it from all sides and what kind of impact it would have on the whole industry. There were some crazy agreements in place that just didn't make sense financially. I was happy to help."

Nordahl is also happy to do a little wagering on the sport. He fell in love with racing as a teenager growing up in New Westminster.

"It really started when I was just a kid," says Nordahl. "Then I got hooked when I picked a triacta that paid $169. That was a lot of money back then."

The first horse he owned was Chief Commander, who he claimed off Jack Diamond in 1978. One of the best horses he had was One O Seven. Bred by Salishan Meadows, the daughter of Vice Regent won the CTHS Sales Stakes in her second start as a 2-year-old.

"She also won a couple of stakes in Southern California," says Nordahl.

He was referring to the Bangles and Beads, which she won back-to-back at Fairplex in 1998-99.

Soon after came Deputy Sue. Trained by Allan Jack she won six stakes for Nordahl.

He ranks Above the Table as the best horse he owned.

"I claimed her for $25,000 and she won the Ballerina," he says.

It was natural for Nordahl to move into the breeding side of the business.

"I didn't really plan on it," he says. "But I mostly bought fillies so I thought I may as well breed them after they were done racing. At one point I had about 30 horses and became a partner with Bert Perry in a breeding farm, Telegraph Trail, in Langley."

The best horse he bred was Arabella's Muse.

Trained by Mike Anderson, the daughter of Finality won seven stakes and earned $352,075. Her most important win came in the Sadie Diamond Futurity.

"Winning the Sadie Diamond Futurity with a horse I bred was the biggest thrill for me in horse racing," says Nordahl.

Arabella's Muse was out of Excited Miss, who was bred by Red Rock Farm and trained by Barbara Heads. Excited Miss won five stakes for Nordahl and was the champion 3-year-old filly in B. C. in 2006.

At 84 Nordahl is no longer active as an owner or breeder, or serving on any boards.

He is thrilled that his daughter Karen is continuing to breed horses, particularly Arabella's Muse and Excited Miss.

Nordahl isn't completely retired from horse racing though. His first passion for racing was betting on horses and he still loves going to Hastings where he can be seen checking out the past performances in the Daily Racing Form.

"I have a great group I hang out with," says Nordahl. "We have our laughs. We enjoy not only playing the races at Hastings but also watching horses from here running down South."

Mike Heads, secretary for BCTOBA, is part of the group.

"Leif loves to gamble," said Heads. "He may have spent a lot of money on horses, and I applaud that he did it every way, buying at sales, claiming and eventually breeding, but he isn't a big bettor. If he makes a small profit on a $10 win bet he can get pretty excited."

Heads summed up the feelings of many people involved in horse racing in British Columbia.

"Considering all the unpaid work Leif has done on behalf of the industry, and the success he has had as owner and breeder, he is well deserving of being in the Hall of Fame."

The Dittloff Family

by Richard Yates

The Dittloff Family's involvement in Thoroughbred racing began with Ed in 1947. That was in Powell River and in those days trying to raise Thoroughbreds there would have been a serious challenge. Getting a horse to a sale or a racetrack involved by necessity a long boat ride. There was no direct highway connection to the Lower Mainland then, as continues to be the case, but even the stretch of road now known as the Sunshine Coast Highway was not opened until 1962. Horses were lowered in a crate by crane into the boat's hold and removed the same way upon landing. Logistical problems did not stop Ed, he had the passion and he raised his first three horses there, two of them sent to the track and one was sold. He also met Gladys there while they both were working for the Powell River Company. They got married in 1955 and began to look for a better place to breed and raise horses.

In 1958 they bought 320 acres in Grindrod, BC and set up an operation that continues to this day. For 60 years they have run a family farm in the same spot and they not only raised horses, they raised their family. Louise was the first born, Karen was the middle of three children and Stan was the youngest. They all helped with the family farm, but Karen, who had become a licensed veterinary technician, returned to the farm and has been an integral part of the operation for many years.

And they have certainly produced some outstanding runners. Ed bought his first mare, named Royal Susy, from Jackie Russell's dad and she produced his first good runners, Empire Sun and Eddie Who. The first major Dittloff success was Summer Lil. Summer Lil was by a stallion called Summerland (is that a familiar name) that Ed owned a piece of, and she was Champion Two-Year-Old Filly and Horse of the Year in BC in 1975.

Summer Lil sold for $1,500 at auction. She was cheap because she had been kicked in the knee and was not cosmetically perfect. Ed told Lola Ciminelli that it was superficial and that was good enough for her, because as we have all known for years, when the Dittloffs tell you something, you can trust it. Summer Lil started 15 times as a two-year-old and won 6 races, 5 of them stakes.

The next big horse was Fleet Reserve. He was the Champion Two-Year-Old Colt or Gelding in 1988 when he won 3 out of 4 starts, including the Jack Diamond. In his only loss he stumbled at the start and was beaten a head. In 1989 Fleet Reserve won 5 of 8, most notably the BC Derby and 2 other stakes, and the Dittloffs had their second Horse of the Year.

But Fleet Reserve was not close to being their last champion. In 2001, I'm Free was the Champion BC-bred Three-Year-Old and his dam, Drop It In, was Champion Broodmare. In 2012 another Dittloff horse, Racing For Gold, was named Champion Three-Year-Old Filly (BC bred).

Two years later, in 2014, Lord Rosberg won the Appleby Award as the Horse of the Year (BC bred) and was Champion Two-Year-Old Colt or Gelding in both the open and BC bred divisions. That same year, Lord Rosberg's dam, Irish Delta, was named Champion Broodmare. Not only was Lord Rosberg a multiple Champion that year, Irish Delta's three-year-old daughter, Irish Lyric won the Sales Stake and finished second in the BC Oaks.

The Dittloffs have earned their place in the Hall of Fame with their success as breeders alone. They produced three Horses of the Year and numerous division Champions. In a period spanning eight decades they have done it all. They have devoted themselves to producing a quality product, namely strong, competitive Thoroughbreds. For the last 71 years Ed Dittloff has bred Thoroughbreds, stood stallions, raised young horses and brought them to market. When you consider that the first organized horse races in Vancouver were conducted on Granville Street in 1887, you realize that the Dittloff Family's involvement in racing spans more than half of the history of the sport in British Columbia.

The Dittloffs are not only eminently qualified to be inducted into the BC Horse Racing Hall of Fame for their accomplishments in racing, they are qualified as human beings. The Dittloffs have built a reputation for honesty and integrity that is recognized by all. Their work ethic and self-reliance are examples to us all. Ed and Gladys have been partners in life and in the business of Thoroughbreds for 63 years. They not only have witnessed much of the history of racing in British Columbia, they have contributed to it significantly and in ways above and beyond mere commerce. So, we welcome the Dittloffs, Ed, Gladys, and Karen into the BC Racing Hall of Fame in recognition of their outstanding contributions to the Thoroughbred industry in British Columbia.

In 1973 the Board of Directors of the British Columbia Thoroughbred Breeders' Society (B.C.T.B.S.) decided to establish the Appleby trophy to honour annually the breeder of the best horse bred in the province, regardless of where it had raced. It differs in several respects from the Vanderbilt trophy, which was inaugurated in 1965 and which honours the Horse of the Year at Hastings Park, then Exhibition Park. First, of course, it is restricted to horses bred in British Columbia; secondly, there is no requirement that the horse have run locally, though, of course, they have usually done so; and, thirdly, it was the breeder of the horse in question who received the trophy. (The owner of the Vanderbilt winner receives that trophy and in recent years the owner of the leading B.C.-bred has been presented the Appleby trophy.) Lyon H. Appleby was a distinguished Vancouver surgeon who was instrumental in founding the B.C. Racing Breeders' Society in 1938, and became its first president. The name of the organization was subsequently changed to the B.C. Thoroughbred Breeders' Society and, later still, to its present name, the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society (B.C. Division). Dr. Appleby bred many fine runners at his Running Horse Ranch near Kamloops and most raced in his colours including Cum Laude, who would undoubtedly have won for Dr. Appleby the trophy later established in his honour.

Here's Hannah... Vanderbilt Trophy Horse of the Year Open, Appleby Trophy BC-Bred Horse of the Year, and Champion Open & BC-Bred Divisions Three-Year-Old Filly

Here's Hannah, under the tutelage of trainer John Morrison, showed the same dominance as in her 2-year-old season with a "tour de force" at 3, running in 5 stakes and winning 4 of them. From the 6 1/2 furlong Ross McLeod Stakes in May to the BC Oaks in September where a field of 9 other talented runners tried to dislodge the 2018 Queen of Hastings at the 1 1/8 mile stake. As the favorite she never looked in danger as she skipped around the oval with Richard Hamel in the irons. Here's Hannah was bred by B.C. Stables (Brenda Coombs and Pat Bennett of Road's End Farm) and owned by B.C. Stables and Paul Caravetta. Pictured (left to right): Paul Caravetta (back), Angie Smith, Richard Hamel, Brenda Combs, Pat Bennett and John Morrison.

Rosberg... Champion Sire

With only 6 crops to the races, Rosberg made it a triple by winning his third leading sire championship. His death was not only a blow to his owners, longtime friends Horatio Kemeny and Mark Mache (Swift Thoroughbreds Inc.), but also to the BC breeding industry. Rosberg sired 2 stakes winners for the 2018 season: the Open and BC-Bred 3-year-old Champion, graded stakes-placed Weekend Wizard and Anstrum, winner of the John Patrick Handicap in Alberta.

AWARDS & HONOURS

Stephanotis ...Champion Juvenile Sire

The deceased Stephanotis earned the award for the champion juvenile sire with just six 2-year-olds in his 2016 crop. The filly Notice, out of Anside bred by Ole Nielson and owned by Canmor Farms, was Stephanotis' top 2-year-old. Notice won 3 races including both the CTHS Sales Stakes in BC and Alberta. Stephanotis also sired the 2018 Champion BC-Bred Filly or Mare, Notis the Jewell and the Top Performing Upper Claimer, Under Par. For over a decade Stephanotis has been a major sire in our BC breeding industry and will be sadly missed. Pictured Lois Clough.

Dreams Start Here ...Champion Broodmare

The aptly named mare, Dreams Start Here, by A Fleets Dancer, was this year's champion broodmare after her chestnut daughter, Here's Hannah, took all the accolades at the 2018 awards night. This included Horse of the Year Open and BC-Bred, as well as Open and BC-Bred 3-Year-Old categories. The mare's first foal was the hard-knocking stakes winner Marcado who raced until she was 8 and made over $100,000. After 2 more foals in the next 5 years who didn't light up the track then came Here's Hannah! It shows the tenacity and faith these 2 women had in their broodmare. Here's Hannah's record of 7 wins in 8 starts is what we all dream about. Congratulations! Pictured (left to right): Brenda Combs, Jack and Pat Bennett.

Tod Mtn. Thoroughbreds...Leading Breeders

For the 5th time in the last 6 years Tod Mountain Thoroughbreds won the award for leading breeders Ron and Rae Fawcett. They changed direction in 2015 by racing their own rather than selling at the annual CTHS Sale. It has been great to see them frequenting the winners circle at Hastings. The horses being produced on their picturesque farm near Heffley Creek are the backbone of our BC breeding industry. In 2018 Tod Mountain had bred 27 horses who were racing. These runners were from the ages of 2 to 10 years old, half of which were 5 years or older. The soundness produced by their breeding program pays dividends for the sport. Pictured (left to right) Jamie Demetrick and Alison Covert accepting on behalf of Tod Mtn. Thoroughbreds (Ron and Rae Fawcett).

North American Thoroughbred Horse Company, Inc...Leading Owner

Glen Todd races his horses under the name North American Thoroughbred Horse Company in British Columbia as well as at many tracks in the United States. Besides being leading owner at Hastings Racecourse with 23 wins, Glen is also the trainer. How does this man do it? Glen's energy pours out of him in so many ways supporting this industry that he loves. You can find Glen in the winner's circle, at the Derby Bar and Grill, or representing the industry as the government liaison. As always Glen doesn't just talk the talk, he walks the walk. Pictured Glen Todd.

AWARDS & HONOURS

Canyon Farms...Jack Diamond Futurity Breeders

Jack and Sadie Diamond are important people to the history of our track. Jack was a special man. This quote is by the author Gareth Sirotnik from his book Running Tough. The Story of Vancouver's Jack Diamond, "Jack Diamond was a master of getting things done....In 1979 both his city and his nation recognized his lifetime of accomplishments with their highest honours." This year popular breeders Wally and Terry Leong of Canyon Farms were the recipients of the Marsh McLennan trophy as their homebred gelding, Dat Day, overtook the pacesetter, Arranger, to win the prestigious Jack Diamond Futurity by ½ length. Dat Day is by New Year's Day out of the French-bred mare Datura. Pictured (left to right): Patti Leong and Richard Leong accepting on behalf of Canyon Farms (Wally & Terry Leong).

David and Delauryn Pihl...Sadie Diamond Futurity Breeder

Dancin Shoes waltzed away with the Equine Insurance Writers trophy for her breeders David and Delauryn Pihl. Dancin Shoes won the Sadie Diamond Futurity by 8 1/2 lengths which was an excellent feat by a filly that was foaled in late June. It will be interesting to see how she develops as she matures. Pictured (left to right): Lyn & Dave Pihl.

Explode...Champion Two-Year-Old Open Colt or Gelding

The well-named Explode did just that at the season's end to take the open championship with a convincing win in the Ascot Graduation by 6 1/4 lengths for Canmor Farms under trainer Mark Cloutier. Explode showed steady progression as the distances stretched out. Brought from Kentucky to BC as a weanling, this son of Trappe Shot out of Light Blow went through the CTHSBC Sale, but luckily for Canmor, Explode did not reach his reserve. Pictured (left to right): Ole Nielsen and Mark Cloutier.

AWARDS & HONOURS

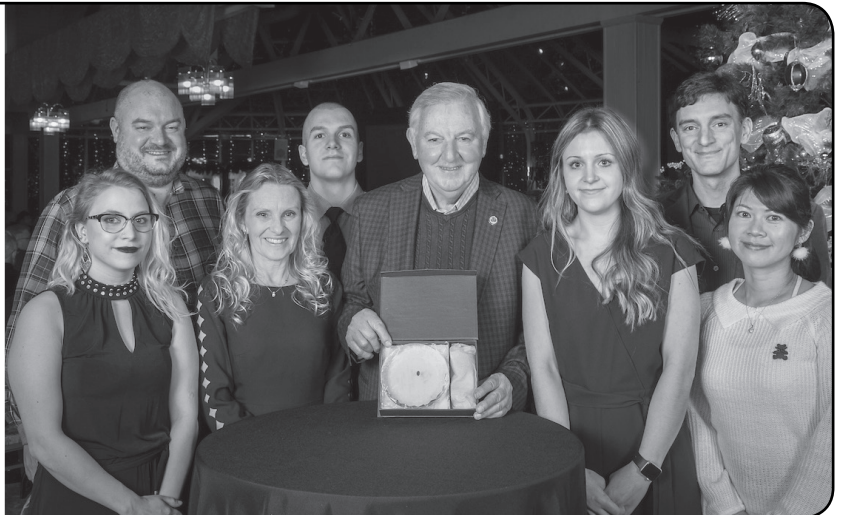

Dat Day...Champion BC-Bred-Two-Year Old Colt or Gelding

Besides winning the Jack Diamond Futurity, Dat Day closed out his 2-year-old season with a 3rd in the Ascot Graduation for owner breeder Canyon Farms and trainer Craig MacPherson. The Leongs are no strangers to the winner's circle and their biggest thrill was when their home-bred, Strait of Dover, in 2012 was the first BC-bred to win the Queen's Plate. Pictured (left to right): Patti Leong and Richard Leong accepting on behalf of Canyon Farms (Wally & Terry Leong).

Summerland...Champion Open Two-Year-Old Filly

Summerland started her career by breaking the 3 ½ furlong track record of 38.97 seconds by running the distance in 38.85 seconds. In her next start, the Spaghetti Mouse, she ran against the boys and won. The Grade 2 Sorrento Stakes at Delmar was Summerland's only defeat. But she came back to Hastings to win the 1 1/16 mile Fantasy and she finished her year by winning the 7 ½ furlong Freedom of the City Stakes at Century Downs. Summerland is by He's Tops out of the stakes-winning mare Otero and she won over $115,000 this year. Bred by Tres Hombres and George Gilbert, Summerland is trained by Hastings's leading trainer, Philip Hall and is owned by George Gilbert. Pictured (back row - left to right): Kelly Gilbert, Tyson Gilbert, Brad Gilbert (front row - left to right): Hana Pietrow, Donna Gilbert, George Gilbert, Melissa Gilbert and Shih Gilbert

Dancin Shoes...Champion BC-Bred-Two-Year-Old Filly

Dancin Shoes showed her talent in her first start as she sped to a 4 length victory in the BC Cup Debutante. The Barbara Heads trained filly showed her spunk by repeating her win in the Sadie Diamond Futurity by 8 ½ lengths and then in her final start, Dancin Shoes finished a good second in the 1 1/16 mile Fantasy. Owned and bred by David and Delaurlyn Pihl, the gray filly looks as if she has taken after her sire, Cross Traffic. In 6 starts Cross Traffic was in the money 5 times winning 3 races (including the Grade 1 Whitney Invitation) as well as placing second twice. Pictured (left to right): Lyn & Dave Pihl.

AWARDS & HONOURS

Weekend Wizard...Champion Open & BC-Bred Colt or Gelding

The son of leading stallion Rosberg (deceased) and out of stakes winning mare Gosailgo, Weekend Wizard had a great season winning the Jim Coleman Province Stakes, as well as the Chris Loseth Handicap which he won by 6 lengths in the excellent time of 1:44.11. He also placed a close second in the Grade 2 BC Derby and in the Getaway Day Stakes at Emerald Downs. The Craig MacPherson trained gelding was bred by the Foundation Racing Stable and was consigned by members of the Hall of Fame, Bob and Lillian Talbot of Red Rock Farm. Pictured (left to right): Graeme & Barb Hope (Foundation Racing Stable) and Norm Castiglione & Robert Vargo (Riversedge Racing Stables).

Calgary Caper...Champion Older Male Open Division

Calgary Caper recorded his best year ever as a 7-year-old. He won 4 out of 7 starts and regained his title as champion older male which he had won previously in 2016. His 2018 year started with a couple of confidence boosting races in the upper claiming levels which gave him a win at the $30,000 claiming level. Calgary Caper then won the Lt. Governors and the BC Classic, but his biggest race came in the Grade 3 Premiers where he came from last to win by a neck for his owners Kim Peacock, Lance Giesbrecht, and Philip Hall who also trains Calgary Caper. Pictured (left to right): Brad Cuthbertson, Sara Hall and Phil Hall.

Driller...Champion Older Male BC Division

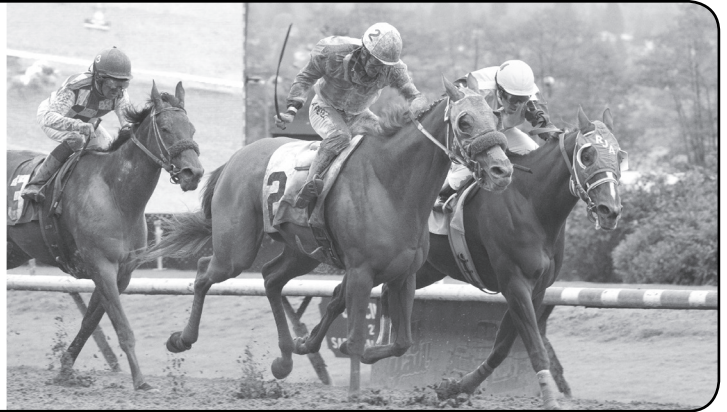

Driller by Texas Wildcatter out of Kiss of Gold took the honours for top older male BC-bred after a season that saw him win twice in 6 starts. His win in the John Longden came as he was the second longest price on the board. Driller tracked the pace before drawing off to win in convincing fashion for owners Mel Snow and Don Danard. Bred by Mel and Fran Snow, Driller won the $100,000 Harvest Plate Stake in Alberta for his second win. Pictured (left to right): Fran & Mel Snow.

AWARDS & HONOURS

Victress...Champion Open Older Filly or Mare

Victress was certainly a bargain for Rob and Vicky Gilker when they bought her out of the 2016 Hastings Paddock Sale. The Kentucky-bred mare by Include and out of Shining Victory was a winner of the Grade 3 Ballerina Stakes, as well as the Monashee Handicap giving her a record of 2 wins and a second in 3 starts with earnings of over $75,000.

Notis the Jewell...Champion BC-Bred Older Filly or Mare

Notis the Jewell by the deceased sire Stephanotis out of Diamond Berries was bred by popular horseman, the late Len Fielding. She is owned by Mark Fielding, Larry Fielding, Cherie Moryson, Chris Derosé and trained by Larry Fielding. The Grade 3 mare won the Distaff and lost by a nose while running an excellent second in the Delta Colleen Stakes. Pictured (left to right): Chris Derosé & Cheri Moryson.

Blue Law...Champion Sprinter

For his first time racing in Canada and running on a bullring, Blue Law was impressive. The gray gelding owned by Tim Bankers and trained by Cindy Krasner showed his liking for the Hastings track with convincing wins in the Swift Thoroughbreds Inaugural Stake and also in the George Royal.

AWARDS & HONOURS

Shooting Jacket...Top Performing Lower Claimer

The 8-year-old Shooting Jacket waited until the end of the meet to prove that he was still a force at the $6,250 claiming level. The son of Hard Spun, Shooting Jacket scored a winning triple in the marathon series with the distances being 1 1/8 mile, 1 3/8 mile and the final one was a mile and 1/2. It is interesting to note that Shooting Jacket earned a 94 speed rating in each of these races. Trained by Keith Pederson and owned by the Hastings Racing Club who supported their horse each time he ran. Pictured: Richard Yates (Hasting Racing Club manager), Keith Pedersen (trainer) with attending club members.

Under Par...Top Performing Upper Claimer

Under Par, a 3-year-old filly by the deceased stallion Stephanotis out of the German-bred mare, Big Bertha, is owned by Canmor Farms and Maureen Goss, trained by Mark Cloutier and bred by Glen Todd. This filly ran hard each time out and her race record shows her determination. Under Par started 6 times and had 4 wins as well as a second and a third. Pictured (left to right): Ole Nielsen, Maureen Goss and Mark Cloutier.

Amadeo Perez ...Leading Jockey

Amadeo Perez claimed his third riding title at Hastings Racecourse after visiting the winner's circle 57 times which included 6 stakes wins. He opened the season winning the Swift Thoroughbreds Inaugural Stakes and closed it with a win in the Grade 3 Ballerina Handicap on Victress. The quiet hard-working native of Mexico is a devoted family man and often you can see his wife and son cheering him on from the sidelines. Pictured: Amadeo Perez

Lenny Seecharan...Leading Apprentice

Since the Sedins have retired from hockey, Hastings now has its own identical twins, Lenny and Learie Seecharan. In 2015 both young men started their careers at Santa Rosa Park in Trinidad, but in 2017 Lenny decided to ply his trade at Hastings. He liked his new track and people so Lenny convinced his twin, Learie, to join him for the 2018 season. Both the twins are an asset to our riding community and congratulations to Lenny on his award.

Philip Hall...Leading Trainer

On the shoulders of his successes in 2017, Phil Hall repeated winning the title of leading trainer and was ably assisted by his daughter Sarah. He finished with a 10 win lead over his nearest rival and had earnings close to $800,000. Statistics show that he was in the money 52% of all his 2018 starts. When accepting his award Phil gave thanks to his family, his help, and to his owners who gave him the chance to be such a success. Phil gave a special thanks to Peter Redekop and George Gilbert whose strong stables helped him win 8 stakes for the year. Toni Ann's Miracle, Absolutely Stylish, Ring of Kerry, Summerland and Calgary Capar (who Phil is a part owner with Kim Peacock and Lance Giesbrecht) created a year of outstanding memories alongside his many honest runners whose efforts helped put Phil at the top again.

Alvina Helfenstein and Erick Guterrez...HBPA Backstretch Award

This year the recipients of this annual award were Alvina Helfenstein and Erick Guterrez. Alvina supports the learning centre and, in particular, she makes Wednesday night the time that the backstretch community can come together for her burgers and beans. There is a huge variety of food to feed the diverse backstretch community and Alvina spends all day cooking for them. This humble lady avoids the limelight while caring for so many. Meanwhile Erick is the go-to guy for all the Mexican and foreign workers who come to the track each year. Erick is now married with 2 children, but he hasn't forgotten his roots and he gives back to those seeking advice or translation.

British Columbia Breeders Awards

BREEDERS AWARD PROGRAM

Broodmares - Received 15% BAP Award on 2018 Eligible Earnings

Stallions - Received 10% BAP Award on 2018 Eligible Earnings

It pays to own a BC-bred!

Effective with foals of 2012, to be eligible for Breeders Awards Program "BAP" awards, all horses must be BC-bred, registered with the Jockey Club and with the CTHS National Office prior to the horse running its first race. BC-bred foals prior to 2012 that have or have not been racing and are not Canadian registered will not be eligible to receive BAP awards until all the Canadian requirements have been met. Awards will only be payable effective from the date the horse is registered with the CTHS National Office as a Canadian-bred and will not be paid retroactive.

As of January 1, 2018, all recipients of the BAP awards must be a member of the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society for the entire racing year that the awards were earned.

B.C. STALLIONS

Records of Stallions that serviced mares in British Columbia up to and including 2015 and or with progeny that started in British Columbia in 2018. Deceased, retired or relocated Stallions will be considered a B.C. Sire for these records until their crop of B.C. conceived foals have raced as two-year-olds.

2018

British Columbia Sire Records

Records of Stallions that serviced mares in British Columbia up to and including 2015 and or with progeny that started in British Columbia in 2018. Deceased, retired or relocated Stallions will be considered a B.C. Sire for these records until their crop of B.C. conceived foals have raced as two-year-olds.

The following symbols are used in this section:

W - Winners; PL - Placed; UN - Unplaced;

A plus (+) before the name of the horse indicates the horse won as a two-year-old.

A (SW) before a horse's name indicates that the horse won a stakes race; and (SP) indicates that the horse was second or third in a stakes race.

Earnings are total earnings through December 31, 2017 unless otherwise indicated.

Statistics are provided by THE JOCKEY CLUB INFORMATION SYSTEMS, Lexington, Kentucky.
