2019 President's Report

Grant Watson

2020 has brought some stability to BC breeders. Great Canadian has a new 5-year renewable agreement to operate at Hastings. Track improvements are taking place. A new rail has been installed and training has begun. Reports of having a similar number of horses to last year is a good sign. The number of younger horses continues to grow at Hastings.

The industry associations have once again provided breeders and owners with a wide variety of incentive programs that are aimed at ensuring we will have a quality race meet in 2020 and beyond. The largest number of purchases were in the weanling and short yearling market. Many of these horses will be offered in our fall mixed sale giving people a chance to buy some new bloodlines. Several yearlings were also purchased last fall that will be offered in our Horses of Racing Age Sale on March 14th. Many of these sale horses will be restricted to running at Hastings in 2020 unless they ship for a stake race. The two-year-olds can be made eligible to join the yearlings sold last fall in our mixed sale in the two-year-old CTHS sale stakes in August. All 4 races will be on the same day August 24th.

The CTHS plans to hold a breeder's day on August 24th in conjunction with the sale stakes. We are hopeful that all races that day will be BC bred or BC sired. While Monday the 24th isn't an ideal day it was the best we could do because of the PNE.

2019 breeder and stallion awards were up a bit from the two previous years. We are hopeful we will be able to keep them up or even increase them this year. With the discontinuation of the popular MSW bonus the CTHS decided to take over a sponsorship of these races on a limited basis. We will be sponsoring 18 races in 2020 with support from the HBPA and BCTOBA. The format has been changed to get bonuses to more owners and breeders. While the $10,000 is being spread to more horses meaning less for the winner, it also means horses that don't win a MSW at first asking may end up receiving more money than the winner take all formula.

Unfortunately, the $25,000 BC bred bonus for winning a BC Cup race has been discontinued. This was a nice bonus that made owning a BC bred exciting and will be missed.

The industry has recognized the importance of making BC bred horses valuable with the loss of restricted stakes and have supported a 25% claiming bump for BC bred. In $20,000 claiming races BC bred will cost $25,000. This will allow owners to spot their horses in more competitive fields.

The success of our yearling sale with buyers from outside of BC is great for breeders. The CTHS has recognized that breeders however have been losing out on awards for successful allowance and stake horses that are winning at other tracks. We will give an award starting in 2020 of $1000 to the breeder of a BC horse that wins a stake race outside of BC and $500 to the winner of an allowance race outside of BC.

The CTHS will continue to explore programs that bring value to breeders or owners of a BC bred horse.

The National CTHS AGM will be held in Alberta this year. We do not have a date yet.

The Jockey Club introduced digital certificates in 2018. The BC CTHS office has an account set up for the transfer of these certificates and can assist breeders who are unsure what to do to set up their own account. Please contact BJ for more information.

Good luck to all breeders, owners and industry participants in 2020.

Swift Thoroughbreds

by Wendy Long

The story of Swift Thoroughbreds Inc. could well be the stuff of Hollywood – a Local-Boys-Make-Good script that is almost too good to be true. But true it is, which makes the story all the better.

It begins with boyhood buddies Horatio Kemeny and Mark Mache sharing a passion for sports in general and horse racing in particular. They ride their bicycles through Vancouver's East End to take in the races at what is then Exhibition Park, talking of one day owning a race horse together. Between races they imagine becoming successful business partners. A good day at the track yields funds to buy dinner. A bad day means dining on soup crackers and mustard purloined from the track's concessions.

Fast forward some 30 years and Kemeny and Mache concede even they could not have envisaged what would grow from those youthful aspirations. Together they indeed went on to achieve business success in video game and software design. Horse racing? Their Swift Thoroughbreds Inc., formed as a partnership with wives Jaqueline Kemeny and Naudia Mache, became a prominent owner, breeder, sponsor and supporter of racing in British Columbia. So it is that in 2019 Swift Thoroughbreds earned well-deserved induction into the B.C. Horse Racing Hall of Fame.

"We started doing little businesses together back in Grade 10 and we were also big fans of horse racing," recalls Kemeny. "We would go to the track and the dream was to maybe one day own a horse together. Wouldn't that be cool? But at the time it was just a dream, as much as saying: 'Maybe one day I'll walk on the moon.' But that only happens to one kid in a million."

Swift Thoroughbreds first purchased a horse in 2000. Nineteen years later the stable ranks second in money won and stakes victories at Hastings Park, with Swift garnering leading owner titles in 2013, 2014 and 2016. The stable's long roster of outstanding runners includes Snuggles - 2016 BC Horse of the Year; Modern - three-time BC Champion Sprinter; Teide - 2009 BC Horse of the Year; Rosberg - winner of the 2008 BC Premiers Championship and 2016, 2017 and 2018 Champion Sire; Daymaker - 2016 Champion Broodmare.

The stable's first win, however, proved elusive. Swift's colours didn't make it to the winner's circle until 2002 when Hammersmith notched a win in the CTHS Sales Stakes at Hastings.

"It took us two years to win a race," muses Mache. "Even though we weren't in it for the money we discovered how hard it can be to win a race. For both of us, after experiencing a fair amount of success in other walks of life, it was a wake-up call. In hindsight it was actually very good for us – going through that made us appreciate the wins even more."

Mache is quick to laud the work of longtime trainer Dino Condilenios as integral to Swift's success. Important, too, was a relationship with Sheikh Mohammed's Darley Stable, which facilitated the injection of some outstanding bloodlines into the B.C. racing and breeding mix. Most notable was Swift's purchase of Rosberg -- a son of champion sire AP Indy out of the English Group 1 winner Bosra Sham -- from Darley. Rosberg campaigned at Hastings in 2008, rallying to win the Grade 3 BC Premiers in thrilling fashion before being retired to stud.

The royally-bred stallion appeared destined to make a considerable impact on the BC breeding industry but his legacy was never fully realized as he died suddenly in 2014. Yet even with a handful of crops Rosberg's potential was evident via the success of notable offspring such as Swift homebred Snuggles, and many other non-Swift runners including 2014 BC-bred Horse of the Year Lord Rosberg. For all its success, even Swift was not immune to the lows that invariably come with the highs of thoroughbred racing.

"Every time an offspring or descendant of Rosberg wins we are reminded of what could have been," says Mache.

The process of operating a racing and breeding entity, as much as the winning, has proven a most satisfying experience for the Swift foursome. Horse names, breeding decisions and racing plans are plotted out in what Kemeny describes as "fun brainstorming, white-board sessions of throwing out the best ideas and then voting on them." Horses with one-word names are a Swift hallmark.

Some runners have left a lasting hoofprint on the owners' hearts.

"Sometimes you just bond with the heart that some of these horses have," enthuses Kemeny. "Modern was a good example. That horse went out and gave 100 per cent every time."

Mache also points to Rosberg's win in the Premiers as a Swift highlight. And don't forget fan-favourite Snuggles (Rosberg – Daymaker), whose post parade antics often proved as compelling as her races.

"Snuggles was door-to-door our horse, from the sire, the mare, from day one. Boy, what a beautiful beast she was but she could get crazy. If we could just get her to the starting gate we might win that race. But often the tougher race was from the paddock to the starting gate!"

For Swift founders Kemeny and Mache, a bad day at the races no longer means a meal of mustard and crackers. A good day? Some things never change. One day near the end of the 2019 season Kemeny hopped on his bicycle and rode to take in the races at Hastings Park.

"A bit of sunshine, being there with friends and family, having a horse running – those good days will never get old," he says.

Dancing Allstar

by Brian Pound

Tip for trainers: Have all your horses sleep with their heads outside the barn door. It just might lead to a Sovereign Award-winning season.

“That’s the thing I remember most about Dancing Allstar,” said trainer Terry Jordan, “the crazy way she slept. But who can argue with what she accomplished? I knew after one week that we had something special.”

Dancing Allstar was purchased at the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society sale by Vancouver owner Bob Cheema for the modest sum of $13,800. It didn’t take long for the two-year-old filly—called “Peaches” by the stable help because of her colour—to begin paying Cheema back.

She won her first lifetime start, a maiden special weight 3 1/2 furlong dash at Hastings, and from there went on a tear, winning her next start, the My Dear Stakes, at Woodbine and finishing second in two follow-up stakes in Toronto.

Dancing Allstar then returned to Hastings, where she won three straight stakes, including the Sadie Diamond Futurity. Four stakes wins and two runner-up finishes earned her a coveted Sovereign Award as Canada’s top two-year-old filly of 2007.

Only six other BC-breds have won the Sovereign Award: George Royal, Travelling Victor, Avant’s Gold, Free Vacation, Tribal Belle and Strait of Dover.

Dancing Allstar continued to run like a champion in 2008, starting the season by winning the Mount Royal Handicap at Stampede Park and then returning to Hastings to win the Emerald Downs and CTHS Sales stakes. She was ridden to victory in the latter two by an up-and-coming Hastings jockey named Mario Gutierrez

So, if you’re counting, that was eight wins and two seconds in Dancing Allstar’s first 10 lifetime starts.

A trip to Calder for the Azalea Stakes resulted in a third-place finish. She would win one more race in April 2009, the Whimsical Stakes at Woodbine. After two starts in 2010, she retired.

By Millenium Allstar out of High On Believein, Dancing Allstar was bred by Val Heibert of Bent Tree Farm. Her lifetime record: 19 starts, nine wins, three seconds and one third for earnings of $517,217. Not bad for a horse who liked to sleep with her head out the barn door.

In 1973 the Board of Directors of the British Columbia Thoroughbred Breeders' Society (B.C.T.B.S.) decided to establish the Appleby trophy to honour annually the breeder of the best horse bred in the province, regardless of where it had raced. It differs in several respects from the Vanderbilt trophy, which was inaugurated in 1965 and which honours the Horse of the Year at Hastings Park, then Exhibition Park. First, of course, it is restricted to horses bred in British Columbia; secondly, there is no requirement that the horse have run locally, though, of course, they have usually done so; and, thirdly, it was the breeder of the horse in question who received the trophy. (The owner of the Vanderbilt winner receives that trophy and in recent years the owner of the leading B.C.-bred has been presented the Appleby trophy.) Lyon H. Appleby was a distinguished Vancouver surgeon who was instrumental in founding the B.C. Racing Breeders' Society in 1938, and became its first president. The name of the organization was subsequently changed to the B.C. Thoroughbred Breeders' Society and, later still, to its present name, the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society (B.C. Division). Dr. Appleby bred many fine runners at his Running Horse Ranch near Kamloops and most raced in his colours including Cum Laude, who would undoubtedly have won for Dr. Appleby the trophy later established in his honour.

INFINITE PATIENCE...Vanderbilt Trophy: Horses of the Year Open:: Appleby Trophy: BC-Bred Horse of the Year:: Champion Open & BC-Bred Two-Year-Old Filly, Champion Sprinter

INFINITE PATIENCE provided one of those “I was there” moments when the two-year-old filly made her racetrack debut, sauntering home by more than nine lengths in a Maiden Special Weight that proved no more than a tantalizing taste of what was to come. Trained by Barbara Heads, the SUNGOLD filly ended the season undefeated in five starts, including four Stakes contests that culminated in another impressive display of domination in the $75,000 Fantasy Stakes. Bred and owned, initially in her entirety, by William “Bill” DeCoursey, INFINITE PATIENCE was head and shoulders above anyone else in her division and was subsequently crowned British Columbia Horse of the Year at the annual BC Turf Awards in December. The top award was underpinned with inevitable awards for BC-bred Horse of the Year and Champion Two-Year-Old Filly in both the BC-bred and Open categories, as well as Champion Sprinter. Partially sold during the season to National Hockey League player Ryan Nugent-Hopkins, INFINITE PATIENCE earned her connections $158,436 in prize-money. By the BC-based A. P. Indy stallion, SUNGOLD (who was 2019 Sire of the Year), INFINITE PATIENCE is out of DeCoursey’s stakes-winning racemare Montero (voted 2019 BC Broodmare of the Year) and is therefore a half-sister to the multiple stakes winner, RAIDER. Offered for sale as a yearling at the annual CTHS BC auction, DeCoursey bought back Infinite Patience for $36,000. His faith has been repaid in style. Pictured (back row left to right): Ashley Lawrence, William DeCoursey, Ashley Martin, Roger Hopkins (front row left to right) Barb Heads, Petra Janzen, Noi DeCoursey

SUNGOLD...Champion Sire & Champion Juvenile Sire

It seems strange to describe SUNGOLD as having a “breakout” season in 2019. After all, he has had nine crops and already sired some cracking runners such as STRATE REMARK and SAILINGFORTHE SUN. However, last season, barely a week seemed to pass without Lois and “R.J.” Bennett’s son of A. P. Indy being represented by another winner and, in Horse of the Year INFINITE PATIENCE and black type winners SUNBURST, SYNERGY and SANGRIA, he announced himself as a stallion of real merit in the province. SUNGOLD finished in 13th on the general list of sires in Canada in 2019 with 11 winners from 22 runners. On the sires of two-year-olds list he finished in an impressive fourth place nationally, the money earned by his four winners putting him ahead of names such as SOUPER SPEEDY, and SILENT NAME. Standing at Bennett’s Flying Horse Farm in beautiful West Kelowna for a 2020 fee of $3,000, he seems certain to generate headlines for years yet to come. Pictured (left to right): Lois and R.J. Bennett

AWARDS & HONOURS

MONTERO...Broodmare of the Year

As the dam of Horse of the Year INFINITE PATIENCE, Red Rock Farm's MONTERO was a predictable choice for Broodmare honors, but no less deserving for all that. The daughter of Louis Quatorze, who raced for INFINITE PATIENCE'S owner/breeder Bill DeCoursey, counted the Listed Wild Rose Handicap at Northlands Park among an 11-win career that hauled in around $205,000 in purse money. Prior to INFINITE PATIENCE, MONTERO was already the dam of multiple stakes winner RAIDER (Stephanotis) who has won seven stakes and over $238,000. MONTERO is steeped in Canadian history and her dam, Tabola (Round Table), was a Winfields Farm mare who produced Queen's Plate winner SON OF BRIARTIC.

R.J. AND LOIS BENNETT...Leading Breeders

The always popular "R. J." and Lois Bennett enjoyed a banner year in 2019, having the racing game completely surrounded with their leading sire, SUNGOLD, a huge influence on the entire season, not least on a trio of homebred performers of their own in SUNBURST, SYNERGY and SANGRIA. SOPHIE SOLEIL also enjoyed a promising first campaign under the tutelage of Barb Heads – who guides the careers of the Bennetts' home team with such skill. Their 14 wins, 15 seconds and 13 third-place finishes earned more than $330,000 in prize-money but, more than pure numbers, the Bennetts continue to set the high-water mark of what is possible for breeders in the Province. Pictured (left to right): Lois and R.J. Bennett

NORTH AMERICAN THOROUGHBRED HORSE COMPANY, INC. ...Leading Owner

Glen Todd won his third consecutive title when he became leading owner again in 2019. His North American Thoroughbred Horse Company (NATHC) won 25 races, with seven of those coming in stakes contests. There were plenty of highlights, but he will remember B C Derby Day for some time as his distinctive checkerboard silks were carried to memorable wins in three of the four available stakes races. The improving filly AMAZONIAN landed the Oaks to get the NATHC afternoon off to a terrific start before Todd's FIVE STAR GENERAL took the $250,000 Derby in a nail-biting finish, the Distorted Humor colt just out-nodding Canadian Derby winner EXPLODE at the line. Barely had the back-slapping ended before connections were again in the winner's circle to greet, HE'S THE REASON after his win in the S W Randall Plate. But these are just the facts of Todd's title-winning season as an owner. As every year, his behind-the-scenes contribution to the running of racing in Vancouver remains incalculable and it is fair to say that without his support in so many areas of the sport's management, there would be no racing in Vancouver. Pictured: Glen Todd

PHIL HALL... Leading Trainer

Phil Hall's amazing 2019 season began with two Stakes victories on the opening weekend (with SUMMERLAND in the Ross McLeod and GOOD LUCK TO YOU in the Brighthouse Belles), setting a pace and tone that barely let up all year. Hall, with the help of his daughter and assistant Sarah, saddled the winners of 53 races, including 11 in stakes competition on the way to a third consecutive Leading Trainer title. Vivaly supported by powerful owners such as Peter Redekop and George Gilbert, the likes of the aforementioned GOOD LUCK TO YOU and SUMMERLAND flew the Hall barn's flag with distinction, along with the dual CTHS Sales Stakes winner, ABOVE THE MOON, Spaghetti Mouse heroine CATCHACOUGAR and B C Cup Nursery winner AT ATTENTION. His work with the recalcitrant BEAR will have given as much pleasure as any, however. Bought cheaply at the beginning of year, he guided the "quirky" filly from an $8,000 claimer win in May to the heights of a Delta Colleen Stakes victory over HERE'S HANNAH in September. Pictured: Phil Hall

AWARDS & HONOURS

R.J. AND LOIS BENNETT...Jack Diamond Futurity Winning Breeders

The major beneficiary of an incident he had nothing whatsoever to do with, SYNERGY was awarded the Marsh and McLellan Trophy for the Jack Diamond Futurity Stakes. In the Stewards' Room after the winner on merit, BAKTURA, was found guilty of serious interference heading towards the clubhouse turn. The Bennetts enjoyed a banner year with their home-breds and with top-class runners by their stallion, SUNGOLD and were also the Leading Breeders of 2019. Pictured (left to right): Lois and R.J. Bennett

WILLIAM DECOURSEY...Sadie Diamond Winning Breeder

It was no surprise that the Equine Insurance Underwriters Trophy for the breeder of the Sadie Diamond Futurity went to William DeCoursey and the dam MONTERO. What a year for the DeCourseys to have bred such a star as INFINITE PATIENCE. Pictured (left to right): Noi and William DeCoursey

CAPILANO CANYON...Champion Open & BC-Bred Two-Year-Old Colt or Gelding-

CAPILANO CANYON romped away with his maiden special weight like a horse with a big future back in June, but an injury kept the son of the late Washington sire Abraaj out of action for a few weeks and, despite two cracking second-place finishes in the CTHS Sales Stakes and the Jack Diamond, we didn't see him at his best until he was eventually stepped up in distance in the Ascot Graduation. The extra distance proved a revelation for Dr. Karl Chan, Forster Stable and Cameron Hill Mortgages, Ltd. The youngster stalked SYNERGY and BAKTURA before sweeping by in the style of a horse for whom future dates with big races surely await. AWARDS & HONOURS

FIVE STAR GENERAL...Champion Open Three-Year-Old Colt or Gelding

Owner/trainer Glen Todd bought FIVE STAR GENERAL out of the Fasig-Tipton Sale as a horse-in-training with the B C Derby in mind, and seldom can a plan have worked out so well. Although it was close at the end with the Distorted Humor colt, ably partnered by Mario Gutierrez, just finding a way to be in front at the line despite pulling hard early on. Prior to the Derby, FIVE STAR GENERAL enjoyed a comfortable introduction to racing at Hastings winning the Sir Winston Churchill Derby Trial with relative ease. Before being purchased by Todd, the easy moving colt won a Black Type contest at Aqueduct as a two-year-old and was fourth in the Gr3 Jeff Ruby Steaks at Turfway Park last season, underlining a quality that should see him well suited to the best races at Hastings in 2020. Pictured: Glen Todd

AMAZONIAN...Champion Open Three-Year-Old Filly

The only real surprise about the lovely-looking filly AMAZONIAN was that it took until her fourth race to lose her maiden tag. Once she'd got the hang of things, however, the progressive daughter of Malibu Moon, who cost owner/trainer Glen Todd $50,000 as a yearling at the Keeneland September Sale, went from strength to strength. An allowance win followed the maiden victory and she then finished second to SUNBURST in the B C Hong Kong Jockey Club before reversing the places authoritatively in the Oaks. She lost little in defeat on her final race, finishing third in a career-best performance behind the year-older HERE'S HANNAH. There will almost certainly be more to come in 2020. Pictured: Glen Todd

SUNBURST...Champion BC-Bred Three-Year-Old Filly

SUNBURST is yet another promising Bennett homebred by their stallion, SUNGOLD. She beat a talented field of fillies to land the BC Cup Hong Kong Jockey Club Handicap Stakes in a good, old fashioned route, coming home more than seven lengths ahead of a chasing pack led by the talented AMAZONIAN. The tables were turned when the pair clashed the following month in the B C Oaks, although the three-year-old certainly went down fighting to the Malibu Moon filly. In what was a compulsive rivalry by the end of the season, SUNBURST again got her head in front of AMAZONIAN in the Gr 3 Ballerina Stakes, albeit in the minor places behind the year-older HERE'S HANNAH. The Ballerina represented another improvement on what had gone before and she looks like a filly to remain on the right side of next season. Pictured (left to right): Lois and R.J. Bennett

AWARDS & HONOURS

HE'S THE REASON...Champion Older Male Open Division

With three wins from six starts in 2019, HE'S THE REASON finally got his mojo working in landing the Lt. Governor's Handicap. Then, after finishing second in the BC Cup Classic, pressing the winner CALGARY CAPER all the way, he took the S.W. Randall Plate Handicap from BRAVE NATION in what must go down as a career high performance. Glen Todd and his team have kept their faith in the four-year-old son of The Factor and it was good to see him repay that faith handsomely, not to mention the $50,000 he cost as a Keeneland September yearling back in 2016. Pictured: Glen Todd

SLEW'S DA BOSS...Champion Older Male BC-Bred Division

The Mel Snow-trained SLEW'S DA BOSS cost his trainer just $6,500 as a CTHS yearling and, since then, the son of Cause to Believe has hit the board ten times from 18 starts earning his owners, Snow, Doug Corsan and Len Houweling, more than $80,000 in the process. The four-year-old's win in the colt/gelding division of the $50,000 CTHS Sales Stakes race back in August also proved something of a catharsis, or at least for trainer and owners, as the horse stumbled exiting the gate on his previous appearance, ejecting his rider Alex Marti into the Hastings' dirt in the process. However, the horse clearly suffered no ill effects from the previous mishap and looked in terrific shape when he scooted up the rail from a stalking position under Antonio Reyes and quickly put daylight between himself and the long-time leader, EUROPEAN. Pictured (left to right): Mel Snow & Len Houweling

HERE'S HANNAH...Champion Older Filly/Mare Open and BC-Bred Divisions

Some racegoers thought HERE'S HANNAH's powers may have been waning in 2019. They really should have known better. Continuing in the all-conquering style that saw her crowned 2018 Horse of the Year in both the BC-bred & Open Divisions, Champion Three-Year-Old Filly in both categories, the daughter of NUMAANY again proved worthy of her star billing, taking five stakes wins in 2019 and increasing her lifetime earnings to $502,350 for her lucky owners B C Stables and trainer John Morrison. With Richard Hamel aboard, HERE'S HANNAH won the Ballerina, B C Cup Distaff, the Monashee, the Strawberry Morn and the Vancouver Sun and has now tasted defeat only twice from 14 career starts. A second-place finish against BEAR in the Delta Colleen caused a minor ripple of shock, but she was weighted heavily that day and her rider blamed himself for allowing her too much freedom at the head of affairs – and, even in defeat, the big-hearted mare gave everything and went down by only a head. Pictured (left to right): Pat Bennett & Brenda Combs

AWARDS & HONOURS

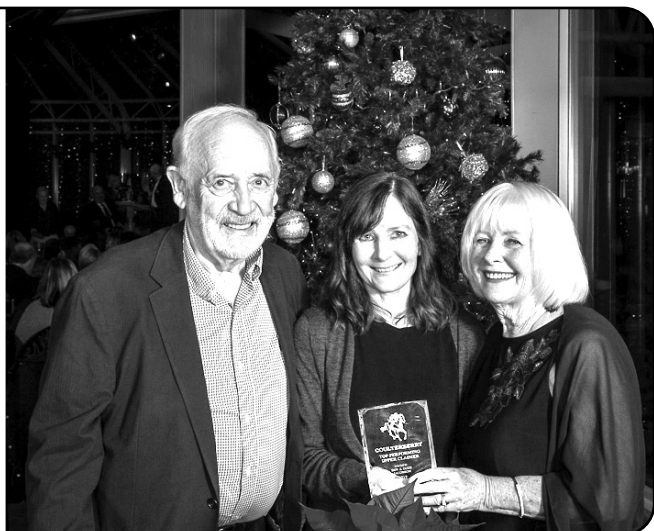

BEAR...Top Performing Lower Level Claimer (under $15,000)

BEAR proved to be one of the breakout horses of the 2019 Hastings season. The daughter of Super Saver was bought for just $3,000 by trainer Phil Hall and fellow owners Mort Hall and Praven Sorensen at the CTHS BC Horses of Racing Age Sale back in the spring. Despite being described as “quirky” by her handler, she continued to thrive on her racing throughout the season. BEAR progressed through the claiming ranks, eventually taking the runner-up spot behind HERE’S HANNAH in the Derby Bar & Grill B C Cup Distaff before going one better and lowering the colours of the former Horse of the Year HERE’S HANNAH in the black type Delta Colleen Stakes. A terrific testament to the handling skills of her champion trainer, BEAR provided the Hastings’ season with one of its best storylines. Pictured: (left to right) Praven Sorensen and Philip Hall

COULTERBERRY...Top Performing Upper Level Claimer (over

COULTERBERRY’S splendid win in the $50,000 Muckleshoot Tribal Classic at Emerald Downs capped another notable season for Roy and Dixie Jacobson’s consistent performer. Now a seven-year-old, the Mark Cloutier-trained son of FINALITY has been a magnificent servant to his owner/breeders and with the four races and two second-place finishes he garnered in 2019 took his total to ten wins, five seconds and three thirds from 25 starts. He has now accumulated more than $157,000 in prize-money, although the revenue must now surely be irrelevant to connections who consider their Upper Level Claimer of the Year a part of the family. Pictured: (left to right) Roy Jacobson, Toni Cloutier, Dixie Jacobson

ENRIQUE GONZALEZ AND ANTONIO REYES...Leading Jockeys

The 2019 Leading Jockey title at Hastings was shared for the first time in modern history after Enrique Gonzalez and Antonio Reyes could not be separated. Each rider managed 57 wins with the race coming down to the final few races on the final day of the season - Reyes winning twice and Gonzalez bagging the three he required to draw even. It was a first title for the popular Reyes while Gonzales’ effort was notable for the time he missed earlier in the season. Both riders enjoyed some memorable partnerships during the season. Reyes teaming up with the magnificent Horse-of-the-Year INFINITE PATIENCE was a particular highlight while Gonzalez’s association with the all-powerful Phil Hall barn brought wins aboard the likes of SUMMERLAND, GOOD LUCK TO YOU and AWHITESPORTSCOAT. Pictured: (left to right) Enrique Gonzalez and Antonio Reyes

AWARDS & HONOURS

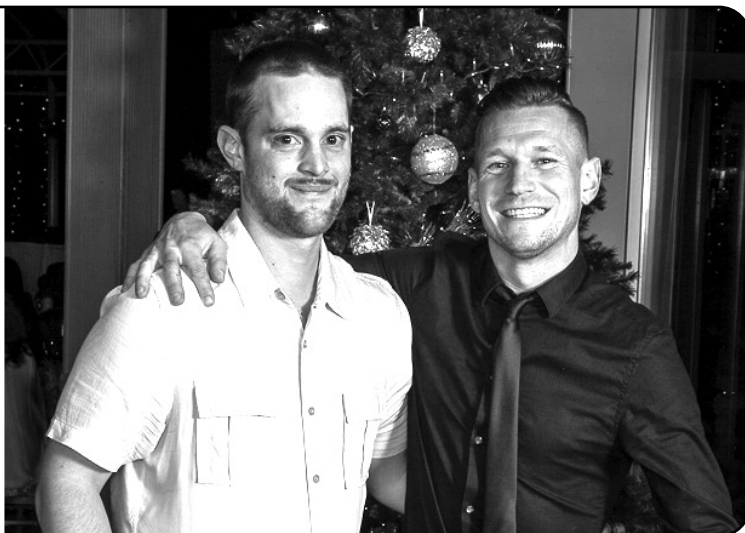

LENNY SEECHARAN...Leading Apprentice

For a second consecutive year the leading apprentice was 23-year-old Trinidadian Lenny Seecharan, who rode 18 winners as an apprentice before losing his “bug” and then won another two before the season was out to take him to 20 for the year. Jockeys traditionally find it tough going once their “bug” is ridden out but Lenny, one half of the twin “Seecharan brothers” with Learie, improved noticeably throughout the season and looks certain to be in demand again in 2020. Pictured: Lenny Seecharan

ROBBIE HENSON AND TYLER WALKER...Richard Yates Backstretch Person of the Year Award

It was very fitting that the first Richard Yates Backstretch Person of the Year Award was won by two young men who were raised on the backstretch and now they are both valets and exercise riders. Tyler’s father, Mark Walker who was a popular jockey taught his son well. Tyler rode for several years in B.C. (even against his father) the prairies and in the Western states before his weight was a problem for his 5-foot 10 frame. Robbie also grew up on the backstretch helping his dad, long-time trainer and HBPA Director Steve Henson. Robbie was taught how to exercise the horses by Hall of Fame jockey, Chris Loseth. Both Robbie and Tyler are such an asset to our track, they are always there assisting in the paddock, track, or backstretch if there is a problem. Congratulations to both Robbie and Tyler—they make our track a safer place. Pictured: (left to right) Robbie Henson and Tyler Walker

HELEN KLIMES ...CTHS Breeders Ambassador Award

The Ambassador Award is given to a CTHS member for outstanding service and dedication to the Thoroughbred industry. This certainly describes Helen Klimes. For 34 years she has been a devoted CTHS member. Born and raised in Czechoslovakia, Helen learned about Thoroughbreds early as her father was involved with Thoroughbreds through breeding and racing. He taught his daughter well. She has always been a willing source of knowledge for anyone who asks. No question is too trivial. Helen has a special touch with orphan foals. At Helen and Frank’s Kelowna farm you will find Thoroughbreds of various ages and two stallions, Alybro (age 28) and Storm Victory (age 18). “Frank is a wonderful help and is always there for me” says Helen. They raised their two daughters Petra and Gabby on the farm, and Petra jokingly says that her dad enables her mom. This is a family that enjoys laughter. Helen’s lifelong commitment to the Thoroughbred industry has helped us all. Thank you Helen. Pictured: Helen Klimes

AWARDS & HONOURS

GAY & HENRY FORSTBAUER AND PETER REDEKOP B. C., LTD. . . CTHS 50-year consecutive members

After working at the track, Gay and Henry moved to Fort Steele and bought their first broodmare, FALSE CREEK, from Maynard Edwards in 1966 for their first venture as breeders. She produced the colt NEILY SCHMIDT who sold in the 1968 sale for $2500. He went on to race for eleven years! His consistency and durability were traits that were admired in the Forstbauer-bred horses. A couple of their favorites were RAINBOWSINTHEWOOD and THESEFOOLISHTHINGS. Gay and Henry always enjoyed their time coming down to the sale and visiting with their old friends from the track.

Peter Redekop's love affair with horseracing at Hastings began in 1968 and in the intervening 50+ years he has become one of British Columbia's most important owners, not just in the province, but as his success has spilled over into top-class racing further afield. The past two years, the real estate magnate has seen his distinctive fuchsia-coloured silks carried by horses on the Kentucky Derby trail (ANOTHER TWISTAFATE and ANNEAU D'OR), and his influence on the careers of the trainers he supports remains an important ingredient in their own successes. In 2019, Redekop donated $100,000 to boost the B C Derby purse and this was both a remarkable gesture, while simultaneously being completely typical of his character. With some 50 horses, including breeding stock, in his ownership he will hopefully continue to achieve the success such commitment and generosity deserves.

LUNA LOCA (REGISTERED AS CAPABLE DE TOUT) . . . CTHS Award for BC-Bred Off-Track-Thoroughbred

The CTHS Award for the most notable Off-Track Thoroughbred is an important prize. It not only recognizes the magnificent work done by those people associated with the winning horse, but also helps to shine a light on the wider work that so many talented people do to ensure that our four-legged friends live fulfilling lives, regardless of their racetrack prowess. The winner of the 2019 award was LUNA LOCA. Originally named CAPABLE DE TOUT (which when translated means Capable of Anything), the grey ran just three times for owner/breeder Pat Vai Sam. However, since that brief and inauspicious racing career, and now a fine 20-year-old mare named LUNA LOCA, she has become an enthusiastic and regular winner in various jumping classes for owner Alexandra Reimer and her rider in 2019, Vanessa Waugh. Pictured (left to right): Vanessa Waugh (rider), Louise Crooks (trainer) and Alexandra Reimer (owner)

British Columbia Breeders Awards

BREEDERS AWARD PROGRAM

Broodmares - Received 16.5% BAP Award on 2019 Eligible Earnings

Stallions - Received 11% BAP Award on 2019 Eligible Earnings

It pays to own a BC-bred!

Effective with foals of 2012, to be eligible for Breeders Awards Program "BAP" awards, all horses must be BC-bred, registered with the Jockey Club and with the CTHS National Office prior to the horse running its first race. BC-bred foals prior to 2012 that have or have not been racing and are not Canadian registered will not be eligible to receive BAP awards until all the Canadian requirements have been met. Awards will only be payable effective from the date the horse is registered with the CTHS National Office as a Canadian-bred and will not be paid retroactive.

As of January 1, 2018, all recipients of the BAP awards must be a member of the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society for the entire racing year that the awards were earned.

B.C. STALLIONS

Records of Stallions that serviced mares in British Columbia up to and including 2016 and or with progeny that started in British Columbia in 2019. Deceased, retired or relocated Stallions will be considered a B.C. Sire for these records until their crop of B.C. conceived foals have raced as two-year-olds.

2019

British Columbia Sire Records

Records of Stallions that serviced mares in British Columbia up to and including 2015 and or with progeny that started in British Columbia in 2019. Deceased, retired or relocated Stallions will be considered a B.C. Sire for these records until their crop of B.C. conceived foals have raced as two-year-olds.

The following symbols are used in this section:

W - Winners; PL - Placed; UN - Unplaced;

A plus (+) before the name of the horse indicates the horse won as a two-year-old.

A (SW) before a horse's name indicates that the horse won a stakes race; and (SP) indicates that the horse was second or third in a stakes race.

Earnings are total earnings through December 31, 2017 unless otherwise indicated.

Statistics are provided by THE JOCKEY CLUB INFORMATION SYSTEMS, Lexington, Kentucky.
