STEVENS

The Stevens name, which began in the 11th Century in England, now ranks 61st among the most common names in the United States.

This name derived from Saint Stephen, the first Christian martyr of the New Testament. In addition, all of the following names have stemmed from Stephen; Stevens, Stephens, Stevenson, Stimson, Stepkin, and Stebbing.

The name first appeared as a surname in the Domesday Book of 1066 for William the Conquer, when the entry was spelled Stefanus. Although the name was mainly confined to England in its early stages of usage.

As early as 1472 an Alexander Stevens was a tenant at Glenboy Scotland. Later in 1634 a Robert Stevens sailed from London, England and arrived in New England where he followed the trade of a sawyer, splitting and sawing timber.

By the time of the American Revolution there are numerous Stevens residing in America and participating in the Revolution. Many of their descendants are now enjoying membership in the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

There are at least seven coat-of-arms that have been granted to Stevens families by the Crown of England. There are Stevens families residing in every State of the Union today but there is very little evidence that they came from a common ancestor.

STEVENS COAT-OF-ARMS

The Coat-of arms illustrated here is one of antique origin. It shows a shield divided in two with the top part blue and the bottom portion silver. On the blue section are two falcons' wings colored gold. There is no authentic record to connect our Stevens with this.

DEDICATION

This genealogy of the STEVENS and the ANDERSON families is the culmination of many years effort to bring together the record left by our ancestors.

Most of those found listed herein were farmers whose official records are contained in occasional land transactions, probate court estate records or marriage license applications. In the shady knolls of rural America, those left behind have erected simple stone markers in loving memory of the deceased.

This research was not undertaken to locate a connection with those in high places in some bit of dim historical past. Rather, it was occasioned by our two childrens curocity and by our desire to bring to them their proud heritage of being part of the founding of this country.

This book is therefore DEDICATED to our two children:

MYRNA STEVENS GREEN

WILBUR NORRIS STEVENS, JR.

With much love and affection.....

Mom & Dad

It is our desire that others will continue this search in order to pass along to those who follow a more complete account of those who preceeded us.

PREFACE

This book represents my first effort at organizing family material that has been collected by others over a period of time and that covers two separate families.

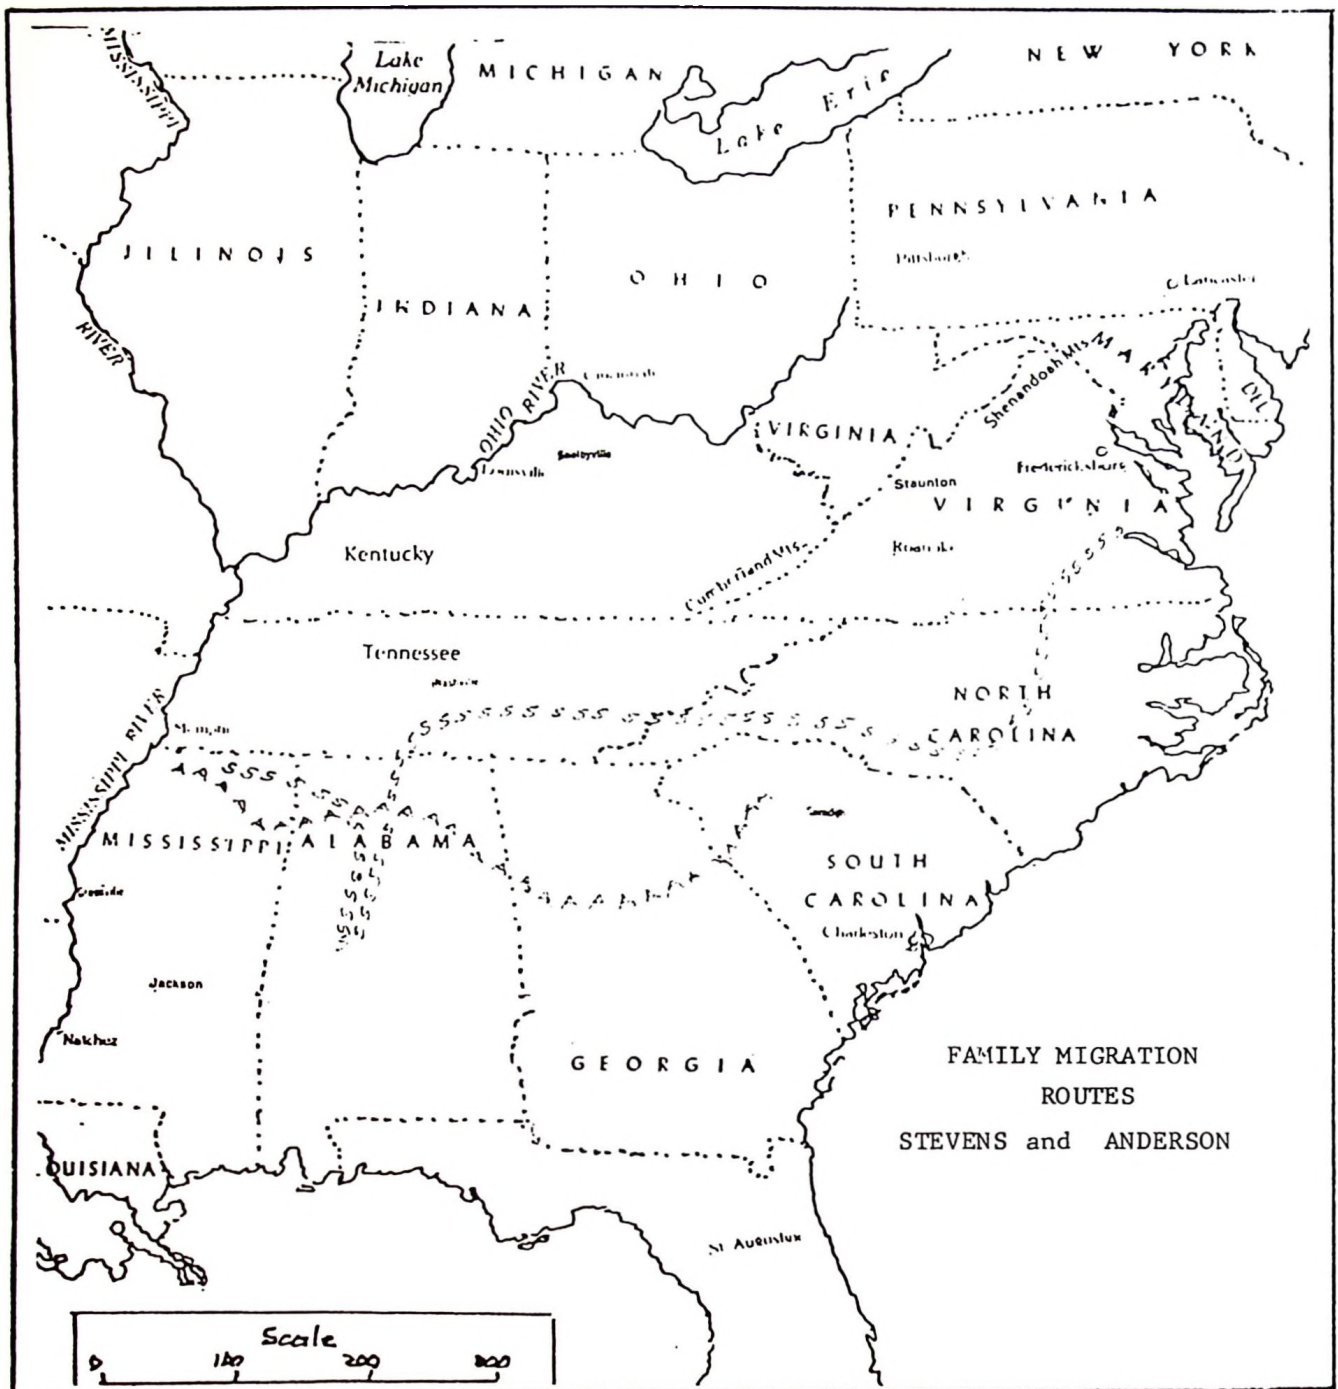

While I am not altogether disappointed in the results, I wish that I had been able to do more research to establish a time, place, and a name of the first in America for each of these families. In addition the forms which I use for recording each family has space at the lower portion to record personal data about the family. This data always presents a problem....people hesitate to list their accomplishments for fear of being considered boastful. I hope that those of you who have a copy of this work will write out in long hand some of the things you have been told or have experienced about these families. Future generations will be grateful to you for it.

The forms used and the numbering system of each individual are my design. I feel they (along with my family charts) make it easy to see relationships and to gain a closer appreciation for relatives that have moved some distance away yet have a closer connection than some cousins that are encountered more frequently.

I appreciate the desire of Wilbur and Geraldine Stevens to publish this bit of family history. Someone has aptly said that each generation gains a better view of the World, because they stand upon the shoulders of those who have gone before. By recording the lives of these families future generations can gain a better appreciation of their heritage.

I wish there were no errors of spelling, typing, structure, grammar or accuracy, but I beg the reader to overlook these faults of mine and to use this as a base for an even better record.

THE NUMBERING SYSTEM

The first Stevens and Anderson family in the United States that is listed herein, has been assigned Roman numeral I. His children (in the order listed) become the second generation and would carry number I - II. To distinguish each individual, his numerical order would be placed slightly higher in Arabic numbers. Thus William Stevens fourth son, Edward, would be assigned I - II⁴, and his son, Jacob, would become I - II⁴ - III³.

The Last Will of Edward Stevens was written 19 October, 1751 and was filed in December, 1751 in Johnston County, NC. To son, Ephraim he gave 200 acres of land, a feather bed and furniture thereto, and a division from the sale of his "flock" and other items of value. Son Edmund was to receive two farms. One with seventy-five acres and the other with 120 acres. He was to receive a feather bed and share of other proceeds. Son, Jacob, was to receive the 'home place' of 175 acres, a feather bed with furniture, the copper "still cap & worm" plus a share of the proceeds. Daughters, Patience and Sarah were to receive 60 pounds of Virginia Currency each and a share of the cash proceeds. Daughter, Morning was to receive 20 pounds of Virginis currency. His wife, Ann, was to receive the labor of all his slaves during her life. At her demise the slaves were to be divided among the sons.

Rachel Stevens (relation unknown) certified that she saw the will signed by Edward Stevens. Son, Ephraim was qualified as Executor of the Estate.

NOTES
CONCERNING THE ANCESTORS OF BELINDA JERNIGAN

Lillian Jernigan Worley published her research into the Jernigan Family in 1971. It is titled, "JERNIGAN REUNION". This complete work traces the line, unbroken, to Sir Robert Jerningham, Captain of Newnham Bridge, at the time of King Henry The Eighth.

Belinda Jernigan was the daughter of Henry Jernigan (ca. 1710-1783) and his wife Ann _____. Cary, Jasper, Lewis and Jacob were her brothers and Elizabeth and Jemima were her sisters. Belinda was married twice; first to Jacob Stevens, d.1781, secondly to Abraham Gamalean. She died in 1796. The parents of Henry Jernigan (ca. 1710-1783) were Henry (ca. 1685-1736) and Phebe _____. This family removed to Bertie County, Virginia where their will is recorded.

The parents of Henry (ca.1685-1736) and Phebe Jernigan were Thomas, Jr. (ca.1652-). His wife's name is unknown. The family lived in Nansemond County, Virginia and he owned land in Chowan Precinct, North Carolina.

The emigrant ancestor was named Thomas Jernigan (ca.1614-) and wife Sarah. He came to America in 1635 aboard the ship "Truelove" with 129 other passengers. Thomas was only 21 years of age at the time. In 1668 he was awarded a land grant of 250 acres in Nansemond County, Virginia.

The Last Will of Jacob Stevens was written the 7th of November, 1780. It was Probated in Johnston County, NC in February, 1781. He mentions his wife, Belinda and his six sons, Phillip, William, Henry, Edward, Jacob, and John. He made mention of his "copper still" in his will.

Belinda recorded a deed of gift to son, Whitley Stevens in 1786. This is recorded in Book P, page 31 in Johnston County, NC. Needham Whitley also had recorded a Deed of Gift to minor son, Whitley. This deed acknowledges Whitley Stevens to be the son of Jacob, Deceased, and Belinda Stevens. This is recorded Book I, page 23, Johnston County, NC.

CONCERNING THE ANCESTORS OF LUTITIA THWEATT

Lutitia Thweatt's grandfather, Thomas Thweatt (1778-1842) lived in the vicinity of Brownsville, Tennessee where he met and married Miss Elizabeth Powell Cavanaugh (1791-1864). They were life-time members of the Methodist Church. They removed to Ripley, Mississippi with their family. They are buried there. Their son, William was married two times. His first wife was named Mary Williams. She died early and is buried in Gibson County, Tennessee. His second wife was named Mary Jane Wilder and they were married in Gibson County, Tn. in 1842. They resided for a short time in Ripley, Miss. before removing to DeSoto County, Mississippi. William Cavanaugh Thweatt became the owner of six or seven sections of land (3,800 to 4,500 acres) in DeSoto County, Mississippi. To farm this amount of land required a large number of slaves.

There were five daughters and one son born to this union. Two of the daughters died at an early age. Sue married W. B. Speight and her only sister, Mattie married Alex Massey. Their son, William Cavanaugh Thweatt, Jr. married Ann Williams. Each of these children were believed to have been born in DeSoto County before the formation of Tate County.

There is evidence to believe that this line goes back to James, who was born in 1643 and was living in Prince George County, Virginia. He had one known son, James, II who married Judith Sloan in Henrico County, Virginia in 1701. To this union were born seven sons and three daughters. From this point there are several breaks in the Thweatt family line and that of Lutitia's grandfather Thomas above. Many of the descendants of children of James, II and wife Judith Sloan would have been the age of those who participated in the American Revolution. Additional data is needed on this line.

Julius Blackwell was 25 years old when he and Lutitia were married in the Greenleaf Methodist Church in Tate County, Mississippi. Julius was born and had lived all his life in the vicinity on Emery Church in Marshall County, Ms. He had learned the trade of a blacksmith and had become adapt at making all kinds of farm tools and at repairing farm machinery.

In 1873 the citizens of the lower part of DeSoto County (South of Coldwater River) petitioned to separate themselves from DeSoto and to create a new Tate County.

This family settled in Tate County and their children were born there.

Julius was killed by a train as he was walking along the railroad near the town of Capleville, Tennessee. He was brought back to his home church, Emery, between Ingram Mill and Watson for burial.

Son, Wilbur died in 1912 and that fall Carl married Esther Mae Morgan, a neighbor.

NOTES

CONCERNING THE ANCESTORS OF ESTHER MAY MORGAN

Esther Mae had ten brothers and sisters. There were four boys and six girls in her family. Her father was Robert Greer Morgan (1856-1932) and her mother was Nannie Moore (1859-1948). Robert Greer was a tall man, being six foot two inches in height and weighing two hundred forty pounds. He wore a moustache most of his adult life. He was a methodist and regularly attended Greenleaf church in Tate County, Miss. He was an excellent fisherman and he frequently set out 'hooks' in the Coldwater River that ran across one corner of his 160 acre farm.

Once Robert Greer purchased a registered "Jack" from Mr. Mack Banks of Hernando in 1889 for $450.00 cash. He advertised this "stud" named "Grey Eagle". His fee was $10.00 at his farm 2 miles South of the "Steam Mill Bridge" on the Coldwater River.

Nannie Moore had two sisters and two brothers in her family. Ellen married Pierce Bailey, and sister Laura married James Craddock. Willie, one of her brothers, moved to Louisiana, and Armstead became a methodist minister.

Esther May's grandparents were Joseph Smith Morgan (1804-1858) and Clarissa Agnes Stone (1825-1879). They were the parents of four sons and two daughters. They are buried in the Morgan Cemetery in DeSoto County, Mississippi.

Her great-grandparents were Isaac Morgan (1757-1839) and Judith Smith (1769-1841). They came from Fauquier County, Virginia to Cotton Gin Port, on the Tombigbee River, in Monroe County, Mississippi. Isaac was a private in the Continental Line of North Carolina during the American Revolution. For this service he received 640 acres on the South side of the Cumberland River on 20 May, 1793 in what is now the State of Tenn.

Although Carl and Esther lived less than three miles apart, they did not get married until Carl was 33 years of age.

The families first home was with Carl's parents. By 1920 there were four children in the young family and Carl decided to move to Cabot, Arkansas. There he rented a general mercantile store that had a real soda fountain. Unfortunately, this venture did not prove successful and the family moved to Whitehaven, Tennessee where Carl operated a dairy.

After a few years in the dairy business, Carl returned to his first love, farming, and he rented a small place from Mr. Ernest Mosby. This place was located on the east side of old highway #51 which is not called Elvis Presley Boulevard. After several years at this location, urban development of the area caused the family to return to the William Cavanaugh Threatt place in Tate County, Miss.

After several years of renting the place, Carl bought 80 acres. Earl F. Mosby of Hernando loaned him the money to make the purchase. The price was $3,000.00 and the terms were $2,000.00 down and $100.00 a year.

By 1936 Carl's economic situation had improved to the point that he could secure a "share-hand" to help out and to allow him more time to buy and sell cattle and cows.

Wilbur was graduated from the Olive Branch Schools in DeSoto County, Miss. in 1933. He joined the CCC soon after graduating. He was sent to Savannah, Tennessee. They built roads, fire towers, and rural telephone lines. This program of work was established under President Franklin Roosevelt to provide meaningful work and to reduce unemployment.

By 1935, Wilbur had secured employment locally selling meat wholesale. In a short time he began butchering and selling for himself. By the Fall of 1937 Wilbur was doing well enough that he and Geraldine Anderson were married.

In January, 1942 America was into WWII. Wilbur joined the Air Corps. He trained in South Carolina and became a Bombardeed. He was assigned to the South Pacific area. In 1948 He was transfered to the U.S.Air FORCE RESERVE as a Major. He continued his reserve status until 1975, being retired a Lt. Colonel.

Between 1948 and 1950 Wilbur farmed near Hernando, Miss. He became an Agent for Business Men's Assurance Co. of Kansas City, Missouri. He became a specialist in coverage for dairy farmers in the states of Miss., Tenn., Ky., and Alabama. He has earned the coveted insurance designation, "C.L.U." in 1975.

The family belongs to the Bakers Chapel Church in DeSoto County and they are very active in this church.

Family personal data

Zelphia is referred to as Zilphia Stevens in the division of the estate of David Cogdell, Wayne Co., N.C. Book 10 page 360 dated August, 1803. She inherited 223½ acres and 27½ acres in Wayne County, N.C. She also received 6 slaves.

In 1834, when he was about 54 years of age, William entered into a contract with John Haywood, Lewis and Narcissa Ann in which he gave them his last slaves with the understanding that each of them would assume responsibility for one third of the expense of the support of his wife and himself. In 1838 John H. took over those slaves assigned to Lewis and he assumed Lewis share for upkeep or his parents. These agreements state that William has previously provided for his other children's inheritance. These agreements are recorded in Deed Book L, pages 167-169; Book D, page 394; Book G, pages 52-53; Book G, page 295; Book I, page 12; and Book J, page 495. All in Fayette County, Tennessee.

William Stevens sold 21 acres to Daniel A. Warren in Fayette Co., Tn. on 8 August, 1856. Deed Book V, page 279, Fayette Co., Tn.

William Stevens transferred land to David, Henry and Harriot Oates in Johnston Co., N.C. in 1824, 25, and 26 in County Court Minutes. He was Justice of Peace, 1823.

David moved to Fayette County, Tennessee about 1830. He was a farmer. While working in the field on a hot summer day, he suffered a heat stroke and died. He was not yet thirty years of age.

Sarah was granted one years allowance for her sustanance according to Minute Book A, page 5 of Fayette County, Tn. On page 188 of the same book, a Willie Fitzgerald was appointed guardian of William Henry, David and Thomas Stevens, minor orphans of David Stevens, deceased. Deed Book L of Fayette Co. dated 8 Feb., 1837 records heirs of David Stevens bought a plot, 156½ acres, from N. Ingram for $815.00 cash. Sarah married William Sasser second.

Both David & Thomas were soldiers in the Civil War and they served with the Union Forces. Thomas was an officer and he moved to Arkansas after the war. David is said to have died from desease he contacted during the hostilities.

Henry was left in rather poor circumstances after the Civil War. He was not able to attend school beyond that offered locally in Warsaw, N.C. He "read law" under Rev. J. N. Staylings of Warsaw and he was admitted to the bar of N.C. on 7 June, 1881. He was a Democrat, a Presbyterian, a Mason and an Odd Fellow. He served on the Warsaw School Board for many years as a Trustee. He helped to organize the Bank of Warsaw and served as its President. His father was French Huguenot. His mother was descended from the Walkers of Revolutionary War fame in North Carolina.

Both sons followed the legal profession and Henry, Jr. attended Harvard Law School.

There are two deeds of Gift recorded in Johnston County, NC., which are referred to in the personal history of Jacob & Belinda Stevens. These deeds clearly establish that Whitley was the son of Jacob & Belinda Stevens.

Whitley was a 'Patroller'. He purchased land in 1811 in Sampson County, and was married about thistime to Sally King, daughter of Michael King.

It is assumed that his first wife Betsy died prior to the 1811 date.

John Stevens died early leaving small children. Thomas P. Devereux was appointed administrator of the estate in May, 1819 and three months later John Williams was appointed guardian to the above children.

Sophia's husband, Adin Robert was listed as a carpenter in Sampson Co. in the 1850 Census, p.411 Northern District

Louisa died early after giving birth to several children. Her husband Willis Cole married (2nd) Mary Flowers. Louisa's son Willis married his 1st cousin Sally Caroline Stevens, daughter of Henry Stevens. Sally Caroline had married previously to John Cogdell who died. During the Civil War, Sally lived in the Cole House which was caught in the middle of the Battle of Bentonville. The home was destroyed during the battle.

Daughter, Emily Charlotte married her cousin, Needham Stevens. See chart I - II⁴ - III³ - IV⁹ - V¹.

The name of Anderson is of Scanainavian origin most likely, and its etymological background comes from the language of that country. Today, those who bear the name are more often than not of English, Scotch, or Irish descent. Remote Anderson ancestors must have come to Britain with the Danes. They probably settled on the Eastern Scotish coast and in the Sutherland in Northern Scotland.

This name is now fairly common throughout Scotland. Literally the name means "son of Andrew". In the Highlands of Scotland it is rendered MacAndrew while in the Lowlands it is Anderson.

The Kinrara manuscript of Scotland claims that the MacAndrews came to Badenoch from Moidart about 1400. At that time they were listed as a sept of the Clan Chatten.

Many Andersons served in the American Revolutionary War, and the 1790 Census records include a considerable number of Anderson in America.

A Coat-of-arms was granted the Andersons by Edward VI. Although this emblem is used by the various branches of people bearing the Anderson name, there is very little evidence of continuity of connection between the many branches of this family.

family personal data

The first known reference to James Anderson is found in DB 1, page 304 Cumberland Co., Va. dated 1 March, 1747. It is for the transfer of 500 acres. By 1753, James Anderson and wife, Margaret sold land in Lunenburg Co., Va. to George Clarke. James sold 150 acres of land in Lunenburg Co. to his son William Anderson. This is recorded in DB 5, page 205, dated 4 April, 1758.

About 1768 James moved from Lunenburg County, Virginia to the old Ninth-Six District of South Carolina. In 1768 James received a precept for 250 acres of land in Berkley County, SC. This was certified 20 March, 1768. James's children married his neighbors sons and daughters from this location.

After the American Revolution, James and his sons received additional land grants in Laurens County, SC.

The will of James Anderson is filed in Box 105, Pack 2588 in the Court House in Abbeville, SC.

NOTES

CONCERNING ANCESTORS OF TALLULAH LAUDERDALE

Tallulah's parents were Abner Lee Lauderdale (1861-) and Georgia Meriwether (daughter of Henry White and Sarah Frances (Payne) Meriwether. She had three sisters and one brother, Henry Lee Lauderdale who married Vernor Vaiden.

Her paternal grandparents were Abner D. Lauderdale (1825-1906) and M. Emily Tillman (1836-) who had four children, Sarah, Martha, Abner Lee, and Captain Jack. Abner D. Lauderdale was a medical doctor who came to DeSoto County from Limestone County, Alabama. Both he and his wife are buried in DeSoto County, Miss.

Tallulah's paternal great grandparents were John Gammel Lauderdale (1798-1872) and Penelope Nichols (1806-1882). They were the parents of eleven children. John Gammel was born in the Pendleton District of South Carolina. He was married in 1824 in Limestone County, Alabama, moved to Giles County, Tennessee in 1836, back to Limestone County in 1841, and settled in DeSoto County, Mississippi in 1846.

John Lauderdale (1745-) and Milbury Maulden (1760) were the parents of four children, John Gammel, James, Josiah M. and Sarah. This family resided in Virginia.

The emigrant ancestor was named Lt. Colonel James Maitland Lauderdale (1690/95-1804). The name of his wife has been lost over time. They were the parents of ten children. He came to America in 1714.

The Lauderdale family has a distinguished history in Scotland and in America.

Rodger was graduated from Olive Branch School System in 1972. That fall he enrolled at Northwest Junior College at Senatobia. He attained an outstanding record as a football player. He continued his education at Southeast Missouri where he also played football.

In 1977 he worked for United Van Lines, moving families from coast to coast. He now works for Bryce Corp. as a truck driver. His hobbies include hunting and fishing and caring for cattle.

Tallulah was graduated from Hernando School System. She was active in 4-H, and was elected 4-H Queen. She was in the Hernando School Band and was the Drum Major.

Tallulah worked in banks in Hernando and in Olive Branch before going into business for herself operating Anderson's Country Market. She custom cuts beef for friends and caters meals for special functions. She is now employed as the office manager and bookkeeper for the Todd Equipment Co. of Hernando.

The family belong to the Baptist church, and Tallulah is active in the Garden Study Club and in the Colonial Dames 17th Century.

Daughter Martha Marie is soon to be age SIXTEEN. She is an A student in school and excels in both music and art. She has received the Leadership Award as well as a Special Award for High Achievements in Educational Development.

After marriage, Rodger and Tallulah learned that their great grandparents were brother and sister (Jonathan Milton Rodgers Anderson & Emily Bell Dona Anderson). This would make them 4th cousins according to my calculations.

Family personal data

Wilbur was graduated from the Olive Branch Schools in DeSoto County, Miss. in 1933. He joined the CCC soon after graduating. He was sent to Savannah, Tennessee. They built roads, fire towers, and rural telephone lines. This program of work was established under President Franklin Roosevelt to provide meaningful work and to reduce unemployment.

By 1935, Wilbur had secured employment locally selling meat wholesale. In a short time he began butchering and selling for himself. By the Fall of 1937 Wilbur was doing well enough that he and Geraldine Anderson were married.

In January, 1942 America was into WWII. Wilbur joined the Air Corps. He trained in South Carolina and became a Bombardeed. He was assigned to the South Pacific area. In 1948 He was transfered to the U.S. Air FORCE RESERVE as a Major. He continued his reserve status until 1975, being retired a Lt. Colonel.

Between 1948 and 1950 Wilbur farmed near Hernando, Miss. He became an Agent for Business Men's Assurance Co. of Kansas City, Missouri. He became a specialist in coverage for dairy farmers in the states of Miss., Tenn., Ky., and Alabama. He has earned the coveted insurance designation, "C.L.U." in 1975.

The family belongs to the Bakers Chapel Church in DeSoto County and they are very active in this church.

MISCELLANEOUS ANDERSON LISTING

This list of individuals and of families with the name of ANDERSON has been collected from Census lists, Wills, Cemeteries, and assorted other sources in North Mississippi.

After Andrew Anderson (page 122) died, his widow, Rebecca moved from Benton County, Alabama to North Mississippi. The descendants of these children have scattered and their relationship has been lost to time.

Mrs Geraldine Stevens wanted to place these names here with the hope that some reader might help he unravel the identity and relation if any, between those listed herein and these unidentified.

125 YEARS AGO

Oct. 20, 1844

FOR SALE, the plantation on which I now reside in DeSoto County, Mississippi. Favorable terms. Is on the road leading from Holly Springs to Hernando, 18 miles west of the former, 12 miles east of the latter, one mile east of Pigeon Roost Road leading from Memphis to Oxford, Miss. The tract is well situated, lies well for cotton, grain or stock farm. Contains a section and a half (960 acres). Combines advantages not usually found in this part of the country. Contains all buildings necessary for a large family. Four hundred acres now in the best state of cultivation. Nancy Anderson.

WE TALKED yesterday with a Mr. Anderson, a young gentleman from New York, on his way home from San Francisco. He left San Francisco on Nov. 25. It took him 74 days to reach the port of Valparaiso as his boat was becalmed for many days. He says the diggers at Valparaiso are all rich with gold dust and that there is room for 100,000 more diggers. He himself has $100,000 worth of gold which he has shipped from San Francisco to Boston.

LOST somewhere in Memphis: A soldier's land warrant drawn in favor of Nancy Anderson of DeSoto County, Mississippi, heir of Garland Anderson, deceased. Anyone finding it will be rewarded by bringing it to Messrs. F. Lane & Co. Howard's Row.

Quinn, Miss.

ANDERSON—Mrs. MALINDA ANDERSON (nee Pullin) was born in Edmonstone county, Ala., Aug. 10, 1833. She moved to DeSoto county when a child. She was happily married to J. C. Anderson, Feb. 19, 1852. Their home was blessed with eleven children: three with their father preceded her to the better land. Eight live to mourn her loss. She quietly passed away April 5, 1900.

Sister Anderson was one of our best women. She had been a member of the M. E. Church, South, for about forty-three years, and been holding family prayers for twenty years. So it is not strange that her eight children are all members of the church of her choice, and are on the way to heaven, mother's home.

All who knew Sister Anderson join in saying that she was a vessel of honor, raising and training her children for God and heaven. She is gone, but her works do follow her. Bro. Anderson having died in 1873, she was left the responsibility of raising and training the family, which, under God, she did, as all who knew her will testify.

Farewell, sister, thou art sleeping in thy lone grave. Nature's turmoil is all over, for thy gentle spirit has fled. Her pastor, R. P. GOAR.
