1988 NCAA Champions

Sun Devil Wrestling

Seven Competitors, Seven All-Americans

In 1988, Arizona State wrestling, led by legendary head coach Bobby Douglas, did something that no other program west of the Rocky Mountains had done before, or has done since: brought home the NCAA wrestling trophy.

With seven All-Americans--including one national runner-up in team captain Mike Davies--the Sun Devils amassed 93 points, beating out the previous year's champion and its runner up, Iowa State and Iowa.

Currently, three members of the championship team, along with its head coach, have been inducted into the Arizona State University Athletics Hall of Fame: Bobby Douglas, Mike Davies, Zeke Jones, and Dan St. John.

SHAWN CHARLES

1990 • 1991 • 1992 • 1993

Along with Ray Miller, Charles became the first four-time All-American in the history of Sun Devil wrestling. Charles competed at 126 pounds all four years, finishing fifth and fourth in his first two seasons before taking runner-up honors in his final two years.

The first four-time winner of the new millennium, Larkin moved through three weights for his awards. He made the natural progression from fourth as a freshman (133) to third as a sophomore (141) to second as a junior (141) before capping an undefeated senior year (149) with the national title and earning the Dan Hodge Award.

RAY MILLER

1990 • 1991 • 1992 • 1993

Miller was the program's second four-time All-American by virtue of competing at a higher weight class than that of Charles with his honor in 1993. Miller finished fifth, fourth and second at 157 pounds before closing his career as the NCAA Champion at 167 pounds in 1993.

MARKUS MOLLIKA

1993 • 1994 • 1995 • 1996

Mollica earned his four honors split between two weight classes and made two of his awards national championships. His awards were first then fifth at 158 before claiming gold then fourth at 167 pounds. Sun Devils in MMA

Sun Devil Wrestling

In the world of MMA (mixed martial arts), the Sun Devil wrestling program has continually produced some of the top talents in the sport, both now and in the past. While former Sun Devils have held championship belts in the past, including UFC Heavyweight Champion Dan 'The Beast' Severn and Pride Welterweight and Middleweight (at the same time) Champion 'Dangerous' Dan Henderson, the current crop of talent is already turning heads. The trio of talented newcomers includes three Sun Devils that earned All-America honors at the 2006 NCAA Championships: Cain Velasquez, C.B. Dollaway and Ryan Bader.

In October 2010, Velasquez' rise to the top culminated with his TKO of Brock Lesnar at UFC 121 where he downed the defending champion and captured the belt to become the UFC World Heavyweight Champion. Velasquez is the first Sun Devil to hold a belt (in the current system of non-tournament fighting) and also is the first fighter of Mexican heritage to hold a title in any major organization.

In Arizona, a trio of former Sun Devil All-Americans are continuing to evolve the sport, not only as fighters, but as trainers. Bader, the TUF Season 8 winner, Dollaway, known as 'The Doberman' and the TUF Season 7 runner-up, and their former coach Aaron 'A-Train' Simpson still train in the Valley and are in the process of opening their own gym in Gilbert. All three are fighters in the UFC, including 'Darth' Bader, who remains undefeated in the light heavyweight division.

Historically, two Severn and Henderson have held distinctions that no other fighters have. Severn is the only UFC Triple Crown winner -- won a UFC tournament (UFC 5), the Ultimate Ultimate Tournament and the UFC Superfight -- while Henderson, who has recently transitioned into the UFC, was a Pride Champion at two weight classes at the same time (middleweight and light heavyweight), the only fighter in Pride's history to hold two belts at one time.

Here is a list of the others that have participated in MMA (past & present):

Although most families represented are brothers, there has been one deep-rooted tradition at ASU with the father-sons combination of Glenn Sr., Glenn Jr., Wayne and Rob McMinn. Together, they competed for the Sun Devils in three different decades. To date, the Jeffries (Jim, John, Randy, Ron & Tim) have the most family members to wrestle for ASU with the Severns (Dan, Dave, Mike & Rod) right behind them with four members.

ZEKE JONES

1992 SILVER MEDALIST

Zeke Jones became the first Sun Devil wrestler to medal at the Olympic Games as he took home the 52kg (114.5) freestyle silver medal at the 1992 Barcelona Games. Jones, the 1991 World Champion, easily won his first two matches (15-0, 16-1) before slipping past Constantin Corduneanu (Romania) in the quarterfinals. Following his 9-5 defeat of Mitsura Sato, the 1988 Olympic champion, in the semifinal, Jones faced Hak-Sun Li (PRK) and dropped an 8-1 decision in the final for his lone loss of the tournament. Jones has been to one other Olympiad as he served as a coach for Team USA in Athens, Atlanta, Sydney, and London.

TOWNSEND SAUNDERS

1996 SILVER MEDALIST

After finishing seventh in the 1992 Barcelona Games, Townsend Saunders was back on the Olympic mats in 1996 in Atlanta as he once again competed at 68kg (150.0) to become the program's third, two-time Olympian. Looking to finisher higher than he had before (fourth at the 1993 Worlds was his best thus far), Saunders opened with three close wins (3-1, 3-1, 4-0) to reach the final where dropped a 1-1 decision to Vadim Bogiyev (Russia) to earn the silver medal. Saunders returned to the Games for a third time in 2004 Athens as he helped coach the first women's freestyle team. He married five-time World Champion Tricia Saunders.

THE DAN HODGE AWARD

The Dan Hodge Award is given annually to the most dominate and undefeated wrestler in the nation. In 2003, Eric Larkin went 34-0 and claimed his fourth Pac-12 title at 149 en route to the NCAA 140 lb crown, capping off a stellar senior campaign. Larkin was only the third Pac-12 wrestler to earn the award after Stephen Neal of CSU Bakersfield in 1999 and Oregon State's Les Gutches in 1996.

The Hodge, named for legendary Oklahoma Sooner wrestler Dan Hodge, takes into consideration a wrestler's dominance on the mat, his number of pins, his overall record, past credentials, the quality of competition he faces, his sportsmanship, his citizenship and his heart. Hodge exemplified all those things, going 46-0 in his collegiate career and winning three national titles (1955-57) while never surrendering a takedown to any opponent.
