BIO

Why Rutgers? "I have heard many great things about the Rutgers program. Growing up in New England, I was familiar with the coaching staff and their successes when they coached at Bryant. Also, I had heard from players on the team that they love what the team stands for and how they compete day in and day out. Aside from baseball, the academics will provide me with what I need to do well in the future."

BIO

Why Rutgers? "I chose Rutgers because it allowed me the opportunity to play for my home state and go to a strong academic school. Given both my parents went to school at Rutgers and were athletes, I was very familiar with the university. I also chose Rutgers because the coaches prepare us to win and care about player development."

Head Coach Steve Owens: "Drew will be a huge addition to our pitching staff for next year. He has three very good swing-and-miss pitches from a unique arm slot. He has shown tremendous improvement and will get great experience in the Cape this summer. He has the size and athleticism to not only be an impact arm in the Big Ten, but also pitch professionally."

The 13th head coach in Rutgers baseball history, Steve Owens is in his fourth year leading the Scarlet Knights after being hired on June 26, 2019. An 11-time conference coach of the year who has mentored 25 All-Americans and 54 professional players, Owens owns 29 winning seasons as a head coach. The New York native is among the top 15 active Division I coaches in wins (985) and winning percentage (.650) with 21 30-win seasons, six 40-win seasons and 13 NCAA Tournament appearances.

In building Rutgers with an emphasis on toughness, commitment and development, Owens has already broken the program record for wins in a season, advanced to the Big Ten Tournament championship game, changed the perception of Rutgers baseball and reinvigorated the spirit of the program. In a 2020 vote of 90 head coaches from around the nation, Owens was selected as the most underrated head coach in college baseball in a Baseball America poll.

Owens, who has been a collegiate head coach since 1992 with 1,518 games under his belt entering 2023, has picked up 74 victories in postseason play. In addition, Owens has mentored 11 Freshman All-America picks, 41 All-Region nods and four Academic All-Americans as a head coach.

COACHING STAFF

Brendan Monaghan

Pitching Coach/Recruiting Coordinator (4th Season)

A native of Wayne, New Jersey, and alumnus of St. John's University with professional baseball experience, Brendan Monaghan is in his fourth season at Rutgers. He works with the pitchers, catchers and serves as the recruiting coordinator.

The continued improvement and depth of the Rutgers pitchers played a crucial role in the Scarlet Knights setting a program record with 44 wins in 2022.

In 2022, Rutgers improved its team ERA from 5.00 in 2021 to 4.22, which was the second-best mark in the Big Ten and 35th in the country. The Scarlet Knights yielded just 7.76 hits per nine innings, which ranked 10th in the nation and second in the Big Ten. Under Monaghan's guidance, the RU pitchers set the program record for strikeouts in a season with 534, shattering the previous mark of 398. Nathan Florence also broke the individual single-season record with 90 strikeouts.

Kyle Pettoruto

Hitting Coach (4th Season)

A native of Andover, Massachusetts, Kyle Pettoruto is in his fourth year at Rutgers and coaches outfielders, baserunning and hitting. He spent the previous six seasons with head coach Steve Owens at Bryant and was part of six-straight Northeast Conference regular season championships and two NCAA Tournament appearances. The Bulldogs led the conference in nearly every major offensive category during his tenure in Smithfield and that success has translated to the Scarlet Knights.

Under Pettoruto's guidance in 2022, Rutgers had one of the most prolific lineups in all of college baseball. The Scarlet Knights led the country with 9.6 runs/game, 565 runs and 147 doubles. They also led the Big Ten in batting average (.320), doubles (147), doubles/game (2.49), hits (701), runs (565) and scoring (9.6 runs/game). These marks all proved crucial as Rutgers set a program record with 44 wins.

Mike Garza

Volunteer Assistant (2nd Season)

Mike Garza is in his second season at Rutgers as an assistant coach. Primarily focused on the daily development of infielders, Garza assists with the hitters and baserunning. He is also responsible for video analysis, defensive alignments, scouting reports and assist with recruiting efforts. In addition, Garza runs all of the camps and clinics throughout the entire year.

In his first season on the Banks, Garza played a crucial role in Rutgers having the best defense in the Big Ten. The emergence of an elite defense was a big reason why RU was able to set a program record with 44 wins in 2022. The Scarlet Knights led the conference the entire season in fielding percentage, finishing the 2022 campaign with a mark of .980.

Peter Barron

Director of Operations & Program Development (6th Season)

Peter Barron is in his sixth year on the Rutgers baseball staff. As the director of baseball operations and program development, Barron oversees all administrative aspects of the program, including on-campus recruiting, opponent analysis, game preparation, practice reviews and organizing team travel. He also supervises a group of student managers, helps with fundraising and is the liaison to departments within athletics.

Before arriving in Piscataway, Barron spent two seasons as the director of baseball operations at St. John's. He helped with all aspects of the program, including apparel, equipment, team travel, meals, video, statistics and game charts. Barron also oversaw a staff of five student managers, assisted with team community service and served as the liaison between the coaching staff and departments within athletics.

Originally from Long Valley, New Jersey, Barron owns two degrees from St. John's. He earned his master's in sports management in 2017 and his bachelor's in marketing in 2015.

FACILITIES

BAINTON FIELD

The Rutgers baseball program debuted a new field in 2007 and again in fall 2020 thanks to the generous donations of Ron and Pat Bainton. The $1.25 million gift in 2006 - the single largest one-time cash gift by a living donor to Rutgers Athletics at the time - gave the program a brand new state-of-the-art FieldTurf playing surface. FieldTurf, a synthetic surface used in professional and collegiate baseball, football and soccer stadiums across the country, allows the Scarlet Knights to practice on the field year-round without the worries of a frozen surface during the winter months. Dugouts and seating for 1,500 accentuate the field. The generous donation also provides for continued enhancements to the complex in the future. A new outfield wall was constructed recently complete with new padding for the outfield fence in addition to a new sound system. The on-field facilities include a practice diamond and three full length batting cages as well as five practice pitching mounds.

In 2022, Rutgers announced the additions of lights and video display to continue its facilities commitment to the baseball program. Both elements will be installed in time for the 2023 season and allow the Scarlet Knights to host night games at Bainton Field for the first time in program history.

Kivlehan became the third player from RU to earn Big East Player of the Year after hitting .392 with 14 home runs and 50 RBIs in his first season playing the sport since high school. "Patrick winning Big East Player of the Year is just an amazing accomplishment as far as I'm concerned," Fred Hill said. "Not having played baseball in four years and to do the things he did is a testament to his hard work. He was also a lifesaver for our team because one of our better players, Russ Hopkins, was injured the day before practice started and he picked up right where Russ left off. He's got to be very proud of himself, the coaches certainly are proud of his accomplishment." The third baseman took home four weekly league honors during the course of the season, including the Big East Player of the Week on March 26 after collecting seven hits and reaching base safely in 12-of-15 plate appearances against Seton Hall in the first conference series. 1996 ABCA Third Team

After missing all of 1995 due to elbow surgery, SCOTT MADISON returned to the mound and made an impact by beating some of America's top teams on his way to an 8-3 record and a 2.33 ERA, which ranked 15th in the country. Madison earned First Team All-Big East honors and was the most dominant pitcher in the conference from the beginning of the season to the end. He finished 1996 with eight complete games and a school-record four shutouts, which now ranks second in the program record books. His 92.2 innings was the second-highest total in school history. ##### CLASS OF 1994

Jeff Torborg was a 1963 All-American and set the school record for single-season batting average (.537) that year, which was the national leading average for 100 at bats and under. His .537 average was the highest ever recorded up to that time and since then, only a handful of college players have hit for a better average. His slugging percentage that year (1.032) is also a single-season standard. In 1963, he led the team with 21 RBIs and six home runs. A signee of the Los Angeles Dodgers, he played 10 seasons in the majors, seven with the Dodgers and three with the California Angels. He caught three no-hitters, a perfect game with Sandy Koufax and another no-hitter with Bill Singer of the Dodgers and Nolan Ryan of the Angels; and was the backstop in Don Drysdale's record fifth-straight shutout in 1968. He was a successful manager with the Chicago White Sox, the Cleveland Indians, the New York Mets, the Montreal Expos and the Florida Marlins, winning the Baseball Writer's Association, Associated Press, United Press International and The Sporting News Manager of the Year award. He led the Marlins to the 2003 World Series title. In his three-year career from 1961-63, the Westfield, N.J., native batted .390. His number (#10) was retired in 1992. He is second in RU career slugging percentage with a mark of .684. During his career, the Knights were 15-4-1, 14-4 and 11-5 for a three-year mark of 40-13-1 (.741 winning percentage).

The former third baseman still holds ninth place on the career batting average chart (.384) and fifth place on the career slugging percentage chart (.612) in the Scarlet Knight record book. Hall was a 1961 draft pick of the New York Yankees. He was the Upstream Award winner in 1962. In 1961, he led the team in hitting (.397), runs (21), hits (31), RBIs (30) and made just five errors while starting every game.

That started a stretch of five NCAA berths in six years that included hosting an NCAA Regional in 2000, a rarity for a northeast school. The 2007 team was among the best for Hill, as it tied the school record with 42 wins and won both the Big East regular season and tournament titles. Named ABCA East Region Coach of the Year, the Scarlet Knights earned the No. 2 seed in the Charlottesville Regional. A school-record six players off that team were selected in the ensuing MLB Draft. During his career, Hill sent over 70 players to professional baseball - with Todd Frazier and David DeJesus both currently in the major leagues - and developed 20 All-America selections. His No. 24 was retired at Bainton Field May 10, 2014 after officially retiring in February of that season.

CLASS OF 2018

A native of Spotswood and graduate of St. Joseph High School in Metuchen, Doug Alongi is one of just two players in Rutgers baseball history to be named first team all-conference three times, one of four to earn a conference player of the year distinction and still holds the program career record with 85 stolen bases. Texas took a 2-0 lead in the second on Frank Womack's two-run homer, and Murray Wall pitched six shutout innings before giving up a run in the seventh... Trailing 2-1, Rutgers rallied to take the lead in the eighth, scoring three runs off Wall on three walks, two singles and an error... Wall walked home a run, and Rutgers first baseman Bob Suba stole home for another... Suba finished the game with three stolen bases, as Rutgers set a College World Series record with a total of seven for the game... Herman Hering steadied after giving up the early home run, and although he walked seven and struck out only one, he also allowed only three hits in going the distance for the win... Ray Van Cleef paced the attack, going three for four, as Rutgers won, 4-2.

Saturday, June 17, Rutgers faced Wisconsin in a second-round winner's bracket matchup before only 955 fans in steady drizzle... Tom Forster pitched a complete-game six-hitter, and Van Cleef went four-for-five with a double and a run scored to pace the Scarlet 5-3 win, and a 2-and-0 record in the tournament..

On Monday, June 19, Rutgers met Washington State in the winner's bracket final... The game was a terrific pitcher's duel between Al Willenbrock for Rutgers and Rod Keogh for the Cougars... Willenbrock gave up an early home run to Ted Tappe of the Cougars, but the Scarlet tied it in the fourth on a triple by Jim Monahan and an infield out... That would prove to be the only hit off Keogh, but he walked eight and was frequently in trouble... In the seventh, Rutgers loaded the bases, with Willenbrock up... without warning, (Rutgers later said it was not a called play), the runner on third tried to steal home and was tagged out... As he broke, the runner on second started toward third, then hesitated, and was eventually run down and tagged out to complete an unusual double play, killing the potential rally... In the top of the ninth, Washington State loaded the bases with no outs... Don Paul grounded sharply to third baseman Steve Kalapos, who threw home for the force there... catcher Hardy Peterson then threw to first to double Paul, and Suba, the first baseman, then spotted Gordon Brunswick, the runner at second, trying to make a surprise dash to home... Suba threw back to Peterson, who tagged Brunswick to complete the triple play... It was the second of three triple plays in the CWS... In the top of the 10th, Washington State finally broke through on an outfield error, hit batter and a two-run double by Terry Carroll to take a 3-1 lead, and Keogh completed his one hitter by retiring the side in the bottom of the 10th... Washington State improved to 3-0, and Rutgers fell to 2-1... Van Cleef, after going seven-for-nine in the first two games was held to 0-for-5...

On Wednesday, June 21, Rutgers came back from its one-hit outing to blow out Wisconsin 16-2...The Scarlet collected 11 hits, including two apiece by four different players, and the Badgers unraveled, committing seven errors... (Van Cleef was 1-for-6)...

Herman Hering turned in his second complete game win of the tournament, scattering eight hits, and also contributed a triple and a single to the 11-hit attack... Wisconsin was eliminated at 2-2, and Rutgers joined Texas and Washington State at 3-1 (Texas had beaten the Cougars, 12-1, on Tuesday). Washington State drew the bye into the championship game, and Rutgers faced Texas for the second time, on Thursday, June 22... The Scarlet went with second-round winner Tom Foster, but Texas knocked him out early, scoring three in the second, and five in the fourth on their way to a 15-9 win... Charlie Gorin went the distance for Texas, despite allowing 12 hits and nine runs, as the Longhorns out-hit Rutgers, 15-12...Texas went on to win the title over Washington State the next night, 3-0, while Rutgers finished third at 2-2... finishing the season at 17-4-1...Van Cleef was 3-for-4 in the final game to finish the CWS at .417 on 10-for-24, and was named the Most Outstanding Player.
