Celles-ci sont vraiment jolies et en ce moment la petite a la jaune. Elles les a essayées et elle ne veut plus l'enlever. Elles lui vont si bien et sont toutes toutes justes pour elle. Les bas aussi sont très très beaux. Il faudra dire ce qu'on vous doit. Merci mille fois. En attendant , recevez tous les trois nos plus gros baisers. Miche, Charles et Aline." Translated Accompanying text on verso reads, "Elisabethville, May 04 1952. Very dear mother, Antoine and Josée. We have just received our little package with the sweets + stockings and the small blouses. These are really nice and the little one is wearing the yellow one at this very time. She tried them all and does not want to take it off. They fit her so well and are just made for her. The stockings too are very very beautiful. You must tell us how much we owe you. A thousand thanks. In the meanwhile, big kisses to all three of you. "

Translated postcard caption reads, "9 - Native village. Kisantu."

Manuscript message and address on verso. Message reads, "Un remerciement ... à notre bienfaitrice Madame la Baronne de Tavereau qui nous continue son aimable et affectueuse protection. Les chères malades pauvres et leurs humbles infirmières prieront avec reconnaissance à la Grotte de notre Dame de Lourdes pour le bonheur et la santé de Madame et Monsieur le Baron et leur chers enfants. Le S.-C. a béni l'oeuvre des humbles d'une manière visible. Dans le Hainaut, j'ai pu trouver 4 sections importantes à Charleroi, à Luttre, à Châtelet, à Mettet et à Gosselies, où on se dévoue à la grande cause du Bon Dieu et des âmes. Notre stand à la Colonie Belge à Ch. a déjà eu beaucoup de succès. Des Gratias."

Translated message reads, "A heart felt thanks to our benefactor the Lady Baroness de Tavereau who continues her kind and affectionate protection. The dear poor sick people and their humble nurses will pray with gratitude at the Grotto of our Lady of Lourdes for the happiness and health of the lady Baroness and the lord Baron and their dear children. The work of the Sacred Heart humbles ones in a visible fashion. In the Hainaut, I was able to find 4 important sections in Charleroi, Luttre, Châtelet, Mettet, and Gosselies where they dedicate themselves to the great cause of the Good Lord and the souls. Je commence à sortir et j'espère que cela ne reprendra plus. Je pensai bien aller vous faire une surprise le dimanche avant Pâques en allant diner avec vous tous mais ma santé m'ayant encore joué un vilain tour, j'ai donc du renoncer. J'espère que chez toi tout le monde va bien et que notre petite Andrée s'apprete déjà pour venir à Gilly avec Tante. Bien des baisers à Florent, Andrée et Tante et pour toi un wagon. Mon châle me fait grand plaisir et il est admiré de tout le monde mais seulement je n'ose pas dire qu'il n'est pas payé."

Translated message reads, " My dear Ninie, Excuse me for remaining so long without writing to you but I must tell you that since the new year I have not been well and I spent the last week in bed. I am feeling better now, I am beginning to go out and I hope that I won't have a relapse. I had thought of surprising you on the last sunday before Easter by joining you all for diner but my health having played me another dirty trick I had to give up the thought. I hope all are well at your home and that our little Andrée is getting ready to come to Gilly with Auntie. Lots of kisses to Florent, Andrée and Auntie and for you a wagon. My shawl pleases me a lot and is admired by all but I dare not say that it is not paid for."

Tes petits cadres font un bon accord sur mon buffet, ils me font bien penser à vous autres. Ma santé est bonne malgré les 7 kilos que j'ai maigri. Reçois chère Suzanne mes bons baisers et j'espère te lire bientôt. Madame Bras à Kongolo via Capetown." Translated message reads, "My very dear Suzanne. This time I obtained your address from your Nounou. I hope you and your dear parents are well. I send you the fisheries so you get an idea of how the negroes organize their fishing. I take the opportunity to wish you all a very happy new year and above all an excellent health and that my suzion always remains at the top of her class. Your small frames are very decorative on my sideboard and make me think of you all. My health is good despite the 7 kilos which I lost. Good kisses dear Suzanne and I hope to read a message from you soon."

Printed text on verso reads: "Edit. par les Frères Maristes, Stanleyville (Congo Belge)." Publisher's logo on recto and verso: "Nells." Partial postmark on verso, postage stamp removed.

EEPA CG 2011-001-0843: Rungu Un rapide du Bomokandi, ca. 1910

1 Postcard (collotype.; b&w; 9 x 14 cm.)

Creator: Mission Dominicaine du Congo Belge
Nells (Brussels)

Language: French.

Notes: EEPA CG-14-26

Title source: Postcard caption.

Citation source: Archives staff.

Translated postcard caption reads, "Rungu. A Bomokandi Rapid."

Manuscript message on verso, message reads: "Il n'y a en réalité pas plus de raisons pour l'une que pour l'autre mais cela est ainsi; croyez bien, chère Amie, que je n'en suis pas moins ravie de vos bons vœux, et si je réponds franchement au doute que vous émettiez, c'est parce que je suis sûre que vous n'aurez jamais l'idée de croire à une arrière-pensée de ma part. Je suis si contente de voir établie entre nous cette coutume amicale! Et si quelquefois je me suis trompée de Ste Jeanne, dites le moi tout de suite. Je trouve bien beau ce majestueux rapide, mais je vous avoue que je ne suis pas du tout tentée d'aller le voir. La vie de soeur missionnaire n'a aucun attrait pour moi malgré la beauté de cette vocation. A très bientôt, chère et excellente Amie, encore une fois merci de tout mon coeur, avec mes plus affectueuses amitiés et ma vive sympathie. Marie-Thérèse."

Translated message reads: "There is really no more reasons for one than for the other but that is the way it is; Rest assured, dear friend, that I am not any less delighted with your good wishes, and if I answer so frankly to the doubts that you expressed, it is because I am sure that you would never believe that I harbored some ulterior motive. I am so happy to see that we have established between us this friendly custom! And if on some occasion I was mistaken, about Saint Jeanne tell me right away. I find this majestic rapid most beautiful but I must confess that I am not in the least tempted to go see it. The life of the missionary sister does not attract me in the least despite the beauty of the calling. So long, dear and excellent friend, thank you from the bottom of my heart, with my most affectionate greetings and my warmest regards. Marie-Thérèse."

Manuscript message and address on verso, message reads, "Pour le moment je me trouve en fonction à la maternité j'ai 4 petits bébés. J'ai vu un accouchement. Pauvre femme, quelle souffrance. Mille bons baisers. Irma. Cher Oncle et chère Tante, nous avons été bien triste de recevoir de vos nouvelles. Nous avons quand même fait la fête vu que tout était commandé. On ne c'est pas trop amuser. Joséphine était également malade, enfin tout est passer espérons qu'à la prochaine occasion cela ira mieux. Comment va tu Tante j'espère que tu est rétablie, moi cela va tant bien que mal. Je fais quand même mon service. Ah quelle sale grippe et l'on est bien pincer. Je voudrai bien avoir une petite réponse me disant comment vous vous porter." Translated message reads: " For the time I am stationed in the maternity ward, I have 4 small infants. I have seen a childbirth. Poor woman, what suffering. Thousand kisses, Irma. Dear Uncle and Aunt, We were quite sad to get your news. We still proceeded with the festivities since everything had been ordered. We did not have much fun. Josephine too was ill. Well it is all over now let us hope that on the next occasion all will be better. How are you Auntie? I hope that you have recovered as for me I feel so so, I am nevertheless attending to my job. Oh, what a nasty flu, it really gets you. I would like very much a short answer letting me know how you are."

Postmarked postage stamp on verso, date reads: "27 II 1925."

Nous te souhaitons tous les deux une bonne et heureuse fête, c'est peut-être un peu tard mais nous y avons tellement songé avant la date que finalement nous l'avons laissé passée. As-tu au moins eu ton gâteau, sinon il faudra aller le chercher de suite au reçu des trois poussekes qui se trouvent au verso. Nous te souhaitons en même temps un heureux anniversaire. Je crois que tu dois avoir dans les 20 à 25 ans je ne sais plus au juste combien, mais je crois que le coeur et le caractère sont toujours jeunes. Nous nous vieillissons beaucoup plus vite à cause du soleil. Un millier de gros baisers de nous deux." Translated message reads: "We both wish you a good and happy St Charles day. It may be a little late but we thought so often about it that in the end we let the day pass. Did you at least get your cake, if not you will have to go to get it upon receiving these "pousseke" which are on the back of this card. We also wish you a happy birthday. You must be 20 to 25 years old, I do not quite remember exactly but the heart and character are still quite young. We are aging must faster because of the sun. A million kisses from both of us."

Manuscript message on recto and verso, address on verso. Postmarks on verso.

Manuscript message on verso message reads: "Mon cher Marcel, comme il ne m'est pas possible d'aller encore vous rendre une petite visite à l'hôpital, je vous adresse la présente espérant qu'elle vous distraira quelques minutes de la monotonie au lieu où vous vous trouvez forcément. Nous sommes bien rentrées hier et avons eu du monde à la soirée, comme toujours, on a causé gouvernement!!! et chers petits soldats! Nous avons rencontré un "pass" nègre comme celui que vous voyez au verso, il avait rudement l'air fier et heureux de ses succès. Tout le monde le regardait en souriant. J'espère que le mieux s'accroît et que nous aurons bientôt le plaisir de vous revoir ici et tout à fait guéri. Souhaitez de notre part bon courage et bonne chance à votre camarade pour son pied, nous formons tous les meilleurs vœux pour qu'il n'ait rien de grave et qu'on ne doive plus l'opérer. Mode économique que d'aller à "p'dchô" comme le couple du verso; ils épargnent 500 francs à eux deux! Il n'est pas mal de visage hein lui pour un moricaud! Je souhaite pour vous que vous ayez jeudi les visites de Jules (j'ai oublié son nom de famille), Mr. Mallarme, et vos amis soldats, afin que vous ne soyez pas tout seul alors que les autres malades sont entourés. Je vais écrire à Berke et lui conter notre visite auprès de vous, cela lui fera plaisir ainsi qu'à votre chère Maman. A propos, consolez-vous du départ des Anglais... les cigarettes restent!!! Valère m'a dit qu'on en vendait chez les marchands de tabac. Pendant que je vous écrit, j'entends (chez le voisin) écorcher le grand air de "Louise" pour l'amour du Seigneur est-il possible de se faire entendre quand on chante aussi mal, j'en ai les nerfs qui branlent! C'est épouvantable! La chanteuse (si on peut l'appeler ainsi) ferait ruer un cheval de bois. Valère qui est un profane crie: Fermez les portes!"

Translated verso message reads: "My dear Marcel, since it is not possible to pay you a little visit at the hospital, I send you this present note hoping that it will distract you for a few minutes from the monotony of the place where you are residing per force. We got back home safely yesterday and have had visits in the evening. As usual we talked "government"!!!! and dear little soldiers! We met a negro just like the one you see overleaf, he seemed pretty proud and happy with his successes. Everyone was looking at him and smiling to him. I hope you keep getting better and that we shall have the pleasure of seeing you here and fully recovered. Extend our best wishes of good courage and luck to your comrade for his foot. We are wishing very much that is condition not be serious and that more surgery not be necessary. It is a cheap way to go barefoot like the couple overleaf, together they save 500 francs! He has got a nice face, don't you think, for a dark skinned? Wish you to have the visits of Jules (I forgot his last name), Mr. Mallarme and your soldier friends next thursday, so that you are not lonely while the other sick people are surrounded with loved ones. I shall write to Berke and tell our visit to you. It will please her and your dear mother. By the way, get over the departure of the English... the cigarettes are staying! Valere told me that they were being sold at the tobacconists. As I write, I hear (at the neighbor's) the great aria of "Louise" being murdered, for the love of God how is it possible to have oneself heard when one sings poorly, it grates on my nerves. It's awful! The singer (if you can call her that) would have a wooden horse kick. Valere is shouting: "Shut the doors!".

Manuscript message on recto reads: "Voici "Madame la Caporale" un joli "Sker" à faire pour vous. Profitez-en. Cela ne vous chanterait pas une belle négresse? Je vais vous laisser car mon encrier pourrait se mettre en grève prouvant que je l'utilise trop pour mes cinq centimes, il serait peut-être dans son droit. Au revoir donc mon cher petit Marceleke, nous vous envoyons toutes nos bonnes amitiés et de grosses baisers. Speck me prie de vous dire qu'il vous donne sa plus belle passe et vous fait une "lekkskes" sur la main. Votre dévouée Mathilde. Bruxelles, Lundi 20-1-19."

Translated recto message reads: "Here is "Madame la Caporale" a nice "Sker" for you to do. Take advantage of the situation. Wouldn't you enjoy a beautiful negro girl? I am going to leave you because my inkwell could go on strike, find that I use it too much for my five cents, it could well be within its rights. Good bye dear little Marceleke, we send you all our greetings and fat kisses. Speck asks me to tell you that he gives you his best deal and puts a "lekkskes" on your hand. Your devoted Mathilde. Brussels, Monday 20-1-19."
