Unique Collegiate Environment

Located in the popular Midtown district of Nashville, Vanderbilt is regarded among the nation's finest universities. The private research university enrolls 6,794 undergraduate and 5,700 postgraduate students, who arrive on campus from all 50 states and more than 90 countries.

The university was founded 137 years ago when New York shipping and rail magnate "Commodore" Cornelius Vanderbilt provided an initial $1 million endowment.

Vanderbilt is a charter member of the Southeastern Conference and the only private school among its 12 schools.

Vanderbilt is ranked among the top universities in America. In its popular annual "Best Colleges" edition, U.S. News & World Report ranked Vanderbilt at No. 17 this year among all national universities. The magazine also listed Vanderbilt No. 2 among universities located in the Southeast.

The campus is located 1.5 miles southwest of downtown Nashville on 330 pristine acres that was designated a national arboretum in 1988. Two focal areas of campus closed to vehicles – the Peabody campus and the collection of academic buildings surrounding Kirkland Hall that form the original campus – are frequently listed among the most beautiful college environments in the South.

Though located within walking distance of downtown activities, the quality of Vanderbilt life is reflected in much smaller, less public ways – running into friends while walking on campus, researching papers or grabbing a late-night snack with friends, choosing between a public policy lecture or athletic event, or having dinner at a professor's home.

Most Vanderbilt undergraduates live on campus during their time at the university. Thirty-four residential halls dot the campus, ranging from the four towers off West End Avenue to The Commons, a 10-house, state-of-the-art complex for all first-year students that has attracted national acclaim for its design and unique collegiate living experience.

Vanderbilt offers numerous degrees in four undergraduate colleges: the College of Arts and Science, Peabody College, School of Engineering and Blair School Music.

WORLD CLASS ACADEMICS

Commodore Football: Leaders in Academics

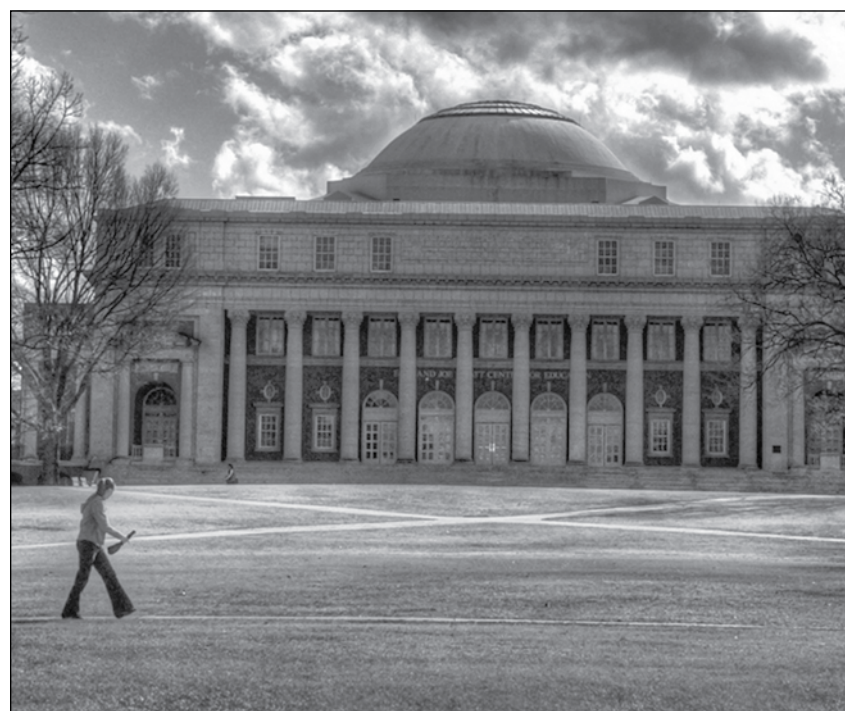

For many years, the Vanderbilt football team has been an academic achievement leader in the Southeastern Conference and NCAA.

In 2008, the Commodore program received the American Football Coaches Association Academic Achievement Award after graduating 95 percent of its 2001 recruiting class. It was the third time for Vanderbilt to claim the award.

Vanderbilt topped the SEC in 2010 graduation success rates released by the NCAA.

It's Fun and Friendly

Travel + Leisure magazine recently had this to say about Vanderbilt's hometown:

- ★ ranked Nashville as America's Friendliest City, for the third time in six years.
- ★ ranked Nashville No. 2 in the U.S. for live music venues.
- ★ ranked Nashville No. 4 nationally for affordable trips.
- ★ ranked Nashville top 10 nationally for safety, affordable hotels and singles scene.

Nashville is Vanderbilt's Hometown

Vanderbilt's hometown of Nashville is a vibrant, engaging city known proudly as "Music City, U.S.A." Located little more than a mile from downtown, Vanderbilt students, faculty, staff and visitors frequently cite Nashville as one of the perks of the university.

From its scenic location along the Cumberland River, Nashville is a metropolitan place that proudly exudes all of the charm and hospitality one expects from a grand Southern capital city.

Boasting a metropolitan population of 1.5 million, Nashville enjoys a mild and pleasant climate with only a few days of the year having either very hot or very cold conditions. The majority of rain is confined to the spring months. The fall, with changing leaves at its peak and college football in the air, is a celebrated time throughout Tennessee.

Nashville's vibrancy stems from a diverse and youthful population, unique neighborhoods, abundance of parks and several distinct entertainment and business districts. The downtown blends state and municipal complexes with the popular Lower Broadway-Second Avenue entertainment district that draws tens of thousands of weekend visitors to an array of lively nightclubs, eateries and tourist attractions such as the Ryman Auditorium, Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum, and the 19,000-seat Bridgestone Arena. Other popular districts for music and food include The Gulch, East Nashville and three areas near Vanderbilt – Midtown, Hillsboro Village and Elliston Place.

NASHVILLE

City Offers Bounty of Music, Sports

While the music scene is remarkable in Nashville, it also offers an array of sporting attractions to rival any city its size in America.

Nashville wraps its arms around the music industry. And the stars definitely come out. Drawn by famous clubs and massive venues, such artists as Kanye West, Coldplay, Ke$ha, Green Day, Dave Matthews Band, Drake, Miley Cyrus and Daughtry have played the city in the past year.

Country acts as Carrie Underwood, Taylor Swift, Tim McGraw and Faith Hill, Keith Urban, Rascal Flatts, Brad Paisley and Lady Antebellum have thrilled audiences in recent months.

When it comes to sports, Nashville also appears bigger than its population.

Besides the full slate of Vanderbilt collegiate athletics, Nashville is home to two successful professional teams: the NFL's Tennessee Titans and the NHL's Predators. Since playing at Vanderbilt Stadium nearly a decade ago, the Titans have become one of the NFL's most consistent winners. The Preds also are perennial contenders to reach the playoffs hoping for a run for the Stanley Cup.

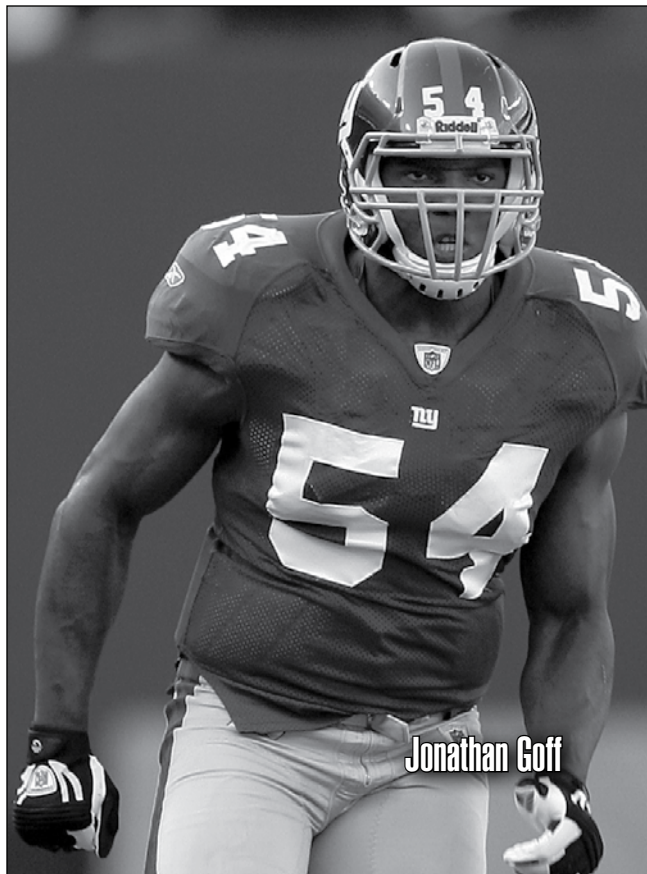

The city also has AAA baseball in the Nashville Sounds, Nationwide NASCAR racing, steeplechase horse racing, and the popular Music City Marathon.

Lewis, Welch Taken in 2010 Draft

Two former standouts who played important roles in the Commodores' 2008 Music City Bowl-winning campaign, Myron Lewis and Thomas Welch, are the most recent Vanderbilt players to be selected in the NFL draft.

Lewis, an All-Southeastern Conference cornerback, was selected by Tampa Bay as the third pick of the 3rd round. Welch, a two-year starting offensive tackle at Vanderbilt, was selected by New England as the first pick in the seventh round.

Lewis and Welch become the eighth and ninth Commodores selected in the NFL draft since 2005.

Fourteen Commodores on NFL Preseason Rosters

Fourteen former Vanderbilt standouts are expected to compete for roster spots when National Football League teams open preseason training camps this summer.

The list includes six former Commodores that ended the 2009-10 season as starters with their respective NFL teams: Earl Bennett, Jay Cutler, Hunter Hillenmeyer and Chris Williams, all with Chicago; Jovan Haye, Tennessee; and Jonathan Goff, New York.

The NFL preseason camp invitees range from linebacker Jamie Winborn, entering his 10th professional season, to three rookie candidates.

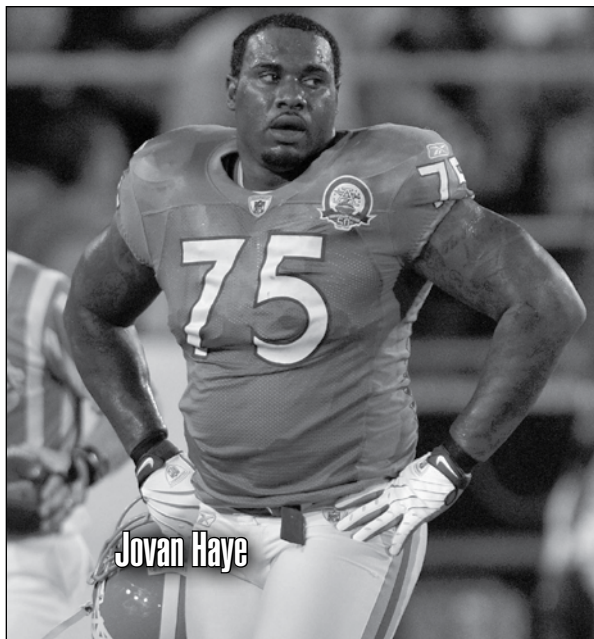

All of the former players except Winborn and Matt Stewart have played with interim head coach Robbie Caldwell on staff.

Last year, 10 one-time Commodores played in NFL games.

The 2009-10 season also was noteworthy when the Bears' roster featured five former Commodores. It is believed to be the first time five Commodores were active on the same NFL team.

Impressing Scouts at Pro Day

Each April, NFL talent evaluators converge on the campus to monitor Vanderbilt's Pro Day when Commodore seniors showcase their talents to would-be NFL suitors.

A strong performance on Pro Day by fifth-year senior Ryan Hamilton resulted in a free agent deal with New Orleans. Hamilton didn't stick with the Saints, but is with Philadelphia entering training camp after Eagle scouts were impressed during his workout.

Why was the workout so important to Hamilton? The 2009 co-captain used Pro Day to showcase his skills after missing the last 10 games of the season due to a torn pectoral muscle. The workout allowed the assembled NFL player evaluators to realize Hamilton was fully recovered from the injury.

Days after the draft, other Commodores such as center Bradley Vierling and defensive end Broderick Stewart earned NFL tryouts.

STRENGTH TRAINING

TRAINING TO WIN

Turning Prospects into Players

Three Commodore players with Alabama roots – Joey Bailey, Jabo Burrow and Sean Richardson – have developed from raw prospects to SEC-caliber contributors under the training direction of Vanderbilt conditioning director John Sisk.

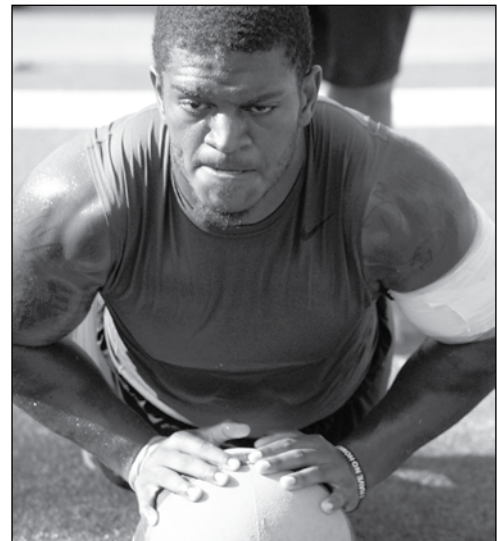

Bailey and Burrow arrived on campus as prospective linemen, both weighing about 230 pounds. Richardson, a likely safety, was plenty athletic, but carried just 185 pounds on a lanky frame.

Entering preseason camp, Bailey has added 45 pounds, a likely starting job at center, and new responsibilities as offensive co-captain.

Burrow's conditioning has resulted in a 285-pound frame capable of competing for a starting job at guard. Now at 6'2", 215-lbs., Richardson is an all-SEC safety candidate.

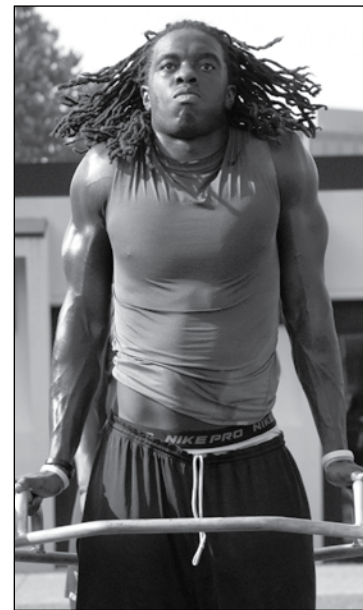

The trio are representative of many on the Vanderbilt roster: prep standouts with plenty of untapped potential.

Under the supervision of Sisk and his professional assistants, many similar athletes have developed into Commodore standouts and eventual NFL stars. That list includes two first-round draft picks now starting for the Chicago Bear offense: quarterback Jay Cutler and tackle Chris Williams.

Sisk's Training Philosophy

To develop a powerful, physical and mentally tough team through a structured strength, speed and conditioning system that utilizes competition, discipline and team work.

The SEC: Deep and Talented

Vanderbilt is a charter member of the Southeastern Conference. Today, nearly eight decades later, the league is more impressive than ever, especially in football.

★ SEC teams have captured the last four BCS national championships.

★ How deep is the SEC quality? Four consecutive national titles have been captured by three different teams: Alabama, Florida and LSU.

★ Since the BCS was created in 1998, the SEC has captured six national titles, four more than any other conference.

★ SEC teams are 6-0 in BCS national title games, and 14-5 overall in all BCS games involving a conference member.

★ The conference has also claimed four consecutive Associated Press national titles. It marks the first time any conference has accomplished the feat in the 74-year history of the AP poll.

★ Since 2006, the SEC is 25-11 in bowl games (.694), including Vanderbilt's win over Boston College in the 2008 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

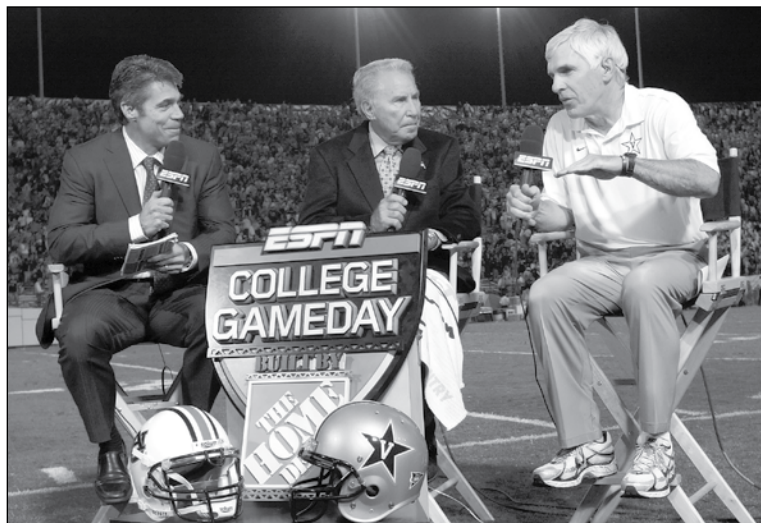

★ The SEC finished the 2009 season with a non-conference mark of 48-10, marking a .828 winning performance.

★ The SEC had 49 players selected in the in the 2010 NFL draft, 15 more than any other conference.

★ Seven SEC players were selected in the first round of the 2010 NFL draft.

★ Winners of the Heisman Trophy, Butkus Award, Jim Thorpe Award, Ray Guy Award and Rimington Trophy played in the conference in 2009.

SEC Posts Impressive Television Ratings

On Oct. 4, 2008, Vanderbilt capped off one of the finest days of football festivities in its 120-year gridiron history.

Sporting a 4-0 record and hosting ESPN's College GameDay for the first time on campus, the Commodores capped the remarkable day with a thrilling 14-13 victory before an ESPN primetime national television audience.

Due to the Southeastern Conference's lengthy television contract with ESPN and CBS, virtually every Commodore football game is available on TV across the nation via either ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, CBS or the SEC Network.

In 2009 – the first year of the new television deals – viewership and ratings on SEC games on both the ESPN networks and CBS far exceeded 2008 levels.

In 2009, ratings for CBS Sports "SEC on CBS" games were up 29% off a strong 2008 season. In fact, the SEC Championship game between No. 1 Florida and No. 2 Alabama earned its highest rating in the 18-year history of the title game.

SEC teams have captured at least six victories in bowl games in each of the last four years, including 2008 when Vanderbilt defeated ranked Boston College 16-14 in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

COMMODORE TRADITIONS

Awarding Helmet Decals

In 2005, the Vanderbilt coaching staff began awarding "anchor" helmet decals for exceptional play. Equipment staffers apply decals to helmets on Thursdays prior to gameday.

Who Ya With? The 'VU' Sign

Co-hosts Lee Corso and Kirk Herbstreit of ESPN's College GameDay practice their "Who Ya With" hand signs during a break from shooting on campus in 2008. The gesture has gained popularity across campus and at sporting events since being introduced by Commodore cheerleaders during the 2003 season.

Magic Noori: Caring Food Coach

Vanderbilt Athletics is the proud home to the Hendrix Room and Majid "Magic" Noori, America's No. 1 collegiate food coach.

Performing his culinary magic in the Hendrix Room dining facility, Magic's nutritional knowledge provides the greatest benefit to Commodore athletes, helping maximize their athletic potential by preparing carefully planned meals.

Sports Illustrated has focused on Noori's talents in five editions. Many others, such as CBS This Morning and USA Today, have featured Magic's culinary creations.

Tailgating at Vandyville

Since 2006, university officials have closed Natchez Trace on gamedays to create Vandyville, an ideal tailgate location for Commodore fans. Just one block from the stadium, Vandyville features live entertainment, kids activities and a Jumbotron TV for other games.

Championship Iron Man Belts

In 2008, Vanderbilt strength director John Sisk started giving "championship belts" to individual players and group winners of the team's winter conditioning effort that is highlighted by an Iron Man competition.

Championship belts are given to victors of three position grouping and one team competition staged prior to spring drills.

Carrying the Anchor at pregame Star Walk

An hour before every game played in Vanderbilt Stadium, two Commodore players lead the squad through Star Walk festivities by carrying a ship anchor from team lockers in McGugin Athletic Center to Dudley Field.

The anchor, introduced by former head coach Bobby Johnson in 2005 as a sign of team unity and strength, is also taken on the road with the Commodores.

The team's Leadership Council decides which player will represent the offensive and defensive units carrying the anchor. Those selected to carry the anchor are told of their added gameday responsibility at the conclusion of Thursday's practice.

Doster Tribute: 'KD 1' Patch

Just before the season opener, Vanderbilt teammates will decide which player gets to wear the "KD 1" patch in tribute to former standout Kwane Doster, who was killed in a December 2004 shooting prior to his senior year.

The Commons: First-Year Living at its Best

All Vanderbilt freshman student-athletes reside at The Commons, one of the most unique and spectacular on-campus collegiate living environments in the nation.

In October 2008, a national television audience enjoyed an up-close look at The Commons when ESPN used the venue to broadcast their first College GameDay show from the campus.

Opened in 2008 in the southeast quadrant of the Vanderbilt campus, The Commons includes 10 residence halls, or "houses," spacious study and social areas, and the showpiece Commons Center, a modern dining and activity hub, all located on the Peabody campus.

Freshman Run for Opener

Just before kickoff of the season opener vs. Northwestern, about 1,650 Vanderbilt first-year students will participate in the sixth Freshman Run. To get to their seats, all freshmen run the length of Dudley Field, just before the Commodore football team takes the field.

The Commodore Creed

written by H. Jackson Brown, Jr.*

Never underestimate your opponent.

Work on your weaknesses until they become your strong points.

Remember that a great effort is usually the result of a great attitude.

Dedicate yourself to a mighty purpose. Win with humility, lose with grace.

Ignore those who discourage you.

Work to improve your moral and spiritual strengths as well as your physical ones.

Remember how you conduct yourself off the field is just as important as how you conduct yourself on the field.

Talent is God given – be humble.
Fame is man-given – be thankful.
Conceit is self-given – be careful.

Don't ask to be deprived of tension and discipline –
these are tools that shape success.

Do what has to be done, when it has to be done, and as well as it can be done.

Remember that when you're not working to improve, your competition is.

Always give your best.

Practice like a champion. Play like a champion.
Live like a champion.

Rajaan Bennett 1991-2010

The Commodores are without one student-athlete who was a key member of the 2010 signing class, Rajaan Bennett of Powder Springs, Ga.

Bennett, a highly sought-after running back from McEachern High School, died tragically on Feb. 18, 2010. Bennett was the victim of a residential shooting that shocked the McEachern community and the Atlanta metropolitan area.

At a memorial service days after the death, his literature teacher read an essay entitled "Strength" written by Bennett within a week of his death.

Bennett's essay closed with the following lines:

"There will never be a time that I will give up. I work hard at whatever I do for that man upstairs to smile down on me with the rays of the sun.

"My drive cannot be stopped or even slowed down, because every obstacle has a way around it.

"Every day I become stronger from the weights physically, the books mentally and life emotionally. There is no limit to my strength and at the end of the day, I want to be known as the strongest."

Bennett rushed for 1,857 yards and 28 touchdowns as a senior captain, helping McEachern to an undefeated regular season. One of Georgia's most decorated seniors, Bennett earned the state's AAAA Offensive Player of the Year Award. At McEachern, Bennett was a campus leader and honors student.

The son of Narjaketha Bennett and the late Charles Bennett, Rajaan was the oldest of four siblings: brother, Desy, and sisters Narcharlette and Taelor.

ALL-STAR CANDIDATES

2010 OUTLOOK

Sean Richardson

Jr., Safety, Linden, Ala.

A punishing tackler and intimidating force in the Vanderbilt secondary, Richardson blossomed as a starter at strong safety in 2009, earning 84 total tackles and 4.5 tackles for loss. This year, Richardson will take on a greater leadership role with the defensive unit.

Chris Marve

R-Jr., LB, Memphis, Tenn.

Named to preseason watchlists for the Nagurski and Butkus awards, Marve has enjoyed tremendous success in his first two years. The junior earned All-SEC honors in 2009 after ranking No. 2 in the league with 121 total tackles, and became the first SEC player in a decade to post 100+ tackles in his first two years.

Ryan Fowler

R-So., PK, Taylors, S.C.

In 2009, Fowler became one of the SEC's top kickers as a freshman, matching a team record with 16 field goals. He finished the year hitting 11 of 12 FG attempts.

T.J. Greenstone

Jr., DT, Lawrenceville, Ga.

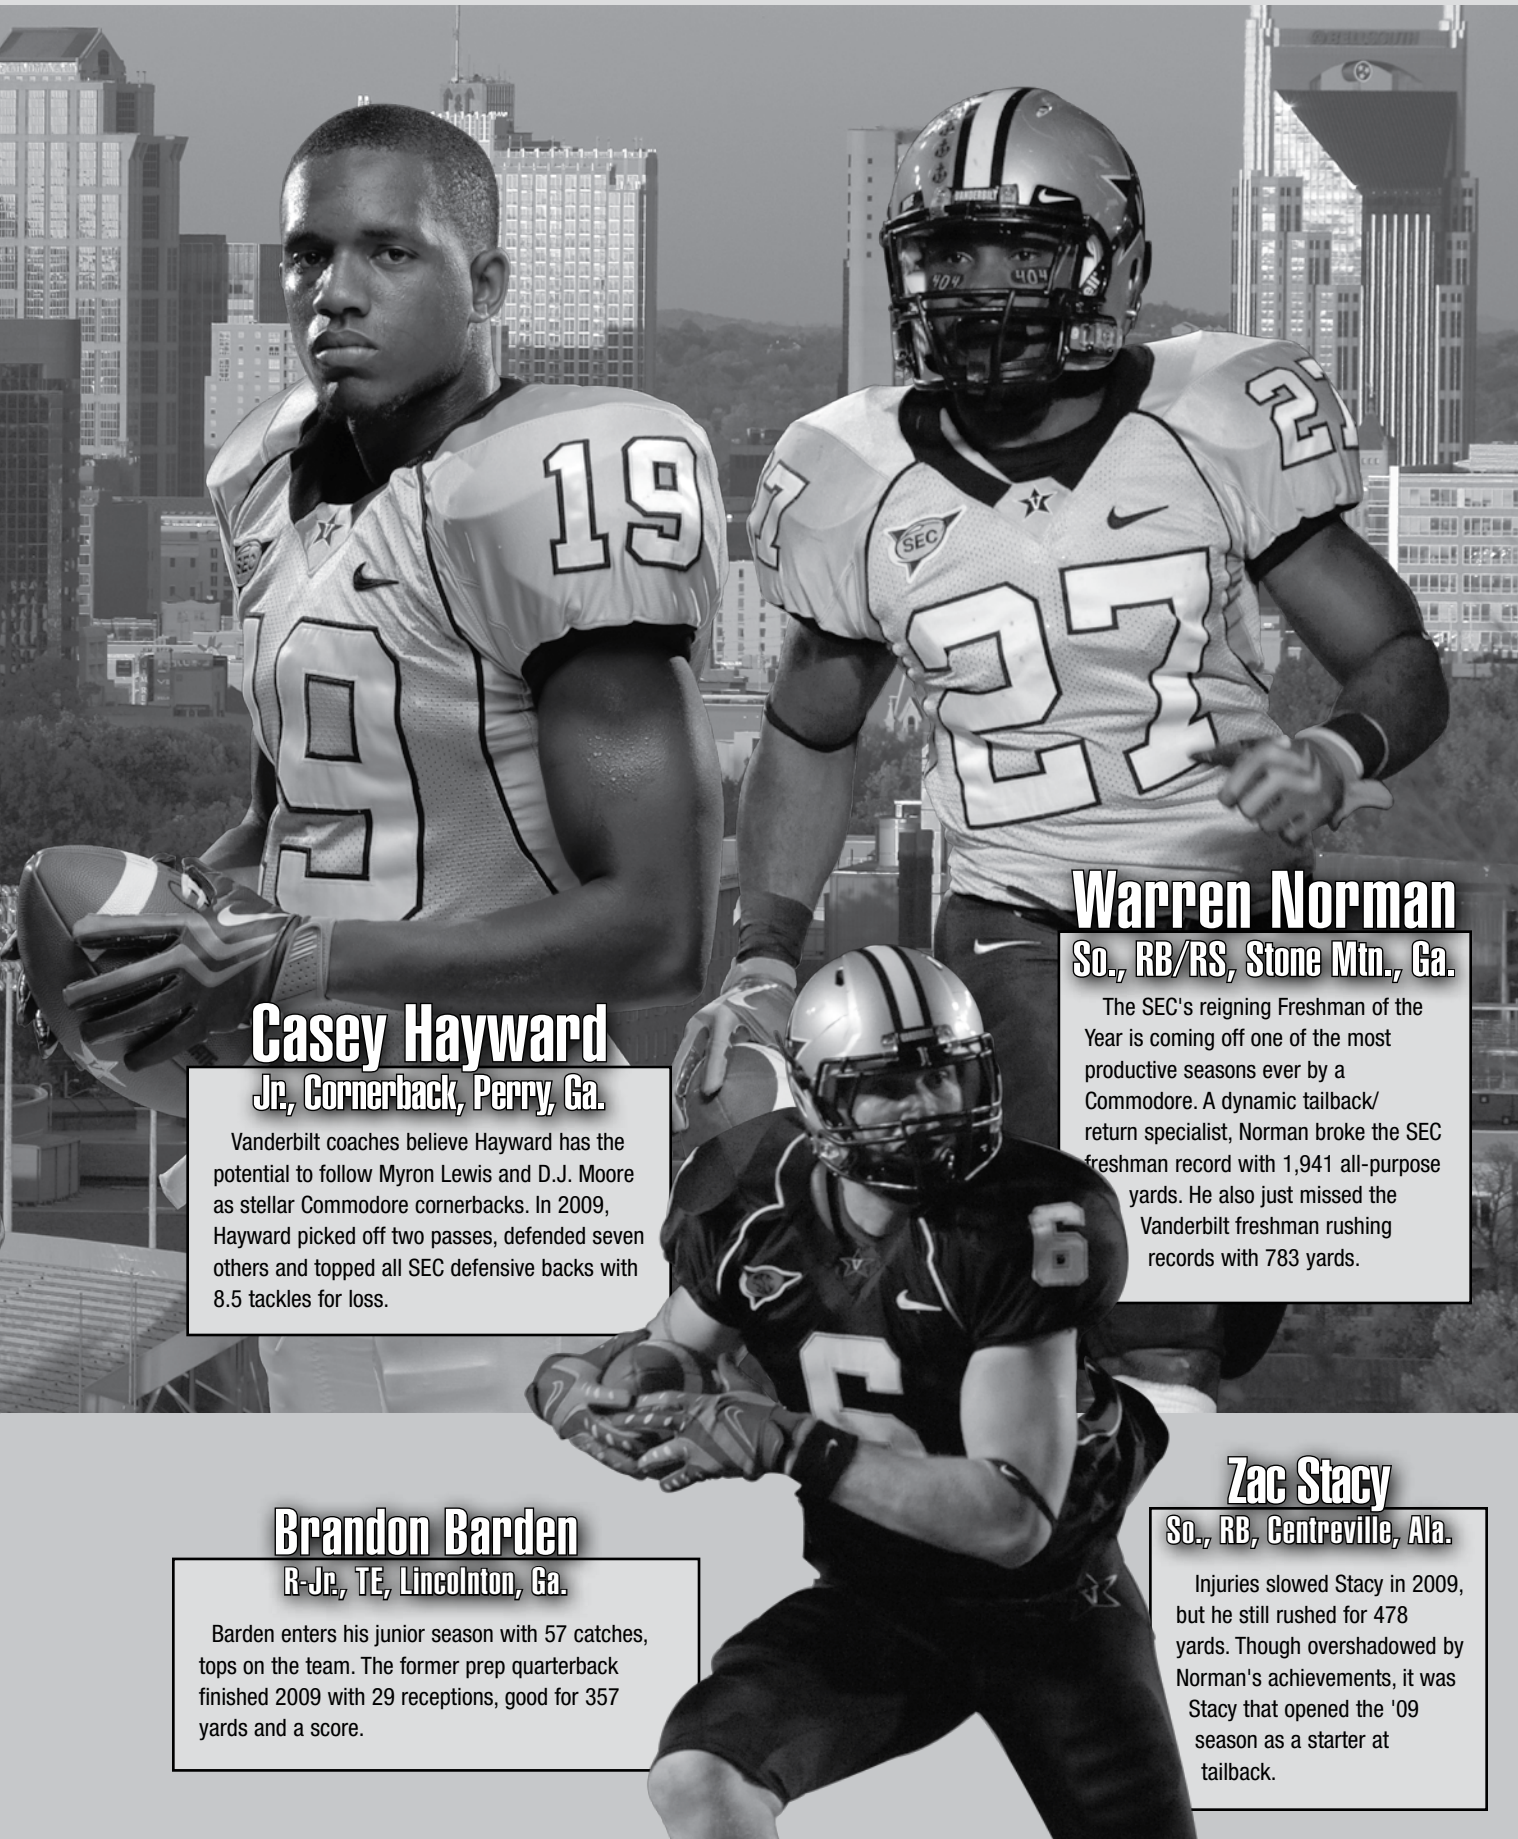

As a sophomore, Greenstone was extremely productive, posting 38 total tackles. This year, he's a co-captain and first-year starter.

ALL-STAR CANDIDATES

2010 OUTLOOK

Casey Hayward

Jr., Cornerback, Perry, Ga.

Vanderbilt coaches believe Hayward has the potential to follow Myron Lewis and D.J. Moore as stellar Commodore cornerbacks. In 2009, Hayward picked off two passes, defended seven others and topped all SEC defensive backs with 8.5 tackles for loss.

Warren Norman

So., RB/RS, Stone Mtn., Ga.

The SEC's reigning Freshman of the Year is coming off one of the most productive seasons ever by a Commodore. A dynamic tailback/return specialist, Norman broke the SEC freshman record with 1,941 all-purpose yards. He also just missed the Vanderbilt freshman rushing records with 783 yards.

Brandon Barden

R-Jr., TE, Lincolnton, Ga.

Barden enters his junior season with 57 catches, tops on the team. The former prep quarterback finished 2009 with 29 receptions, good for 357 yards and a score.

Zac Stacy

So., RB, Centreville, Ala.

Injuries slowed Stacy in 2009, but he still rushed for 478 yards. Though overshadowed by Norman's achievements, it was Stacy that opened the '09 season as a starter at tailback.

2010 OUTLOOK

This Vanderbilt preseason camp hardly resembles the 2009 one when Bobby Johnson greeted a Commodore squad coming off a 7-6 campaign capped by victory in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

In early August, a new leader – interim head coach Robbie Caldwell – will guide the squad arriving for camp. The veteran Vanderbilt assistant took over in mid-July when Johnson unexpectedly announced his retirement.

When camp opens in early August, Caldwell and his staff are expected to greet more than 12 starters and 44 letterwinners from a 2009 Commodore squad that ended a disappointing 2-10 season with eight straight losses.

"Our players are working extremely hard. Our strength director said the team's off-season conditioning effort has been tremendously successful. We will enter preseason camp in extremely sharp and ready to get to work," Caldwell said.

"Everyone associated with this team, from the coaches to players, was disappointed with the 2009 season and wants to make amends to how it went. I believe we have the talent to compete for a win every Saturday, and I look forward to the challenge of the coming season," Caldwell added.

Six starters return to an offense in search of consistent play in the interior front, more playmakers at skill positions, and better decision making and execution from the quarterback position. Across the line of scrimmage, more physicality against the rushing attack and greater success in key third-down and red-zone situations are keys to more victories.

QUARTERBACK No position will get closer scrutiny in the weeks leading to the opener against Northwestern than the quarterback role.

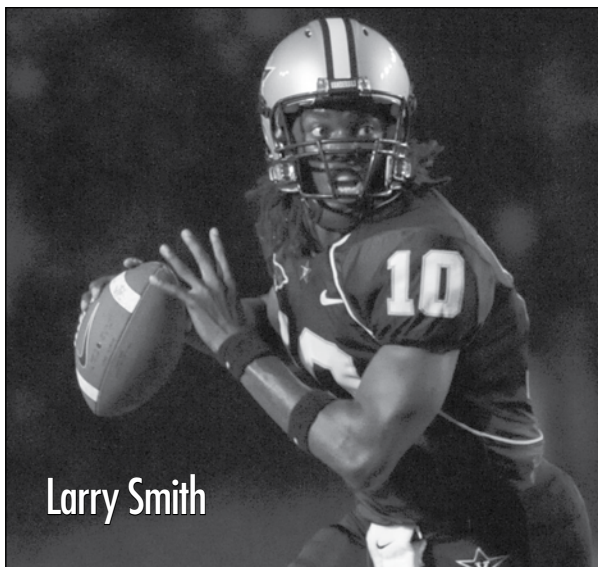

In 2009, the Commodores introduced a no-huddle offense, but failed to keep pace in several key categories, including scoring offense and total offense. The lack of progress forced Johnson to overhaul offensive coaching responsibilities.

In his first full year as a starter, Smith threw for 1,126 yards in nine games, but completed less than 50 percent of his passes. Smith's season came to an end prematurely when he suffered a season-ending torn hamstring against Georgia Tech in what appeared to be his best outing of the campaign. The strong-armed Smith needs to develop better touch on short to intermediate throws. Fully healthy, it appears Smith can win the starting nod with an impressive preseason camp.

One of the Commodores' most impressive players during spring drills was Jared Funk. The fifth-year senior displayed growing confidence and understanding of the playbook to go with arguably the strongest arm among the quarterback prospects. Another expected to compete for the starting role will be transfer junior Jordan Rodgers, a California junior college product who showed talent and poise in the spring.

Despite the presence of three upperclassmen, redshirt freshman Charlie Goro could be a wildcard in the competition. Goro came to Vanderbilt after a Parade All-American prep career near Chicago.

RUNNING BACKS With the return of its top running backs from a year ago, Warren Norman and Zac Stacy, the Commodores will also look for Kennard

Larry Smith

John Cole

Reeves and Wesley Tate to develop into playmakers this season. Junior Ryan van Rensburg is the team's leading fullback.

In 2009, Norman and Stacy rushed for 783 and 478 yards, respectively. Norman's total ranks No. 2 all-time among Commodore freshmen. Some long-time observers of the Commodores believe Norman and Stacy rank among the best tailback duos in team history.

Reeves enters his final year as a valued back, averaging 5.5 yards per carry. If the gifted Tate blossoms during his redshirt freshman season as coaches suggest, the bigger, more powerful option at tailback will diversify the rushing attack. Van Rensburg provides a punishing fullback style and short-yardage expertise for the offense. A fifth prospect, walk-on Reece Lovell provides depth.

RECEIVING CORPS Inexperienced and undersized a year ago, the receiving corps looks to continue the progress it showed during spring drills.

Three starters from the 2009 squad – wideouts John Cole and Udom Umoh and tight end Brandon Barden – highlight the returnees. Cole topped the team with 36 receptions and 382 yards last year, while Barden is the squad's active career leader with 57 career catches. Umoh caught 20 passes as a sophomore and was one of the corps' top blockers.

Barden, Cole and Umoh must continue to develop if the offense is to reach its goal of increased aerial production. Each had success adding strength in the offseason conditioning effort.

Receivers coach Charlie Fisher also will look to several other returning prospects, including Turner Wimberly, Akeem Dunham, Brady Brown, Tray Herndon and Jameson Sackey. Any of four freshmen signees – Chris Boyd, Jonathan Krause, Jordan Matthews and Trent Pruitt – could find their way into a gameday role.

Position mentor Ted Cain needs to identify more depth behind Barden at tight end. That task gets easier if Austin Monahan is at full strength after missing spring drills recuperating from offseason surgery. Mason Johnston will get a chance to audition for the depth chart by likely receiving plenty of snaps this spring. Ryan van Rensburg also is an option at either tight end or H-back, as is signee Blake Gowder.

OFFENSIVE LINE The last time Vanderbilt replaced as many offensive line starters as they will this year, the Commodores promptly made their first postseason appearance in a quarter century at the 2008 Music City Bowl. Perhaps history will repeat itself.

The line is thin in numbers, and lacks serious experience. Despite those facts, interim head coach Robbie Caldwell believes there's some solid talent as he begins the process of locking down four new offensive line starters.

Senior Joey Bailey, a guard-center in 2009, stepped forward in spring drills and claimed the center role. He also was elected offensive co-captain by teammates.

Kyle Fischer is the team's most experienced lineman. A starter at guard last year, Fischer needs to develop into the standout coaches believe possible. He should start at one guard position.

Several candidates are competing for the guard role across from Fischer, including Jabo Burrow, Mylon Brown and Chris Aaron. Aaron appeared to gain the upper hand last spring but has suffered multiple injuries that have limited his progress. Burrow switched from defensive tackle and has plenty of talent, yet lacks valuable experience and game snaps. Brown is a gifted, rangy redshirt freshman who could step forward to claim the role.

Ryan Seymour is the most experienced tackle prospect. Despite missing the spring with an injury, Seymour is expected back at full strength and has the versatility to play either tackle or guard. The second most experienced tackle is redshirt sophomore Caleb Welchans. Redshirt freshman Wesley Johnson made a huge impression last spring and also should contend for a starting job. Another returnee, Justin Cabbagestalk should provide depth at guard.

The lack of numbers may push a freshman into the mix. The signing class includes four offensive prospects: Andrew Bridges, Grant Ramsay, Logan Stewart and Chase White.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The depth of Vanderbilt's tackle position might depend on the health of senior defensive co-captain Adam Smotherman, who enters preseason camp recuperating from a leg injury early in spring drills. When Smotherman is in uniform, the interior line adds a veteran leader and two-year starter. If Smotherman isn't ready, the position lacks experience once you get beyond junior T.J. Greenstone.

The Commodores enter the season needing to replace three-year starting tackle Greg Billinger.

A 23-game starter, Smotherman is coming off his finest season: 31 tackles and three tackles for loss. The senior also brings tremendous leadership to the Commodore defense.

Greenstone is arguably the most active of the Commodore interior linemen, a proven performer who has a tremendous motor. The junior, also elected co-captain by teammates after spring drills, had 38 tackles and two quarterback sacks in 2009.

Three redshirt sophomores – Rob Lohr, Colt Nichter and Taylor Loftley – should contend for playing time. If Smotherman is not 100 percent, Lohr is expected to start next to Greenstone. Both Nichter and Loftley are stronger against the run than they are pressuring the quarterback. A fourth sophomore, Josh Jelesky, also could be in the mix.

The coaches might look to an incoming freshman to provide depth. The '10 signees include two interior line candidates, James Kittredge and Vince Taylor.

The Commodores' newest coach, Mike Pelton, enters his first season with several defensive end prospects available to replace departed multi-year starters Steve Stone and Broderick Stewart.

Three Commodores return with starting experience: Terial Brannon, Tim Fugger and Theron Kadri. Fugger earned eight starts in 2009, collecting 21 total tackles and a pair of sacks. Kadri produced higher stat totals – 24 tackles and three QB sacks – sharing snaps with Fugger. Brannon also showed effectiveness, contributing 12 tackles.

Any of three young end prospects – Johnell Thomas, Walker May and Thad McHaney – could claim a playing role next year with a strong preseason effort. Thomas was the team's fifth end last year, contributing six tackles and plenty of hustle to the unit. May's ability to rush off the edge was a highlight of spring drills.

LINEBACKERS Facing a void in leadership and production with the graduations of two-year starting 'backer Patrick Benoist and versatile Brent Trice, the Commodores are likely to restructure this corps around the talents of junior Chris Marve.

Marve, the first SEC linebacker in a decade to surpass the 100-tackle plateau as a freshman and sophomore, earned All-SEC status in 2009 as the league's second leading tackler. The Butkus Award candidate, elected co-captain after spring practice, also has the versatility to play either the middle or weakside linebacking positions.

Coming off a career-high 44 tackles in 2009, senior John Stokes returns at strongside linebacker, and is fully healthy for preseason camp for the first time in two years.

Junior Nate Campbell, a two-year letterwinner, also returns after missing the entire 2009 season.

Four sophomores are expected to contend for significant minutes this year: Tristan Strong, Archibald Barnes, Dexter Daniels and DeAndre Jones. Strong and Barnes were the most active in 2009, though Strong missed spring contact rehabilitating an injured knee.

Blake Southerland will attempt to position himself on the two-deep at inside linebacker this spring. Former safety Micah Powell also is expected to receive repetitions at linebacker. Two signees, Chase Garnham and Fitz Lassing, will get a close look during preseason drills.

CORNERBACKS Despite the graduation of NFL third round draft pick Myron Lewis, the Commodores possess both experienced playmakers and quality depth in their corps of defensive backs.

The returnees are topped by Casey Hayward, a superb athlete who started every game in 2009. Hayward, who ranked fifth on the team in total tackles and contributed 8.5 tackles for loss and a pair of interceptions, has lock-down cover ability and All-SEC potential.

In addition to Hayward, the Commodores return two others with starting experience at defensive back, Jamie Graham and Eddie Foster. After two years of seeing action on both sides of the line of scrimmage, Graham is expected to concentrate at defensive back. One of the team's top talents, Graham contributed 27 tackles and two interceptions last year. Foster was impressive as a true freshman nickel back, posting a pair of picks and solid open-field tackling ability.

Three young Commodores – Trey Wilson, Eric Samuels and Javon Marshall – are exciting prospects at cornerback. Wilson and Samuels flashed talent in limited duty as true freshmen, while redshirt freshman Marshall looks to compete with Foster as a nickel back in passing situations.

A pair of athletic prospects – Steven Clarke and Andre Hal – are members of the 2010 freshman signing class.

SAFETIES The Commodores return a top performer in junior strong safety Sean Richardson. Potentially one of the top secondary players in the SEC, Richardson accumulated 84 tackles in 10 starts last year, demonstrating punishing force as a tackler, willingness to play through pain, and an excellent understanding of the defensive scheme.

Across from Richardson, the Commodores are inexperienced at free safety. The only player with collegiate experience is Al Owens, who should back up at the strong safety post.

Two newcomers, Jay Fullam and Kenny Ladler, impressed during spring drills and enter camp expecting to compete for the free safety role. Fullam was likely to contribute in 2009, but suffered a serious hand injury that curtailed his performance. After arriving on campus in January, Ladler showed athleticism in the spring, and has benefited from a solid summer conditioning effort.

The coaches are anticipating two freshmen signees, Karl Butler and Andre Simmons, to showcase their talents in preseason camp. Walk-ons Elvio Tropeano, Duane Vaughn and Kurt Lockhart also are available.

PLACEKICKER As a first-year starter in 2009, Ryan Fowler gave the Commodores accuracy and consistency in their kicking game, gaining confidence with each game played. Fowler finished the campaign as a freshman All-America and freshman All-SEC recipient, tying the team single-season record with 16 field goals. The coaches expect even more progress in Fowler's second year as a starter.

The Commodore signing class also included a highly regarded kicking prospect, Carey Spear. A walk-on with prep soccer experience, Eric Freiman, showed some potential in spring drills.

Returning Specialists

Ryan Fowler	.....PK.....	So.....	1L
David Giller	.....SN.....	Sr.....	2L
Richard Kent	.....P.....	So.....	1L

PUNTER For the first time in four years, the Commodores will be without the services of Brett Upson, who earned second team All-SEC honors as a senior in 2009. The coaches have penciled in Richard Kent as the starter. A two-year veteran of the squad, Kent impressed during spring drills with a powerful and accurate leg.

Spear, Fowler and freshman Fitz Lassing are candidates to contend for the top reserve role.

RETURN SPECIALISTS The Commodores return an All-America candidate at returning kicks in Warren Norman. Two others, Trey Wilson and Jamie Graham, have collegiate experience. The coaches would be ecstatic if Norman duplicates his amazing 2009 season that included three returns for touchdowns and a 26.2-yard average on returns.

Zac Stacy was erratic when inserted as punt returner in the finale at Tennessee. Despite the inconsistency, Stacy showed promise, including contributing a return of 26 yards, the team's longest of the year. Several others, including Graham, Wilson and John Cole, could get a look at the return role.

HEAD COACH ROBBIE CALDWELL

COACHES

Robbie Caldwell, a three-decade veteran of the collegiate coaching ranks, became the 26th head coach in Vanderbilt gridiron history on July 14 when he was named by university officials to replace former Commodore mentor and close friend Bobby Johnson.

Caldwell, a native of Pageland, S.C., has served on the Vanderbilt staff since accepting Johnson's offer prior to the 2002 season. Until becoming head coach, Caldwell was assistant head coach and offensive line mentor under Johnson.

This marks the first head coaching position for Caldwell, whose ties with Bobby Johnson and several members of the Commodore staff date back to the mid-1970s.

"I look forward to the challenge of guiding the Vanderbilt football program, and fully understand the task at hand," Caldwell said. "At the same time, I am truly excited about the opportunity to continue building this program just as Bobby Johnson did for the last eight years.

"This staff knows each other, believes in each other, and believes in the players in this program. We'll work diligently to win football games on the field and mold great citizens off the field. Bobby Johnson and I share those philosophies. Those goals will continue to be my goals as head coach of the Vanderbilt Commodores," Caldwell added.

During his career, Caldwell has coached in 11 postseason bowl games and has coached six conference-winning squads. Five of his pupils have earned All-America recognition; and seven has been picked in the NFL draft.

The new Commodore head coach has coached some of the top offensive linemen in Vanderbilt history. Caldwell mentored the collegiate career of Chris Williams, who developed from a lanky freshman prospect into a top-caliber player during his five years on the Vanderbilt campus.

Williams earned All-Southeastern Conference honors as a senior tackle in 2007 and started getting serious attention from professional scouts after a strong performance at the 2008 Senior Bowl. Three months later, Williams became the highest Vanderbilt offensive lineman ever taken in the NFL Draft when Chicago made him the No. 14 overall pick. He is expected to start this season for the Bears at left tackle, protecting the blindside of former Commodore signal caller Jay Cutler.

This April, another Caldwell pupil, offensive tackle Thomas Welch, was selected in the seventh round by the New England Patriots.

A third former Commodore lineman, Justin Geisinger, also played several years with NFL squads before leaving the game last year.

Like Johnson and other members of the current staff, Caldwell's football lineage passes through Furman University. His coaching style is influenced by two former Paladin head coaches, Art Baker and Dick Sheridan. As an undersized, overachieving center, Caldwell lettered three years at Furman playing for Baker. As a senior in 1975, he earned Furman's MVP Award as an offensive captain. The following year, he was Baker's graduate assistant at Furman.

Two years later, he began an eight-year tenure as offensive line coach at Furman under Sheridan. During that period, the Paladins won six Southern Conference championships, with Caldwell mentoring eight first-team all-conference players and five recipients of the Jacobs Award given to the league's top offensive lineman.

Caldwell was one of three current Vanderbilt offensive coaches that joined Sheridan when he became head coach at North Carolina State in 1986. Caldwell served 14 years with the Wolfpack, continuing seven years beyond Sheridan's stay on campus.

At North Carolina State, Caldwell tutored the Wolfpack line for 11 years, then added assistant head coaching responsibilities from 1997-99. Fourteen of his North Carolina State pupils were All-Atlantic Coast Conference recipients.

From 2000-01, Caldwell coached the University of North Carolina offensive line. The Tar Heels capped their 2001 season with a victory over Auburn in the Peach Bowl.

Caldwell graduated with a B.S. degree in Health and Physical Education from Furman in 1976.

Caldwell and his wife, Nora Lynn, are the parents of a daughter, Emsley, 15.

What former players are saying about Caldwell...

"No person is more important to my success on the football field than Coach Caldwell. Just a great person to play for. The offensive linemen enjoyed tremendous camaraderie with Coach Caldwell. All of us wanted to play – and play well – for Coach Caldwell."

CLOSE-KNIT COACHING STAFF

COACHES

The Staff Under Caldwell: Many Professional Ties Still Evident

Despite Bobby Johnson's recent retirement, the Commodore coaching staff remains a close-knit group, with numerous personal and professional relationships dating back three decades.

Robbie Caldwell, Vanderbilt's newly named interim head coach, comes from the same coaching tree as his predecessor, and many of the other coaches on the current Commodores staff.

In the mid-1970s, Caldwell was an offensive teammate at Furman with two current Vanderbilt coaches, offensive coordinator Jimmy Kiser and special teams coordinator Ted Cain. By 1976, Caldwell was coaching on the same Furman staff as Cain and Johnson. Two years later, Caldwell and Cain were coaching a young Furman walk-on named Bruce Fowler, the current Vanderbilt assistant head coach for defense.

The Furman football program, with Dick Sheridan at the helm and Caldwell, Cain and Fowler on staff, enjoyed a revival into the 1980s, winning enough Southern Conference titles to catch the attention of North Carolina State athletic officials, who hired Sheridan as their head coach in 1986.

While Johnson and Fowler stayed at Furman and helped create more nationally contending teams with the aid of such players as current Commodore running backs coach

Des Kitchings, three current Vanderbilt staff accepted the Raleigh challenge with Sheridan: Caldwell, Cain and Kiser.

In the mid-1990s, current Commodore receivers coach Charlie Fisher joined Caldwell and Kiser at North Carolina State. One of the top Wolfpack players during their tenure was all-conference defensive tackle Ricky Logo, the Commodores' current recruiting coordinator and defensive line mentor.

After 14 years at N.C. State, Caldwell moved down Tobacco Road to Chapel Hill to become North Carolina's offensive line coach. In 2001, Caldwell became impressed with the abilities of a Tar Heel defensive graduate assistant, Jamie Bryant, now the Commodores' defensive coordinator.

Vanderbilt's newest addition to the staff, defensive ends coach Mike Pelton, was well known to Logo, having worked together for three years on the Troy defensive coaching staff.

Johnson Retires July 14

Bobby Johnson, who earned national respect during an eight-year run that began in 2002, announced his retirement from collegiate coaching on July 14.

Johnson's announcement was a surprise to all in the Vanderbilt Athletics program, including his coaching staff and support staff.

His tenure at Vanderbilt was the longest by a Commodore head coach in nearly 50 years.

Johnson's years were highlighted by the Commodores' 7-6 campaign in 2008 that ended with a 16-14 victory over Boston College in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

Johnson earned Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year honors with Nick Saban of Alabama and Houston Nutt of Ole Miss following the 2008 campaign.

Though Johnson's overall record at Vanderbilt lacked distinction, SEC observers watched his Commodores pull off numerous impressive wins, and compete to the final seconds in virtually every performance.

Between 2005-08, Johnson's teams won 21 games, the most by Vanderbilt in a four-year period since 1972-75.

Johnson's Vanderbilt teams notched several unexpected SEC victories on the road. Under Johnson, the Commodores won at Arkansas and Tennessee in 2005, at Georgia in 2006, at South Carolina in 2007, and at Ole Miss and Kentucky in 2008.

Johnson's teams also defeated five ranked opponents, including four on the road.

The 2008 Vanderbilt team also gained plenty of national attention. The Commodores capped a 5-0 start to the season by defeating No. 13 Auburn 14-13 with ESPN's College Football GameDay airing from campus for the first time in program history.

Johnson's players also enjoyed individual accolades. His notable pupils included Warren Norman and Kwane Doster, the only Commodore players to earn SEC Freshman of the Year honors, SEC Offensive Player of the Year Jay Cutler, and league receiving record holder Earl Bennett.

Eleven of his standouts were picked in the NFL Draft, including first-round selections Cutler and offensive tackle Chris Williams.

The Commodores also were academic achievers under Johnson. Twice, the Vanderbilt football program earned the AFCA's Academic Achievement Award as national leaders for graduation rates. In 2008, 38 Vanderbilt student-athletes earned All-SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition, the highest single season total in league history. All told, 221 Commodores reached SEC Academic Honor Roll status. One of his earliest Vanderbilt pupils, standout linebacker Hunter Hillenmeyer, was an National Scholar Athlete recipient in 2002.

JAMIE BRYANT

Secondary;
Defensive Coordinator

COACHES

Jamie Bryant enters his second year as defensive coordinator. He also handles coaching duties for the Commodore defensive backs.

In his first year as coordinator, the Commodores continued their solid defensive play. Despite several key injuries, including the loss of three-year starting safety Ryan Hamilton for 10 games, the unit ranked ninth nationally in pass defense and 46th nationally in scoring defense.

Bryant, 40, was promoted to defensive coordinator after the Commodores' 2008 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl victory. Now in his ninth year on the Vanderbilt staff, Bryant has also served the role of special teams coordinator.

Two of Bryant's starters this season, safety Sean Richardson and cornerback Casey Hayward are ranked among the SEC's elite at their positions.

Bryant has a number of former pupils currently on National Football League rosters. Two standouts from the 2009 squad, Hamilton and cornerback Myron Lewis, are with Philadelphia and Tampa Bay, respectively. Lewis, the third All-SEC selection mentored by Bryant, was a third round draft pick of the Bucs.

Two other recent Commodores, former All-America defensive back D.J. Moore and safety Reshard Langford, are with Chicago and Kansas City, respectively.

Bryant's 2008 starting corps of Moore, Lewis, Langford and Hamilton also own the distinction of each posting four interceptions or more that season.

Prior to accepting the Commodore post, Bryant assisted at North Carolina in 2001 alongside current Vanderbilt interim head coach Robbie Caldwell. That year, an aggressive defense helped the Tar Heels finish strong, winning seven of their final nine regular season games, including impressive routs of ACC foes Florida State and Clemson, then defeating Auburn in the Peach Bowl.

Prior to the UNC post, Bryant's efforts as defensive coordinator and secondary coach improved a struggling defense at I-AA St. Francis (Pa.) University in 2000.

Bryant entered the collegiate coaching ranks in 1997 as outside linebackers coach at Clarion. His duties at Clarion evolved to secondary coach and special teams coordinator for his final two seasons.

A native of Fredericktown, Ohio, Bryant was a three-year letterwinner at Ohio Wesleyan. He earned a B.S. in Economics Management.

Bryant and his wife, Elisa, are the parents of two sons, Luke and Jake.

TED CAIN

Tight Ends; Special Teams Coordinator

Ted Cain has more than three decades of collegiate coaching experience, and served a two-year stint as the head coach at Virginia Military Institute. In December 2001, he became the first assistant on Bobby Johnson's Vanderbilt staff.

This season, the former Commodore offensive coordinator will serve as tight ends coach and special teams coordinator.

Cain was offensive coordinator and tight ends coach for his first eight years at Vanderbilt. He switched responsibilities after the 2009 campaign following offensive struggles the previous two seasons. Despite moving to a no-huddle attack, the unit struggled with inconsistency, key injuries and limited playmaking ability at several positions.

One of Cain's pupils at tight end, junior Brandon Barden, returns this season as the Commodores' active leader with 57 career receptions, including 27 catches as a sophomore. Barden and junior Austin Monahan, who missed five games to injury in 2009, provide Cain a solid nucleus at tight end.

Cain's tenure has produced some of the top offenses in team history. The 2005 squad led by SEC Offensive Player of the Year Jay Cutler produced more points and first downs than any Vanderbilt offense in the last three decades.

In addition to the VMI head coaching position, Cain's coaching resume includes a successful tenure as offensive coordinator at North Carolina State and many years of coaching service at Furman.

Cain, 58, was a three-year tight end for Furman. After serving a two-year term as a U.S. Army second lieutenant, Cain began his coaching career as Furman's linebackers coach in 1977. He later became the Furman passing game coordinator/receivers coach, helping the squad to a 69-23-2 mark over eight years. That success led to Cain's move to North Carolina State in 1986. As offensive coordinator and tight ends coach, Cain directed seven of N.C. State's top 10 passing seasons. Cain rejoined Johnson's staff at Furman in 1999, helping the Paladins to a pair of Southern Conference titles.

Cain earned a B.S. degree in geology and a M.A. in education from Furman. Cain and his wife, Susan, are the parents of two children: Matt, 26, an assistant coach with Presbyterian (S.C.) College; and Erin, 24.

CHARLIE FISHER

Wide Receivers; Passing Game Coordinator

In his ninth season at Vanderbilt, Charlie Fisher works with wide receivers and serves as passing game coordinator with the Commodore offense.

The former Division II head coach also mentored the team's running backs in 2002-03.

In 2009, Fisher's youthful wide receiving corps struggled for much of the year. Entering the season with little game experience at the position, Fisher mentored first-year starters John Cole and Udom Umoh to solid seasons.

This season, Fisher's corps also includes four true freshman recruits. In the past, Fisher has enjoyed productive seasons from freshman, including Earl Bennett, regarded as the greatest receiver in team history.

As a freshman in 2005, Bennett set a SEC record with 79 receptions. By the end of his three-year career, Bennett amassed another SEC all-time mark with 236 career catches. In 2009, the record-breaking Bennett was a starter in the Chicago Bears receiving corps.

Another former Fisher pupil, 2008 graduate Sean Walker, was on the St. Louis Rams' roster last year.

As the Vanderbilt running backs coach in 2002, he mentored Kwane Doster to SEC Freshman of the Year honors.

Before joining Vanderbilt, he served two years as offensive coordinator/quarterback coach at Temple. Prior to the Temple move, Fisher was successful during a two-year stint tutoring North Carolina State receivers, including likely NFL Hall of Famer Torry Holt. The Wolfpack passing attack led the ACC and helped spur the team's drive to a bowl berth.

Fisher's background includes a successful tenure as head coach at West Georgia prior to moving to North Carolina State. From 1993-97, Fisher guided the Braves to a 36-17 overall record. He also served as an offensive coach at Lenior-Rhyne (N.C.) College from 1985-1990.

Fisher played quarterback and wide receiver from 1977-80 at Springfield (Mass.) College. He also lettered as a shortstop in baseball. He earned his B.S. in physical education. Fisher earned a M.A. in sports management from Eastern Kentucky in 1984. He has served as a grad assistant at both EKU and Ole Miss.

Fisher and his wife, Julie, have two sons: Brian, 21; and Brett, 15.

BRUCE FOWLER

Assistant Head Coach/Defense; Linebackers

Bruce Fowler starts his second year as Assistant Head Coach in charge of defense. He will also mentor Commodore linebackers this season.

Prior to getting promoted to assistant head coach/defense, Fowler served seven years as defensive coordinator.

Fowler's defensive staff has developed a unit that has ranked among the nation's elite in recent years. The 2008 defense was one of the best in recent team history, and a key factor behind Vanderbilt's 7-6 season and Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl win, ranking high in scoring defense, total defense and pass defense. Last year, the unit also ranked among the NCAA Top 50 in scoring defense and ninth in the nation in pass defense. The unit also has earned a reputation for being opportunistic, producing a positive turnover margin in 2008-09.

Five former defenders during the Fowler tenure – Myron Lewis, D.J. Moore, Jonathan Goff, Jovan Haye and Hunter Hillenmeyer – have been selected in the NFL Draft. Moore and Hillenmeyer are with Chicago; Goff and Haye are starters for the New York Giants and Tennessee Titans, respectively. Three others, Ryan Hamilton, Curtis Gatewood and Reshard Langford, are currently on NFL rosters.

Fowler served as Johnson's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Furman. Their relationship on the field dates to the 1970s when Johnson was Fowler's position coach at Furman.

Fowler served 16 seasons at Furman. After beginning as a graduate assistant in 1984, Fowler's responsibilities at Furman progressed throughout his tenure. The defense was critical to Furman's 30-9 success from 1999-2001, two conference titles, three I-AA playoff berths and a 2001 national runnerup finish.

Fowler worked with the Furman secondary for six years prior to coaching Paladin linebackers. He mentored six all-conference performers, including All-Americans, Will Bouton and John Keith. He also served several years as an offensive assistant before moving to the defensive staff.

Fowler earned two letters at Furman. He was a member of the Paladins' first conference championship in 1978, started in the secondary in 1979, and played on Furman's 1980 league champion team. He earned a B.S. and M.A. degree in physical education from the university.

Fowler is married to the former Lindy Gilman. They are the parents of a son, Jake, 15, and daughter, Madison, 13.

JIMMY KISER

Quarterbacks; Offensive Coordinator

Jimmy Kiser enters his first year as offensive coordinator during a nine-year tenure at Vanderbilt. He also will continue to mentor Commodore quarterbacks.

For the last three years, Kiser has served as co-passing game coordinator for the Commodore attack.

In 2009, the quarterback duo of Larry Smith and Mackenzi Adams were affected by injuries and inconsistent play. Several position groupings also were hurt by injury losses.

Kiser earned widespread acclaim for mentoring quarterback Jay Cutler, the 2005 SEC Offensive Player of the Year who virtually rewrote the Commodore record books. Kiser coached Cutler for four consecutive seasons, developing the strong-armed prospect into a top National Football League prospect. By the time he graduated, Cutler ranked among the top quarterbacks in SEC history and owned nearly all of the team's passing marks. Eventually, Cutler was selected in the first round, the No. 11 overall pick, of the 2006 NFL Draft.

Kiser started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Furman. After coaching three years at Dunwoody (Ga.) H.S., Kiser worked two years at Lenoir-Rhyne (N.C.) College, serving as offensive coordinator.

In 1986, Kiser joined the North Carolina State staff. He served the Wolfpack as receivers coach (1986-95), quarterbacks/receivers coach (1996) and offensive coordinator (1997-99). Under Kiser in 1997, the North Carolina State led the Atlantic Coast Conference in rushing offense and finished second in total offense, then topped the league in total offense the following year.

In 2000, Kiser moved to Memphis where he coached quarterbacks. In 2001, he served as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Richmond.

Kiser won four varsity letters as a wide receiver at Furman, graduating in 1979. He was named honorable mention all-conference as a senior. He earned a B.A. in Economics and Business Administration, graduating cum laude. In 1982, Kiser earned a MBA from the Clemson/Furman joint post-graduate program.

Kiser and his wife, LeAnn, are the parents of four girls: Anna Baugher, 23, Jodi, 21, Jamie, 19, and Kelly, 9.

DES KITCHINGS

Running Backs; Running Game Coordinator

Des Kitchings enters his third year on the Commodore staff. He coaches Vanderbilt running backs and serves as running game coordinator. Kitchings was co-special teams coordinator last year.

Kitchings came to Vanderbilt after serving as an assistant at Furman from 2004-07. He briefly accepted a position at Western Michigan prior to taking the Vanderbilt role.

In 2009, Kitchings did a splendid job mentoring true freshman tailbacks Warren Norman and Zac Stacy after senior Jared Hawkins missed much of the year with an injury. Norman and Stacy ranked 1-2 on the team in rushing, with Norman producing one of the finest all-purpose campaigns ever by an SEC freshman. He ended the season as the SEC Freshman of the Year and a freshman All-American.

Kitchings also enjoyed success as an offensive coach at Furman. Serving as tight ends coach and special teams coordinator at Furman, he helped mentor three Paladins to all-conference recognition: Larry Hedden, Willis Sudderth and John Rust.

During his tenure at Furman, the Paladins went 10-3 and captured a conference title in 2004, and advanced to the NCAA I-AA national semifinals in 2005.

Kitchings was a standout receiver/return specialist at Furman. As a senior in 1999, Kitchings helped Furman win the first of three conference championships under Johnson. He ranks among the school's all-time leaders in receptions and returns. As a specialist, he averaged a SoCon record 29.3 yards on 33 kickoff returns, four of which went for touchdowns – also a school record.

A consensus all-Southern Conference selection as both a receiver and returner, Kitchings earned All-America honors as a return specialist in 1999 after leading the NCAA I-AA division in return average.

Kitchings was selected by Kansas City in the 2000 NFL Draft, and spent four years on practice squads and rosters of NFL squads.

Kitchings completed a Health and Exercise Science degree at Furman in 2000.

Kitchings and his wife, Heather, are the parents of son, Aiden Jacob, 4; and daughter, Ava Marie, 2.

RICK LOGO

Defensive Tackles; Recruiting Coordinator

Rick Logo is entering his fourth year as a Commodore defensive line coach. He added duties as special teams' co-coordinator after the 2009 season.

In 2009, Logo mentored tackle Greg Billinger to his finest year in a Vanderbilt uniform. Billinger established single-season bests in virtually every statistical category. Two other tackles, Adam Smotherman and All-SEC freshman T.J. Greenstone, also performed admirably.

In 2008, starting ends Broderick Stewart and Steven Stone shared the team lead with five quarterback sacks and were extremely productive.

Two of Logo's pupils from the 2007 season, Curtis Gatewood and Theo Horrocks, signed NFL free agent deals. Gatewood is currently with the Detroit Lions.

Logo came to Vanderbilt from Troy University where he served as co-defensive coordinator. Logo also coached Troy's defensive line from 2002-2004, and mentored two current standouts in the NFL, Osi Umenyiora of the New York Giants and Demarcus Ware of Dallas.

He joined Troy after one year at Western Carolina where he served as assistant head coach and line coach. Before that, he worked as a defensive assistant at Chattanooga.

A native of Santa Ana, Calif., Logo played four seasons as a defensive tackle at North Carolina State from 1989-92. That Wolfpack staff guided by Dick Sheridan included current Vanderbilt coaches Robbie Caldwell, Ted Cain and Jimmy Kiser.

During Logo's four seasons at N.C. State, the Wolfpack had a combined record of 32-16-1, playing in four consecutive bowls. He was a team captain during his senior season and earned All-ACC honors in 1992. That same season, he was named third-team All-America, and played in the postseason Japan and Hula bowls.

After graduating in 1992 with a B.A. in sociology, Logo signed a contract with Detroit, but suffered a career-ending injury as a rookie.

Logo is a graduate of Spencer (Ga.) H.S., where he was a standout in football, wrestling and track and field.

Logo is married to the former Folole Falefia. They are the parents of a son, Elijah, 3.

MIKE PELTON

Defensive Ends

Mike Pelton is Vanderbilt's newest coach, getting tabbed as the team's defensive ends coach in March. He replaces former linebacker mentor Warren Belin, who left to accept another collegiate post.

Pelton, 38, arrived on campus to work with the defensive line during the Commodore spring drills.

A native of Alabama, Pelton's most recent stint in college football – a two-year tenure as defensive line coach at Iowa State – ended in 2008 when Iowa State head coach Gene Chizic accepted the Auburn position.

"I believe Mike is going to be a fantastic addition to our defensive staff. He demonstrated that in spring practice," former head coach Bobby Johnson said. "Mike has shown impressive knowledge and has worked effectively with staff members previously. He's going to be a tremendous asset."

Pelton and current Commodore line coach Rick Logo worked together as defensive assistants at Troy, sharing defensive line responsibilities under Larry Blakeney. In 2005, Logo's final year on the Troy staff, Pelton and Logo were co-defensive coordinators for the Trojans.

At Iowa State, Pelton's defensive lines were an area of strong improvement during the Chizic Era. Pelton mentored a pair of second team All-Big 12 selections at Iowa State: nose guard Ahtyba Rubin and defensive end Kurtis Taylor. Rubin just finished his second year as a starter for the Cleveland Browns after being selected in the sixth round of the 2008 NFL draft.

Pelton went to Chizic's staff at Iowa State after serving six years on the staff at Troy, including the final two years at co-defensive coordinator.

The Troy defense was consistently among the nation's leaders in several categories. In 2002, the Trojans ranked fourth nationally, allowing just 277 total yards per game. In 2004, the Trojans ranked 16th in total defense.

Together, Pelton and Logo worked with two of the finest defensive linemen in Troy history, Demarcus Ware and Osi Umenyiora. Ware just finished his fifth year as an All-Pro linebacker with Dallas. Umenyiora is a two-time Pro Bowl defensive end for the New York Giants.

Prior to going to Troy, Pelton coached the defensive line at Valdosta State (Ga.) University in 2000. The Blazers posted a 10-2 record and made the NCAA Division II playoffs.

As a player, Pelton was a standout defensive tackle at Auburn, earning first team All-SEC recognition in 1994. He was also a senior co-captain.

Pelton and his wife, Staci, are the parents of three daughters: Myesa, 13; Tyra, 10; and Peyton, 6 months.

JOHN SISK

Director of Strength, Speed and Conditioning

An 18-year coaching veteran, John Sisk enters his ninth year as Vanderbilt's Director of Speed, Strength and Conditioning.

Sisk plays a vital role with the Commodore football program, developing prospects who can compete effectively in the nation's premier football conference while directing the team's conditioning effort.

Sisk and his strength staff have enjoyed plenty of success. The 2008 Commodores that captured the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl, due in large part to their superb fitness level, outscored their opponents 127-81 after halftime.

Sisk's aim is to build stronger players, who in turn who can translate the added strength to the gridiron. Much of Sisk's offseason conditioning routine is aimed at enhancing individual physical traits important to the football field.

"John makes guys better football players, and he also works well with each student-athlete on a personal and physical level," former head coach Bobby Johnson said.

Sisk's pupils also witness huge results in the weightroom. Since arriving on campus, nearly 100 different Commodore players have bench pressed at least 400 pounds, including nine on the current roster. He has mentored four former Commodores into strength and conditioning All-Americans: linemen Justin Geisinger, Chris Williams and Gabe Hall, and quarterback Jay Cutler.

Since 2002, 12 former Commodores that came through Sisk's program remain in the National Football League. Seven former standouts have been taken in the NFL draft since 2006, including first-rounders Cutler and Williams, who went from an undersized 245-pound prospect on his arrival at Vanderbilt to the No. 14 pick overall in the 2008 draft.

Sisk has also worked with four Commodore baseball players selected as first-round picks by Major League Baseball: 2007 No. 1 pick David Price, 2008 No. 2 selection Pedro Alvarez, pitcher Casey Weathers and pitcher Mike Minor.

The relationship between Sisk and Johnson dates to 1994, when Sisk was a Furman strength assistant in Johnson's first year as coach.

Sisk joined Vanderbilt after working at Clemson where he was responsible for the conditioning of skilled-position athletes.

Sisk played football at Western Carolina. After spending three years as a football/strength coach at Tuscola H.S., he joined Furman in 1993. He was named to guide the Western Carolina conditioning program in 1995. He joined Clemson in 1997.

CURTIS TURNER • Assistant

Curtis Turner enters his eighth season as a Commodore strength assistant.

Turner, a native of Blairsville, Ga., serves as a strength assistant to football staff. He also coordinates conditioning programs for several other Vanderbilt varsity teams, including golf and tennis.

Turner, 30, joined Vanderbilt after working three years with the Clemson athletic strength staff. After starting at Clemson as an undergraduate, Turner moved into a full-time role at Vanderbilt after earning a bachelor's degree in secondary education.

While he assisted with the Clemson football team, Turner also guided the training programs for other Tiger sports, including golf and rowing.

GABE TEEPLE • Assistant

Gabe Teeple enters his fifth season as an Commodore assistant conditioning coach. He also coordinates workouts for the baseball squad.

Teeple, 34, came to Vanderbilt after serving as an assistant strength coach for the Wyoming Cowboys.

Before joining Wyoming, Teeple spent two years assisting the Virginia Tech conditioning staff with the football, men's basketball and baseball programs. He earned a Master's in Health Promotion from Virginia Tech in 2004.

A native of Sparta, Tenn., Teeple graduated from Tennessee Tech in 1999, where he was a starting center and three-year letterwinner. Upon graduation, he served three years as an assistant football coach at Gatlinburg-Pittman High School in east Tennessee.

Teeple and his wife, Donna, are the parents of an infant son, James Ford.

KEVIN COLON – Associate Director of Student Athletics

A veteran of Vanderbilt Athletics, Kevin Colon enters his first year with administrative oversight of the Commodore football program.

Colon serves as Associate Director of Student Athletics, a position he has held for the last six years. His responsibilities also include overseeing the Vanderbilt baseball, women's track and field, and cross country squads.

A 13-year veteran of the department, Colon formerly administered women's track and track, men's and women's cross country, women's swimming program and baseball prior to this year.

Colon came to Vanderbilt in 1998 to organize and direct its CHAMPS/Lifeskills program, the community outreach arm of Commodore athletics. As CHAMPS/Lifeskills director, Colon directed student-athletes into an expanded role in giving back at Nashville area community efforts.

Prior to joining Vanderbilt, Colon served two years as Assistant Director of Student Services and academic advisor at Kansas State. She earned an undergraduate degree at Iowa State and master's degree at Toledo.

Colon has a son, DuBois, 13.

MICHAEL HAZEL

Director of Football Operations

Michael Hazel enters his first year as Director of Football Operations for the Commodores.

Previously, he served five years as Assistant Director of Football Operations under Brian Reese. Hazel also worked one year as a Commodore defensive graduate assistant.

Hazel was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker and special teams player for Elon (N.C.) University. During his collegiate playing days, Hazel helped Elon to a 28-16 record as the program transitioned to the I-AA level.

A native of Easley, S.C., Hazel was an eight-time member of the Elon Athletic Director's Honor Roll and a President's list recipient on three occasions.

In 2001, he earned a B.A. in corporate communications from Elon. In 2004, he earned an MBA from Elon. Hazel completed a master's in education from Vanderbilt's Peabody College in 2007.

TOM BOSSUNG

Head Athletic Trainer

Tom Bossung enters his 12th year as head athletic trainer for the Vanderbilt football team. He also manages the Vanderbilt athletic training office.

Bossung first came to Vanderbilt as a graduate assistant in 1990 and earned a master's degree in health promotion and exercise science in 1992.

Bossung is in his 13th year with the Vanderbilt staff, having worked with the men's basketball and women's tennis teams from 1995-1999. Previously, he worked a year at the Lipscomb Sports Therapy Center and served two years as the head athletic trainer at Tennessee State.

Bossung, who received his Bachelor's degree from Indiana State, is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association, and licensed by the Tennessee Board of Medical Examiners. He has served as a test site administrator and host for NATA certification exams. Bossung also volunteers his time to youth soccer leagues in the Nashville area.

Tom and his wife, Dee Dee, have two children: Ryan, 17; and Sarah, 13.

LUKE WYATT

Equipment Manager

Luke Wyatt enters his 28th year at Vanderbilt, having served as the head equipment manager since 1990. He handles the purchase and care of football equipment and consults with coaches of all Vanderbilt sports.

Wyatt supervises three assistants and a staff of student workers. Together, the staff works long hours to ensure the football team is well-prepared for games and practices. They also transport team equipment to road games.

Wyatt was recognized as the National Football Federation outstanding equipment manager in 2004. He is a member of several equipment boards, including Schutt gear.

ANDY FRANK

Asst. Dir., Operations

Andy Frank starts his first year as assistant director of football operations.

A native of Michigan, Frank served last year as the Vanderbilt assistant recruiting coordinator. Previously, he was a defensive graduate assistant in 2007 and quality control assistant in 2008.

Frank also has worked as a defensive assistant for the Lincoln (Mich.) High School staff prior to joining the Vanderbilt program.

Frank was a reserve defensive back and special teams player at Princeton University, graduating in 2001 with a Bachelor's degree in engineering. He worked briefly in the profession.

He has also earned a master's in education from Vanderbilt's Peabody College.

NORVAL MCKENZIE

Asst. Recruiting Coordinator

Norval McKenzie serves as assistant recruiting coordinator. He also assists with player development.

McKenzie, 28, served the last two years as an graduate assistant coach for the team.

Prior to becoming a grad assistant, McKenzie taught and coached two years at Hiram (Ga.) H.S.

McKenzie, of Powder Springs, Ga., earned four varsity letters for the Commodores from 2001-04. Despite suffering a serious leg injury as a sophomore, he was the team's rushing leader as a junior and senior, finishing with 1,441 career rushing yards.

He holds degrees in secondary education, political science and American history from Vanderbilt. He finished a master's in education last year.

JOEY ORCK

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Joey Orck begins his first year as a graduate assistant coach, working with the Commodore offense. Orck, 25, assisted the Vanderbilt staff in quality control last year, his first with the program.

Orck came to Vanderbilt after a successful playing career at Presbyterian (S.C.) College. A four-year letterwinner at center, Orck served as a senior captain. He also helped the team capture the South Atlantic Conference title and a NCAA Division II quarterfinal appearance in 2005.

A native of Columbia, S.C., Orck was a two-year starting offensive lineman and two-sport standout at Dutch Fork High School.

Orck earned a B.S. in Political Science from Presbyterian in 2008, and is working toward a master's in Organizational Leadership from the Peabody College.

MARK MOEHRING

Defensive Graduate Assistant

Mark Moehring returns for his third year as a graduate assistant coach, working with the Vanderbilt defense.

Moehring, 24, has been associated with the football program since the 2004 season. As an undergraduate, Moehring worked as an equipment manager for the squad, and volunteered in the Vanderbilt Athletics video department.

Moehring is a native of Minnetonka, Minn. He lettered in football, wrestling and track at Minnetonka High School.

Moehring earned a degree in engineering science and economics from Vanderbilt in 2007. He is pursuing a postgraduate degree in education from the Peabody College.

TEAM ROSTER

63 CHRIS AARON

R-Sr. ★ Offensive Guard ★ 6-4 • 295
Palos Verdes, Calif. ★ Palos Verdes HS

2010 PROSPECTS A two-year senior letterwinner, Aaron continued to show development during spring drills, and will be counted on to provide depth at either guard role along the offensive front.

2009 Walk-on junior enjoyed most action of Commodore career, with responsibilities increasing as the season endured... Played in eight games, including the last six of the year, in a reserve role at offensive guard... Snaps increased after injuries limited starting guard Eric Hensley.

2008 Saw action as reserve center in early season win at Miami (Ohio)... Playing time was limited during season due to effects of injury suffered during practice.

2007 Did not play after transferring from I-AA Lehigh University... Served as practice squad offensive lineman... Named team's Offensive Scout of the Week after Kentucky game.

2006 Participated as tackle/guard at Lehigh University as freshman, getting action in junior varsity games.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Three-year starter on offensive line... Helped team to state playoffs during senior season... Named team's top lineman... Earned all-conference recognition... Recipient of National Football Foundation/College Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award.

ACADEMICS Aaron is expected to finish his degree in Human and Organizational Development this December. He is a two-time SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient, honoring honors in 2008 and 2009.

PERSONAL Christopher William Aaron... Son of Tony and Beth Petak-Aaron... Born May 5, 1988... Only child... Dad is an accountant for Ernst & Young; mom is a retired middle school teacher... Likes to surf, golf and skateboard.

71 JOEY BAILEY

R-Sr. ★ Center/Off. Guard ★ 6-4 • 295
Trussville, Ala. ★ Hewitt-Trussville HS

2010 PROSPECTS Bailey exited Spring Practice as an offensive leader, elected co-captain by teammates as a fifth-year senior. The election came after a productive spring where Bailey adequately filled the key role of center on the offensive line. Bailey also has the experience and abilities to play either guard role on the Commodore front.

2009 After playing at guard and tackle during previous season, Bailey served as primary backup to starting center and offensive co-captain Bradley Vierling... Played in 11 of 12 games... Most snaps came in wins over Western Carolina and Rice, and in loss to Ole Miss.

2008 Played in nine games... Opened season as starter, working at right guard through first five games until he was forced out of the lineup due to injury... Earned starting role after moving from center to guard in preseason... Also saw practice time at tackle.

2007 Worked as reserve center behind starter Hamilton Holliday and Bradley Vierling... Saw limited action in four games at center... Continued to add bulk from weightroom effort... Named team's Offensive Scout of the Week vs. Richmond.

2006 Redshirted as a freshman... Earned postseason Offensive Scout Most Valuable Player Award from coaches... Received top offensive scout honors after Ole Miss and Duke games.

HIGH SCHOOL Selected as offensive team captain... Two-year starter on offensive line... Allowed one QB sack playing LT as senior, helping team to 6-5 record and first round of 6A playoffs... Named second team All-Metro by Birmingham News... Squad went 7-4 in 2004, again advancing to state playoffs... Played catcher in baseball.

ACADEMICS Bailey is working toward a degree in Human and Organizational Development from the Peabody College.

PERSONAL William Joseph Bailey II... Son of Joe and Stacy Bailey... Born Dec. 30, 1987... Dad is self-employed; mom is a teacher at rival high school... Has two younger brothers, Jacob and Joshua... Former SEC QBs Brandon Cox (Auburn) and Jay Barker (Alabama) also graduated from Hewitt-Trussville.

6 BRANDON BARDEN

R-Jr. ★ Tight End ★ 6-5 • 250
Lincolnton, Ga. ★ Lincoln County HS

2010 PROSPECTS Once opportunity arrived in 2008, Barden developed into one on the nation's top young receiving tight ends, constantly making key catches for the Commodore offense as a freshman and sophomore. Among the SEC's top producers at tight end, Barden should continue to improve as he added physical strength needed for blocking responsibilities. He should help form an excellent 1-2 tight end duo with Austin Monahan.

2009 Played in every game and earned eight starting assignments at tight end... Entered season sharing minutes and starts with fellow sophomore Monahan... Role increased significantly when Monahan went down with knee injury against Georgia... Concluded year with single-season highs in receptions (29) and receiving yards (357)... Ranked second on team behind John Cole in both receiving categories... Set single-game career high with 67 receiving yards in finale at Tennessee... Matched previous

15 ARCHIBALD BARNES

R-So. ★ Linebacker/Def. End ★ 6-4 • 228
Tampa, Fla. ★ Berkeley Prep School

2010 PROSPECTS Barnes needs to continue his development if he plans to contend for opening at outside linebacker or top reserve role behind John Stokes. He earned valuable experience late in the 2009 season after injuries slowed Patrick Benoist and sidelined Tristan Strong.

2009 As redshirt freshman, Barnes participated in every game, contributing on various coverage units... Minutes increased after midseason injury to top LB reserve Tristan Strong and late-season concussion suffered by Patrick Benoist... Played substantial minutes in SEC games against Kentucky and Tennessee... Finished with 11 solo tackles and 15 total stops... Set highs in total tackles (5) and solo tackles (3) vs. Kentucky... Earned team's Specialist of the Week honor at Georgia Tech game.

2008 Barnes spent his first year on the Vanderbilt campus as a redshirt, working at several defensive positions on the practice squad.

HIGH SCHOOL Two-year captain and starter... Played QB as senior, rushing for more than 1,000 yards and passing for 600 yards... Also saw action as OLB and safety as senior... Played safety in Hillsborough County All-Star Game... Started at WR as junior at Berkeley Prep... Standout in basketball and track... All-European WR and outstanding soccer goalie as sophomore competing in Germany.

ACADEMICS Barnes is working toward a degree in Communication Studies from the College of Arts and Science.

PERSONAL Archibald Cornelius Barnes... Son of Russell and Marie Barnes... Born May, 19, 1990 in New York... Dad is enlisted in the U.S. Air Force; mom teaches in Tampa public schools... Enrolled at Berkeley Prep after family moved from Germany... Has three brothers: Russell, Tim and Reggie.

89 TERIALL BRANNON

R-Sr. ★ Defensive End ★ 6-3 • 245
Spartanburg, S.C. ★ Broome HS

2010 PROSPECTS The fifth-year Brannon enters this preseason competing for a starting job at defensive end with the graduation losses of Broderick Stewart and Steven Stone. Coming off enjoying the most action of his Commodore career, Brannon continued his momentum with a solid Spring Practice.

Brannon has developed into a valuable option at defensive end, possessing the strength to defend the rush while showing the outside speed to effectively bring pressure to the quarterback. He will likely contend with Tim Fugger, Theron Kadri, Walker May, and Johnell Thomas for the starting role at end.

2009 Saw action in every game as reserve defensive end... For most of year platooned with starters Broderick Stewart and Tim Fugger, and continued in position rotation when Steven Stone returned from injury to play last five games... Finished with single-season career high of 12 tackles, including four solo stops... Posted first career quarterback sack against Kentucky... Set game high in tackles (3) against Mississippi State.

2008 Played in 12 of 13 games, seeing increased action in latter stages of season at defensive end... Earned first career start at defensive end in Music City Bowl victory over Boston College... Concluded season with three total tackles, including sharing a tackle for loss vs. Tennessee.

THE PLAYERS

2007 Played sparingly as a redshirt freshman end, seeing action only in win over Eastern Michigan... Earned assisted tackle vs. EMU.

2006 Redshirted as freshman... Earned top defensive scout after Georgia game.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain and three-year starter at DE and TE... Twice named All-State as senior... On defense, totalled 17 tackles for loss, and 15 QB sacks... Helped Centurions to AA state title in 2004... Two-year post starter for two-time AA champion hoops team and triple jump standout in track.

ACADEMICS Brannon should compete his undergraduate degree in Human and Organizational Development this December.

PERSONAL Terrial Marcu Moore Brannon... Son of Robert and Lesene Brannon... Born Nov. 9, 1987... Has a twin brother, Jeriall... Also has an older sister, Latonia... Raised in Spartanburg area... Active in student government.

88 BRADY BROWN
So. ★ Wide Receiver ★ 6-4 • 210
Argyle, Texas ★ Argyle HS

2010 PROSPECTS After injury derailed his freshman campaign, Brown could blossom this preseason in a youthful receiving corps in need of playmakers. With nearly a year of strength conditioning under his belt, Brown also looks more prepared physically to endure the demands required of an SEC wideout.

2009 One of seven true freshmen to see game action, Brown played limited minutes at wide receiver in four early-season games before being sidelined for rest of season by lower leg injury... Did not post a reception.

HIGH SCHOOL Captain and team MVP as senior... Three-year starter at wide receiver... Two-time Associated Press 3A All-State recipient, including first-team selection as senior... Also received All-Region recognition... Posted 73 catches for 1,164 yards and 13 TDs in spread offense as senior, helping Eagles to district title and second round of 3A Division II playoffs... Holds numerous Argyle receiving records, including career catches (197), receiving yards (2,637) and TD catches (29)... Set school mark with 95 receptions as junior... Also earned two letters in basketball and competed as sprinter/jumper on track squad.

ACADEMICS Brown is enrolled in the College of Arts and Science. He is undecided on a major.

PERSONAL Brady Jackson Brown... Son of Kevin and Vandi Brown... Has two brothers, Cole and Clint... Born April 12, 1991 in Dallas... Dad works in sales... Dad played football at North Texas... Enjoys fishing, go-kart racing and juggling.

50 MYLON BROWN
R-Fr. ★ Offensive Tackle ★ 6-6 • 310
Tribly, Fla. ★ Pasco County HS

2010 PROSPECTS Young yet talented, Brown has the skills to fill an apparent void in depth along the Commodore offensive front. Brown impressed coaches with his abilities as a true freshman, but needs to enter preseason camp off a solid summer conditioning effort. As his strength develops, the rangy Brown could become a contributor either at guard or tackle.

2009 Rangy offensive lineman did not play as freshman... Used redshirt season to improve overall strength while working with offensive practice squad... Blocking skills and mobility as a scout tackle impressed coaches.

HIGH SCHOOL Two-year starter for 3A school located north of Tampa... Opened senior campaign as two-way starter (offensive and defensive tackle) but suffered season-ending injury early in the season... Contributed 2.5 QB sacks in limited action for Pirates' 12-2 squad that captured regional championships and advanced to 3A state semifinals... Named all-conference as senior... In first year as varsity letterwinner, started at OT as junior, helping Pasco to 6-5 record... Also earned letters in basketball.

ACADEMICS Brown is working toward a degree in Human and Organizational Development.

PERSONAL Mylon Jamar Brown... Son of Harold Brown and Jennifer Dunwood... "Mylo"... Born on July 18, 1991... Youngest of four siblings: a brother, Rodney; and two sisters, Fonia and Jennifer... Dad is a truck driver; mom is a school teacher... His uncle is the late Jerome Brown, a former Philadelphia Eagles' All-Pro DT... Enjoys singing; plays saxophone and drums.

57 JABO BURROW
R-So. ★ Offensive Guard ★ 6-4 • 285
Morris, Ala. ★ Mortimer Jordan HS

2010 PROSPECTS After adding nearly 40 pounds and switching to the offensive line, Burrow showed signs during spring drills as an emerging contributor at guard. The Commodore offensive front vastly benefits this season if Burrow continues his progression and makes a case for serious playing time.

2008 Burrow redshirted this season, his first on the Vanderbilt campus... Worked as defensive end on practice squads.

HIGH SCHOOL Named captain after season... Four-year varsity letter-winner; three-year starter at DE... Posted 138 total tackles and nine QB sacks as senior... Accumulated nearly 400 tackles in career... Helped squad to state playoffs in 2006... Two-time All-State and two-time area Defensive Player of the Year... Lettered in basketball, baseball and track... Named Mr. Mortimer Jordan... Regional winner of prestigious Bryant-Jordan Scholarship.

ACADEMICS Burrow is working toward a degree in Human and Organizational Development.

PERSONAL John Allen Burrow... "Jabo" to teammates... Son of Mike and Vivian Burrow... Born Nov. 20, 1989... Has an older sister and two younger brothers... Dad coaches at Jordan H.S.; mom is an editor... Father also was All-SEC offensive lineman at Auburn, drafted by Buffalo Bills... Plays the piano.

89 CHARLIE BYRGE
R-So. ★ Wide Receiver ★ 6-3 • 195
Brentwood, Tenn. ★ Montgomery Bell

2010 PROSPECTS Byrge displayed solid receiving skills as a second-year walk-on, and will look to earn a role in youthful receiving corps with a strong showing in preseason camp.

2009 Did not see game action as freshman walk-on, but worked effectively as practice squad wide receiver.

HIGH SCHOOL Multi-sport standout for private school power... Only played one season at football at MBA, playing wide receiver... Also lettered in golf, basketball and track... As sprinter in track, ran leg on 4x200-meter relay foursome that captured Division II state title... Stellar academic achiever.

70 JUSTIN CABBAGESTALK
R-Fr. ★ Offensive Guard ★ 6-2 • 290
Tampa, Fla. ★ Armwood HS

2010 PROSPECTS A troublesome knee could limit Cabbagestalk, who appeared in line to contend for role at guard on Commodore offensive front. Spent first season on campus building bulk in team's offseason conditioning program.

2009 Did not play during first year on campus... Served as offensive center on practice squads... Also used redshirt campaign to add bulk.

HIGH SCHOOL Two-year starter for one of strongest prep programs in Tampa area... Started 11 games at offensive tackle as senior, helping Armwood to 12-1 record and 4A state quarterfinals... Named to Second Team 4A All-State OL as senior, and earned team's Offensive Lineman of the Year honor as senior... As junior, helped Armwood to 13-1 record and state 4A semifinals.

ACADEMICS Cabbagestalk is majoring in Human and Organizational Development.

PERSONAL Justin Avery Cabbagestalk... Son of Avery and Leila Cabbagestalk... Born June 7, 1991... Dad is a truck driver; mom works as data clerk... Has two brothers, Calvin and Tyler; and a sister, Nicki... Enjoys hunting and going to the beach.

65 RICHARD CAGLE
R-So. ★ Offensive Line ★ 6-4 • 280
Houston, Texas ★ St. Pius X HS

2010 PROSPECTS Cagle enters the August camp looking to move into a reserve role at guard or tackle. After spending his first two years as a scout offensive lineman, Cagle needs to continue his work in the weight room, seeking to increase strength and agility.

2009 Saw action as offensive guard in season-opening victory over Western Carolina... Also participated as scout team offensive lineman for much of the season.

2008 Cagle spent his first year on campus as a redshirt, working on the offensive line of scout teams... Earned team's top offensive scout after Miami (Ohio) and Ole Miss game.

HIGH SCHOOL Three-year starter for Panthers, helping team to consecutive TAPPS 6A state titles in 2006-07... Started at DE as soph.; became starter at RT as junior... In 2007, earned TAPPS first team All-State as team won state title; 2006 team went undefeated at 13-0 en route to title.

ACADEMICS Cagle is majoring in Earth & Environmental Science from the College of Arts and Science.

PERSONAL Richard Major Cagle... Son of R. "Cactus" Jack and Janet Cagle... Born Sept. 10, 1989... Has two younger sisters, Victoria and Elizabeth... Dad is Harris County (Texas) civil court judge; mom is physical therapist and teacher... Participated in choir... In 2006, worked for two months as a safari nature guide in South Africa.

15 MATT CASAS
R-So. ★ Quarterback ★ 6-1 • 200
Saratoga, Calif. ★ Saratoga HS

2010 PROSPECTS Entering his second year, Casas proved a valuable player on the practice field. Deep on the quarterback depth chart, Casas' value as scout team signal caller is key to Vanderbilt practice effectiveness.

2009 Did not see action as freshman walk-on... Worked as scout team quarterback during practices.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Two-year letterwinner... Two-year starter at QB at Saratoga... As senior, helped team to 8-2 record and second round of state sectionals... Threw for 14 TDs as senior... As junior, started as LB, contributing 52 tackles and six interceptions... National Merit semifinalist.

ACADEMICS Casas is working toward a degree in Economics from the College of Arts and Science. He attended DeAnza College prior to transferring to Vanderbilt.

PERSONAL Matthew Daniel Casas... Son of Daniel and Carolyn Casas... Born Jan. 26, 1989... Born and raised in San Francisco Bay area... One of three kids: older sister Meggan, and younger brother Mitchell... Dad is an attorney; mom teaches preschool... Enjoys waterskiing and snowboarding.

52 NATE CAMPBELL
R-Jr. ★ Linebacker ★ 6-3 • 220
Hazen, Ark. ★ Hazen HS

2010 PROSPECTS After missing the 2009 season for disciplinary reasons, Campbell returns for his final season as one of the team's more experienced linebacker prospects. A valuable reserve in 2008, Campbell provides quality depth at either outside linebacking position.

2009 Campbell did not participate with the Commodores during the season after violating team rules.

2008 Played in every game for the Commodores, seeing action as reserve linebacker and on special teams... Played eight games at linebacker, finishing season with eight total tackles... Had pair of tackles against both South Carolina and Wake Forest.

2007 Saw action in every game, contributing on special teams and as a reserve linebacker... Contributed eight total tackles, including six solo stops... Posted two tackles in opener vs. Richmond.

2006 Redshirted during first year, showing potential as a scout linebacker.

HIGH SCHOOL Team captain as senior... Three-year starter at LB and QB... As senior LB, garnered 148 total tackles, three INTs and three fumble recoveries... ## 83 JOHN COLE

R-So. ★ Wide Receiver ★ 5-11 • 182
Somerset, Ky. ★ Somerset HS

2010 PROSPECTS One year after becoming the team's go-to option at wide receiver, the sure-handed Cole enters the season fully healthy and prepared to take his game to the next level. Cole should become even more valuable as more young receiving prospects establish themselves as offensive playmakers. 2009 Played in 11 of 12 games... Started 10 games at wide receiver... Earned team's postseason Most Valuable Receiver Award... Concluded year as team leader in receptions (36) and receiving yards (382)... Played last seven weeks with surgically repaired hand after suffering bone fracture against Rice... Shared team's Offensive Player of the Week honors after setting career highs in receptions (7) and receiving yards (67) at Rice... Also scored 31-yard reverse for touchdown on first career rush against Rice... Posted at least two receptions in nine games... Had five catches against both Army and Kentucky... Longest reception (21 yards against Kentucky) also resulted in first career touchdown pass reception.

2008 Expected to contribute at receiver, Cole only played in the season opener... Missed the final 12 games after sustaining a knee injury at Miami (Ohio)... Returned two punts for 22 yards, including a long of 13 yards at Miami, though did not have a catch.

72 KYLE FISCHER

R-Jr. ★ Off. Guard/Tackle ★ 6-6 • 310
Columbia, S.C. ★ Spring Valley HS

2010 PROSPECTS Fischer gained valuable experience and maturity as a part-time starter in 2008, and will compete for a starting job at either tackle or guard this season. Fischer possesses excellent strength and techniques, but needs to improve quickness and flexibility. A quality athlete for his size, Fischer has as much upside as any Commodore offensive lineman.

2009 Versatile lineman developed into starter on the offensive front as redshirt sophomore... Played in every game, seeing action at both guard positions... First of six starts came at right guard for an injured Eric Hensley at Army; then moved across to left guard to start the final five games in place of injured Ryan Custer... Played more than 90 percent of the Commodore offensive snaps during second half of season.

2008 The agile Fischer earned starting assignments at both offensive tackle and guard in his first year as a contributor... Started final seven games of season: three at LT and four at LG... Played in every game... Named to All-SEC Freshman team by coaches... First career start came as LT at Georgia... Moved to starting LG for final three games, showing toughness and solid technique... Improved with each starting assignment.

2007 Sat out first year on campus as a redshirt freshman... Showed promise as a practice squad offensive lineman... Named team's Offensive Scout of the Week after win over Ole Miss.

HIGH SCHOOL Two-year OL starter for one of state's top programs... Started at LT as junior and senior, earning team's line MVP honor both seasons... Earned prep All-American honors after playing in Max Emfinger All-Star Bowl... Named All-State by SCVarsity.com in 2006 for a Viking squad that went 9-3 and won pair of region titles... Tied school mark with 17 knockdown blocks against Rock Hill, and set school career mark with 120 knockdown blocks... Also participated in postseason North-South All-Star Game in South Carolina... Also lettered in wrestling and track & field.

ACADEMICS Fischer is enrolled in the Peabody College, working toward a degree in Human and Organizational Development.

PERSONAL Kyle Marcus Fischer... Son of Ivey Gilliam and Debra Hamilton... Born June 16, 1988 in Germany... Youngest of five siblings: three sisters and a brother... Dad is policeman; mom works in medical industry... Participated in school-sponsored Dance Marathon fundraiser.

2010 PROSPECTS After finishing the '09 season by converting 11 of his last 12 field goal attempts, Fowler displayed superb kicking accuracy and confidence during spring drills, and appears to have the edge over newcomer Carey Spear and other prospects. Fowler also looks to continue as the team's kickoff specialist.

2009 Selected as placekicker to SEC All-Freshman squad by every poll, including coaches, Sporting News, Phil Steele's and Rivals.com... Despite a slow start,

Fowler came back to produce one of the finest seasons ever by a Commodore kicker during first year in role... Concluded season by converting 16 of 21 field goal attempts and all 20 extra point tries... Finished with 68 points scored, team's fifth highest total ever by kicker... Matched 25-year-old team record with 16 field goals... Became arguably SEC's most accurate kicker in last seven weeks of season, making 11 of last 12 field goal attempts... Was 7-of-7 from beyond 30 yards during that span... Hit field goals of 42 and 47 yards against Kentucky... Kicked three field goals against Rice and Tennessee... Made 41-yard field goal in closing seconds to send Army game into overtime... Earned or shared Specialist of the Week honors after kicking performances against Rice, Army, Kentucky and Tennessee.

2008 Fowler sat out his first year on campus as a redshirt, though he saw promise as a placekicker in fall practices.

42 TIM FUGGER

R-Jr. ★ Defensive End ★ 6-4 • 255
Oak Brook, Ill. ★ Montini HS

2010 PROSPECTS Pressed into the starting lineup, Fugger impressed with his physicality and aggressive play in 2009, and will be counted on as a playmaker and leader along the defensive front. Blessed with athleticism and speed, Fugger has the tools to become an excellent SEC end. He will compete with Theron Kadri, Terrial Brannon, Walker May and Johnell Thomas for a starting job.

2009 Moved into a key role on the defensive line after two-year starter Steven Stone was lost for two months after suffering a foot fracture in preseason camp... Played in all 12 games, earning eight starting assignments at defensive end before Stone reclaimed his role against Georgia Tech... Finished year with 21 total tackles, including 11 unassisted stops... Also posted two tackles for loss, including a quarterback sack and a fumble recovery... Set career high in solo tackles (3) at Army... Season high in total tackles (4) came against Mississippi State and Army... Fumble recovery came against Mississippi State... Also posted three tackles against SEC foes LSU, South Carolina and Florida.

2008 Slowed by injury to start the season, Fugger developed into one of the squad's top defensive ends as the season endured... Played in nine games, finishing with 14 total tackles, including eight solo stops... Posted four solo tackles, a career high, against Duke... Also contributed three tackles in win over Kentucky and season finale at Wake Forest... Forced his first career fumble at Mississippi State... Also contributed an assisted tackle during increased action in Commodores' Gaylor Hotels Music City Bowl victory over Boston College.

2007 Did not see action as a redshirt freshman, spending year adding bulk and strength through team's conditioning program... Opened as tight end in preseason, moved to end just before opener.

Fugger Career Highs:

TOTAL TACKLES: 4 (2x), most recently vs. Miss. State, 9/19/2009
SOLO TACKLES: 4, vs. Duke, 10/25/2008

12 JARED FUNK

R-Sr. ★ Quarterback ★ 6-2 • 210
Long Grove, Ill. ★ St. Viator HS

2010 PROSPECTS Possessing arguably the strongest arm of the team's quarterbacks, the fifth-year Funk impressed coaches with his development in spring drills, and appears to be in contention with 2009 starter Larry Smith and newcomer Jordan Rodgers for the starting job when camp opens in August.

2009 Participated in 10 games as redshirt sophomore... Only action at quarterback was in closing minutes of win over Western Carolina... Did not have pass attempt... Also contributed on coverage units, earning one tackle on the season.

2008 Funk did not see game action as a redshirt sophomore as Chris Nickson and Mackenzi Adams took every snap through 11 games and Larry Smith saw limited action in the finale at Wake Forest... Showed a strong arm in fall practice.

2007 Did not see game action as redshirt freshman quarterback... Served as practice squad QB, and earned team's Offensive Scout of the Week honor after Auburn game.

2006 Redshirted as freshman... Served as scout quarterback, taking top scout honors after Arkansas and Tennessee games.

HIGH SCHOOL Captain, three-year starter at QB... Guided 2005 squad to 8-1 record, school's best record since 1986... Named East Suburban Catholic League Player of the Year and All-State... Had 2,720 yards of total offense as senior, throwing for 19 TDs... Started in basketball and baseball... Academic All-State recipient.

ACADEMICS Funk completed a degree Economics last December. He is one of two graduate students on the team, taking postgraduate courses in the Peabody College. He is a three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient, earning honors in 2007, 2008 and 2009.

PERSONAL Jared Milton Funk... Son of Craig and Christine Funk... Born Aug. 13, 1987... Youngest of four siblings: two brothers and a sister... Likes to snow-board... Assisted at homeless shelter and youth basketball camps in hometown.

44 MICHAEL GARCIA

R-Sr. ★ Linebacker ★ 6-1 • 225
Jacksonville, Fla. ★ The Bolles School

2010 PROSPECTS After missing the '09 season due to injury, Garcia returns for his final season looking to contribute as he did in two previous seasons: on special team coverage units and as a reserve linebacker.

2009 Did not see action in fourth year as injuries continued to slow progress... Missed virtually the entire year after suffering preseason muscle tear in upper chest.

2008 Continued to contribute in his third year with the Commodores, seeing action in all 13 games, primarily on special team coverage units... Finished regular season with three total tackles... Worked hard during offseason to successfully return from knee surgery.

2007 Energetic walk-on defensive player who suffered season-ending knee injury just as role was likely to expand... Contributed on coverage units with special teams against Alabama, Ole Miss and Eastern Michigan before sustaining injury at Auburn... Credited with a pair of assisted tackles on special teams.

2006 Redshirted... Joined team as invited walk-on in camp... Earned top defensive scout after Tennessee game.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Two-year starter at linebacker for Florida 3A power... Had 18 tackles and an INT in 2004 state title win over Tampa Jefferson... Amassed 132 total tackles as a senior after more than 160 stops during junior campaign... Second team All-State as a senior... Also participated in track and weightlifting.

ACADEMICS Garcia is expected to graduate this year with a degree in Neuroscience. He is a 2008 and 2009 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient.

PERSONAL Michael Louis Garcia... Son of Martin and Diane Garcia... Youngest of four children: two sisters and a brother – all attended and graduated from Vanderbilt... 69 DAVID GILLER

Sr. ★ Snapper ★ 6-1 • 230
Swampscott, Mass. ★ Swampscott HS

2010 PROSPECTS After contributing on Commodore special teams during first two years on campus, Giller returns this season as the likely snapper for conversion units. He will also get a close look in camp as the team's long snapper.

2009 Served as primary snapper on field goal and extra point conversion units for second straight year, helping freshman placekicker Ryan Fowler match a school record by hitting 16 field goals and converting all 20 PAT attempts... Shared team's Specialist of the Week honors with Eric Samuels after season-opener win over Western Carolina.

2008 Walk-on sophomore developed into a key contributor on special teams... Played in final nine games, seeing action as snapper for FG and PAT conversions... His snap on successful late-game field goal helped Commodores defeat Boston College in Music City Bowl... Transferred to Vanderbilt after attending Trinity (Conn.) College for one year.

HIGH SCHOOL Earned three varsity letters, starting at center as a junior and senior... Served as team's primary long snapper for three years... Also lettered in baseball, swimming and track... Earned school's student-athlete award as senior.

ACADEMICS Giller is majoring in Economics from the College of Arts and Science. He is a 2009 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient.

PERSONAL David Allen Giller... Son of Robert and Patrice Giller... Born on July 14, 1988... Oldest of three siblings: younger Michael and sister, Rebecca... Dad owns automobile business; mom is dental hygienist and surgical assistant... Enjoys painting and various outdoor activities including deep sea sportfishing, hunting and skiing.

7 CHARLIE GORO

R-Fr. ★ Quarterback ★ 6-2 • 205
Park Ridge, Ill. ★ Maine South HS

2010 PROSPECTS Goro offered a glimpse into his potential at quarterback during spring drills, displaying an accurate arm and elusiveness in the pocket. Only a redshirt freshman, Goro could easily move up the quarterback depth chart with an impressive preseason camp.

2009 Did not play as first-year quarterback, though made road trips with Commodores... Coaches allowed Goro to learn offensive playbook as a redshirt, giving him practice repetitions with second-team offense for much of the season.

HIGH SCHOOL Two-time captain... Team MVP as senior... Named Parade Magazine and EA Sports All-American QB after leading Maine South Hawks to 8A state championship and first 14-0 record in school history... Enjoys fishing, snow skiing and wakeboarding.

25 JAMIE GRAHAM

R-Jr. ★ Def. Back ★ 6-0 • 195
Nashville, Tenn. ★ Whites Creek HS

2010 PROSPECTS After filling multiple roles in his first two years on campus, Graham is likely to devote his full attention to defensive back in 2010. One of the team's most versatile athletes, Graham enters August camp as a likely starter at either cornerback or nickel back. He also has the ability to contribute as a return specialist.

2009 Versatile performer played both offense and defense as redshirt sophomore, starting and ending the season as a defensive back while providing explosiveness as receiver during midseason stretch... Also returned punts and kicks during campaign... Earned three starts as defensive back and one start at wide receiver... Concluded year with 26 total tackles, 17 solo stops, two interceptions and four defended passes as cornerback... On offense, added 35 receiving yards on four catches and 12 rushing yards on reverses... Made best game of season as defensive back in finale at Tennessee (10 total tackles/2 deflected passes/interception), earning team's Defensive Player of the Week honor... Added seven tackles against Mississippi State and three tackles and an interception against Ole Miss... Best effort on offense came against Georgia (21 rushing yards).

74 T.J. GREENSTONE

R-Jr. ★ Defensive Tackle ★ 6-3 • 285
Lawrenceville, Ga. ★ Collins Hill HS

2010 PROSPECTS Teammates spoke volumes about Greenstone when they elected him defensive co-captain after spring drills. With senior Greg Billinger departed, Greenstone is expected to provide the Commodore interior defense with a playmaker and veteran leader, especially with the prospect of two-year starter Adam Smotherman returning from injury during the season.

2009 Active and productive defensive tackle who walked away with team's postseason Most Valuable Defensive Lineman Award... Considered a starter by coaches along with Greg Billinger and Adam Smotherman, but earned just one actual start (LSU)... Played in every game... Ended season with 19 solo tackles and 38 total tackles, both single-season career highs... Also had 4.5 tackles for loss, a pair of quarterback sacks, a forced fumble and recovery, and two deflected passes... Earned team's Defensive Player of the Week honors after performances against Western Carolina and Mississippi State... Posted nine tackles (a career high) and sack against Mississippi State; and 5-tackle/sack/fumble recovery vs. WCU... Forced fumble came against Army.

2008 Developed into key contributor along Commodore defensive front in redshirt freshman season... Played in every game, getting starts against South Carolina and Ole Miss... Named to First Team All-SEC Freshman squad by coaches... Finished the regular season with 33 total tackles, including 16 solo stops... Displayed quickness off the ball and ability to penetrate opposing offense, tallying six tackles for loss... Played well in Vanderbilt's bowl victory over Boston College, matching a career high with four tackles, including one tackle for loss... Also came up with fumble recovery against Duke... In first game of career, posted two tackles for loss and four total tackles in win at Miami (Ohio)... Contributed 1.5 tackles for loss in solid effort at Mississippi State, earning team's Defensive Player of the Week honors... Also had season high of four tackles against Ole Miss and Duke.

2007 Did not play as a first-year defensive tackle... Used campaign to add bulk... Impressed coaches on practice field, earning team's postseason Defensive Scout MVP award...

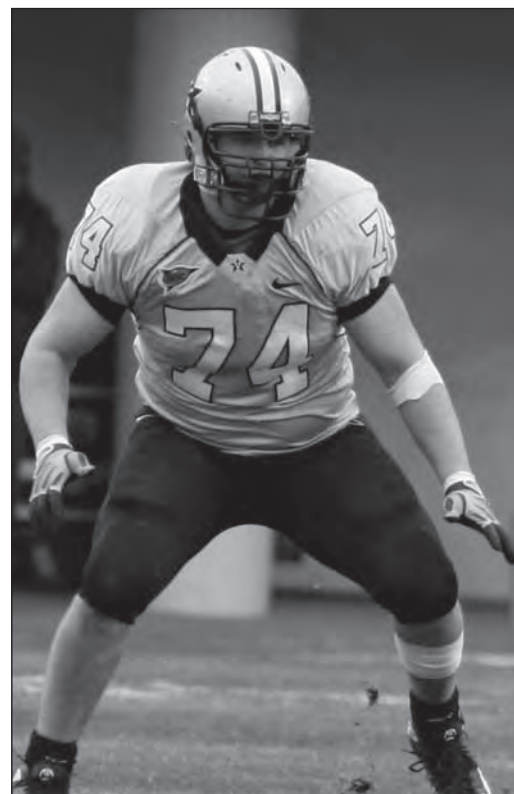

Also recognized as team's Defensive Scout of the Week after victory over Miami (Ohio).

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain, two-year starter at DT for Eagles... Squad advanced to AAAAA state playoffs in 2005-06 campaigns... In 2006, Eagles went 7-4, losing to eventual co-state champion in first round...

Two-time defensive MVP and defensive lineman of the year for team... All-district recipient... Named to Atlanta Journal Constitution's Gwinnett Super 11 Team... Atlanta Touchdown Club Lineman of the Week pick... Played in Georgia North-South All-Star Game... Posted 194 tackles, 19.5 QB sacks and three forced fumbles during career... Notched 12 sacks as senior... Standout thrower in track & field.

ACADEMICS Greenstone is enrolled in the Peabody College, working toward a degree in Human and Organizational Development. He is a 2008 and 2009 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient.

PERSONAL Thomas Julius Greenstone Jr... Son of Thomas and Mary Beth Greenstone... Born Sept. 27, 1989... Dad played football at Edinboro University; mom played basketball at the same university... Older sister plays basketball for North Greenville (S.C.) University... Dad works in restaurant supply sales; mom is regional marketing manager... On the field, Greenstone still plays to honor a former prep teammate and best friend, Jarrett Boston, who died as a high school senior from cancer.

19 CASEY HAYWARD

Jr. ★ Cornerback ★ 6-0 • 185
Elko, Ga. ★ Perry HS

2010 PROSPECTS Vanderbilt coaches believe Hayward has the tools to become an elite cornerback in the Southeastern Conference before his Commodore career comes to a close. As a first-time starter, Hayward impressed with his coverage skills and playmaking abilities, exhibited by a team-high 8.5 tackles, nine defended passes and two interceptions. The preseason All-SEC candidate can see that recognition witnessed if he continues to develop as a second-year starter.

2009 Named team's postseason Most Valuable Defensive Back Award... Started every game at cornerback, though missed much of two games due to injury... Ranked fifth among Commodores in both total tackles (58) and solo tackles (40)... Also topped team with 8.5 tackles for loss, ranked second with seven defended passes and second with two interceptions... Had three or more tackles in 11 of 12 games... Posted remarkable effort at LSU, contributing career high 13 total tackles and four tackles for loss, earning team's Defensive Player of the Week honor... Also claimed the weekly recognition after contributing six tackles and an interception against Georgia.

2008 One of three true freshmen to see action during the season, joining safety Sean Richardson and receiver John Cole... Played in every game, participating as nickel back in secondary and on special team coverage units... Played more in the Commodores' Music City Bowl victory than any other games, replacing an injured Moore... Finished the bowl game with a career-high three tackles and pair of defended passes... Also saw considerable action against Florida and Kentucky... Concluded season with eight total tackles, including three solo stops, and three defended passes... Contributed two tackles and forced fumble in win at Ole Miss.

HIGH SCHOOL Three-year team captain and four-year member of team's leadership Council... Three-year starter at QB; two-year starter at DB... Named senior 2010 PROSPECTS A sophomore walk-on, Jewell will try to earn playing time as a reserve defensive back and special teams contributor.

2009 Did not see action after joining the Commodore squad during preseason camp... Worked as practice squad DB.

HIGH SCHOOL Two-year starter at Brentwood, helping team to pair of AAA state playoffs... Had more than 90 tackles as senior DB, and four TDs as WR... Also played varsity basketball and rugby.

ACADEMICS Jewell is working toward a double major of Engineering Science and Spanish.

PERSONAL Robert Anthony Jewell... Born April 21, 1988... Son of Bob Jewell... Has a younger sister, Brittany... Dad is a retired electrical engineer... Enjoys travel and playing the guitar... Transferred to Vanderbilt from Maryville College.

67 WESLEY JOHNSON

R-Fr. ★ Offensive Tackle ★ 6-5 • 280
Nashville, Tenn. ★ Montgomery Bell

2010 PROSPECTS Only a redshirt freshman, Johnson will be counted on to contribute this season along the Commodore offensive front. An agile talent who possesses excellent blocking technique, Johnson impressed observers during spring drills with his skill level and understanding of the Vanderbilt scheme. He should compete with Ryan Seymour, Caleb Welchans and Mylon Brown for one of the starting tackle roles.

2009 Despite redshirting during first year of campus, Johnson impressed coaches and teammates with his athleticism as an offensive line prospect... Showed coaches the ability to play all three positions on the offensive line... Named team's postseason Offensive Scout of the Year award, and also was singled out for his practice contributions after LSU game.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Three-year letterwinner on the offensive line... Two-time Division II-AA All-State recipient, including unanimous recognition in 2008... Finalist for Division II Lineman of the Year... Named Division II All-State team by sports writers... Helped MBA to state playoffs in 2008 and 13-0 state championship in 2007... Standout discus thrower.

ACADEMICS Johnson is enrolled in the College of Arts and Science.

PERSONAL Wesley Vadnais Johnson... Son of David and Arlene Johnson... Born Jan. 9, 1991... Oldest of three siblings: sister, Joanna, and brother, William... Dad works in employee benefits industry... Dad also played baseball at Louisiana Tech... Grandfather briefly played for Baltimore Colts.

85 MASON JOHNSTON

R-Fr. ★ Tight End ★ 6-4 • 245
Jacksonville, Fla. ★ Bolles School

2010 PROSPECTS With Brandon Barden returning as the starter and Austin Monahan back from injury, Johnston will seek to earn a playing role as a blocking specialist and receiving target in short-yardage situations.

2009 Contributed as scout team tight end while redshirting during first year on campus... Made team's Offensive Scout of the Week after Kentucky game.

HIGH SCHOOL Four-year varsity letterwinner... As senior, started at tight end for 14-0 Florida 2A champion squad... Finished 2008 with 24 receptions, good for 330 yards while also helping to produce pair of 1,000-yard rushers as quality blocker... Selected to Florida Times-Union's Super 24 squad... ### 21 SEAN RICHARDSON

Jr. ★ Safety ★ 6-2 • 215
Linden, Ala. ★ Linden HS

2010 PROSPECTS One of the Commodores' top players, Richardson looks to build a reputation as an elite Southeastern Conference performer in his second year as a starting safety. Richardson blends ideal physicality, athleticism and ball skills for the safety position and demonstrated a solid understanding of the Commodore defensive scheme as a sophomore. He also showed toughness as a starter in '09, playing much of the season with a painful hand injury.

2009 Physical team leader earned squad's prestigious Hustle Award at post-season banquet... Started 10 starting assignments at safety... Played in every game despite undergoing hand surgery after Mississippi State game... Saw limited action against Rice and Ole Miss... Ranked second on team with 43 solo tackles and had 84 total tackles, third among defenders... Also posted 4.5 tackles for loss and a forced fumble... Richardson's 7.0-tackle average ranked among SEC DB leaders... Contributed double-digit tackles in four games... Career highs in solo tackles (7) and total tackles (12) came at South Carolina...

Richardson Career Highs:

TOTAL TACKLES: 12, at So. Carolina, 10/24/2009
SOLO TACKLES: 7, at So. Carolina, 10/24/2009

Had 10 tackles against early-season SEC foes LSU and Mississippi State... Forced fumble came in Mississippi State contest... Added 11 total tackles against Kentucky, earning team's Defensive Player of the Week honors for effort.

2008 Richardson was one of three true freshmen to see action this season, and served as the second team strong safety behind Reshard Langford... Contributed one of the biggest plays of season, recovering Brett Upson punt that touched Boston College player in Commodore endzone for only Vanderbilt touchdown in Gaylord Music City Bowl victory... Played in every game, contributing 11 total tackles to Commodore defensive effort... Named squad's top special team player after Florida and Kentucky games.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Team went 10-3, advancing to third round of playoffs for second time in history... Named first team All-State by sportswriters as senior... Two-way starter since sophomore year... As senior safety, contributed 101 tackles and three INTs... Top rebounder as forward on on hoops squad... Also lettered as sprinter/jumper in track... Recipient of school's leadership award.

11 JORDAN RODGERS

Jr. ★ Quarterback ★ 6-2 • 210
Chico, Calif. ★ Butte JC/Pleasant Valley HS

2010 PROSPECTS The Commodores' first junior college signee in eight years, Rodgers stepped into the quarterback competition during spring drills after enrolling in January. The Northern California product exhibited a quick understanding of the offense and impressed guiding the unit in the closing practices. He joins Larry Smith, Jared Funk and Charlie Goro in an open competition for the team's key signal calling role.

JUNIOR COLLEGE/HIGH SCHOOL Played QB for two years at Butte JC... Instrumental in helping Butte claim 2008 outright junior college national title, starting against five NorCal Conference opponents in Butte's 12-0 campaign, first undefeated season in school history... Threw for 810 yards and 10 TDs in 2008... As sophomore, broke Butte record with 2,512 yards of total offense, earning All-NorCal honors after throwing for 2,219 yards and 19 TDs... Earned academic honors at Butte... Started at QB as Pleasant Valley, helping team to 8-3-1 record and state sectionals as junior... Also lettered in basketball and track.

ACADEMICS Rodgers enrolled at Vanderbilt in January 2010, and is working toward a degree in Human and Organizational Development.

PERSONAL Jordan Edward Rodgers... Son of Ed and Darla Rodgers... Born Aug. 30, 1988... Youngest of three brothers: Luke and Aaron, who is the Green Bay Packers starting QB... Dad is a chiropractor in Chico... Enjoys golf.

82 JAMESON SACKY

R-So. ★ Wide Receiver ★ 6-1 • 210
Smyrna, Ga. ★ Lovett School

2010 PROSPECTS A talented walk-on, Sackey showed the ability to contend for a role among youthful receiving corps. Sackey could also aid Commodore special teams.

2009 Sophomore walk-on saw limited action in opener against Western Carolina... Did not have a catch... Effective practice player for Commodores, earning team's Offensive Scout of the Week after Rice and Georgia Tech games.

2008 Did not see action, serving as scout receiver during first year on team.

HIGH SCHOOL Played two years on varsity, seeing action as WR and safety... Missed senior season due to knee injury, serving as student coach... As a junior, started at safety... Two-year starter in basketball; standout triple jumper in track.

ACADEMICS Sackey is working toward a degree in Political Science.

PERSONAL Jameson Earl Sackey... Son of Kingsley and Kim Sackey... Middle of three brothers... Born on June 20, 1990... Moved to Atlanta at young age... During summers, worked as camp counselor at Lovett.

22 ERIC SAMUELS

So. ★ Defensive Back ★ 6-0 • 190
Eustis, Fla. ★ Umatilla HS

2010 PROSPECTS In his second season as a Commodore, Samuels has his future full of potential on the field. After showing skills in four early-season games at defensive back, Samuels appears ready to contend for more action in the secondary and has the athleticism to get a chance to contribute as a special team return specialist.

2009 One of seven true freshmen to see action, Samuels played in four games, contributing as reserve DB and on coverage units... Missed LSU and MSU games after suffering an injury during 19-yard INT return against Western Carolina... Sat out the final six games of season... Notched four total tackles, including three solo stops... In addition to pick against WCU, Samuels also added a fumble recovery... Shared team's top specialist honor after opener vs. WCU.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Three-year starter at RB and DB... Team's leading rusher, receiver and scorer as senior... Contributed 43 total tackles and three INTs in 2008... Two-time team offensive MVP... Posted INT in recent Central Florida All-Star Game... Two-year starter in basketball... District 200-meter champion as junior; PRs of 10.8 (100) and 22.1 (200).

ACADEMICS Samuels is majoring in Human and Organizational Development.

PERSONAL Eric Damon Samuels Jr... Son of Eric Samuels and Tina Quashie... Has two brothers and a younger sister... Born May 9, 1991... Elected as school's homecoming king... Received school's highest student-athlete award.

62 RYAN SEYMOUR

R-So. ★ Offensive Line ★ 6-5 • 305
Kingsland, Ga. ★ Camden Co. HS

2010 PROSPECTS Despite missing virtually all of spring practice with a shoulder injury, Seymour should be a major player on a Commodore offensive line that lacks experience entering preseason camp. As a redshirt freshman, Seymour impressed at left tackle during second half of 2009 season. The former defensive line prospect also has the versatility to play either tackle position.

2009 Named All-SEC Freshman by league coaches... Redshirt freshman played in eight games as first-year offensive lineman... Minutes expanded at left tackle as injuries impacted the offensive front... After playing sparingly in wins over Western Carolina and Rice, Seymour was inserted into the starting lineup against Georgia when tackle Thomas Welch sustained an injury... Through final six games, played nearly half of the team's offensive snaps... In first collegiate start at No. 1 Florida, played key role as line permitted no quarterback sacks by the talented Gator defensive front.

2008 Seymour redshirted during his first year. He practiced during the fall as a defensive tackle candidate, then moved to offensive tackle during Spring Practice.

HIGH SCHOOL Two-year starter for one of south Georgia's top programs... As starter at DE and OG, helped 2007 Wildcats to 12-2 record and AAAAA semifinals... As DE, contributed 50 tackles and pair of sacks... Named AAAAA First Team All-State and to Times-Union's Georgia "Super South 11" squad... Invited to play in Georgia High School All-Star Game... Two-time all-region.

ACADEMICS Seymour is working toward a degree in Human and Organizational Development.

PERSONAL Ryan Radeck Seymour... Son of Mark and Christine Seymour... Born on Feb. 7, 1990... Has an older sister, Laurel Ann... Dad is a program manager; mom is a banker... Seymour worked at local golf course in high school, and played on the Camden County varsity golf team.

2 ZAC STACY

So. ★ Running Back ★ 5-9 • 205
Centreville, Ala. ★ Bibb County HS

2010 PROSPECTS Just a sophomore, Stacy gives the Commodores a dynamic running back tandem with SEC Freshman of the Year Warren Norman, and explosive redshirt freshman Wesley Tate waiting in the wings. A punishing rusher, Stacy displayed the ability to catch out of the backfield as a freshman, and has the frame to develop into a solid pass blocker in single-tailback formations.

2009 One of seven true freshmen to participate for Commodores... Formed superb freshman rushing duo with Norman... Earned four starting assignments as tailback and played in 10 games, missing Ole Miss and South Carolina games with lingering ankle injury that also limited production against Mississippi State and Rice... Finished season as team's second leading rusher behind Norman with 478 yards and three touchdowns on 107 carries... Also caught seven passes for 72 yards as target out of the backfield... Started season with 133 rushing yards and touchdown in win over Western Carolina... That rushing total was most by Commodore during campaign... Rushed for 83 yards and pair of touchdowns against Georgia Tech... One score against Tech went for 62 yards, the longest rush by Commodore on the season... Also had 47-yard reception against Tech.. Finished year returning punts at Tennessee, gaining 38 yards on three returns.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... First earned starting role at RB as freshman... As senior, rushed for 2,413 yards and scored 35 TDs,

49 JOHN STOKES

Sr. ★ Linebacker/Snapper ★ 6-5 • 235
Memphis, Tenn. ★ University School

2010 PROSPECTS A valuable Commodore for multiple reasons, Stokes exited Spring Practice as a probable starter at linebacker. Stokes' maturity will benefit a Vanderbilt defense that should rate among the youngest in the Southeastern Conference. Fully healthy after shoulder problems, the senior appears geared toward his finest season. Stokes also should handle long snapper duties.

2009 Saw action in every game and earned starting assignments at outside linebacker against Rice, Ole Miss and Tennessee... Platooned with senior Brent Trice as starter... Also served as squad's snapper in punting situations for third consecutive year... Finished year seventh on team in total tackles (44) and eighth in solo tackles (22)... Both totals represent single-season career bests... Concluded campaign in excellent fashion, matching his career high with eight tackles against both Kentucky and Tennessee... Posted at least two tackles in 11 games... Also added pair of tackles for loss... First career fumble recovery came against Georgia Tech.

2008 Played in all 13 games, and has participated in all 25 games of his Commodore career... Earned 10 starts as SLB... Also served as team's primary snapper in punt formations... Concluded with season highs in total tackles (31), unassisted stops (19), and tackles for loss (4)... Closed regular season with five-tackle efforts against Tennessee and Wake Forest... Contributed at least two tackles in seven of last eight games... Ability to long snap and aid in coverage of Commodore punts earned Special Teams Player of the Week honors after Mississippi State and Tennessee outings.

2007 One of three true freshmen to see action, Stokes played every game... Participated at second team OLB... Early in season, earned team's snapping responsibilities in punt situations, and eventually became primary snapper for all special teams... Ended season with seven total tackles, including five solo stops... Posted three solo tackles in win over Ole Miss.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain and defensive MVP for Memphis private power... Helped Owls to state Division II state titles in 2004 and 2005... As senior, named Division II-AAA Mr. Football Lineman of the Year, Three-year starter at LB... In 2006, achieved 85 tackles, five tackles of loss and an interception... Top rebounder for MUS state championship basketball team... Cum laude honors student and National Merit Semifinalist... Received school's Wellford Leadership Award.

ACADEMICS Stokes is majoring in Medicine, Health and Society. He earned ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA District IV Academic All-America honors after the 2008 and 2009 seasons, and is a two-time SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient. Stokes received early acceptance into Vanderbilt Medical School after his second year on campus. He begins medical school classes in 2011.

PERSONAL John Whittemore Stokes IV... Son of Jack and Carol Stokes... Born Feb. 1, 1988 in Memphis... Has older sister, Cameron; and younger brother, Will... Dad works in sales for Morgan Keegan investment firm; mom is a homemaker... Both parents graduated from Vanderbilt... Enjoys playing the guitar... Likes to hunt and fish.

R-So. ★ Linebacker ★ 6-1 • 230
Loganville, Ga. ★ Grayson HS

2010 PROSPECTS Injured during the 2009 season, Strong has worked incredibly hard to return this season at full strength. The athletic sophomore should compete with several other prospects for the outside linebacker opening left vacant by Patrick Benoist's graduation.

2009 A redshirt freshman, Strong suffered a season-ending leg injury on special teams effort at Army just as playing time was starting to increase... Saw action in first six games of season, contributing at linebacker and on coverage units... Ended season with three tackles.

2008 A redshirt linebacker candidate this season as a true freshman, Strong showed plenty of potential during fall practices, then followed that effort with more promise through spring drills.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain, helping squad to 10-3 overall record and appearance in Georgia AAAAA state quarterfinals... Two-year starter at linebacker; three-year letterwinner... As senior, posted 46 total tackles, 31 solo stops, three QB sacks and a pair of interceptions... Recovered fumble for TD... In 2006, squad went 6-6, advancing to first round of playoffs... As junior, contributed 51 total tackles, seven sacks, 11 tackles for loss, a forced fumble and a blocked kick... Named first team 5A All-State and All-Gwinnett County... Played in Georgia North-South All-Star Game... Also lettered in basketball.

4 UDOM UMOH

R-Jr. ★ Wide Receiver ★ 6-0 • 180
Fort Valley, Ga. ★ Peach Co. HS

2010 PROSPECTS Umoh enters 2010 with the experience of being a first-time starter last year. A probable starter at wide receiver, Umoh needs to build more strength and exhibit surer hands as aerial target. Perhaps surprisingly due to his frame, Umoh ranks among the Commodores' top blockers among its receiving corps. 2009 Enjoyed best season in Commodore uniform as redshirt sophomore, earning starts in 11 of 12 games at wide receiver... Regarded as one of top blockers from receiver position and extremely productive on punt coverage units... Set career highs with 20 receptions and 267 receiving yards... Ranked third on team in catches and posted 13.4-yard per catch average, tops among wide receivers... Notched five catches for 95 yards in victory over Rice... Effort also included 54-yard hookup, longest of the season for the Commodores... Had three catches for 27 yards and first career touchdown against Ole Miss... ## 34 RYAN VAN RENSBURG

R-Jr. ★ Fullback/H-Back ★ 6-1 • 235
Jacksonville, Fla. ★ The Bolles School

2010 PROSPECTS The 'Dores' lone true fullback, van Rensburg is a powerful blocker who is likely to see expanded duties in the Commodores' red-zone opportunities. Van Rensburg is also one of the team's most valuable special teams contributors, seeing time on return and coverage units.

2009 Played in every game as redshirt sophomore, contributing as the team's primary fullback and on special teams... Used frequently as blocker in short yardage situations, but did post one catch- a 2-yarder for touchdown in finale at Tennessee... Also had a single rushing attempt in each of team's first four games, totaling nine yards... First career rush resulted in 2-yard touchdown against Western Carolina.

2008 Van Rensburg served as special teams contributor, seeing action on conversion and return units in final eight games.

2007 Did not see game action as a freshman, though impressed as a practice squad running back in fall drills... Earned team's Offensive Scout of the Week honor after Georgia game.

HIGH SCHOOL Three-year letterwinner for top Florida 2A program... Starting tailback as junior and senior... Helped squad to 2006 state title... 78 CALEB WELCHANS
R-So. ★ Offensive Line ★ 6-5 • 300
Wildwood, Mo. ★ Lafayette HS

2010 PROSPECTS Welchans enters preseason camp with a starting role at stake. A contributor at tackle last year, Welchans will compete for the starting unit at either role this season as the Commodores face a lack of inexperienced interior lineman. Entering his third season with the program, Welchans has benefited from hard work in the weight room.

2009 In his first year of action, Welchans played in 10 of 12 games, contributing at right tackle following key injuries to the Commodore OL... Did not earn any starts, but saw substantial action as a reserve tackle as season developed... Initial snaps came at right tackle following season-ending injury to James Williams and struggles by others playing the position.

2008 Welchans redshirted this season, his first on the Vanderbilt campus... Showed excellent talent, and earned the team's Offensive Scout of the Week honor after Mississippi game.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Two-year starter at OT and DT... Helped squad to 6A state quarterfinals as senior... Named first team 6A All-State... As senior DT, contributed 41 tackles and three sacks... Three shot 52-feet for PR.

ACADEMICS Welchans is working toward a degree in Human and Organizational Development. He is a 2009 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient.

Western Carolina (0) at Vanderbilt (45)

Vanderbilt Stadium, Nashville (36,530) • Sept. 5, 2009 • CSS

NASHVILLE – Warren Norman ran for 105 yards and two touchdowns to lead Vanderbilt to a 45-0 victory over Western Carolina.

Norman, a freshman tailback, scored on runs of 2 and 9 yards. Fellow freshman running back Zac Stacy rushed for 133 yards on 20 attempts. Norman and Stacy are the first freshmen in Vanderbilt history to run for more than 100 yards in the same game.

It was the first time any two Commodore runners gained more than 100 yards in the same game since September 21, 2002, when Kwane Doster and Norval McKenzie did it in a loss to Ole Miss.

Larry Smith completed 10 of 18 passes for 153 yards and one touchdown. Smith found Justin Green on a 46-yard touchdown pass to open the scoring. Green tipped the ball to himself at the goal line before corraling it in the end zone.

Catamounts quarterback Zack Jaynes was 13-for-26 for 74 yards and one interception. Michael Johnson topped WCU with 46 rushing yards.

Vanderbilt (9) at #11 LSU (23)

Tiger Stadium, Baton Rouge, La. (91,566) • Sept. 12, 2009 • ESPN

BATON ROUGE, La. – LSU needed Keiland Williams' late touchdown to put away Vanderbilt, 23-9 on a rain-soaked Saturday night, marking the second night this year that the 11th-ranked Tigers allowed an underdog to contend for the victory.

The Commodores (1-1, 0-1 Southeastern Conference) trailed by only one touchdown midway through the fourth quarter as they attempted to win in Tiger Stadium for the first time since 1951.

LSU (2-0, 1-0) made it a two-touchdown game with 6:01 to go after Williams' second score. He slipped a tackle at the line of scrimmage, cut back, then faked a defender to the ground before hurdling over him and into the end zone for a 14-yard TD. Williams finished with 72 yards rushing and was the only LSU player to get into the end zone.

Larry Smith scored Vanderbilt's only touchdown on a 6-yard quarterback keeper in the first half that knotted the score 7-7. Freshman Zac Stacy rushed for 89 yards.

Miss. State (15) at Vanderbilt (3)

Vanderbilt Stadium, Nashville (31,840) • Sept. 19, 2009 • FSN

NASHVILLE – Mississippi State coach Dan Mullen won his first game in the Southeastern Conference and didn't care much what it looked like.

Tyson Lee ran 22 yards for a touchdown to seal a 15-3 victory Saturday against Vanderbilt for Mississippi State's first-year coach.

Sean Brauchle made three field goals for the Bulldogs, the longest from 49 yards, and Anthony Dixon rushed for 123 yards on 21 carries.

Christian Ducre had 62 rushing yards on nine carries, and quarterback Chris Relf added 44 yards on nine attempts as the Bulldogs (2-1, 1-1 Southeastern) gained 259 of their 340 yards on the ground.

GAME 3

Vanderbilt (1-2, 0-2) scored after defensive end Tim Fugger recovered a fumble at Mississippi State's 6. The Commodores gained three yards on three runs before Ryan Fowler kicked a 20-yard field goal to tie it in the second quarter.

While the Commodore defense allowed Mississippi State just two third-down conversions on 15 attempts, the offense struggled, gaining just 157 total yards, including only 33 rushing yards on 29 carries.

Vanderbilt (36) at Rice (17)

Rice Stadium, Houston, Texas (19,753) • Sept. 26, 2009 • CSS

HOUSTON, Texas – Vanderbilt ran the ball 43 times for 216 yards, scored four rushing touchdowns and beat Rice 36-17 Saturday night in Houston.

Warren Norman ran the ball 11 times for a game-high 119 yards and scored a 58-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter to break the game open for the Commodores (2-2), who snapped a two-game losing streak.

It also marked the second Vanderbilt victory over Rice in consecutive seasons.

Charles Ross had seven carries for 63 yards and a touchdown for Rice (0-4).

The 216 rushing yards represented a season high for the Commodores.

The Vanderbilt defense harassed Owl quarterbacks much of the evening, posting four sacks. They also intercepted four Rice passes, including two by Myron Lewis.

#21 Ole Miss (23) at Vanderbilt (7)

Vanderbilt Stadium, Nashville (39,625) • Oct. 3, 2009 • ESPN

GAME 5

NASHVILLE – One week after producing 36 points in a win at Rice, the Commodore offense offered little competition against Ole Miss as Vanderbilt fell to 2-3 with a 23-7 loss to the No. 21 Rebels.

Ole Miss quarterback Jevan Snead passed for three touchdowns to overcome three interceptions as the Rebels bounced back from a loss to South Carolina to go 3-1 overall.

Snead matched his season high with three TDs against Vanderbilt in helping the Rebels to their best start since 2002 when they opened 5-1. One year earlier, the Commodores picked off four Snead passes in route to a win in Oxford.

The Commodores fell to 2-3 overall and 0-2 in Southeastern Conference play.

Commodore defenders Jamie Graham, Casey Hayward and Myron Lewis each intercepted a Snead pass, but the Vanderbilt offense totalled just 240 yards, and mustered just a lone score midway in the third quarter.

A late Commodore threat ended when Ole Miss' Marcus Temple intercepted Larry Smith in the end zone to help preserve a 23-7 lead.

The Commodore attack was topped by Warren Norman's 86 rushing yards.

Vanderbilt (13) at Army (16) OT

Michie Stadium, West Point, N.Y. (34,357) • Oct. 10, 2009 • GSTV

GAME 6

WEST POINT, N.Y. – Alex Carlton kicked a 42-yard field goal in overtime, giving Army a 16-13 upset victory over Vanderbilt in Michie Stadium overlooking the Hudson River.

With the win, the Black Knights' matched their victory total from each of the last three seasons.

It marked a second straight disappointing loss for the Commodores, who went down to defeat despite a tremendous individual performance by freshman Warren Norman, who had 62 yards rushing and 104 yards in kickoff returns, including a 76-yarder for a score.

The field goal, which hit the left upright, was Carlton's third of the game. He also kicked a 51-yarder in the second quarter, Army's longest field goal since 1994.

Vanderbilt (2-4) forced the game into overtime when Ryan Fowler hit a 41-yard field goal with less than 52 seconds remaining for a 13-13 tie. Fowler's field goal also hit off the left upright before going through. Quarterback Larry Smith went 4-for-7 for 79 yards on that drive.

Smith finished 11-for-24 with 144 yards and two interceptions.

2009 REVIEW

Georgia (34) at Vanderbilt (10)

Vanderbilt Stadium, Nashville (38,340) • Oct. 17, 2009 • SEC-TV

NASHVILLE – Joe Cox threw two touch-down passes, including one to Caleb King who scored twice, and Georgia beat Vanderbilt 34-10 on Saturday to snap a two-game skid. Cox started slowly, missing on his first four passes with one interception. The senior got going with a short toss out to the league's top receiver, and A.J. Green took it 65 yards untouched for a TD in the first as the Bulldogs never trailed.

Georgia outgained Vanderbilt 399-296 on offense.

It wasn't enough as the Commodores lost their third straight. They got within the Georgia 28 twice in the first half and had to settle for a 41-yard field goal from Ryan Fowler while turning it over on downs on the other drive.

Smith was 11 of 26 for 121 yards. Playing in relief, Adams hit on 6 of 8 passes for 53 yards. Freshman Warren Norman paced the Commodore rushing attack with 52 yards.

Vanderbilt (10) at #24 So. Carolina (14)

Williams-Brice Stadium, Columbia, SC (75,624) • Oct. 24, 2009 • ESPNU

COLUMBIA, S.C. – Warren Norman had a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown and Vanderbilt carried a 10-7 lead into the fourth quarter, but could not hold on as No. 24 South Carolina used a 99-yard touchdown drive to defeat the Commodores 14-10 Saturday night at Williams-Brice Stadium.

The Commodores were hurt by a missed interception by safety Joel Caldwell late in the game that would have ended the Gamecock scoring threat.

The winning score was controversial, as a replay ruled that USC receiver Alshon Jeffery had a foot inbounds that resulted in a game-deciding, 43-yard touchdown catch in the fourth-quarter.

GAME 8

The reception provided the Gamecocks (6-2, 3-2 Southeastern Conference) the winning margin over Vanderbilt and broke a two-game losing streak to the Commodores (2-6, 0-5).

The Commodores got the ball one last time with 4:00 left and drove to South Carolina's 25. However, Commodore quarterback Larry Smith was called for intentional grounding on third down, then did not get close to the necessary yardage on fourth-and-32.

Smith was 16 of 33 for 132 yards. Besides his 99-yard touchdown return, Norman also contributed 83 rushing yards for the Commodores. Norman also became the first Commodore to ever return two kickoffs for scores.

GAME 9

NASHVILLE – Josh Nesbitt ran for two touchdowns and threw for two scores, Jonathan Dwyer ran for a career-high 186 yards rushing with three TDs, and No. 12 Georgia Tech rallied to beat Vanderbilt 56-31.

Despite losing their fifth consecutive game, the Commodores gave Georgia Tech fits for much of the game. After a 23-yard field goal by Ryan Fowler, Vanderbilt held a 31-28 margin midway through the third quarter before Tech scored 28 unanswered points to close the game.

Three of Georgia Tech's deciding touchdowns came in a 3:40 span. The Yellow Jackets (8-1) rolled up a season-high 597 yards total offense.

Warren Norman tied an SEC record with his third kickoff return for a touchdown: an 80-yarder late in the second quarter.

Vanderbilt (3) at #1 Florida (27)

Hill Griffin Stadium, Gainesville, Fla. (90,634) • Nov. 7, 2009 • ESPN2

GAME 10

GAINESVILLE, Fla. – Quarterback Tim Tebow accounted for two touchdowns -- one of them on a tipped pass -- Caleb Sturgis kicked two field goals and the Gators beat the Commodores 27-3 at The Swamp.

Vanderbilt lost for the seventh straight week.

The Commodore defense played well against Heisman candidate Tebow, who directed the Gators to 375 total yards, with many coming in the game. Tebow played virtually the entire way for the Gators.

The Commodores' season-long pattern of little offensive production continued against Florida, with Vanderbilt totalling just 199 yards.

Vanderbilt quarterback Mackenzi Adams was 13 of 29 for 100 yards, with an interception. Adams threw quick passes to avoid the Florida pass rush. The lone Commodore points came on a 32-yard field goal by freshman Ryan Fowler midway through the third quarter.

Vanderbilt struggled to defend Tebow's top target, tight end Aaron Hernandez, who caught seven passes for 120 yards.

2009 REVIEW

Kentucky (24) at Vanderbilt (13)

Vanderbilt Stadium, Nashville (33,675) • Nov. 14, 2009 • SEC-TV

GAME 11

NASHVILLE – Randall Cobb ran for two touchdowns, Derrick Locke rushed for a career-high 144 yards and a touchdown, and Kentucky beat Vanderbilt 24-13 to become bowl eligible for the fourth straight year. Kentucky (6-4, 2-4 Southeastern Conference) has won seven of the past nine in this series.

For the Commodores (2-9, 0-7) it was another disappointing performance in a year of struggles. The Commodores posted their best scoring total against an SEC opponent, but failed to maintain a 13-10 lead at intermission. In going without points through the second half, the Commodores managed only 31 offensive yards after halftime.

Quarterback Mackenzi Adams completed just 11 of 24 passes for 117 yards and one score. Warren Norman had 52 rushing yards.

The Commodores struggled much of the game to contain the Cobb-Locke duo. They amassed 252 all-purpose yards, with both doing damage from the Wildcat quarterback role.

GAME 12

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – The Volunteers notched their third consecutive victory over the in-state Commodores 31-16 after jumping out to a 14-point margin at halftime.

With the score tied 10-10 after one quarter, the Vols (6-5, 3-4 Southeastern Conference) became bowl eligible with a pair of Jonathan Compton touchdown passes in the second quarter.

Late in the game, after two Ryan Fowler field goals narrowed the Tennessee margin to 24-16, the Commodores failed to score on three fourth quarter possessions, then watched a deflected Mackenzi Adams pass returned for a last-second touchdown.

The Commodores (2-10, 0-8) finished without a conference win for the first time since 2002.

Adams hit on 19 of 35 passes for 174 and a touchdown. Warren Norman was the top Commodore rusher with 73 yards. Tight end Brandon Barden contributed five receptions for the Commodores.

COMMODORE HISTORY

Nov. 27, 1890
On Thanksgiving, Vanderbilt plays its first game, topping nearby Peabody Normal School. Elliott Jones was coach and captain.

Dec. 7, 1897
After ending the season 6-0 and unscored upon, Vanderbilt agrees to host Virginia for the Southern Championship. The teams play to a classic 0-0 tie in front of 2,500 fans.

The "Point-A-Minute" Commodores
McGugin's first squad in 1904, left, went 9-0, outscoring its opponents by a remarkable 452-4 margin.

Nov. 7, 1891
Vanderbilt and Sewanee, charter members of the Southern Intercollegiate Conference, play their first game. The rivalry, typically reserved for Thanksgiving Day, continues into WWII. When the series ended in 1944, Vanderbilt owned a 40-8-4 advantage.

Scholars in Uniform
Two top players on the 1903 squad, John J. Tigert and Bob Blake, became Rhodes scholars after their playing days.

The "Commodores"
In 1897, former QB William Beard first applied the "Commodore" nickname as a staffer at the Nashville Banner.

Nov. 24, 1906
The famed Carisle Indians fall 4-0 to the Commodores.

Nov. 7, 1908
The "Dores" win their 20th straight versus Southern Conference foes, 16-9 over Tennessee.

Sept. 17, 1904
One-time Michigan star and recent law school grad Dan McGugin arrives as Vanderbilt's coach. By the time he retires, McGugin will become a legend of the sport.

The Golden Years
Dan McGugin's Commodores took on all comers, and rarely failed to deliver a victory.

Traveling by rail across much of the nation, the program compiled a 124-30 record from 1904-22.

Overpowering Commodores

From 1910 to 1912, McGugin's teams went 24-2-1, and outscored their opponents by a combined 816-35 margin. Above, fans line Curry Field with Model Ts to watch 1910 game.

Playing the Texas State Fair

Before Oklahoma and Texas started the Red River Shootout, it was Vanderbilt vs. Texas at the Texas State Fair in Dallas. Vanderbilt won five of seven games with the Longhorns between 1921 and 1928.

Aug. 10, 1918

One of the greatest and most beloved Commodores of all-time, Irby "Rabbit" Curry, gave his life defending America in the skies over France.

Curry was a standout quarterback from 1914-16, a scholar and student leader. As a senior, classmates elected him "Bachelor of Ugliness" — the highest award given to a male Vanderbilt undergrad.

Oct. 14, 1922

McGugin invites powerful Michigan as the Commodores' initial opponent in Dudley Field. The teams play to a 0-0 tie before a huge crowd. The tie was preserved when captain Jess Neely recovered a fumble near in Commodore goal.

McGugin's Assistants

Dan McGugin, middle, is shown in 1922 with new assistant Wallace Wade, far left, an eventual Hall of Famer. The 1922 team captain, Jess Neely, later became a legend.

Nov. 29, 1934

After three decades at the helm of Commodore football, Dan McGugin steps aside to become athletics director. He retired with a remarkable 197-55-19 record. He ranks among the NCAA Top 20 in all-time wins.

Looking Within to Replace a Legend

McGugin picked one of his best Commodore players, Ray Morrison, as a replacement. Morrison came after a stellar tenure as SMU's coach.

Oct. 23, 1937

Early in the game against No. 6 LSU, tackle Greer Ricketson took the ball cleverly hidden on the ground by the Vanderbilt quarterback and rambled 50 yards for a score. The 'Dores would win 7-6.

Sanders' 1941 Staff

Vanderbilt Head Coach Red Sanders, far left, hired excellent assistants. In 1941, his staff included a future legend in Paul "Bear" Bryant, who mentored Commodore linemen in the 1941-42 seasons.

Nov. 22, 1941

In his second year, Sanders returned the 'Dores to prominence. Their 7-0 win over Alabama on this date gave the team a 8-1 mark.

Defense After WWII

Sanders' 1946 squad posted five shutouts, including four against conference foes.

Oct. 16, 1948

After a 20-7 loss at No. 14 Ole Miss, Vanderbilt defeats Kentucky 26-7, starting an eight-game win streak. The Commodores outscored the eight opponents 307-26. By season's end, AP pollsters ranked Red Sanders' squad No. 12 in the nation.

Returning Nalley
Nobody could return a punt like Lee Nalley. From 1947-49, Nalley set numerous NCAA records, including running back five punts for touchdowns.

Oct. 7, 1950

Behind Nashville native and All-SEC quarterback Bill Wade, the Commodores beat No. 12 Alabama 27-22 in Mobile. The team reaches a No. 13 ranking.

Scoreless Ties

Competing on the road in 1958, the Commodores played to 0-0 ties at Alabama and Kentucky, and to a 6-6 draw at Florida.

Oct. 14, 1955

A 12-0 shutout of Chattanooga sparks Vanderbilt run that leads to the team's first bowl appearance. Gator Bowl officials paired the Commodores against No. 8 Auburn after Vanderbilt's 7-3 regular season.

Dec. 31, 1955

Bouyed by five fumble recoveries, the Commodores defeat Auburn 25-13 in the 11th annual Gator Bowl. The offensive attack was All-America halfback Charley Horton, at left, and quarterback Don Orr, who scored two touchdowns despite a dislocated shoulder.

Nov. 28, 1964

A two-yard rushing touchdown by senior running back Bob Sullins — the first of his career — gives Vanderbilt its margin in a 7-0 victory over Tennessee.

Oct. 11, 1969

Playing with a hurt shoulder, Watson Brown hits Jim Cunningham with game-winning 10-yard touchdown in Commodores' 14-10 victory over No. 13 Alabama.

Oct. 26, 1968

Trailing by a touchdown late vs. No. 15 Florida, John Miller hits Jim Cunningham on a 33-yard scoring strike to pull Vanderbilt even in an eventual 14-14 tie.

Sept. 15, 1973

In 1973

In an early-season practice, assistant Bill Parcells wonders aloud if there's a punter among the team ranks. Tight end Barry Burton raises his hand, wins the job, and becomes an All-America in 1975.

Picture Day, 1974

Mammoth defensive end Dennis Harrison shares a moment with a young Commodore fan.

Oct. 12, 1974

Steve Sloan's Commodores show signs of progress, taking a 24-3 lead en route to 24-10 victory over No. 8 Florida.

Dec. 28, 1974

Played on a muddy day in Atlanta, the Peach Bowl (above) between Vanderbilt and Texas Tech was ruled by defense, as the Commodores and Red Raiders slugged to a 6-6 tie.

Nov. 29, 1975

Fred Pancoast's Commodores top Tennessee 17-14 in Knoxville to conclude a 7-4 season with four consecutive victories.

Nov. 18, 1978

Frank Mordica rushes for 321 rushes and five touchdowns in Vanderbilt's 41-27 victory over Air Force. Mordica's rush total remains a SEC record.

Sept. 10, 1977

Playing No. 1 Oklahoma in Norman, a questionable block-in-the-back call against Vanderbilt negates the Commodores' apparent game-winning touchdown by split end Martin Cox in eventual 25-23 loss.

Sept. 12, 1981

Playing before a standing-room only crowd, the Commodores christen renovated Vanderbilt Stadium with a 23-17 victory over Maryland.

Nov. 27, 1982

In a cold rain, Whit Taylor scores on an option rush with 3:00 left to give Vanderbilt a game-clinching lead in 28-21 victory over Tennessee. The win was the Commodores' fifth straight, and ensured a bowl bid.

Oct. 9, 1982

All-SEC tackle Rob Monaco recovered a Vanderbilt fumble in the end zone for a game-winning touchdown to give the Commodores a 31-29 victory over No. 14 Florida.

Dec. 31, 1982

In a record-breaking offensive display, tailback Norman Jordan catches 20 passes from roommate Whit Taylor in Hall of Fame Bowl appearance.

Sept. 29, 1984

The Commodores hand Alabama a 30-21 homecoming loss. After the win and a 4-0 start, AP pollsters give Vanderbilt a No. 17 ranking. All-America TE Chuck Scott, right, hauls in reception.

Oct. 3, 1987

Chris Gaines, right, put together one of the finest individual defensive efforts in team history, contributed 37 total tackles against Tulane in the Superdome.

1988

Boo Mitchell, below, has five consecutive 100-yard receiving games. He still ranks first on the team career receiving yardage.

1988

"It's Showtime" featuring senior quarterback Eric Jones. Coming off a superb junior season, Vanderbilt initiates Heisman campaign for Jones as season approaches.

Oct. 19, 1991

Tailback Corey Harris takes an errand pitch by Marcus Wilson 51 yards for the deciding points in Vanderbilt's 27-24 victory over No. 17 Georgia. Harris and fellow running back Sam Chalmers both top 100 rushing yards in the Commodore win.

Sept. 6, 1986

Former Vanderbilt quarterback and fan favorite Watson Brown returns to the sideline for his first game as Commodore head coach.

Oct. 15, 1988

Wearing new gold jerseys for the first time, linebacker Billy Cunningham contributes an interception and two sacks in Vanderbilt's 24-9 upset of No. 20 Florida.

COMMODORE HISTORY

ALL-AMERICANS

D.J. MOORE

DEFENSIVE BACK 2008

Moore became the first Commodore defensive back to earn All-America honors in 25 years.

He earned second team recognition from the Associated Press, Sporting News, SI.com and Rivals.com after a sensational junior season.

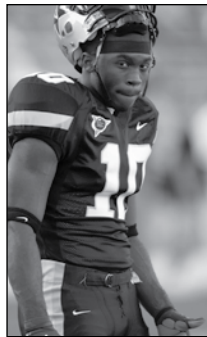

Moore registered six interceptions and 58 total tackles, contributing to the Commodores' 7-6 campaign that ended with a victory over Boston College at the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

He ended his career tied for second among Commodores with 13 career interceptions.

In 2008, he was the SEC's most versatile player, also seeing action as a running back, wide receiver and return specialist.

Moore's talents were apparent in several Commodore wins. In a late-season win at Kentucky, he achieved a truly rare feat with a 2-interception, 2-TD catch effort.

After three years, Moore entered the NFL draft. He was selected in the fourth round by the Bears.

EARL BENNETT

RECEIVER 2006

Bennett concluded his career as the SEC's all-time leading receiver.

As a sophomore in 2006, the product of Birmingham, Ala., was named third-team All-America by Rivals.com in 2006 after catching 82 passes in the regular season.

When he announced intentions to enter the NFL draft, Bennett departed with 236 career receptions, 28 more than any other SEC receiver.

Besides the receptions record, Bennett ranks among the team leaders in virtually every receiving category.

In 2007, Bennett caught 75 passes, becoming the only receiver in SEC history to post three straight seasons with at least 75 catches.

Bennett was a three-time All-SEC recipient.

Many fans remember Bennett and Jay Cutler connecting on many memorable plays in the 2005 season, including the game-winning touchdown to defeat Tennessee in Knoxville.

Bennett was selected by Chicago in the third round of the 2008 draft.

JAMIE WINBORN

LINEBACKER 1999

Winborn was named All-America by Football News following the 1999 season after leading the Commodores and the SEC with 141 tackles. It was the second straight year that Winborn led the league in tackles.

A two-time All-SEC Coaches selection, Winborn was the complete linebacker package in 1999. He was a run stopper who delivered punishing blows, but he also had the agility to make plays sideline to sideline.

He led the squad with a team-record 23 tackles for loss and was third in sacks with 5.5. His performance included a 20-tackle, two-sack effort against South Carolina.

Winborn finished his Commodore career with 377 total tackles, 45 tackles for loss, 16.5 QB sacks and six forced fumbles.

Winborn topped the squad in solo tackles for for three consecutive years.

Winborn was selected by the 49ers in the 2001 NFL Draft. He has played with the 49ers, Bucs, Broncos and Titans.

JAMIE DUNCAN

LINEBACKER 1997

Duncan was a dominating linebackers and a player who always rose to the occasion.

In 1997, Duncan was named First Team All-America by the Football Writers Association. He was also named Second Team All-America by the Associated Press and Football News.

In 1997, he became the only Commodore player to ean SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press. He also received similar recognition from the Mobile Press Register.

As a junior, Duncan amassed 152 tackles, six sacks, 14 tackles for loss and five forced fumbles. He finished his career with 425 tackles. His performance against top ranked Florida remains one of the best ever by a Commodore.

Duncan's career included stops with Bucs, Rams and Falcons.

BILL MARINANGEL

PUNTER 1996

Marinangel was eamed First Team All-America by the Sporting News in 1996 after topping the NCAA with a 46.6-yard average.

Marinangel is perhaps best remembered for one heroic play in his senior year. In the second game against Alabama, Marinangel surprised the Tide special teams and 72,000 onlookers, as he took the snap from center, and then scampered 81 yards for an unbelievable and unlikely touchdown.

The run was the longest in the SEC that season and still stands as the longest in school history.

Marinangel's 46.6-yard average is the second highest single-season in team history.

BOO MITCHELL

RECEIVER 1988

In 1988, Mitchell was a Third Team All-America after compiling one of the finest seasons ever by a Commodore receiver.

Teaming with quarterback Eric Jones, Mitchell hauled in 78 catches for 1,213 yards and five touchdowns. The receiving yardage total remains a Vanderbilt team record and the SEC's seventh highest total ever. He surpassed 100 yards receiving in six games that season.

Mitchell burst onto the SEC scene as a freshman, hauling in a team-record 45 receptions. He added 31 and 34 receptions as a sophomore and junior, respectively.

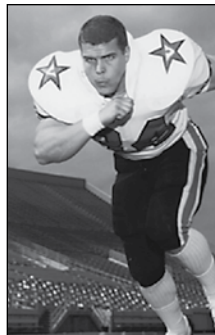

Mitchell ranks among team leaders in virtually every career receiving category. He tops the list, — and ranks third all-time in the SEC, with 2,964 receiving yards.

ALL-AMERICA CRITERIA

To be listed as an All-American in the Vanderbilt media guide, a player must have been selected to an All-America team by a national agency as defined in the NCAA Official Football Records Book. Current agencies that meet the criteria are the Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association, Football News, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News, Walter Camp Foundation, SI.com and Rivals.com.

ALL-AMERICANS

CHRIS GAINES

LINEBACKER

A Nashville native, Gaines was selected First Team Kodak All-America by the nation's football coaches. In 1987, he established an SEC single-season record for total tackles with 214.

Nashville Tennessean columnist Larry Woody once described Gaines as "sort of a Rambo on a leash."

An avid weightlifter, Gaines was one of the strongest Commodores of his era, bench pressing more than 450 pounds.

Gaines achieved one of the greatest individual defensive efforts by a Commodore during his senior season, recording a school-record 37 tackles versus Tulane.

Following the season, he was named Most Valuable Player of the Blue-Gray Game after racking up 18 tackles and was named Tennessee Amateur Athlete of the Year by the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame.

Gaines played two years in the NFL, then returned to Vanderbilt as an assistant football coach from 1995-97.

RICKY ANDERSON

Anderson arrived on campus as a walk-on. Four years later, he departed as the nation's top punter-kicker in the nation and a consensus All-American.

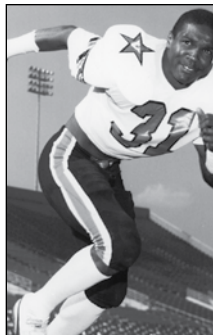

Anderson's senior season was remarkable. As a punter, he topped the nation with a 48.2-yard average. It remains as the highest yearly punting average ever in the SEC by more than a yard.

Anderson's 1984 campaign also is tied for seventh all-time in NCAA history.

Following the 1984 season, he was named a consensus First Team All-American and All-SEC selection.

Anderson holds several team kicking marks. Besides the single-season average record, his 82-yard punt against Georgia in 1984 remains the longest in team history.

Anderson's career average of 45.6 yards also ranks first, as does his single-season scoring total of 73 points in 1982. He also ranks third on the team's all-time scoring list with 192 points.

LEONARD COLEMAN

DEFENSIVE BACK
1983

Coleman was named First Team All-America in 1983 by the Gannett News Service and was a Third Team All-America selection by the Associated Press.

A consensus All-SEC selection, Coleman left Vanderbilt rated as the nation's No. 1 cornerback by NFL scouts.

Coleman was a four-year starter. As a freshman, he contributed four interceptions, including a team-record tying three picks in a victory over Chattanooga. At the time, his effort against Chattanooga also tied a SEC mark.

Coleman's efforts as a junior was a key for Vanderbilt's Hall of Fame Bowl season in 1982, including a pair of interceptions in the season-opening win over Memphis. He finished the year by setting a team mark with eight interceptions.

He holds the team record with 15 career interceptions.

Coleman played professionally in the USFL and several seasons in the NFL with Indianapolis and San Diego.

CHUCK SCOTT

TIGHT END
1983

Early in his career, Scott struggled to make an impact at flanker. He just needed to switch positions.

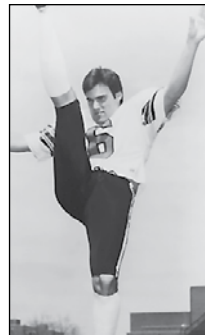

In 1983, Scott blossomed after moving to tight end. Scott hauled in 70 receptions and nine touchdowns to tie the existing NCAA record for catches by a tight end. He was named First Team All-America by The Sporting News.

As a sophomore in 1982, Scott contributed 21 receptions in the Commodores' Hall of Fame Bowl campaign.

A two-time Academic All-SEC selection, Scott ranks among the team leaders in several career receiving records. His 20 career touchdown receptions remains the second most in school history. Scott also ranks sixth all-time with 145 catches and fifth with 2,219 receiving yards.

Scott played three seasons in the NFL – with the Rams in 1985 and 1986, and Dallas in 1987.

JIM ARNOLD

PUNTER
1982

Arnold became the first Vanderbilt kicking specialist to receive All-America honors, paving the way for several kicking standouts to follow in his footsteps.

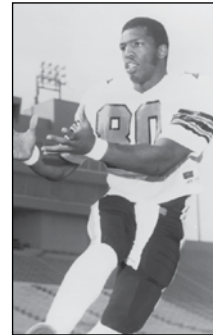

A native of Dalton, Ga., Arnold quickly impacted the squad, breaking the freshman mark with a 41.9-yard average. By the time he graduated, his coach, George McIntyre, was quoted as saying, "Jim's the best kicker in the country, pro or college."

As a senior in 1982, he was named to six All-America teams after averaging a then-record 45.8-yard average. He ended his career with a 43.9-yard average, and still holds the SEC mark with 277 punts.

Arnold's senior average remains third all-time by a 'Dore and fifth all-time by a SEC punter.

Two of Arnold's punts remain among the 10 longest in Commodore history, including a 79-yarder at Ole Miss.

After Vanderbilt, Arnold took his game to the NFL, enjoying an 11-year pro career.

ALLAMA MATTHEWS

TIGHT END
1982

Early in his Vanderbilt career, coaches tried the Matthews at safety and receiver. Once all parties settled on tight end, Matthews put together one of the finest receiving campaigns ever, helping spark the team's run to the Hall of Fame Bowl.

In 1982, Matthews was named First Team All-America by Football News after posting 61 receptions for 797 yards and 14 TDs, most ever by a Commodore. Later that season, Matthews was also named SEC Offensive Lineman of the Year by the Atlanta Touchdown Club.

Matthews also earned First Team All-SEC honors by the Associated Press and United Press International in 1982.

He concluded his Commodore career with 114 catches and 18 touchdowns.

Matthews ranks among the all-time Commodore receivers in several categories.

Matthews was drafted and played three seasons with the Atlanta Falcons.

COMMODORE HISTORY

PRESTON BROWN

RECEIVER 1979

Brown, a product of Nashville, was named Third Team All-America as a senior after posting career receiving marks in 1979. He topped all league receivers with 52 catches, good for 786 yards and three touchdowns during the season.

Brown's season was topped by three 100-yard receiving games, including a 175-yard output versus Ole Miss.

Brown also was a dynamic returner for the Commodores. He remains sixth on team's all-time leaders for kickoff returns and fifth in punt returns.

Brown also is tied for second all-time with three returns for touchdowns. His 100-yard kickoff return against Ole Miss in 1977 remains the longest in Commodore history.

After finishing his senior season, Brown played in the Blue-Gray Classic and Senior Bowl.

He played three seasons for the New England Patriots and one year each for the New York Jets and Cleveland Browns.

BARRY BURTON

TIGHT END 1974

As a junior in 1974, the Nashville native and Hillsboro High graduate helped the Commodores to a 7-4 regular season record and berth in the 1974 Peach Bown.

Following the season, he was named First Team All-America by Football News. He was also a First Team All-SEC pick that year.

Burton was a genuine triple-threat. In addition to receiving, he also ran the end-around, and handled punting duties. In 1974, Burton caught 22 passes for 378 yards and three touchdowns; ran 31 times for 307 yards and a score; and punted 54 times for a 40.2-yard average.

As a senior, Burton came back to catch a career-high 31 passes and two touchdowns. He topped the Commodores in receptions as a senior.

As a punter, Burton has two of the longest efforts in team: a 79-yarder versus Georgia in 1973 and a 78-yarder versus Kentucky in 1975.

BOB ASHER

OFF. TACKLE 1969

Virginia native Asher started every game of his three-year varsity Vanderbilt career, concluding with the Associated Press and NEA naming him to the First Team All-American squad at tackle.

Asher was known as an impenetrable pass blocker, regarded by observers as one of the top blocking tackles in school history. He also earned First Team All-SEC and All-South honors as a junior.

Following his college career, Asher played in the College All-Star Game, the Senior Bowl, the North-South Shrine Game and the Canadian American Bowl.

In 1970, he was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys. One of his teammates with the Cowboys was a former Vanderbilt teammate, defensive lineman Pat Toomay. Together, they played key roles in the Cowboy's 1971 squad that eventually won the Super Bowl.

CHIP HEALY

LINEBACKER 1968

A linebacker from Chattanooga, Healy's All-America recognition as a defensive standout set the stage for numerous linebackers to follow in later years.

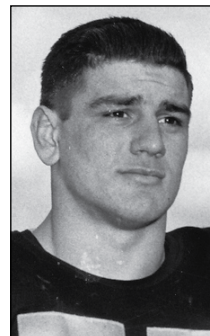

In 1968, Healy was named First Team All-American by the Central Press and Second Team All-American by The Sporting News.

Healy was also selected as a First Team All-SEC player as a sophomore.

Healy played superb defense as a junior after hurting his knee the previous spring. As a senior, Healy topped the team in tackles. He also posted six interceptions in his career.

Healy played in the East-West Shrine Game and Senior Bowl.

Selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1968 draft, Healy played two seasons in the NFL.

GEORGE DEIDERICH

GUARD 1958

Known to his teammates as "LuLu", Deiderich was a two-way line standout for the Commodores, culminating a Vanderbilt career by earning First Team All-America honors by Associated Press, the nation's coaches, Look Magazine, and the Football Writers Association of America.

He was also named First Team All-SEC in 1957 and 1958.

Deiderich played both offensive and defensive guard, though he specialized as a defensive lineman.

Deiderich was also an outstanding track athlete, setting a then-Vanderbilt record in the 120-yard high hurdles.

After his senior season, Deiderich represented the Commodores at the Senior Bowl. Drafted in the 23th round of the NFL Draft by the Rams, Deiderich decided to take his football talents north of the border. He played two seasons for the CFL's Montreal Alouettes.

CHARLEY HORTON

RUNNING BACK 1955

Horton was named Third Team All-America by INS following a superb 1955 season in which he established a then-school mark of 12 touchdowns.

Horton's outstanding play at halfback propelled the Commodores to an 8-3 season and their first ever bowl game – a 25-13 win over No. 8 Auburn in the Gator Bowl.

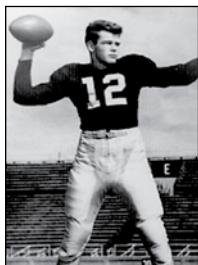

Horton had a knack for getting the Commodores on the scoreboard, as he scored the first touchdown in seven of the 10 regular season contests in the 1955 season.

Horton was an outstanding returner for the Commodores. He ranks second all-time with a 14.4-yard punt return average.

Though selected 11th overall by the Rams in the 1956 draft, Horton joined the military. After completing his service, Horton played in 1959 season with the CFL's Toronto Argonauts.

ALL-AMERICANS

BILL WADE
QUARTERBACK, 1951

A Nashville legend, Wade was the 1951 SEC Player of the Year and a Second Team All-America by the Associated Press, after completing 111 passes for 1,609 yards and 13 TDs.

A Look Magazine coverboy, Wade set many team passing records in his career.

He remains one of the team's most celebrated players. He remains the lone Vanderbilt player selected No. 1 overall in the NFL Draft – by the Los Angeles in 1952. He had a 14-year career with the Rams and Chicago, and led the Bears to the 1963 NFL title, rushing for two scores in a win over New York.

Upon retirement from football, Wade returned to Nashville, retiring from Third National Bank.

BOB WERCKLE
TACKLE, 1951

A New Jersey native, Werckle overcame injuries to become one of the team's finest linemen. In 1951, he was named as a Second Team All-America by INS and the Associated Press.

By 1949, he was given little chance to succeed after twice breaking a leg in practice. By 1950, the injury jinx was beaten, with Werckle playing more minutes than any teammate. Across the South, Werckle was known for his blocking and tackling abilities.

In 1951, Werckle earned First Team All-SEC recognition after serving as a captain.

Upon graduation, Werckle was selected in the NFL Draft by Detroit.

BUCKY CURTIS
RECEIVER, 1950

One of the team's first downfield receiving threats, Curtis was selected First Team All-American by the Football Writers, INS and Look Magazine in 1950.

He ranked among the nation's best receiving yardage in 1950. As a senior, Curtis led the team to a 7-4 record, and set a SEC mark with 791 receiving yards.

Curtis ranks fourth all-time on the team with 17 touchdown catches.

After his senior season, Curtis was named MVP of the Senior Bowl, and played in the College All-Star Game. He was selected in the second round of the NFL Draft by Cleveland.

He went on to serve four years in the Navy. Eventually, he played with Toronto of the CFL. In 1975, he received a Silver Anniversary Award by the NCAA.

BOB GUDE
CENTER, 1941

Gude played three years of tremendous football before entering the military service during World War II.

Gude was named to the Fox-Movietone All-America team in 1941.

As a center, Gude was frequently compared to former Commodore greats Carl Hinkle and Pete Gracey.

After his senior season, Gude was selected by the Chicago in the 1942 NFL Draft.

Gude played two seasons of pro football, starting with the Bears in 1942, then returning with Philadelphia in 1946.

CARL HINKLE

Following Pete Gracey, Hinkle continued the Commodore tradition of quality centers. The 1937 captain was named First Team All-America by the Associated Press, Grantland Rice, and Liberty.

He was an ironman, playing every minute in seven games in 1937. Named the SEC's Most Valuable Player, Hinkle guided the squad within inches of the Rose Bowl.

Though selected by the Philadelphia in the 11th round of the 1938 NFL Draft, Hinkle decided on another career path. After graduating from Vanderbilt, he entered West Point and earned the highest cadet honor. He then served with distinction in World War II.

Hinkle was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1959.

PETE GRACEY
CENTER, 1932

A native of nearby Franklin, Clarence "Pete" Gracey was an anchor on both the offense and defense fronts.

In 1932, he became the last of 13 All-America players mentored by legendary Coach Dan McGugin. While the last of McGugin's prize pupils, Gracey also ushered a decade of superb Vanderbilt centers, including Carl Hinkle and Bob Gude.

In Gracey's final season, he opened holes for such backs as Dixie Roberts and Larry Burton as a center.

A possible unde-feated season ended in the finale when the 'Dores fell to Alabama.

A versatile athlete, he also lettered in baseball and basketball.

JOHN BROWN
GUARD, 1929

A senior captain, John Neil Brown was named First Team All-America by the nation's coaches. He also was a three-time All-Conference recipient.

Known as "Bull," Brown helped anchor both sides of the line of scrimmage.

Brown was a key contributor on the line for the 1926 Commodores. He missed 1927, only to return as a standout in 1928-29. One of his best defensive games came against Minnesota and legend Bronko Nagurski.

Brown also was a standout rightfielder on the baseball team.

DICK ABERNATHY
END, 1928

Abernathy earned All-America honors as an end in 1928, helping the 'Dores to an 8-2 record.

Abernathy had a key 38-yard touchdown catch that enabled the Commodores to defeat visiting Colgate, 12-7.

A week later in Dallas, Abernathy blocked a punt that was recovered in the end zone which would stand up to be the winning score in the Commodores' 13-12 win over Texas.

BILL SPEARS
QUARTERBACK, 1927

One of the team's top offensive players ever, Spears was a three-year starter at quarterback for some of McGugin's best Vanderbilt teams.

In 1927, he was selected First Team All-America by NEA and Associated Press.

In 1927, he guided the squad to an 8-1-2 record, including a win over Tulane when noted writer Blinkey Horn described Spears as "All-World" after a two-touchdown effort.

Spears concluded his career by outgaining the entire Alabama squad in a 14-7 Vanderbilt win.

One of McGugin's most beloved players, Spears went on to chair his own law firm.

He was a significant contributor to Vanderbilt, serving on the Board of Trust from 1954 until his death in 1992.

COMMODORE HISTORY

HENRY WAKEFIELD
END, 1924

Known as "Hek," Wakefield was a two-way standout for McGugin's Commodores.

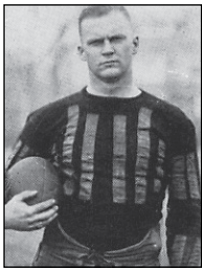

In 1924 was named First Team All-America by INS, Lawrence Perry, Outing and Billy Evans publications.

In 1922, Wakefield helped the 'Dores to a 8-0-1 campaign. He was a starter in the inaugural 0-0 game in Dudley Field against Michigan.

Wakefield starred on teams that went 26-5-4.

As injuries mounted in 1924, Wakefield was named captain. He quickly proved worthy of the honor, scoring twice in a win over Auburn, then defeating Georgia Tech with a 37-yard drop-kick field goal.

In the finale, he played every minute in a 16-0 win over Minnesota.

LYNN BOMAR

A devastating blocker and outstanding runner, Bomar was the first great end of the Dan McGugin Era.

Bomar was named All-America by Walter Camp.

Known to fans as the "Blonde Bear," Bomar helped Vanderbilt to "the Championship of the South."

His athletic career ended in 1924 when he suffered a brain hemorrhage following a blow to the chin. Though temporarily in danger, he fully recovered and enjoyed a distinguished law enforcement career.

He was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1956.

JOSH CODY
TACKLE, 1915-16, 1919

Cody is arguably the most decorated player in Vanderbilt history.

Known as a punishing blocker, Cody is the only Commodore ever to earn All-America honors in three different seasons. The Football Writers Association honored Cody after the 1915, 1916 and 1919 seasons by the Football Writers Association.

Cody was the main ingredient of a powerful offensive line that propelled Vanderbilt to 23 wins in 25 games. He sparked the McGugin's famous "point-a-minute" offense of 1915.

Cody became a successful head coach, serving in that role at Clemson and Temple.

Cody was inducted into the National College Football Hall of Fame in 1970.

IRBY 'RABBIT' CURRY
BACK, 1916

A legend in Vanderbilt history, Curry was superb on and off the field.

Small in stature, Curry's display of talent, heart and leadership and heart was cherished by Vanderbilt followers.

Selected as a Third Team All-America and All-Southern Conference pick in 1916, Curry was a field general at quarterback who displayed a knack for brilliant runs. The Texan guided the team to a 7-1-1 record in 1916 and directed the famous "Point-A-Minute" squad of 1915.

He was a gentleman and scholar athlete. Junior class president, Curry was elected as the school's prestigious Bachelor of Ugliness by the student body.

Unfortunately, Curry's life was cut short. Just two years after graduating, Curry died when his plane was shot down over France in WWI.

LEWIS HARDAGE

After transferring from Auburn to enter Dental School, Hardage was part of what observers called the Commodores' "fastest backfield."

Hardage starred on tremendous squads. As captain in 1911-12, he helped Vanderbilt go 16-2-1 overall, and their opponents 578-27.

Hardage earned Third Team All-America and All-Southern Conference recognition as a senior.

Hardage dominated several games in 1912, scoring 95 points for the squad that was the nation's top scoring team.

He also was a chief factor in a pair of early season blowouts, 105-0 over Bethel and 100-0 against Maryville. The total against Bethel remains a team record.

RAY MORRISON
QUARTERBACK, 1911

When Ray Morrison ended his career in 1911, Coach McGugin called him "the best I ever saw."

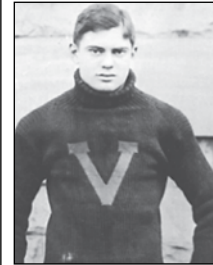

More than two decades later, a panel of local sportswriters tabbed Morrison as the 'Dores' top QB through its first 50 years.

An All-America in 1911, the slightly-built Morrison was a talented player and leader. In two years as a starter, Morrison guided the team to a 16-1-1 – the lone loss coming at powerful Michigan 9-8.

He later became a great coach, serving 34 seasons at the collegiate level.

While McGugin served in the military during 1918, he was the team's interim coach. When McGugin retired in 1934, Morrison was his hand-picked successor.

He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954.

W.E. METZGER
GUARD, 1910

Nicknamed "Frog," Metzger was Dan McGugin's first great lineman, earning Third Team All-America recognition in 1910.

In 1909, Metzger was a sensation in the backfield, rushing for four scores to singlehandedly beat Mercer 28-0, before suffering a leg fracture.

In 1910, he moved to the line, anchoring a unit that helped produce a 8-0-1 record. On defense, he assisted a unit that allowed only eight points.

Metzger shared the spotlight with QB Ray Morrison in 1911. He played brilliantly, helping the Commodores to a 8-1 record.

OWSLEY MANIER
BACK, 1906

Joining the team in Dan McGugin's first year on campus, Manier was a three-year starter and a big reason why Vanderbilt became an instant Southern power under McGugin.

As the team's top fullback, Manier was All-Southern and a Third Team All-America in 1906, becoming the first Commodore so honored.

He was an offensive machine for McGugin's 1906 squad, scoring three times against Kentucky and on five occasions in 78-0 victory over Alabama.

Manier was a key factor in the Commodores' 24-1 overall record.

Eventually, Manier returned to academia, and became professor emeritus of clinical medicine at the Vanderbilt School of Medicine.

Gator Bowl Dec. 31, 1955 Municipal Stadium, Jacksonville, Fla.

VANDERBILT 25 • AUBURN 13

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – Still hurting from a dislocated shoulder suffered in the Tennessee game, quarterback Don Orr scored two touchdowns and set up another as the Commodores defeated No. 8-ranked Auburn in the 11th Gator Bowl 25-13.

The Vanderbilt defense provided a huge lift for the Commodores, recovering five fumbles in the victory.

Vanderbilt's first score was set up when Orr recovered an Auburn fumble. Eight plays later, Joe Stephenson ran seven yards for the VU touchdown.

Auburn answered on a 38-yard TD pass from Howell Tubbs to Rob James in the second quarter, but the rest of the game belonged to the Black and Gold.

On Vanderbilt's following possession, Orr carried the ball 44 yards to the Tigers' 28. He then passed to Joe Scales, who advanced to the Auburn 4-yard line. On the next play, Orr carried the ball over the line after a fake to fullback Phil King to give Vanderbilt a 13-7 lead at the half.

At the opening of the third quarter, Vanderbilt guard Sonny Tatum recovered an Auburn fumble, and the Commodores marched quickly into scoring position as Orr crossed the goal line for his second touchdown of the day to make the score 19-7. Both teams scored once more in the fourth quarter. Vanderbilt's score came on a one-yard run off right tackle by Charley Horton.

Vanderbilt coach Art Guepe cleared his bench in the final minutes, using 38 of the 39 men dressed for the game. Capitalizing on Auburn's five fumbles and using an ailing quarterback, the Commodores captured its first bowl appearance.

Peach Bowl Dec. 28, 1974 Fulton Co. Stadium, Atlanta, Ga.

TEXAS TECH 6 • VANDERBILT 6

ATLANTA, Ga. – The 1974 Peach Bowl was a game with no champion but two winners, the Commodores and Texas Tech Red Raiders.

Despite the effective rushing of Red Raider tailback Larry Isaac and fullback Cliff Hoskins, the Commodore defense held Texas Tech without points in the first half and entered halftime with a 3-0 lead after Mark Adams kicked a 31-yard field goal with 10 minutes remaining.

Neither team was able to muster much offense in the third quarter, though Texas Tech did tie the score at 3-3 after a drive stalled at the Vanderbilt 16-yard line.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Commodores' freshman lineman Dennis Harrison stopped a deep Texas Tech threat by blocking a Red Raider field goal attempt. The Tech drive started following one of two Vanderbilt turnovers during the game.

After the blocked field goal, the Commodores responded with a possession that ended with Adams' second field goal of the day, a 26-yarder that resulted in a 6-3 Vanderbilt margin. However, Texas Tech tied the game at the 2:00 mark on a 35-yard field goal by Brian Hall. On its final drive, Vanderbilt could not move into scoring range.

The Commodore offense struggled much of the day, with quarterback David Lee hitting just five of 14 attempts. Running back Jamie O'Rourke had 76 rushing yards.

The limited offensive production from both teams resulted in numerous defensive and scoring records being set in the game.

Within hours of the conclusion, Vanderbilt Head Coach Steve Sloan announced he was leaving his position to accept the head coaching job at Texas Tech.

Hall of Fame Bowl Dec. 31, 1982 Legion Field, Birmingham, Ala.

VANDERBILT 28 • AIR FORCE 36

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Without question, the Hall of Fame Bowl was one of college football's most exciting 1982 postseason games.

The game matched one of the nation's most potent aerial attacks featuring Vanderbilt All-SEC quarterback Whit Taylor and one of America's most devastating rushing attacks in the Falcons' vaunted option attack.

Offensively, this game lived up to the hype as 33 Hall of Fame records were broken and another eight were tied in Legion Field. Unfortunately for the Commodores, Air Force walked away the winner 36-28 after a remarkable fourth quarter comeback.

For three quarters, Whit Taylor was unstoppable. Connecting with a variety of wide receivers and running backs, Taylor's fourth touchdown pass of the game, a four-yarder to Norman Jordan, gave the Commodores a 28-17 margin entering the fourth quarter. Down by double digits, the Air Force Academy scored rushing touchdowns on three consecutive possessions to take the victory.

Taylor was named the Most Valuable Player, after completing a team-record 38 passes of 51 attempts for 452 yards, which remains as the second highest single-game passing yardage total in Vanderbilt history. Jordan's performance arguably was more remarkable. Though rushing for just four yards, Jordan hauled in 20 receptions for 173 yards and three touchdowns, breaking five Hall of Fame Bowl records.

BOSTON COLLEGE 14 • VANDERBILT 16

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Vanderbilt won a bowl game for the first time in exactly 53 years, with Bryant Hahnfeldt kicking a 45-yard field goal with 3:26 left for a 16-14 win over #24 Boston College in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl held on New Year's Eve in Nashville's LP Field.

The Commodores hadn't played in a bowl since 1982 – the SEC's longest drought. The victory gave Vanderbilt (7-6) its first winning season since that season. This is just the fourth time in the past 50 years that Vanderbilt has won seven games in a season.

The Eagles got the ball twice after Hahnfeldt's third field goal. They had to punt the first time, then Vanderbilt DB Myron Lewis picked off a pass with 1:36 left.

Vanderbilt scored its lone touchdown when freshman safety Sean Richardson fell on a Commodore punt that bounced off the knee of BC's Paul Anderson with 10:35 left in the third quarter.

The Commodores played musical chairs at quarterback, giving redshirt freshman Larry Smith his first career start.

Hahnfeldt, a Nashville product playing his final game as a Commodore, matched a single-game career high with the three field goals. The Commodores also forced two interceptions while allowing none.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY

THE UNIVERSITY

Vanderbilt, founded 137 years ago by a $1 million gift by Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt, is one of the nation's leading institutions of higher learning, a mid-size, private comprehensive research university that emphasizes undergraduate learning and living experiences.

Since its inception, the university has taken great pride in the quality of education – and the quality of life – its students enjoy. Each of the four undergraduate colleges – College of Arts and Science, School of Engineering, Blair School of Music and Peabody College – attracts students with varying goals and dreams. Whichever school they enroll in, students receive a valuable and versatile education and are an integral part of the University's community of scholars.

Members of the 6,790-member undergraduate student body, including Vanderbilt student-athletes, are outstanding academic achievers and active participants in Vanderbilt's 350-plus extracurricular organizations. They are also part of the most diversity ever at Vanderbilt as the university continues to attract students from many ethnic, cultural, socio-economic, geographic and religious backgrounds.

At Vanderbilt, professors know their students' names and take an interest in students' ideas. Recognized globally for their research and scholarship prowess, faculty members believe in the importance of balancing professional pursuits with classroom instruction, and they value their relationships with students. Some of the world's leading scholars teach at Vanderbilt, helping students develop an academic program that meets individual objectives, and they encourage students to enhance primary areas of study by choosing among hundreds of elective courses, course-related internships, off-campus study and accelerated degree programs.

Through the Honor Code, student-directed service opportunities and campus programs, Vanderbilt students also consider moral and ethical issues and put the many facets of their lives into a personal framework of values.

At Vanderbilt, the big material resources are in place – beautiful grounds and buildings, well-equipped classrooms and labs, various options for housing and ample athletic and recreational facilities. Off campus, undergraduates have all the urban conveniences offered by one of America's foremost cities, Nashville. The city, located on the banks of Cumberland River, possesses a rare blend of big-city amenities and small-town charm with a collection of cultural activities unmatched in the region.

Though located within walking distance of downtown activities, the quality of Vanderbilt life is reflected in much smaller, less public ways – running into friends while walking on campus, researching papers or grabbing a late-night snack, choosing between a public policy lecture or athletic event, or having dinner at a professor's home.

The University's student body has been coeducational since 1875. The original campus, which opened on 75 acres, expanded to 330 acres in 1979 when Vanderbilt merged with neighboring George Peabody College for Teachers.

Vanderbilt offers four undergraduate colleges: the College of Arts and Science; the Peabody College; the School of Engineering; and the Blair School of Music.

THE COMMONS

First-Year Students Enjoy Rare Collegiate Living Experience

In September 2008, a national television audience enjoyed an up-close look at The Commons when ESPN used the venue to broadcast their first College GameDay show from the campus.

Besides discovering that The Commons makes an ideal set location for ESPN, the nation also learned that the modern, six-acre complex is one of the truly unique on-campus collegiate living environments.

Built in the southeast quadrant of the Vanderbilt campus, The Commons includes 10 residence halls, or "houses," spacious study and social areas, and the showpiece Commons Center, a modern dining and activity hub, all located on the Peabody campus. It opened to first-year students in 2008.

Vanderbilt officials believe The Commons provides new students with a truly special living/learning experience. Bringing scholars, leaders, teachers and students together to create a vibrant intellectual community is at the heart of The Commons mission.

The Commons Center also features the Eatery, the place to dine with friends and study with classmates. At the Commons Cafe, students, faculty and staff can develop friendships while listening to local musicians.

Notable Alumni

Vanderbilt alumni are having a positive impact on the nation.

Many of Vanderbilt's 116,000 alumni are leaders in their chosen fields, including sports, business, engineering, science and medicine, public service, arts and entertainment, and education.

In sports, our alums are more abundant than ever: former Vanderbilt student newspaper ace Buster Olney is ESPN's top baseball analyst; Arthur Hancock is a leading breeder of Kentucky Derby-caliber thoroughbreds; former No. 1 pick David Price is one of best young Major League Baseball talents; and quarterback Jay Cutler is the most prominent of 14 former Commodores playing in the NFL.

From the halls of Congress, Lamar Alexander is one of the nation's most effective leaders as Tennessee's senior senator. Suspense enthusiasts gobble up James Patterson's newest thriller. Economist and Nobel Peace Prize winner Muhammad Yunus is taking his community-based Grameen Bank concept across the globe from Bangladesh. And in business and technology, Dr. Thomas Frist Jr., Cal Turner Jr., John Rich, Bill Samuels Jr., and John Ingram are just a few of many alums regarded as leaders of industry and commerce.

CHANCELLOR ZEPPOS

Chancellor Nicholas S. Zeppos was raised in Milwaukee, where he spent many an afternoon watching the great Hank Aaron of the Braves slug home runs in the old County Stadium.

Named Vanderbilt's eighth chancellor in 2008, Zeppos has taken a keen interest in athletics at Vanderbilt during his more than two decades at the university.

"I don't do the operations," Zeppos said. "I don't call the plays, I don't throw the passes. I see my job as simply trying to do whatever I can to support all of the talented people who do these things."

This support has included the endorsement of an athletics capital improvement plan expected to surpass $50 million, which orchestrates efforts to improve the student experience for athletes and assists with recruiting.

"One thing I consider the ultimate compliment is when a coach calls me and says, 'I've got a couple of recruits here. Could you meet them?'"

A distinguished legal scholar, teacher and executive, Zeppos served from 2002 to February 2008 as Vanderbilt's chief academic officer, overseeing the university's undergraduate, graduate and professional education programs and research in liberal arts and sciences, engineering, music, education, business, law, and divinity. As provost and vice chancellor, he chaired Vanderbilt's budgeting and capital planning council, as well as oversaw the dean of students and dean of admissions.

Zeppos has led a number of important initiatives at Vanderbilt, including the planning process for The Commons, a landmark transformation of the first-year experience; the Strategic Academic Planning Group; innovative efforts in undergraduate admissions and financial aid; and the development of new programs in Jewish studies, law and economics, and genetics, among others.

In a bold move to strengthen Vanderbilt's commitment to admitting undergraduates on the basis of accomplishment and achievement, rather than their ability to pay, in 2009, Zeppos created an expanded financial aid program. By replacing undergraduate need-based loans with grant and scholarship assistance, this transformative initiative opened the university's doors wider to highly talented and qualified students of all economic, cultural and geographical backgrounds. The expanded aid program is funded by a combination of strategic budget allocations and the university's Shape the Future fundraising campaign, which under Zeppos' leadership exceeded its $1.25 billion goal two years ahead of schedule and set a new target of $1.75 billion by 2011.

Zeppos was recognized with five teaching awards at the law school before serving as an associate dean, associate provost, and provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs. He also served as interim chancellor for eight months prior to being formally appointed as Vanderbilt's eighth chancellor on March 1, 2008. He is a member of the 2010-11 executive committee of the Southeastern Conference.

In the Nashville community, Zeppos serves on the boards of the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce and the Nashville Alliance for Public Education.

From 1982 to 1987, Zeppos practiced law in Washington, D.C., at the United States Department of Justice and at Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering, where he specialized in appellate litigation involving complex regulatory, statutory and constitutional matters.

Zeppos is a 1979 magna cum laude graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School, where he served as editor in chief of the Wisconsin Law Review and was selected as the outstanding graduate of his class. He studied history during his undergraduate years at the university, where he was a 1976 Phi Beta Kappa graduate.

He is married to Lydia A. Howarth, a graduate of the University of Chicago and Lawrence University, who is an editor. They have two sons, Benjamin and Nicholas.

Prior to kickoff for the Commodore home opener, Chancellor Zeppos has the responsibility of leading the Freshman Run. The entire class of first-year students follows the chancellor across Dudley Field as they head to the Vanderbilt Stadium student section.

VICE CHANCELLOR WILLIAMS

Few Commodores enjoy Vanderbilt Athletics' successes more than Vice Chancellor David Williams II.

Whether supporting coaches and student-athletes, presiding over important athletic activities, or debating strategic policy changes in Commodore athletics, Williams plays a key leadership role in the administration of Vanderbilt Athletics.

For the last seven years, Williams has guided Vanderbilt Athletics into a bold new direction while serving as Vice Chancellor for University Affairs and Athletics.

Under Williams, the Vanderbilt program has many successes on and off the field of competition. Williams has directed an initiative to more fully integrate Commodore athletics into the total Vanderbilt student life experience.

Today, Williams' efforts have placed the Vanderbilt program among the most innovative in the nation. Since sweeping changes were initiated in 2003, Williams has firmly placed his stamp on the program. He has overseen the recruitment and hiring of seven outstanding head coaches. His tenure has witnessed substantial improvement in academic performance by Vanderbilt student-athletes. Williams also has addressed numerous facility upgrades, including an extensive refurbishing of Vanderbilt Stadium, expansion of Hawkins Field, addition of new tennis courts and amenities at Brownlee O. Currey Center, and renovations in Memorial Gym.

Under Williams, Vanderbilt Athletics have prospered. Since 2006-07, at least eight sports have participated in postseason action each year. Eight Vanderbilt athletes have been selected in the first round of their respective sports in the last five years. Off the field, student-athletes' collective GPA has reached its highest level in more than a decade. In addition, numerous teams and student-athletes have engaged in overseas travel.

Athletics is but a small part of Williams' influential Vanderbilt role. Williams also serves as General Counsel directing a staff of 14 attorneys and Secretary of Vanderbilt and its nationally recognized Medical Center. In addition, he oversees the Office of Risk Management, Compliance and Conflict of Interest functions, and the operations of the Vanderbilt University Board of Trust.

Williams' campus participation also includes a tenured full professorship at the School of Law, lecturing on Tax Law, Sports Law and Education Law. He has taught a course on Law and Higher Education at Peabody College, and from time to time, courses in the undergraduate curriculum.

Williams has reached outside of the Vanderbilt community in the area of intercollegiate sports. Williams served as a member of the SEC team that negotiated the recent SEC/ESPN/CBS contract, and is beginning a three-year term on the NCAA Division I Academic Cabinet.

He also serves as a member of the NCAA Infraction Appeals Committee.

Williams was named Vice Chancellor, General Counsel and Secretary of Vanderbilt in 2000. His role moved toward administration of Vanderbilt student affairs and athletics in 2002.

Williams is shown with the 2009 Vanderbilt Athletics Hall of Fame recipients.

Williams and former coach Bobby Johnson join Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame inductee and Vanderbilt supporter John Hall at 2010 induction ceremonies.

Williams came to Vanderbilt after serving in numerous administrative roles at Ohio State University over a 14-year period. When he accepted the Vanderbilt role, Williams was Vice President of Student and Urban/Community Affairs and Professor of Law at Ohio State.

A native of Detroit, Mich., Williams received a Bachelor of Science in Social Science and Master of Arts in Education from Northern Michigan University where he was a member of the track team. He also earned a Master of Business Administration and a Doctor of Jurisprudence from the University of Detroit, and an L.L.M. in taxation from New York University.

Before entering law school, Williams spent 10 years as a teacher and coach in the Detroit public school system.

Williams is active in the Nashville area community, serving as an executive member and director with several organizations. He is treasurer and finance committee chair of both the Nashville Symphony Board of Directors and Nashville Public Television. Some of Williams' other board memberships include the Nashville Sports Council, Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, Adventure Science Center, 100 Black Men of Middle Tennessee, the Nashville Rotary and Special Olympics Tennessee.

Williams also supports youth athletic programs in the Nashville community.

Professionally, Williams is an active member of the American Corporate Counsel Association, the National Association of College and University Attorneys and the American Bar Association. He is a member of the Continuing Legal Education committee of both the Nashville Bar Association and the NACUA. As a member of ABA's Section of Business Law, Williams has served as a member of the Corporate Counsel Committee. He held terms on two prestigious legal committees – the ABA Standing Committee on Public Education and the ABA Section on Legal Education and Admissions Standards Review Committee.

He recently completed consecutive three-year terms as a member of the Nashville branch of the Atlanta Federal Reserve Board.

Williams also is a member of the American Law Institute, and a past member of the Harry Phillips Inn of Court. He has served on a number of ABA Accreditation site visits of law schools and has completed a term on the Membership Review Committee of the American Association of Law Schools. Williams has written, lectured and participated in many seminars on topics of tax law, sports law, law and education, and legal history. Williams was recently elected to a three-year term on the board of directors for the National Association for Colleges and University Attorneys. He is serving a second term on Nashville Mayor Karl Dean's Procurement Standards Board.

Williams has taught at the law schools of the University of Detroit, Capital University, the Ohio State University and Vanderbilt, and directed the Ohio State University Law Program in Oxford, England in 1992 and 1995. He was elected outstanding law professor at both the University of Detroit and Ohio State.

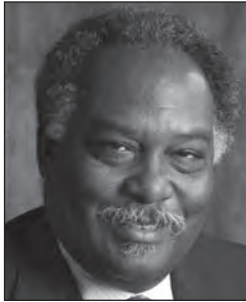

Williams and his wife, Gail, have two children: Samantha, who is a varsity swimmer and rising junior at Brown University, and Nicholas, who is a 10th grader at University School of Nashville and competes in cross country, basketball, track and soccer. His wife serves as the Associate Director of Community Relations at Vanderbilt, is president of the University School of Nashville Board of Trustees, and is the immediate past chair of the Metro Transit Authority.

STAFF & MEDIA POLICIES

WWW.VUCOMMODORES.COM

Your Information Source for Vanderbilt Football

Pre-game and post-game materials for the working media are updated regularly on Vanderbilt's athletic website, www.vucommODOres.com. Most documents are available in .pdf format.

Pre-game materials include game notes, current statistics, player and coaching bios, releases and press conference transcripts. A live radio feed and live statistic package are provided during games. Official game finals and statistics, and quotes from Coach Johnson, Commodore players and opponents are among the post-game materials.

Preseason Camp Coverage

Head Coach Robbie Caldwell opens the first 30 minutes of each preseason practice to media outlets. The coaching staff may close practices without prior notice.

Credentialing

Vanderbilt no longer offers online credentialing for home games.

Media members may obtain credentials by emailing official requests to Larry Leathers (larry.leathers@vanderbilt.edu). To fax, send request on company letterhead to (615) 343-7064. All applications will be notified of their credential status at least 10 days before the game requested. Credentials will not be granted without signed approval of SEC credential policy.

When possible, credentials will be mailed 10 days in advance. However, credentials can also be picked up in advance at the Athletic Communications Office, located on the second floor of McGugin Center or at Media Will Call on game day, which is located at Gate 1 (stadium entrance nearest the Vanderbilt Marriott hotel).

GameDay Media Parking

Media parking will be located in the Kensington Garage, located next to Memorial Gymnasium. Please access the garage entrance off 25th Avenue. All media representatives must have a proper credential to access parking garage.

Press Box Access

Media must wear "PRESS" or "PHOTO" credentials to gain access to the stadium press box, which is located on the third floor. The field elevator is located near Gate 1. Seating charts are posted in various press box sites.

Wireless Communications in Stadium/ Gameday Telephone Availability

The press box is equipped with wireless internet access for the working press. The only area to transmit for working photographers is in the press box. TV production crews can order phone lines in advance. To order, call the following phone number: (615) 343-2012.

In-Game Field Access

Field access is restricted to working photojournalists from kickoff until five minutes remaining in the game. To gain field access, photographers must pick up a "PHOTO" armband at Media Will Call at Gate 1 (located at north endzone stadium gate nearest the Marriott) before the game.

MEDIA POLICIES & OUTLETS

Media wishing to participate in postgame interviews should meet at the elevator with 5:00 left in the game to be escorted to the south end zone area of the field.

Coach's Postgame Interviews

Coach Caldwell's post-game press conference is held immediately after he addresses the team. Only properly credentialed working media will be allowed into the conference, which is held in Room 153 of McGugin Athletic Center. To attend, cross Jess Neely Drive and enter McGugin Center at the entrance marked "Press Conference Area." Once inside McGugin, enter the media room through either of the first two doors on your right.

Player Postgame Interviews

The Vanderbilt Player Locker Room is closed to media. Up to five student-athletes will be made available for post-game interviews. These interviews will be conducted in the same room as Coach Caldwell's post-game remarks. The players will enter this area when Caldwell concludes with his press conference.

During Commodore home games, the visiting team interview room is located in the south endzone of the stadium. The entrance is located in the stadium tunnel. Vanderbilt athletic communications personnel will make every effort to provide quickie stats to the media.

Satellite Feeds

Vanderbilt does not offer satellite feeds and teleconferencing of the Monday press gathering with Caldwell. Vanderbilt will provide a postgame highlight feed for any non-televised SEC game. Transmission info will be provided.

Caldwell Interview Opportunities

• WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Caldwell meets with local media each Monday prior to a game, starting at 12 noon, CT. The conference is held in the McCall Room, McGugin Center.

• WEEKLY SEC TELECONFERENCE

Each Wednesday of the season, Caldwell is available to out-of-town media via the SEC Coaches' Teleconference at 10:56 a.m., CT. Call 205-458-3010 for info.

Game Week Player Interviews

Media wishing to interview players during the week should contact the Athletic Communications staff.

Practice interviews are available Tuesday-Wednesday, prior to position meetings (typically 90 minutes before practice). Upon request, the head coach and players also are available briefly at the end of practice those days.

Media outlets are permitted to shoot the first 30 minutes of practice; afterward, sessions are closed to all cameras. The staff may close practice without notice.

Out of town media can arrange interviews on a 24-hour notice through the Athletic Communications Office.

Vanderbilt Radio Broadcast Crew

Joe Fisher, John Gromos and Kevin Ingram provide concise and insightful coverage on the Vanderbilt Radio Network.

A Nashville native, Fisher enters his 13th season as the team's play-by-play announcer. He handles similar duties for Vanderbilt men's basketball and baseball. Fisher also serves as Vanderbilt Athletics' Director of Broadcasting.

Prior to joining Vanderbilt, Fisher was a television sports anchor in the Nashville market from 1987-96, with stints at WSMV-4 and WKRN-2. He also worked two years in public relations.

Gromos enters his 15th season as color analyst. A four-year Commodore quarterback, Gromos ranks seventh on the team's career passing yardage charts.

Gromos serves as Manager of Business Development for Turner Universal, a subsidiary of Turner Construction Co. He earned a mechanical engineering degree from Vanderbilt in 1990.

Ingram enters his ninth season providing sideline commentary. A respected member of the Nashville radio market, Ingram co-hosts a popular morning show on 104.5.

Bob Horner has served as the producer and engineer for Vanderbilt sporting events for nearly a quarter century.

Nashville Rock Station WRQQ FM 97.1 New Flagship

All Vanderbilt football games will be broadcast in the Nashville metropolitan area by a new Commodore flagship station.

In March 2010, officials from Vanderbilt and WRQQ FM 97.1 announced the flagship agreement. Commodore football and men's basketball games will be aired on 97.1 starting with the 2010 season opener against Northwestern game.

WRQQ, a 45,000-watt station that features a rock music format, is owned by the Cumulus Media, and located in Nashville's famed Music Row district.

Weekly call-in shows with Commodore head coaches Robbie Caldwell and Kevin Stallings also will air on 97.1, as well as the daily Commodore Update with play-by-play announcer Joe Fisher.

Vanderbilt Stadium Home Since 1981

All of the Commodores' home games will be played in Vanderbilt Stadium, their on-campus venue for the last 29 years.

The stadium, with a capacity of 39,773, was opened in 1981 on the same site as Dudley Field, which stood at the corner of Jess Neely Drive and Natchez Trace since 1922. Though the old stadium was demolished prior to the 1981 project, the Commodores continue to play on the original Dudley Field surface.

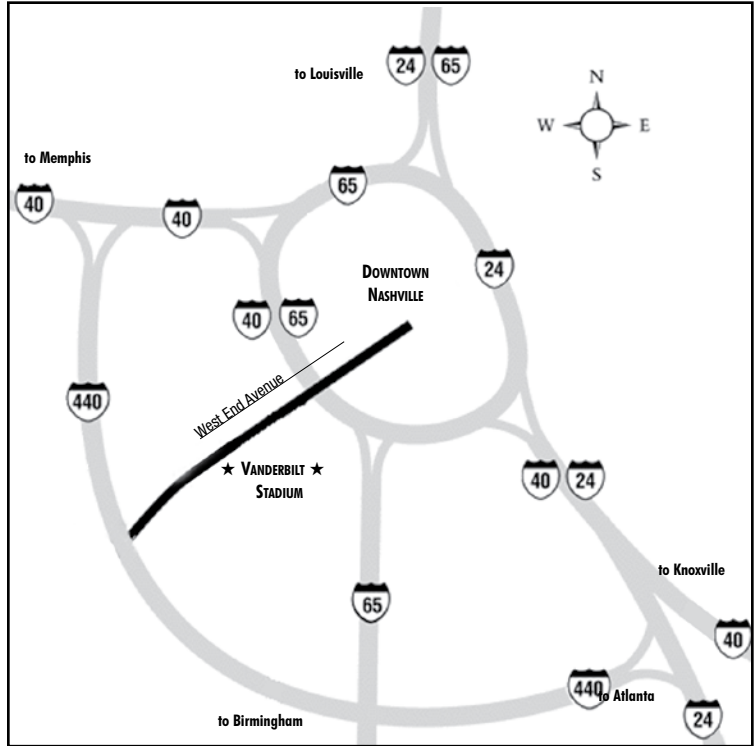

In recent years, the stadium has been given an exterior renovation. An expansion concourse, two gate entrances and a plaza outside Gate 2 were introduced in 2009, one year after crews began an exterior paint and brick effort to unify the three largest athletic facilities on campus: Vanderbilt Stadium, Hawkins Field and Memorial Gymnasium.

In addition, an on-going building project calls for a thorough refurbishing of Gate 1 near the Marriott Vanderbilt.

The Dudley Field playing surface has been natural grass since 1999.
