1 Team USA's Magic Johnson played in the Olympic Games in Barcelona, Spain, with The Dream Team, the NBA's 11 best players plus Christian Laettner, winning the Olympic men's finals.

2 The British Prime Minister announced the separation of Prince Charles and Princess Diana. Sympathy leaned toward the princess, who retained custody of sons Will and Harry.

3 Hurricane Andrew tore its way through Miami, Florida, stacking boats at a marina on Key Biscayne. The final damage to Floridians was in the billions; the thousands left homeless received federal emergency aid.

4 Madonna dominated the media promoting a movie, a book and an album. The Material Girl managed a record $60 million deal with Time Warner to form her own multimedia company.

5 The comedian host of "Late Night With David Letterman" for 11 years on NBC switched networks. CBS offered Letterman, a favorite of the younger audience, a $42 million deal.

6 The U.N. allies airlifted food supplies to Somalians devastated by drought and civil war. The U.S. dispatched marines who cleared a path through looting and fighting so supplies could reach the starving.

7 The second year of the Lollapalooza Tour, part rock concert, part circus, featured rapper Ice Cube along with Pearl Jam, the Red Hot Chili Peppers and others. The Concourse of Oddities and Curiosities drew the alternative crowd.

1 Garth Brooks eclipsed the Country Music Awards at Nashville, Tennessee, where he received the Entertainer of the Year Award, marking a new citified success for previously uncool country music.

2 Arkansas Governor Bill Clinton became America's 42nd president. Clinton and running mate Al Gore defeated Republican incumbent George Bush and Independent H. Ross Perot with their campaign of change.

3 Low-impact step aerobics invigorated over 11 million exercise enthusiasts. Even George Bush gave it a try at The Great American Workout, sponsored by the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports.

4 The U.S. Post Office made headlines when it announced the Elvis Presley Stamp and asked the public to vote on a young or old likeness of the legendary rock-and-roll star. The young Elvis graced the 29¢ stamp.

5 The Toronto Blue Jays took the World Series, winning against the Atlanta Braves, four games to two. In the 11th inning of the final game, Dave Winfield drove in two runs to lead the Blue Jays to a 4-3 victory.

6 The movie A Few Good Men, with Jack Nicholson, Tom Cruise and Demi Moore drew crowds across the country. This military courtroom drama commanded some of the biggest box office receipts of the year.

Homecoming Queen Dawn Snedeker and King Steve Crawford

When I Look Into Your Eyes

Patiently awaiting as M.C. Teresa Gross announces the new 1992 Homecoming King and Queen

What a lovely group of young ladies.

Above: Now, come on Andy... Chad's a little shy. He doesn't want to ask her out!

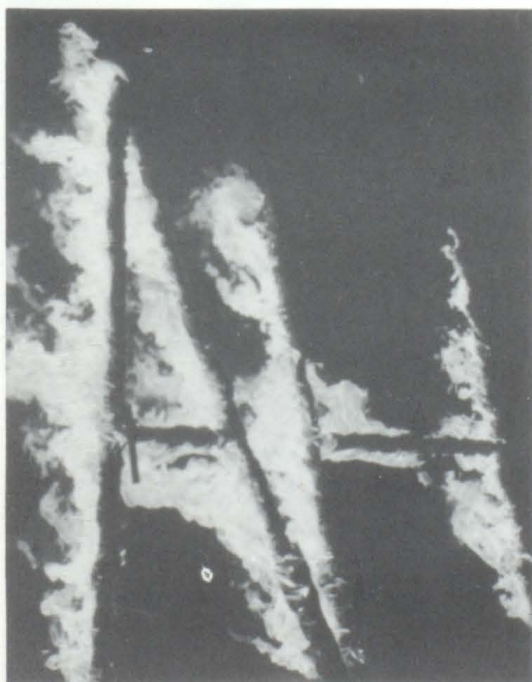

Above: We all know what these signs should really say!

Homecoming 1992 was a very eventful week at AHHS. The week started with "Hippie Day" on Monday followed by "Tacky Tuesday" and "Support Cross Country" on Tuesday. Wednesday was "Wacky Wig" or "Weird Hair" Day. Thursday was "Dress Up" and "Support Lady Cub Day". Friday ended with the traditional "Blue and Gold Day". Thursday night was exciting for all as M.C. Teresa Gross announced the attendants and royalty. Steve Crawford and Dawn Snedeker were then crowned 1992 Homecoming King and Queen. Skits and musical selections were then presented. After Coronation, there was a pep rally outside for the burning of the "A-H" and Mr. Joachim introduced the football team.

Right: Once again, the faculty acting their age!!

Aaah! It's bright out!

A parade and downtown pep rally was held on Friday for Homecoming. During this time, many people were able to take part in the many activities during the week. The sophomores won the float contest with the juniors winning with the class cheer. Kid Konnection was announced winner of the plaque for the decorating contest. The evening consisted of the football team defeating the Parker Pheasants followed by the dance held at the high school with music by KG-95. This ended the week of excitement at AHHS.

Below: If we take one more picture I'm gonna scream!! Right: Mr. V--- Looking normal.

Right:
Now you kids better straighten up!

What happened to your hair
Chad?

1993

Sweetheart Queen: Connie Waddell

The evolution of a queen.

I love these bonding times we have.

Jeff: Did you see that guys? She winked at me!!
Brian: Duh?!!
Luke: How did I get stuck with these losers?

Time for a cold shower.

"In the Still of the Night"

It was 'In the Still of the Night', the lights were low and the tension was high as the five Sweetheart candidates awaited the announcement of the 1993 Sweetheart Queen. The MC, Beth Runion, slowly opened the envelope and revealed to the anxious audience that the new queen was Connie Waddell. The other candidates were Meghan Walsh, Mindy Johnson, Janelle Joachim, and Jen Limoges. Connie was crowned by Student Body President, Erick Reiss. The new queen and her company were then entertained by skits performed by the classes. The evening was ended as Nate Solberg, Andy Blauth, Jeremy Limoges and Carl St. Pierre presented each girl with a rose and sang the theme song--"In the Still of the Night."

We're looking for a few good men-- puh-leese!!!

You messin' with me, boy!?

ZIP BAM ZINGER

50'S AND 60'S

Back In Time

The third annual Zip Bam Zinger took us 'Back in Time' as the theme was reminiscent of the 50's and 60's. The participants donned poodle skirts, white t-shirts and greased back hair. The menu consisted of taverns, chili dogs, chips and condiments with authentic 50's root beer floats! The new band director, Mr. Van-Ravensway made this band fund-raiser a huge success.

ALIBIS

It's a bird, it's a plane.....
it's SUPERMAN!!!

Rolf: I think I'm having a heart attack. Erick:
praise the lord!!
Connie: (I hope my dress stays up.)

Carl as...Columbo Jr.

This year's all school play was one that needed no 'Alibis'. Mrs. Kresak, assisted by Mrs. Anderton, pulled off this mystery spoof with no strings attached. The cast included Carl St. Pierre, Connie Waddell, Jen Limoges, Erick Reiss, Beth Runion, Jeremy Brady, Sarah Luttmann, Rolf Gubbrud, Kely Scott, and Nicole Saugstad as the Student Manager. This crew of excellent actors and actresses were able to humor the audience with their witty one-liners and sometimes not-so-planned ad-libs. Congrats to all involved!!

Wake up Kely, naptimes over.

Wanna see some naked pictures of your husband?

Oui, oui...follow
me monsieur!

It's o.k. Jen, this is the last night of the play.

Jer: Who is that babe? Andy: I don't know but she gave me her number.

THE DANCE

Tim: This ice cream tastes like dirt!!

Friends forever

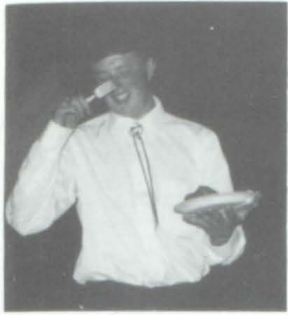

The 1993 Alcester-Hudson prom was one filled with style. The theme was "The Dance"--very appropriate. The banquet was held with shocking entertainment provided by the sophomore waiters and waitresses. After the banquet, the grand march took place as all of Alcester packed into the crowded auditorium to see everyone and their dates. The place was then cleared as people danced the night away to the sounds of Mr. Tunes and his "Big Screen." The after prom party was held in the elementary gym with fun and many laughs were provided by the Karaoke machine. The Juniors did a wonderful job providing a prom filled with many memories.

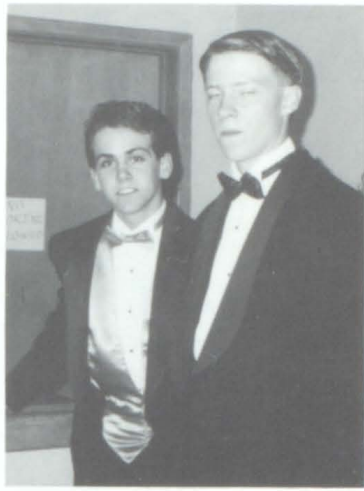

above: Going to prom in style!

Meg: I can't believe she did that!!
Dawn: Well, you know the saying, with friends like that who needs enemies!

I feel sorry for the person who used that fork

And this is Steve on drugs.

Above: If you don't get that light out of my face I'm gonna get tough

Jenny: Ooh! Look at those tiny sophomore muscles!

Jen: Ahhhhh!!!!

GRADUATION

If you can imagine it, you can achieve it, if you can dream it, you can become it. This was the motto of the senior class of 1993. The graduation week started as Baccalaureate was held on Wednesday night, May 26. Graduation Commencement then took place on Sunday, May 30 at 2:00. The togetherness of this class was once again displayed as seven seniors were able to speak--either to say a poem or read their speech. Also the valedictorian, Dawn Snedeker, and the salutatorian, Kendra Cole, provided two more speeches. Entertainment was provided by the Swing Choir, who sang "Friend to Friend, Heart to Heart." There were many tears shed, but the happiness and memories this special day brought will be remembered forever. Good-bye to the class of 1993!!

Seniors...standing tall.

Everyone: This is so boring!!

The two brains!

This is like Govt. class!!

We are like birds...Tweet/Tweet.

Where are you going after graduation?
Nazareth!!

Beth: left, together, right
together.

Dizzy "D"...signing off!

How many times do we have to do this?

Here I am!!

Now Carl, you shouldn't hit on little old ladies.

Erick and Joni-getting down.

Oh how little boys hate their baths.

Are you so lonely Rod you have to give yourself a hug?

We are out of here!!!

Congratulations Connie!

ORGANIZATIONS

The band has gone through many new changes this year. Mr. Lyle VanRavensway has taken command as the new band director and has done a wonderful job. They participated in band contest, and held three concerts, plus the Third Annual Zip Bam Zinger, which was a fund raiser for the proposed trip to Florida next year.

This year has been a big success in chorus, with it's new director Kelly Anderton. They had a busy year consisting of the fall, spring, pops, and Zip Bam Zinger concerts. Also, 36 out of 40 members placed superior in contest at Vermillion. The 20 members of swing choir were also a very busy crew this year. They performed at the REA Annual Meeting, Nathaniel Lutheran Church, Big Springs Church, Senior Citizens Dinner, Zip Bam Zinger, Veteran's Day Program, Memorial Day Program, and Baccalaureate.

FOOTBALL

1st Row: Adam Vandemore, Jeremy Scott, Kelly Moore, Josh Serck, Luke Johnson, Jeremy Brady, Chad Williams. 2nd Row: Jeff Cole, Carl St. Pierre, Stacey Johnson, Brian Limoges, Andy Blauth, Andrea Saugstad, Brian Haverhals, Jeremy Limoges, Mike Gray, Kari Kiewel, Matt Homandberg, Luke Serck. 3rd Row: Jerry Joachim, Mike Homandberg, Chad Holthe, Brian Wells, Craig Winqvist, Rolf Gubbrud, Jeff Keiser, Brandon Peterson, Ken VanBallegooyen, Nathan Solberg, Matt Briggie, Steve Crawford, Mike Seivert.

The Alcester-Hudson football team split their season with four wins and four losses. They started out strong, but were then hindered by the injuries and finished of the season with a good record. All-Conference went to a senior, Ken Vanballegooyen and two juniors, Nate Solberg and Luke Serck. Honorable Mention went to a sophomore, Mike Gray. The 1992-92 Football season was once again exciting and it showed promise for another good season next year.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

The Alcester-Hudson Girls Basketball team had another wild season. Although they only came up with four wins, their season wasn't reflective of the talent and caliber these girls possessed. The head coach was Julie Ortman, with Karen Bossman assisting. The Cubs will lose four seniors-- Meghan Walsh, Teresa Gross, Dawn Snedeker, and Mindy Johnson. Teresa Gross was named to the All-Conference Honorable Mention team. Dawn Snedeker and Mindy Johnson were awarded to the All-State Academic team, which requires a 3.5 GPA throughout high school. Thanks for a great season, girls!!

Watch Out!!

Boy, aren't we happy!!

Oh my, look at that guy over there!!

Get back Beth!!

What do we do now?

Boys Basketball had a year filled with ups and downs. Their record did not reflect the heart and dedication of these boys. They were led by their lone senior, Ken VanBallegooyen. Ken not only led in scoring, but also in rebounds, steals, blocked shots, and field goal percentage. The Cubs will certainly miss this all-conference first teamer next year. But as always, the team will prevail and with the super coaching of Mr. Kraning assisted by Mr. Seivert the Cubs should bring Alcester another great season in 1994.

Monkey arms!

Oh, I think I pulled something!

The AHHS volleyball team had another great year, with a record of 15-15-1. They not only won a few games, but under the coaching of Miss Karen Bossman, they had fun doing it. They managed to get four girls on the All-Conference Teams. Meghan Walsh and Val Ronning were on the 1st team, Cindy Dominisse was on the 2nd team, and Mindy Johnson received Honorable Mention. The four seniors that graduate will be missed, but the team must go on! See you all next year!!

Girl's track had another exciting season. Under the coaching of Mrs. Haisch, the 12 girls made some good impressions. They did really well at the meets that didn't get rained out. They managed to qualify two girls for the state track meet: Jennifer Van Ballegooyen in the high jump and Jennifer Jurgensen in the 300 hurdles. Jurgensen placed fourth in the state meet with a time of 49.14. Good job girls and good luck next year!!

Boy's track wasn't high in numbers, but as always it was high in heart. The 11 boys that went out showed their coach, Mr. Seivert, and the fans what people can accomplish when they set their minds to it. The track team graduated one senior, Ken Van Ballegooyen and although he was a big asset, next year should prove to be exciting!!

1 Folks everywhere watched TV's "Northern Exposure." The characters from the wacky Alaskan town of Cicely have also made plaid shirts, baggy jeans and boots fashionable.

2 Reforms and rising prices buffeted Russia's economy as the country struggled with new-found capitalism. President Boris Yeltsin was hotly criticized by distressed citizens.

3 Johnny Carson retired after thirty years as host of the "Tonight" show. His legendary status in late-night entertainment left an opening sought after by Jay Leno, David Letterman and Arsenio Hall.

4 Actor/director Woody Allen faced charges of child abuse in a bitter custody battle with partner Mia Farrow. Allen's relationship with Mia's adopted 21-year-old daughter only added fuel to the fire.

5 Canada's Michael Wilson, USA's Carla Hills and Mexico's Jamie Puche shook hands after the signing of The North American Free Trade Agreement, ending trade barriers and forming a single market.

6 Serb artillery shelled the parliament building of Sarajevo, Yugoslavia, as the Serbs battled Bosnian Muslims and Croats. Thousands were dead and millions left homeless in this bloody civil war.

7 Home Alone 2: Lost In New York starring Macaulay Culkin delighted families of movie goers everywhere. The secret of the sequel's success lies in its plot—it's the same as the original Home Alone.

1 The cola wars took on a new twist as marketers made everything perfectly clear. Coca-Cola and Pepsi jumped on the trend bandwagon for clear liquid products, hoping thirsty buyers would think light is better.

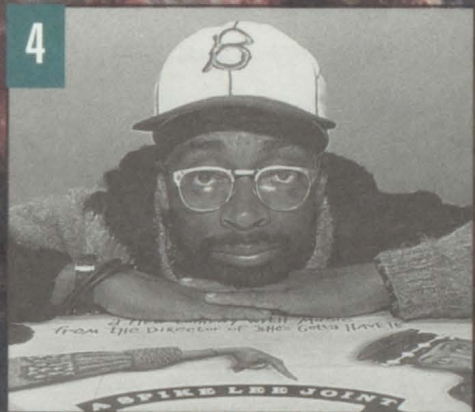

2

2 Chicago Bulls' Michael Jordan shot the ball past the defense as the Bulls defeated the Portland Trail Blazers in the finals and won the NBA Championship. This was the second year in a row the Bulls made it all the way to the top.

3

3 Replicas of Christopher Columbus's ships, La Pinta, La Santa Maria and La Niña set sail from Spain in a historical reenactment commemorating the 500th anniversary of Columbus's voyage to America.

4

4 Spike Lee directed the biopic Malcolm X with Oscar-winner Denzel Washington as the slain civil rights leader. The movie spawned $100 million in clothing and merchandising sales, making X a fashion as well as a political statement.

5

5 Plain-speaking Dallas billionaire H. Ross Perot, whose presidential candidacy attracted large numbers of voters, formed the grassroots group "United We Stand, America," to watchdog Clinton and the U.S. deficit.

6

6 Camp Snoopy, the indoor amusement park of the Mall of America, welcomed shoppers to the second largest mall in the world. Visitors to Minnesota can leave their kids at the 7-acre, all-weather park while they shop the 4.2 million square feet of shops.
