ITOBA Sale participants,

On behalf of our staff and management, I'd like to welcome everyone to Horseshoe Indianapolis for the 2023 ITOBA Yearling Sale. It's an event that we are proud to host and we feel lucky to work closely with Pat McGhee and the ITOBA Board of Directors on their Sale.

Racing in Indiana is on a significant upswing and it's exciting to be a part of that. Since 2019, when a handle record was set at $151 million for the season, we have seen considerable increases in the popularity of our product. New wagering records were set in 2020, 2021 and in 2022 the most recent handle record was established at $235 million over the course of the meet. It also marked the first time that we branched out into the International simulcasting markets and put Indiana racing on the radar of customers around the world. As we progress through a remarkably successful 2023 season I am proud to say that we are projecting our handle to exceed $300 million. More than double the 2019 totals.

But let's face it, the success that we have in terms of handle and starters per race begins with events such as this ITOBA sale. It's where dreams begin and it's also the pipeline for Horseshoe Indianapolis' racing product. In 2022 over 40% of the races at our facility were restricted to Indiana Bred or Sired horses. The quality of these races has improved dramatically over the years and they are wagered on as heavily as the open races based on their competitiveness and field sizes. I expect that to sustain itself in the future.

Caesars Entertainment has made heavy investments in the racing in Indiana and from the very top of our company they are thrilled to see the results at Horseshoe Indianapolis. We thank you for attending today's sale and doing your part to sustain the incredible momentum that we have built in a few short years.

Good luck to everyone!

Eric Halstrom
Vice President and General Manager of Racing
Horseshoe Indianapolis

Indiana Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association (ITOBA) in partnership with Horseshoe Indianapolis would like to welcome you to the 2023 Thoroughbred Sale.

First, let us take a moment to welcome Austin Nicks as our 2023 Auctioneer. Austin is excited and energized (as we are) to bring you a great auction experience live and digitally in 2023.

We have revamped our sales format, to be presented uniquely in three parts:

❖ Yearling Sale

- A live sale on October 14th in the Receiving Barn at Horseshoe Indianapolis. The yearling sale will feature a maximum of 80 yearlings with entries being accepted in the following priority: IN Sired IN Bred, entries from other States.
- The live sale will be made available for viewing, bidding, and buying through horseauctionsUSA.com.

❖ Paddock Sale (immediately following the yearling sale)

- Horses of any age that are currently racing are eligible to participate in the Paddock Sale. The Paddock Sale has been very popular with our owners and trainers over the past few years.

❖ Digital Sale October 16 -19

- The Digital Sale will span over 4 days, consisting of weanlings, broodmares, and horses of any age. In addition, sale participants may enter their yearlings if they did not meet the RNA in the yearling sale at no extra cost.

Offering a live broadcast and online bidding is critical to our success. With one of the strongest state-bred programs in the industry, we must focus on introducing and expanding ownership opportunities to new and existing owners, trainers, and horseman in the country.

If we all work together with the common goal of moving the Indiana sale forward, we can and will become the best regional sales in the thoroughbred industry.

Finally, a big THANK YOU to the Sales Committee who have brought forward many creative ideas and put in LOTS of volunteer hours to bring you a new and improved sale!

Sincerely,

Pat McGhee, ITOBA President

Program Overview

Mares

For a mare to be eligible to produce an Indiana Bred or Sired foal, the mare must enter the state of Indiana AND her Mare Application must be postmarked by November 1 of the year prior to foaling.

If EITHER of these requirements are not met, the mare may still produce an Indiana Bred foal if she enters Indiana prior to giving birth and a mare application is submitted to the IHRC office within 10 days of the foal's birth. The mare and foal must remain in the state for 30 days and the mare must be bred back to an Indiana Sire who is registered with the IHRC. A list of current registered Indiana Sires is available online at: www.in.gov/hrc/tb/registered-horses/stallions/. The requirement to breed back to an Indiana stallion is waived for mares purchased at a public auction prior to December 31 in the year prior to foaling.

Incentives to purchase a mare which has never been registered with the IHRC are available. Please visit our website at www.in.gov/hrc/tb/mare-incentive-program-new-in-2020/.

Once the foal is born it must also be registered with the IHRC in order to be an Indiana Bred or Sired horse.

Foals

For a foal to be an Indiana Bred, the mare must meet the conditions above AND a Foal Application must be submitted. The Foal Application must be received by the IHRC within one year of the foaling date in order to avoid late fees. Jockey Club Papers are not required when submitting your Foal Application. This application may be submitted on the day the foal is born.

For a foal to be Indiana Sired, it must meet all the requirements of an Indiana Bred foal, plus be sired by a registered Indiana Stallion the year the foal was conceived.

Foal Late Fees:

- After the first birthday but before December 31st of the yearling year: $200
- 2 Year Olds: $400
- 3 Year Olds and older: $1,000

Stallions

For a stallion to be a registered Indiana Sire, a Stallion Application must be postmarked on or before the deadline of October 15 of the year prior to the year of the breeding season.

An Indiana Sire may only breed mares in the state of Indiana for that year's breeding season.

Stallion Late Fees:

- Any stallion applying after the deadline must pay a $250 late fee. This fee is waived if it is the first year the stallion has stood in the state of Indiana.

Submit Your Applications Online!

All IHRC Mare, Foal and Stallion Applications may be completed and submitted online at www.in.gov/hrc/tb.

Please select Applications for Registration.

Annual Dates to Remember

October:

- 15 – Thoroughbred Stallion applications for following year's breeding season must be postmarked to avoid late fees!
