S. With his notable jumping talent and similar lineage, the five-year-old Denzel van 't Meulenhof-son Nixon van 't Meulenhof is impressive. He jumped several spectacular clear-rounds in the Belgian Stallion Competition and can count on much trust from the breeders. He is a half-brother of the Olympic Grand Prix stallion Emerald and a great future awaits him.

DS. Verdi, the all-rounder, competed at eleven world championships. He is also impressive as sire, with Grand Prix offspring such as New York, Chaplin, Comic, Bonjovi, Chief and Bulavscio.

S. Under Richard Kapteijn sire High Shutterfly attracts attention with his jumping talent and rideability. The Sir Shutterfly-son has already produced several champion foals out of a limited number of offspring and he received a positive foal report. His eldest sons are expected at the stallion inspection this Winter.

DS. Tangelo van de Zuuthoeve has made a name for himself thanks to a number of internationally-competing offspring such as the successful Darry Lou, Bintang II, Vigaro, Billy Angelo, Victoria and Taalex.

S. Under Charlotte Fry the five-year-old Inclusive is developing remarkably. The top talent was quickly selected for the WC for Young Dressage Horses this year. Already as a three-year-old he attracted attention and with a total score of 86 points he was approved by the KWPN. This year he is presenting his first crop of foals; he is promising both in the sport and for breeding.

DS. The successful Grand Prix stallion Krack C attracted attention under Anky van Grunsven and has proved to be a strong progenitor with successful progeny such as Vivaldi, Spargo, Twister and Dorado.

This foal was tested and is a carrier of the WFFS gene.

S. Don Diablo HX has developed into one of Michel Hendrix's top horses. At the beginning of this year they won the 1.50m Grand Prix at the KWPN Stallion Show and they have also achieved several top placings at this level internationally. His offspring attract positive attention in the young horse competitions and this Spring his son Kardinaal HX was approved by the KWPN.

DS. The genetically-interesting Marlon has sired a number of good jumping horses including the internationally successful Terrific, Rhett, Wilford, Wajax and Umarlon.

S. Zirocco Blue VDL had a glorious sports career with Jur Vrieling, with several Grand Prix victories as well as nomination for the Olympic Games. The Mr.Blue-son is also making his mark as a progenitor and is represented in the international sport by successful offspring such as Eddie Blue, Durango VDL, Deep Blue Bridge S, Ever Blue, Donjo and Golden Dream.

DS. Lucky Boy performed very credibly in the top sport with Marcus Ehning and also produced international horses such as LaVie 49, At Berry Luck, Almé Z, Focus del Menhir and Ai Ai Ai.

S. One of Danish breeding's secret weapons is the four-year-old top talent, Secret, who is making a big impression with his first foals this year. In the German stallion test the much-discussed Sezuan-son achieved an average 8.88. He is approved by all the prominent German studbooks and is a great promise for both sport and breeding.

DS. Bordeaux is excelling at international Grand Prix-level under Isabel Freese and is making a name for himself as sire with offspring such as Ferdeaux, Barroso, Guadeloupe-Beau and Bohemian.

S. The eleven-year-old VDL Cartello is attracting attention in the international sport, under Cormac Hanley. The grey, formerly ridden by James Billington, jumped to third place this Summer in the 1.60-m Grand Prix at the CSI4* in Upperville. This interesting half-brother of the Olympic stallion Cardento has, until now, only been used to a limited extent in breeding.

DS. Tangelo van de Zuuthoeve has made a name for himself thanks to a number of internationally-competing offspring such as the successful Darry Lou, Bintang II, Vigaro, Billy Angelo, Victoria and Taalex.

S. The promising four-year-old Comthago VDL is making a good impression with his first crop of foals. He was reserve champion at the stallion inspection in Mecklenburg and stands out due to his canter, bloodline and athletic jumping talent. He combines the valuable prestatie stallions Comme Il Faut, Carthago and Caretino.

DS. World Cup winner Libero H produced a large number of very successful jumping horses out of a relatively limited number of offspring, including Liberty, Melisimo, No Mercy and Numero Uno.

S. Entertainer has it all: unlimited possibilities as sports horse, a strong pedigree and promising offspring. Ridden by Michel Hendrix, the beautiful eye-catcher is already competing at international 1.45/1.50m-level and has already had four sons nominated. In the young horse competitions his progeny stand out due to their jumping talent, reflexes and rideability.

DS. Don Diablo HX has become one of Michel Hendrix's top horses. His offspring excel in the Youngster classes and his son Kardinaal HX has been approved by the KWPN.

S. The beautiful Everdale-son Inspire attracted attention during the performance test due to his good attitude and rideability. He made a good impression with his first foals and in the report they are praised for their power and scope. Under the saddle the five-year-old attracts attention with his adaptability, self-carriage and balance. This makes him very promising for both sport and breeding.

DS. The successful Grand Prix stallion Krack C attracted attention under Anky van Grunsven and has proved to be a strong progenitor with successful progeny such as Vivaldi, Spargo, Twister and Dorado.

This foal was tested and is not a carrier of the WFFS gene.

S. The promising six-year-old Chacco Blue-son Chacfly PS passed the German performance test with record high marks and an average of 9.49 for jumping. This star was awarded a ten no fewer than six times, and that makes him one of the most desirable young stallions in Germany. His first offspring seem to have inherited their sire's qualities in abundance.

DS. With internationally-successful offspring such as Brooklyn, Fortaleza, Widny and Winston the Grand Prix stallion Sydney shows that he passes his jumping talent on very well.

S. Under Jos Lansink, sire Aganix du Seigneur excelled in the international sport. Just at the point of breakthrough, with his first 1.60m-test under his belt, he sustained an injury. He is a great asset to breeding given his strong bloodline, own talent and convincing progeny such as Agana van het Gerendal Z, Acalix Hero Z and A Golden Boy Hero Z.

DS. Under Nina Braaten, Favoritas xx was one of the most successful thoroughbred stallions in the international jumping sport. He is followed in these footprints by progeny such as Zafira and Bolshoi.

S. Glamourdale was the undisputed champion of the KWPN Stallion Inspection in 2014. He is competing at Small Tour-level under Charlotte Fry and he won this year the World Championships for seven-year-old dressage horses. The offspring of this eye-catcher combine a nice model with good movement, just like their sire.

DS. Dutch Dormello competed at ZZ-Licht-level under Mireille ten Have and then proved himself at Junior-level. He sired the Small Tour horses Bittersweet and Der Hollaender, amongst others.

S. The interestingly-bred Edinburgh is accumulating successes at international 1.45m-level with Kristian Houwen having previously proven in the Youngster classes that he is one of the best from his year. Edinburgh represents a prominent performance lineage and seems to be proving to be an asset to breeding.

DS. Under Kristian Houwen the now 1.40m-level Cidane was very successful in the Youngster classes; they won the Stallion Competition twice and bronze at the World Championships for six-year-olds.

S. Sire Comme Il Faut, as a son of the legendary Cornet Obolensky and Ratina Z, brings together the best performance genes in the world and, with Marcus Ehning, is proving his tremendous talent at the highest level. In breeding too, he lives up to his exceptional pedigree; his eldest offspring such as Comilfo Plus Z, Checker 47 and Cairon 10 are just starting their international careers.

DS. The Grand Prix stallion Corrado I has become an influential top-producer thanks to well-known offspring such as Corradina, Think Twice II, Clinton, Indorado and Corofino I.

S. Entertainer has it all: unlimited possibilities as sports horse, a strong pedigree and promising offspring. Ridden by Michel Hendrix, the beautiful eye-catcher is already competing at international 1.45/1.50m-level and has already had four sons selected. In the young horse competitions his progeny stand out due to their jumping talent, reflexes and rideability.

DS. The international sport and stud stallion Casco produced Grand Prix horses such as Baros, Carrasco, Tinkabell 12, Caruso 394 and Carlson.

S. His appearance, talent, list of achievements and lineage make the Kannan-son Quabri de L'Isle a popular sire. Under Pedro Veniss he jumped to several prominent Grand Prix victories such as those in Versailles, Spruce Meadows and Geneva. The Olympic stallion was only used to a very limited extent in breeding until last year and has presented promising foals this year.

DS. Chacco-Blue has proven himself at the highest level of sport and breeding. In the top sport he is represented by successful horses such as Explosion W, Chaccomo and Crazy Quick.
