

VILLAGE HALL

The Port Isaac Week Barbeque with the superb Joe's Jungle Band raised £445 for both the Gig and Village Hall funds. Many thanks to everyone who helped, both on the night and behind the scenes, with special thanks to Jon and Chrissie Coshall for staging the event in their garden. The Annual Raft Race attracted a large crowd and we were surprised and delighted to discover on the day, 'the dance troupe someone was bringing' was the well-known 'Cam Kernwyk'. Their programme of music and dance made a wonderful start to the afternoon and later on they performed again on the beach. 11 rafts entered the race, which this year had the additional element of negotiating a course around numerous boats and their wake. Despite the obstacles, most of the rafts finished the race, which was won by 'Bugalugs'. The fancy dress was won by Hayes and Hingley and the best constructed boat by the Port Gaverne Hotel. Thanks to all our stall-holders and helpers and to Barry and friends for the Barbeque. We are pleased to announce that the new heating system has been fitted in the Hall in the form of Instant Electric Heaters, in both the main hall (9) and the meeting room (2). All are individually switched for flexibility and economy. The Hire charges for the hall have been increased by £1 a session from 1st. September. Full details in the next Trio.

Lin Holmes.

PORT ISAAC FOOTBALL CLUB

The club were very sad to hear of the death of Alf Guard. As you will know, he was a very active and supportive member of our committee and was the club treasurer till last season. He will be greatly missed by us. Our thoughts are with Sylvia and family at this time. The team have got off to a fairly good start with a few very good wins under their belts. With injured players returning, we can only improve our position in the League. For our Bingo dates see the 'Diary' page. Entry and refreshments free.

R. Berman.

LOCAL FOOTPATH SURVEY

At the meeting on 18th. September, all the paths were classified and during the next five weeks volunteers will walk them and prepare detailed reports. If you would like to help, ring me at home 880474, or at work 880292. Robin Penna.

FLORAL DANCE

For the Port Isaac Week attractions, a number of children rehearsed the steps for the Cornish Floral Dance which they performed with the St. Breward Band one Thursday evening. Imagine their surprise to be asked to perform the same for the 'Challenge Anneka' programme on the Saturday evening in Wadebridge. The programme should be televised within the next ten weeks. Anne Collins.

PORT ISAAC C.P. SCHOOL

Mrs. Nute is studying The Victorians with Class 1 and would be grateful for any artefacts, etc. that might be loaned to the school. Similarly does anyone have relatives who remember their parents recalling life at that time, who might be willing to talk with the children? PLEASE...would anyone help make a lot of football crazy people in this school happy and offer to help with practice and matches? You will be well rewarded with enormous enthusiasm and energy from the children.

Many, many thanks must go to all who helped make the Donkey Derby such a success and boosting the schools funds. A fantastic effort.

Jane Scown, Headteacher.

ALFRED JOHN GUARD

The death occurred suddenly on August 27th. at his home, The Lawns Inn, of Alfred Guard, aged 57. Mr. Guard was a Londoner and was in the licenced trade for 12 years. He came to reside in Port Isaac 4 years ago. The funeral was at the Glynn Valley Crematorium on September 2nd and was attended by many of his friends and neighbours. His friend Taff Humphries read a personal tribute to him at the service. We express our sympathy to his widow and family in their bereavement.

Alf's widow Sylvia and her family would like to express their thanks to Ian Honey, funeral director, for his kindness in their sad loss. They would also like to express their thanks for all the floral tributes, and to all the people who attended the service at Glynn Valley Crematorium.

PAULINE EASTER

Port Isaac was sad to hear of the sudden death of Pauline, of Cloam Cottage, Fore Street, on the 30th August. She will be greatly missed by her many friends in the village. Our love and thoughts go to Bert and Russell. This poem was written and recited by a friend at her funeral.

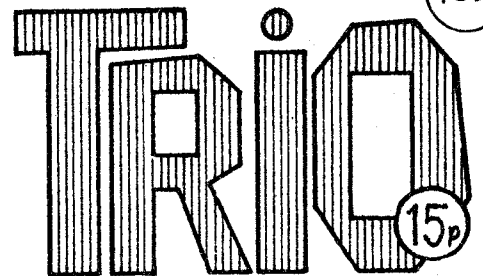

Pauline

How can I in my brief and halting verse
Capture the essence of the friend we mourn?
I'll learn from her, and turn to homely things
And stitch, in words, a patchwork
Of the things she made
- and those that gave her joy.

The pattern, pebbles and slabs,
of a garden path;

Tiny treasure boxes, made from fragile eggs;
A picnic, packed with love,
to share with her young son;
Water crowfoot on Wellingditch pond;
Fritillaries in an old orchard;
China plates, mended by deft fingers -
And not only plates, but people too;
The letters of the printed page, made plain
To those who could not read before;
A Cornish cottage, by the wide sea.

To this first row of patchwork images
You each will add your own,
So that our memories will make a radiant quilt.
That, when your heart is sad,
Draw close the lovely thing about you,
And smile, and in its warmth, be glad.
And when we hear the ancient admonition,
'Let your light so shine before men,
That they may glorify your Father in heaven,'
We cannot say, 'We do not understand'.

ST. BREWARD BAND

Darker and colder evenings inevitably and regrettably bring to a close another wonderful Summer Season in the Village. Many new friends have been made and the new cassette sold like 'hot cakes' taking the Port Isaac sounds all over the country. Our sincere thanks to the Harbour Commissioners and the Fisherman, the Beach Park Attendant, David and Mrs. Castle, the Wheelhouse, Slipway Hotel, the Golden Lion, the Lawns, the police, Mr. Hooper and the Stewards of the Chapel who came to our rescue on two wet evenings and to everyone who displayed posters and who in any way helped to make the Season so successful. Unfortunately, Mrs. Peggy Richards, who for many years has assisted in organising our visits has been 'laid-up', best wishes for a speedy recovery and we missed you on the 'last nite'. The young Floral dancers were very much appreciated. Well done to the organisers! It was good to assist with the revived Carnival and hope it was a success. For the first time we were relegated to the Chapel for Lifeboat Larks, but only for the reason that our Music would have been destroyed: many of Jack Wills arrangements are un-replaceable, and not as stated in the 'Press' report that our instruments were filling with water. A bit disappointed with the 'Songs of Praise', but perhaps it will 'catch on' next year. Our usual charity visit at Christmas has been arranged, and next June is not too far away. On behalf of the band, grateful thanks to everyone.

Micky Hunt. Musical Director.

PARISH COUNCIL

A report compiled from notes taken by a member of the public during the meeting held at the Church Rooms, Port Isaac, Monday 9th. September.

Finance

With the next part of the precept due soon, it was thought feasible to transfer £200 from the high interest deposit account for this month's expenditure. £45 is to be paid for pulling up and burning ragwort on the Main and the item is to be placed in the diary for discussion in July in future.

Parking in Port Isaac

As the situation will only get worse, serious thought is to be given to the problem and the County Highways Department is to be asked to do a feasibility study to be discussed with the Parish Council.

Speeding at Trewetha

The Parish Council is to endeavour to find a solution to this problem. All suggestions to County Highways so far have met a negative response.

R.N.L.I. Boat House

A letter from the R.N.L.I. said they had no wish to go ahead with a development that was against the wishes of the village. If more room could be found at the present site plus a direct launch to the beach, they would negotiate with N.C.D.C. for better leasing terms.

The lean-to shed is listed so no development will take place until full investigations are complete. A letter from the County Architect stressed that the loss of the shed would be unfortunate as it formed an integral part of the scene.

Mr. Stokes moved that no more discussion of the subject should take place until further planning applications were received.

Notice Board - Port Isaac Area Map

Tenders are to be sought for updating the map to include Hillson Close, the Doctors' Surgery, etc.

Dogs on Port Gaverne Beach

There are sometimes many dogs running loose on the beach where children are playing and the National Trust is to be asked for permission to erect a sign during the summer months: 'Dogs welcome but must be kept on a lead' or words to that effect.

Possible Planning Violations

A letter from Mr. Castle said that a Portacabin at the Coastguard Cottages, a caravan at the rear of 8 Tintagel Terrace, and a sign 'Archer Farm' on the B3267 appeared to violate planning rules. Although each case was thought to be in order, the Planning Department is to be asked to verify.

Damage to Car Park Notice Board

A local person is thought to have been responsible for the damage but the witness could not be absolutely sure. Tenders for the repair are to be sought, including a plywood sheet inserted at the back to increase the strength. Mr. Stokes said notices for functions outside the village should not be allowed.

Mill Path Clearance

Following complaints from the postman, Mark Dawe is to be asked to clear the path again, there would be no time to ask for tenders.

Gun and Surrounding Area at Harbour

Mr. Stokes said the gun is a good memorial but other councillors said 'not in that corner'. The planning situation is that Mr. N. Andrews should supply full details to the Planning Department who would seek advice on the necessity for planning permission. Mr. Phelps said that the adjoining shed was more important, where cut Delabole slate, a modern door, and white plastic guttering were not in keeping with a listed building. Mr. Dawe said it was yet another example of erosion of the appearance of the Conservation Area. Mr. Provis asked why less fuss was being made about the gun than about the lifeboat house. It was decided to ask the Planning Department to send an inspector to look at the whole area, including the gun.

Clerk's Report and Correspondence

Mrs. Powell pointed out that a lot of items were included under this heading as they arrived after the cut-off date for the agenda - the Monday prior to the meeting.

a. Mr. Phelps pointed out that no trees had been re-planted where many had been removed at the new lay-by verges on the B3267.
b. The November meeting will be on the third Monday due to the absence of the Clerk on the usual date.
c. A serious water problem had occurred at the weekend resulting in burnt mouths but, although S.W.W.A. were aware of this 24 hours earlier, no warning was issued. The problem is said to be caused by rotting vegetation at Lower Moor creating phenol mixing with chlorine to form something like TCP. S.W.W.A. said the quality of the water was within 'acceptable limits'. Mr. Phelps said the water was undrinkable. What would be considered 'unacceptable'? To be discussed next month.
d. The John Lawson small Family Circus, whose big top seating 200 people only occupies the space of half a football pitch, and with no caged animals, are seeking a site in the Parish for two or three days in 1992-93. The application will be discussed next month.

e. A notice of a Seminar on Planning was received, but some Councillors felt it would be a waste of time while the present Chairman of the Planning Committee, Harvey Lander, was in favour of en bloc decisions in line with Planning Officers' recommendations. Mr. Philp will attend, however, as the information could be useful in the future.

f. Mrs. Powell has a list of sub Post Offices capable of handling motor vehicle taxation.

g. A letter from St. Endellion Parochial Church Council thanked the Parish Council for participating in their Flower Festival.

h. Mr. Harper, of 30 New Road, felt that neighbours of no 38 had been taken in by the Planning Department and didn't realise the size of the new building. Was this to be the standard of new development in Port Isaac? Mr. Stokes said it was an absolute monstrosity of an eyesore and dominated the village. The Planning Department are to be asked for reassurance that the development is in accordance with the plans.

i. Mr. A'Court of Trelights has supplied photographic evidence relating to St. Endellion Lane. This will be discussed next month.

j. County Highways are to fill in the pot-holes in the coast path at Port Isaac, and a grant-aided scheme will be used to improve the area at the granite steps. They stressed that they are prepared to do remedial work to the footpath only.

k. The hand rail on the steps off Rose Hill will be repaired.

l. Work in front of the telephone exchange has been completed but a letter is to be sent requesting the narrow section of footway is widened to enable push chairs and invalid chairs to use it. The road is also to be resurfaced.

m. Notice was given of the Public Footpath Meeting on September 18th.

Planning Applications

Revised plans for the change of use of Carpenter's Workshop to Dwelling, Ian Honey, received support.

An application to erect a garage for Mr. and Mrs. Maberly at Trefreock Farm also received support.

No objections were made to an application by Dr. Hewitt and Partners, Wadebridge, to dispense medicines at their surgery.

Public Discussion

Mr. Bell of 3 Coastguard cottages, a chartered surveyor and town planning consultant, said the Portacabin was an approved development and requested that Mr. Castle withdraw any allegations. It was decided, however, that none had been made. Miss Doris Hambly was surprised that no reference to various incidents had been made at a site meeting to discuss speeding at Trelights and said she would write a letter to the Parish Council.

[We apologise for an error in last month's 'Public Discussion' - it was Miss Doris Hambly of Trewetha Cottage who reported episodes of damage to property by speeding traffic at Trewetha Corner, not Mrs. Gwen Hambly of Roseleigh.] Mr. Corrigan said that a temporary one-way system was used at Dobwalls. Perhaps such a scheme could be used in Port Isaac in the summer only.

Next Meeting

The next monthly meeting of the Parish Council will be held on Monday 14th. October at 7.30pm. in the Chapel Room, Trelights.

A.R.C. (Arthritis and Rheumatism Council for Research.) It is said that few people go through life without suffering from rheumatism/arthritis. Perhaps most of us who only have comparatively little pain, tend to shrug it off and call it one of the undeniable aches and pains of advancing years! Others though, and some from early childhood, have suffered intensely from the pain of this condition and bless the many remedial treatments now available. To increase research and help hospitals specialising in this care, (such as the Rheumatology unit at Treliiske), the A.R.C. was formed, and I would ask all who have any experience of arthritis to rally round in a big effort to raise funds for this charity.

There will be a Coffee Morning at Gwel Arvor, Tintagel Terrace, on Wednesday 9th. October from 10.30am. when there will be Christmas cards, birthday, and get well cards, as well as calendars, etc. on sale or to order. We shall also have a cake stall and bring-and-buy stall. Your help in stocking these stalls will be greatly appreciated. (No jumble please, but good-as-new shoes, particularly children's, would be gratefully received for the next shipment to Rumania). Please take this as a personal invitation to all Trio readers to come to our Coffee Morning and to help in any way they can. So again, if you can help in any way, please contact us telephone 880404

RNLI
 A windsurfer was rescued on the evening of Wed. 21st. August. Crew members A. Walton, R. Hambly and S. Hudspith picked up Paul Jeffries, a Bodmin man, near the Doom Bar and took him ashore at Daymer Bay. On Monday 26th. August, crew members A. Walton, C. Scott, and S. Taylor rescued two holidaymakers who were in difficulties in a small inflatable craft off Polzeath. Late on Thursday night, 29th. August, the lifeboat was launched to assist in the search for a woman reported missing near Boscastle. N. Andrews, J. Coshall and J. Collins searched for some two and a half hours, but nothing was found. On Friday 30th. August, while nearby on exercise, crew members A. Walton, R. Hambly and G. Hingley were called to Penhallic Point, where an angler was reported to have fallen into the sea. A long search, made in conjunction with HM Coastguard and a helicopter from RNAS Culdrose, was unsuccessful. A further search took place at first light, and more searches were made later, but without result. It was later reported that the body of the missing man was recovered from the sea north of Boscastle. On Saturday 31st. August three swimmers, reported overdue while attempting to swim from Trebarwith to Tintagel, were found and rescued by crew members N. Andrews, A. Walton and J. Collins. On Monday night 9th. September the lifeboat was launched to stand by while Port Isaac Coastguard Cliff Rescue team took a casualty up the cliff face at Barrett's Zawn. Crew members M. Daly, J. Coshall and C. Scott were able to assist by lighting the scene.

The 'Island Fling' expedition led by Mark Somers, which spent 24 hours on Newland, in the Camel estuary, have presented Port Isaac RNLI with a cheque for £1600.27. The Coffee Morning at Copper Beeches, St. Kew, raised a total of £153.

On Sunday 15th. September, George Moth was taken to the Golden Lion by David and Kathleen Castle for a quiet lunch. When they arrived, the unsuspecting guest found the Bistro full of Crew and Committee members, who helped him celebrate his 90th. birthday. John Scott.

GEORGE MOTH'S 90th. BIRTHDAY
 George Moth's birthday on Saturday 14th. September was the occasion for celebration. In the morning we heard a special greeting on Radio Cornwall from Ted Gundry. In fact, Ted, together with Tamsin Thomas, was at the Golden Lion in the company of lifeboat crew members and their wives who sang 'Happy Birthday' to George. Later, George held a lunch for his family and friends at The Longcross Hotel. A warm welcome and a fine meal were provided by Roger and Jan Warrillow, and at the end of the lunch, Freddie Ross arrived in his capacity as President of Wadebridge and District Licensed Victuallers Association, and presented George, who is their Treasurer and Secretary of almost 30 years standing, with an engraved tankard.

Through the good offices of Trio, I wish to thank all my friends who sent me greetings, birthday cards, etc. on the occasion of my 90th birthday. Thanks also to the crew members and their ladies for that most marvellous Lunch reception held at the Golden Lion on Sunday. It was a complete surprise as I thought I was going out to lunch with Kathleen and David Castle. For once in my long life I was completely overwhelmed, especially when Mr. & Mrs. Nigel Andrew's little maid presented me with a book relating to 'J' Class yachts and the America's Cup, which had so much to do with my life way back in the 30's. Thanking you one and all for making a very ancient man so happy. Yours most sincerely. George Moth.

PORT ISAAC LIFEBOAT HOUSE

First of all, I do not agree with anyone altering the structure of the old village, let alone the R.N.L.I., which has bought a 'new' lifeboat house (what was wrong with the old one?). It is part of the oldest historic building in Port Isaac. Once the 'firm' has put its wedge in via new roof, what next? A new slipway on the beach? or will they dig up and alter part of the Platt? the centre of Port Isaac. Already the people of the village have given up part of the beach for car parking, will the lifeboat now have the right to the other half? I have, and always will, support the lifeboat. Port Isaac is known as the 'gem' of Cornwall and if we let everyone and anyone (that means we who live in this lovely old village too) chip away at the 'gem' soon that brilliant and lovely structure will be gone, for us or any future generation. So, Port Isaac people, unite and keep your village as it is: beautiful and loved by all who come. Olive Strout.

THE NEW LIFEBOAT HOUSE

Controversy surrounds the proposed provision of the above. May I make a few observations regarding this matter. Since 1967 the lifeboat has been housed in rented sub-standard accommodation, unworthy of those who risk their lives and respond so willingly to the 'call of the maroons'. The RNLI, having purchased the proposed site, contrary to some reports, have conceded that the proposed building should blend as far as possible, with its surroundings, even to the extent of obtaining a second unbiased architect's opinion, and intending to utilise Delabole slate to 'blend'. The pitch of the roof has to be 35 degrees to ensure weather-proofing. Given a purpose built 'station', this can only enhance the efficiency of the dedicated crew members, and after a winter or two of storms, the new building will weather into its' surroundings, and improve the appearance of the harbour, replacing the present ugly building. I am certain that the support given to the RNLI locally will be maintained. None of the local supporters is so petty-minded as to allow this issue to affect their generous support. I believe that the first time the inshore boat rendered assistance, was to Charlie Rowe, who was drifting out to sea, having suffered engine failure, added to broken rowlocks, in his punt. Since then, unstintingly, the crew and supporters have rendered sterling service. They deserve a purpose built 'house' and continued support. Arthur Jordan.

GOLDEN CIRCLE

The Golden Circle have received a legacy from the late Mrs. Grace Cotton to be used for a meal in remembrance of her happy times as a founder member of the club. Accordingly, the Golden Circle will have a Memorial Luncheon at the Castle Rock Hotel, Wednesday 30th. October, 12.30 for 1.00pm. The Bingo Evening to raise funds for the Christmas Outing will be Tuesday 19th. November at the Church Hall, 7.00 for 7.30pm. A poppy wreath from the club will be laid at the Memorial on Remembrance Sunday. S. Jarvis.

ST. ENDELLION CHURCH

Flower Festival A very well organised Flower Festival based on the theme of 'Favourite Hymns' attracted nearly 1,000 people to the church and raised £1,500 for funds. Many people from a wide area helped with flower arrangements, acted as stewards, and manned stalls. Organists kindly played suitable music during the three day Festival which ended with Songs of Praise conducted by Revd. Preb. Jim Vincent, of St. Michael's, Bude. Friends of St. Endellion The sung eucharist, choral evensong, and annual meeting took place during the August bank holiday weekend. The Rt. Revd. Michael ball, Bishop of Truro who spoke after the annual meeting about the work of a bishop, Revd. Prebs. Kenneth Noakes, Timothy Gouldstone, H. Miles Brown and Hugh Fryer.

City Kids In August, children from the inner city of Plymouth stayed with host families in the area as part of the Truro Diocesan City Kids Holiday Venture, and enjoyed a week of sunshine on the beaches and in the countryside of North Cornwall. The youngsters visited a theme park and a leisure farm, went on a fishing trip from Port Isaac, enjoyed a farm visit and barbecue at the Mill, watched a Donkey Derby, the Raft Race at Port Gaverne as well as surfing at Polzeath, and shared in a family service at St. Peter's. Servers from St. Endellion attended an ecumenical service in St. John's

Michael Bartlett as Rector of St. Kew, St. Peter's, and St. Endellion, and his installation as Prebendary of the Collegiate Church of St. Endellion. Rt. Revd. Michael Ball, Bishop of Truro instituted Fr. Bartlett; The Ven. Rodney Whiteman performed the induction, and Revd. Preb. Kenneth Noakes installed him as Prebendary. The Gun With The 4 Inches Bore

She ploughed through the Bay,
that September day,
In the war that was meant to end war.
From Brest thro' to Barry,
our stern 'Milly' carried,
A gun with a four inches bore.

She ran out of luck, as a torpedo struck,
And blew up with an almighty roar;
The gallant old tub, was sunk by a sub,
With her gun with the four inches bore.

Brave men died that day, and Endellion's clay,
Holds their mortal remains evermore.
Let's remember with pride,
the day that they died
With the gun with the four inches bore.

She lay on the bed, protecting her dead
Five miles from Port Isaac's shore;
Just one more statistic, her only ballistic
A gun with a four inches bore.

Seven decades went by,
some lads said they'd try,
To bring the old ordnance ashore;
Toiling deep under waves,
they raised from its grave
The gun with the four inches bore.

Free at last, and afloat, a fisherman's boat
Laid it gently on Port Isaac's floor;
Set up, she stands guard, in bloody bones yard,
The gun with the four inches bore.

She points to the bay, silent today,
Like her shipmates, who went long before.
Whisper a prayer, for those who were there
With the gun with the four inches bore.

Eric Stokes.

PORT ISAAC WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The meeting on September 12th in the Church Rooms was presided over by the President, Mrs. M. Hoskin. Reports were read regarding the two Open Days held during the summer. The first July 7th in the Church Rooms and the second August 7th in the Penhaligon Room. We welcomed a new member, Mrs. Anne Steer, and a visitor. After the business was over, we enjoyed an amusing, informative talk on D.I.Y. cosmetics, by Mrs. Wood of Stratton. The raffle winner was Mrs. A. Steer, and the Flower of the Month Competition was won by Mrs. N. Oliver. Arrangements were made for a delegate and a visitor to attend the Autumn Council meeting on October 21st at the Hendra Holiday Park, Newquay. A very enjoyable meeting ended with the singing of the National Anthem.
Margaret Hoskin.

HARVEST FESTIVAL

Another successful Harvest Festival was held on Friday 6th. September. at Longcross Hotel. The proceeds going to the Air Ambulance, Senior Citizens, and the Handicapped. The total raised, including the raffle, was £1,350. I would like to thank Fr. Wainwright, Garfield Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Warrillow, and all the helpers.

GARDEN SOCIETY

The fifth Autumn Show of the Port Isaac and District Garden Society, organised by Mr. Phil Phillips, was held on Saturday 14th. September. There were 184 entries, 58 more than last year. Mr. J. Godden judged vegetables and flowers, Mrs. Godden floral arrangements and children's section, Mr. T. Sherratt cookery section. In spite of the difficult growing season the general standard of the exhibits was thought to be good. The children's section with paintings and beautiful little gardens provided much interest to everyone. There were several entries in the cookery section, included this year by request, and it is hoped this will encourage more entries in this new section next year. Prizes were presented by Mrs. Jo Phillips: Vegetables: Mr. Joss Kendrick. Fruit: Mr. Ian Honey. Flowers: Mrs. Linda Von-Lintzgy. Floral arrangement: Mrs. Pam Obi. Children: Elin and David Fletcher (a tie). Cookery: Mrs. Janet Chadband. Cup for overall winner: Mr. Joss Kendrick. A basket of fruit was presented to Mrs. Phillips by Elin Fletcher. Thank you to all exhibitors and visitors in the afternoon, making it the most successful so far. The Society's Annual General Meeting will be: Wednesday 9th. October, Penhaligon Room, 7.30pm. and a talk 'Plants and Flowers of California' with slides: Cornish Cafe, Wednesday 13th. November, 7.30pm. Doris Hambly.

DONKEY DERBY

Another £321.27 has been given to the Primary School following the 2nd. Donkey Derby. This makes a total of £745.58. The weather was beautiful and the attractions (14 car boots, charity tables, and fairground rides) probably the best ever, but where were the vast amount of visitors and locals who attended the 1st. Derby? There were several burgers left, so, as they could not be refrozen, about 25 children enjoyed another bar-b-que the next evening. Instead of paying for their food, I asked the children to pick up all the litter they could find in the field and car park, which they all did admirably, so a big Thank You to them. Thank you also to everyone who helped to make the Derbys so successful. P.S. St. Kew Playgroup (of which I am the supervisor) made a profit of £657 at their annual Barbeque at Chapel Amble. It was nice to see several people from Port Isaac there. Thanks for your support. Carol Richards.
