

AIRDRIE STUD FOUNDER AND FORMER KENTUCKY GOVERNOR BRERETON JONES DIES AT 84

Brereton Jones | Horsephotos

by T.D. Thornton

Former Kentucky Governor and Airdrie Stud founder Brereton Jones died at age 84 on Monday.

His Sept. 18 passing was announced via social media by current Kentucky Governor Andy Beshear.

No cause of death or details about services were listed, although the current governor's posting said the Jones family would release a statement in the coming days.

Jones was governor from 1991 to 1995, and is best remembered in politics as a reformist who advocated for universal health care in Kentucky. Cont. p3

'HE WAS A REAL MAN HERE TODAY'--SF AND PARTNERS GO FOR MORE GOOD MAGIC AT KEENELAND SEPTEMBER

by Alan Carasso

On day three of the 2021 Keeneland September Sale, bloodstock agent Donato Lanni went to $775,000 for a colt from the first crop of champion Good Magic on behalf of the partnership headed up by SF Bloodstock, Starlight Racing and Madaket Stables. Reincarnate has helped put his young Hill 'n' Dale-based sire on the map with a victory in this year's GIII Sham S. and Los Alamitos Derby, and the team will be hoping that lightning strikes twice after they parted with $700,000 for the Gainesway-consigned hip 2009 during the first of two Book 4 sessions in Lexington Monday. The colt is the most expensive horse sold on day seven of the September sale since 2015.

During Monday's round of bidding, the auction house reported sales on a total of 306 horses for gross receipts of $24,681,500. The session average of $80,658 dipped by just over 8% versus last year's sale, while the median price of $65,000 represented a decrease of 3.7%. Cumulative turnover through the first seven days stood at $344,546,500, some 3.1% lower than 2022, but the average of $228,935 was effectively on par with last year while the median of $150,000 was down by 6.25%.

The September Sale runs through Saturday, Sept. 23, with daily sessions beginning at 10 a.m. ET. For full results visit www.keeneland.com. Cont. p6

He had previously served as lieutenant governor under Governor Wallace Wilkinson from 1987 to 1991.

In the Thoroughbred world, Jones will be remembered for taking a gamble in 1972 along with his wife, Libby, on transforming a farm on Old Frankfort Pike near Midway, Kentucky, into what would eventually become a well-respected, 2,500-acre bloodstock operation that has bred and/or raised 215 stakes winners, including 24 Grade 1 winners.

Jones was also a 2004 co-founder of the Kentucky Equine Education Project (KEEP), chairing that group's board of directors until 2011.

"Brereton Jones was a true champion for the horse-racing industry at all levels for decades," said Kentucky Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association president Rick Hiles, who at one time trained horses for Jones.

"Yes, he was an owner and breeder himself, but he also understood how vital the breeding and racing industries are for the economy and tourism throughout the state," Hiles said. "He was a great horseman, was great for the industry and bred and raced a lot of great horses. It was so fitting that he won the [GI] Kentucky Oaks three times-like a well-deserved lifetime achievement award that kept multiplying. He was just so friendly and respectful of everyone at the racetrack, whether they ran the track or mucked out stalls. He will be sorely missed."

Brereton Chandler Jones was born June 27, 1939 in Gallipolis, Ohio, but grew up on his family's dairy farm in Point Pleasant, West Virginia. He was one of six children born to E. Bartow Jones II, who served two terms in the West Virginia Senate, and to Nedra Wilhelm Jones.

After graduating from high school as valedictorian, he attended the University of Virginia on a football scholarship. While still in his 20s, Jones had already begun to make his mark in politics, being the youngest delegate at the time ever elected to West Virginia's lower house.

In a July 2022 profile of Airdrie on the occasion of its fiftieth anniversary, TDN's Chris McGrath captured the spirit of the early years of Brereton Jones's life in an interview with Bret Jones, Brereton's son, who now serves as Airdrie's vice president.

"As a little boy in Point Pleasant, he'd ridden his pony Trixie around the hills pretending he was Roy Rogers," Bret Jones told TDN. "He started showing, but then somebody told him about Lexington, Kentucky, and at that moment he made the decision: 'If that's where the best horses are, that's where I need to be.' So after university he decided that he needed to make some money before he could come out here and live the life he'd set his heart on."

Horsephotos

After his marriage to Elizabeth "Libby" Lloyd in 1970, the Joneses moved to Airdrie Farm, which was then part of Libby's family's estate in Woodford County, Kentucky.

"Mom's family had a farm," Bret explained in the fiftieth anniversary profile. "Not a Thoroughbred farm, an agrarian one. Dad never wanted to be viewed as someone who had just married into this, so he negotiated a 30-year lease with my mother's father and found a way to work 25 hours a day. And as he began to have some success, he was able to purchase more land on the back of investments he'd made. So that was always a great point of pride: that he'd worked for everything he had, and done it by working harder than everyone he competed with."

Bret Jones recalled that, "In the early '70s, this was a tough game to break into if you weren't a central Kentuckian. And Dad was aggressive. He would go out there, he'd put partnerships together, and he'd compete for stallions that the big farms were also after. And I'm sure there were tensions that came from that. I'm sure plenty of people said, 'Who's this West Virginian upstart that's come in here shaking things up?'"

Jones eventually added to the Airdrie land by acquiring the famed Woodburn Stud, home of the famed Lexington during his 16-year tenure as America's leading sire in the 19th century. Woodburn was also the home of five 19th Century Kentucky Derby winners.

"When so many in the industry had their struggles, in the early '90s, Airdrie had them too," Bret Jones said in the 2022 profile. "But that was when Dad brought Silver Hawk over from Europe, just a Group 3 winner, the absolute antithesis of the modern-day commercial horse: wasn't particularly attractive, wasn't particularly correct, and struggled mightily for mares. But Dad believed in him and bred his own mares to the horse. And Silver Hawk came through for him, really took off and became Dad's first major stallion."

Bret Jones admitted that trial and error played a big part in his father's shaping of Airdrie, too.

"Nothing teaches you a lesson faster than investing your own money," Bret Jones said. "I can't imagine how many mistakes he made along the way. But they were his mistakes, and they made him very good at the business he loved. Dad had tremendous trust in his instincts. There were plenty of times where he would invest in something that probably didn't make a lot of sense to other people. And those others may have been exactly right. But he was fearless. He would trust his own gut."

Bret Jones said his father had a knack for transforming horses from humble beginnings into top stallions.

"Dad would take a horse like Harlan's Holiday, whose sire Harlan didn't really have time to prove himself as a sire of sires," Bret Jones said. "Indian Charlie was by In Excess, and now you look at Upstart, only a Grade II winner on the track. Some of these perhaps weren't quite shiny enough for a more deep-pocketed farm. But there was always a belief that with the right support, they could make it. Upstart always struck us as a tremendously talented horse, so our great hope was that he was a Grade II winner with a Grade I future."

That same long-shot mindset also helped to shape Jones's political career. When he first threw his hat into the ring for lieutenant governor in 1987, one of the initial polls gave him only a 2% chance of winning.

Mottos like "If you believe you can, you can," and "No such word as can't," were mainstays in the Jones household.

Despite growing up in a household where his dad ran the state, Bret Jones recalled that "Mom and Dad did a pretty incredible job making it not seem as crazy as I'm sure it was. Though it would be hard to be in a busier profession, Dad always made time for us. He never scheduled anything for Sunday, that was always family day. And luckily the governor's mansion was about 12 minutes from the back gate of Airdrie Stud. I can't imagine the stress that he and Mom were under, balancing it all, but I never got a hint of it because of how positive they always were."

In 1992, Jones narrowly escaped death when a helicopter in which he and members of his staff were riding crashed in Shelby County after it lost one of its tail-rotor blades.

While hospitalized, Jones issued a statement in which he said he was convinced that God had spared him because He had a plan for him.

KEESEP Spending Spree Continues For Partnership

Keeneland photo

"It's hard for a stallion to be trending any better than Good Magic. The secret is out," said SF Bloodstock's Tom Ryan, expressing little surprise that hip 2009, by the sire of this year's GI Kentucky Derby winner Mage, became the focal point of Monday's activity.

Cont. p7

Darley

“At this point, when you have a stallion producing horses at that elite level, the price bracket can get to an elite range as well,” he said. “At the end of the day, you try to buy them as reasonably as possible, but it's our job to buy them.”

And buy them they have. Monday's purchase was the 20th made by the partnership, accounting for nearly $12.6 million in sales. Hip 2009 was the second-priciest of 18 of Good Magic's third-crop yearlings to sell over the course of the last week, second only to the $725,000 paid by Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, Gary Broad's Walmac Farm and Bridlewood Farm for hip 288.

Foaled three days prior to last year's Derby, hip 2009 is a son of Beauty Buzz (Bernardini), who was acquired by Walmac for $110,000 when carrying to another Smart Strike-line stallion--namely Accelerate--at the 2020 Keeneland November Sale. The colt's second dam, Orchardof the Nile (Empire Maker), is a full-sister to the late Pioneerof the Nile, sire of Triple Crown winner

American Pharoah. The success of Curlin over A.P. Indy-line mares has been well documented and hip 2009 is bred on the cross responsible for MGISW Clairiere, GISW Paris Lights and additional graded winners Point of Honor and 'TDN Rising Star' Spice Is Nice.

So just what is it that Good Magic has passed on to his progeny?

“Look, I think there's a willingness about them, there don't seem to be too many kinks in them,” said Ryan. “They seem to try, they seem to be able to stay. They're really kind of versatile horses from what we've seen so far. The fact that they ran as well as they did as 2-year-olds; Good Magic was obviously a champion 2-year-old, but you relate Good Magic more to Curlin and Smart Strike and you're thinking more of a route horse. But they've shown plenty of precocity and potentially have shown a bit more speed than we've seen from Curlin. There doesn't seem to be a limiting factor to him."

Ryan is especially taken by Good Magic's output within the context of the formidable group sires that entered stud in 2019.

"It was a tough crop to be getting off the ground in, when you think about Justify and Bolt d'Oro--those horses were really well supported and they're obviously doing very well at the moment," Ryan said. "This might be one of those golden crops of stallions with multiple standouts. We remember that Medaglia d'Oro, Candy Ride (Arg), Speighstown crop. You might think one would fall by the wayside, but they all continued on. It's kind of like Federer, Nadal and Djokovic."

Ryan wasn't the smallest bit concerned about the colt's late foaling date--and with good reason.

"He was born on the fourth of May and all I can tell you is that [future Horse of the Year] Authentic was born May 5," he said. "May foals don't trouble us at all, we're not trying to have 2-year-olds. It's all effectively about Del Mar next year and on from there. Sometimes, Del Mar even comes too soon for our horses. They'll stay here for 45-60 days, the weather here is beautiful for that and gives them time to decompress from the sale before they move on to the next stage."

Good Times Roll On For Gainesway

Gainesway's Brian Graves and SF's Tom Ryan | Keeneland

The sale of hip 2009 was another feather in the cap for the Gainesway draft, which sits atop the consignors' table through Monday's session, with 116 head sold for nearly $42.3 million.

The Gainesway braintrust, in concert with Broad, made a strategic decision to try to be a big fish in the relatively small pond of Book 4 and it paid off handsomely Monday. Cont. p9

“We knew he was a nice physical. We put him in Book 4 just to make him stand out from a pedigree perspective,” Gainesway's Brian Graves explained. “We didn't expect the end result to be as strong as it was, but in fairness, he was a very nice colt by a very up-and-coming young stallion that's had the Derby winner this year. To see a bidding war ensue on a horse like him wasn't out of the question. Some very good judges were on the horse, Mike Ryan underbidding Tom Ryan. It's a dream come true for the breeder and we were happy to be in the middle of it all.

About the colt as an individual, Graves added, “He was a well-balanced nice horse. The experts in these things are guys that send them to the races and they know what a good horse is. He's a potential stallion prospect. I'm just happy that Gary Broad at Walmac Farm is starting to have success like that, it's good for everyone.”

Not only is Gainesway the leading consignor by gross, but also by average ($364,457) (with 20 or more horses sold), and it all has Graves pinching himself a bit.

“We're elated with the sale,” he said. “You never know coming in. We thought we had a great group of horses and we've been steadily trying to increase our quality. We've been fortunate that our clients support us and give us a quality product to sell. It all starts with the clients and the horses they breed and trust us with. It's really rewarding. It's the first September sale that we've been the leading consignor of every session we've sold in and possibly for the entire sale. For me, it's a lifetime achievement and I'm really flattered to be in this position.”

Successful Session For Woods Edge

While not quite achieving the same heights as Gainesway during Monday's session, Peter O'Callaghan's Woods Edge Farm had an outstanding afternoon all the same, consigning three of the top nine sellers, each one a homebred.

Trainer Ken McPeek snapped up the most expensive of the lot, a first-crop colt by Game Winner, for $275,000, while Chris Baccari paid $260,000 for a filly by the in-form Outwork. Later in the session, Deuce Greathouse, acting as agent for Robert Masterson, went to $250,000 for a filly by the reliable Munnings.

“Lovely, strong quality horse with a lovely head and very much in the mold of a nice Candy Ride,” O'Callaghan said of the Game Winner, which was purchased in utero for $100,000 at Keeneland November in 2021. “He sold very well, we were very happy. Four different people bid on that horse over $200,000. Obviously some good judges were on him. Kenny McPeek bought him and Mike Ryan was the immediate underbidder and Saffie Joseph was over there too. Good sale, we were very happy and he'll get a good shot with Kenny.” Cont. p10

TURF PARADISE TO CLOSE OCT. 1

Turf Paradise will no longer offer live racing or simulcasting beginning Oct. 1. Jerry Simms, the owner of the Phoenix-based track, announced Monday that after 23 years of operating the race track, he is retiring to spend more time with his family.

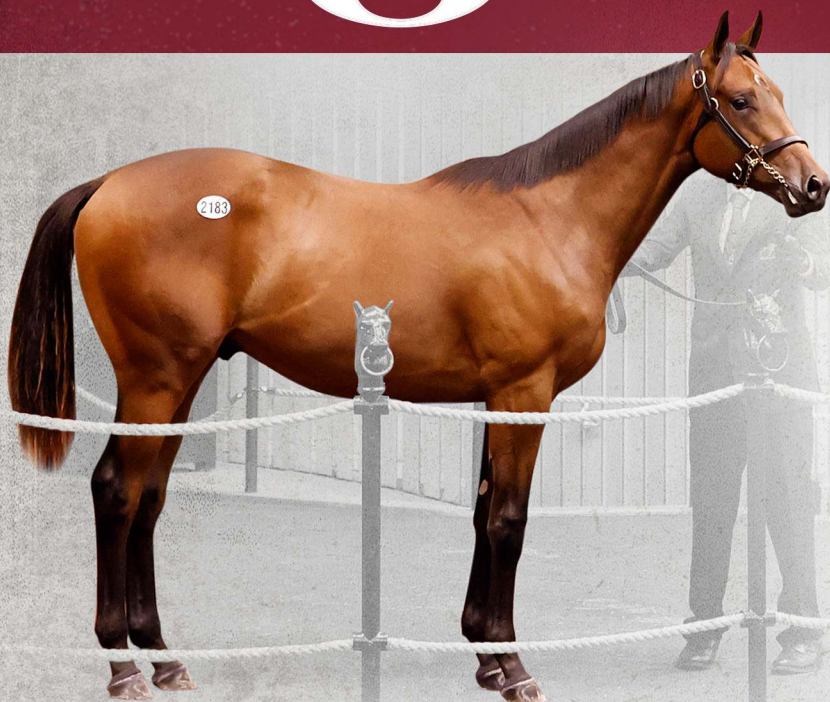

Turf Paradise also maintains 37 Off Track Betting sites throughout Arizona, which televise the live product and simulcasts from other race tracks across America for the purpose of wagering. In order for the OTB sites to operate, live racing is required. Since Turf Paradise will not be running a live race meet and the contract with the Arizona Horsemen Benevolent and Protective Association (AZHBPA) terminates Sept. 30 of this year, the OTBs will have to close effective Oct. 1.

KATIE DAVIS TO SERVE 7-DAY SUSPENSION AT START OF '24 SPA MEET by T.D. Thornton

Katie Davis | Sarah Andrew

Jockey Katie Davis will be suspended from riding the first seven days of the 2024 Saratoga Race Course season after she opted not to appeal a "careless riding" penalty handed down by the stewards. The ruling follows the disqualification of her mount on the final Saturday of this summer's meet.

According to the ruling dated Sept. 17, the infraction occurred in Saratoga's sixth race Sept. 2, a New York-bred maiden special weight over 1 1/16 miles on the turf. Davis was aboard the 52-1 first-timer Vin Santo (Vino Rosso), who got disqualified from fifth to tenth (last) for causing interference near the sixteenth pole.

The Equibase chart explained that Vin Santo "swung six wide into the stretch, was bumped by a rival outside the furlong marker, came in significantly under a right-handed crop nearing the sixteenth-pole, had the rider's right hand slip off the rein while trying to correct, slammed into a foe causing several horses to have trouble, was taken up while corrected and missed the superfecta."

Davis rode in 86 races at Saratoga this year, compiling a 7-5-9 record with earnings of $544,078.

'TDN RISING STAR' TAIBA RETIRED

Zedan Racing Stables' Taiba (Gun Runner), a three-time Grade I winner and 'TDN Rising Star', has been retired from racing and taken up residency at Spendthrift Farm, where he will begin his stud career in 2024 along with Zandon (Upstart) and Arabian Lion (Justify) as was announced Saturday.

Taiba will stand for an introductory fee of $35,000 S&N and is available for inspection by appointment.

"There are very few stallion prospects that tick all the boxes, to use the old cliché. Taiba is certainly one of those horses that possesses everything commercial breeders are looking for today, and we believe he will be wildly popular," said Spendthrift general manager Ned Toffey. "We are grateful to Mr. Zedan for the opportunity to stand such an exciting horse.

"Taiba will be afforded every resource necessary to have a successful stallion career, and we think he has a big chance to hopefully replicate some of the good fortune we've had in recent years in terms of developing young sires. We invite all breeders to make an appointment with one of our sales guys to come out and see him. He's really a stunning individual," added Toffey.

"Taiba is a special horse to us," added Amr Zedan of Zedan Racing Stables. "He is the first horse to jump from a six-furlong maiden to immediately winning the GI Santa Anita Derby. I knew he was special and that is why I insisted he make that jump. He rose to the calling like the true champion he is and made us proud."

Taiba retires with a record of 8-4-1-1 and earnings of $2,356,200.

REINCARNATE FAVORED IN PA DERBY, DRAWS POST 11

Reincarnate | Benoit

Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert will look for a record fifth victory when he sends out 3-1 morning-line favorite Reincarnate (Good Magic) in Saturday's GI betPARX Pennsylvania Derby.

"This race is going to be a good step up for him," Baffert said. "He ran really well at Los Alamitos. He is going to have to break well and show up. That's the main thing. If he shows up, I don't see why he wouldn't run well."

The field of 11 also includes 7-2 second choice Saudi Crown (Always Dreaming) for Brad Cox and FMQ Stables while Steve Asmussen will saddle 5-1 third choice Magic Tap (Tapit) for Winchell Thoroughbreds.

Rounding out the field is Scotland (Good Magic), Il Miracolo (Gun Runner), Gilmore (Twirling Candy), Dreamlike (Gun Runner), Daydreaming Boy (Goldencents), West Coast Cowboy (West Coast), Crupi (Curlin), and Modern Era (Honor Code).

HBPA: NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN HISA AND SALES COMPANIES EQUATE TO 'PREFERENTIAL TREATMENT' FOR BREEDERS

by T.D. Thornton

Two days after the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) Authority disclosed at a press conference last week that it had initiated discussions with sales companies in an attempt to bring about voluntary compliance with medication policies throughout the lifetimes of Thoroughbreds, the National Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (NHBPA) went on record with a letter filed in the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit alleging that those efforts equate to improper rulemaking by the Authority and "preferential treatment" for breeders.

The purpose of the HISA Authority's Sept. 13 press conference was to go public with a months-in-the-making report on 12 horse deaths at Churchill Downs this past spring, and also for the Authority unveil a wide-ranging "strategic response plan" to predict and halt catastrophes before they occur. According to the report, which also listed numerous other safety proposals, the goal of entering into agreements with Thoroughbred auction houses would be "to more effectively align and coordinate our respective anti-doping and medication control [ADMC] programs."

The purpose of the NHBPA's Sept. 15 legal filing, by contrast, was to let the court know that as the plaintiffs/appellants in a two-year-old lawsuit that is trying to derail HISA based on alleged constitutional violations, the NHBPA and 12 of its affiliates believed that by entering into such negotiations with sales companies, "the Authority has announced its intention to add another line to the already long list of 20-plus examples of the Authority writing the rules for the industry without going through the rulemaking process."

The two-page letter written by the NHBPA's attorney, Daniel Suhr, prefaced its legal criticisms of the Authority's discussions with sales companies by first stating that, "The NHBPA Appellants appreciate the policy goal to ensure effective ADMC standards that include breeders: as the advocate for owners of horses, they support measures that ensure full and accurate information from breeders for buyers.

"But as a legal matter, two things are obvious from the announcement," the NHBPA letter continued. "First, one section of the industry that is included in the scope of the Act is receiving preferential treatment—the breeders get to negotiate their rules through voluntary agreements while other sectors like trainers and racetracks have rules imposed upon them by Authority fiat.

"And second, once again the Authority is engaged in regulatory activity outside the rulemaking process. When the Authority enters into a 'voluntary agreement' with a breeding company, it is not required to publish or publicize the text of that agreement (or provide it if requested through FOIA), receive and consider public comment (including feedback from other affected equine constituencies), or run it by the Federal Trade Commission [FTC]," the NHBPA letter stated.

The allegations by the NHBPA were filed with oral arguments in the highly anticipated Fifth Circuit appeals case coming up soon, on Oct. 4.

A lower federal court already ruled back on May 4 that the rewritten HISA law that went into effect Dec. 29, 2022, is indeed constitutional because it fixes the problems the Fifth Circuit had identified in an earlier version of the law. The NHBPA plaintiffs are arguing for another reversal.

The points of law raised by the NHBPA's Sept. 15 letter, however, won't be considered by the court in their current format.

That's because the letter did not meet the standard for the type of filing that notifies the court of pertinent and significant findings after a party's brief has been filed, according to a docket entry made by the court clerk on Sept. 15. "Therefore, we are taking no action on this letter," the clerk stated.

If the NHBPA wants its comments on the issue to be considered, the clerk's notation continued, "A motion seeking leave to file a supplemental brief is required."

Regardless of its status, the letter was made public within the docket once the court refused to take action on it, and its contents are important to the broader world of horse racing because the objections over the sales company discussions underscore both the ongoing and newly developing rifts between the NHBPA plaintiffs and the HISA and FTC defendants.

A chief point of contention between the two parties is that the Authority has stated that it will negotiate (rather than propose and implement) ADMC rules upon sales companies because its interpretation of the law is that some young horses sold as auction aren't yet "covered horses" under HISA.

Speaking at the Sept. 13 press conference, Lisa Lazarus, HISA's chief executive officer, explained that "a horse becomes a HISA [covered] horse after it's had its first public workout, first timed workout. So some of the 2-year-old sales would certainly fall under HISA's purview. The weanlings and yearlings wouldn't."

But, Lazarus added last week, "I think we're at the point where if HISA leads the way that we should, and the way that we intend to, that we'll be able to motivate the industry to come under one kind of comprehensive, understandable, kind of ADMC approach."

The NHBPA, on the other hand, wrote in a footnote to its Sept. 15 letter that under its reading of HISA, it believes breeders do qualify as "covered persons," and that breeders as a group are included "among equine constituencies." Thus, the plaintiffs' argument goes, it's allegedly not fair for one sector of covered persons to have a say in negotiating rules while other covered persons don't.

Asked on Sept. 18 if the HISA Authority would like to comment on the NHBPA's assertions in the letter, an Authority spokesperson wrote in an email that, "The NHBPA overlooks the fact that Congress decided that Thoroughbred horses are not covered horses under the Act until their 'first timed and reported workout.' Therefore, it is necessary for the sales companies to voluntarily agree so that we could effectively align and coordinate our respective ADMC programs throughout the lifetime of a horse."

ACCOMPLISHED GIRL WIRES THE FIELD IN PRESQUE ISLE MASTERS

Accomplished Girl (Street Boss) picked the right moment to live up to her name.

In only her second start over an all-weather surface, the 3-year-old filly took a scratched-down field gate-to-wire to pick up her first graded-stakes win in the Gil Presque Isle Downs Masters S. Monday.

Not unveiled until January this year, Accomplished Girl has spent four of her five prior starts on the turf, breaking her maiden at second asking in a five-furlong sprint at Gulfstream Park. Tried in Keeneland's Limestone S., she set the pace for much of the running before facing to seventh behind 'TDN Rising Star' Love Reigns (Ire) (U S Navy Flag). A win in her only prior tapeta start at Gulfstream July 16 gave her connections confidence that the filly would handle the surface at Presque Isle but returned her to the turf when last spotted second just three weeks ago at Kentucky Downs Sept. 2.

Bet right on her morning line at 5-1, Accomplished Girl caught a flyer from the gate and was a length in front from the first few jumps. Chased by Marissa's Lady (Violence) and race favorite Loyalty (Hard Spun) up the backstretch, the Saffie Joseph Jr. trainee enjoyed an unchallenged run through a :23.30 opening quarter. Loyalty issued her bid into the far turn but never quite got alongside the leader as Accomplished Girl hugged the rail passing the quarter pole and put away a pair of closers to win safely. Midnight Stroll (Not This Time) got past Marissa's Lady for the exacta.

Accomplished Girl | Coady

“She was amazing today,” said winning jockey Edgard Zayas. “She broke out of there running. As soon as she got to the lead, her ears went up and was great the rest of the way. She kept digging in late when the fillies started to come to her. I think the easier first quarter-mile helped her late.”

Pedigree Note:

The 64th stakes winner for Darley sire Street Boss, Accomplished Girl was a $275,000 purchase out of last year's OBS April Sale by Gentry Farms and trainer Saffie Joseph, Jr. She is the second foal out of a full-sister to GI Shoemaker Mile S. winner Exalted. Dazzle is set to be represented by an unraced 2-year-old, Firm Foundation (Mineshaft), a yearling colt by Honor A.P. and a weanling Omaha Beach filly. TCA RETURNS AS TITLE SPONSOR OF THE THOROUGHBRED MAKEOVER

The TCA is returning as title sponsor of the RRP | Photographer

The Thoroughbred Charities of America (TCA) has returned as the title sponsor of the Thoroughbred Makeover and National Symposium, the Retired Racehorse Project (RRP) announced on Monday. The TCA has been a supporter of the RRP since 2012.

The Thoroughbred Makeover features trainers from across North America who have worked throughout the year to prepare recently retired Thoroughbred ex-racehorses to compete for more than $100,000 in ten equestrian sports. This year, the competition scope expanded to include recently retired broodmares exiting the breeding industry.

“The Thoroughbred Makeover has really moved the needle in aftercare by increasing the demand for and value of Thoroughbreds in their post-racing careers,” Erin Halliwell, executive director of TCA, said. “TCA is pleased to once again support this important event that has impacted the lives of thousands of Thoroughbreds.”

The Thoroughbred Makeover culminates in a four-day competition, set for Oct. 11-14 at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington, KY, and a symposium with educational, networking and social opportunities.

A full schedule of Thoroughbred Makeover events can be found on the Retired Racehorse Project's website.

FOREMAN TO DONATE OMBUDSMAN SALARY TO TAA

Alan Foreman, the recently appointed ombudsman on behalf of HISA's rules with a primary focus on the Anti-Doping and Medication Control (ADMC) Program, will donate all compensation paid to him by both groups in connection with his duties as ombudsman to the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA), according to a press release from the Horse Racing Integrity and Safety Authority.

Foreman is a leading racing law and equine attorney in the U.S. with expertise in medication, drug testing, equine safety and welfare. He is counsel to many horsemen's and racing industry organizations and was recently named by Maryland Governor Wes Moore to the newly created Maryland Thoroughbred Racetrack Operating Authority.

"I am deeply honored to join the Board of Directors at TRF," said Dr. Stowe Burke. "My lifelong passion for horses has guided my career path and I am thrilled to contribute to an organization that shares my dedication to the welfare of these magnificent animals."

TRF Executive Director Kelly Armer expressed her excitement at Dr. Burke's appointment: "Dr. Stowe's exceptional background and commitment to equine care make him a valuable addition to our board. Margins: 3HF, NO, 4. Odds: 1.20, 1.40, 5.40.

Also Ran: It's My House. Scratched: Celestial Moon, Handy Dandy.

A maiden winner in six starts for his breeder and Todd Pletcher to kick off his career, Arham won his first two starts for these connections in 2021 and was exiting a 2 1/4-length Del Mar allowance victor third off a 15-month absence Aug. 26. On the pace, but a touch wide into the first turn, the bay edged in front three furlongs from home and pulled clear late to score convincingly. Produced by a daughter of two-time Grade I winner Spun Sugar (Awesome Again), Sanaaya produced a filly by Mohaymen after selling for $5,500 at Keeneland November in 2020 and a colt by Mo Tom this season. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

GOTTSTEIN FUTURITY, $56,323, Emerald Downs, 9-17, 2yo, 1 1/16m, 1:46.77, ft.

3--General Crook, 120, g, 2, Unified--A P Pepper, by A. P. Warrior. 1ST BLACK-TYPE. O/B-Roys Mansur (KY); T-Edward J Kereluk. $6,000.

Margins: NK, 2 1/4, 3. Odds: 3.20, 5.30, 64.80.

Also Ran: Whiskey Harbor, Lapush, Parker's Fifteen, Rimrock Lake, Lonesome Boy, Digital Soldier, Well Imagine That, Allante, Chancellors Boom.

A debut fourth over five furlongs July 22, Miner League added blinkers and graduated by 3/4 of a length over the same track and trip Aug. 5. Handy to the pace going into the first turn, Miner League was checked a couple of times by Carlos Montalvo and settled three deep for the run up the backstretch. Allowed to stride into the lead on the final bend, the $35,000 KESEEP yearling pinched a break and was all out to hold off Bourbon Dancer at the wire. The winner's dam, purchased for $57,000 in foal to Runhappy at KEENOV in 2019, has a weanling colt by Cairo Prince and visited Army Mule this past breeding season. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

4th-Presque Isle Downs, $49,500, Hcp, 9-18, 3yo/up, 6f (AWT), 1:08.72, ft, 1 1/2 lengths.

CLOSETHEGAME SUGAR (g, 3, Girvin--Casual Cocktail, by Magna Graduate), a debut winner in a single start at two sprinting on the turf at Saratoga, was narrowly beaten in this track's Tom Ridge S. on his seasonal return June 5. The Brereton Jones-bred registered a 19-1 upset of the Aug. 13 Mahony S. at the Spa and was backing up quickly off a fourth in the Gil Franklin-Stamps S. at Kentucky Downs Sept. 9. Favored at 19-10 facing some seasoned synthetic sprinters, the $10,000 KESEEP acquisition led soon after the start, but was content to cede the advantage down the back and stalk from second. Asked to come after the pacesetter nearing the stretch, he was set down while racing well off the inside and finished with good energy for the victory. Surly Furious (Upstart) just nosed out Night Time (Majesticperfection) for a poignant Jones-bred trifecta. The winner's 2-year-old half-sister Status Seeker (Upstart) won her maiden at first asking at Belmont Park this past June, and in true Jones style, Casual Cocktail produced colt's by one of Airdrie's newest stallions, Preservationist, in 2022 and 2023. The mare visited Happy Saver this past season. Sales history: $10,000 Ylg '21 KESEEP. Lifetime Record: SW, 5-3-1-0, $202,050. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV. O-A Rice & Sugar Diaz LLC; B-Brereton C Jones (KY); T-A Rice.

3rd-Horseshoe Indianapolis, $38,000, Alw, 9-18, (NW3L), 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:11.83, ft, 6 1/4 lengths.

BOMBDIGGITY (f, 4, Into Mischief--Checkupfromzneckup {SP, $187,470}, by Dixie Union), named a 'TDN Rising Star' for a 6 3/4-length Fair Grounds graduation for the Steve Asmussen barn in February 2022, tried a turf sprint in her first appearance for this barn first off a nine-month absence at Saratoga July 15, but finished a tailed-off last of seven. Back to the dirt and facing decidedly softer competition here, the half-sister to fellow 'Rising Star' Carribean Caper (Speightstown), GSW, $379,195, chased three wide around the turn, collared Vow (Union Rags) in upper stretch and scampered away from her rivals in the final 100 yards. WinStar acquired the stakes-placed Checkupfromzneckup for $825,000 carrying the filly that would become Carribean Caper at the 2017 Keeneland November Sale. She is also the dam the 2-year-old colt Tornado Road (Quality Road), a $1.15-million KEESEP purchase last fall, and her yearling colt by the same sire was entered for, but withdrawn from Book 1 of this year's sale. After foaling a Curlin colt this year, she was covered by Constitution. Sales history: $600,000 Ylg '20 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 9-3-1-0, $163,151. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

ILLUSIVE STAR (f, 2, Tapit--Speedinthruthecity {MSW & MGSP, $402,751}, by City Zip) carried the biggest pedigree into this debut, being a full-sister to Speedometer, SW, $184,682; and to Nitrous, MSW & MGISP, $563,382, and was the 4-1 third choice behind 9-5 Godolphin firster Lingonberry (Kantharos). Content to lay second as the chalk showed the best early foot, Illusive Star began to zero in passing the three-eighths peg and was going clearly the better of the two at the head of the lane. Pushing on past Lingonberry with better than a furlong to race, Illusive Star kept on at one pace to score comfortably in the finish. Illusive Star's yearling full-brother was sold to Katsumi Yoshida for $500,000 during Book 2 of the ongoing Keeneland September Sale and Speedinthruthecity foaled a Tapit filly this year before being bred to Gun Runner. ## TATTS IRELAND ABUZZ AHEAD OF SEPTEMBER YEARLING SALE

Native American: big-name graduate of the sale | Racingfotos.com

RATOATH, Ireland--When Laura Joy netted what she described at the time as a "life-changing" result here last year when her 2,000gns Tasleet (GB) colt rocked into €42,000, it proved captivating to read of the young pinhooker's profit.

It was a similar story at the Goresbridge Breeze-Up Sale when the Shinnick brothers--Andy and Johnny--netted a €170,000 payday with their Make Believe (GB) filly who was now famously said to have 'looked quick going past thistles' at home.

Tattersalls Ireland has punched well above its weight in delivering the good news stories in recent years and, judging by the car parks here since Saturday, the next one could be bubbling beneath the surface.

Edmond Ryan has been in this game longer than Joy and the Shinnick brothers combined but sometimes you can't beat the old dog for the hard road and it was his Sioux Nation colt--now known as Native American (Ire)--who plundered the €300,000 Tattersalls Ireland Super Auction Sale at the Curragh.

A €12,000 foal purchase, Native American left the Weir View Stud operator in dreamland when selling to Robin O'Ryan and Richard Fahey for €75,000. It is a result the veteran operator hopes to build upon this week and, with a strong cohort of international buyers as well as the regular domestic clients in attendance, that is not a long shot. Cont. p3

SEVEN DAYS: A ST LEGER FIT FOR A KING

With a royal audience, Continuous (Jpn) became the seventh winner of the St Leger for Aidan O'Brien, relegating the King and Queen's runner Desert Hero (GB) to third, just as Pour Moi (Ire) had done in the Derby with Carlton House back in 2011 in front of the late Queen.

There were plenty of strands to an enthralling St Leger that would have made for good storylines: two of those, victory for Desert Hero with his owners present on Town Moor, or a final British Classic for Frankie Dettori, may well have propelled the dear old Classic to the front pages on Sunday. As it was, and for less obviously mainstream reasons, the win of Continuous was extremely satisfying.

His success completed a full set of British Classics for Sunday Silence as paternal grandsire, with three of his sons having provided this quintet.

It was the sort of result we all dream of in this game,” Ryan says, thinking back to selling Native American here almost 12 months to the day.

“From the day you buy them, you just hope you have found a good one. I just loved him as a foal and he stood out here last year as a yearling.

“I’m more associated with the National Hunt but I have had a lot of luck on the Flat as well and sold Urban Beat (Ire) (Red Jazz) to Johnny Murtagh a few years ago and that was another good pinhook. I’m no pedigree guru but I am very strict on conformation and it has served us well.”

He added on the buzz about the sale ground, “The footfall has been magnificent. I can’t get over how many people are here. This is a very important sale and it’s very important that the middle market is good. We’ve a good feeling ahead of this week and I’d like to think that one of mine can do it again!”

Edmond Ryan | Tattersalls

Contributing to that buzz is a stellar cast of trainers from Britain and Ireland, including Johnny Murtagh, Gavin Cromwell, Fozzy Stack and Karl Burke, who were all busy sifting through the yearlings on show. Not to mention the big agents and breeze-up men and women who jetted back from Keeneland specifically to attend this sale.

There were some unfamiliar faces, too. From Britain, Charlie and Fran Poste were in attendance, having made their first trip to this sale. As was Ed Bethell. Fellow first-time visitors include Niels Petersen from Sweden, Dubai-based Ahmad Abdulla Ali Bin Ghalita Almheiri, Polish and German buyer Marian Ziburske, the Spanish Alvaro Soto, Kriz Leram from Czech Republic and the Swiss pair of Beat Bohli and Kai Fuchs. When Tattersalls say that there is something for everyone at this sale, they really mean it, you know.

Paddy Turley hasn't been coming to Tattersalls Ireland that long but long enough to have made an impact. And a big one at that. It was the young Northern Irishman's Kingsfield Stud, based slap bang in the centre of Downpatrick racecourse, that sold Graceful Thunder (GB) (Havana Grey {GB}) for €68,000 here 12 months ago.

Turley paid just €14,000 for Graceful Thunder as a foal and she has earned her right to be one of the poster girls for this sale in winning three times for George Boughey and the Amo Racing team, including at Listed level in France.

"Graceful Thunder was the first ever foal I bought," says Turley. "It's only a new venture for me. I better give Alan Hannigan the credit because, in fairness to him, we were talking at a schooling day up north the day before the foal sales and I asked him to give me one sire to keep on side. He told me that Havana Grey was the one and, when I saw her, I liked her and I made sure to get her bought."

Paddy Turley | Tattersalls

He added, "She was good and busy here last year and Hamish Macualey bought her to go breezing with John Bourke [Hyde Park Stud]. She made a good few quid for us and then John got £90,000 at the breeze-ups so everyone was happy. She's a listed winner and was placed in a Group 3 so it's nice when it works out like that. I've an Ardad (Ire) filly who is very similar here this week. She goes well. We've a Shaman (Ire) colt as well and we're happy enough with how they are going down."

Turley's good fortune at Tattersalls Ireland does not end there. It was just a few months back when he got €80,000 at the Goresbridge Breeze-Up Sale for his homebred filly Kairyu (Ire) (Kuroshio {Aus}) who is now bound for Group 1 targets with her trainer and purchaser Michael O'Callaghan.

"Dad [Patrick] bred Kairyu and we breezed her here. She has turned out to be very lucky for Michael O'Callaghan and goes to the G1 Cheveley Park Stakes next week."

“From the first day we broke her in, she went well, so hopefully she can show what she can do at Newmarket. Dad still has the mare and she's in foal to Supremacy (Ire) so please God.”

He added, “You get well paid for a nice horse here, no matter what it's by. You can't put a saddle on a page. But Tattersalls has been very lucky for me, National Hunt and Flat. We've had great luck selling and buying out of here.”

The beauty about Turley, Joy, Ryan and the Shinnick brothers is that they are far from a minority here at Tattersalls Ireland. There is nothing dull about this place, especially when there is a raft of talented operators chasing the same bounty.

Seven Days

by Emma Berry

The most significant contributor was of course Deep Impact (Jpn), Sunday Silence's most influential offspring, but Saturday provided the chance for Heart's Cry to have a posthumous moment in the limelight, some six months after his death at the age of 22, which came two years after he was pensioned at Shadai Stallion Station in Japan. Heart's Cry, out of the dual Grade 3 winner Irish Dance (Jpn), herself a daughter of the Arc winner Tony Bin (Ire), has lived in the shadow of his more famous stud-mate Deep Impact. This is despite Heart's Cry having been the only horse to have beaten him on Japanese soil, in the G1 Arima Kinen in the year of Deep Impact's Triple Crown success. Heart's Cry was a year older, and after winning the G2 Shimbun Hai went on to run second in the Japanese Derby to another legend of the Shadai stallion ranks, King Kamehameha (Jpn).

Campaigned at three, four and five, he will doubtless be best remembered as a racehorse for his defeat of Deep Impact, but he was beaten only a nose by the English-trained raider Alkaased in the Japan Cup a month before that, and after his Christmas Day triumph went on to Nad Al Sheba, where he was the easy winner of the Dubai Sheema Classic, with Ouija Board (GB) and Alexander Goldrun (Ire) among those to have finished behind him that day.

In 2007, both he and Deep Impact retired to Shadai's imposing stallion roster, and three years later they were first and second on the first-season sires' table. By 2012, Deep Impact was champion sire, a position he is only likely to relinquish this year, four seasons after his death. Heart's Cry worked his way up the table and has never been out of the top five stallions in Japan in the last decade, with his highest placing coming in 2019 when he was once again runner-up to his old rival.

Heart's Cry at Shadai Station in 2019 | Emma Berry

In the 2,000 Guineas winner Saxon Warrior (Jpn), Oaks victrix Snowfall (Jpn) and this season's Derby, Irish Derby and Irish Champion S. winner Auguste Rodin (Jpn), we have seen Deep Impact blend well with mares by Galileo (Ire). It is fair to assume that that is where Fluff (Ire), the full-sister to Saxon Warrior's dam Maybe (Ire), was heading in 2019 in the season in which Deep Impact became incapacitated before his death in the August of that year. Heart's Cry stepped in and on Saturday, as Continuous unleashed a lethal injection of pace to cruise to make the front-running Gregory (GB) look as if he was standing still, it was easy to spot the thick silver lining to what may have once felt like a black cloud.

Natagora (Fr), the 1,000 Guineas winner of 2008 after her previous season's victory in the G1 Cheveley Park S., is the only outlier to the group. Conceived during the three seasons in which her sire Divine Light (Jpn) stood in France, she is out of the Lagardere-bred Reinamixa (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}).

Deep Impact has also been represented by three French Classic winners in Study Of Man (Ire) and Beauty Parlour (GB), both out of Storm Cat-line mares, and Fancy Blue (Ire), whose dam is a full-sister to High Chaparral (Ire) (Sadler's Wells).

Heart's Cry can't match him in the depth of his haul of Group 1 winners but he has been no slouch himself. In Australia, he has sired the Cox Plate winner Lys Gracieux (Jpn) and the Caulfield Cup winner Admire Rakti (Jpn). The latter was another to have been out of a mare by an Arc winner, this one being Helissio (Fr), who also started his stud career at Shadai.

A nice postscript in the year of Heart's Cry's demise is that his son Suave Richard (Jpn), one of his two winners of the Japan Cup, is currently leading the freshman sires' table in Japan.

What will arguably be most important to Japan on the reputational front, however, is if Heart's Cry appears as the sire of an Arc winner himself. It's a tall order to turn out a relatively lightly-raced colt again just 15 days after his St Leger triumph but it is hard not to feel that Continuous, who will need to be supplemented, has much in his favour to make an impact at Longchamp on the first Sunday of October.

The only thing that would make the Japanese fans happier on Arc day than a win for Continuous would be if the spoils went instead to Through Seven Seas (Jpn). The five-year-old mare is by Dream Journey (Jpn), a grandson of Sunday Silence, and she was last seen running the mighty Equinox (Jpn) to a neck in the G1 Takarazuka Kinen in June. Trained by Tomohito Ozeki, Through Seven Seas arrived in Chantilly on Friday and is boarding at Nicolas Clement's stable in the build-up to the Arc.

A Valued Test

While there is plenty of head-shaking at the shuffling off to National Hunt studs of St Leger winners in this part of the world (NB: this doesn't prevent Flat breeders from using their services), the picture is entirely different in Japan.

As Triple Crown winners, Deep Impact and his immensely popular young stallion son Contrail (Jpn) of course both won Japan's St Leger equivalent, the Kikuka Sho. So did Kitanon Black (Jpn), the sire of Equinox and the busiest stallion in Japan this year with 242 mares covered. So too did Orfevre (Jpn), who was beaten a neck into second in the following year's Arc, and also Epipheneia (Jpn), who went on to win the Japan Cup and sired the Fillies' Triple Crown winner Daring Tact (Jpn) in his first crop. They too remain popular members of the Shadai roster.

Another For the Late Adlerflug

Doncaster's was not the only St Leger to be run over the weekend, as the German equivalent was also staged at Dortmund on Sunday, though this, like the Irish St Leger, has in recent years been opened up to older horses.

This year's winner, the Gestut Hof Ittlingen homebred Lordano (Ger), is a four-year-old, and the son of Adlerflug (Ger) went one better than his full-brother Loft (Ger), who was second in the same race two years ago.

The most famous member of this family that has served Ittlingen so well, in international terms at least, is Lando (Ger) (Acetanango {Ger}), a full-brother to their grand-dam, Laurella (GB). At home, Lando took the scalp of Monsun (Ger) in the Deutsches Derby and in the following season's Grosser Preis von Baden. Twice named German Horse of the Year, he spread his wings to win two Group 1 races in Italy and, finally, the Japan Cup of 1995. He makes an appearance in modern-day pedigrees most usually as the damsire of the talented but subfertile Farhh (GB), who already has four young sons at stud: Far Above (Ire), King Of Change (GB), Wells Farhh Go (Ire) and Dee Ex Bee (GB).

Despite twice beating Monsun (Ger), Lando could not be held in the same regard as him as an influence at stud. In reflecting on Monsun's reign it is worth remembering that his sire Konigsstuhl (Ger) won the German Triple Crown, while his damsire, the Deutsches Derby winner Surumu (Ger), also features as the paternal grandsire of Lando.

Class will out, if only we give it a chance.

Hotter Still

As the two-year-old racing steps up a notch in Europe, it is hard not to be impressed with the start Too Darn Hot (GB) has made to his stud career. After the previous weekend's victory for his daughter Fallen Angel (GB), whose owner-breeder Steve Parkin outlined plans for his own stallion operation in Monday's TDN, Too Darn Hot was represented by another eye-catching success in the facile winner of the G2 May Hill S., Darnation (Ire), for owner-breeder Newtown Anner Stud.

Karl Burke is the trainer behind both of these fillies and he's pretty darn hot himself at the moment with a 30% strike-rate. Burke also provided Ballyhane Stud's Soldier's Call (GB) with his first group winner over the weekend in the G3 Prix Eclipse scorer Dawn Charger (Ire), as well as winning the Listed Stand Cup S. at Chester with Al Qareem (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}). At Ireland's Champions Festival, Burke had also saddled G2 Dullingham Park S. winner Flight Plan (GB) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}).

Another highly impressive juvenile performance at Doncaster came from Iberian (Ire), winner of the G2 Champagne S. for Charlie Hills. The son of Lope De Vega (Ire) was bred by Ballylinch Stud, who retained a share in him when he was bought by Johnny McKeever on his trainer's behalf, and Ballylinch now races him in partnership with Teme Valley Racing. With luck we will see this progressive colt next in the Dewhurst. Lope De Vega, whose first-crop son Belardo (Ire) won the Dewhurst in 2014 and was also bred by Ballylinch, has sired more winners (138) in Europe than any other stallion so far this year, and that haul includes 14 black-type winners.

Iberian's success capped a good 36 hours for bloodstock agent Johnny McKeever, who saw two of his in-training selections for the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott stable land group wins in Australia. Just Fine (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) won Saturday's G3 Kingston Town S. at Randwick after being bought from from last year's Horses-in-Training Sale, while Goffs London Sale purchase Military Mission (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) landed the G3 Newcastle Gold Cup.

FRANKEL'S MAXUX ANNEXES FAIRYHOUSE SUPPLEMENTAL

Maxux | racingfotos.com

By Sean Cronin

Rerouted to Fairyhouse after Saturday's card at Gowran was abandoned, Monday's G3 Denny Cordell Lavarack & Lanwades Stud Fillies S. went the way of Joseph O'Brien with Maxux (Ire) (Frankel {GB}--Chrysanthemum {Ire}, by Danehill Dancer {Ire}) defeating stablemate American Sonja (GB) (Tasleet {GB}) for a career high in an attritional renewal of the nine-furlong contest.

Maxux employed patient tactics from flagfall and settled off a solid tempo in rear for the most part. Making headway out wide once into the straight, the 10-1 chance powered to the front approaching the final furlong and was driven clear in the closing stages to hit the line with a 4 1/4-length advantage. American Sonja kept on well once subdued by Maxux and held the late bid of Village Voice (GB) (Zarak {Fr}) by a half-length for the O'Brien exacta.

Maxux, unraced as a juvenile, made a winning debut at Gowran in June, but finished last of nine in the June 28 Listed Naas Oaks Trial and lined up for this first pattern-race start coming back off a fifth in last month's Listed Michael John Kennedy Memorial at the Curragh.

"Mikey [Sheehy] said they went a good gallop and it suited her," commented O'Brien's assistant Sean Corby. "When she switches off early she seems to come home very well and it's nice to see her back to her best. She looked good first time and, since then, she hasn't run badly, but you'd probably be a small bit disappointed with her. It was nice to see her get her head back in front today and she won with plenty in hand. She's very valuable now and it's good for Alvaro [Odrizola Arzallus] as well, he's a good owner to have."

Descendants of the February-foaled chestnut's third dam, G3 Princess Margaret S. victrix Sainly Speech (Southern Halo), include three-time Group 1 heroine Highfield Princess (Fr) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) and G2 July S. victor and G1 Middle Park S. third Cardsharp (GB) (Lonhro {Aus}). ## EUROPEAN NEWS

FURTHER BAN FOR JOHN DANCE'S HORSES

Horses owned by John Dance will again be prevented from running by the British Horseracing Authority (BHA) after "further concerns" have been encountered in the ongoing investigation into the owner's business affairs by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA). Dance's WealthTek LLP was shut down by the FCA in April amid allegations of fraud. His horses, primarily trained by James Horton at Manor House Farm in Middleham, were prevented from racing until an arrangement was made by the BHA and FCA for them to return to the track to race under the banner of Dance's Coverdale Stud and the associated Titanium Racing Club. Five of the 30 runners for Coverdale Stud, trained by five different trainers, have won since that resumption, while Titanium Racing Club has had two winners among its 10 runners.

They include the Charlie Johnston-trained Sacred Angel (Ire), who was sold privately to Nurlan Bizakov prior to her victory in the G3 Princess Margaret S. The BHA released a statement on Monday which read, "Since May, the BHA has permitted runners through Mr Dance's business in the name of Coverdale Stud and Titanium Racing Club in accordance with the terms of the high court freezing order. However, further concerns have since come to light and as a result the BHA has taken interim action to stop all such runners."

Among Dance's broodmare band is the six-time Group 1 winner Laurens (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), whose offspring to date include a two-year-old Invincible Spirit (Ire) colt named First Ambition (GB) and a yearling filly by Kingman (GB). Laurens has been covered by Dubawi (Ire) in the last two seasons.

Dance has been bought out of his share in the top-class steeplechaser Bravemansgame (Fr) by his partner in the Paul Nicholls-trained eight-year-old, Bryan Drew.

Dance was also previously the sponsor of the G1 Futurity Trophy at Doncaster through his company Vertem Asset Management.

OVER €1.5M READY TO BE SPENT AT IRISH SALES THROUGH IRE INCENTIVE

Since its launch in 2021, Horse Racing Ireland's IRE Incentive program has awarded over €3,500,000 in €10,000 bonuses to the owners of Irish-bred winners of scheme races.

The IRE Incentive scheme awards a bonus of €10,000 to owners of Irish-bred winners of selected races across the Flat and National Hunt programmes in Ireland and Britain and the owners of each eligible winner--those carrying the [Ire] suffix and Foal Levy compliant--have until the end of the following year to spend their bonus on Irish-breds at Irish sales. Over 250 individual owners have won bonuses, which have so far contributed to over €10,000,000 in turnover at Irish sales, a figure expected to increase markedly in the coming months as bonus-winners return to Ireland with over €1,500,000 to spend on Irish-breds.

"We are thrilled that the IRE Incentive scheme has been achieving its aim in rewarding and encouraging investment in Irish-bred stock," ITM CEO Charles O'Neill commented. "To have such a diverse range of owners ready to reinvest as the Irish sales season gets into gear is a major boost for the Irish industry."

Irish National Stud CEO Cathal Beale commented: "The IRE Incentive is a superb and proven scheme that has generated substantial inward investment for Ireland and increased demand for our world-class Irish-bred stock at the sales. Huge credit must go to Horse Racing Ireland, backed by the Irish government, for implementing such an effective scheme. Long may it continue."

The scheme is funded by Horse Racing Ireland and managed by Irish Thoroughbred Marketing, with support from the Irish Thoroughbred Breeders' Association and the Foal Levy. A list of the IRE Incentive races and scheme terms and conditions are available on the ITM website.

Tally Ho Stud's first-crop sire Inns Of Court (Ire) had an impressive 21 winners on the board prior to Monday's Listed Ballyhane Blenheim S. and one of them Megarry (Ire) became his first black-type winner in that six-furlong Fairyhouse contest.

Inns Of Court | Zuzanna Lupa

Off the mark at the fourth attempt over this trip at The Curragh last month, the Gavin Cromwell-trained €25,000 Goffs Sportsman's graduate had finished runner-up to another of the sire's progeny in the re-opposing Lia Fail (Ire) in a Navan conditions race Sept. 2.

Away smartly from the widest draw, the 9-1 shot was kept handy by Gary Carroll and mastered the 6-5 favourite Mansa Musa (Ire) (Ten Sovereigns (Ire)) a furlong out en route to a convincing 2 1/4-length success. Lia Fail was another 1 1/4 lengths behind in third, making it a one-three for the impactful son of Invincible Spirit (Ire).

"He's only coming, this lad," Carroll said. "Inns Of Court didn't win until the very back-end himself. Every run he's been improving and he was very professional there today. I didn't make enough use of him the last day, I should have won. It was a good run, he's very honest and hopefully he'll step forward again. He'll get seven anyway, I'm not sure about a mile as he's not a slow horse."

The winner is currently the last known foal out of Highest Praise (GB) (Acclamation {GB}), a daughter of the listed scorer Yarastar (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and granddaughter of the G1 Phoenix S. runner-up Yara (Ire) (Sri Pekan).

ADDITIONAL MAIDEN WINNERS:

The winner is the first foal out of the dam, a 70,000gns Juddmonte cast-off who is a daughter of the operation's G1 1000 Guineas heroine Wince (GB) (Selkirk), a half to the G1 Yorkshire Oaks heroine and G1 St Leger runner-up Quiff (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and to the dam of the triple stakes scorer Bipartisanship (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}) who also placed in the GIII Gallorette S. and G3 Brownstown S.
